

Chapter 201

After dinner, Suzi picked up a lantern to review the drawings at night, while Sanford coaxed Lilly to tell her a story. The two of them had fun with the uncle and niece. Suzi looked back from time to time and was very satisfied.

After dinner the next morning, Suzi discussed with Sanford: "I will go to the only kindergarten to go through the transfer procedures, and then find the only kindergarten. I will not get in touch with people like Fatty Song in the future. They are rich and powerful, and we can't afford to provoke them. Can always afford to hide."

Sanford nodded: "Okay."

After dinner, Suzi was about to go out, but saw two people standing outside the fence about to knock on the door.

The two men in suits and leather shoes, holding briefcases.

"Who are you looking for?" Suzi asked as he opened the door.

"Miss Shen, right?" one of them asked.

Suzi nodded.

"We are from Xinda Law Firm. Come over today to talk to you about Song Tenglong's fall injury, Mr. Song Tenglong's fall injury hospitalization, lost work expenses, nutrition expenses, all the expenses add up, Miss Shen, you have to compensate Song Mr. Five million."

Suzi: "What!"

The lawyer said blankly: "Five million!"

Suzi: "You drink human blood!"

The lawyer said in a very public manner: "Miss Shen, this matter has nothing to do with our lawyers. If you think it is unreasonable, you can hire a lawyer, or you can talk to Mr. Song in person."

"Okay, I'll go to him for an interview, five million! He is blackmail!" Suzi said angrily. The lawyer left, Suzi took out his mobile phone and called Ji Yunting: "Ji...Ji. I'm sorry..."

This is the first time Suzi has asked Ji Yunting.

After hearing Suzi talk about the situation on the phone, Ji Yunting angrily slapped the table and said: "I will go to the hospital with you to have an interview with him! Five million, I think he doesn't want to mess around in this county!"

After closing the line, Ji Yunting came quickly, and he drove Suzi to the county hospital.

Fatty Song lives in a separate ward in the hospital and is groaning. Seeing Suzi and Ji Yunting coming, Fatty Song had a provocative smile on his face.

"Ji Yunting, if you want to fight with me, you have to see if you are qualified! Since I dare to ask Suzi for five million, I am not afraid that you Ji Yunting will come to me!" Song Fatty's tone today is much harder than yesterday.

Ji Yunting + Suzi: "..."

Fatty Song was even more proud: "Ji Yunting, do you think you are a big real estate developer? Then let me tell you! A friend of mine is about to take over the development of several areas in the city, which is so rich that it is crushed to death. You! Ji Yunting! You are going to fcuk off soon, so you still have the mood to support this little lady here?"

"b!tch! Kneel me down! Take your little b!tch daughter Lilly to kneel down to me, kneel down and learn how to bark, I will ask my dad to forgive you!"

Otherwise, my dad's friends will kill you !” Song Xingchen, who was accompanying in the ward, yelled at Suzi very domineeringly.

Song Xingchen's mother and Song Fatty's wife also looked at Suzi with a full face: “Kneel down! After kneeling down and apologize, you still have to accompany us for five million yuan. If you don't have any money, you will get out of the county seat. Your house, stay!”

Suzi: “...”

Six-year-old Song Xingchen looked at Suzi triumphantly: “My father's friend is amazing. He will come to see my father in a while. If you don't kneel now, my father's friend will blow your head. !”

As soon as Song Xingchen finished speaking, a voice came from outside the ward: “Who bullied Song Xingchen? Talk to Uncle.”

Hearing this voice, Suzi was stunned. She stammered and shouted: “Fu...Arron?”

Chapter 202

Suzi's voice was so small that only she could hear it.

In fact, she just made a little noise in her throat.

Looking at the man in front of him, Suzi couldn't help tensing up. After six years, the domineering spirit on this man is heavier and more stable than it was six years ago.

The man didn't say a word, but he had an aura of no anger.

Fatty Song and his wife, who were originally very arrogant, nodded and bowed immediately when they saw Suzi coming in, very flattering.

"Fu...Mr. Fu, why did you come here in person, my...my waist is actually not, there is nothing wrong with it." Fatty Song stammered at Arron.

Fatty Song's wife didn't even dare to say anything, she just nodded in confusion.

Only their son Song Xingchen didn't see Arron at all, but shouted "Uncle Fu."

Arron replied solemnly: "Yeah."

Song Xingchen looked at Suzi and said braggingly, "Splashing goods! You see, this is my dad's new friend, the big boss from Nancheng, very powerful! If you don't let Lilly kneel down on me If you kowtow, my Uncle Fu will kill Lilly!"

The little guy is very arrogant and domineering because of his parents' ears and eyes.

"This gentleman, you are..." Ji Yunting was a little bit disbelieved. The man in front of him was the big man in Yuncheng. In just five years, the Fu family's already prosperous industry expanded by five. The current Patriarch of the Fu family, Arron, is doubled.

"Yuncheng Arron!" Arron looked at Ji Yunting coldly.

Ji Yunting couldn't help but shrink in his heart.

If Song Fatty's backing is Arron, then Suzi must be dead this time.

Ji Yunting is a big boss in the small county, but in front of Arron, he is an ant.

"Fu, President Fu..." Ji Yunting wanted to distinguish a few words for Suzi. But Arron raised his wrist again and stopped: "Mr. Ji, from now on, my Fu Group will purchase all your real estate companies."

Ji Yunting: "Why!"

"In order to integrate all the under-brand real estate companies in this small county town!" Arron didn't even look at Ji Yunting.

Ji Yunting: "..."

"Christopher!" Arron shouted.

"Yes, Fourth Master." Christopher came in from the outside. He saw Suzi as if he hadn't seen him. He only asked Arron respectfully: "What's the matter, Fourth Master?"

"Invite Mr. Ji out, my friend needs to rest." Arron said.

"Yes! Fourth Master." Christopher replied, and raised his hand to squeeze Ji Yunting's arm. Before Ji Yunting could say anything, he pushed Ji Yunting out.

Suzi, who stayed in the ward, looked stupid.

Arron looked at Suzi coldly: "Ms. Shen!"

Suzi: "..."

"Do you know what my friend's daily income is?" Arron asked.

Suzi: "..."

She didn't have the mind to ask these questions, she was full of thoughts that Arron had finally found them.

Finally found it.

She only thought about one thing now, and that was to notify Sanford immediately and let him run away with Shen Only.

However, Sanford's lower limbs were paralyzed, and the only one was only five years old.
