

Chapter 173

Suzi looked at Lanita blankly. She didn't speak, her eyes were a little lost, like a fool.

Lanita looked happy, she wanted to stimulate Suzi even more: "Because you openly offended the whole upper circle in Fu's house yesterday, you openly offended my husband Arron, you smashed your own phone. , You definitely tell everyone that you will never return to Yuncheng again, and you will never have any contact with Arron again.

You just swore an oath yesterday, Suzi.

If you go to my husband again today, guess what my husband will think of you.

Oh, with my husband's fierce temper, I guess he will kick you up.

No, my husband will kick your belly.

Oops, it's so wonderful.

Hehe..."

The more Lanita thought about this strategy, the more clever she became.

After much deliberation, the most intelligent and shrewd person in the world is still his mother Moira.

Moira came up with this count, even Dad didn't know it.

Moira said to Lanita: "If you want to completely get rid of Suzi, you need to take a slant sword, and you have to go dangerously. We just want to tell Suzi the truth of the matter and tell her that she has talent in her stomach. It is really Arron's child."

Lanita was shocked when she heard her mother's strategy at the time: "Mom, if this is the case, Suzi will definitely find Arron to make trouble. Aren't we all over?"

"I just want her to make trouble. Only when she is so loud can Arron hate her more and more, especially if Suzi can make trouble on your wedding day, even if Arron doesn't get angry, the old man of the Fu family has a hot temper. Suzi's belly will definitely be pierced with a walking stick. At that time, the child in Suzi's belly will turn into a pool of blood." The poisonous Moira stepped on her daughter. Lanita thinks better and better: "That's really great mother, mother you are female Zhuge."

Moira said triumphantly: "We have one last surefire solution. If Arron doesn't do anything against Suzi, if Mr. Fu doesn't do anything against Suzi, we will..."

Those words were said by Moirafu in Lanita's ears.

Lanita knew that today, Suzi couldn't escape anyway.

Since it all deserved to die, Lanita naturally had to tell Suzi the truth happily.

Seeing that Suzi, who was sitting opposite, was still indifferent, with a gray face, just like a fool, Lanita was a little disappointed in her heart, and she didn't have the crazy and crazy appearance of Suzi that she wanted to see.

Suzi has become so dumb and dumb, it's so dull!

"Suzi, I still have a big secret to tell you, it's about..." Before she said what she said, the phone rang here, and Lanita picked up the phone impatiently. :

"Hello?"

At the other end, Jarod called: "Lanita! Today is the day you married Arron, where did you go! Come back quickly, if you want to wear a wedding dress, you have to enter the scene right away. The Fu family is very traditional. Rich and noble, Mr. Fu is very particular about time. Where did you die? Come back to me right away!"

Jarod is getting angry!

Marriage is a top priority, and the daughter who was born early in the morning is not at home!

"Okay dad, I'm doing cosmetics. If I want to put on makeup today, of course I have to do the cosmetics first." Lanita perfunctorily: "I'll be back soon."

After closing the line, when Lanita was trying to tell Suzi something, she saw that there was no one on the other side.

Suzi was walking out of the shop like a corpse. Lanita was about to stop Suzi. She lowered her head to see that the bracelet box on the dining table was still there, and she opened it in surprise.

After taking a look, he was stunned.

Chapter 174

There is nothing in the box.

Suzi actually lied to her!

Lanita slammed the jewelry box on the table.

The waiter came over to question Lanita: "Miss, please don't run wild in our shop!"

"I'll give you more money!" Lanita took out five hundred yuan bills and threw them on the table.

Then grabbed the bag and turned to leave.

The waiter mumbled behind him: "It's great to have money? A woman with a temper like you will never have a man to marry you in her life."

Lanita suddenly turned back and looked at the little waiter arrogantly: "Little poor and sour! Little migrant girl! You can listen to me, I am getting married today, do you know who my husband is? My husband can be crushed to death You!"

The little waiter was trembling with fright by Lanita's actions.

Lanita sneered: "My husband is Arron, the most powerful man in South City! Do you know Arron? We will get married today! You are so jealous! Let the women in South City be jealous of me. From now on, I It's Mrs. Fu!

Haha! "

Lanita violently left the soybean milk shop.

The little waiter behind him spit in resentment: "I curse you for failing the marriage today!"

Lanita didn't hear this curse.

She has already walked out of the soy milk shop and is looking around. With just a minute or two, where can Suzi go?

Don't think about driving for a while, crash and commit suicide, right? What a disappointment!

Lanita had two big secrets to tell Suzi. Before the second secret could be told to Suzi, Suzi left.

Back to the small rental house, right?

Lanita wanted to go to the slum again to see if Suzi was there, but her time was too late, she had to rush back to put on make-up immediately and be the most dazzling bride in Yuncheng.

Lanita drove on her own small sports car and left.

At the other end, Suzi, who was desperate, walked in the small alley, thinking about what Lanita had just said.

The child in her belly belongs to Arron.

It turned out to be Arron's?

I finally understood why the Lin family had persecuted her again and again. It turned out that she was afraid that she would go bad in front of Arron. It turned out that she was the woman who saved Arron's life that night and was pregnant with Arron's child.

Suzi also finally understood why every time he saw Arron treat Lanita with a cold face, he was completely bored, but Arron always insisted on marrying Lanita as his wife.

It turned out that Arron mistakenly believed that Lanita not only saved his life, but also became pregnant with his child.

Suzi remembered that she had just come out of prison. The first time she saw Arron heard Arron's voice, she felt that the voice was like the voice of the dead man she had had all night.

When I listened to Arron's voice later, Suzi didn't feel like it again, because the voice of Arron she knew was low, cold, and very deterrent. And the man's voice that night was lazy and hoarse.

Now when Suzi thinks back, they are actually one person!

And when Suzi first came to live in Arron's residence, she came out wearing a big bathrobe and was about to bump into Arron. She was afraid that she stepped on the bathrobe and fell into Arron's arms. At that moment, She clearly had a strong feeling, and Arron was that man.

At that time, Suzi thought he was cranky, thinking that he had bad thoughts about Arron.

Thinking about it now, her instinct was not wrong.
