

Chapter 161

It's still easy to use mother Moira's strategy.

Her mother told her that although Suzi's life was too big, she would never kill her again and again, but she would always hurt Suzi's vitality by hurting Suzi several times. Mother asked Lanita to follow Suzi secretly all the time, and then the driver acted.

Lanita only followed Suzi for one day, and found that Joan and Sanford, two young masters Fu Jiakuo, were torn Suzi between the three people into a ball.

Emma, the picture was taken by her Lanita camera, and her eyes were too spicy.

Suzi in the video seemed to be attacked back and forth by two men at the same time.

Moreover, the two men are both the Fu family's sons and elder brothers in Yuncheng.

After the short video was shot, Lanita kept looking for a platform dedicated to playing this kind of short video, and found a total of more than a dozen of them, large and small, each with thousands of accounts and public accounts.

In just one hour, there were tens of thousands of accounts spreading this video, and this cloud city was fried.

The following are some of the comments.

Look, two famous children from the rich family in Yuncheng actually caught a woman in the middle, still in broad daylight.

That woman is so showy!

What does that woman do?

Hi! Seeing her standing in front of a small bungalow, the environment around her is also very much like a slum in the depths. What else can a woman living in that kind of place do?

Gosh! One for sale? He was able to hook up with two wealthy families at the same time.

In order to compete for the position of who is in front and who is behind, the two Kuo youngsters almost fought. Too spicy eyes?

Seeing the content of the comments that kept pouring out, Moira and Lanita's mother staggered with laughter.

Now, let's see how Suzi survives!

Even if Suzi was not drowned by Nancheng's Spit Star, he could be killed by the entire upper circle.

Sure enough, Mr. Fu was the first to take action, and even with Mr. Fu, he wanted to give her a sigh of foulness for her granddaughter-in-law who was about to pass the house.

Haha!

Lanita finally fought a beautiful turnaround this time.

She looked at Suzi provocatively, but Suzi looked at Fu Hengsheng calmly: "So what about those people? I've never met, and Mr. Shu, why should I apologize to him?"

Fu Hengsheng said in a cold voice, "Walton and my grandson Ling'er already have a marriage contract! Do you want to apologize to Mr. Shu and Galia! As for those you don't know, they also have a relationship with Ling'er. Rich boys of the same age as Aze, in order to protect you from the pervasive thing from destroying them, you must write them a letter of guarantee. From then on, you must not seduce their son and master!"

Not to mention that Suzi was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood. Even Christopher, who listened to him, felt that these people deceived people too much.

Sure enough, Suzi sneered and said: "I want me to apologize to you, don't think about it! However, I never seduce any of you because I think you guys are too dirty! In order to never have anything to do with you in the car. I will end my own life in front of you! I will die in your Fu family's ancestral home!"

I don't know when Suzi already had a bright sharp knife in her hand. After saying this, she pierced her chest fiercely.

"No!" Christopher shouted loudly.

Immediately afterwards, Arron's figure also quickly came to Suzi and squeezed Suzi's wrist.

When the knife fell to the ground, Arron hugged Suzi: "You are not dead!"

Chapter 162

Suzi looked up and saw Arron. She sneered and said, "Mr. Fu, did you mean that you asked me to come to your Fu's old house?"

Arron: "..."

This woman really doesn't know good or bad!

He asked her to come to Fu's old house, but he didn't let her come to die!

And for him, he handled the video incident from the end of the meeting yesterday, and handled it all night, until one hour ago, all the more than 10,000 video sources were cleared!

He personally supervised each number, for fear of any loopholes.

After solving the matter in the video, he didn't even drink his saliva, so he drove to the old house. As a result, he hadn't stepped into the door when he got here, and he saw Suzi stabbing himself with a dagger.

She is not afraid of death!

The man let go of Suzi, and said in a cold tone: "Let you come to solve the problem, not to let you put your blood in our Fu family, don't you want to ruin our Fu family! You think it depends on you, Are you wrong?"

Suzi: "..."

Christopher: "..."

He found that his father had spoken more than before since he knew Suzi. Before, he couldn't say ten words a day, but now, his father said more in three minutes than the previous day.

Besides, why did the Lord become a poisonous tongue?

It seemed that he was only venomous with Suzi, and when he changed to another person, he became the same old man again.

Arron looked at the elders and guests present, and said blankly: "People, I have invited you. You have grudges and grievances, but I don't want things that do not exist in my Fu Jiazuo. It happened in the house! Otherwise, people would say that my Fu family bullied a weak woman, and my Arron's face wouldn't let go!"

When it comes to this, Arron is equal to disregarding the face of his own grandfather! However, my grandfather is really afraid of this grandson.

My grandfather didn't dare to say anything, other people naturally didn't dare to say anything.

Arron handed the knife in Suzi's hand to Christopher, and then grabbed Suzi's wrist with a gloomy expression to see if she had cut herself with the knife.

There was a throbbing in Suzi's heart.

On the surface it is cold.

At this time, Lanita, who was sitting next to Fu Hengsheng, suddenly uttered 'Ouch.'

Arron immediately looked at Lanita.

Lanita's small face suddenly formed a small ball: "Hey, I... I feel a little uncomfortable in my lower abdomen. Well, grandpa, I'm pregnant now. It's really not suitable for watching this kind of beating, killing, killing and self-harming. Grandpa, I don't need Suzi to apologize to me. I just want the child in my stomach to be safe. Grandpa, I'm going back first."

Lanita's obedient appearance really pleases Fu Hengsheng.

Fu Hengsheng nodded: "Yeah."

Lanita got up and came next to Arron: "Brother Arron, I first...Oh, it hurts..."

As she said, she tilted her body and fell on Arron's body.

Arron hugged Lanita casually: "Where does it hurt? What kind of pain? If you don't lie down at home, what are you doing out?"

Lanita looked up and looked at Arron in a weak tone: "Brother Arron, it's okay. The doctor said that the fetus is very stable. As for lower abdomen pain, sometimes as the fetus grows up, the belly will be stretched open. It's just comfortable, I'm fine, I won't delay your talk about business, I went back to Brother Arron, uh...I'm a little dizzy."

She was still crooked on Arron's body.

Suzi couldn't help but sneer at that frail appearance.

Arron hugged Lanita with both arms, and helped her to sit down in a chair, and said in a warm voice: "You sit down first, there will be no more fighting and killing scenes here. When I finish handling here, I will send you to you. Go back."
