The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3511

“Pooh! Uneducated!” Grand Emperor Rowan looked scornful. “The strongest eye in the realm of Buddhism is the Eye of Samsara. It can see the past, future, past life, present life, sincerity, and falsehood. It can crush malevolence, eliminate evil spirits and kill faraway people.”

“Is it so powerful? It’s fake, isn’t it? It can even see the past and present lives? Where is this amazing eye?”

“My eye...”

“Yours..?” Alex was stunned. “You have the Eye of Samsara?”

Grand Emperor Rowan nodded. Then, he looked at the two bosses exploring outside frantically. “They will leave in one and a half minutes.”

“Really?”

“They will come back after five minutes. ”

“Huh..?”

A minute and a half passed swiftly.

Sure enough, Bredon and the Black Dragon Chief left in disappointment and disappeared in a flash. They both waited for another five minutes, only to see those two people reappearing silently. Surprisingly, they were very punctual.

Alex was shocked, but he finally knew his father-in-law had a trick up his sleeve. Grand Emperor Rowan did not boast about being the number-one man ten millennia ago. He, along with Alex, could even hide right under the enemies’ noses using this trick alone.

As a result, both Eonian powerhouses failed to find them, an incident enough to make him a legendary man. It seemed that Alex had to reassess his view of this mediocre father-in-law.

“Bravo! Bravo! Father-in-law, you are really awesome!” After a pause, he continued, “Ah! By the way, Father-in-law, how did you come in? Where are the others? I saw Empress Ghast earlier...”

Right after saying that, Alex came to his senses abruptly. “Oh crap! The empress and Bea are still inside the Witch Essence. Since those two guys can’t find me, they will surely go back and find them. They will be in danger! Father-in-law, I’ve been marked by those two guys. I have to stall them. Do you have a way?”

Grand Emperor Rowan frowned as he said, “Those two guys won’t pose a threat if you give me some time, but now... We can only flee.”

Alex was shocked, “Father-in-law, those two guys are in Advanced-Eonian Realm, which is a greater and stronger realm than the Dominant Realm. Moreover, each realm will be divided into ninety-nine levels, starting from the Dominant Realm. Dealing with them won’t be so easy. Father-in-law, what realm are you in now?”

“Eightieth level in the Dominant Realm.”

“Holy... Crap! You didn’t reach the Dominant Realm before, did you?”

“That’s because I’m a pure human. A human must possess the ancient Witch Blood in order to reach the Dominant Realm on the Ancient Path, but I don’t. Therefore, I was suppressed the entire time but gradually accumulated strength. It’s different after I came here. As soon as I stepped into this place, I transcended into the Dominant Realm, and my strength increased constantly.”

After a pause, Grand Emperor Rowan said, “I see you have made great progress. You are much stronger than before. You are taking a different path, and I can’t see through it! Even if I have the Eye of Samsara, I can’t see through your fate. I wonder if the Goddess of Fate can.”

Having said that, Alex knew he could not delay any longer. He left the force field with the emperor’s help.

At that moment, Bredon and the Black Dragon Chief really rushed back to Devil’s Hill in an attempt to trouble Empress Ghast and Bea. However, it was then that he noticed that the mark on Alex’s body reappeared. When they sensed it, Alex was really in the place where they searched just now.

“How can this be?”

“How dare a weakling possess an ability that blocks our divine sense and hide himself so well?”

“Chase after him!”

The two people pursued him again.

Grand Emperor Rowan also appeared afterward. After he looked back, he immediately summoned a yellow flag, grabbed Alex, and jumped onto it. That flag was definitely a remarkable artifact. It was surprisingly fast under the sea and traversed through space directly.

Bredon and the Black Dragon were chasing after them swiftly. That Black Dragon, in particular, could reach them with its claws from a long distance and almost caught the flag.

Grand Emperor Rowan was infuriated. “D*mn! How dare a Black Dragon show off in front of me? I destroyed the Black Dragon clan and decapitated many dragons back then. I will surely kill him in return when my main body meets up with me!”

Alex was dumbfounded. “Father-in-law... Isn’t this your main body?”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3512

Alex looked quite shocked.

‘Could this be the strength of a peerless ancient powerhouse? He can make an avatar as he likes, then comes out and run rampant?’

Although he had not reached the point of running rampant, he managed to make the two Eonian bosses suffer humiliation by hiding himself. It was not something anyone could do.

“My main body is still on the Ancient Path! I’m only responsible for cultivation and fighting, whereas my main body is in charge of love affairs... Having too many wives will only affect my sword drawing speed. Brat, you have a lot of women too. Do you want to learn this avatar skill from me? It neglects neither making... Making love affairs nor cultivation. Once your avatar has high cultivation, your main body's cultivation will also increase correspondingly. When the two fuse together, the strength will be unified completely."

Alex was shocked. The old man really knew how to enjoy himself. Surprisingly, he even thought of something like this. As expected, he was forced to do so.

If no one forced him, why would he need to go through so much trouble?

"Uhm. Father-in-law, it's exactly what I need, if you are willing to teach me."

"Alright! I will teach you after killing those two bugs behind us!"

After looking back, Grand Emperor Rowan maneuvered the flag and accelerated again. Rushing straight toward a deeper trench on the seabed, he said, "I just attempted divination. This submarine canyon will be a blessed place for us. We can kill those two annoying bugs with great fortune here, but I'm afraid we will be doomed after getting out of this canyon."

"Father-in-law, is your divination accurate? Those two guys are really hard to deal with. We both will end up dead if they really catch up with us. Why don't we make a force field and hide ourselves?"

Grand Emperor Rowan snorted coldly. "I am the dignified sect master of the Stoermer Sect. How can I be pursued by two bugs, like a pathetic dog? That doesn't fit my persona and style. What are you afraid of? A man should die with honor! Go down!"

The magical flag took the two people and rushed into the submarine canyon, but the next second, a great suction force gushed out, rolled the flag up, and pulled it down vigorously.

"D*mn! What the hell?!" Alex screamed.

"Father-in-law, what's happening?! Hurry and search control the flag!"

Grand Emperor Rowan shook his head. "I can't! I can't search control it! We can only go with the flow! According to divination, this submarine canyon is our sacred place with great fortune. We will be fine. Just wait for the opportunity to come to us... Well, we can probably make those two annoying bugs suffer humiliation because of this unique place."

His father-in-law, as still as water, feared nothing. Alex understood him after thinking about it.

‘D*mn! You are just an avatar, an existence similar to my mirror image. It’s not even a big deal if you die, but my main body is on the scene. Everything will be over if I die.’

Even so, there was no other way now. Alex could not help but let that force pull him down. He even felt as though countless eyes were staring at him in the process, which made his hair stand on end.

Alex asked, “Father-in-law, there is probably something bad down there, isn’t it?”

Grand Emperor Rowan nodded. “I feel it too. It’s like a bunch of old women staring at my butt... Something is not right...”

Then, he looked up. He saw Bredon and Black Dragon Chief had reached the edge of the canyon, but he dared not go down.

“If I’m not wrong, it seems to be the Chaos Demon Realm down there!”

“Why is there a gateway for something like this here?”

“Bredon Chase, the Fiend Lord’s heart is down there. Do you dare to go down and get it?”

“Haha! What a joke! Why would I dare not do so? Let’s go down. It’s just the Chaos Demon Realm. I, Bredon Chase, will kill my way as usual. Black Dragon, I think you are old, and your strength is average. You better cherish your life, lest you die by accident when you get down there. When that happens, your Black Dragon clan will be reduced to slaves!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3513

Bredon had his reasons for saying those things.

Everyone in the Chi universe knew the Black Dragons were at odds with the Benares Dragons. Both dragon clans had been fighting for the ancestral land for over a million years. They hated each other and would engage in a fight when they met. However, the power between the two clans was relatively balanced.

The Black Dragon Chief and the Benares Dragon Chief had the greatest combat power in the two clans, and they were of similar level. Therefore, the ancestral land was divided into two. Even so, conflicts broke out constantly at the demarcation line between the lands as everyone wanted to take a little more land. Hence, if the Black Dragon Chief died in this place, the Black Dragons would not be able to compete against the Benares Dragons, and they would lose their ancestral land in the end.

The Black Dragon Chief snorted coldly, “The ancestral land dispute has occurred for too long. I have long wanted to end this dispute. If I can obtain the Fiend Lord’s heart, the Benares Dragon Chief can only kneel before. I am willing to take this risk!”

Right after saying that, he took the lead and jumped down. He was immediately caught up in the mysterious force below and plummeted down.

Bredon’s face sank. He wanted to drive the Black Dragon Chief away at first, but he did not expect this old creature would be so determined. He also could not let go of the Fiend Lord’s heart, but he did not want the old black dragon to snatch it first. Therefore, he also jumped down instantly.

Not long after those two jumped down, a huge ship nearby surfaced silently.

“The one who just jumped down from here seems to be Bredon Chase from the Thousand Sword Sect.”

“The Fiend Lord’s heart actually shows up here?”

“It looks like we are lucky.”

“Wait a minute!”

At that moment, an old lady stretched out her hand and looked at the dark submarine canyon. She then said, “Something is wrong with this place. There is so much negative resentful Chi. The pure demonic Chi should be swirling around and won’t hurt anyone if it is really the Chaos Demon Realm, but this...”

“Grandma, you are such a peerless expert. Any danger is common in front of you.” A young woman on the ship smiled as she flattered the old lady.

“That’s right. Grandma, Bredon Chase can only kneel down and prostrate before you if you step in. How can he be qualified to obtain the Fiend Lord’s heart? It has to belong to you, Grandma.”

The old lady was walking on air and enjoying herself from those words, but she still reminded them. “You should be careful. I sense that this canyon is complicated down there. I’m afraid it’s not as simple as the Chaos Demon Realm, but rather it is like the Primordial Cemetery.”

“Primordial Cemetery? What is that?”

“You won’t understand it even if I explain it! Go down and take a look!”

“Go!”

The huge ship was activated and rushed toward the canyon. Shortly afterward, that force appeared again. The huge ship crumbled and disintegrated right under that force. At least five hundred experts inside were squeezed out.

The old lady spread her hands and shouted, “Fear not. I will protect you all!”

She condensed a large bubble that wrapped everyone in it like a barrier, but the next second, thousands of law-based astral wind appeared below the canyon and bombarded the bubble like raindrops. The bubble shattered in just an instant. More than half of the people were injured due to the attack.

The old lady was so angry that her eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. When she glared with both eyes, she found that the people below were unscathed and did not make any resistance. She dared not take another action and warned everyone quickly, “Don’t move. Don’t resist. Just go down this way.”

At the same time, the dark demonic lotus inside Alex’s body suddenly said to him, “Be careful. There are Primordial Spirits here. They are dead souls sacrificed during the great war between primordial gods and demons. They have turned into peerless dreadful devils in this special environment. This place is definitely a dreadful place. I can’t suppress them even with my demonic attribute.”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3514

Alex did not think that way. His expression was a little strange because a voice seemed to have been calling out to him after he arrived here.

It was getting more and more intense.

Boom!

Finally, the force on their bodies disappeared all of a sudden. Alex and Grand Emperor Rowan fell hard. Fortunately, they did not fall to death as it was all seawater down there, but the next second, the dark demonic lotus warned, "Be careful!"

Grand Emperor Rowan also shouted and lashed out a punch abruptly.

As soon he lashed out the punch, the murderous intent spread everywhere. Mountains collapsed, the ground cracked, and stars fell.

The momentum was surprisingly great, but it was futile. Invisible dreadful creatures charged at them with a swish. They were the Primordial Spirits mentioned by the dark demonic lotus. There were countless numbers of them, and they all lunged at the two of them. They could not see the bodies but only felt them.

Grand Emperor Rowan activated the Eye of Samsara, and a vertical eye was opened on his forehead. He saw them. They were bloodshot eyes.

"Run!"

The Taien Flag was still there. Grand Emperor Rowan controlled the flag and took Alex with him before breaking through the encirclement. Alex did not stay idle and unleashed various moves mindlessly. Then, he discovered that the techniques of Buddhism were greatly effective against these Primordial Spirits and seemed to be able to frighten the dreadful creatures away.

After that, the Black Dragon Chief also came down. This dragon's enormous body smashed many rocks on the seabed with a boom. Immediately afterward, it roared and darted toward Alex and others. However, he also could not prevent the Primordial Spirits from giving him a hard time.

“Ah! What are these things?!”

“Argh! D*mn! Primordial Spirits! They turned out to be the Primordial Spirits!”

“Arghhh!”

Alex looked back and saw countless invisible Primordial Spirits pestering that extremely powerful Black Dragon Chief. Surprisingly, he was unable to run away and let out a huge roar while rolling on the seabed... However, his body constantly bled and his soul trembled. Finally, even his wailing was gone.

He died... And just like that, the Black Dragon Chief was dead.

Alex and Grand Emperor Rowan felt their blood freeze upon witnessing the horrifying scene.

He was a powerhouse in the Advanced-Eonian Realm and a member of the Black Dragon clan. The strength of his body was self-evident, but he died in the blink of an eye, leaving only a skeleton.

“Go! Go!” Grand Emperor Rowan said with quivering lips.

The two of them had weaker cultivation. It was a miracle that they were still alive now, but the Primordial Spirits did not let them go and were still eying them covetously nearby.

Nonetheless, Alex was the present Buddha, and Grand Emperor Rowan also had the cultivation techniques of Buddhism. Grand Emperor Rowan said to Alex, “Are you surprised that I know Buddhist cultivation techniques? In fact, you probably didn’t know that I was a monk in my past life. Do you know the Dragon Subduing Arhat?”

“I know! Daoji!”

“Yes! That’s me!”

Alex was speechless for a moment. However, they both were fellow brothers. Grand Emperor Rowan was Daoji, whereas he was the Buddha. The two of them were fated with Buddhism, so they managed to block the Primordial Spirits temporarily.

“Go! Go! Go!” Grand Emperor Rowan said, “Told you this place would be a blessed place for us. These two annoying bugs will die here, and now there is one left. He won't last long either." He rode the flag and rushed in a certain direction.

"Wait a minute! Change direction! To the right!" Alex said.

"Why?"

"A mysterious voice seems to be telling me to go there. Something is calling out to me!"

"Alright. I'll listen to you. Perhaps it's our fortune."

They both changed direction and sped off. Those Primordial Spirits followed them all the way, but they stopped following them after reaching a certain area. On the contrary, they fled frantically, as if they were afraid of some terrifying existence.

Back there...

When Bredon rushed down and saw the Black Dragon Chief's corpse bones, he instantly shuddered with fear.

However, he sensed clearly that Alex had gone to a distant place.

"What! The old Black Dragon died just like this?! Are you kidding me?!"

"Primordial Spirits?! Oh, my God!"

Bredon summoned a sword quickly. One sword formed a million swords, and they all surrounded him. He also turned himself into a sword and set up a sword formation to resist the onrushing Primordial Spirits. Shortly afterward, that old lady and others also arrived.

"Granny Heavenward?" Bredon was astonished. 'Huh? The people from the Heavenward Gate are here...'

Bredon wanted to leave quickly, but he was unable to do so!

The Primordial Spirits were too powerful. He could not figure out how Alex and Grand Emperor Rowan escaped.

Could it be that the Primordial Spirits were still sleeping and were not awake at that time?

This was the only plausible explanation. Promptly, the Primordial Spirits caused trouble for the people from the Heavenward Gate.

Granny Heavenward shouted, "Be careful! They are Primordial Spirits! Everyone, get in formation and resist the enemies!"

After a pause, she said to Bredon, "Master Chase, why don't we join forces?"

Bredon replied, "Alright!"

They had to join forces at a time like this.

Bredon's sword was very powerful and could hurt the Primordial Spirits. Granny Heavenward also had a priceless treasure in her hand. After she summoned it, it was filled with great lethal power. However, she seemed to have angered a certain hidden big boss after dealing great damage to the Primordial Spirits. A gigantic Primordial Spirit, its eyes alone were like two small planets.

Sure enough, she could only see this pair of eyes. It let out a loud roar, shaking the sky and the earth.

Woo!

Meanwhile...

Many people from the Eternal Dominion were in the Hive, including Hayley. At that moment, the nine Eternal powerhouses gathered and broke through the Hive at the Eye of Nine Yin. They found a large coffin, but it was empty inside after opening it.

There was nothing...

"Nothing? How is this possible?"

"Where could the Fiend Lord's heart have gone?"

Hayley's heart skipped a beat as she exclaimed, "Why did that guy come here too?"

A man beside her said, "Hailey, who is that guy you're talking about?"

He saw some clues from Hayley's expression. To his surprise... It seemed to be a love affair between a man and a woman.

"Uhm, he is a very interesting guy..."

Just then, they heard a roar, and the sky and the earth trembled.

Woo!

"What was that?"

Several Eternal powerhouses were startled for a moment.

An old Daoist priest smirked. "If I heard correctly, it should be the cry of the Primordial Spirit King. The Primordial Spirit King doesn't show up by chance. The Fiend Lord destroyed the world and massacred millions of deities in the great battle between the primordial gods and demons back then. The Primordial Spirit King hates the Fiend Lord to the core. He is probably searching for the Fiend Lord's heart too."

"Primeval Lord of Heaven, forget about the Fiend Lord's heart!" Hayley suddenly said with a smile.

The old Daoist priest was startled. "Heavenbane, what do you mean?"

Hayley said, "My ally has obtained the Fiend Lord's heart. None of you shall try to take it away from him."

"Your ally? Who is it?"

"My ally is my man, of course!"

"What?! Heavenbane, you found a cultivation partner?!" The Primeval Lord of Heaven was astonished.

The man whom Heavenbane had taken a fancy to was by no means simple. He would be even more amazing if he obtained the Fiend Lord's heart. The balance of the Eternal Dominion might even be broken.

“Hmph. Primeval Lord, do you think I don’t know you hired the Bull Demon King to conquer the Ancient Path? Your conspiracy has been exposed. I advise you to give up that unrealistic idea because you are bound to fail.”

“Junior, let’s go!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3516

When the Primeval Lord of Heaven saw Hayley and her junior dashing out of the Hive, his face was as cold as ice.

“The secret of the Everlasting Door is hidden within the Fiend Lord’s heart. This may be the final clue...”

“We can’t let Heavenbane’s man take search control of it, or else the Everlasting Path will be cut off from all of us. What’s more, the current heavenly law is ruthless and can’t tolerate Eternals. All the Eternals will meet their demise soon.”

“And... This is... Our last chance...”

The Primeval Lord of Heaven’s words tugged at the heartstrings of all the Eternal powerhouses at the scene. Although they knew the Primeval Lord of Heaven had an impure intention, it was undeniable that the heavenly law did not tolerate the Eternals. None of them who reached this level was a fool.

A young woman in white with exposed thighs said, “Primeval Lord, we all know you are trying to revamp the Heavenly Fate, but that’s unrealistic. The heavenly law is ruthless, and it treats all creatures fairly. Didn’t the former Heavenly Fate Pavilion also perish overnight in the end?”

The Primeval Lord of Heaven said, “You are wrong. I’m not going to revamp the Heavenly Fate, but to search control the Everlasting Door. I want everyone to live forever. Everyone can become a dragon or god! Everyone can enter the Everlasting Door!”

The few Eternal powerhouses were stunned upon hearing such words from the Primeval Lord of Heaven. To their surprise, this man was holding onto such a ridiculous ideal.

Another Eternal powerhouse said, "Primeval Lord, this is an impossible task. Normal humans can't cross the Everlasting Door. They will end up dead once they cross it. How can they withstand the crushing of that Wheel of Fate?"

The Primeval Lord of Heaven said, "That's why sacrifices are required."

"Sacrifice? Sacrifice what?"

"Lives!"

"Ha! Primeval Lord, have you gone crazy? How many lives would have to be sacrificed then?"

Consequently, the Primeval Lord said, "This problem can be solved easily by sacrificing the diffracted universe."

The crowd was stunned, but at that moment, someone said, "The others should die in our place. The diffracted universe is degenerate in the first place. If it gets destroyed, so be it. It will be a great thing that lasts through the ages if we can stop the ruthless heavenly law."

"Let's find the Fiend Lord's heart first, or else everything will be in vain."

The group of people, a total of seven Eternals, temporarily formed an alliance. Then, they chased after Hayley.

Chaos Demon Realm.

Granny Heavenward and others were overwrought when they saw the Primordial Spirit King that appeared suddenly. Such an existence was not something that people like them could resist.

"We can't stay here for too long! Hurry up and leave!"

"Chase after those two people ahead."

All the small Primordial Spirits dashed toward the Primordial Spirit King because of its appearance. Surprisingly, they merged. Therefore, the Primordial Spirit King's strength skyrocketed again. It shot a beam of light out of its planet-like eye at the formation of Granny Heavenwards and others as if it were a cosmic ray.

Boom!

The formation broke with a loud boom. Thirty or so people from the Heavenward Gate died instantly.

“Escape!”

Bredon swung his sword at the Primordial Spirit King, unleashing a 100,000-foot-tall sword light.

When it was about to hit the Primordial Spirit King’s eyeball, a large phantom hand appeared out of nowhere next to it and grabbed the sword light. It then squeezed the sword light into a ball and shattered it.

“Corpse King of the Great Wasteland, come forth!” the Primordial Spirit King roared furiously.

The next moment, a large bony hand emerged from the seabed in front of Bredon and others like a towering mountain and slapped the crowd ruthlessly. Seawater was churning wildly, the laws were exploding, and some luminous sirens around them were fleeing desperately.

A loud boom rang out. The smack formed a larger crater. Dozens more lives died, but their souls were absorbed by that large bony hand.

Clang!

A clear sound was heard.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3517

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3517

The crowd looked over carefully. To their horror, they saw nine chains wrapping around the white bony arm, and intricate spells were carved on each chain. They were mysterious, ancient, and filled with laws, but now, one of the chains cracked.

The Primordial Spirit King opened its mouth and roared again, “It’s finally time for our revenge after billions of years! All the people and living beings in this universe deserve to die!”

Bredon was also injured because that blow earlier was aimed at him.

“Go! Granny Heavenward, I’m afraid these disciples or yours can’t be saved! Take care of yourself!”

Bredon did not want to continue fighting. He left hurriedly before the Corpse King of the Great Wasteland’s shackles were broken completely. He even took away the magical treasure storage and a piece of bone before he left.

‘I hope the Black Dragon’s inverse bone can be of some use at the critical moment.’

Whoosh!

Bredon was also extremely cunning. He barged through the crowd of the Heavenward Gate and ran for his life.

‘As the saying goes, I don’t have to run faster than the enemies. I just have to run faster than my companions!’

The Primordial Spirit King stretched out its invisible hand and grabbed wildly in the crowd. Bredon used the Heavenward to eliminate the Primordial Spirit King’s pursuit. Granny Heavenward glared at him, but she could only do that once the Primordial Spirit King chased her. She even grabbed her disciples and threw them to the back.

Bredon and Granny Heavenward escaped this deadly cemetery at last but with heavy casualties. There were five hundred experts from the Heavenward Gate, but only twenty or so of them were alive now.

Granny Heavenward’s eyes flashed with rage. “Go! I’m going to have the Fiend Lord’s heart!”

Bredon replied, “Granny, you don’t have the final say, do you?”

Granny Heavenward was resentful. “I haven’t held you accountable for using my sect disciples to run for your life just now. Only the Fiend Lord’s heart can make up for the huge loss of my Heavenward Gate.”

Bredon laughed. “The capable ones worthy of claiming the treasure. Let’s find out who is capable.”

Right after saying that, he dashed forward. He could still sense Alex's presence.

'Once I ditch Granny Heavenward, where will she go to find the Fiend Lord's heart? Haha!'

Whoosh!

Bredon turned a sharp sword and disappeared rapidly. Granny Heavenward was unwilling to let him go, so she chased after him immediately. The remaining Heavenward Gate disciples chased after them, but they were much slower. Therefore, they could only search along the way.

At that moment, Alex and Grand Emperor Rowan entered a foggy white area.

Grand Emperor Rowan said, "The laws and aura here are so dense. I think it will be a hundred times faster than outside if I cultivate here... Ah, I have transcended again."

He reached the eighty-first level of the Dominant Realm in an instant.

Alex was speechless. 'Father-in-law discouraged me on purpose, didn't he?!'

"Why can't I absorb any power of laws here instead?"

Alex said, "D*mn it! That ominous heart must have been behind it!"

He felt that his heart was beating uncontrollably. Furthermore, the heartbeat was getting heavier. The heartbeat sounded like a drum.

"Haha! I have transcended again! Eighty-second level!"

"Holy crap! Father-in-law, are you sure your cultivation is correct? It's not an illusion, is it? How can it be so fast? It's less than a minute ago, right?"

Grand Emperor Rowan said, "This is the fortune I was talking about. This is the divine mist by the God of Fortune, but I never expected you would have no luck with this fortune. Never mind. I will protect you... Oh my. I transcended again. It's eighty-fourth level now!"

Alex was speechless. Just then, they sensed someone was chasing after them.

It was Bredon Chase!

“He just refuses to leave us alone! Run! Quickly!”

“Get up here!”

Grand Emperor Rowan summoned that flag for an accelerated journey and pulled Alex up. When he entered this white fog earlier, he put away the flag because of the continuous upgrade in a short time... Now that he was riding the flag to escape, he suddenly found that his speed was severely affected by this foggy white area. Even his vision and divine consciousness were interrupted.

He called it the foggy white area because it was on the seabed with almost zero visibility. He felt as though he had crashed into a pool of milk.

Boom!

Grand Emperor Rowan’s flag hit something unknown. They tumbled instantly and almost had a tragic accident. They activated X-ray vision, which made their visibility higher than others. When they took a look, they almost screamed.

The flag hit an eight-armed giant. It looked ferocious at first glance. Its body was definitely harder than theirs, not to mention its cultivation level.

Roar!

That monster roared and slammed down the stick in its hand.

“Get out of the way!” They struck each other’s palms and borrowed the force to dodge the blow. Then, they saw a stick, as huge as a mountain, smashing the ground hard.

“My goodness!”

“How great is that strength?”

Another canyon appeared right on the ground.

“Run!”

Alex and Grand Emperor quickly identified a direction and sped off, but unexpectedly, that eight-armed monster was not slow. It strode off with four legs at a breakneck speed.

“Sh*t! What kind of monster is this?!”

They both rushed right at Bredon, who was chasing after them.

The visibility of this place was low, and Bredon did not have X-ray vision. He could only identify the direction based on the marking on Alex’s body. At that moment, he sensed Alex approaching him, so he thought Alex was lost. He felt extremely excited as Alex bumped into him.

‘You’re walking right into the trap! The Fiend Lord’s heart is mine!’

Bredon was overjoyed. He made his move after Alex got close. However, Alex turned around and headed in another direction abruptly when he was about a hundred meters away from Bredon.

‘Huh? Did he discover me? He’s trying to run? Not so easy!’

Bredon pounced on Alex at once, but at that moment, an extreme crisis appeared behind him. His cultivation was in the Eonian Realm, and he had long reached the point where his seven senses were keen and gained potential for early crisis detection.

‘Someone ambushed me!’ Bredon reacted instantly and swung his sword to the back.

Clang!

A loud sound rang out.

Bredon realized that he had hit an enormous copper bell. The bell’s defense was very strong. His sword slowed down the copper bell slightly, but it covered him immediately again.

“D*mn! Granny Heavenward, are you trying to fight me to the death?”

He knew it was Granny Heavenward’s treasure, so he scolded her immediately. As expected, Granny Heavenward’s voice came from the back. “I will not harm you as long as you give up the Fiend Lord’s heart!”

Bredon was furious. “Bullsh*t! Old virgin, do you think I am afraid of you?!”

Then, they both fought from a distance in the sea of white fog. However, Granny Heavenward suddenly screamed after a few moves. A monster popped up and grabbed her waist, pinching her like a clay figurine in its hand.

“My goodness! What is this thing? Go to hell!”

Granny Heavenward was stunned as she had never seen such a monster. She controlled the magical treasure quickly and slammed into it. It was the copper hell with amazing defense, but it encountered its rival this time. The monsters had a total of eight arms. It grabbed the copper bell with two arms before it opened its mouth and bit down.

Crack! Crack!

Granny Heavenward was horrified.

To her surprise, that monster immediately created a huge opening on the natal magical treasure after a few bites. This monster’s teeth were terrifying, it crunched and swallowed half of the copper bell in the blink of an eye.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3519

“D*mn it!”

Granny Heavenward was mad as a wet hen. In addition, the natal magical treasure destroyed by the bite also damaged her soul to a certain degree. Fortunately, she had quickly struck out at the monster and severed one of its arms while taking advantage of the fact that it only cared about eating the copper bell. She then escaped, but the next second, the monster was furious. Moreover, its severed arm was also recovering at a visible speed.

It grew a new arm swiftly.

'What kind of monster is that? Run!' Granny Heavenward was terrified.

The Chaos Demon Realm was simply perilous. She did not know if Bredon was aware of the existence of this monster, but now, it was in hot pursuit of her and even faster than her. If she wanted to make her escape, she could only outrun Bredon first.

"Bredon Chase, the Fiend Lord's heart is yours! I don't want it anymore!" Granny Heavenward shouted behind him, "This place is too strange! I'm afraid my disciples will be in danger, so I'll leave first!"

Bredon scoffed upon hearing that. "Old virgin, I don't believe you!"

However, he slowed down a bit involuntarily.

As a result, Granny Heavenward overtook him and brushed past him with a swish, running forward without looking back.

"D*mn! B*tch! You're really cheating! But, old virgin! You're pursuing the wrong direction!"

Just then, he realized a severe problem. Granny Heavenward was not chasing after Alex but was running away from the monster behind her.

Boom!

The monster touched the ground with its four limbs and bounced vigorously, leaping high. It shot a long lance out of its arm.

Buzz!

The long lance was shot right at Bredon. Feeling an adrenaline rush, Bredon rolled on the ground with all his might before he managed to dodge it wretchedly. Then, he also burned his vital energy and ran away quickly.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Bredon caught up with Granny Heavenward again and cursed, "Old hag, you tricked me! You are really cunning as a fox. What's the origin of that guy back there?!"

Granny Heavenward said, "It's probably your dad..."

“F*ck! Old virgin, it’s your mate...”

Consequently, Granny Heavenward threw out something all of a sudden.

Whoosh!

The area behind her turned into a muddy swamp instantly. As soon as Bredon stepped into it, he suffered a calamity... Then, that monster also rushed up to him in an instant.

Roar!

“Argh!”

Running ahead, Granny Heavenward heard Bredon’s miserable scream. Even if he lashed out the Black Dragon’s inverse bone, that eight-armed monster was simply a bug-like existence. He could not break that monster’s defense at all.

The scream lasted for a while, and it became silent completely.

The master of the generation died from some unknown cause.

In an instant, Alex felt his body become much lighter. Two Eonian powerhouses had marked him previously. He always felt that someone was spying on him, but that feeling was now gone along with the death of the two Eonian powerhouses.

“Father-in-law, it seems those two in the Eonian Realm are dead!” Alex said to Grand Emperor Rowan.

“Ha! I told you. To us, this is a sacred place with supreme fortune. How could those two pieces of trash kill us? However, I wonder if that monster is still pursuing us,” Grand Emperor Rowan said. “This place is very dangerous. Why don’t we rest here for a while and then level up quickly? When I transcend into the Eonian Realm, I will have the power to fight it.”

“How long will it take then?”

“I think... Perhaps one minute is enough?”

“It’s going to take one minute to reach the Eonian Realm? Huh?. I’m just surprised. It’s fine. You should level up!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3520

Grand Emperor Rowan was truly an overpowering entity. He really meant it when he said he would level up.

Helpless, Alex watched him step into the Eonian Realm. He simply did not give people a way out with such accumulated strength.

Who could have leveled continuously in just a few words like him?

Even gaming was not as fast as this. However, he was Grand Emperor Rowan, the polygamous Heavenly Emperor, the strongest monster in the ancient era. Alex wouldn’t have believed it if he did not see it with his own eyes.

After that, Alex saw a tree’s shadow appear behind Grand Emperor Rowan... He was shocked. He also had a tree in his mind palace. Moreover, there were two of them, the Chaos Tree and Ancestral Bodhi Tree, but it seemed that none of them was as amazing as this tree.

“Is this... Is this the Primordial Tree?!” At that moment, the dark demonic lotus was also stunned.

The existence of the Primordial Tree was incredible. Rumor had it that it was the root of the universe.

Not only was the dark demonic lotus shocked, but it was also moved. It then said to Alex, “The Primordial Tree is the root of the universe. It contains the most basic primordial laws. Once we snatch the Primordial Tree for ourselves, our strength will surely increase greatly. In time, we will be able to do whatever we want in the entire world.”

Alex was unmoved. “He is my father-in-law...”

The dark demonic lotus sneered, “Father-in-law, my a*s. A father and a son can turn against each other in front of the real Dao. Hurry up. Strike immediately while his cultivation foundation is unstable right after he stepped into the Eonian Realm. You will definitely be able to grab the Primordial Tree with my help.”

“Save your breath!”

“You... Abomination! How dare you disobey me? Fine then. I will devour your soul now and then snatch the Primordial Tree. Haha. Besides, you already have the Fiend Lord’s heart and will likely step into the Everlasting Realm. I have achieved my goal in the Eye of Nine Yin! Alex Rockefeller, you are the one who doesn’t cherish yourself, so don’t blame me! I was planning to let you live for another few days at first...”

The dark demonic lotus revealed its true colors. It rushed out of Alex’s body abruptly. The huge dark lotus swayed lightly, but it produced tremendous demonic power. Furthermore, this place, the milk-like white foggy area rippled and retreated because of the appearance of this black lotus.

“Alex Rockefeller! You are my host! I will devour you!”

The dark demonic lotus said, “Then, I will get you to the pinnacle of Dao and achieve eternity! Consider it a favor repaid!”

Immediately afterward, it wrapped around Alex hard.

“Abomination!”

Just then, Grand Emperor Rowan opened his eye abruptly. It was the third eye, a vertical eye on his forehead, but surprisingly, it contained two pupils. The Eye of Samsara stared coldly at the dark demonic lotus.

“Huh?” The dark demonic lotus seemed to have sensed it, so it turned around quickly.

Consequently, it saw nothing unusual with Grand Emperor Rowan at all. He was still fine, and his eyes were closed.

“Tch!” The dark demonic lotus heaved a sigh and blamed itself for being paranoid.

It focused on devouring Alex, but then, Grand Emperor Rowan opened his eye again. At the same time, that vertical eye glowed. It was a mysterious symbol.

Buzz!

The symbol turned into a cage and covered the dark demonic lotus and Alex.

“Huh?” The dark demonic lotus was astonished and reacted immediately, trying to shake off the cage Grand Emperor had thrown, but soon, she realized something was not right.

“What is this..? Six Eternities..?”

The dark demonic lotus was flabbergasted. “I thought the Six Eternities had been damaged and perished long ago. How can you...”

Grand Emperor Rowan said to Alex, “Alex, hang on. This dark demonic lotus is nothing terrifying. Let’s join hands and purify it!”

Alex was in a dilemma.

The dark demonic lotus had an affair... No, it was linked to the three thousand lotuses inside his body and could also control Alex’s three thousand worlds. Moreover, it was powerful and knew him like the back of its hand.

Alex had long known this devil was a potential threat. It wasn’t like he didn’t think of a solution. He even thought of countless solutions with the women in his family, but he failed to think of a perfect solution in the end. Consequently, he still did not have a solution when the real danger befell him now.

‘What should I do? Die? I can’t accept it. How can I accept it? I will never become someone else’s cat’s paw!’

He could no longer see outside now but could hear what his father-in-law, Grand Emperor Rowan, said.

Apparently, he... Seemed to have a solution...

Buzz!

The dark demonic lotus was furious. Something seemed to be binding it.

Alex did not yield without a struggle and tried various methods. He had to try it, even at the price of life and death.

Boom! Boom!

It was the Fiend Lord's heartbeat. It beat energetically, as if Alex's heart was racing wildly and putting up strong resistance.
