

Chapter 345

Looking at Galia, Suzi's heart suddenly warmed.

She has no friends.

All previous college classmates broke off with her because of her imprisonment. Later, I met Aunt Xia in prison, but Aunt Xia passed away. Later, Sanford used his life to protect her, but Arron didn't know where Sanford was exiled. Went.

After experiencing so much, Suzi is not a person who can make friends easily, but seeing Galia's bright smile and the small appearance that admires her, Suzi, who is about to walk to the entrance of the design department, stand and look at Galia. Said: "If he were his girlfriend, would he marry you?"

Galia: "Huh?"

"Does he make a girlfriend for the purpose of getting married?"

"No! Absolutely not!" Galia said, "Anyone can tell, Master Jun, who likes to play."

"Then why bother with him?" Suzi blurted out.

Galia: "..."

That's right!

It seems that many women have never considered this issue. Most women know that Mr. Jun has a playful mentality, but they are still looking forward to getting involved with Mr. Jun.

Only this Suzi!

She is really a god.

Galia looked at Suzi admiringly as she entered the office of the design department before turning around and leaving.

When Suzi came to the design department again after eating, he saw many colleagues in the design department looking at her, including men and women.

Throughout the morning, Suzi had been immersed in helping Linda to organize the information. She didn't have the time to look up at these colleagues. Now when she looked at them, Suzi found that all the female colleagues were dazzling and very eye-catching, and all the male colleagues were wearing them. It's very trendy and fashionable.

Only Suzi.

Maybe the time spent in a small remote county is too long. Suzi's dress is not only conservative, but also special.

When she went out today, she had chosen a conservative style deliberately, and the dress was not originally matched, but she deliberately mixed it.

Some styles are very fashionable and beautiful when the upper and lower body are matched together.

However, once a messy mix and match, it will appear very old-fashioned, and what Suzi wears today is a very old-fashioned mix and match.

My colleagues looked at Suzi's eyes as if they saw a local girl who had just entered the city and picked up a gold ingot.

Sneer and jealous.

Suzi didn't care either.

I was too busy in the morning and forgot to introduce himself. Now Suzi is generously introducing himself: "Hello, I am a new designer, Suzi."

"Designer?" someone asked stabbingly: "I think you are like a jumbler!"

"Didn't she help Linda all morning with chores."

"Can you draw drawings?"

"Don't ask if she can draw drawings first, ask if she can use a computer!"

Suzi pursed his lips faintly, and replied, "I can use a computer and draw drawings."

Colleagues A, B, C, D: "..."

"Who introduced you?" For a moment, someone asked again.

"Hey! Miss Min upstairs said, it was her prospective brother-in-law who forced in. Her prospective brother-in-law is Joan, the young boss of Joan Group. It seems that she still..."

Hearing that someone connected her with Joan again, Suzi immediately interrupted everyone's discussion and said in a straightforward tone: "I applied for the job through the Personnel Department."

"So what did Rayna say you are a junior?" a harsh voice asked behind him.

Chapter 346

Suzi turned his head and saw Linda who was pulling in by the waist.

"Linda." Suzi shouted.

"Are you a junior?" Linda asked Suzi sharply, as aggressively as Suzi had robbed her man.

After speaking, Linda looked at Suzi without blinking.

It depends on how Suzi stepped down.

The colleagues in the office also all looked at Suzi.

If someone else is asked this way, that person will definitely become angry.

The thin-skinned person must be asked to cry.

However, Suzi's face was extremely plain: "Excuse me, whose mistress are you talking about?"

Linda: "...what do you mean!"

"If you ask me if I am your husband's junior, I'm sorry, I don't know your husband, even if I really am your husband's junior, please go home and take care of your sc*mbag husband!"

Linda: "..."

Her angry hair was standing up, and she didn't expect this rubbish to speak so aggressively.

"What are you talking about! I'm not married yet!"

"Since I'm not married, then I don't have a husband who seduce you! You are framing me!" Suzi didn't even look at Linda, just sat in his seat.

I'm not afraid of life and death, what else is she afraid of Linda?

Isn't it just a job!

Suzi had already thought about a problem, as long as she came to Nancheng, she would be unlucky.

When he entered the Lin family at the age of twelve, he was treated like a beggar by the Lin family. Later, when he came out of the prison, he was beaten like a dog in the upper class in Nancheng.

Although he was hunted and killed everywhere in the six years he escaped, his work and life were relatively stable. Now he returned to Nancheng. As soon as he found a job, he happened to meet Walton's cousin, Rayna.

This is destined for her to work here and will not be quiet.

So Suzi does not plan to do it here.

Now that she has decided to resign, who is she afraid of?

Linda was very embarrassed by the colorful face on Suzi's questioning. She arrogantly said: "I am not asking you! In the cafeteria, everyone in the company has seen it, it is Rayna who is asking you!"

"Since Rayna asked me, what are you doing here? Gossip? Can I say that you are not doing work during work hours, but are going to gossip here?

It's really unlucky for the company to hire a woman like you! "

Don't look at Suzi's few words, but everything she said can choke to death.

Linda was choked by Suzi and could not speak for a long time.

Colleagues can also see that although Suzi wears the soil, it is not a soft persimmon, and Suzi will not let anyone pinch her.

The colleagues consciously turned off the fire for fear that the anger would provoke them.

What's more, the young master in the company is so blue-eyed about Suzi.

Such a storm that was just about to erupt was gone.

Linda, who was still arrogant just now, handed Suzi a stack of materials: "Hey! You help me sort out these first drafts as soon as possible. You said that you didn't come in through the back door. You can draw pictures and understand computers, so you should be able to read them. Understand my artwork.

You have to remember, don't make a mistake.

This is all architectural design, but if there is something wrong, you can't afford the responsibility! "

After speaking, he stepped on high heels and took a pile of things out of the design department.
