The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3241

Juvia said with a smile, "Alright! Senior, you've worked hard!"

The next moment, she flashed and floated high in the sky, bellowing, "All units, set up the battle formation according to the sequence! King Primum, lead the million armies and enter the passage! Occupy the high ground on the other side! If you encounter aborigines of that diffracted world, kill them without mercy!"

"As you wish, my queen!"

Shortly afterward, the undead army began to move and advanced toward the opened passage.

"Charge!"

"Kill!"

"Kill those losers from the diffracted universe!"

"I'll draw first blood!"

The open passage was very deep.

This was, after all, the high ground between the Undead Territory and the diffracted universe. Even if the distance was short, it contained a depth of tens of thousands of kilometers. However, a huge gap had long been dug out of the universe's wall. The final layer was the force field that the great Genbu had set up by utilizing himself.

Now that it had been opened up by the Shuttle of Nine Stars, one could directly pass through it.

Meanwhile, Alex and the others tensed up.

After they helplessly watched the passage opening, they heard loud war cries from the other side and that unique horn of the Undying Clan!

Upon hearing the sound, the old geezers who had survived the ancient era grimaced as they were no stranger to this horn... It was simply a death knell!

For many, it was a sheer nightmare!

Not long after the Undying Clan exited the universe, they were on tenterhooks and had nightmares every night. Such horn sounds appeared in their nightmares. Every time they woke up from their dreams, they would break out in a cold sweat. They were existences that even Grand Emperor Rowan and the great king of gods could not annihilate.

“Really... It’s really the Undying Clan!”

“They are here! They have come again!”

Looking at them, Alex said, “They are in this fear state by just hearing the horn sound. Can we hold them off by relying on these people?”

Phoenix had a complicated expression, saying, “You haven’t experienced that era, so you don’t know the despair that this horn brought to the people. That was the real despair.”

After a pause, she continued, “Actually, I don’t know how long this spell formation, plus these people will last. Rather, what should we do next when all these people die!”

They did not have time to think about it carefully because the members of the Undying Clan had come.

Roar!

The first one who came out was King Primum. He was ten meters tall with two legs and four hands, wielding a large weapon in each hand. As soon as he came out, he roared and shouted. It was then that the Eastern Emperor, Northern Emperor, and the others launched a shower of attacks on him.

He would have been long dead after encountering such massive and densely packed attacks if he was an ordinary Undying Clan member. However, the Undead King had bronze skin, and his skin surface was extremely hard, as if he was wearing the strongest armor.

Countless attacks that landed on his body bounced back right away. That guy was also in a daze for a moment. Never did he expect that he would be attacked so harshly as soon as he showed up.

He roared to inform those behind him to retreat while waving the four large weapons.

Nonetheless, too many Undying Clan members had rushed up from the rear. There were a total of one million subordinates! How could they retreat to such a narrow passage?

They had no means of retreating!

Hence, King Primum was furious. "Charge! Kill our way out!"

Juvia said with a smile, "Alright! Senior, you've worked hard!"

"Kill!"

The Undead King's strength was undeniable. He was hit by hundreds of sudden attacks just now, which was almost everyone's full force. All kinds of magical treasures and weapons were condensed on his body, but he ended up vomiting blood and did not die on the spot.

Such a defense was truly shocking.

In the blink of an eye, a huge wave of Undying Clan members rushed out along with King Primum.

"There are aborigines from the diffracted universe!"

"Kill them!"

"Kill all of these losers!"

The Undying Clan was very belligerent, especially when they encountered fierce attacks by the cultivators of the universe, and their king was injured right after crossing the border. Shortly afterward, densely packed Undying Clan members rushed out and directly launched long-range attacks on the Eastern Emperor, Northern Emperor, and the others.

“Hold off the enemies! Hold off the enemies!”

“Kill them! Block the entrance hole! D*mn it! Whoever dares to goof off at a time like this shall be our public enemy!”

Someone from the side of the universe shouted.

In fact, they were overwrought and terrified.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The battle between both parties was extremely intense. Mainly, King Primum’s enormous body over the side of the Undying Clan had attracted most of the firepower, granting the Undying Clan members at the rear a chance to rush out of the entrance hole. And so, the humans were pressured greatly once the number of the Undying Clan members increased.

Some Undying Clan members rushed up to the humans. Fortunately, those Undying Clan members were killed one after another after a moment of chaos.

Alex also adjusted the spell formation at the right time and successfully separated King Primum from the other Undying Clan members. In that way, King Primum was temporarily trapped in the spell formation.

Like a swarm of bees, the bigwigs of the universe attacked the Undying Clan members at the entrance hole.

The desired result was visible quickly this time.

After all, the entrance hole was not particularly large, and a dozen Undying Clan members at most could enter it simultaneously. However, they would face hundreds of attacks at the same time. These Undying Clan members were not powerhouses like the king, so the ground was quickly filled with corpses.

The entrance hole was congested.

King Primum roared madly. He was the Undead King with extremely high cultivation and strong combat power, but now, he was trapped and immobilized in a spell formation.

Alex was controlling the sword heart to manipulate the spell formation while reminding those people from the universe, "Come here quickly. Kill this king while you can!"

The Evil Fiery Cloud God unexpectedly said, "We have to take a break. Your cultivation level in spell formation is so high, and there are two experts next to you. Experts should fight against experts, so we will let you deal with this king!"

This team was carefree in the first place.

As soon as the Evil Fiery Cloud God said that, the others echoed and did not want to act.

Alex said coldly, "I'm giving you guys a chance. Once I remove the spell formation he is in, he will rush over directly and go against you guys! Now, I'm using the spell formation to restrict his combat power, but he will have 100% combat power when the time comes. I'll give you three seconds to consider it. Three... Two..."

"Kill!"

The Northern Emperor made a wise choice. He attacked King Primum with all his might. After he took the lead, the other bigwigs followed suit and launched attacks. After all, what Alex had said was the truth.

They were unwilling to court death. And so, countless attacks landed on King Primum's body, such that they were about to numb him. However, this guy was really amazing. He was in such a state, yet he was still alive and supporting himself.

At the same time, there was a new commotion at the passage entrance. This time, an expanse of tiny, densely packed red bugs crawled over from the passage entrance. These bugs looked bizarre, like a swath of red mist while emitting rustling sounds.

Looking at these creatures, the Blood-knife old man shouted, "It's the Blood-red Ghost Bugs! Everyone, be careful! You must never let these bugs burrow into your bodies!"

The crowd paled upon hearing the name of the Blood-red Ghost Bugs.

Someone hurriedly shouted at Alex, "Mr. Rockefeller, hurry up! Open up the passage and send us out of here. We can still organize the disciples from various sects to resist the Undying Clan together after leaving. Once we die here, the consequences will be more serious."

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3243

King Primum had not been killed in the attacks, but a swarm of bugs ended up coming over. These people were about to run for their lives.

Phoenix sneered, "If we were to send you back, you would hide firmly in a certain corner and continue to become cowards just like before, right? Who would dare to expect you people to get out of your comfort zone? If you want to survive, kill them!"

Those bigwigs were helpless. They were well aware of Phoenix's hatred toward them. There was absolutely no room for alleviation. Since they had no other choices, they would have to kill the bugs!

"Send me in there. I'm going to destroy him," Saria unexpectedly told Alex.

She was talking about destroying King Primum.

Alex hurriedly replied, "There is no need to take the risk, isn't it? I'll limit his mobility, and you can attack from a distance. We can wear him out till he dies."

Even so, Saria was very insistent and had to kill that king with her own hands.

Phoenix nodded. "Let Aunt Saria go!"

Alex and her eyes met. He knew what she meant. Saria's mind was filled with enmity. Now that the Undying Clan was right before her eyes, she would have a mental breakdown if she did not behead that king.

“Alright! You should be careful then!”

“If I can’t even kill a severely injured king, then what’s the point of living?”
Saria’s enmity had distorted her outlook on life.

After that, Alex sent her into the isolated force field. Saria and King Primum engaged in battle soon after. Meanwhile, the battle scene over the entrance hole was bloodier.

There were too many tiny Blood-red Ghost Bugs. More importantly, they were rapid. The bigwigs unleashed waves of attacks on them, but many managed to slip through the attacks.

As bigwigs at sect master-level who had high cultivation and advanced magical treasures, they could deal with dozens or hundreds of Blood-red Ghost Bugs. However, the others they had brought in, such as spell formation masters and disciples, didn’t have their high defense. Blood-red Ghost Bugs burrowed into a few people’s bodies, causing them to fall to the ground and roll in pain.

Those Blood-red Ghost Bugs began to gnaw from the inside and multiply. In just a few minutes, some Blood-red Ghost Bugs crawled out of their bodies with the size of a child’s fist, whereas the gnawed bodies had long been in a mess. Finally, a mad roar was heard from the force field at a certain moment.

It was King Primum’s dying cry.

Saria severed King Primum’s body into halves with a sword. Immediately afterward, the Blood-red Ghost Bugs also stopped attacking and retreated like a tide.

On the other hand, the Undead Queen, Juvia, was startled slightly...

Undead King Primum turned out to be dead?

She could not figure it out who on earth was on the other side of the passage?

A king was beheaded in such a short time, and the Undying Clan members that had rushed over died suddenly.

“Sis, something must be wrong over there,” said Aria.

“My queen, allow me to go there and check it out!” Another king volunteered and requested a battle assignment.

“Hold your horses!”

Juvia waved her hand. As soon as her jade-like palm moved, countless Blood-red Ghost Bugs flew toward her and circled wildly around her body. She could see what had really happened over there through such means.

The next moment, she witnessed the truth.

Someone controlled the spell formation to restrict the king before he instructed a group of experts to join forces to kill him!

It was that seed, Alex Rockefeller!

It turned out that he was controlling the spell formation. The spell formation contained the laws of the Chi universe. Nonetheless, it seemed that... It was not very difficult to break this predicament!

“I will step in personally!”

“Sis, be careful!

“King Primum is already dead, which means an inescapable net has long been set up. Other tricks must be awaiting us. If you venture there recklessly, you might fall into the enemy’s trap,” said Aria as she stepped forward, worrying about her sister, who wanted to go there personally.

At that moment, Senior Rhys said, “Junior, I’ll accompany you.”

After thinking for a while, Juvia nodded. “Alright!”

Aria looked at the two people a few times, and a hint of sorrow was revealed in her eyes. She fancied her eldest senior, but the woman whom he loved was her elder sister. It was unknown whether her elder sister would accept the eldest senior... Aria could not understand her elder sister, and she often failed to figure out her mind.

Countless Undying Clan corpses piled up at the passage entrance of the force field to the point that it was almost congested.

After the Blood-red Ghost Bugs retreated, the entrance hole became extremely quiet.

“The Ghost Bugs have retreated. Has the Undying Clan retreated too?” someone said cautiously.

This was the most hopeful situation in his mind because it was just the beginning, but many people on the side of the universe died. Moreover, their deaths were extremely tragic.

“Maybe. Perhaps that’s the case...” someone echoed.

Alex said, “Guys, you better patch yourselves up and replenish a bit of your Chi. Otherwise, you will run out of strength when a large number of Undying Clan members come later.”

The Evil Fiery Cloud God and the others were infuriated. “Alex Rockefeller, what do you mean? Do you really want us to fight to the death here?”

The Blood-knife old man said, “That’s right. We are trapped here by your spell formation and forced to fight against the Undying Clan, but if we will end up dead in any case, then why do we have to fight for our lives here? We are going to die anyway. What’s the difference between dying prematurely and dying late? We should just let the Undying Clan come over.”

It was indeed a very pragmatic issue.

In fact, Alex did not think much about it because the Undying Clan came too suddenly this time.

“Three days!”

Alex stretched out three fingers. “If you can last for three days, I will let you go.”

Phoenix asked him via telepathy, “Alex, have you thought of a solution? Why is it three days?”

Smiling bitterly, Alex secretly replied via telepathy, "How can I have a solution? It's just a delay of three days. Don't we fear that they will go on strike?"

However, it was then that a familiar voice came from the entrance hole. "Three days? You are really impulsive! Do you think you can hold back my Undying Clan for three days with these few people? It's simply a pipe dream!"

Having said that, a loud bang was heard at the passage entrance. Suddenly, those corpses piling up at the entrance hole and blocking the entire passage seemed to have been bombarded by a certain powerful force. All of them flew up from the explosion. Like ejected cannonballs, the corpses' limbs shot out powerfully in all directions with supreme might.

Boom!

A bigwig from the universe, who was standing in front, was hit by an arm of an unknown kind. That broken arm was like a crab's leg. Covered with carapace, it was hard and sharp.

Surprisingly, it went through that bigwig's abdomen, forming a huge hole.

"Master! Master!" A woman cried.

It seemed that this bigwig would not survive.

That guy was certainly the unluckiest, but other unlucky people also failed to avoid this indiscriminate attack. Although many people were hit, it was a close call for them, and their injuries were not as serious as his.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

At that moment, footsteps sounded at the passage entrance. One could tell that there were two people. The comers were none other than the Undead Queen, Juvia, and her eldest senior, Rhys.

"Undead... Queen?!"

Saria's eyes widened upon seeing Juvia, who had shown up.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3245

She had seen this woman before. It appeared very vividly in her memory.

In dark purple battle armor with a white cloak, she wore her 1.5-meter long hair behind her. Her chest undulated with her footsteps, but her height... She turned out to be short. Even if she was wearing shoes, one could tell that she was less than 1.7 meters tall. More importantly, her face looked completely like a teenage girl's.

No, no. It was a... A young girl's face.

Alex had once witnessed the battle between the Undead Queen and the great Genbu, but she showed up as a hologram. Furthermore, that projected appearance at that time looked enormous and mighty and was about the same size as the great Genbu. Unlike now, she appeared here with her real body. Alex shockingly looked at the Undead Queen as he asked Phoenix next to him, "Is this the Undead Queen? Why does she look like a minor?"

Phoenix sneered, "A minor? How dare you say that? She is just maintaining her body and facial appearance in the form of a young girl. In fact, she is an old monster that has lived for countless years."

Even the universe's bigwigs were astonished. Most people had never seen the real Undead Queen.

After hearing such a statement from Saria, they all looked shocked.

"Hmph! How dare a commoner think of blocking my undead army for three days? What were you guys thinking?"

Juvia, whose gaze was razor-sharp, glanced at the bigwigs from the universe in the spell formation. She then fixed her gaze on Alex. A layer of frost seemed to have condensed on that face, and with burning eyes, her chest undulated with her breath. She looked particularly furious.

It was because he had fooled around with Cheryl not long ago. Her Life Substitution Spirit was sealed within Cheryl's body, so she inexplicably experienced the taste of being defiled by this man many times without any moral baseline. When she remembered it now, her body couldn't help trembling.

“Junior, what's wrong with you?”

Rhys sensed that Juvia's excitement was slightly abnormal. Following her gaze, his line of vision also landed on Alex.

He was an extremely ordinary human at a glance. His cultivation was even far inferior to that group of old geezers standing ahead. How could a deep enmity occur between this guy and an existence the likes of his junior?

He was simply unqualified!

Consequently, a hint of panic inexplicably appeared in Juvia's eyes after hearing his question. That was even weirder.

‘Hmph! I don't care who you are or what conflict you and my junior have! I, Rhys, shall kill you today!’

At the same time, Saria and Phoenix had solemn expressions on their faces. To their surprise, the Undead Queen had shown up so fast. That was an existence that even the real Heavenly Emperors like Grand Emperor Rowan and Sis Phoenix failed to take down.

Could those people alone be able to stop her?

Presently, the Undead Queen waved at the sect master-level bigwigs from the universe and asked, “Do you guys intend to make an enemy of me?”

Two seconds later, someone directly knelt and capitulated to her.

“Be careful! It's a mental interference!” Someone shouted and activated cultivation techniques to resist it simultaneously, but more and more people knelt on the ground over time.

After taking a deep breath, Saria shouted, “Wake up!”

She had even unleashed mental interference, disrupting Juvia. Even so, Saria was a tad weaker than Juvia. Her mental interference only managed to set some people free... But the next moment, the Undead Queen snapped her fingers and said faintly, “Those who obey me shall live, and those who disobey me shall die. My warriors, what are you waiting for? Stand up and kill them!”

Whoosh!

The ones kneeling on the ground due to the mental interference suddenly stood up in unison.

Their eyes glowed with an abnormal black light before they launched an attack on the people who were not under search control around them.

The people of the universe who had just regained consciousness were instantly caught off guard. A few were killed on the spot, and many were gravely injured.

Someone roared.

The Undead Queen’s mind control had been very famous since the ancient era. Everyone currently paled and dared not think of the consequences at the sight of something that looked like sorcery. It was then that the chant of Buddhist song emanated from the spell formation.

It was the Buddhist song unleashed by Alex.

The pollens released by the three thousand blooming lotuses Alex had acquired greatly enhanced his mental strength, but he did not know the extent either. The effect of the Buddhist song maneuvered by the mental strength coupled with the divine power turned out to be more powerful than Saria’s mental howl.

Those mind-controlled people in the force field woke up from the confusion in the blink of an eye.

Juvia’s eyes flashed slightly.

She had clearly underestimated Alex's mental strength. To her surprise, Alex's mental Buddhist song could destroy her mind search control.

How old was he? What was his cultivation level?

Her beautiful eyes widened as she stared at Alex. She said faintly, "Alex Rockefeller, how about we make a deal?"

Alex was in a trance for a moment. He remembered that he had seen the Undead Queen in the trial of the Heavenly Stairs. Although the appearance of the two looked different, the Undead Queen also said such words at that time.

He asked, "Are you trying to tell me to become your man and then search control the universe with you? After that, will you take me to the Chi universe so that we can venture into the world together while bearing my child?"

Alex said that completely according to the content of the trial, but how could it be real?

It was something Phoenix had temporarily constructed based on the memories in Alex's mind.

After hearing that, the Undead Queen fell silent.

Meanwhile, Senior Rhys went through the roof instantly. How dare a person dirtier than trash blaspheme against his junior with such words?

He was courting death. However, the Undead Queen, Juvia, suddenly smiled and said, "If I really mean it, will you agree?"

"What? Junior, are you kidding? I can smack a bunch of mongrels like him to death. How can he be qualified to become your... Hmph! This guy simply has a death wish!"

After a pause, he continued, "I'll slaughter him right now!"

Rhys rushed out before Juvia could say anything. A sword appeared in his hand. The blade was dark red and good-looking.

After Rhys channeled his Chi into this blade, this sword immediately emitted a series of bloody lightning... It was a divine sword with a lightning attribute and powerful attack power.

Roar!

The lightning was densely packed. Furthermore, they illuminated the surroundings of the force field. Even the force field's wall could be clearly seen under the illumination. Then, Rhys fiercely slashed at the force field's wall while wielding the sword.

"Break it!"

Boom!

A loud boom rang out. The space shook with fragments, and the dark red lightning sword howled, but surprisingly, the force field's wall was not broken from the slash.

"This... How is this possible?" Rhys was stunned.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3247

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3247

He immediately landed another three consecutive slashes, but it ended the same. Several kings of ancient gods had joined hands to set up this powerful force field. On the other hand, mysterious Cuneiform symbols from the Chi universe were mixed within the part that Alex had modified, making it even more mystifying.

Alex heaved a sigh of relief after looking at the result from here.

Phoenix whispered to him, "Your mysterious symbols belonging to the Chi universe don't seem to be something ordinary. This guy's attack is very powerful. If it were the original spell formation, it wouldn't have been able to block such a heavy and harsh blow."

The Undead Queen said to Rhys, "Senior, stop wasting your efforts. The force field of this spell formation is similar to the kind you broke before. You have to use the Shuttle of Nine Stars."

Rhys said annoyingly, "The Shuttle of Nine Stars was previously used for too long. It has entered the self-replenishing state of energy. It will take a while before it can be used."

The crowd was shocked. To their surprise, that young man was the Undead Queen's eldest senior.

Juvia said, "So that was the case! Then, we will have to wait a bit!"

Rhys said, "Let's seize the moment and kill a few mongrels first."

As he spoke, he rushed toward the group of bigwigs from the universe.

"Die!"

He felt extremely awkward because he failed to break the force field. He had embarrassed himself in front of the juniors, and he had to redeem himself in front of so many people. His cultivation was far beyond those people's. In that case, those bigwigs from various sects and factions of the universe would suffer. He was like a wolf entering a flock of sheep!

Boom!

Rhys severed Eastern Emperor Mooncrate's arm with a slash. He bled profusely and was sent flying. The Northern Emperor was even more miserable. He manifested the main body of the hydra, but unexpectedly, another head was severed.

"Everyone, let's go!" shouted someone.

However, the next second, Rhys summoned a mythical creature. It was a huge Star Wolf. It fought along with him.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Many sect master-level bigwigs were killed in the blink of an eye. These people were unwilling to fight the Undying Clan here in the first place, but now they were massacred like that.

Who wouldn't get cold feet?

Thud!

Suddenly, a man knelt and shouted, "I yield! I'm willing to follow the queen! I will follow behind the queen and do any of her biddings! I surrender!" That man spoke loudly.

Everyone looked over. Someone said, "Sect Master Lugh, how can you be like this? Get up. Do you think it's useful to kneel before the Undying Clan? The Undying Clan will never let you off the hook. You will die if you don't kneel, but you will die even faster after you kneel."

Unexpectedly, the Undead Queen said, "A wise man submits to circumstances. Who told you the Undead Queen doesn't take prisoners? I hereby declare that I guarantee I will spare you and even entrust you with important duties as long as you can surrender and follow me! You shall become Juvia's personal soldiers in the future!"

Rhys wanted to kill Sect Master Lugh at first. After hearing that, he could not kill him right now.

"Junior, what's the use of these guys? Just kill them!"

Juvia said, "Senior, I have a plan!"

Rhys was upset, but he finally stopped killing. He targeted another man. Consequently, that man also knelt down right away. Just like that previous man, he was spared!

Never twice without three. The other people followed suit. For a brief moment, all those people knelt down.

Phoenix said, "You cowards' fear of death opened my eyes. It's really impressive."

The Evil Fiery Cloud God said, "Phoenix Rowan, don't act enigmatically anymore. The tide has turned. The queen leading the Undying Clan is bound to dominate the diffracted universe. We've taken a clear look at the situation, unlike you and your family. You guys have resisted for so long, but is it useful? Why don't you guys surrender too?!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3248

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3248

"D*mn it! I know these guys are unreliable!"

Phoenix looked indifferent and her eyes were filled with murderous intent. She never trusted these people. It was the same in the end.

Juvia laughed heartily. “Great! Great! Great! A wise man submits to circumstances. You are promising people. If you follow me, Juvia, your future will be completely bright and beautiful. Now, you guys will join hands with me and destroy the force field here. Can any of you tell me where the flaw of this force field is? Or, how do you get out of this force field?”

No one answered her.

The Blood-knife old man said, “My queen, we also don’t know how to get out. Why would we be trapped here if we knew it? We would’ve barged outside long ago.”

Juvia said, “In that case, you guys were trapped in the force field and forced to become cannon fodder for the Undying Clan?”

The Blood-knife old man grimaced, but it was indeed the truth.

“What a bunch of losers!”

Rhys snorted coldly. “In the end, you still have to rely on me to break the force field. All of you, step forward and help me break the spell formation.”

He took out the Shuttle of Nine Stars and forcefully broke the spell formation again.

The Shuttle of Nine Stars was powerful. The huge drill in front of it spun at high speed, and nine stars seemed to be shining brightly at the back. The force field Alex had set up immediately shook. The laws were being destroyed, and those mysterious Cuneiform symbols were also becoming dull.

“What is that powerful thing?”

“No idea, but judging by that kind of power, it can’t be a magical treasure from the diffracted universe. It’s probably from the more advanced Chi universe.” Phoenix answered.

Saria said, “Judging from this situation, our force field will be broken without taking a long while. They will come in within half a day.”

Phoenix said, “The Evil Fiery Cloud God and those people have deep-rooted relationships in the universe, and they are very familiar with the universe. It’s a great threat that they have now defected to the Undying Clan and turned against us. Alex, can you think of a way to kill those people with the spell formation?”

“I’ll give it a try!”

Alex immediately controlled the spell formation.

Boom!

The spell formation began to compress. He tried to shrink the spell formation like before. Then, he would seal the Undead Queen and the others inside in one fell swoop. However, the next second, Juvia exerted her strength and smacked the shrinking force field, causing it to shake turbulently.

She said to Alex, “Alex Rockefeller since you won’t accept my invitation, I’ll just kill you, the seed of the universe! No matter how strong your ability in spell formation is, you can’t stop me!”

She stood in front of the force field’s wall. After she lightly pressed her hand on it and activated a supreme cultivation technique, rainbow light erupted out of her hand. That force field’s wall was unexpectedly pushed like a transparent membrane layer. It was pushed forward, moving a little closer to Alex.

‘What?’ Alex was astonished!

This woman’s strength was truly terrifying.

He, Phoenix, and Saria hurriedly backed off.

He lashed out a series of hand seals and instilled the Cuneiforms harder into them. Eventually, the Undead Queen stopped one meter away from Alex and could not advance further.

Alex heaved a sigh of relief.

With the current distance between him and the Undead Queen, he could clearly see her facial features and even count the number of eyelashes she possessed.

Looking at the Undead Queen, he said, “Queen, how about we make a deal?”

Juvia said, “Tell me about it!”

Alex said, "You are sick!"

"What did you say?" Juvia's expression instantly changed.

"What I said is true! You are really sick!"

Juvia's face turned cold. "Alex Rockefeller, are you not afraid I will advance further? In fact, I can definitely break this crappy spell formation of yours as long as I pay a little. When the time comes, I will find everyone you care about, such as that woman of yours, Cheryl Coney. I will make her die in pain."

"You are afraid I will sleep with Cheryl, aren't you? I've sealed your Life Substitution Spirit in her body. I don't know how you are connected to the Life Substitution Spirit, but I can confirm that you could sense Cheryl's feelings."

"How did you know that?"

When Juvia said that, it was similar to admitting it.

At that time, Rhys was about to go insane. To his surprise, the junior he loved so much had such a bizarre relationship with Alex. It was equivalent to having been defiled forcefully by Alex in certain aspects consciousness and sensation. Moreover, she could not avoid it.

Alex said, "I didn't know either previously, but I knew it after meeting you! Hence, you won't kill Cheryl! That's because it will be the same as killing your Life Substitution Spirit! I said you're sick because you are really diseased! There is a problem with your cultivation technique. It will damage your eighteen extraordinary meridians... You aren't well right now, which means the others can't cure you. But I can!"

"No need!" Juvia exerted more force once again, but eventually, she just pushed forward half a meter.

She could not push any further.

Alex's Cuneiform was very advanced, and not many people in the Chi universe could master it. On the other hand, Juvia belonged to those who could not master it.

Phoenix reminded Alex in a low voice. "Be careful of the teleportation passage controlled by the Undying Clan. The location of that teleportation portal is not far away from Earth. Once a large-scale Undying Clan invades us, Earth will be done for."

Boom!

Just then, Rhys drilled a hole out of the force field. He was infuriated. Consequently, he went all out and swore that he would kill Alex, so the schedule also moved up by half a day.

"Kill!"

Rhys rushed forward at lightning speed.

"Hurry up and leave!"

Saria unleashed over a hundred sword lights in Rhys's direction. They were connected, blocking all of Rhys's attack routes. Even so, Rhys disregarded the sword lights and rushed in.

He actually ignored them!

"Be careful!" reminded Phoenix.

It was then that Alex made a very indecent move. With his back facing Rhys, he bent over and used the sword...

"The Great Fart Spell!"

Fraaap!

The two beauties next to Alex were not mentally prepared for that. To their surprise, he farted loudly at Rhys, who was rushing over.

It was extremely loud.

Both Phoenix and Saria dumbfoundedly looked at Alex. Dazed, they probably thought, 'Why did you fart so loudly alone?'

He almost stunned them. Not only that!

With the release of the Great Fart Spell, the alien power of laws in the air shook. Accompanied by billowing yellow smoke, it fiercely pounced on Rhys and a bizarre stench that could suffocate a surfeit of skunks to death.

“Ah!”

Bleugh!

Rhys wanted to vomit almost instantly. No, he really vomited!

He had rushed too fast and could not fall back in time, resulting in an assault by the superbly stinky fart. It was like a stench coming from the depths of one’s soul, and his nose was really going to stink. After he fell back, he vomited consecutively right there and then.

It was really disgusting!

Phoenix and Saria also felt dizzy, and their eyes looked very strange.

Alex instantly pulled the two women and rushed toward the other side of the force field. The teleportation portal was over there!

Swoosh!

The three people passed through the teleportation portal. The teleportation portal was closed right away. Meanwhile, Juvia shouted at the passage entrance...

“Attack!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3250

More and more Undying Clan members rushed into the Genbu Dungeon.

The spell formation that Alex had set up with the crowd did not last long. Some important parts fell apart after being destroyed by the Shuttle of Nine Stars. After that, the entire large spell formation was reduced to nothing in about another two hours.

Pitter-patter!

Rain started to fall in the entire secret realm as soon as the spell formation was broken. It was that kind of stormy, torrential rain.

When the Evil Fiery Cloud God, Blood-knife old man, and the other bigwigs from the universe who had defected to the Undead Queen saw the densely packed Undying Clan members rushing in, all of them felt their blood freeze. It was not like they refused to resist the Undying Clan. After all, the universe was their home. However, they would die if they cropped up in such a situation.

They had their whole lives ahead of them. Especially, when those people whose cultivation level had reached their state would have a long life span and cherish their lives more than normal people.

“Do you know where that farting trash earlier lives?” Rhys, who was livid, came over and asked the Evil Fiery Cloud God and the others.

The law toxin of the Great Fart Spell still made him comfortable and nauseous right now. That long-lasting stench seemed to have invaded his body, and there was no way to get rid of it in a short time. His hatred for Alex had surged to the utmost.

After a pause, the Evil Fiery Cloud God said, “In the world of America.”

Rhys immediately said, “Take me there!”

The spell formation had been broken, and the Genbu Dungeon had become an undefended area. This place was the end of the Endless Sea. The Evil Fiery Cloud God and the others took Rhys and the Undead Queen to where they came in before, but the teleportation portal simply did not exist.

Alex had moved that teleportation portal away.

Rhys was so angry that he wanted to kill Alex. Eventually, the Undead Queen said, “It’s fine. The important thing is to immediately attack the universe and establish a stronghold of the Undying Clan over there. As for that Rockefeller brat, he can’t escape. My Life Substitution Spirit is in his woman’s body. I can find her sooner or later... Ah!”

Before Juvia could finish her speech, she suddenly let out a long, salacious voice.

A long twang and a flushed face... Such a strange expression and behavior naturally attracted the attention of the shocked people around her. Juvia was about to go crazy as she kept cursing Alex inwardly... This embarrassing scene occurred because she suddenly sensed that her Life Substitution Spirit was being defiled. It was that kind of strange, amazing, and pleasurable sensation.

She endured it firmly, but no matter how hard she held back in such a matter, she would display some abnormalities.

“Bast*rd! He’s doing that deed with that woman right after he escaped from this place... Hmph... H-he must be intentional!”

The Undead Queen, Juvia, had a stiff expression with her eyes half-closed. Her body also tensed up.

“Junior, could it be that brat...” Rhys, who came to his senses, guessed it when he recalled the conversation between Alex and Juvia.

At that time, her entire face looked livid.

Whoosh!

Juvia directly teleported away from everyone’s sight and hid.

This state was too terrible. Her guess was not wrong. Alex did it on purpose.

Of course, there was another important reason. When he met Juvia in person, he confirmed that her Life Substitution Spirit was sealed inside Cheryl’s body by him. After returning from the Genbu Dungeon, he immediately teleported and found Cheryl to do that kind of deed simply because he wanted to figure out if he could find a way to restrain Juvia through the Life Substitution Spirit in this way. However, he did not find it, unfortunately. Instead, he had confirmed that Juvia could feel Cheryl’s senses via the Life Substitution Spirit.

Since that was the case, he simply stimulated Cheryl’s body greatly. On the other hand, he could get back some interest from Juvia...

Embarrassed, Cheryl looked back at him. “Alex, what’s wrong with you? What excited you in broad daylight? I... I am researching a topic!”
