The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3091

In that case, wouldn't all his efforts go in vain?

Infuriated, Eustace slapped Nadia directly across her face. "It's all your fault. You're so slow. Why don't you hurry and go? I want to see you set up the spell formation successfully and send over all the luck and spiritual energy in all the bases within an hour."

"Yes, Young Lord!"

What else could Nadia say?

She couldn't help but execute his order obediently.

At the same time, a large number of alien visitors outside the atmosphere were staring down. Layers of clouds failed to block their vision. They were all stunned for a moment when they saw the commotion below.

"The second spiritual energy tide has begun!"

"How can it be so fast?"

"The bigwigs are still trying to break the spell formation, yet the spiritual energy tide over there has already erupted! I'm afraid the eruption of the spiritual energy tide will be over after the force field of the spell formation is broken!"

The bigwigs trying to break the spell formation began to exert their strength. Meanwhile, several major sects sent down batches of people with low cultivation levels, as if dropping dumplings in boiling water.

Yukon. Jade Building.

Alex was floating in the middle of the Jade Building. It wasn't him but the natural phenomenon of this place. The position he was located in was the Jade Building's crux of spell formation with eighteen Spirit Gathering Arrays around it. They gathered all the spiritual energy and luck and sent it to Alex's position.

As long as he was in that position, he would float in the air naturally.

The Little Divine Phoenix had not fully activated the Jade Building's rules and Alex was already slightly uncomfortable.

A massive amount of energy rushed into his body. It was too fast and the amount was too large.

If his physical body's strength hadn't been far superior than that of an average person, he would've failed to withstand the massive influx of energy. It was just like injecting a tons of water inside a small balloon. There would only be one end result- the balloon would burst.

Huff, huff, huff...

The three thousand Nascent Souls in the body moved rhythmically.

Unlike in the illusionary realm back then, the three thousand Nascent Souls were still in the previous seed form. They did not really develop black and white lotuses. All of that was fake. But now, as more and more luck and spiritual energy gathered in the Jade Building's spell formations, Alex began to feel the strain. His meridians swelled with pain and the Nascent Souls also began to inflate.

Alex withstood the onslaught.

Why would a man be afraid of a little pain?

The process lasted for a good half an hour. It was then that the Little Divine Phoenix told him that the real test was about to begin.

Whoosh!

Gales began to blow in the Jade Building, gales of spiritual energy and luck that completely filled Alex's body.

Poof!

In an instant, Alex's skin tore and blood gushed out. 'Ymir's Divine Bone, activate!'

'True Martial Marrow, activate!'

'Yellow Obsidian Chi, suppress!'

Alex roared inwardly as he desperately churned Chi.

At that moment, Eustace had long bathed in the spiritual energy tide. He couldn't care less if Nadia had yet to complete the spell formation, but he couldn't waste it now! Shortly afterward, Nadia came to report the spell formation was ready. She had used another method to connect all the sanctuaries.

The spiritual energy tide from all those sanctuaries would be drawn over. However, the tide at this sanctuary stopped right after she finished her speech.

"Huh? What's going on?"

"Nadia, what the hell have you done? Why did you wipe out the spiritual energy tide?"

Nadia was shocked. She did not understand the reason behind it at all. She was clearly gathering the spiritual energy here from other places, but why did it stop instead?

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3092

Under the Little Divine Phoenix's special magic seal, the spell formations of rules in the Jade Building of Yukon was in full operation. More and more spiritual energy gathered and gushed into Alex's body.

If the spiritual energy tide from various sanctuaries was like a geyser, then the current spiritual energy tide that gathered in the Jade Building of Yukon was a volcanic eruption.

The spiritual energy that had been condensed and compressed by the spell formations rushed into the meridians all over his body before rushing into the three thousand Nascent Souls. That kind of pain was simply unbearable to a man. However, his body had gone through various refinements, and not to mention the enhancements he received in the Underworld, the infusion of True Martial Marrow had allowed his physical body to attain a height unreachable by many people.

At first, the Little Divine Phoenix standing next to Alex was worried that he would not be able to withstand it and vomit blood on the spot.

Nonetheless, he did not do so.

Even if the skin cracked a little and blood flowed out at first, those wounds rapidly healed on their own.

The most crucial key behind it turned out to be the lotus seeds within the three thousand Nascent Souls. Under the blessing of the massive spiritual energy and luck, the three thousand lotus seeds seemed to have come to life. They shook in the embryos of the Nascent Souls and rapidly absorbed the energy. The lotuses then grew at an unbelievable speed.

“Blue Demonic Lotus! How did you get the approval of the Blue Demonic Lotus?”

The Little Divine Phoenix was also slightly surprised. She noticed that her worries were superfluous. Judging from the absorption rate, Alex should be able to endure a spiritual energy tide that was ten times stronger.

At the same time, unlimited spiritual energy was drawn toward the Jade Building. The tides in all other sanctuaries were directly severed, but the one at Yukon was untouched, where the spiritual energy tide was still present. Moreover, some spiritual energy had leaked out of the Jade Building and replenished Yukon.

Therefore, the people in Yukon Sanctuary were blessed. They had consumed Alex’s Pills of Enlightenment earlier, and now, unlimited spiritual energy was gushing over.

After all, the previous tide had turned many normal people into cultivators and psychic users. However, that was just an appetizer.

The second spiritual energy tide was the real main course. Because of bathing in the spiritual energy tide, some people advanced promptly after their cultivation levels grew rapidly and broke through the bottleneck. Some people even directly triggered the Lightning Tribulation.

However, an amazing scene appeared.

The light pillars that soared into the sky from the Jade Building seemingly could affect the Lightning Tribulation. Tribulation Clouds had just condensed in the sky, but just because they approached those few light pillars, the energy of the Tribulation Clouds was later sucked away.

Hence, a strange phenomenon appeared among the people in Yukon Sanctuary. The people who required the Tribulation Crossing simply did not have to experience the Lightning Tribulation. Then, the golden light of the Lightning Tribulation struck down directly.

The Tribulation Crossing was easy and safe without a scratch.

On the other hand, Eustace, who actually controlled dozens of sanctuaries, was about to explode with rage. It turned out that the spiritual energy tide had disappeared.

How great would the spiritual energy tide from the combination of dozens of sanctuaries be?

It would be five times more than that of Yukon at least, but now, the eruption surprisingly did not occur in any of those places. He initially thought that it was Nadia's fault and that she had wiped out the spiritual energy tide because of the wrong spell formation. However, the eruption occurred in a few sanctuaries without the installation of the spell formations for a short while before it disappeared suddenly... This indicated that it was not Nadia's fault.

"It's Yukon!"

"The light pillars above the Jade Building of Yukon have not disappeared. There must be something wrong with it. The Jade Building has intercepted the spiritual energy and luck in all sanctuaries."

Eustace suddenly figured it out. When he floated in the sky and looked at the scene where Yukon's Jade Building was emitting light, his voice turned cold.

Nadia said, "Young Lord, if we want to reach the Jade Building of Yukon, we have to go through the Heavenly Stairs, but we are well aware of the situation there. Even you can only reach thirteen steps, what more that aborigine from the Wasteland? So, I think we don't have to panic even if the Jade Building has intercepted the spiritual energy of various sanctuaries. As long as we take down Yukon, the spiritual energy tide will be still yours in the end."

Eustace felt slightly better after hearing those words.

“Go! Let’s go to Yukon and take a look!”

Eustace was still unconvinced, especially deep down. He somehow felt unsettled, as if something was going to happen.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3093

Alex was currently calling the shots at Yukon. He had also gained the Little Divine Phoenix’s support.

Shortly afterward, they both entered Yukon’s arispace. They weren’t exactly in Yukon yet, but they could see the situation at Jade Building clearly.

At first, they didn’t notice anything, but as more and more spiritual energy tides entered the Jade Building, its walls could no longer support the weight. Not only did a massive amount of spiritual energy tide bombard Yukon Sanctuary, but the Jade Building’s walls were on the verge of collapse. Eventually, they crumbled.

After that, Eustace and Nadia saw the scene that made their eyes widen with rage. To their surprise, Alex was devouring unpredictable spiritual energy in the Jade Building.

Meanwhile, the Little Divine Phoenix had also appeared there, manipulating the spiritual energy tide and sending it to Alex using her unique techniques.

“How... Can this be?” Nadia was astonished. “Her Highness is actually helping that brat? Didn’t she say she would take a neutral stance?”

She cautiously looked at Eustace and noticed that he didn’t look that good. She had never seen that grimace before.

The next second, Eustace rushed in the direction of the Jade Building.

Buzz!

The force field of a spell formation blocked him midair.

Roar!

“Alex, you come out!”

“Little Divine Phoenix, come out!”

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Eustace was devastated.

It had been several millennia and he was clearly the seed, so why did the Little Divine Phoenix change her mind at this time? Surprisingly, she had given away something that belonged to him.

Why did she do that and, what right did she have?

Eustace roared wildly. He took out the Umbrella of Destiny and attacked the force field desperately.

The people cultivating in Yukon Sanctuary certainly noticed Eustace and all of them shuddered with fear. The commotion was so great that the entire Yukon trembled on its knees.

“What should we do?”

“That’s Eustace Underwood from the Stoermer Sect! His cultivation is simply terrifying! I’m afraid this spell formation won’t last!”

Unfortunately, the spell formation, set up by Alex with thousands of flags, involved content that no one at the scene could decipher. Hence, they could not be of help. Jade stood up. “Alex mustn’t be interrupted now at this critical moment I’ll go stop him.”

Daya also stood up. “I’ll go too.”

Jade looked at Daya. At that moment, she was slightly afraid to meet her gaze all of a sudden, as if she had done something wrong to her.

Lorelei stopped them. “Hold your horses! Eustace Underwood’s strength is far beyond your imagination. I’m afraid he can kill you with a wave of his hand. It’s better that I go!”

“Sis, I’ll go with you!” said Lila.

Then, Nebula came as well.

“No need! I’ll just go alone!”

Lorelei left the force field alone and rushed toward Eustace.

Nadia reminded Eustace, “Young Lord, Lorelei is here.”

Eustace did not stop attacking the spell formation for a moment and he could now feel that it had loosened up a little. Full of murderous intent, he glanced at Lorelei.

“Kill her!” he hissed.

Eventually, Nadia nodded.

Nadia had always been on par with Lorelei in terms of cultivation level. She had always wanted to be superior to Lorelei. Today, it was the time to go head-to-head.

“Sis, the young lord ordered me to kill you! I have to kill you!”

Nadia rushed toward Lorelei. Consequently, Lorelei casually lashed out a palm and sent Nadia flying hundreds of meters away, instantly deciding the outcome of the battle.

“You... You have transcended?!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3094

Lorelei had indeed transcended.

To Alex, her innate heart disease wasn’t something difficult. As long as Lorelei could display sufficient loyalty, Alex would naturally solve that issue of hers generously. And, Lorelei displayed her loyalty decently.

Hence, Alex cured her heart disease after concocting a batch of Pills of Enlightenment.

Lorelei's cultivation level was stuck at the bottleneck for more than two millennia due to her innate heart disease, but her accumulation was rich and could be utilized when needed. She had long reached the point where she should have transcended. This time, the problem was solved after Alex helped her cure her. Hence, her cultivation level would naturally surge.

Previously, she was at Heavenly Deity realm. Now, she had reached Divine Monarch realm.

Not only that, each major realm beyond Incarnate Deity was divided into small realms, Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, and Peak.

Lorelei had just triggered the Lightning Tribulation.

However, the Lightning Tribulation directly dissipated because of the Jade Building in Yukon. The descending golden light of Lightning Tribulation made Lorelei leap into the Divine Monarch realm. Moreover, she rose by two levels consecutively and transcended to Intermediate-Divine Monarch.

Nadia, who was still in the Heavenly Deity realm, was naturally no match for Lorelei.

"That's right! I have transcended!"

Lorelei just glanced indifferently at Nadia, never fond of this former second sister since she was too utilitarian. They were often at odds with each other because of their different philosophies.

Nadia clutched her chest and felt a faint pain. Furthermore, a wisp of special Chi belonging to Lorelei still remained at the location of her energy core. Her energy core was sealed, hindering the churning of her Chi at that time. Hence, she simply had no way to fight again.

Nadia felt extremely resentful. "Lorelei Arley! What have you done to me?!"

Lorelei said indifferently, "Don't worry. I just made you lose combat power temporarily. We're sisters, after all. I haven't thought of ruining your cultivation, but don't you force me."

When she said that, Eustace finally stopped attacking the force field. Instead, he fiercely turned around and stared at Lorelei.

His cold gaze filled with murderous intent would instantly spread fear in the eyes of his enemies.

“Lorelei, you traitorous b*tches have the audacity to meet me?”

From his appearance, Lorelei knew that his vengeance was impossible to be resolved. She said, “Eustace, just think whatever you want. I, Lorelei Arley, have reasons for my choice. The young lord I recognize has always been the seed. This was also the original intention of my promise to someone. When you were the seed, the person I chose to follow was you, but now, you are no longer the seed. The seed is someone else. Then, I naturally have to serve the real seed.”

“Bullsh*t!”

Eustace roared, “Who said the seed is someone else?! I’m the seed! I’m the one of a kind seed!”

Lorelei asked, “Then, why did Her Highness choose Alex Rockefeller, but not you?”

Eustace cast a ferocious glance in the direction of the Jade Building. “That’s because she is blind!”

Now that things had reached such a point, Eustace wanted to shed all pretense of cordiality. Ultimately, it was because the current Eustace was not afraid of the Little Divine Phoenix.

Lorelei was stunned. Unexpectedly, it was like Eustace scolded Little Divine Phoenix right in front of her. He was really bold.

Wasn’t he afraid of being punished by the Little Divine Phoenix?

“Eustace Underwood, how dare you offend Her Highness?” asked Lorelei.

“Haha! Haha... Offense? Is she worthy of it?” Eustace glanced at the Little Divine Phoenix in the Jade Building. He then looked at Lorelei. “B*tch, you are inferior to her. How dare you abandon me, the seed, and hook up with some unknown guy? Do you think you can deal with me after transcending into ad Divine Monarch? What a pipe dream! Now, I’ll show you what a real Divine Monarch looks like!”

Eustace was about to attack Lorelei.

Lorelei also took a defensive stance.

It was then that the Little Divine Phoenix said to Eustace, “Eustace Underwood, get lost right now. Don’t hurt yourself because of your own mistake.”

Eustace looked into the Jade Building with a hideous expression. “Little Divine Phoenix, who are you trying to scare? Do you think I can’t tell? You have long been a lousy old hag. Besides, you don’t have a physical body. It’s no longer antiquity now. The League of Cultivators has been destroyed, the Stoermer Sect has been destroyed, and your parents have long died. You are a living dead barely managing to survive. What can you do to me?”

The Little Divine Phoenix did not open her mouth.

Lorelei shouted delicately, “Eustace Underwood, how dare you disrespect Her Highness?”

“So what? She went back on her word in the first place. Which other bullshi*ting bi*ch deserves my respect? Haha! Too bad she doesn’t have a physical body all these years, or I would’ve slept with her long ago.”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3095

Eustace spoke more and more unpleasantly.

The Little Divine Phoenix had never experienced something like that, so she almost exploded with rage. However, she still needed to protect Alex.

At that moment, Lorelei took the initiative and lashed out at Eustace. “Hmph! You bite off more than you can chew!”

Eustace turned around and fiercely lashed a smack out. Geared up, Lorelai unleashed all her cultivation base of Intermediate-Divine Monarch. In a brief moment, endless waves of dazzling stars and oceans of laws rushed toward Eustace.

“How can a light the size of a grain compete with a bright moon?” Eustace snapped coldly.

They both exchanged blows for the first time. A loud boom rang out. The air exploded, the space shook, and the force field trembled violently.

Eustace took three steps backward. On the other hand, Lorelei was sent flying three hundred meters, spilling blood in the air.

Even so, Eustace was slightly surprised. “Lorelei, I didn’t expect your cultivation to have improved so greatly. You’ve reached Intermediate-Divine Monarch, but you are still far inferior in my eyes, Traitor, just die!”

He used the Umbrella of Destiny. He would be in search control of destiny once the Umbrella of Destiny came out.

Lorelei summoned three flying swords and blocked them desperately.

Clank! Clank! Clank!

Three crisp sounds could be heard. Lorelei’s three flying swords were severed almost at the same time. The Umbrella of Destiny wrapped around Lorelei with a life and death thread.

“Sis, be careful!”

Lila and Nebula arrived at the same time. All the three sisters resisted the fatal move of the Umbrella of Destiny.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Lila and Nebula’s weapons simultaneously intercepted the life and death thread. Unfortunately, the weapons of both parties were not on the same level.

Lila and Nebula’s weapons were severed in the blink of an eye. Nonetheless, it managed to buy the three women a little time to escape from the life and death thread. Even so, the three women looked wretched. Many areas of their clothes were cut, leaving a lot of wounds on their bodies.

“Three traitors! Just die together then!” Eustace roared as he made a move once again.

The Umbrella of Destiny struck again. This time, three life and death threads were unleashed.

One's body simply could not withstand a divine artifact's attack on that level. The three goddesses couldn't help but turn around and flee. It was then that Eustace's other few maids had rushed over from elsewhere and blocked their escape route just in time.

The Little Divine Phoenix's voice carried over. "Eustace Underwood, stop being unrepentant! Do you believe I will slay you with the Immortal-slaying Sword?"

Eustace roared, "Shut your mouth, b*tch! Do you think I don't know? You can't slay me with that Immortal-slaying Sword of yours!"

"Die!"

Lorelei and the others looked despaired.

Just then, two figures rushed out of the force field.

Buzz!

A hammer as huge as a mountain arrived in a flash and blocked the life and death thread. It was the supreme weapon, the Martello Celia!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3096

Jade and Daya rushed out of the force field. Lorelei and the others were trying to buy time for Alex. One of them was Alex's master, whereas the other was his wife. They had no reason to wait inside the force field and observe from the sidelines, and they couldn't helplessly watch Lorelei and the other women get killed wither.

The Martello Celia was not an ordinary divine artifact. It was not an ordinary Supreme weapon either. It was the supreme treasure of the Titan Tribe.

Grandpa Hammer was still alive inside!

Buzz!

The life and death threads wrapped themselves around the Martello Celia. They tried to sever it, but it wasn't easy severing the Martello Celia.

Circles of fire threads ignited, emitted by the life and death threads while severing Martello Celia. But none of them could do anything about the other. The Umbrella of Destiny could not sever the Martello Celia, while the Martello Celia couldn't break the life and death threads. They were evenly matched.

Nonetheless, Lorelei and the others were saved.

Nadia's eyes widened with rage as she commanded her subordinate sisters to launch an attack on Jade and others. At that time, Eustace had planted a severe restriction on the remaining sisters so that none of them would mount a resistance.

The next second, the chaotic battle broke out.

"Frenzy Vines! Unleash deadly poison!"

Daya was a manipulative adversary. Countless vines emerged from the ground and entangled the people attacking with mystical tools. When Lorelei and the others saw that they could not help Jade, they just turned around and helped Daya.

However, they were outnumbered!

They were quite disadvantaged in the battle. When the people in the force field saw that they were not okay, they went over to lend a hand.

Immediately afterward, Maya, Beatrice, the Fairy Doctor, Gilbert, and Pigsy took the initiative to fight.

"Oink, oink! Do you guys think I'm a powerless pig if I don't step in?"

Pigsy shouted and unleashed a light beam attack from its mouth far away. Its ideal was wonderful, yet it ended up in misery.

Eustace's subordinates were all at Deity tier.

The opponent came over with a sword. Not only did the sword break the light beam from Pigsy's mouth, but it also struck on its head.

If it hadn't fled far enough at breakneck speed, its head would've fallen off. Even if it managed to escape, one of its ears fell off, causing it to oink in pain. Eventually, it couldn't help but retreat.

It simply could not participate in the battle on that level.

Bam!

Maya fell hard onto the ground with a long sword wound from her chest to her thigh. If Alex hadn't given her an extremely powerful defensive magical treasure, the blow would've killed her.

Beatrice was saved by Lorelei, but she was also severely injured.

Nebula roared, "Who told you guys to come out? Why don't you go back? With your cultivation, you're just courting death! Go back!"

The three women blocked attacks from their former sisters while sending those people back. However, the remaining situation was even more perilous.

"Sisters, don't you see that? Her Highness is inside the Jade Building. She chose Alex Rockefeller, which proves Eustace Underwood is unqualified to become the seed. Do you still want to keep following him? Alex Rockefeller is the real seed!" Lorelei appealed to the sisters hoping that they would turn over a new leaf.

Nadia laughed. "Lorelei, don't waste your time. All of them have signed the Soul Contracts with the young lord, so they can't possibly betray him."

"How despicable!"

"Despicable? File a complaint with Hades when you are dead! Finish them!"

"Finish them!"

Eight deity-tier opponents besieged Lorelei and the others. Even if Lorelei was an Intermediate-Divine Monarch, she felt slightly exhausted. On the other hand, Lila and Nebula were struggling to support themselves.

There were several occasions that Lorelei could kill the opponents, but she really couldn't do it and threw the game multiple times because they were formerly her good sisters.

However, tragedy struck at that moment.

Poof!

Unable to dodge in time, Lila had her throat pierced by the opponent's sword.

In fact, she still would not die in that way

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3097

Lorelei was astonished. "Lila! You guys really dare to kill?!"

However, a sister from the other side answered her by piercing Lila's heart with a sword. She even twisted it a few times.

Bleugh!

Blood spurted out of Lila's neck, and her heart bled profusely.

"Sis, let's become... Sisters again in the next life!" Lila plopped down slowly while clutching her neck.

"Lila! Lila! Ah!" Lorelei was regretful.

The one who killed Lila was someone she had previously spared. Consequently, her sister died in return for her kindness. "Today, our sisterhood shall be severed, and our lives shall be decided by Heaven's will!"

Nadia sneered. "Lorelei Arley, both of us couldn't coexist long ago. It's just that you're the most naive."

"You shall be the first person I'll kill!" Lorelai growled. Lorelei's eyes were bloodshot as she rushed into the battle circle alone.

Nadia panicked and quickly retreated as she shouted, "Block her! Block her... Young Lord, save me! Save me!"

At that moment, Eustace could not fend for himself.

He was stunned. He could tell that Jade's cultivation was far inferior from his, but this woman's ferocity was just like that of a prehistoric beast. The strength of her body was beyond his comprehension, especially Martello Celia was extremely terrifying.

However, he did not know that.

Grandpa Hammer inside Martello Celia had personally stepped in.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The world shattered and the space cracked.

The Little Divine Phoenix was surprised at such a battle situation. Jade managed to hold on for so long under Eustace's attack in full strength.

Gilbert, who returned to the force field, blushed as soon as he recalled how he had gone out and was almost killed. There seemed to be a huge difference between the two.

Even so...

Grandpa Hammer shouted in Jade's ear. "Lassie, I can't do it anymore! My weary old body is about to collapse! The weapon in this guy's hand is extremely complicated! It is also a supreme weapon, which is designed to restrain my kind! I'm going to retreat! You better be careful on your own!"

Whoosh!

Grandpa Hammer escaped.

The Martello Celia's strength plummeted instantly. Jade was already at her limit after supporting herself for five breaths of time.

Bam!

The Umbrella of Destiny hit the sword.

The Martello Celia slammed hard into her body, sending her flying several hundreds meter, spilling blood before falling into a forest. She did not come out again later.

Roar!

Eustace vented his dejection with a roar after defeating Jade.

Consequently, he happened to see Lorelei decapitate Nadia with a sword right after turning his head.

“Lorelei Arley, you have a death wish!” Eustace was furious and wanted to kill Lorelei with the Umbrella of Destiny that he held. When both parties were a kilometer apart, he unleashed layers of life and death threads, severing the space.

“Sis, run quickly!” Nebula reminded loudly.

She rushed over and wanted to lend a hand, but her former sisters surrounded her

A sword hit Nebula’s stomach.

Another sword hit Nebula’s thigh.

“Nebula Finley, we are the young lord’s allies! We can only feel sorry for you! You should die in peace!”

A woman slashed Nebula’s neck with a sword.

Roar!

Just then, a dragon’s howl was heard, and a green light flashed. A dragon’s figure suddenly appeared next to Nebula and fiercely grabbed the blade before snatching the sword.

The dragon then vanished in a flash. It turned into a woman and slashed the opponent’s neck in return.

Someone who clearly saw the woman’s appearance inside the force field exclaimed, “Isn’t that... Senior Cedric’s granddaughter? I think I remember her name is Esmeralda Campbell, am I right?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3098

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3098

“Esmeralda Campbell? How can she be Esmeralda Campbell?”

Everyone in Yukon Sanctuary was dumbfounded.

When they were still at Mount Dragon-Tiger, Esmeralda and Cedric had once stayed for three days. Hence, almost everyone knew her. However, who would have thought her cultivation level would be so high?

She decapitated a deity-tier opponent with a sword.

As soon as the other subordinate maids saw Esmeralda, who had popped up, was so awful, they gave up on Nebula. They stood in a row, preparing to confront her.

Someone asked, "Who are you?" Are you trying to go against the Stoermer Sect?"

Esmeralda sneered. "You people can't represent the Stoermer Sect."

Having narrowly escaped, Esmeralda only harbored hatred against the group of former sisters. She covered the wound on her abdomen and swallowed a handful of pills before she said sternly, "How dare you proclaim yourselves as members of the Stoermer Sect? Her Highness is inside. Eustace Underwood is sinful for slandering Her Highness blatantly. He is already a traitor to the Stoermer Sect. All the members of the Stoermer Sect should hunt him down. What about you guys? You're siding with Eustace Underwood and joining forces to deal with Her Highness, yet you're shameless enough to say you're members of the Stoermer Sect?! Pooh!"

A woman said, "Everyone serves her own master. We have nothing more to say."

Esmeralda looked in the direction of the Jade Building. The next second, she initiated a sideswipe.

Bam!

A woman caught off guard was sent flying by her smack. At the same time, she said to Nebula, "Go into the force field!"

Nebula was sent into the force field by Esmeralda before she could have a chance to ask about Esmeralda's origin. Then, she saw Esmeralda rush toward Eustace.

At that moment, Lorelei was surrounded by perils. She faced Eustace alone, but her cultivation realm was inferior to his. Eustace's cultivation was two small realms higher than Lorelei's.

The Umbrella of Destiny overpowered him. Eustace's combat power rose exponentially with help from a supreme weapon of such caliber, whereas Lorelei's few natal magical treasures were inferior. She did not even have a handy weapon. Soon, she was in a predicament as they exchanged blows.

Wham!

Lorelei was knocked up high into the air. She vomited blood in the air.

However, she had activated the latest skill she had learned, Wind's Aeon, and tried her best to nullify Eustace's attack with the vortex of wind. Even so, she was still severely wounded. Her body was almost cut open, and her internal organs were displaced. After landing on the ground, she kept vomiting blood.

Boom!

Eustace stomped down with one foot, aiming at Lorelei's neck. He was trying to stomp her to death.

"Cyclone!"

Lorelei resisted him desperately and summoned a super hurricane that contained the laws of the wind. It was ten times the power of a Category 5 hurricane, its wind was sharper than a blade as it sliced at Eustace. She took the advantage and dodged for a few hundred meters.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After continuous explosions, Lorelei's cyclone was abruptly shattered by Eustace. He then walked toward the spent force, Lorelei, one step at a time.

"Lorelei Arley, have you ever thought of today's ending when you betrayed me? I'll give you a chance since you've served me for three millennia. Knee! Repent and become my slave. I shall be your supreme master from now on!"

Lorelei shook her head. "Eustace Underwood, you're far worse than my master."

"Your master? That Rockefeller brat? He's just a piece of s*it!"

“Haha. All you did was live longer than him. My master’s is only twenty-eight this year. The duration of his cultivation is even shorter, less than five years. Can you compete with him? I believe he can trample you easily with another five years! This is also the reason why Her Highness took a fancy to my master!”

“Haha. So what?! He no longer has five years because he shall die today! Even the Little Divine Phoenix can’t save him.”

As Eustace spoke, he lifted the Umbrella of Destiny and aimed at Lorelei’s head...

Just then, he suddenly sensed an impending crisis coming from behind him. Without a second thought, he immediately attacked his rear with the Umbrella of Destiny in his hand.

Clank!

The Umbrella of Destiny sounded like it had clashed with metal.

When he looked back, he surprisingly saw a green tail. It was enormous.

Eustace lifted his head, only to discover a green dragon... Ah, no, a huge green snake demon appeared behind him.

It was really a snake.

There were two bulges on its head, pubescent horns. It showed that it was evolving toward the state of a flood dragon but was yet to be complete.

“How dare a snake demon run rampant before me? You really have a death wish!”

Eustace was infuriated and surprised that the Umbrella of Destiny was a Supreme weapon. When he attacked the green snake’s tail, he failed to break it. Instead, he knocked some scales off. This demon’s body was stronger than that of an average dragon!

Whoosh!

The green snake transformed abruptly into a woman. She was none other than Esmeralda Campbell.

As a green light flickered in her hand, a green jade hairpin appeared. The jade hairpin then transformed into a long green sword. “We will only know who will die first after the fight.”

“Die! You’re biting off more than you can chew!” Eustace was furious that a snake demon dared to launch a preemptive attack on him.

He lifted the Umbrella of Destiny with rainbow-like life and death threads. Thousands of flying swords shot out of the ribs of the umbrella and flew toward Esmeralda as they filled the sky.

The green Jade Hairpin Sword in Esmeralda’s hand moved rhythmically.

“Even if the world is ten feet wide, the green hairpin will accompany me!”

Slash!

Esmeralda’s sword triggered the law of the world and divided the sky into halves. She struck down the sword, destroying all of Eustace’s flying swords at once.

Those life and death threads also perished in that blow.

Eustace was astonished.

From Esmeralda’s attack, he sensed the power of laws different from this dimension. The sword’s strength was really too great. After taking two steps backward, Eustace looked at Esmeralda and asked, “Who the hell are you?”

“I’m the seed!” Esmeralda said slowly.

“What?”

Eustace was flabbergasted. “How could you be a seed as well? This is impossible. I’m the seed. You’re an impostor.”

Esmeralda looked at Esmeralda contemptuously as she sneered, “Do you think you’re the only seed in the Wasteland?”

Eustace was baffled. “There’s no other way!”

With the Jade Hairpin Sword on her back, Esmeralda looked valiant and formidable. She then raised her snow-white chin and scoffed. “You’re too presumptuous! You actually think you’re the only seed? Look at the farmers planting vegetables. Will they plant only one? What will happen if one dies?”

Eustace’s eyes widened. “What do you mean? You and I are not the only seeds, but there are even more?”

Esmeralda nodded. “Of course. There is a seed in each sanctuary.”

Eustace was dumbfounded. Even Lorelei, who survived luckily was also dumbstruck

The Little Divine Phoenix, who was still in the Jade Building of Yukon, also looked shocked. Clearly, she was unaware of the truth.

“I don’t believe you! I don’t! I’m the only real seed in the Wasteland! All the others are fakes!” Eustace shouted continuously, unable to come to terms with the fact.

Just then, a man rushed over while riding a flying wine gourd.

He was of extremely high cultivation and was almost on a par with Eustace. Looking at Eustace, he said, “How dare you call me a fake? Why don’t we have a match? The word ‘fake’ will be carved on the loser’s forehead. Do you dare compete?”

“Who are you? What right do you have to fight me?”

Eustace’s gaze was hostile as he stared at the man on the wine gourd. Although their cultivation levels were on par, Eustace was absolutely confident. He had the Umbrella of Destiny in his hand coupled with many trump cards. He could definitely take down this guy within five minutes.

‘A seed? Hmph. All of you fake seeds have to yield to me. When the time comes, all of you shall become my slaves.’

He envisaged a certain possibility on a whim. He would get all those so-called seeds from other sanctuaries over and sign Soul Contracts with them to make them into his henchmen. Then, his strength would rise greatly, and he would create an invincible team to sweep across America.

Even if those geezers beyond the sky were to descend, he would kill them to the point that they fled helter-skelter.

At that thought, Eustace was excited.

Looking at the man on the wine gourd, he felt he was looking at his livestock. He then immediately said, "Why would I not dare to compete with you? However, it's really child's play to carve 'fake' on the loser's forehead. Even a three year old kid doesn't want to bet on that. Bet bigger if you want to."

The man on the wine gourd said, "How do you want to bet?"

Eustace said, "The loser shall sign a Soul Contract with the winner and become a slave for the rest of his life!"

"What?" The man on the wine gourd was shocked upon hearing those words.

To his surprise, such a huge bet had been placed. It would be too risky.

Esmeralda said nothing. She was also sizing up the man on the wine gourd because she had never seen this man either... The seed of each sanctuary was different. All of them basically hid in the forbidden areas of the sanctuaries and focused on cultivation, so they had no interaction with each other. Most of them had never stepped out of the sanctuaries in the past three millennia.

She also had no idea of the man's identity nor his origin.

It was then that another person came flying in the sky. Under his feet was a yellow flag that supported him at a breakneck speed.

The one who arrived was an unusually handsome young man in an ancient outfit with fluttering long hair, emanating the vibe of archaic vicissitudes all over his body. Floating in the sky, he looked at Eustace and said, "Why don't I bet with you that the loser shall become a slave for the rest of his life?"

Eustace looked at that man.

He felt somehow familiar after observing him carefully. Eventually, he recognized that man. At that time, he trembled all over. "You are... The young sect master from Warren's Heavenly Palace, Nikolai Jovorich?"

The man smiled, "I never expected that someone in this world would still recognize me. It's been three millennia. This is my first time stepping out of Abbot Mountain. "

"You're really Nikolai Jovorich?"

Eustace was truly stunned. It was because Nikolai was already very famous in antiquity. He was the only son of the legendary sect master of Warren's Heavenly Palace, Rosetta Jovorich.

Rosetta had ruled Warren's Heavenly Palace for a total of eight millennia, and she was still the sect master until late antiquity.

Legend had it that Nikolai's father was a king of gods.

Rosetta had ruled Warren's Heavenly Palace for eight millennia, but no one knew that she had ever had a man. She bore a child for no reason as if she had conceived out of thin air. Moreover, he was extremely talented and had entered the deity realm at a young age.

Back when Nikolai was running rampant among the younger generation, Eustace was still playing children's games!

It turned out that this man kept hiding in Abbot Mountain. He was also one of the seeds.

In that case, how many bigwigs like them were still hidden in the Wasteland?

Eustace did not dare to accept the match in the face of Nikolai's bet.
