

Chapter 307

After laughing, she asked again: "Mom and dad, tomorrow is Sunday, can I hang out with mom and dad?"

Suzi: "... " This decision is not in her.

She coaxed Lilly softly and said: "The only one is obedient, your father is very busy at work every day, if you want to go out to play, mother will accompany you."

Lilly was not too happy, she pouted and looked at Arron.

At exactly this time, Arron's cell phone rang, and he picked it up to connect: "Hello?"

At the other end, the old man Fu Hengsheng's voice: "Qin'er! Tomorrow is Sunday. It's time for you to take a look at the old house with your precious granddaughter!"

Arron whispered: "Yes."

On the other side, the old man's immediately happy voice became a little hearty: "Then what time do you come tomorrow, I will ask the maid at home to prepare everything for her in advance, all the delicious food, everything, toys, toys I'll buy it for her in advance. I'll let the servant buy it now, and there are..."

Arron: "I will take her there tomorrow morning. I'll hang up first if it's okay."

He does not have much affection with the Fu Family House, let alone the Fu Family House, even his father does not have much affection, but after all, he inherited all of the Fu Family Group's properties, and in the future these will have to be the only ones of his daughter Shen. Of.

Seeing the aging of the old people in the old house, Arron suddenly didn't want to care about so much.

After all, they are all blood relatives.

Moreover, he has already got what he deserves. As for the regrets, the misfortune of his mother's life cannot be restored.

After closing the line, he looked at Lilly: "Tomorrow Dad will take you to see grandpa, grandpa and grandma."

Lilly: "Is that the old man defeated by me?"

Arron nodded: "If you go to the old house tomorrow, you must not be so naughty. Because you are a girl."

Lilly sighed: "Okay, then."

Arron looked at Suzi again, and was about to speak, but Suzi took the lead: "I know that is your Fu family's business, don't worry, I will not participate, I will never try to enter the Fu family's old house. Arron grabbed Suzi's hand: "Not rare, is it?"

Suzi: "..."

Is it rare?

She didn't know.

Just before the day before yesterday, she even thought that Arron used her as a selling tool to really make her pay 10 million in debt. At that time, she thought that as long as she could live, even if she sold her to a hundred thousand men, She also admits her fate!

Today, her situation has changed drastically.

However, she has always been self-aware.

She is not rare. She only thinks that Aunt Shanna is so good, but she has not been able to enter the Fu family's old house for a lifetime. Until she is dying, the Fu family recognizes Aunt Xia.

Then why does Suzi dream of such a daydream?

There are some things that I don't want to worry about.

She looked forward and said coldly: "I won't take the old road of Aunt Xia, I will never try to step into the old house of Fu's in my life."

Arron: "..."

Christopher driving in front couldn't help taking a peek at Suzi. Suzi still had an innocent and indifferent expression.

Christopher could almost foresee that Master was very angry now. The reason why Master didn't get angry was because he was afraid of scaring the little princess.

Madam! You are going to suffer!

Sure enough, this night, Shen only fell asleep, and when Suzi was about to return to his room, Arron caught him in his arms.

Suzi pressed against his chest and said shyly: "You...?"

The man coldly ordered: "Woman! Must go back to the old house with me tomorrow!"

Chapter 308

Suzi looked at Arron incomprehensibly, "Why? Did you take me to let the Fu family or admit it?"

After asking him, she smiled indifferently: "I don't think this kind of honor will fall on me. If I go, I will make a fool of myself. It's better not to go."

She said neither humble nor overbearing, but she choked Arron.

The man grabbed her hand and suddenly let go, Suzi took the opportunity to escape back to his room.

Fu's old house!

She has been there twice. The first time was when Arron took her there when she was just released from prison. The second time was the time she was called by Fu Hengsheng on the eve of her escape from Nancheng, and that time was also Suzi. All insults.

So Suzi didn't want to step into Fu's old house all his life.

She just wants to find her own job at ease.

After closing the door to the next bedroom, Suzi once again read the resumes that Arron prepared for her. To be honest, she was still very grateful to Arron for doing it for her. She planned to take these materials and resend the resume online tomorrow morning.

Early the next morning, Suzi got up very early.

She first came to the only children's room, and the only one who had a good arrangement for waking up was said: "The only one, mom tells you, my dad will take you to grandpa's dinner today. You must be good, don't cause trouble, be a sensible Little girl. Understand?"

Lilly asked Suzi innocently: "Mom, aren't you going?"

Suzi shook his head: "You know, my mother hasn't found a job since she came here. It's not just that there is a job for her to interview today. You also want her to be an independent mother, right?"

Lilly nodded: "Right mother."

"So mom can't go with you, you go with dad, you must listen to your dad."
Suzi told Lilly again and again before leaving the house with the information.

There is a computer at home, but it belongs to Arron. Suzi is not sure whether Arron will give her use of his computer. It is best for Suzi to go to the Internet cafe outside to post his resume.

After Arron got up, he saw a little man standing at the door looking up at him: "Smelly bad father, did you not let my mother go to the old house with us? My mother left early in the morning? So early!"

Arron: "... " There is a feeling that he is more willing to be wronged than Dou E.

He said coldly: "Your mother can't do Fu! So she doesn't have to go to Fu's old house."

Lilly was even more puzzled: "I don't have the surname Fu!"

"You don't have a surname Fu, but you are of my Arron's seed! My relatives who live in the old house are also your relatives." Arron looked at Lilly very seriously.

Lilly couldn't refute what was said.

He had to pouting his mouth and looked at Arron with unconvinced eyes.

The father and daughter are sitting at the table eating the same eggs, drinking the same milk, and eating the same sandwiches.

Suzi is no longer, the father and daughter are like two tramps, there is no interaction between them.

Some are just the same actions of drinking milk, eating eggs, and eating sandwiches.

Seeing Arron drank a glass of milk in one go, Lilly also drank the milk in her quilt.

Seeing Arron wipe his mouth with a napkin, Lilly immediately wiped his mouth with a napkin.

Then the father and daughter went out together.

Until they walked to Christopher's car, both of them ignored each other.

Christopher looked at the father and daughter in surprise, and then stammered: "Husband...Where's Madam? Why didn't she come down, Madam, won't she go to the old house with you?"

I got the marriage certificate, don't you go to the old house to announce it?

Isn't it necessary to discuss when the wedding will be held?

Could it be that when the little princess came back yesterday evening, the little bit of grudges between the husband and wife had been a whole night, and there has been no reconciliation yet?
