

Chapter 361

"It's okay, it's okay, it's a trivial matter. This doesn't involve privacy. You adjust the surveillance playback on your location, what can't you adjust?" A security guard said very politely, and the other security guard couldn't follow it. Nod.

Suzi and Galia were successfully transferred to surveillance. Suzi focused on the hour when she was called by the Ministry of Personnel. From the beginning, she saw her in less than ten minutes. Here it is.

That was just fifteen minutes after she was called away by the Ministry of Personnel, she saw Rayna carefully pushing a swivel chair to Suzi's position, and then pushing Suzi away.

When Rayna pushed Suzi away, he pushed casually and quickly. It's no longer the cautious look when he came.

"Why did she change your chair?" Galia asked puzzledly.

"I want to know too." Suzi said.

After coming out of the monitoring room, Suzi went straight back to the design department. At this time, there was no one in the design department and all went to eat.

This is also good.

No one sees the best.

Suzi followed Rayna's way, and carefully pushed the transfer until he reached Rayna's office area upstairs. Galia had already pointed out Rayna's position to her, and she just had to take a seat.

Changing the chair, she pushed Rayna's original chair into a secret corner, and then waited for Rayna to come back.

Rayna walked into her office with a few colleagues talking and laughing. In the office where Rayna was located, all the colleagues usually acted looking at her face.

When several colleagues who often fudge with Rayna saw Suzi standing in front of Rayna honestly, several of them all grumbled and said, "Rayna, this was taken by Mr. Jungao yesterday and thought I'm a small soil bag of the imperial palace empress here."

"She should have come to confess guilt to you."

"It must be, look at her awkwardness."

"It's boring to be counseled so soon," Rayna Min said happily, and then sneered: "Even if she counsels, I can't spare her! She's the mistress who ruined my sister and my brother-in-law!" Rayna said, and came to Suzi: "Little San, what do you mean? Oh, yes, why are you standing intact? I thought you had to keep your lower body from standing upright."

Suzi said calmly: "Why do you call me a junior?"

"You seduce my brother-in-law!"

"Have you seen it with your own eyes?" Suzi asked.

Rayna: "..."

"Then I didn't see it with my own eyes." Suzi said again.

"I listened to my sister! Saying that you seduce my brother-in-law Joan started to seduce six years ago!" Rayna gritted his teeth and said.

Suzi's tone was extremely calm: "Joan has been chasing me all the time. I didn't want him after chasing me for six years! It was your sister who picked up a bargain. Go back and tell your sister if you sisters call me again. Xiao San, I will take Joan back. Believe it or not, I will call now and let him dump your sister?"

"You..." Rayna couldn't believe her ears, the woman in front of him was so arrogant.

Even Rayna's colleagues were dumbfounded.

This woman didn't come to admit counsel, she came to head-on with Rayna.

God!

The good show is about to begin.

Everyone waited for Rayna to slap Suzi too much in a rage.

However, Walton picked up the phone on the desk and sat down while pressing the key.

Before he finished pressing a phone number, Rayna wailed like a pig: "Oh... it hurts me to death."

Chapter 362

Rayna was stuck between the flat seat of the swivel chair and the bearing underneath. The flat seat of the swivel chair was skewed to one side, and Walton's hip was poked somehow and was bleeding.

Walton's posture at this time was even more ridiculous.

She squatted halfway, like a horse step, but her hips were stuck in the chair again, and she held the table with both hands, as if a dog couldn't pull it out. How ugly it is.

Coupled with her wailing voice like a pig, it is even more ugly.

When I first heard this voice and saw Rayna's posture, the colleagues in the office couldn't hold back, they all laughed.

Halfway through a smile, I realized that I shouldn't be laughing.

At this time, blood was already flowing out of Rayna's back.

"Are you all dead! Laugh, call an ambulance, call the police, and catch this mistress! Suzi, you murderer, you are still murdering me in broad daylight, and I want you to go to jail!" Rayna wailed in pain and yelled at Suzi.

Suzi was also stunned.

She knew that this chair was broken by Rayna.

But she didn't expect that Rayna would actually give her such a cruel hand. Fortunately, she found it early and sent this chair back to Rayna. Otherwise, at this moment, she would be Suzi who was injured.

Suzi grinned coldly: "Is it you who harmed me, or I hurt you, let's see at the police station. Like me, the company's surveillance shouldn't be fraudulent, right?"

After speaking, Suzi turned and left.

The colleagues in the office were stunned.

Rayna was even more stunned. Then she shouted like a pig: "Come back! Suzi, you come back to me! You guys... don't call the police..."

However, a colleague has already dialed out the phone.

However, instead of calling the police, she called the personnel department.

That colleague was also shrewd. She knew that Suzi, a new colleague who had just come to work for two days, was unlikely to frame Rayna so boldly. Even if it was framed, she couldn't get a scrapped chair.

This can only be initiated by Rayna.

Therefore, when my colleague chose to call the personnel department first, the personnel department would definitely favor Rayna.

Within a minute, the manager of the personnel department arrived.

At the same time, colleagues upstairs and downstairs also rushed over to watch the excitement, and they surrounded Rayna's office.

Immediately afterwards, the ambulance also came.

The personnel from the personnel department did not deal with who was right or wrong, but sent Rayna to the hospital first, and Suzi followed to the hospital. She wanted to see how serious Rayna was injured.

The doctor quickly bandaged it, and when he came out, the doctor said something that made Suzi take a breath: "Fortunately, the wounded wore heavy cotton trousers. If it weren't for this layer of cotton trousers, that one. The broken part of the chair may plunge directly into the injured person's body.

From injury to severe, it may make a woman infertile for life.

It is also possible to pass through the intestines and die.

However, the injured person was very lucky. Because of the thick trousers she was wearing, she only scratched a bit of flesh, so she was fine after resting on her stomach for two days. "

Suzi: "..."

It's not a severe winter, not to mention that there are air-conditioning and heating in the office. Most of the women in the office wear skirts or casual slim pants. The reason why Rayna wore so thick today is because her skirt was jammed by the elevator early in the morning and the skirt was ripped apart by the elevator. Up.
