

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0361

The topic about Mask had caused an uproar on the internet due to the shocking factor of the video, everyone couldn't help but inexplicably felt as if they were watching the superhero The Hulk in action. It was quirky and exciting. Along with Zendaya's popularity, Mask managed to trend on social media for quite a while.

Among the topics that were discussed on that day, Mask's popularity had actually exceeded Zendaya and topped the trending hashtag on social media.

However, Mask was just a masked man, it was a mere alias. None of the outsiders knew his real identity, all they knew was that he was one of Zendaya's bodyguards. Some also tried asking Zendaya about his identity, but she refused to reveal any information. Hence, even if Beatrice pulled an all-nighter and tried looking for every bit of information about Mask on the internet, she couldn't possibly find out his identity.

If she were to know that Mask was Alex, how would she react by then?

***

Alex had a long, good night's sleep. He even had a wonderful dream. In the dream, he had both Dorothy and Cheryl in his arms, Waltz was at the side waiting for her turn as well. It was really the pinnacle of his life. However, Claire suddenly showed up in a bikini, saying that she wanted to bear his children, which caused him to wake up in shock.

After waking up, he realized someone was lying next to him, it was Waltz. Her beautiful eyes did not blink as she stared at him.

“Uhm, Waltz... Why are you sleeping here?” Alex asked in surprise.

Waltz replied, “This is my bed. If I’m not sleeping here, where else should I sleep?”

“Oh!” He blinked his eyes and hurriedly jumped off the bed.

Just then, he immediately jumped back into the bed and covered himself with the sheets. Puzzled, he asked, “Where are my clothes?”

Waltz yawned slothfully as she stretched her tender arms and moved them for a bit. Then, she said, “You’re really asking that? How could I let you wear it, with so much blood on it? Do you even know how long it took me to bathe you clean? My hands are so sore!”

“You even bathed me?”

“What? Do you not like that, Senior? You even had this smirk on your face when you were fast asleep. Did you dream about sleeping with the superstar Zendaya?”

She had seen the news on the internet as well. From what she had seen when she picked Alex up, it was obvious that Alex was the Mask that everyone was talking about.

“Mask, so many people want to bear your children!”

Alex replied, “I have no idea what you’re talking about. Please go out and help me get some clean clothes. I have to shower again.”

Ten minutes later, Alex put on a... Waltz’s nightgown.

That was because only this super long nightgown in her house could fit Alex’s figure.

“Senior, just make do with this gown for now. I’m a single woman at my place, you know? How could I have any men’s clothing?” Waltz chuckled lightly and didn’t forget to pull out her phone to snap various pictures as well. In the end, she batted her eyes flirtatiously and said, "Why don't you stay here from now on? I'll buy you a full closet of men's clothing."

Alex was too lazy to care about her flirting. More importantly, he couldn't be able to endure any more flirting! He was worried that he might not be able to control himself if she were to make any more advances.

Looking at the time, it was already one o'clock in the afternoon. He had indeed slept for a fairly long time.

"Senior, what happened to you last night? You fell asleep as soon as you saw me. I couldn't wake you up at all, I almost wanted to send you to the hospital," Waltz asked sternly.

In fact, last night she had a private doctor from Thousand Miles Conglomerate to come over and check up on him too. Otherwise, she just couldn't sit still without making sure that he was safe. However, after a proper check up, the doctor said that Alex had passed out from fatigue.

Alex then ate some instant noodles that Waltz had made for him.

After pondering for a brief moment, he said, "Nothing really. I was trying out a new fighting skill but the consumption was too much. So, I can't use it in actual fights for now."

The attacks using mental powers really took up way too much of his energy, it was completely beyond his control. It was fortunate that the bald guy was the only assassin left standing, or else he wouldn't be able to handle them at all. Hence, if it weren't for last resort, he knew that he couldn't use it freely.

“Senior, you promised to help me modify my cultivation method. When are you going to do that for me?” Waltz clinged to him and pressed her body against his. “I've sacrificed a lot for you last night, you know? I had to warm the bed for you and that was my very first time bathing a man... I should be given credit for the hard work, if not for merit.”

This time, Waltz managed to arouse Alex with her flirts, leading him to grab her by the waist.

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0362

Waltz's eyes were extremely seductive, they were getting wet.

Smack!

However, Alex just couldn't bring himself to make a move on her. All he did was pin her down and slap her hard on her behind as he said, “Show me the full set of your cultivation method, let me take a clear look.”

Ten minutes later, Alex nodded and said, "I'll revise it tonight and hand it to you tomorrow."

"That's great! I'll go to the mall later and get you like, ten sets of clothes at my home!"

"Oh, do you know my size?"

Waltz took a glance at his lower half and gestured it with her slender fingers.

'What the f*ck!'

Since Waltz had something to tend to in the afternoon, she rushed off to Thousand Miles Conglomerate.

Alex, on the other hand, went back to Maple Villa. He had made a plan to increase his abilities in a shorter time... Without the help of the divine energy from his ancestor, he could only rely on himself.

First, he needed more pills. Second, he needed more essence of heaven and earth, just like those in the jade unicorn sculpture back then. However, both of these required lots of money to obtain them. Hence, the most important thing he had to do now was to earn more money!

Suddenly, he received a call from Michelle Yowell.

“Alex, your car has been fixed.” On the other end of the phone, she said, “I’ll drive it over to you!”

“There’s no need to rush,” Alex replied.

“It is a rush though, how could it not be? My house doesn’t have a parking spot for your car. Send me your address, come on!”

Alex was speechless. How could there be no parking spot at the grand Yowell Manor? However, he was able to tell that the little devil, who seemed to be quite anxious, tried to look for an excuse to come over to his place. “Just be honest, what’s the matter with you?”

“Uhm, nothing. Oh right, didn’t you ask for Priscilla Paytas’s blood? I’ve got it. Do you still want it? If not, I’ll just throw it away.”

“Of course I do. I’m at Maple Villa 8, you can come over now.”

“Alright!”

At the time, the Yowells were meeting guests at their manor. The guests were Michelle’s fiancé, Scott Pattinson from the Pattinson family, along with a long-haired young man who came with Scott, Evan Laws.

Michelle used to admire Scott when she was still a little girl. She felt he was a marvelous person as he was skilled at piano, chess, painting and calligraphy. More importantly, he was very skilled in martial arts. The pride in his eyes was fitting for Prince Charming. However, seeing him three years later, she suddenly couldn’t stand his arrogant behavior anymore, she was now disgusted by it. In contrast, she admired heroes who kept a low profile even more, for instance, Alex.

Keith, Colin and a few other core members of the Yowells were accompanying Scott and talking about Mask, who was trending at the time.

Colin turned to Scott. “Scott, what do you think about Mask’s skills?”

Scott gently huffed. “Petty techniques and unrefined skills.”

Colin continued, “But from what I’ve seen, he must have the strength of a thousand men for being able to lift up such a heavy metal rack at his will. He might be even stronger. He should be quite skilled, right? Based on my preliminary judgment, he’s at least a Mystic ranked fighter.”

Scott cackled as his gaze turned sharp. “Brother-in-law, do you really think it’s that easy to be at Mystic rank? Look at this man, he’s not fighting with any elegance or skill, it was a real mess. All he had was his inborn strength, he used the metal rack to his advantage to fight off his opponents. Mystic ranked fighters would have killed those assassins in minutes!”

Evan chimed in. “Our boss is an Intermediate-Mystic ranked fighter himself you know!”

“What? Scott, you’re at Intermediate-Mystic rank already? That’s amazing!” Keith was shocked at the time because he was still a Beginner-Mystic ranked fighter himself. If it weren’t for Alex revising the cultivation method of Slunce Jauda and healing his sickness to prolong his life, he wouldn’t have been able lived till now.

Scott smiled gently. He seemed humble, yet he was actually showing off. “It’s not a big deal really. Intermediate-Mystic rank is just a small accomplishment. My goal is to become an Earth ranked fighter within two years’ time.”

Michelle, who came over after the call, overheard Scott's words. In that instant, she despised Scott even more. 'Reaching Earth rank in two years' time? Do you really think you're some rocket ship? How many fighters in America could have reached Earth rank now?'

She then spoke in a crisp voice, "Grandpa, Alex needs me for something urgent. I'm heading off now! Bye Scott!"

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0363

"Ah, it's Mr. Rockefeller! Then... You should go. Be back soon. Remember to come back before dinner." Keith smiled hesitantly as his eyes glistened.

Michelle waved her hand. "I'll be off now then. I don't know what he wants me to help him with. If I come back late, you guys can have dinner without me."

With that, she immediately hopped in joy and left the manor.

Scott frowned slightly, he seemed a little upset. Michelle was his fiancé after all. He had travelled miles from Alaska for a visit. Since they had not seen each other in three years, she should be accompanying him at all times. Yet, she actually ditched him to see someone else. That was really uncalled-for.

However, he knew that it was just his suspicion, he couldn't bring himself to ask at all. Evan, on the other hand, just asked nonchalantly, "Hey old man, who is this Alex guy? Could he be more important than Scott?"

Colin had an uneasy look in his eyes and just lowered his head to drink his tea silently.

Keith replied, "Don't misunderstand. Mr. Rockefeller is a doctor, my life was saved by him. At the same time, he's also Michelle's doctor because she had suffered some injuries during the cultivation of martial arts. Maybe, he asked her to go for a check up!"

"Oh? That happened?" Scott was a little surprised.

However, Scott noticed Colin and the few others' odd expressions. He thought, 'Could they be hiding something from me? There's no way that Michelle was dating someone else now, right?'

He then thought of his status as the young lord of the Pattinson family. Wouldn't he become the laughing stock of Alaska if he were to be cuckolded?

Hence, he immediately signalled Evan with his eyes.

Evan understood his intention and immediately stood up. “Old man, Bro Colin, it’s pretty late now. I have something to do, so I’ll excuse myself too.”

Of course, Evan headed off to chase after Michelle.

The youthful lady with huge busts drove the Aston Martin to Maple Villa 8 and noticed Alex, who was sitting in the courtyard and basking in sunlight. She rushed to him and excitedly said, “Alex, did you know that something big happened yesterday?”

Due to the vigorous bouncing motion of her huge racks, Alex couldn’t help but take another few glances. He calmly replied, “What is it about something big? Your period started?”

“How did you know that?”

She paused for a brief moment and continued, “I’m not talking about my period. It’s Zendaya, do you know who she is? Don’t tell me you don’t even know her.”

“I know!”

“Some assassins were after her yesterday, but some guy called Mask came to her rescue! That great man was really skilled, I feel he’s much stronger than me.”

Alex had seen that post too. To his surprise, he could actually become trendy on the internet using such a method. He was lucky to have listened to Anna’s advice and wore a cap and mask. Otherwise, all of his personal information would have been dug up and published online. After all, those cybertroopers were extremely terrifying. If one were to mess up, they would be ruined for life.

“Train well and you will surpass him for sure.” Alex said dismissively, “Where’s Priscialla’s blood?”

“Oh, here you go!”

Alex took the bottle of blood and opened it. After taking a few sniffs, he nodded with satisfaction. It was indeed the blood of Kyuhelios Pulse.

“Alright, run along now!” Alex ordered.

Michelle jumped. “Hey, what’s the big idea? I came all the way here just to give you something, yet you’re chasing me away after you got what you wanted? You didn’t even offer me a sip of water!”

“I need to hurry and concoct medicine for Jack Trent’s wife.”

“That must be fun! We can work together, I’ll be your sidekick I can even give you a massage when you’re feeling tired.” With that, she clinged to Alex’s arm as they walked into the villa.

Michelle actually did not want to go home to hear Scott’s bragging.

Somewhere not far away from the villa, Evan witnessed the entire scene. His expression was filled with shock, but more of mockery.

Although he claimed to be Scott’s underling, the Laws family’s background was quite powerful too. Despite this, Scott was just insanely more skilled than him in any field.

More importantly, Scott always put on a smug face. Hence, Evan had been desiring to see him to be turned into a laughing stock for once.

What else could be more humiliating than being cuckolded?

On the other hand, Evan had a sister who was very interested in Scott. She had nagged Evan to help her realize her dream multiple times, and this was a chance to do so.

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0364

“Cuck, cuck, cuck. Boss, you’ve been cucked!”

Scott, who just went into the restroom, received a call from Evan and heard such words.

“What do you mean?”

“Boss, you have been cuckolded! Michelle cheated on you and just met up with a man outside! I saw it with my very own eyes, she acted intimately with a young man, and even clinged to his arm as they walked into a villa. Oh my, I’m afraid that they might have done it already!”

In that instant, Scott's expression darkened, he almost stepped into the squat toilet with his foot. Soon after, he calmed himself down. "Evan, don't joke around. I trust Michelle, and I'm not interested in your sister at all."

"Do you not believe me, boss? I'll send you the photo now."

Ding!

In a brief moment, Scott received a photo, it was a photo of Michelle clinging to Alex's arm. However, it was taken from a distance, so it was quite blurry.

"That's nothing, right?!" Scott texted back.

"No way. Boss, how could you endure such humiliation? Did you watch too much Ninja Turtles? Okay then, I'll go take some more shocking photos!"

Scott clenched his fists hard, his expression twisted. He didn't look anywhere near his usual arrogant and calm self.

His eyes were fixated on Michelle and Alex in the photo as he said in a cold tone, "Both of you better be innocent, or else I'll have the whole Yowell family buried along with you."

Alex, on the other hand, had no idea that he had been targeted.

In the basement of the Villa, while holding the bottle of blood, Alex started to dispense an antidote to cure the parasitic disease in Jack's wife, Leanne. The dispensing of the antidote was not hard, in fact it was much easier than pill concoction. The main function of the ingredients mainly depended on the fresh blood of Kyuhelios Pulse, the rest just acted as boosters.

Twenty minutes later, the dispensing of the antidote was complete. He immediately gave Jack a call and made an appointment to have Leanne take the antidote as soon as possible. This was because the antidote had an expiration time after dispensing, its efficacy would be completely lost after a long time.

"It's already done? This is great news! Thank you so much, Mr. Rockefeller! I'll pick my wife up now. Where are you now? How about we meet up with you in a bit?"

Jack was overjoyed to receive his call.

Only God knew that both the spouses had been waiting for Alex's calls every single day. They were just reluctant to take initiative and ask him about the antidote.

Alex pondered for a brief while and said, "I'll go to your place in two hours!"

After putting down his phone, Alex's ears twitched gently. Then, he turned to Michelle and said, "Did you hear anything?"

Michelle did not notice it earlier. After his reminder, she focused on her hearing too. Two seconds later, she said, "Someone's here, they're trying to be sneaky too. Who could it be?"

Alex smiled. "Time for your little test then. Let's see if you've improved recently."

"Rest assured!" Michelle was very confident of her recent improvement and she wanted to show Alex her skills right there and then.

Meanwhile, the one who sneaked into the villa was obviously Evan Laws.

In order to get shocking intel on Michelle's two-timing, he specifically stayed outside for a brief while before sneaking into the villa. However, he noticed a Benz parked in front of the villa. At a glance at the number plate, he felt extremely familiar. In the next moment, realization hit him... What the f*ck, wasn't this the deathly Benz that had sped past him on the highway a few days ago?

"Interesting, this is just so interesting!"

Evan was also an Advanced-Royal ranked fighter. He was confident that with his abilities, he would be able to sneak into the villa without any issue.

Never did he expect that a girly shout roared next his ears as soon as he sneaked into the villa. Shortly after, he saw a punch flying toward his face. It was way too fast, Evan couldn't dodge it at all.

Bam!

With a loud impact, Evan's nose started bleeding. He yelped in pain, with tears streaming down his face like rivers.

"Evan Laws, so it was you! You sissy!" After taking a clear look at Evan, Michelle was instantly enraged. "Were you following me? Did Scott tell you to do that?"

Evan pinched his nose and stared at Alex, who was behind Michelle and slowly approaching him with an expressionless face. He huffed coldly. "Michelle, you're Scott's fiancé, yet you're here fooling around with this guy in the villa and cheating on him! Do you not realize that you are being unfaithful to him? How could you have the face to marry into the Pattingson family when you're just a good for nothing slut?"

Michelle exploded in anger. "What did you say?! You damn sissy, do you have a death wish? Who said I wanted to marry into the Pattingson family?"

After rolling her huge eyes, Michelle hugged Alex abruptly. "Go back and tell Scott that I have indeed cheated on him. What is he going to do about it then? I'm also pregnant with my husband's child. I, Michelle Yowell will choose the man that I'm going to marry."

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0365

'What?' Evan's face was pale out of shock, as if he had seen a ghost.

He actually said such harsh words earlier on purpose, just to piss Michelle off. He then intended to break the marriage arrangement between Scott and Michelle. It would be the best if Scott somehow accepted his sister when he was discouraged.

Never did he expect that Michelle actually came up with such a shocking declaration. Not only did she cheat on Scott, but she was also pregnant with another man's child!

Evan was overjoyed and almost let out a laugh. He could imagine how gloomy and frustrated Scott would look after receiving such news. When the time came, could he still act arrogantly? He couldn't possibly put up his arrogance pretence and said smugly, "Look, I have been cuckolded. Could any of you guys be a greater cuckold than me?"

'Haha, haha!'

Thinking about this, Evan actually bursted into laughter.

"Are you insane? What are you laughing at?" Michelle fumed.

"Haha, can I not have a good laugh? You know how arrogant Scott is, yet he, of all people, is getting cheated on! This is just too interesting! Don't worry, I'll definitely tell him every single word that you just said, and then... May both of you live happily ever after for the rest of your life together and give birth to a son soon. Oh, you already have one, then... I wish both you and your baby safe and sound!"

Evan couldn't wait to tell Scott such "good news".

Alex stood still, expressionless. All he did was take a few deep glances at Michelle.

He had figured out Michelle's nasty idea in just a few seconds, she was just using him to reject the pester of another man. It was just that the other party was actually her fiancé, it was a little unexpected. However, he didn't mind helping her out this one time since they were quite congenial.

Just then, Evan was about to leave the villa, he wished dearly he could just meet Scott right now. Furthermore, this was something that he must tell him face to face. It would be even better if he could record every single bit of this too.

"Hold on!" Michelle called out to Evan. She still remembered that Alex mentioned a test earlier.

How could she let him go when the test had not even started?

"Is there anything else? Could it be that you want me to take a lovey dovey picture of the two of you as proof?" Evan chuckled as he said. He looked especially goofy when his chuckle was paired with his bleeding nose.

NEBULYFT, World 1st

“Do you think I’d let you go this easily after stalking me? Since when have I, Michelle Yowell, become so generous?” The trait of the little devil in Michelle was completely unleashed after leaving Yowell Manor.

“What do you want then?”

“Fight me. If you win, you get to leave.”

“Haha!” Evan cackled and shook his head as he said, “Michelle, I have to admit, you’re a feisty one!”

As he was saying this, he took a glance at her prideful areas.

In reality, Evan was very attracted to Michelle’s prideful areas. He wished dearly that he could toy with them for ten years. How could he do such an unscrupulous thing when she was Scott’s fiancé?

However, things were different now. She had cheated on Scott and she wouldn’t be considered as his sister-in-law anymore, so he could do anything he wanted to her!

“It’s just that you successfully ambushed me just now. Do you really think you could win against me? Don’t you forget that you used to be defeated by me.”

“Oh you sissy, just cut the bullsh*t.”

Evan was enraged. “Alright, I’ll fight you!”

Soon, the two rushed to the courtyard and fought with all their might. Since both of them were Advanced-Royal ranked fighters, the whole courtyard would surely be destroyed. After taking a look, Alex frowned. Then, he sat down on a chair and said casually, “The loser will pay for the maintenance cost of my courtyard.”

As soon as his voice just fell, Michelle punched Evan hard in the face, causing him to immediately spit blood. Two of his teeth were knocked out as well. His whole body fell to the ground.

“How is this possible? How did you improve so fast?”

Michelle placed her hands on her hips. “That’s because I have... I have the nourishment of love. A sissy like you won’t be able to understand this. You can just find a man yourself. Oh right, since you follow Scott around all the time, do you have a crush on him? Then, I wish you two... Give birth to a son too.”

Evan spat another mouthful of blood. “Fine, I’ll admit defeat today. I’ll win next time. ”

With that, he turned around to leave.

“Did I say you could go just like that?” Alex asked softly.

“F*ck, you ’re just a damn lover boy. Do you think you have what it takes to talk to me? You better cherish your remaining time in this world. You actually dared to sleep with Scott Pattinson’s fiancé, your demise won’t be far away.” Evan had a look of disdain as he spat a bloody sputum at Alex.

Whoosh!

Alex, who was initially sitting on the chair, suddenly disappeared. In the next moment, a hard slap landed on Evan’s face.
