

Chapter 333

Christopher: "... Oh, I remembered.

He immediately said to Arron: "Master, wait a moment, I will transmit it to you immediately."

"Come here!" Arron said.

Christopher: "You, what are you talking about?"

"Come here by yourself!"

Christopher: "..."

After a while, he reacted: "You asked me to go to your place and show the photos on the phone to the little princess in person?"

In fact, what Christopher wanted to say was to show it to the little princess's mother, but Christopher was afraid that his father would break his body into pieces, so he didn't say it.

But on the other end, Arron didn't answer, so he hung up the phone. Christopher quickly turned around. Ten minutes later, he had arrived downstairs at Arron's residence, parked, went upstairs, and rang the doorbell.

It was the domestic helper Li's wife who came to open the door for him.

Aunt Li directly led Christopher in the restaurant, and the mother and daughter were still eating the fried eggs from Aunt Li, with a small bowl of seaweed egg drop soup next to them. Christopher did not see Arron.

"Uncle Christopher." Seeing Christopher's arrival, Lilly was really happy. She was really looking forward to something. She got down from the high stool and ran to Christopher: "Uncle Christopher, put your phone in your phone quickly. Open the photo of Ann to my mother to see if that stupid woman looks like a dwarf pumpkin."

Christopher immediately took out his mobile phone and opened the photos of Lanita taken from various angles to Suzi.

"Puff..." Suzi, who has always had a good self-management on his expression, suddenly saw Lanita's appearance, and smiled immediately.

She hated the Lin family, Lanita most. Suzi didn't seize the opportunity. Once she had a chance, she would definitely not let Lanita go, but she never thought that Lanita was already embarrassed when she didn't have the ability to deal with Lanita.

Suzi only hated that he was not present at the time.

Seeing Suzi smiling and smiling so happily, Christopher immediately said: "Oh, ma'am, don't you know that the little princess has so many hearts and eyes, and the two-shot technique used is more than the fourth master."

"Mom, how about it, I'm great! I won't let any woman talk to you badass dad." Lilly looked at his mother with a small chin tugging.

At this moment, Suzi was actually very worried about the only one.

Worried that those women hate the only one.

However, when she saw her daughter's brave appearance trying hard to defend herself, and seeing Lanita's beating head with little hair, her face stained with blood, and her face swollen from the beating, Suzi's heart Very smooth.

She warmly held Lilly, "Well, you are mother's good baby, and mother is proud of you. In the future, our mother and daughter will join forces and we will be invincible!"

Christopher watched from the sidelines, and felt that the picture of mother and daughter was sweet.

Turning his head, he saw Arron, who was standing outside the study and looking towards it on the side of the aisle. Christopher suddenly felt amused.

He was not afraid of death and sent a short message to Arron.

"Four Lord, you are so clever to make your wife and daughter happy. So calm, you are really a good hand for chasing your wife."

Arron: "..."

He chasing his wife?

Did he chase her!

Nothing!

Chapter 334

Listening to the childish laughter in the restaurant, Suzi's gentle, clean, motherly smile, and Christopher's hearty laughter, Arron suddenly felt that in this big house that he had lived for several years, he was indulged. A kind of pyrotechnic gas.

Arron was accustomed to living alone. In the past, there was not even a domestic helper in the house.

Now these domestic helpers are professional domestic helpers specially hired because they want to bring Suzi's mother and daughter.

Now, Arron, who has lived alone for twenty years, suddenly feels that he feels good at home.

He came to the dining room from the study room quietly, and saw that all three of them were watching Lanita's ugly photos with their mobile phones.

It was Christopher who saw Arron first, and the smile on Christopher's frightened face froze: "Four... Fourth Master."

"Don't leave yet!" Arron said coldly.

Christopher: "..."

I just came here for three minutes!

How about three minutes!

He immediately pleased Lilly and said: "Little princess, I...you have seen the photo, I should go back..."

"No, I still want to see it!" Lilly gagged with a small mouth.

"That..." Christopher looked at Arron, then at the little princess, and then at Suzi: "Madam, you send me a WeChat ID, I...I send it To your phone?"

Suzi nodded: "Okay."

The two people added WeChat to each other, Christopher quickly sent Lanita's ugly photo to Suzi, and then fled the scene quickly.

It was the fourth master who let him in. But the fourth master's temper was volatile, and he announced that he had entered the house in the last second, maybe he would be chopped off his head in the next second.

Christopher was very grateful that he was running smoothly.

After leaving Arron's house, he hummed happily.

However, there was something that made him even more happy. Christopher received a WeChat message from Suzi as soon as he got into the car.

"Assistant Yan, thank you." Suzi's text message still carried a warm smile.

Christopher replied with excitement: "I just showed you a photo, if there is anything I would like to thank, this is what I should do."

At that end, Suzi quickly replied: "Lanita is a person I hate. Today I saw Lanita's embarrassed photos, I am very happy, thank you Assistant Yan."

Christopher's heart warmed.

After six years, the lady is still that cold-faced lady. She is always a grateful person, even if others only help her a little bit.

Such a lady is really nice.

Such a lady will definitely be able to heat the lonely and cold heart of the Fourth Master in her future life.

Christopher thought for a while and uttered again: "Madam, actually... the fourth master is very good to you and the little princess. From childhood to adulthood, he is surrounded by dangers. He is used to being cold, and he is also a man. Cold-faced and warm-hearted people.

He didn't say many things, or said the opposite.

But he didn't think so in his heart. "

Christopher didn't know if his wife could understand his explanation.

In his impression, Mrs. is a woman who knows everything well, should he be able to understand it?

However, Suzi did not reply to Christopher's words.

She saw Christopher's words, and of course she also understood what Christopher meant. She could also feel that Arron had captured her back with a vicious attitude these days, saying that she had bought her to pay him back. But he did not do so.

Not only did he remarry with her, he also treated the only one very well, and Suzi understood all of these.

But what do you say about Sanford being exiled?

What about the chasing and killing of her, Sanford and the only three of them over the years?
