

Chapter 107

Shanna grabbed Suzi's hand, tears flowed out instantly, she shouted: "Suzi, are you finally here?"

"Mom..." Suzi couldn't cry: "Sorry mom, I have something wrong today, I'm late."

She came out of the construction site, fought with Jarod at the bus station, then walked for one stop in shock, and then got on the bus at the next stop.

In this way, she came to visit Shanna even later.

Suzi knows that Shanna's condition has deteriorated, and she wants to accompany Shanna, but she can't lose her job. No matter how hard and tiring this job is, it will be a job after all.

She is a woman who just came out of jail. The opportunity to find a job is really difficult and she can't give up. She crawled in front of Shanna and said to Shanna over and over again: "Sorry mom, sorry, sorry..."

"Mother is fine Suzi. Mom knows that you are a hard-working child. You can't lose your job. Whenever a woman has to be self-reliant, her mother's life is almost over. You don't need to delay work for your mother." Shanna I understand Suzi very well.

Suzi was crying more and more sad.

"Don't cry." Shanna raised her withered hand to wipe Suzi's tears: "Suzi, can you promise your mother one thing?"

Suzi nodded desperately: "Mum, say, don't say one thing, I will promise you even ten things."

"Qin'er..." Shanna said for a while and then panted for a while: "Mom knows that Qin'er always looks cold and inhuman. This is all caused by the environment. Before Qin'er was ten years old He was not recognized by the Fu family, but later recognized by the Fu family, but he did not have the right to inherit. Even so, he was still hunted down and excluded by the Fu family.

This is the reason why he is cold-blooded today.

In fact, Qin'er is a good man.

You warm up slowly, he will definitely be hot. "I know my mother, Arron... is very good to me." "Suzi looked at Shanna with a smile.

Shanna shook her head: "That's not what mom said. Mom is very selfish. Mom knows that you are a hard-working, good-tempered and kind-hearted child. I beg you to be selfish. No matter what happens in the future, don't let Qin Er is alone, helping her mother to take care of Qin'er for the rest of her life. His mother is worried about him... worried that he will be calculated in the future.

Suzi, seeing my mother in jail, she taught you all my housekeeping skills and taught you all the building skills. I promised my mother that she would be a companion to Qin'er forever, okay? "

"Good mother, I promise you, I will definitely promise you. Mom...Don't talk anymore, you have to rest well, you just want to rest now." Suzi looked at Shanna very distressedly.

Looking at a life, it was still so energetic just the day before yesterday. It didn't look like a disease. It was normal in all aspects. How could it be so fragile when it suddenly collapsed?

Aunt Xia's skin turned ginger.

The doctor said that this is a manifestation of the destruction of blood throughout the body and the lack of recovery.

Suzi was heartbroken to the extreme.

She didn't want Aunt Xia to die, it would be good to keep a minute longer.

She looked back at the doctor pleadingly.

It happened that the doctor was also anxious, so he said to Arron: "Master, the old lady needs to enter the sterile room immediately, and then give her the best medicine to hang, and then give her the strongest dose of anti-fever medicine, although the anti-fever medicine It will have a counterproductive effect on the resistance to cancer cells, but at least the internal organs can last for a while, otherwise the internal organs will be burned alive if the fever is more than 40 degrees."

What the doctor said is necessary.

Arron understood his mother's condition, so she and Suzi left wisely.

The deterioration of his mother's condition was very painful for Arron, but no matter how painful he was, he had to swallow it, because this was the result that he knew more than a month ago. And the huge group company affairs, as well as the eye-catching people around him who want to deal with him, also distracted him.

Arron couldn't care less for a moment.

Chapter 108

After coming out of his mother's ward, he walked towards his car. He took a big step and caught up with Suzi within a few steps. However, Arron didn't even look at Suzi, and only went over and continued towards his own. Walk by the car.

Arron is an extremely rational man.

He only believed what he saw with his own eyes and what he heard with his own ears.

Suzi did push Lanita, he did utterly rant in front of Lanita, and he did personally say that he would kill the Lin family.

Suzi didn't look at Arron more, and even when she passed by Arron's car, she never turned her head to take a look.

It was Christopher beside the car, and he couldn't help being moved when he saw Suzi.

His lips flicked several times, an inertial movement that wanted Suzi to get in the car.

Even Christopher almost shouted: "Mrs. Fu", but when he saw Arron's cold expression on his face, Christopher didn't say anything.

Christopher's heart is the same as Shanna, and he especially hopes that Suzi can be Arron's wife, but after all, he is the fourth master's assistant and personal bodyguard. No matter how much he likes Suzi, he is only loyal to Arron.

As Suzi walked away, Christopher also drove Arron out of the hospital with regret.

Knowing that Arron was in a heavy mood, Christopher watched Arron several times along the way, but he was hesitant to speak.

"If you have anything, just say it!" Arron said coldly.

"Master, the old lady's condition is getting worse and worse. From now on, there will be no dear relatives beside you. I think it's too...Miss Shen, she has a good heart. She pushed Miss Lin, but..."

Before Christopher was finished, he was stopped by Arron: "Don't be shielded by a small hand warmer that can't be smaller!" Christopher didn't dare to say anything again.

No words to send Arron back all the way.

Arron lives in a top-grade high-end community, and no one dares to take him in and out. Today, Chegang was stopped by security as soon as he entered the door.

"What's the matter?" Arron looked at the security guard displeased.

"Mr. Fu, right, here is a courier for you." The security guard eagerly handed the courier to Arron.

Express?

He never buys online, so how can he have express delivery?

I was puzzled, but I also caught it.

When the car came to a stand, the car stopped. When Arron was about to open the courier to see what happened, he was caught by Christopher: "Siye, I'll open it."

Involuntarily, Christopher tore the courier open.

He was afraid that Arron might be injured by something dangerous in the express.

As a result, I opened it and saw that it was a simple and very textured cigarette filter that fits the color of a man.

And, a beautiful postcard.

Arron had seen the beautiful and vigorous handwriting on the postcard. It was Suzi's.
