

Chapter 283

After a while, he said to himself: "I really don't know if the wife abused the fourth master or the fourth master abused the wife. These two people are called love and abuse each other..."

Hi!

Whatever his business.

After being held by Arron and entering the elevator, Suzi wrapped his arms around his neck and muttered softly, "In fact, this is quite good."

Man: "What?"

Her cheeks were flushed because of the lack of air circulation in the small space in the car, a little bit hot, rubbing against his cold neck, quite a complementary feeling.

She feels very comfortable.

He also felt a little warmer.

"Actually, you didn't treat me so badly. You didn't ask me to accompany another man. You were also very good to the only one, and you let her go to kindergarten." She murmured, "I will be grateful to you."

Arron: "..."

I was about to put her down, pinched her and said to her fiercely: "You have known me for six years, when did you see me being so good to a woman! You said that you were silly for three years and you said that you have lost you!

My own woman and daughter, I am not good to her, who am I good to! "

However, before Arron could say this, the elevator had arrived and the door opened instantly.

At the door of the elevator, outside the door, stood a little bit.

"Wow!" Sheng Youzui opened her eyes wide as she watched the stinky villain hugging her mother, she didn't even object.

"Is my mother asleep?" Shen Only asked.

"Let me down, you quickly let me down!" Suzi heard Shen's only voice, and immediately turned his shame and flushed.

"Mom, mom, you didn't fall asleep." Lilly wanted to reach Arron's arms to see Suzi with his toes. Arron put Suzi down instantly.

"Mom, let me tell you that I was having fun in the kindergarten today. The kindergarten has a lot of fun places, which are much larger than my previous kindergarten, but mom..." After that, Lilly seemed a little bit Not happy anymore.

"What's the matter, baby?" Suzi knelt down and asked.

"Even if I don't know any of my classmates, I don't have any good friends." Lilly said with a small mouth.

"The only thing that doesn't matter, it's fine when you get acquainted with your classmates in the future, and you will have good friends." Suzi persuaded her daughter gently.

Lilly nodded: "Mom, can I bring them a delicious past when I go to kindergarten tomorrow, and share it so that I can introduce myself again."

A four-and-a-half-year-old child, as soon as she arrives in a new environment, she is not familiar with the surrounding children, and she will definitely feel very lonely.

Moreover, she really wants to blend into that environment.

For children, sharing their delicious food with classmates is the most convenient way.

However, even with such a small request, it is difficult for Suzi to fulfill it.

All the money in her body was deducted by Arron to pay off the debt, and she is now penniless.

Suzi's heart is more sorrowful, but she still gently coaxes Shen Weiyi on the surface: "Listen to me, baby, we still...have no conditions to give children gifts."

Maybe there will be no conditions in the future, but Suzi can't tell her daughter that.

Working hard to swallow that strong sense of sorrow and grief, Suzi continued: "When we have conditions in the future, mom will buy you a lot of gifts for your classmates, OK? You go to kindergarten and you don't have to share gifts with classmates. You can introduce yourself or make good friends."

"Mom, do we have no money?" Lilly has always been behaved and sensible.

Suzi nodded awkwardly.

"I know Mom, I don't need gifts." The only little hand held her mother: "Mom, don't be sad, the only one is not sad at all."

"You can share gifts with your classmates." Arron said calmly behind him.

Chapter 284

Lilly's eyes immediately flashed like small stars: "Smelly...Will you buy me a present?"

"Yes!" the man said solemnly.

He didn't communicate with the children very much, so his tone of voice was as serious as when he talked to the subordinates of the company.

Lilly didn't believe it a little bit: "Are you telling the truth?"

"I always count the words!" Arron rolled his eyes.

Until now he still called him "Smelly!"

How stinky is he!

After he finished speaking, he turned and entered the room. Yu Suzi and Lilly's wife stood outside. Lilly blinked and looked at Suzi: "Mom, did I offend the bad guy?"

Suzi was about to be defeated by a girl.

She squatted down and said softly to the girl's ear: "The only thing is, when you want a gift and he can give you a gift, you should not call him a badass, at least on the surface.

Understand! "

Lilly was happy in his heart.

In fact, she didn't want to call the bad guys all day today. The reason why she called the bad guys was to show her mother. She was afraid that her mother would be sad.

Now that his mother has said that he can not call the bad guys, Shen Zhilong is naturally happy: "I know my mother, and I will not call him bad guys. Mom, let's come in. Aunt Tian has already cooked food. I have eaten them, but if you keep coming back, I dare not sleep."

Suzi nodded: "Mom will coax you to sleep in a while."

It is already the greatest comfort for her to be able to look at my daughter more than once a day.

Arron behind him ordered Lilly: "Go to the toy room!"

Lilly was still a little afraid of Arron.

But I also felt that Arron had promised to buy her a gift for the children, and if she was disobedient, he would stop repenting.

Toy room?

Where did she come from the toy room? Not knowing where to go, Lilly was so angry that he was shouted by Sister Li: "Little princess, come here."

The only one who followed Li's wife to the door of the room that had never been opened before, the only moment Li's wife opened the door, the only person was stunned.

Then she screamed: "Wow! Wow!"

Mom!

Come and see! "

Suzi ran over quickly, staring blankly.

In just one day, the decoration in this house was dreamlike.

The walls cannot be painted in a short time, but the walls are also covered with childlike fabric stickers. The huge toy room is as large as forty to fifty square meters and contains pure solid wood children's furniture. Children's princess bed, small slide, children's building block house that can accommodate one person, children's bicycle, and colored balls.

There is also a children's simulation bus toy house.

Gosh!

Everything.

There are more toys in this toy room than the only kindergarten.

Lilly rushed into the dollhouse for a while and touched this, and then he touched that, giggling with a smile.

Not far behind, Sister Li looked at all this and couldn't help feeling that, after so many years, the young master's house had a human touch for the first time.

"Playing in the room by myself." At some unknown time, Arron came to the door and said blankly.

Lilly rolled his eyes and nodded: "Yeah."

Then he looked at Suzi: "Mom, go to dinner, don't play with me." The little thing is very smart, so you can just watch everything once.

She seemed to understand that the badass actually didn't want her to influence her mother's meal, so she let her play in the toy room alone.

Suzi nodded and turned to eat.

To be honest, after meeting with him once, she was almost like a tool man. She didn't speak and did nothing. However, it was more than nine o'clock now, and she was indeed hungry.

Sao Li first brought up a plate of delicious and delicious vegetarian food, a plate of purple cabbage with orange juice, a slice of spiced beef, and then a large bowl of pork ribs and yam soup, the pork ribs inside are all on the ribs. The muscles are connected to the flesh, soft, without losing the muscles and bones.

Looking at it makes people very appetizing.
