

Chapter 319

At this time, Qin Wenyu, the old man of Shu, came back to his senses.

"Shuang'er! You are too much, how can you be so disregarded of your image, and fight with people on the spot! You...you really lost my aunt's face!" Qin Yu was furious. , She came to Qin Shuang angrily, raising her foot to kill the thing that hadn't grown!

Qin Wenyu asked Qin Shuang to come to Fu's house, originally wanting to support her, but originally wanted Qin Shuang to hold Arron, and then he could rely on for the rest of his life, and it could be regarded as a favor to Qin Shuang.

I didn't know that Qin Shuang could be calculated by a five-year-old girl.

It's really useless.

Qin Wenyu naturally couldn't stay by her side for a woman who didn't work.

Qin Shuang hugged Qin Wenyu's leg: "Auntie, save me..."

Qin Wenyu: "I can't save you something that is less successful than failure is more than failure! Someone blasted her out for me..."

Christopher: "... " Unexpectedly, this old lady was more unlovable than Fourth Master.

In an instant, two male servants from the Fu family came in from outside and dragged Qin Shuang out like a dog. As for the life and death, no one knew.

But that's okay, the province's Christopher did it himself.

He is happy and easy.

Christopher turned around and came to Lanita: "Miss Lin, am I dragging you out, or are you going out with me?"

Lanita's scared tears were forgotten, she looked at Arron tremblingly: "Four Lord, you...really want to throw me into the river to feed the fish?"

Before Arron could say anything, the old man Shu next to him had already raised his hand and slapped Lanita severely. Lanita had a blood-stained face, and she suddenly swelled up when he was hit by the slap of the old man. Fingerprints without roots appeared on his face immediately. It looks ugly and ugly.

Lilly, who was ugly hiding in Arron's arms, had forgotten to cry. She wanted to laugh when she saw Lanita's ugly trash look.

I especially regret that I didn't bring a mobile phone. I could take a picture and show my mother a look. Lilly still remembers that she followed her mother and the badass father on the first day when she came to this city, at the entrance of a hospital. This woman named Lanita humiliated her mother.

Lilly still remembers that her mother often gritted her teeth and called the woman's name in her sleep: "Lanita! Don't force me too much! Don't let me hate you to the bone! Don't annoy me! If you annoy me, I will too. Biting."

Therefore, Lilly always knew that his mother hated this woman named Lanita.

If she had brought her mobile phone today, she would be able to take this ugly picture of this woman to show her mother.

Make mom happy.

On the other side, Lanita was looking at Elder Shu with tearful eyes: "Grandpa, you...have always loved me so much, you hit me?"

"You are too shameful! What a shame! I hit you, an uneducated thing!" Old man Shu raised his hand and slapped Lanita's face with a slap again.

Now, Lanita's face was swollen, wide horizontally and short vertically, alive like a short pumpkin.

Oops, Shen Only forgot to be afraid.

She looked up at Arron: "Can you use your phone for me?"

Arron asked puzzledly: "Why do you want a mobile phone?"

"Take a picture of this woman, do you want a short pumpkin on her face?" Lilly said with a grin.

Arron + everyone present: "..."

Chapter 320

"Humph! Too short of education!" It was Elder Shu who made the first voice. As soon as his words were uttered, everyone in the room was shocked, even the face of Old Man Fu who was sitting in front of him could not bear it.

But Mr. Fu and Mr. Shu have been in a relationship for fifty to sixty years. The two have a deep relationship, and Mr. Shu saved Fu Hengsheng's life when he was in politics in his early years. So at this time, when Mr. Shu said this, Fu Hengsheng would even want to protect him again. With his great-granddaughter, he also had to give Elder Shu a little face.

What's more, all these incidents today are caused by the great-granddaughter.

Even if Fu Hengsheng was happy that this little thing was really naughty, on the surface, he had to say with a sullen face: "Only, you are really lacking in education! Didn't your mother teach you anything good? , Can't follow her!"

Shen Only: "..."

When the old man's face was sullen, it was terrifying and terrifying.

The little girl hurriedly shrank into Arron's arms in fright.

The guests here naturally knew who the only mother Shen was talking about in the mouth of Mr. Fu. Although Mr. Fu didn't mention Suzi's name, they all knew it was Suzi.

How foul Suzi's reputation is in Nancheng was already destined six years ago.

It seems that even though Suzi gave birth to a child for Arron, the Fu family introduced the child, and Arron seemed to love the child quite well, but Suzi was not as expensive as a mother and daughter.

In this way, Arron is still very likely to marry Lanita. After all, the two have entered the marriage palace six years ago. If it were not for the destruction of Suzi, their current children should be about the same as Lilly. Is it big?

No wonder Lanita dared to tear each other's hair with the niece of the Fu family's mistress in the lobby of the Fu family's old house.

It turns out that Lanita is still Arron's fiancée.

At this moment, someone whispered to Lanita: "Ms. Lin, would you like your servant to apply an ice pack for you?" "Ms. Lin, don't be sad. Your grandpa beats you for your own good. "

"Master Shu, don't be too angry, think about it, but as long as a woman, her man is about to be robbed, there is no way to care about the image.

In this world, no matter where you are, you can't tolerate Xiaosan.

No matter who encounters such a thing, he will have to tear up the mistress. "

The words of a few people who would fudge are really as if Lanita is Arron's wife.

Elder Shu also breathed a sigh of relief. He looked at Lanita distressedly, and then said to Arron: "Qin'er, Lanita has something wrong with her, but she is also because of love..."

Father Fu didn't finish a word, but he heard Arron shout in a cold and loose tone: "Christopher!"

"Yes, Fourth Master." Christopher said in response.

"Just now you saved the trouble, didn't drive Qin Shuang out personally, now you have work to do." Arron said casually.

Christopher: "... " Wouldn't he let him blast Lanita out, right?

It is possible.

Christopher felt a little dazed by the old man.

However, even if it was the old man, Christopher only obeyed Arron. If Arron asked him to throw Lanita into the river to feed the fish, Christopher would follow suit. He was about to grab Lanita's arm and was about to blast Lanita out, but he heard Arron say: "Does your phone have high pixels?"

Christopher: "What did you say?"

"Take a few photos of Lanita's swollen face. The sharpness must be high and all angles are taken. Take a few more." Arron's tone was light.
