

Chapter 387

Your appearance pollutes my eyes! "

Linda: "..."

"You! You will be Suzi's assistant from now on, I don't want to do it or take a position early!" Lenny said to Linda ruthlessly, very ugly.

"Do... I do." What can she do if she doesn't?

If she leaves this company, if it is known to the outside world that she lost her job because of her mistake, and was driven out by Mr. Jun, she would not be able to find a job in the architectural design industry.

Mr. Jun scolded, and Linda lowered her head, so that all the designers present could see it.

Those people are fine, and the weather vanes are turning quickly.

They immediately flattered their eyes and looked at Suzi.

Some began to compliment directly with a smile: "Congratulations, Shen Zhushe, please take care of you in the future."

"Oh, Lord Shen, your ability to handle emergency affairs is really beyond our reach. There will be more places to ask you in the future, which will cause you trouble."

"Shen Master, can I help you clean up the table?"

"Linda, hurry up and move your things away!"

"Yes, don't hurry up!"

Suzi + Linda: "..."

"Master Shen, you just sit here, don't move, I will help you clean up your things."

Suzi said neither humble nor arrogant: "No, I can just clean up by myself. I'm just here to work. It's okay for everyone to get along with each other and do a good job, nothing else matters."

After he finished speaking, Suzi looked back at Lenny: "Thank you Mr. Jun. Since the company has given me this salary, I will definitely work hard. Linda has her advantages. Let's complement each other in the future. "

Her remarks saved Linda a bit of face.

Linda said coyly, "Thank you Suzi."

"No." Suzi said flatly.

After speaking, he began to pack things up.

Looking at Suzi, who is so insulting and not surprised, Lenny stood at the door of the design department and touched himself meaningfully.

This woman is so beautiful.

The beauty of people and temperament is the kind of beauty that is quiet and light, but very powerful.

In fact, Lenny could see that Suzi's dress was ordinary because she deliberately concealed her beauty, but the more she was like this, the more Lenny liked her.

When leaving get off work this evening, Lenny deliberately parked the car at the company's door and waited for Suzi to get down.

Suzi rejected him.

However, this does not hinder his persevering pursuit of Suzi.

The staff got off work one after another, Galia deliberately came down from the stairs, waited for Suzi for a while, watched Suzi clean up, then took Suzi's arm downstairs, and when he went out, he saw Lenny holding it in his hand. With a large bouquet of flowers, she looked at Suzi with a pleasant smile.

"Suzi, enjoy dinner together. How?"

Suzi: "..."

She didn't answer, it was clear that she saw the pure black, domineering sedan at the corner of the crossroad not far behind Lenny.

"Sorry, my husband came to pick me up." Suzi said truthfully.

Chapter 388

Lenny: "..."

After listening for a second, he stammered and it was unbelievable. It was a pity that all kinds of emotions were mixed together to ask Suzi: "You...you are so tender, you... Married?"

Suzi: "...Well, please let me."

She seemed to have felt the two eyes from the domineering black car that were about to kill people.

"Suzi, is your husband treating you well? You must have been tricked into marriage, right, or else why did you get married at such a young age?" Lenny stepped in front of Suzi and asked.

Suzi: "Sorry, Master Jun, please let me go."

After speaking, he pushed Lenny away and left in a hurry.

"Suzi!" Lenny shouted behind him: "Although you are married, you also have the freedom to make friends!"

Suzi: "..."

If it wasn't for Arron to wait in front, Suzi really wanted to ask Lenny, what on earth do you like her? Like her silence? Like her rustic style in dress?

Or, like Joan six years ago, just want to find something different.

But Suzi didn't have time to ask.

Because Arron was waiting for her in front.

Suzi hurriedly walked to Arron's car. Lenny had been staring at Suzi's back. Coincidentally, at this time, a bus stopped behind Suzi, blocking the sight of Lenny and the rest of the company.

After the bus drove away, Suzi was already seated in Arron's car and left.

Suzi was very obedient, and he took the initiative to report when he got in the car: "He is called Lenny. It seems that his family is in Kyoto. I heard that he has a prominent status. Could it be your brother Kraig from Kyoto?"

Who is Kraig?

You are smart!

It's his nephew! Arron looked at Suzi sternly: "You care about his family background!"

He didn't even notice the strong vinegar smell in his tone, but Christopher driving ahead felt the vinegar smell: "Ah..."

Suzi: "I just want to tell you that he is pestering me unilaterally..."

I am very angry at my unwillingness!

Why should I explain this to him!

Is the husband and wife relationship?

Two people just got the certificate! He did not announce to the people in Quan'an City, she is his wife!

Why confess everything to him!

However, when Suzi saw his cold eyes that wanted to kill, she was scared again, too scared to speak.

"Are you closed on weekends?" Arron suddenly changed the subject.

Suzi: "What?"

"I ask you, will you rest tomorrow!"

Suzi: "No..."

"No rest? What do you do if you don't have a job on a rest day!"

"No." Suzi wiped his forehead with a sweat: "Aren't you talking about Lenny?"

"I know." Arron said again.

Suzi: "Ah? You...what do you know, I really have nothing to do with him, I ignore him..."

"Puff..." The driver driving in front couldn't help but laugh again.

Madam is so pure.

Madam is only looking cold and transparent on the surface, but in my heart is a sincere lady who can no longer be sincere. Madam, why didn't you understand? After your explanation, about Jun The story of the kid talking to you at the door of the company is over.
