The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1751

Alex was dumbfounded all of a sudden.

As his heart skipped a beat, he thought, 'The Fairy Doctor has been drugged. With the level of her cultivation base and alchemy, how could she accidentally consume such a thing? Therefore, it's most likely Michael Lawrence is behind this. Otherwise, how could he catch up to her so coincidentally, and with this kind of reaction too.'

The question was not whether he wanted to let go of the Fairy Doctor or not, but whether the Fairy Doctor would let go of him or not.

The Fairy Doctor was a Spirit Severing expert, whereas he was just a puny Core Formation cultivator.

In terms of strength or cultivation, there was a considerable gap between him and the Fairy Doctor. Now, the Fairy Doctor's sanity had been clouded by the drug. The talisman placed on her back would aggravate the state and cause her to be unable to differentiate the reality while magnifying the lust in her mind several times.

Meanwhile, Michael, who was witnessing this scene, burst with anger due to jealousy.

He finally realized that this was not a question of whether Alex would let go of her or not. Instead, the Fairy Doctor was refusing to let go of Alex.

He hurriedly stretched out his hand to pull the Fairy Doctor away from Alex

Wham!

The Fairy Doctor now had strength like an irrational tigress. Whoever dared to stop her from getting her man would be her enemy. Hence, once Michael got closer to pull her away, she immediately sent him flying with a punch. Furthermore, she had even used her full strength.

This time, Michael was miserable. His body slammed hard into the wall after getting blown. The impact had even caused a huge hole in the wall.

If it weren't for the defensive, magical treasure on him, he would have died on the spot from the sudden attack.

Poof!

Michael spat a mouthful of blood. He finally understood what it meant to shoot himself in the foot.

At this moment, the Fairy Doctor took off Alex's clothes and pounced on him. Her mouth even went rampage everywhere on his body, leaving countless marks. Alex wanted to retaliate against her, but unexpectedly, he realized he could not do so.

Without knowing when, the Fairy Doctor had intercepted his certain meridians, causing his arms to be almost unable to use any strength.

'F*ck!'

'How can this be okay?'

"Fairy Doctor! Fairy Doctor! Sis Dawn, wake up! Wake up!"

However, no matter how hard he called out to her, the Fairy Doctor did not show any response and ravaged his body.

Alex felt like weeping, but no tears came. When he was going to shout again, the Fairy Doctor covered his mouth with hers.

However, he caught a glimpse of Michael, who had stood up, from the corners of his eyes. A dagger with a cold glint appeared in his hand.

Alex was shocked, so he hurriedly turned his head and said, "Hey, what are you doing?"

Michael's expression was heinous as his eyes were filled with hatred. "Alex Rockefeller, right? What do you think I'm going to do? You're really amazing. Earlier, you've snatched away my brother's fiancée and even killed him. Now, you're fooling around with the woman that I fancy. You're Jade Benmore's disciple, so what? Now that Jade Benmore is powerless to defend herself, what do you think will happen to me?"

"I want you dead!"

Michael dared not make too big of a movement, fearing that he would startle the Fairy Doctor. Once the Fairy Doctor locked onto him, she would regard him as interference and attack him.

Hence, despite seeing the Fairy Doctor constantly kissing Alex, he still forcibly held back and approached them slowly. He held the dagger over Alex's head and wanted to kill this b*stard in this state.

“D*mn, my dear sister! You have to wake up quickly!”

As Alex felt the murderous intent, his pupils even constricted. ‘D*mn, what the heck is this? Do I really have to die lying under a woman?’ He hurriedly said, “Michael Lawrence, the Fairy Doctor is Principal Henderson’s godsister. Aren’t you afraid that Principal Henderson would go after you if he knows about this? In broad daylight, you have dared to give the Fairy Doctor this kind of drug. Have you ever thought about the consequences?”

Michael said with a smile, “You don’t have to worry about this. I, Michael Lawrence, do things cleanly and neatly. Now, I’ll bury you along with my brother! As the Fairy Doctor has kissed you for so long, it’s a bargain for you! Leave the rest to me!”

He his spiritual power condensed on the dagger as he slowly pushed it toward Alex’s eye.

“Ah!”

“Stop!”

Seeing the tip of the dagger was only five centimeters away from his eye, Alex had to save himself in this critical moment of life and death. The Fairy Doctor had sealed the meridians in his arms but not his mental power. He immediately condensed his mental power and roared angrily at Michael.

In an instant, Michael Lawrence stopped moving. There was confusion in his eyes as he dazed.

‘Did it actually work?’

Alex was startled for a moment. He immediately recalled Tristan Coleman from the Coleman family back then.

When he had desperately used the mental attack earlier, he clearly felt the Chaos Bead, hanging on the Chaos Tree inside the mind palace, formed some kind of mental connection with him. The shattered bead that was related to the mental strength inside that place had boosted his mental power.

'It's a good thing!' Alex was thrilled.

However, in the next second, the Fairy Doctor actually tore off her clothes. Alex was instantly shocked. His gaze turned hot as he almost had a nosebleed.

After looking at the dazed, unmoving Michael, he immediately tried to communicate with the Chaos Bead. In the next second, he gave Michael an order.

Soon after, Michael responded.

Clank!

The dagger in his hand fell to the ground and almost slashed Alex's ear.

'F*ck!'

On the other hand, Michael did not even deign to look at Fairy Doctor. He instantly turned around and walked out, closing the door on his way out.

So, Alex finally let out a sigh of relief.

Seeing the Fairy Doctor's breathing getting increasingly impatient, an old-timer like him almost could not bear it. When Alex realized she had broken his last defense, he was extremely distressed!

If he were to be affected by the drug's effect, it would have been considered bad luck for him.

However, if someone else were affected by it, he would have a way to remove it. For instance, when her father-in-law drugged Hailey Lawson, Alex was the one who risked himself of being defiled by her to rescue her from the predicament.

However, now he could not move his hands nor fight against her. He was really speechless.

“Stop!”

At the critical moment, Alex managed to communicate with the Chaos Bead in the mind palace and hypnotize Fairy Doctor with his mental power. In that most dangerous yet desperate moment, the Fairy Doctor’s movement abruptly stopped.

‘It worked!’

Alex was overjoyed, so he raised his head and took a peek. He was glad yet conflicted.

The boundary of life and death was really within a hair’s breadth. When he breathed a sigh of relief, the talisman attached to the Fairy Doctor abruptly lit up.

In the next second, the Fairy Doctor’s eyes lit up before closing abruptly, as if she were a reactivated machine.

He felt as if there were irregular landslides and the Milky Way had collapsed, with countless stars spinning around.

“Ah!”

Alex’s eyes widened, as if he had seen the equinox flower at the end of his life.

Not far away from the entrance, someone suddenly exclaimed when they saw Michael.

“F*ck!”

“This guy... Who is this guy?”

“He has really put the Flying Eagles Academy to shame. Does he think of himself as a dog?”

Then, the number of onlookers kept increasing.

The dazed Michael just hugged a huge tree, thinking that it was the Fairy Doctor as he constantly smiled and messed with it...

The tree that Michael Lawrence was hugging was so huge that it required three people to embrace it completely. Now, he was treating this tree as the Fairy Doctor.

In his eyes, the Fairy Doctor was so fascinating and enchanting. He hugged and kissed her... Even his lips were chapped.

Then, it went out of control!

All the onlookers were dumbfounded, especially some girls who simply could not bear to look straight at him. However, wouldn't it be a waste not to witness such a curious and fun scene?

Hence, several hundreds of people took their cellphones to film him.

Even though some students had not changed their SIM cards and could neither access the internet nor make a call, the video filming function was still there. They immediately scrambled to film him. Even if some girls were still shy and dared not look at him at first, they saw many classmates were filming him. So, why did they have to be shy? They instantly joined the filming as well.

The academy was boiling with excitement.

There was a social platform inside the Flying Eagles Academy as well.

In an instant, someone posted the video with captions to the social platform. Once the post appeared, it immediately attracted many onlookers, even more people headed to the venue of the incident one after another.

In the Black Tiger Corps, Vivian Taylor, who Michael had officially appointed as the deputy leader, saw the message as well. She thought it was funny at first, but when she took a closer look...

'F*ck'

'Isn't this the team leader, Michael Lawrence? Is he being possessed by some evil spirit?'

'Otherwise, why would he do such an indecent act?'

Vivian immediately rushed there.

"Bro Michael! Bro Michael, what are you doing?! Bro Michael, hurry up and stop right now!"

Vivian went forward to pull him away from the tree, but she could not extract him from it no matter what.

Initially, Michael's cultivation was a level higher than hers. At this moment, there was even a faint awe inspiring evil energy on him. This was because he had lost his mind after being hypnotized by Alex's Chaos Bead. He did not even care about things that he usually paid attention to.

He could no longer hide the evil energy that he cultivated after secretly learning the Blood Cult's cultivation techniques. It was just that the emanation was particularly faint coupled with this state, so not many people paid attention to it.

However, only a few among the onlookers recognized Michael at first. When Vivian shouted at him, a question came to their minds.

"What?"

"He's Michael Lawrence? The team leader of Black Tiger Corps?"

"Oh gosh! This is too strange. Left-wing Lieutenant's elder son from the Flying Eagles is actually... Doing such a shameless thing. Is he possessed? Or, is he sleepwalking?"

When everyone was in a heated discussion, Vivian was sent flying by Michael with a kick.

Then, he continued...

After that, Vivian brought a few members of the Black Tiger Corps to pull Michael away. As a result, Michael yelled, "Get lost! Get lost! Whoever dares to interrupt me making out with the Fairy Doctor shall be my arch-enemy. I shall kill him without mercy!"

Vivian and several members of the Black Tiger Corps were all dumbfounded.

On the other hand, the onlookers burst into laughter.

“I think this guy must have lost his mind. He actually treats a tree as the Fairy Doctor!”

“He has been possessed by the Devil! The Devil has possessed him! He has turned into a lunatic because he couldn’t woo the Fairy Doctor!”

“What a waste! I heard that the Lawrence family just had a funeral earlier. The most ingenious person in the Lawrence family, Maxwell Lawrence, was killed by someone. Now, the elder son, Michael Lawrence, has lost his mind. What’s wrong with this Lawrence family? Are their zodiacs suffering bad fortune this year? How could bad things happen to them one after another?”

Under such circumstances, even the members of the Black Tiger Corps were helpless. They could only let Michael have his way first.

Meanwhile, they drove the crowd away.

The prestige of the Black Tiger Corps and Left-wing Lieutenant made the onlookers afraid to continue to stay put, so they scattered one after another! In fact, there was nothing much to be seen anymore. Now, Michael Lawrence seemed like a lunatic.

However, some people were curious as well. After walking for a distance, they still stopped in their tracks and observed him.

In the house, the drug’s effect in the Fairy Doctor finally came into play before it, over time, dissipated and disappeared. She had regained her consciousness.

“Ah..?!”

As she looked at Alex below her, she was dumbfounded. She even saw Alex's expression that seemed as if he had experienced a living hell.

Then, she looked at the ground...

"Oh gosh! This... What have I done?"

She hurriedly took out a piece of clothing from the magical treasure storage and put it on, but soon she felt immense pain. She recalled the memory before she had lost consciousness... She had been drugged by Jane with the spiked coffee, and then... And then, she could not recall anything else.

"Alex Rockefeller, you... You're awake. Are you alright?" She blushed in embarrassment. Even a piece of clothing could not stop her amorous demeanor.

She still remembered the things before Alex had fallen into a coma. To her surprise, she had sinned once she had woken up.

Alex looked at her. "What do you think?"

"Uhm..."

"Can you remove the seal on me first? My upper body has no strength at all."

"Huh?"

The Fairy Doctor's current mood was simply indescribable. Not only had she forced herself on Alex, but she had also sealed his upper body too.

Thinking about it from another angle, she must have felt that she had been driven mad due to anger and wished dearly that she could make mincemeat of him. She was too ashamed to show her face. "Sorry... I'm sorry, I didn't do it on purpose. I was... Jane drugged me with the spiked coffee. At... At first, I was going to concoct the Resuscitation Pill for you, but in the end... I'm really sorry..."

Alex said, "It was Jane who drugged you?"

"Yes! I really didn't expect that she would drug me with this kind of thing. What the heck was she trying to do?"

“In this case, your assistant has already been bribed by Michael Lawrence. The real mastermind is Michael Lawrence.”

“What? It’s him?” The Fairy Doctor’s eyes widened in shock before she burst with anger. “He’s so bold. How do you know about it?”

“He was here, okay?”

“What? He was here, then I...”

Alex said, “Can you help me remove the seal first?”

The Fairy Doctor hurriedly nodded. While quickly removing the seal on Alex, she said with a pang of extreme guilt, “Alex Rockefeller, I’m really sorry. I also didn’t know things would develop into such a state. Don’t worry. I’ll be responsible for you.”

Alex looked at her and shook his head. “There’s no need to do so. I have a wife.”

Upon hearing it, the Fairy Doctor was even more ashamed. He was a married man, and she had done that to him... It was really unacceptable. As she felt sorry for him, she hurriedly said, “Then... What kind of compensation do you want then? I can give it to you as long as I have it.”

After the seal on Alex was removed, he took a deep breath. He struggled ferociously to get up.

With a flip, he leaned in close to her and said with a fierce look, “Do you know what I mind the most? You’ve sealed the and turned me like a piece of wood. Do you know how bad it felt?”

“Right, I’m sorry. What do you want then?”

“What do you think?!”

The drug and the talisman earlier had completely clouded the Fairy Doctor's sanity. After Alex had regained his freedom and pressed onto her hard, she could have sent him flying easily, but she did not do it in the end.

Perhaps, she felt that it was her fault and she had to compensate him somehow!

Then, she let Alex have his way. The Fairy Doctor looked at him with gentle eyes and had a different mood.

Outside the entrance, Michael Lawrence had finally woken up. When he lowered his head and looked at himself, he screamed!

"I... What happened to me?"

"Vivian, why am I here? Why are you guys here?"

Many members of the Black Tiger Corps had come over and covered Michael with sheets and the like because it was too unsightly. At this moment, they hurriedly walked over to him when they heard his voice.

"Bro Michael, you... We don't know what the situation is either. W-why were you hugging a tree and treating it as the Fairy Doctor?" Vivian asked with a strange expression.

"What?"

"I... I treated this tree as the Fairy Doctor?"

Michael suddenly recovered his previous memory. Then, he recalled the incident previously. The Fairy Doctor had been affected by his drug and had an onset. She could not distinguish things and only cared about hugging the brute and kissing him. And, he wanted to use a dagger to kill that brute... He could not remember anything after that.

When he woke up, he was already in the current state.

"How long have I been here?" Michael asked.

"Two hours!" A member of the Black Tiger Corps replied. Then, he took out a cellphone and tapped open a video to show him.

“Bro Michael, were you possessed by some evil creature? Look at it yourself!”

Upon watching it, Michael felt that his mind was about to explode.

‘What’s with this situation?’

The point was that he even saw many students from the Flying Eagles Academy in the video. Everyone had seen such an embarrassing scene of him. It had simply put his family to shame.

‘D*mn it!’ Michael instantly smashed the phone into pieces. ‘What the heck is going on? Who did it? The Fairy Doctor. Could it have been done by the Fairy Doctor?’

He immediately rushed over to look for the Fairy Doctor to see what was going on inside the house.

As a result, he felt a sharp pain in his groin once he tried to move.

‘D*mn, I’m not going to be a eunuch, right?’

“H-hurry up, go and see how the Fairy Doctor is doing now,” Michael said to Vivian and the others. Suddenly, he heard the Fairy Doctor’s voice ringing in his ears. “What are you guys doing here?”

The Fairy Doctor had come out. Her face was flushed with vigor, and it was not covered with a face veil. There was a charm of someone who had just turned into a married woman in her eyes. As she walked over and stared at Michael, there was fleeting murderous intent in her eyes, but she still restrained it in the end.

It was because she had heard from Alex about everything that had happened after she was drugged. She could not wait to see Michael’s appearance. As a result, it was really the same as what Alex had said, he looked like retarded lunatic. It was simply an eyesore.

“Instructor Fairy Doctor, good day to you!”

“Instructor Fairy Doctor!”

Several members of the Black Tiger Corps greeted the Fairy Doctor. Then, they realized that a man was following right behind her, it was Alex Rockefeller.

They were familiar with Alex. They knew that he had killed Maxwell Lawrence and was Jade Benmore's disciple. All of a sudden, they were a little nervous. Meanwhile, Michael's mood sank to rock bottom upon seeing the two of them.

He wished dearly that he could kill himself by slamming into the tree.

He had lost!

Not only had he lost, but he even shot himself in the foot by doing work for someone else without benefiting himself.

"Not bad, Michael Lawrence. I'll keep an eye on you!"

When the Fairy Doctor spoke, her voice was eerie and cold. However, she didn't move forward to kill Michael Lawrence.

Instead, she held Alex Rockefeller's hand and returned to where they lived.

"Michael, what does Fairy Doctor mean by this? Did she find out about you pretending as if this tree was her? Oh, right. News about what you did had been shared in the academy's communication platform. Fairy Doctor must have seen it too," Vivian Taylor said.

Michael was stunned for a moment. He even thought of killing himself. However, he couldn't say that he bribed Jane to poison the Fairy Doctor. After that, he ended up offering his beloved woman to another man and humiliating himself.

"Take me to the hospital. Hurry up!" Michael said annoyed.

Soon, Michael was escorted to the hospital in the Flying Eagles Academy.

Since students in the Flying Eagles Academy were injured frequently, the hospital also had relatively advanced medical expertise.

After being checked, the results were out. The only issues detected were hemorrhage, some skin injury, and soft tissue confusions. It wasn't severely problematic.

Michael would be fine after taking some medicines prescribed by the doctor. He sighed in relief.

However, just as Michael walked through the hospital's main entrance, his mind went blank. When he saw a tree nearby, he immediately rushed over.

He was acting up again.

"Ahh..!"

"Michael, Michael! What's going on?"

"Why are you still doing it? Oh my god!"

Vivian and the rest were all shocked. Somebody stepped forward to pull Michael away. However, just as before, he started punching and kicking whoever got close to shoo them away.

Someone immediately went to look for a doctor.

Even the doctor who came was slapped a few times by Michael, and he lost a tooth. If the doctor hadn't known this person was Colton Lawrence's son, he would've used brute force against Michael. "I can't help him. He must have a mental illness. We'll have to look for a psychiatrist."

After the psychiatrist came over, he also shook his head. He had no idea what to do, and he couldn't figure out the cause of the symptom either.

None of them would've known that this was the result of Alex's deep hypnosis on Michael. Last time, he hypnotized Tristan Coleman to eat 250 grams of mud every hour. However, due to how urgently the hypnosis was done this time, Alex hypnotized Michael by telling him to think of trees as the Fairy Doctor and to cozy up to it once every hour.

Finally, two hours later, Michael woke up. This time, the situation was much more difficult.

Blood was flowing!

After the doctor gave Michael a checkup, he looked at Michael with a serious expression. “Mr. Lawrence, your situation is getting out of hand. Cracks have appeared inside. You must be very careful now, and you mustn’t get injured again for the time being. Otherwise, the consequences would be dire. In fact, it might even affect your marital life in the future,” the doctor said.

Michael wanted to cry, but tears wouldn’t come out. He couldn’t figure out what was going on or what caused this at all.

However, something horrible happened.

The time taken to tend to his wound at the hospital was a little too long. Before it was even done, an hour had passed. Michael let out a loud cry. When he saw a Guiana chestnut plant in a pot nearby, he ran up to it and started to copulate with it.

Everyone in the group was dumbfounded.

In a corner somewhere in the hospital, the Fairy Doctor and Alex showed up. They witnessed how Michael’s hypnosis acted up.

Alex was very pleased with how effective this was, and he started to expect more from the Chaos Bead in his mind palace. This was the equivalent of having an extra life-protecting method.

Meanwhile, the Fairy Doctor felt very relieved.

She kissed Alex on his face. “You have the most ideal and amazing solution ever. Doesn’t this b*stard like messing with women? This time, he’s going to suffer for it... After doing it so many times, surely that part of his body is going to break, right?”

“Maxwell Lawrence is already dead. If Michael Lawrence becomes a eunuch, Colton Lawrence’s lineage will end. Would he go mad?” Alex asked.

The Fairy Doctor snorted. "This is the Flying Eagles Academy. So, what if Colton Lawrence gets mad? There is an abundance of people who can hold him down!"

"Dawn, you're already the third strongest expert in the Flying Eagles Academy. Does that mean that you're the strongest person around apart from the two principals?" Alex Rockefeller was stunned for a moment.

The Fairy Doctor chuckled a little. "Well, you're underestimating the Flying Eagles Academy. The Flying Eagles Academy is the equivalent of America's royal academy. It's the main camp in the ancient battlefield, the base that protects America from being defeated. It's also the power center of the highest authority in America, as well as the birthplace of powerful experts. Even the leaders of America have very high regard for the academy. How could I possibly be the strongest here?"

"What do you mean?" Alex asked.

"Don't worry. It's absolutely safe in the Flying Eagles Academy," the Fairy Doctor said.

As the two talked, they walked out of the hospital.

"I'm going to look for Jane!" the Fairy Doctor said.

Her own assistant had poisoned the Fairy Doctor. She felt relieved about the outcome, and it was much better for her to have slept with Alex rather than being raped by Michael Lawrence. Personally, the Fairy Doctor didn't mind getting close to Alex. That was because her godbrother once told her that the man who could help her in alchemy was the right one.

Now, his words had come true. The Fairy Doctor decided to go with the flow.

However, how could she still find Jane?

After looking everywhere, the Fairy Doctor couldn't locate Jane. Calling Jane on the phone didn't work either.

"If she managed to poison you, I'm afraid she would've already come up with an escape plan long ago. Once you recovered from the poison, you'd surely figure out that she had added stuff into your coffee! Hence, she might have long left the academy," Alex said.

The Fairy Doctor frowned. "Michael must have agreed to something she asked for. Perhaps, he sent her into Colton's army! Humph! That idiot. Even if she were sent into Colton's army, did she think I can't locate her? That's why Michael won't let her into Colton's army. It is most likely... She was killed," she said.

The Fairy Doctor's guesses were all correct. Jane was bullied and humiliated by Spencer Queen.

Although Jane did her best to please Spencer, she still died in the end!

Spencer disposed of Jane's corpse in a mysterious way. After that, Spencer found out that not only did Michael Lawrence fail to get his way with the Fairy Doctor, but something terrible even happened to him.

When Spencer saw Michael, Michael was conscious. However, a certain part of his body was about to rot!

As soon as Michael saw Spencer, he kneeled in front of Spencer and hugged his leg. "Uncle Spencer, help me! Help me!"

Spencer was shocked. "What on earth happened?"

Michael glanced at Vivian Taylor and the rest. The members of Black Tiger Corps immediately backed off obediently. After that, Michael told Spencer what happened in detail. When Spencer heard everything, he was stunned.

Despite how capable Spencer was, he couldn't figure out what was wrong with Michael. However, Spencer could guess that Alex did this.

"It looks like we've underestimated that Rockefeller guy. He's Jade Benmore's disciple. Jade managed to conquer many lands on the ancient battlefield, and she's been into countless dungeons to acquire a lot of good stuff for her elite troops! Since Alex is her disciple, he must have obtained quite a few life-protecting tools. It seems that we'll have to plan carefully on how to deal with this person," Spencer said in the end.

Now, Michael was in terrible pain. "Uncle Spencer, I want him dead! Also, the Fairy Doctor, this b*tch, is part of this. Now, she's having the time of her life with that Rockefeller guy, but I'm here suffering all this pain! I want them both dead! I also want to eradicate that Rockefeller guy's entire family," Michael said angrily.

Spencer hesitated a little. “Jade once warned that...”

“Who cares what Jade warned us about? She’s in Myriad Demon Valley right now, and she can’t even protect herself. Would she have the opportunity to return?” Michael yelled.

Spencer nodded slowly. “Alright, I’ll get someone to get it done. Now, the most urgent thing is to resolve your problem. If you do that a few more times, you’re going to turn into a woman,” he said.

“The plan for Galileo Dungeon hasn’t changed,” Michael said.

Right after Spencer murmured in agreement, Michael suddenly let out a loud cry. His problem was acting up again. Right then, he couldn’t even care about how Spencer was related to him. Michael directly pushed Spencer aside and ran out of the room to look for a tree.

Spencer frowned tightly before rushing over to knock Michael out cold. After that, he quickly left the Flying Eagles Academy with Michael.

Colton Lawrence needed to find out about this.

In the Fairy Doctor’s room, Alex sat on the Warm Jade Bed. He didn’t activate the entire spell formation on the bed. Instead, he formed a small gesture with his hand. As such, he’d be able to absorb the surrounding spiritual energy through the spell formation. However, it wouldn’t be as drastic as before, and his clothes wouldn’t be soaked from a shower of spiritual energy.

Meanwhile, the Fairy Doctor behaved rather gently after the two of them had slept together. She really was like a wife taking care of her husband. Not only did she make Alex coffee, but she even personally cooked for him.

Alex felt a little conflicted about their relationship, but he couldn’t find it in himself to reject her.

“Dawn, how can I register for a phone card that will allow me to contact someone in the outside world?” Alex asked during the meal.

“That’s easy. Wait a second... How many cards would you like?” the Fairy Doctor asked.

Alex was stunned. “Can I even ask for a few?”

The Fairy Doctor chuckled. “I think I might have a few of them with me. Back then, some students needed them for official matters. I had asked for extra, and I kept them in a separate room,” she said.

After that, the Fairy Doctor smacked her head. “You haven’t entered any of the academy’s departments. You don’t even have a student card. Without registering your identity, you can’t access the cards,” she said.

“Is there such a requirement?” Alex asked.

“Yes!” the Fairy Doctor answered.

“What do we do then? I can’t get into the Formation Department either. Dewey Schulz and Owain Lester have both become my students. I can’t possibly go to them and become their students too, can I?” Alex asked.

The Fairy Doctor’s eyes widened in surprise. “Did you become their teacher?”

Alex nodded to confirm.

The Fairy Doctor laughed for a long while. “It’s true. Your spell formation capabilities are much stronger than those two. Sometimes, even I want to become your disciple. But now, we’re... What do you propose?”

Alex thought for a moment before speaking. “In that case, let me be your student instead. I’ll count on you for the identity card! I’ve been here for over a week, and I haven’t contacted my family. My mother and the others must be worried sick,” he said.

The Fairy Doctor took her phone out. “You can use my phone for now,” she said.

Alex looked at her. Suddenly, he pulled her into his arms and touched her inappropriately until she blushed. Only when her entire body had gone limp did Alex grab the phone and ran into the room to call his mother, Brittany Rockefeller.

The call very soon went through.

“Mom... ” Alex said.

“Alex!” Brittany cried out excitedly. “Waltz, Maya, Winnie! Alex is on the line!” she added.

It seemed that Alex’s family had indeed been waiting for his call.

The call lasted for an entire hour. After that, Alex called Dorothy Assex.

“Honey, do you want to hear some good news?” Dorothy asked right after she picked up the call.

“What is it?” Alex asked.

“You’re going to be a father!” Dorothy exclaimed.

“Huh! R-Really? Are you pregnant?” Alex asked.

“More good news? What is it?” Alex asked.

“We’re having quadruplets!” Dorothy exclaimed.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1759

“Ahh!” When Alex Rockefeller found out that Dorothy Assex was pregnant, he was actually mentally prepared for it. After all, they both worked very hard for it. In fact, Dorothy even insisted on doing a handstand after they had sex to enhance the success rate.

However, both knew very well that, based on Alex’s physical condition, his sperms were very strong. It was definitely not an issue for his sperms to make their way to Dorothy’s ova. Hence, the fact that Dorothy became pregnant was not surprising at all.

However, she suddenly became pregnant with quadruplets...

This had exceeded Alex’s prediction. How were they going to raise four kids?

They'd have to prepare four bottles of milk and replace four pieces of diapers simultaneously. It would tire them out... Alright, they were planning on getting a nanny anyway. Getting a few more nannies wouldn't be an issue. Besides, they had way more money than they could ever spend, and they weren't worried about not being able to afford milk powder. After thinking about it, Alex still felt rather happy with the whole thing.

Right after that, Alex couldn't bear staying in the Flying Eagles Academy anymore. He wanted to return home as soon as possible. He'd heard that prenatal education was crucial. How could he, the father, not be around during this period? Hence, he immediately rushed out after the phone call ended. "I want to go home. Is there a way for me to leave the Flying Eagles Academy right away?" he asked the Fairy Doctor.

"What? What happened?" the Fairy Doctor asked.

The Fairy Doctor thought something critical happened in Alex's house.

"My wife is pregnant with quadruplets. I have to go back and check on her," Alex said.

After saying this, Alex felt odd about it.

Although they never clarified their relationship, the two of them were like a couple now. In fact, it was an extra-marital relationship. Wasn't it slightly awful to tell Fairy Doctor about his wife being pregnant?

Besides, his wife was having quadruplets now, but he still slept with another woman out there. Wasn't he too much of a jerk? There was no way he could justify it!

"Is she pregnant with quadruplets?" the Fairy Doctor asked. "That's truly wonderful. Congratulations, Alex!" she added.

The Fairy Doctor didn't seem to mind at all. She started screaming excitedly, and she even touched Alex's face. "Quadruplets! It's going to be so much fun once they're born. We can dress them up in the same clothes and give them the same haircut. Oh god! I'm so jealous. Alex, do you think I could be pregnant?" she asked.

As soon as the Fairy Doctor said this, Alex's jaw dropped, and he couldn't close his mouth.

The Fairy Doctor chuckled. "Look at how frightened you are. Don't worry. I just had my period, and I won't get pregnant," she said.

Alex felt a little awkward. "Dawn, I..."

The Fairy Doctor covered his mouth. "It's fine. I understand! I'm your tutor, and you're my student. Our relationship should have been like this anyway. If we ask for too much, it'll affect our relationship. This is good too," she said.

"However, you are a new student, and I just finished registering you as a student in the Elixir Department. Even your identity card has been issued. However, new students must pass the test after being here for three months. Only then can you leave the academy. This is the rule here," the Fairy Doctor added after a pause.

"Can't you bring me out?" Alex asked.

"No. This is one way of protecting new students," she said.

"What if I forced my way out?" Alex asked.

The Fairy Doctor was shocked. "Don't do anything stupid. Forcing your way out won't work. Did you see the old man who was napping by the academy's entrance?" she asked.

Alex took a moment to recall that he did indeed see such an old man in the guardhouse. When Alex came in, the old man even glanced at him. It was a very strange look, and it felt as if the old man could see through Alex. However, the old man looked the other way and went back to sleep.

Alex didn't mind him either.

"Is that old man an expert?" Alex asked.

The Fairy Doctor nodded. "He's one of the strongest experts in the world. I can't even take a single hit from him. If you force your way out, he'll capture you and lock you in Soul Refining Tower. When that happens, you will get badly injured if you don't die, unless..."

"Unless what?" Alex asked.

The Fairy Doctor shook her head. "Unless you can make your way out of Soul Refining Tower. That way, your powers will be acknowledged. Not only will you be able to leave the academy, but you'll even be given a graduation certificate as well as a reward of 30,000 points."

"That's great!" Alex immediately said.

The Fairy Doctor looked at him. "You have no idea what kind of place Soul Refining Tower is. It's where the souls of the demon tribe are refined. Although its might has been weakened, it's still not something ordinary people can withstand. Until now, only one person has been able to make it through Soul Refining Tower," she said.

"Who is it?" Alex asked.

"Jade Benmore," she said.

"Huh..." Alex was a little shocked. Wasn't his Cheapskate master a little too strong? Did that mean she really was the strongest expert in America? Even the two principals were no match for her.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1760

Soul Refining Tower... That was where one's soul power was refined. With the Chaos Bead's protection, Alex Rockefeller was willing to give it a try. When he thought about the babies in Dorothy Assex's belly, he became impatient. "I want to give it a try!" Alex exclaimed.

"What? No. I won't allow it!" the Fairy Doctor said.

"I've already made up my mind," Alex said.

"You..." Although the Fairy Doctor was distraught, Alex wouldn't change his mind after he'd decided on something. In the end, the Fairy Doctor helplessly accompanied Alex to look for the old man by the entrance.

The Fairy Doctor told Alex that the old man's name was Uncle Drake. Nobody knew how old he was. "Uncle Drake, Alex wants to challenge his way through Soul Refining Tower!" the Fairy Doctor said.

Uncle Drake, who was sleeping on the recliner, immediately opened his eyes.

After looking at the Fairy Doctor, he turned to look at Alex, who was behind her. "Have you thought it through? Once you go in, you can only be let out of Soul Refining Tower after three days. There are a multitude of thundering flames in there. If you can't withstand it for three days, you'll be burned into ashes. You can't blame anyone else for it," Uncle Drake explained.

After hearing about thundering flames, Alex felt even more confident.

"I've thought it through. I'll take up the challenge!" Alex said.

Uncle Drake oddly rolled his eyes. "As you wish. Come with me!"

The three of them soon arrived at a black tower. There were a total of nine floors, and it was fifty meters in height. Standing in front of the building, Alex could sense a strong lightning attribute from it. There were also bouts of scattered sinister Chi.

"If you can't make it through, stay in the bottom level. After three days, I'll open the door to the tower and let you out!" Uncle Drake said.

"How do I get through?" Alex asked.

"You'll succeed once you get onto the ninth floor," Uncle Drake said.

"Understood!" Alex replied.

"Would you like to take a rest? It looks like you've just had sex. You sure are talented in getting laid," Uncle Drake said.

As soon as the Fairy Doctor heard this, her face turned red. She felt deeply embarrassed.

Creak!

The doors to the bottom floor of Soul Refining Tower were slowly opened.

"Go in!" Uncle Drake said.

"Wait a moment." The Fairy Doctor quickly grabbed Alex by his arm. She retrieved an exquisite miniature tower and handed it over to Alex. "Take this with you. If you really can't stand it, hide in the tower. It can keep you safe," she said.

However, Uncle Drake shook his head. “Ms. Dawn, this won’t do. This is your natal magical treasure. Borrowing it to him is the equivalent of cheating. Do you think I’m a fool?”

“Dawn, don’t worry. I’ll be fine,” Alex said.

The Fairy Doctor suddenly hugged Alex. “You must make it out alive. Don’t force yourself. Why are you so stubborn? You only had to wait a few days!”

Alex patted her on the shoulder. However, she suddenly kissed him.

Seeing this, Uncle Drake sighed as if he suddenly thought of something.

After that, Alex took big strides through the tower’s entrance.

Creak!

The tower’s doors were sealed off.

“Ms. Dawn, congratulations!” Uncle Drake said.

The Fairy Doctor felt embarrassed for a moment. “Uncle Drake, he’s the person Principal Henderson told me about.”

Uncle Drake nodded without saying a word.

Meanwhile, after Alex entered the tower, the Force in his body began to spin around frantically. Spiritual power spread through his veins and started resonating with the thundering flames that permeated the tower. In the next moment, a multitude of thundering flames gushed toward Alex like waves of tsunami.

“D*mn!”
