The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1901

Alex nodded, "This one can't be wrong. It's the Exorcism Bell."

Uncle Drake let out a long sigh.

Uncle Drake looked old. His beard was white, and he was thin and bony, like an elderly man who would step into a coffin at any moment. He frowned deeply, making his already wrinkled face look even more like an air-dried orange. It was as if he was saying, 'Since the Dragon Lord said so, there's nothing we can do.'

The Fairy Doctor said, "Uncle Drake, is there any trouble?"

Uncle Drake waved his hand, "You guys come with me." After speaking, Uncle Drake took the lead to walk out of the gatekeeper's room.

He walked into the academy. Alex and the Fairy Doctor followed behind.

Uncle Drake seemed to amble, step by step. But in reality, it was very fast, Alex and the Fairy Doctor almost couldn't keep up, Alex paid attention to Uncle Drake's feet and was shocked beyond words, only to see that underneath his feet, lotuses appeared after every step.

"These are... Ancient writings?"

He almost screamed in surprise.

The ancient writings existed earlier than the ancient runes. This ancient writing was a combination of runes, it was like the runes were a single English letter, but the ancient script was a word and a phrase.

"Awesome!"

"Inside the Flying Eagles Academy are indeed hidden dragons and crouching tigers!"

Alex was even more impressed by Uncle Drake's cultivation level.

Soon, they arrived at the foot of a mountain, where an unoccupied academy was located.

Uncle Drake stood still. With his eyes closed, he recited words... The Fairy Doctor could not understand what he was saying, but Alex had a sense of déjà vu as if he had heard it before. At this moment, Neela, who was with him, spoke, "My lord, this is the ancient dragon language."

Alex tapped his head before he remembered that it was the very same language that Neela had once used with the two twins.

Alex asked, "Then, can you understand what he is saying?"

Neela answered, "It seems... Like some kind of summoning technique. I am not very clear with the exact origin because the dragon language is similar to human language, divided into different kinds. Differences between races produce different languages, just like dialects."

Uncle Drake's dragon language continued.

Snap, snap, snap!

The clothes on Uncle Drake's body unexpectedly split open.

A closer look revealed Uncle Drake's body at the moment as if a balloon had blown up and expanded...

Previously, he was just a thin and bony old man. In the blink of an eye, he became a sturdy man. After a few moments, all of his white hairs turned black and grew to the waist. A look at his appearance showed that there was a significant change.

The Little Fairy was stunned.

Uncle Drake had changed from a white-bearded old grandfather into a lean young man. He was good looking too.

Roar!

Uncle Drake stomped his foot and roared.

His fingers formed a seal and sent out more complicated dragon chants, and the path of golden light was pulled out from his hands, finally forming a golden round hole with nebulae and black mist inside, which could not be seen through.

Neela said, "This is the channel to the dragon spirit world."

Uncle Drake stopped at this time and looked at the Fairy Doctor and Alex, saying, "Originally, outsiders could not enter the Dragon Tomb, but now the Dragon Lord is in trouble and needs to use the Exorcism Bell, and I need your help as well, so come in!" After he finished speaking, he took the first step and stepped inside.

His long black hair fluttered in the wind. Together with his bare upper body, this gave a strong sense of power, his bare upper body.

The Fairy Doctor looked at his back and said to Alex, "Do you feel that the current Uncle Drake has a bit of the vestigial feeling of that purple dragon inside Saint Seiya?"

Alex said, "I thought you would say the master of the purple dragon... Are you enchanted?"

The Fairy Doctor stared at him. "I only like Athena in it."

Alex agreed, "I like it too."

"What do you like about her?"

"Indeed... Pretty!"

As the two were talking, they crossed into the passage opening. This thing was a bit like a teleportation door. As a result, after entering, Alex and the Fairy Doctor almost fell to their knees at once.

There was such a dense negative aura inside. It also seemed to contain negative energy, sadness, pain, loneliness, tears, and profound confusion. All these negative emotions rushed in at once and affected their feelings to the point of disarray.

The Fairy Doctor seemed to remember something and cried directly.

Alex, too, could not stop thinking about his father. He remembered all the things he had done before, and his mind was caught up in it, which was hard for him to extricate himself.

Bells were ringing.

This clear and crisp sound came from nowhere. It swept away the negative emotions in their hearts.

Uncle Drake stood right next to him and explained, "This is the Dragon Tomb Mountain, the successive generations of the Dragon Masters of the Exorcist Dragon Clan will be buried here! The negativity in this place is very powerful. Fortunately, there is the Exorcism Bell. The hell you just heard was the sound of the Exorcism Bell."

Speaking of this, he sighed, "The Exorcism Bell is the tomb suppression artifact of this dragon tomb. Without the Exorcism Bell, the dragon Chi of this dragon tomb will not be suppressed!"

The Fairy Doctor asked, "What will happen if it can't be suppressed?"

Uncle Drake answered, "This dragon tomb will move with the dragon Chi. I am not sure where it will go."

"That means, if we take the Exorcism Bell this time, we can't get in next time, this... Tomb of the Dragon Lord of all generations will also disappear?"

Uncle Drake nodded. "That's right! But since the Dragon Master has asked for this, she must have weighed the pros and cons, and I think what she is experiencing at this moment is far more important than the Dragon Tomb! So there is no time to lose. Let's get the Exorcism Bell as soon as possible and then go save the Dragon Master."

After a pause, he said, "This space is originally the place of the Holy Dragon War, which is also the tomb of the Holy Dragon after its fall. So, the negative energy is huge, and this is still at the periphery! The closer we get, the greater the energy. Later, if we can't bear it, the three of us will have to take turns fighting it. Otherwise, we simply can't walk to the location of the Exorcism Bell."

Indeed, that negative energy was everywhere. Although the negative energy was cleared when the Exorcism Bell rang, it had to ring once every two minutes. As the negative energy continued to invade the body, especially the divine hidden spiritual platform, that feeling of weeping came back.

It continued over and over again as they marched forward. As they moved further forward, the greater was the negative energy.

The Fairy Doctor grabbed Alex's hand, her eyes were red, and she could hardly bear it anymore. This was because she had her demons as a child, so the impact was more significant this time.

Alex was also almost overwhelmed and had a splitting headache.

At this moment, a thumping sound was heard.

In Alex's mind palace, the Requiem Clock took the initiative to sound, causing Alex's spirit to shake, and defense was even formed in the divine collection... This was one of the three supreme treasures given to him by Ksitigarbha. He didn't expect it to take the initiative to protect the master at this time. However, he could also feel that the Requiem Clock seemed to be a bit low on energy.

He remembered that this divine bell was required to be energized by divine power. Without divine power, it was like an electric toy without electricity! So just by remembering that the Persephone's Folly Bridge cost one million points of divine power for one part, he was scared.

"I don't have so much divine power!"

"Oh, Requiem Clock I hope you are not so expensive. I will give you ten thousand... No, a hundred points. This is our first meaningful cooperation. Please be considerate. "

One hundred points of divine power entered into the Requiem Clock. A thumping sound was heard again.

With a loud sound, the defense of the divine collection surged, blocking out most of the negative aspects.

Alex was stunned. How could a hundred points be so powerful?

Granny Coney, that little rascal at Persephone's Folly Bridge, was really an a**hole. Alex would not use her in the future. Instead, the Requiem Clock was now his favorite!

With the defense provided by the Requiem Clock in the divine collection, Alex immediately felt his head lighten, and the feeling that his brain was about to explode just now was much better.

He let out a sigh of relief. However, he soon found that the Fairy Doctor was already holding her head, rolling on the ground, letting out incomparable cries of pain, and even blood was coming out of her ears.

This kind of negative energy affected the divine collection. Therefore, one could only rely on the power of the soul's spiritual level to resist. But it was just that this thing could trigger one's inner demons again.

With the double effect, the Fairy Doctor could not withstand it.

Alex hurriedly hugged the Fairy Doctor and shrunk her head in his arms. Still, it was not very effective, as this was unable to resist the pervasive erosion of the negative energy.

"Requiem Clock!"

"Come out for a moment!"

Alex wanted to use the Requiem Clock to construct a divine collection defense for the Fairy Doctor but immediately found that it was useless. The Fairy Doctor could not leave the mind palace. That meant he was not cultivated enough to take the Requiem Clock out. At best, he could use it himself. Therefore, this was the reason why the Requiem Clock consumed less of the divine power.

Suddenly, Alex heard a cry. Turning his head, he realized that it was actually Uncle Drake.

He kneeled on the ground and lost his voice. Obviously, he was also affected by the negative energy and couldn't hold on.

Finally, after a few seconds, the Exorcism Bell rang. All the negatives instantly lightened.

The negative effects were per the accumulation of time. The effects slowly got severe over time. In the beginning, one could still bear it. But, the nearer one was to the end, the more negative it was. Even just after half a minute, one would not be able to take it. But, the Exorcism Bell could only ring once every two minutes. Thus, one had to withstand the negative effects for a minute and a half.

The Fairy Doctor grabbed Alex and shook her head, "I can't hold on. I don't think I can reach the front."

Uncle Drake said, "The negative energy here is much stronger than the last time I came in, and I can't carry it a bit... This is not going to work. We have to think of other ways!"

After saying that, he suddenly found that Alex did not seem to feel much.

He was stunned for a moment, "Kid, you have the weakest cultivation. Why do you seem to be fine?"

"Uh... I was born with thick nerves, I guess!"

After advancing a little further, the Fairy Doctor and Uncle Drake couldn't take it anymore and kneeled and cried in pain again.

The direction of the Exorcism Bell was still far away. It was seemingly close but very far away.

Uncle Drake said the Exorcism Bell was in front of the dragon tomb mountain, which looked not far. But, they had been running for half an hour with their feet and still felt very far away. Alex was also at a loss.

It was New Year's eve, and they had to come to this kind of place to suffer like this.

"How about this, you guys go back first? I'll go in alone to take a look," Alex said.

"You, alone... It's too dangerous." The Fairy Doctor pulled him back.

"It's okay. If it doesn't work, I'll retreat and think of another way," Alex said. As for the Requiem Clock, he did not intend to say much. At this time, the Exorcism Bell once again worked. Uncle Drake looked at him and said, "Kid, then you will go. This bottle of blood is for you. This is the blood of the Exorcist Dragons. When you take the Exorcism Bell, remember to pour this bottle of blood on your hand first. Otherwise, you won't be able to come back."

"Good!"

"Let's go!"

The Fairy Doctor admonished Alex, "Don't try to be strong. Hurry back if you can't take it."

Alex nodded and replied, "Okay."

Uncle Drake and the Fairy Doctor moved backward quickly. The way they moved forward was as if they were sailing against the current. Now, they moved backward at a much faster pace, which produced less pressure.

As for Alex, he flew forward using the lightning attribute spiritual energy, which was transferred into his legs.

He previously resisted negative energy with all his might and did not look at the surrounding environment. This time, the pressure was reduced. So, he was interested in observing around and found that this place had an abundance of spiritual energy. The grasses and trees were lush.

Previously, they were walking through the bushes. The height of the grasses was much taller than humans. There was a tree whose height was enormous.

Bang!

He suddenly gave his feet a lurch, and his whole body fell downward, finally smashing heavily into a huge pit "Damn, what the hell is this place?"

Alex climbed up and found that there was not an inch of grass in this pit, and then took a closer look and was shocked to discover that it was actually a footprint! But looking at the length of this footprint, it could be thousands of meters...

This was unbelievable.

What kind of species had a foot that could be thousands of meters long? How tall could it be?

'Could it be a dragon?'

"My lord!"

Suddenly, Neela came out from within him. "I sensed an aura of an ancestral dragon."

She was incomparably excited and looked at the Dragon Tomb Mountain in front of her.

Alex said, "This place is called the Dragon Tomb Mountain. It can't be buried with an ancestral dragon, right?"

Neela uttered, "I'm going to take a look."

Alex said, "It is just right to go together. There is negative energy here. Can you withstand it? If you can't..."

Before he could finish his words, Neela replied, "It's okay, I'm immune to this negative energy."

"..."

"Okay! Then, let's go. But there seems to be a flying ban formation here. We can't fly and can only run!"

Neela rolled her eyes. "It's okay. Others can't do it, but I can."

She tilted her head fiercely and let out a dragon roar. Then, her body deformed and transformed into Benares Dragon's original body.

It was not as big as expected, but not small either. Alex needed to tilt his head to see her face... There was a body of green and white dragon scales with four claws and two wings. It was very cool.

“This is the Dragon Spirit Realm, so there are not so many restrictions for me!”

“My Lord, come up!”

Neela lowered her noble head.

Alex had ridden a lot of animals, cats, horses, and even donkeys. But riding a dragon was his first time. People would be excited to hear a title such as a dragon rider. He immediately jumped onto Neela’s head and grabbed the dragon’s horns.

Neela rushed up to the sky.

That speed was much faster than Alex running by himself.

Moreover, it seemed that those negative energies would have less influence on him, since he was sitting on Neela’s body. The effect was not as strong, and together with the energy of the Requiem Clock, he was now almost immune to negativity as well.

Alex looked down from high above. The view below was unobstructed. At this time, he felt genuinely shocked.

Before this, he was running on the ground and did not notice his surroundings. Only now he saw countless mountains and steep hills situated near each other, which was precisely the appearance of a dragon. Those mountains and hills filled the entire space.

This meant that Alex and the others just ran wildly for half an hour within the range of a dragon, and they had not even ran through the length of one of its tails.

The tiny feet were thousands of meters long.

If the mountains on the ground were the bones of a dragon, how big was the dragon itself? It was simply unbelievable.

Neela finally flew to the highest point of the Dragon Tomb Mountain. From above, it was where the dragon’s horn was located.

That horn was like a ten thousand foot majestic peak. The Exorcism Bell was on top of this majestic peak. Alex was not only marveled. If it were not for Neela's presence, he would have had to waste some time climbing this high mountain. But now, with the help of Neela, it was much more manageable.

He poured the blood of the Exorcist Dragons onto his hand and easily removed the Exorcism Bell.

Ring!

Alex took the Exorcism Bell and gave it a gentle shake. The next second, the heavens and the earth changed color, and the sun and the moon were without light. The ten thousand foot high mountain that he was standing on made a loud rumble, and it crumbled, slowly tilting and falling.

"My god! What's going on?"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 1905

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1905

Swish...

The enormous ten thousand feet high mountain slowly fell, and then the speed increased.

Inside this Dragon Spirit Realm was a forbidden flying area. Neela could be immune because of her Benares Dragon identity, while Alex could not even stay in the air with the help of the Sword of the Universe if he wanted to, and soon fell rapidly with the mountain.

"My Lord!"

Neela came back to her senses, used her dragon claw to grab Alex's body in mid-air, and resettled him on top of her head, hovering in the air.

The mountain fell faster and faster, and finally, at some point, it heaved down and smashed on another mountain range, and there was a violent tremor. The entire Dragon Spirit Realm shook ferociously, with mountains crumbling and turmoil stretching on and on. Even if they were in mid-air, Alex and Neela also felt the strong shock wave.

It was as if a nuclear bomb had exploded below.

Neela controlled her huge body. Her green and white wings flapped hard to stabilize her body, and then she pulled up a few thousand meters. This was not all. The collapse of the mountains below did not stop. They were like dominoes being pushed down, one by one in a continuous collapse.

After Alex shook the Exorcism Bell, the dragon-shaped mountain range that stretched for millions of miles surprisingly crumbled just like that, it was very shocking.

There was a feeling of the sky and the earth crumbling, the mountains and rivers shattering.

At this moment, Uncle Drake and the Fairy Doctor, who were desperately running toward the Dragon Spirit Realm Passage, also felt the tremor between heaven and earth. The violent vibration made both of them unsteady on their feet and almost fell over.

“Uncle Drake, what’s happening? Why is there such a big vibration over there?”

Uncle Drake took a glance at the back and was shocked.

“Dragon Tomb Mountain has collapsed!”

“It’s over. I don’t know what kind of change has happened here. Once the Dragon Tomb Mountain collapses, the whole space here will be shattered as a result and then caught in a void of turbulence! Quickly go, or it will be too late!”

The Fairy Doctor was stunned, “What? How could this happen? But Alex is still inside. What will happen to him?”

Uncle Drake shook his head, “He is still in the depths of the spirit world, he definitely won’t be able to come back, hurry up, or we will also fall here.”

“Huh? No, I have to go save him!”

The Fairy Doctor’s heart seized, and she felt unbearable pain. She turned around violently and was about to go back.

“Are you crazy?” Uncle Drake turned and hurriedly pulled her back.

The Fairy Doctor snarled, “Don’t stop me. I must go save him.”

Uncle Drake replied, "You can't save him. If you go there now, you'll only give up your life for nothing."

The Fairy Doctor shouted, "Even if I lost my life, I would not hesitate."

Uncle Drake was stunned, "Are you crazy? Although that kid's talented. There is no need to give up your life for nothing at a time like this, right? He's just one of your disciples. You can find another one later."

"You let go! I won't leave my disciple behind."

Boom!

With no choice, Uncle Drake knocked the Fairy Doctor unconscious. Then, with her, he hurriedly produced the ancient writings under his feet and fled this space as fast as he could.

On the other side, Neela and Alex had long been obscured by the dust covering the sky. So, Uncle Drake and the Fairy Doctor could not see them at all.

Neela said, "This Exorcism Bell is the suppression artifact of this Dragon Spirit Realm. It seems to be a remarkable magic treasure, but now the dragon Chi here is not suppressed but turned over. That's why it collapsed."

Alex then looked toward a particular place.

That should be the dragon belly. There was a tall building.

However, one would find that this building was different from the regular palaces and houses if one looked carefully. This was where the successive generations of dragon masters of the Exorcist Dragons were buried. But at this moment, this dragon tomb was also amid endless tremors. It was destroyed, together with the collapsed mountain, and was buried deep in it.

Alex sighed. "Since the dragon Chi is also leaving, let's go. The Exorcism Bell has arrived. We still have to rush to Japan to rescue Martiny and the others."

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1906

Neela did not move but said, “Wait for a moment...”

“What have you discovered?”

At this moment, the dragon shaped mountain range below them had collapsed. The space was full of flying dust, and the boundless negative energy earlier was scattered around. What was more ridiculous was that the Spiritual Realm of Dragons seemed to be destroyed soon with the appearance of countless dense-packed void rifts.

Void turbulence rushed out of them as well.

Once the void turbulence had engulfed and dragged them into the void, they would be in deep trouble. When the time came, they would not know where they would be taken to.

It was very likely that they would be lost in the turbulence and could never get out of it for the rest of their lives. It would be akin to be lost in space.

However, Benares Dragons had a blessed talent. It seemed that she did not care about the turbulence at all. Even if the turbulence were to roll over, she did not flinch the slightest nor be affected by it at all.

“Bam, Boom, Goo...!”

At this moment, Neela’s dragon head opened its mouth and roared.

It was the dragon language.

Alex did not understand it at all. He only knew the syllables from Neela’s roar contained certain rules between heaven and earth.

Her roar became louder. In the end, it rang throughout the entire space. The power of rules that followed her roar fell to the ground.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

At this moment, there was a heartbeat like sound on the ground. However, this heartbeat was too strong. Even the entire ground kept shaking.

Just then, a mass of green Chi that contained the power of countless runes rushed out of the ground and wriggled upward. The mass of green Chi kept soaring before changing direction and rushing toward Neela and Alex.

In the blink of an eye, it rushed into Neela's body and disappeared.

However, it was just the beginning.

Immediately afterward, more green Chi exploded and soared into the sky. Finally, they turned into streams of shadows and rushed toward Neela.

Whoosh!

Alex was astonished upon seeing them.

Those green shadows were probably the dragon Chi!

To his surprise, they all had entered Neela's body... A few masses of the Chi had entered Alex's body because he was standing on Neela's gigantic head. In that instant, he felt an unparalleled heat in his body.

Wham!

When the dragon Chi entered his body, the Chaos Tree in his mind palace shook wildly, and the Chaos Beads on it trembled even more vigorously. All of them had come out to absorb the dragon Chi frantically.

There was still a stream of power that came from the golden core.

As the Ancient Forbidden Spell was activated in the golden core, a gush of stronger power came over to snatch the dragon Chi. Its snatching ability was far superior to the Chaos Beads, absorbing the dragon Chi like a whirlpool.

Not only that, the power formed by the forbidden spell had become addicted to the absorption. It was unsatisfied to absorb only the Chi in Alex's body, so it even rushed out of his body to capture the dragon Chi outside.

At this moment, Neela, who was no longer able to bear it, felt that her dragon body was about to explode from the excessive absorption of the dragon Chi. Hence, when Alex's Ancient Forbidden Spell suddenly ran amok by capturing the dragon Chi, not only did it not affect her, but it even saved her life.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1907

Buzz!

At this moment, the golden core inside Alex was like an enormous furnace. There were all sorts of energy colliding against each other.

Since Neela's Benares Dragon's body could not sustain the excessive dragon Chi, the giant energy band created by the Ancient Forbidden Spell had captured almost half of it before dragging it into Alex's golden core. What kind of concept was this?

Alex's physical body was not as strong as Neela's.

At first, he was shocked to the core and thought that he would blow up from the excessive Chi. He was just a puny Peak-Core Formation cultivator. How could he bear it? To his surprise, the matter exceeded his anticipation. His golden core did not explode because the twelve runes of the Ancient Forbidden Spell had surrounded his golden core.

The twelve incomprehensible runes had created such a bizarre yet abnormal golden core. It formed a core room inside it by opening up space. The space was extremely sturdy and unaffected by the outside world.

Even the vigorous collision of the dragon Chi could not break through the core room's wall.

Alex finally felt relieved.

Despite the torture of the dragon Chi inside his body, it did not last long. The twelve runes of the Ancient Forbidden Spell kept disintegrating and absorbing it before merging it into the golden core.

Alex could feel the interior space of his golden core getting larger and sturdier. At the same time, his spiritual power grew stronger.

He could feel that the spiritual power inside his golden core had reached a bizarre level. The amount and its quality were fundamentally different from the spiritual power in other people's golden cores.

'It's bizarre. According to the logic, my cultivation base should have achieved a breakthrough after absorbing so much dragon Chi's power, right? But, why the Lightning Tribulation doesn't come?'

'I have been stuck at Peak-Core Formation for several months.'

If someone were to hear Alex's monologue, he would probably faint and fall to the ground.

Was he still a human?

Who had not gotten stuck for a while after reaching the Peak-Core Formation?

If a few months was considered a long time, how would those people who were stuck for decades afford to live?

"Argh-!"

All of a sudden, Neela let out a roar. She could no longer be able to maintain her figure in the sky and abruptly fell.

Alex was shocked, so he hurriedly stabilized his figure while calling her name loudly. He saw Neela falling at a breakneck speed.

They were at an altitude of thousands or even tens of thousands of meters. If they just fall to the ground like this, they would be dead for sure, right? Alex subconsciously concentrated on his body only to find the sky restriction of this land had disappeared.

Not only he could stay and float in the air, but he could even use the Imperial Sword Flight.

In an instant, he summoned the Sword of the Universe and stood on it. Then, he quickly flew under Neela's body and supported her body with his arms before descending to the ground slowly.

Boom!

As Neela landed on the ground, she let out a roar once again.

Neela said with difficulty, "My lord, I've absorbed too much of the Ancestor Dragon's essence. Now, I can't hide in your body anymore. I need to go into hibernation mode."

Alex was startled. “No way? You’re going to enter hibernation mode now?”

“Yes.”

“But you’re so huge. I can’t carry you!”

Neela’s head lay onto the ground as she transmitted her voice using her mental power. “No need. My lord, you don’t have to carry me. Just let me stay here. I can only stay here! Who would have thought this place is really the place where the Ancestor Dragon had fallen.”

Alex was stunned.

Never did he expect that the Ancestor Dragon’s corpse transformed the huge dragon shaped mountain range that lay across this land earlier. It turned out that the Exorcist Dragons were of the guardian bloodline, the Ancestor Dragon.

The Mayer family was too powerful.

“Uh, it’s not right! ” Alex suddenly realized something.

“This space is unstable, and there are void turbulences everywhere. It’s not safe for you to stay here.”

Neela said, “It’s alright. This place is the Spiritual Reahn of Dragons, a dimensional space created by the Ancestor Dragon. I’ll be safe here! But, my lord, you should leave first. When I wake up later, I’ll come back to look for you.”

Alex asked, “How long would it take then?”

Neela said, “I’m not sure either. It may be fast, or it may take a long time. It all depends on how much I can bear! But this is a once in a lifetime opportunity for me. Our clan has been looking for the whereabouts of the Ancestor Dragon. Now that I’ve acquired the Ancestor Dragon’s essence, I can inherit the Ancestor Dragon’s Legacy!”

Having that said, Alex instantly understood it. After looking at the ravaging dimensional rifts everywhere, he knew that the rifts might devour him if he were to continue to stay there. Hence, he jumped on the Sword of the Universe and bade Neela farewell.

“My lord, take care!”

“Likewise. I’ll wait to meet you again.”

“Thanks, my lord!”

After Neela said this, she closed her eyes as well.

She had completely fallen into a deep sleep. She needed to integrate and digest the Ancestor Dragon’s essence in a deep sleep.

After staring at her deeply for the last time, Alex hurriedly activated the Sword of the Universe and fled in the direction he came in. The moment the spiritual power in the golden core poured into the Sword of the Universe, his Sword of the Universe had an unprecedented change, as if it had become alive.

There was soaring dragon Chi on the blade. A dragon pattern had even appeared on it.

It was abnormally powerful compared to the formation blueprint corresponding to the Sword of the Universe.

Whoosh!

The Sword of the Universe broke through the sound barrier right away. It was faster than the supersonic speed as it turned into a stream of light, flying forward madly like teleportation.

‘D*mn, this is too awesome! Could it be that this is the result after the absorption of the Ancestor Dragon’s essence?’

He wondered if he could activate the Lightning Tribulation to break through the Peak- Core Formation stage and reach the Nascent Soul stage after leaving this space.

However, he was disappointed.

When he rushed out of the Spiritual Realm of Dragons' entrance with a whoosh, he could not feel the advent of the Path of God, let alone the baptism of the Lightning Tribulation. He could not feel a hint of thunderous might at all.

Alex was puzzled. He could clearly feel that his current strength had long surpassed the normal Peak-Core Formation stage. He thought that even a Nascent Soul expert would be no match for him.

However, the Lightning Tribulation just did not come.

'Could it be that the golden core was so sturdy that it could not be shattered into the Nascent Soul?'

That was just too miserable.

His current golden core was sturdy, such that the massive dragon Chi could not even break through it for the slightest. So, how could he be capable of shattering such a golden core?

Thinking about it made him want to cry.

At this moment, Uncle Drake's voice suddenly rang out.

"Brat, you're not dead yet? You actually came out of it alive."

At this moment, Uncle Drake had recovered from the state of having one foot in the grave.

Alex saw the fainted Fairy Doctor sitting next to a large tree. Alex hurriedly ran over and took a look. She was still fine. She just passed out and did not have any serious condition.

Alex handed the Exorcism Bell to Uncle Drake. "I've completed the task!"

Uncle Drake was shocked for a moment before accepting the Exorcism Bell and saying, "Brat, how did you escape? Earlier, we felt a powerful tremor at the Dragon Tomb Mountain, as if Heaven, Earth, and space were about to be destroyed from the shock. I even thought that you were going to die there!"

Alex breathed a sigh of relief and said, "I was lucky."

Uncle Drake asked, "How's the situation in there now?"

Alex said, "It's gone. The mountains have collapsed, and the dragon Chi has disappeared. So, perhaps, you won't be able to open the gateway anymore."

Uncle Drake's expression changed abruptly before sighing deeply.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 1909

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1909

Uncle Drake tried to use the dragon language to open up the gateway to the Spiritual Realm of Dragons. However, he failed.

When he chanted the first syllable of the dragon language, but he did not receive the corresponding feedback, he knew that he had completely lost the dimension where the dragon tomb was located.

It proved that his comprehension earlier was not wrong. Once the Exorcism Bell was taken away, the dragon Chi inside the dragon tomb would slip away, and the dimension inside it would no longer be stable. As time passed, nobody would know where it went in the end.

Alex walked over and channeled a stream of spiritual power into the Fairy Doctor's body. Soon after, the Fairy Doctor woke up.

After waking up, she said the first sentence. "Uncle Drake, how dare you knock me out?!"

Only then did Alex know that the Fairy Doctor did not pass out from the pain of the negative energy. Instead, Uncle Drake had brought her out of it after knocking her out.

Uncle Drake seemed slightly awkward as he said, "In that situation just now, I thought you couldn't get out, so..."

Alex nodded. "You're right."

When the Fairy Doctor saw Alex, she hugged him excitedly right there and then. "Alex, you've come out? You didn't die?"

Alex was touched.

From Uncle Drake's words, he could tell that she must have seen the situation was wrong and wanted to head back to save him, but Uncle Drake knocked her out.

"That's great!"

The Fairy Doctor, who expressed her true feelings, met Alex's eyes as if there was fleeting electricity between them. At this moment, she, who could no longer control her emotions, kissed Alex on his lips at once.

Kiss!

Uncle Drake's eyes widened in astonishment.

Alex was the Fairy Doctor's disciple!

However, he was old and had experienced a lot of things. He also had many experiences in the love affair between a man and a woman, so it was unusual for him. So he turned around and then took a closer look at the Exorcism Bell.

Five minutes had passed.

Ten minutes had passed.

To his surprise, Alex and the Fairy Doctor had not finished it. He could not wait any longer, so he stretched his hand and dragged out an antique wooden bed from his storage magical treasure, with bedding and whatsoever on it. Then, as he slammed it onto the ground hard, he said, "Do you guys need to borrow this?"

The Fairy Doctor let go of Alex. Then, after taking a glance at the bed, she flushed as she said, "There's no need. I have it myself."

She took the Warm Jade Bed, which had the Spirit Gathering Array carved on it, out of the storage bracelet.

Uncle Drake was startled for a moment. "Then, I... do I have to avoid it first?"

Alex licked his lips and said awkwardly, "No need, no need. About that... Uncle Drake, now that you've acquired the Exorcism Bell, you should hurry to the Izanami Shrine in Japan to save the person. You don't have to care about us."

Uncle Drake was startled. “You guys are not going?”

Alex said, “Aunt Martiny only said to have you go there.”

Uncle Drake frowned and shook his head. “I don’t even know the location of the Izanami Shrine in Japan. I definitely can’t handle this matter alone. You both better go there with me.”

The Fairy Doctor said, “Uncle Drake, if you don’t even know the location of the Izanami Shrine, then... How are you going to save this person?”

After thinking for a while, Uncle Drake said, “Indeed, I heard of the Izanami Shrine for the first time. There are many shrines in Japan, especially those with a deep background. There are six great, ancient shrines that masters supervise. I’ll find someone. He should know it.”

Alex asked, “Who is it?”

Uncle Drake looked in the east direction and said, “It’s the first swordsman from the Higurashi Shrine in Japan, Aoda Sasaki!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 1910

The Fairy Doctor saw his solemn expression, so she said, “Uncle Drake, there aren’t many experts in Japan, right? Is this Aoda Sasaki powerful? Why are you so afraid of it?”

Uncle Drake said, “Don’t look down on Japan, especially since there are some powerful beings in those few shrines. And, this Aoda Sasaki has been a sword maniac since he was young. He only specializes in studying one thing in his entire life, that’s kendo! His kendo has reached the edge of the limit.”

“Could it be that you can’t defeat him?”

“It’s hard to say. His sword is strange.” Then, Uncle Drake did not mention this matter anymore.

In addition, he had no time to lose as he had to save the person as soon as possible. Since Uncle Drake had made such a request, Alex and the Fairy Doctor could not refuse him. Deep down, Alex was quite worried about Martiny Mayer, Nora Stewart, and others. Moreover, he was quite anxious as Carol Rockefeller had not been found.

It was a distant journey from the Flying Eagles Academy to Japan.

Besides, Uncle Drake said that he had a nemesis in Japan. Once he flew over there forcibly using his cultivation base, not only would it have significant consumption, but that nemesis would detect his movement as well.

He had to travel there by plane for safety's sake.

Alex could only ask help from his master, Jade Benmore. On the other hand, Jade let her tactician, Eleanor Curtis, make the arrangements.

It was now the night of New Year's Eve. It was challenging to find a last minute flight to Japan. In the end, she found a flight from Michigan International Airport that was going to depart in half an hour or so later. The question was, could they get there in time?

If they could not get there in time, she could make arrangements to delay the flight.

Uncle Drake said, "No problem."

If Alex wanted to rush to Michigan from the Flying Eagles in half an hour or so, he felt that half an hour would be insufficient to get there. However, Uncle Drake's cultivation base was much greater than his. He grabbed Alex and the Fairy Doctor with each side of his hand, respectively, and the cultivation patterns appeared under his feet. As soon as he made the first step, he had flown out of the Flying Eagles Academy.

When he made another step, he had reached ten miles away.

Alex's eyes widened in shock. He stared at the cultivation patterns under Uncle Drake's feet and mumbled, "Could it be that this is the supernatural power of the Terrain Stride?"

Uncle Drake took a glance at him and said, "Rockefeller brat, it looks like you know many things. You even know about the Terrain Stride. You're right. This is the supernatural power of our Dragon Guardians! Are you interested in joining our Dragon Guardians? I think you're quite suitable for it. Once you've become a Dragon Guardian, you will be able to learn this supernatural power."

Alex shook his head.

He had acquired Ksitigarbha's Legacy and was a descendant of the God of Medicine who possessed the Chaos Beads. Earlier, he had just devoured about half of the Ancestor Dragon's essence. He was reluctant to become a member of the Exorcist Dragons, let alone become the Guardian of the Exorcist Dragons.

Uncle Drake snorted. "Once you miss this chance, you won't be able to get another!"

In the end, in less than twenty minutes, Uncle Drake, who took Alex and the Fairy Doctor, appeared at Michigan International Airport.

Someone had been waiting at the airport's entrance, the Flying Eagles team member arranged by the tactician... They were given the green light all the way. Even Alex and the Fairy Doctor did not have to show their credentials and entered the first-class cabin that had been arranged through an internal jetway.

The first-class seats in the plane were separated from each other, so the privacy was quite decent.

The Fairy Doctor initially wanted to sit together with Alex, but she could not do so. Since the three of them did not have the plane tickets, they just found some random seats to sit.

Alex wanted to look at the current situation within the golden core. After sitting down, he just closed his eyes and concentrated his thoughts on the golden core.

After a while, someone nudged him and woke him up. It was a young woman similar to his age who was fastidious in her fashion and wore an elegant outfit.

She said to him, "Sir, this is my seat."

"Huh?" Alex opened his eyes and was startled for a moment. At this moment, he felt somewhat familiar after looking at the woman's face.

Just as he was wondering about where he had seen her, the woman asked dubiously, "You... You're Alex Rockefeller, right?"
