

Chapter 355

Suzi: "..."

She seriously suspects that there are major problems with Arron's aesthetics.

However, she changed her clothes anyway.

Because she didn't want to blink too much.

However, Lilly resisted loudly: "It doesn't look good!"

"Objection is invalid!" Arron stared at Lilly, "I agree with your mother to wear this suit, and your mother herself agrees with her to wear this suit. The minority obeys the majority, so the objection is invalid!"

Shen Only: "..."

She pouted her mouth and gave Arron a very unhappy look: "Installing a robot tonight will defeat you! Humph!"

Suzi: "Puff..."

Arron glanced at Suzi, and Suzi immediately fell silent.

A family of three didn't talk to anyone until Christopher drove to pick them up. As soon as the family of three got in the car, Christopher saw some clues when they drove.

Christopher found that although the family of three did not speak to each other, the atmosphere in the carriage was warm.

Christopher was caught off guard by being stuffed with dog food.

He boldly asked: "You..."

"Yesterday I defeated my father!" Lilly flaunted to Christopher excitedly.

Christopher: "Oh... Yeah, little princess, tell Uncle Christopher, how did you beat your father?"

"I delved into the installation steps of the robot myself. I installed it faster than the badass dad, and I installed more styles than the badass dad, so I defeated the badass dad!" The little girl was very excited.

She couldn't sleep with excitement last night.

Although the badass dad put her to sleep at first, she woke up again as soon as the badass dad left. She really wanted to be with the badass dad. In fact, Lilly no longer wanted to say the words 'badass'. Up. However, she just couldn't change her mouth for a while.

Moreover, for the sake of his mother and uncle, Lilly didn't want to be so fond of his father so soon.

Christopher coaxed Shen Weiyi and said: "Oh, little princess, your father is not something ordinary people can defeat. In this world, there are probably only two people who can defeat your father. One is your mother.

There is another, you little princess!

Little princess, you have defeated your dad, so tell me, how do you want to punish your dad? "

Christopher was originally a joke.

He thought, no matter what, the little princess couldn't punish her father.

As a result, Lilly immediately said more excitedly: "Hehe, I almost pulled my dad's nostrils into pig nostrils yesterday..."

Christopher: "..."

The eyeballs almost didn't fall off.

"That..." Christopher suffocated his laugh, he now has a great impulse, he wants to change his job as a reporter.

He has absolutely exclusive first-hand information.

Regarding the richest man in Nancheng, Nancheng's veneer Shura, who kills people without blinking, Arron, the president of the Fu Group, was pulled into the exclusive information of pig nostrils.

Aow buy Karma!

It's so explosive!

"That..." Christopher calmed down his excitement and asked again: "Little princess, your record is outstanding, what did you do last night?"

Maybe, I can dig a little bit more fiercely.

Although Christopher felt that this was basically impossible.

However, what Christopher didn't expect was that, without stopping for a minute, Lilly exploded even more fierce news to reporter Yan: "I saw my father hug my mother last night."

"Puff..." Christopher, who was driving, almost didn't choke to death with a mouthful of dog food.

Chapter 356

The child speaks unscrupulously.

But Suzi's face turned red like a soldering iron, and she looked at Arron for help.

Arron ordered: "Stop!"

Christopher's hands trembled: "Four Lord..."

I... haven't become a reporter yet, haven't I broken the news yet, don't you think I will rectify the Fa on the spot, right? Besides, even if the Fa-rectification is on the spot, it should be the little princess first, right?

The prince breaks the law and commits the same crime with the common people.

Christopher asked his wife for help with a bitter face.

The lady's face was cold and soft, Christopher always knew.

Sure enough, Suzi, who was still blushing, said to Christopher: "It's okay, Assistant Yan, the only kindergarten is here, you can park here, and there are tens of meters left and I will lead the one alone."

Christopher wiped the sweat from his forehead like an amnesty: "Thank you Madam for not killing."

Suzi: "..."

She smiled and got out of the car. I didn't walk a few steps ahead and met Susan and Susan's mother who was the only one to play with yesterday.

The little girl wore a princess dress with a great air.

However, compared with Shen Only, Susan was still beaten by Shen Only.

The only thing I am wearing today is a high-quality custom-made pink fit small windbreaker. The head is tied to the side of the ball, so I don't want it.

In fact, Lilly was born to be a fart.

"Susan, you are so beautiful today, and I like to play with you." Lilly took Susan's hand and praised Susan without hesitation.

Susan also looked at Lilly enviously, "The only one, you are more beautiful than me, where did you buy your little windbreaker? I asked my mother to buy one for me too. I want to wear it exactly like you."

When the two children were standing together, Shen Only was clearly superior to Susan. However, these are all distinguished from the adult's eyes, and the two children do not distinguish between these.

They admire each other.

However, the two mothers are not as harmonious as the two little girls.

Susan's mother was jeweled and tall, she looked at Suzi very snobly: "Shen's only mother, have you come over to send Shen's only?"

Suzi nodded: "Yeah."

"Does your family live near here?" Susan's mother asked again.

Suzi shook his head.

"If you don't live near here, did you come by bus? I guess so, otherwise you wouldn't take the children so far. The bus stop here is not close to the kindergarten." Susan's Mother spoke to Suzi with a sense of superiority and a sharp tone.

Obviously, she is looking down on Suzi.

Suzi didn't speak or look at Susan's mother.

She was born to talk seldom and talks seldom to anyone.

What's more, she is the only kindergarten she is shrinking in. She doesn't want to affect the environment of her daughter's kindergarten, and she doesn't bother to get in touch with people she doesn't know.

Although the parent group in the kindergarten is also a small group, it's not a big deal if you don't talk to each other if you don't agree.

The more Suzi ignores Susan's mother, Susan's mother gets more and more energetic. She steps on high heels and walks two steps to keep up with Suzi: "You are a mother, you are really vain, just because I was yesterday. Speaking of you, you will dress your girl like this today. The dress of your girl today must be spent all of your family to continue, right?"

You poor people, it's terrible to be vain.

I really can't let my daughter play with children from a family like yours in the future...

Poor is poor!

Just be poor!

Why are you still competing with others? Comparing again, your daughter is also a nouveau riche!

No, I will tell the principal of the kindergarten today that you have to drop out of school!
