

Chapter 385

Suzi: "..."

She originally wanted to increase by two thousand, but she did not expect to increase by five thousand, which was beyond her imagination.

But if he stays, Suzi also wants a better environment.

She said again: "Yes, the director, but I have a condition. I will not be Linda's assistant anymore. I will be Linda's boss, that is, the artwork drawn by Linda. Give me a look.

Is this okay? "

Suzi didn't want to crush Linda.

On the first day and the second day when she first came to the company, when she proofread Linda's manuscript, she found that Linda's design techniques were very good, and her design techniques were not the same as those of Suzi in the past.

Suzi must also learn from the experience of others.

Since it is learned, the best way is for all Linda's designs to be reviewed by Suzi, which couldn't be better.

Seeing that the design director did not speak, Suzi immediately said, "I don't need her 100,000 yuan. Since everyone is a colleague, colleagues should help each other, so there is no need to ask for money."

"Yes, you can, that would be great. I'll let Linda be your assistant in the future." The design director said immediately.

"Okay, thank you." Suzi said with satisfaction. After speaking, she respectfully said to the design director: "Then...Director, should I go back to work first? Still sitting in my original seat?"

"No, you are the master now. You and Linda swap seats. You sit in Linda's seat, you go first, I will call the personnel department to inform them, and then I will go over and arrange for you."

"Good director, I passed." After speaking, Suzi left the design director's office.

When he came to the door of the design department, Suzi heard the discussion of the design department before he entered the door.

To be precise, he was speaking ill of Suzi behind his back.

After all, there are only a few women.

In the architectural design department, there are more men than women, and there are only a few women in total, but where there are women, right and wrong are indispensable.

Several women were fighting for Linda.

"What the hell! I think Suzi is just getting into trouble and blackmailing!"

"The director also thinks she has experience or something. To put it bluntly, it's not that she has been on the construction site for a long time before, and she has seen a lot of materials. She is the designer's material, she is just a female migrant worker on the construction site!"

"I don't know what kind of abuse she gave Mr. Junshi to make Mr. Jun like her so much. Originally Mr. Jun wanted to invite Linda to dinner, but Mr. Jun now ignores Linda."

"Sao!"

"Don't look at the soil, you are in the bone!"

"You women, can you keep your morals? I think Suzi is not bad. She is honest, responsible, and busy. Linda has solved big problems. You shouldn't talk about her like that." One of the gays is the truth. Can't stop, the fight is injustice.

"I also think that the little girl is shy and obedient, very pure."

"As I think, I like that one."

Hearing a group of male colleagues defending Suzi, Linda slapped the table angrily: "There is a kind of Suzi who took me 100,000 yuan and don't come back! If she returns to work shamelessly, I will let her be under my hand. Not as good as..."

"Linda!" Suzi's voice calmly came from behind: "Please pack the supplies on your desk. From now on, this will be my seat."

Chapter 386

Linda: "..."

Several female colleagues: "..."

"You...what do you mean?" Linda asked after a long while.

Suzi was originally a person who was not good at communication. She only said truthfully: "I will stay and continue to work. My seat will be swapped with you. I will sit in your seat and you will be my assistant in the future.

In the future, all your design drawings must be approved by me before they can be implemented. "

Linda: "..."

After a pause, she suddenly yelled, "Suzi! Do you think you helped me deal with an accident, and you turned into a phoenix?"

Can you!

You helped me deal with the accident, but you also blackmailed me 100,000 yuan! What do you want now? Climb on my head to poop and pee?

No way!

You big guys have all heard that this woman not only corrupted me one hundred thousand yuan, she now openly asked me to pack my things and give her some space, but she also made me her assistant without shame.

Suzi, do you think that you will be the boss of this company if you are taken seriously by Mr. Jun?

You have a delusion, right? "

All the people present felt sharp after hearing what they said.

However, several female colleagues are all the same haters as Linda. Even the male colleagues who have just spoken to Suzi feel that Suzi is too much at this moment.

But as soon as Linda's voice fell, the design director walked in.

Behind the design director, there is Lenny.

"Linda, don't you want to do it anymore! If Suzi hadn't interceded for you for this matter today, you would not only compensate 100,000 yuan, but your job would be gone! Not only would your job be gone, but if you were in the industry, you would have Bad reputation." The design director criticized Linda very seriously.

Linda's face turned blue in shock: "Director..."

The design director gave Linda a white look: "It was Suzi who interceded for you in front of me and stopped asking for your 100,000 yuan. How generous is Suzi? Not only does she surpass you in business, but also in the actual operation. Better than you, if you work under her in the future, it will only be good for you, but it will not hurt.

Why, did you contradict your boss from the very beginning?

You are too deceiving! "

The director's sharp words couldn't be more clear.

That is, Suzi will stay and work, and Suzi will be promoted.

She became Linda's chief designer, and Linda, Suzi's deputy designer, became Linda's immediate boss.

Linda looked at the design director with a sullen face, and said aggrieved: "Director, I have been working in the company for three or four years. You have always known my design level. How can you let a soil bun and only know that you are working on the construction site? When a woman becomes my boss, she has practical experience, but does she know what beauty is?

A woman who can't even dress well, knows what beauty is? "

"Linda! Resign if you don't want to do it! This company is not unusual for you to be here. You said that the clothes Suzi wears are not good-looking, like a dumpling. How can you never think that if she wears the same clothes as you? It looks good, if you stand in front of her, you will become old and ugly!" Behind the design director, Lenny reprimanded Linda mercilessly.

"Mr. Jun." Linda went out and acted like a baby to Lenny: "You didn't do this before. You used to be very kind to the female employees of the company."

Lenny sneered: "I am very polite and caring to female employees now! But I am still a shareholder of this company! As a shareholder, the most important thing to keep is talents. Suzi will help our company deal with it in one day. Two emergencies, such a talent, who of you dare to exclude her, that is to make money with my Lenny!

I started a company to let you make money for me.

It's not for you to squeeze out my core talents and resign!

I don't care how beautiful you are, how beautiful you are, how enchanting you are, as long as you dare to harm the interests of my company, you have to get rid of me!

I dare not say anything else, but I see too many women!
