

Chapter 177

Arron is her man, the only man in her life, the father of the child in her belly.

She couldn't let anyone take Arron away.

Especially the Lin family, especially Lanita.

Suzi's hatred is surging like never before.

At that end, Mr. Shu was always swearing, Suzi just listened, and then the phone was taken away by Darius. Darius only asked: "Suzi, where are you? I'll pick you up."

Suzi cried excitedly: "Shu Shao, you must come to pick me up, you must come. I'm at the entrance of the alley outside my rental, next to a public toilet."

"Okay, I get it!"

"You must come, I'll wait for you!" There has never been a moment when Suzi felt that she needed Darius's help too much.

After closing the line, Suzi dragged his two big snakeskin bags, hid in the self-service cash machine at the opposite bank, and closed the door.

Quietly watching the movement outside.

On that end, Darius dragged his grandfather into the study forcibly: "Grandpa! Suzi, she is very likely to be my little aunt's daughter, grandpa! You can't help her, you see, she is so much older than my little aunt. Phase!"

Darius pointed to a photo on the old man's desk.

Although the photo is old and yellowed, it is indeed similar to Suzi's six points. Elder Shu was already dizzy, and he said categorically: "She can't be your little aunt's daughter! Is your little aunt so cheap? If your little aunt is such a vain and cheap woman, she wouldn't have such a strong self-esteem. Run away from home! And I haven't come back for thirty years! There are so many people in this world who look like images, and Suzi won't be your little aunt's daughter! No!"

Darius stopped arguing with his grandfather, he opened the door and left.

"You come back to me, come back!" Elder Shu shouted furiously behind him.

However, Darius has gone far.

He didn't care about driving to the place Suzi said.

Behind him, Mr. Shu immediately called the driver from home to explain: "You copy the trail, anyway, you have to bring the woman back to me before Ah Zhen! No, I will go with you, copy the trail, and increase the speed to the maximum.!"

"I know the master." The driver responded and drove, leading Mr. Shu to the slum where Suzi was.

It was Elder Shu who arrived five minutes earlier than Darius. However, after getting out of the car, the father did not see Suzi's shadow around the public toilet. He looked around again, and he did not see where Suzi was hiding in any corner.

Old man Shu smashed the car angrily: "This woman has always been extremely cunning! I am determined not to let my grandson be fooled by her like several other men!"

As he was talking, Darius came, and seeing the old man here, Darius was furious: "Grandpa, where did you hide Suzi?"

"She doesn't dare to come out by herself!" The old man said angrily: "I want to see, I am here, she dare not come over!"

As soon as the voice fell, Suzi suddenly came out of the ATM, carrying two big snakeskin bags in his hand, and shouted as he went out: "Shu Shao, I am here, hurry up, take me to see Arron!"

Darius got on the car immediately, and the car made a sharp turn to the side of Suzi's car. Suzi got on the car and Darius loaded his luggage. In half a minute, the car left.

Darius took Suzi straight to Arron's wedding scene.

Chapter 178

"Tell me, why did you go to Arron again, what happened?"

Darius is not very familiar with Suzi, but when he first saw Suzi, he felt that the girl must have something to do with his sister-in-law.

Darius always thinks Suzi is his little cousin.

This kind of family affection made him unable to give up even if he only saw her a few times.

Darius didn't understand, why is Grandpa so confused? It's obviously blood is thicker than water. Grandpa doesn't feel it at all?

Everyone felt that Suzi had a character problem, and Grandpa felt that too.

However, Darius didn't think so, partly because of his intuition. Part of it comes from Sanford.

Therefore, Darius believed that Suzi must have her difficulties in finding Arron. He drove fast along the way, but Suzi still urged him: "Shu Shao, can you please drive faster, please?"

Darius comforted her: "Suzi, it's only nine o'clock in the morning, and Fu's wedding will be held at eleven o'clock noon. Arron won't leave. Don't worry."

Suzi shook his head: "No...I can't wait for Arron's wedding to begin, I must feel it before his wedding."

"Do you love Arron?" Darius asked.

Suzi: "..."

Love?

She didn't know.

Surviving in this circle, who can she say love to? But there is no doubt that she is the most fond of Arron, his decision to kill, his calmness, his filial piety to Aunt Xia, and his never childishness, and his sense of responsibility to Lanita, every bit, All touched Suzi's senses.

Most importantly, there is intuition. Suzi likes Arron for no reason.

Maybe it's because you admire the powerful aura on Arron's body? She didn't know.

The reason for choosing to escape Arron repeatedly and saying so decisively in the Fu's hall yesterday was because Suzi felt that she would never be able to walk with Arron in this life.

Since it's impossible, then be cruel and save yourself thinking about it again.

However, Arron is her child's father and her only man.

Suzi was excited to cry.

She must take Arron back.

"I want to fight for a love." Suzi looked at Darius firmly.

Darius: "..."

"I am an individual like you, living in the sun, should I have the right to fight for love?" Suzi asked Darius again.

Darius answered candidly: "Of course he has the right."

"Then trouble Shu Shao, drive faster!" Suzi urged.

"Okay! I'll speed up again." Darius stepped on the accelerator, and the car ran away like an arrow from the string.

Darius knew that this was impossible.

But when he saw that Suzi wanted to fight for a love without hesitation, Darius was inexplicably moved by Suzi's determination and bravery. He suddenly understood why Sanford liked Suzi.

Sanford had no money, but he was willing to borrow money from Darius to take Suzi away. He said that he had met the best girl in his life. If he didn't help this girl, Sanford would regret it for the rest of his life.

Sanford also said to Darius: "There are really not many girls who are willing to use their lives to protect a benefactor and protect a friend these days."
