

Chapter 281

Even if you are already in the quagmire!

She smiled slightly: "I can still engage in architectural design now?"

"Why not? You never thought about finding a related job?" Kraig smiled.

Can she... still find a job?

Suzi shook his head sadly.

"If you don't try, how do you know you can't find a job?" Kraig said again.

Suzi bit his lip, as if hesitating.

Here Arron and Jiang Chenhe finished chatting, and went back to Suzi, raised his wrist to check the time, and then said, "It's not early..."

It's late?

Suzi's heart suddenly tightened.

It's time for them to separate. Who will Arron give her to? Is this Mr. Jun?

Mr. Jun chats with her the most.

Or Mr. Zhong with a scar on his face?

Suzi didn't know, she just lowered her head very low, as if she was a cold and careless robot.

Or zombies.

Arron put his arm around her and got up with him. Then he said, "Come here today. There are children at home, so I have to go home early."

"Goodbye, brothers and sisters, get together when you have time, let's get beauty together." Dalia warmly greeted Suzi.

The other two beauties also said in unison: "In the future, the four of us can make a table of cards." Dalia smiled: "Suzi is an architect. I will be busy with work in the future. You are a brand player. But Suzi, during the weekend, the four of us will go shopping together and have afternoon tea, right?"

After speaking, Dalia looked at Arron again: "Arron?"

Arron: "As long as she is happy." After he finished speaking, he took Suzi with one arm and said, "Farewell first."

Arron went out, and the three men and three women looked at each other behind him.

Dalia: "Who said that this is a looting enemy from thousands of miles? This is obviously a princess."

Jiang Chenhe, who has always spoken little, said: "Old Fu is serious about her?"

Kraig: "I told you all, you still don't believe it!"

Zhong Muzhan: "Then...what's the situation with that Lanita?"

Kraig sneered: "Lanita, it's probably a fart!"

Zhong Muzhan: "..."

At the other end, Arron had walked out of the box with Suzi in his arms, walked out of the reception hall, and then walked to the side of Arron's parking lot.

It wasn't until Christopher opened the car door that Suzi realized that the things she imagined didn't seem to happen.

She was brought out by Arron again.

Seeing Arron getting in the car, Suzi anxiously grabbed Arron's clothes, and yelled: "You...you won't let me accompany you...your friend? Then you let me today What are you doing with you?"

She did not understand.

So I feel uneasy.

Christopher in front of him: "...". At a speed that he could see with the naked eye, he saw a fire on the top of his father's head.

Sure enough, the man said: "Do you think you have learned to serve people!"

Chapter 282

Suzi: "..."

"Get in the car!" Arron whispered.

Suzi got in the car obediently, and because of the warm air at night, Christopher turned on the warm air, and in the narrow and narrow space in the car, Suzi's face was flushed in a short while.

She remained silent, and Arron did not speak.

Christopher in front of him looked like the emperor was not in a hurry. He peeked at Arron in his rearview mirror, his master was closing his eyes and resting.

Christopher coughed lightly: "That...madam."

Suzi looked at Christopher.

"Today... the few who recounted the past with the Fourth Master are all brothers of the Fourth Master's fate, um...better than the Fourth Master's feelings towards Master Fu." Christopher said.

"Uh..." Suzi guessed that he didn't quite understand the meaning of Christopher's words.

She was very smart six years ago.

Although she didn't talk very much at that time, she could understand everything with a single eye.

But now many times Suzi is reluctant to guess.

After six years of life and death, Sanford's legs were paralyzed, and now she was exiled abroad. She was also captured by Arron, and her daughter fell into Arron's hands.

How can she guess?

Is Arron nice to her?

In all fairness, he didn't let her perform anything in the past three days.

For example, to accompany some of her so-called guests.

Just like tonight, not only did he not let her accompany the man, he actually blocked the humiliation from Ivy for her. But what can this show?

Their circle of wealthy people, Suzi, couldn't figure it out.

Six years ago, Joan was more attentive to her than Arron now, but Joan also played with her, didn't he?

Suzi

She just needs to remember that in this upper class, she will always be just a plaything that anyone can handle.

As long as he figured this out, Suzi became more obedient.

She didn't say a word, but slowly leaned on Arron's arm.

He didn't object, still closed his eyes and rested.

In fact, he was thinking about problems.

When he first entered the clubhouse, Arron received a call from his aunt. The aunt said that the old man wanted to see Lilly.

Although the Fu family was once thriving, but now, the youngest generation of the Fu family is really the only single seedling left by Shen Tong.

Now that Fu Hengsheng, the old man of the Fu family, is seriously ill in the hospital, he first heard that Arron had traveled thousands of miles to bring the woman back. I heard that the child born to that woman was really similar to that of Arron.

Fu Hengsheng wanted to take a look at Shen Only.

And, I want to raise Lilly in the old house of the Fu family.

This is what the aunt called Arron yesterday. Arron went out to answer the phone because of Suzi's presence.

At this moment, he is still thinking about how to do this.

The car arrived at Arron's residence quietly, and Christopher turned around and said, "Master, here it is."

"Yeah." Arron replied softly. He was about to let Suzi get out of the car, but found that she was asleep. The man turned around and gently hugged Suzi out of the car and walked towards his elevator.

Christopher stared blankly behind him.
