chapter 835

"Great-grandpa, have a chicken wing." Ellie grabbed a chicken wing and placed it on Henry's plate.

"Thank you!" said Henry as he caressed Ellie's head gently.

"Great-grandpa, the weather is very hot recently. You don't have to make an effort to accompany us. Rest at home if you are tired. Just send Mr. Kyle and Mr. Cain to pick us up," said Jamie as he took some fruit salad for Henry.

"Yea! There are so many people who can take care of us. You don't have to do everything on your own. Don't overwork yourself, Great-grandpa," Robbie said meaningfully.

"I'm happy when I see you. I like to spend my time with you," Henry stroked Robbie's head lovingly as he replied.

"Fine." Robbie let out a faint smile.

"Hurry up and eat. I'll bring you to the theme park after you finish eating."

Henry didn't eat much and just kept tabs on the children.

After the triplets finished eating, a group of people followed them to the theme park.

Ellie was an extrovert. Hence, she quickly warmed up to the other children and played sand painting together with them.

On the other hand, Robbie and Jamie wanted to climb rocks.

Jamie was slightly excited because usually, he was inferior to Robbie. However, he finally got a chance to compete with the latter using his strong point that day. He boasted about himself to Henry as he was changing his shoes. He said that he wasn't scared of rock climbing at all and was able to reach the peak within ten seconds.

Henry laughed out loud upon hearing that and patted Jamie's head gently, reminding him to be careful.

Meanwhile, Robbie was wearing the climbing gear with a pensive look on his face.

After the two of them put on the climbing gear, they started to climb the rock wall.

Jamie climbed very fast like a monkey and had reached the middle of the rock wall in the blink of an eye.

Suddenly, he stopped climbing and waited for Robbie because he felt that it would be no fun if he won Robbie easily. "Robbie, don't rush. Take your time. I'll wait for you!" Jamie provoked him intentionally.

Upon hearing that, Robbie lifted his head, shot a glance at the former, and continued to climb slowly.

Ever since Robbie was a young boy, he had outstanding wits and high EQ. However, his stamina and combat skills were not as good as Jamie's. Even a simple activity such as rock climbing was difficult for him.

He requested to compete with Jamie in rock climbing today not only to train himself...

More importantly, the doors and windows of the villa at Northridge were locked. He had observed the surrounding before. If he wanted to enter the villa, he had to climb to the top floor and sneaked into it via the window of the attic.

"Robbie, take it slowly. Be careful, don't fall."

Henry raised his head and looked at Robbie worriedly.

Robbie was bad at exercise since he was young. Hence, naturally, adventure activity such as rock climbing was difficult for him.

When he was just about seven meters away from the ground, his legs started to shake uncontrollably. Although he had mustered all the willpower, he was unable to reach the higher position and almost fell.

"Hurry! Go and guard Robbie. Don't let him get injured." Spencer growled.

"Yes." The two bodyguards stood below Robbie and stared at the latter carefully.

"I'm not that weak," Robbie bellowed in displeasure.

Then, he raised his head to look at Jamie and continued to climb.

Looking at Robbie, Henry's palms became sweaty because he was worried that the former would fall down. Hence, he wheeled himself closer to the rock wall.

At that exact moment, Robbie fell down because his foot slipped as he stepped on a blue rock. "Ahhhhh!" He screamed in fear.

"Robbie!"

A mix of fear and anxiety coursed through Henry's veins upon seeing that. Instinctively, he pounced forward and stretched his arms out, trying to save Robbie from falling. Unfortunately, he fell out of the wheelchair.

"Mr. Nacht!" Spencer quickly rushed over.

"Great-grandpa!" Jamie shouted in shock.

When Robbie opened his eyes, he found that his body was hung in the air by the climbing rope. After that, he lowered his head and realized that Henry had fallen to the ground and was already unconscious.

At that point in time, he was utterly stunned. He felt a heart-wrenching pain in his chest.

chapter 836

"Mr. Nacht, Mr. Nacht..." Spencer supported Henry and shouted in a panic, "Call an ambulance. Quick!"

The bodyguards followed Spencer's order and immediately called the ambulance.

At the same time, the staff put Robbie and Jamie down.

Jamie's face turned pale when he saw Henry fell unconscious. "Great-grandpa, wake up! Don't scare me!"

"Great-grandpa..." Upon hearing the commotion, Ellie rushed over to check out what was going on. Tears streamed down her cheek when she saw Henry's situation. "How did this happen? What happened to Great-grandpa?"

Robbie stood by the side, looked at Henry in shock, and was at a loss for words at that time.

He felt guilty as he recalled what happened just now.

When he fell down, Henry pounced forward instinctively and tried to save him.

However, all of them forgot that he had put on the climbing rope. While Henry was very old and his body was not going to be able to bear the injury...

Now, Henry got hurt because of him. Robbie felt that it was all his fault.

In just a while, Raina rushed over with her assistants and lifted Henry onto the ambulance.

Spencer hurried after the ambulance and shuddered in fear.

He had no idea how he was going to explain all that to Zachary if something happened to Henry.

In the meantime, Raina asked her assistants to get the children into the ambulance and head to the hospital together. Besides, she instructed Kyle to keep the incident a secret.

She could not imagine the disastrous consequences if the news spread out.

Meanwhile, after a long and torturous interrogation, Peter finally gave in to Charlotte and said, "Actually, I don't know much about that. All I know is that Charlotte Windt and Mr. Nacht were together before..."

"What did you say?" Charlotte was stunned, and the color drained out of her face upon hearing Peter's words.

Lupine and Morgan were shocked too because they knew that 'Charlotte Windt' that Peter referred to was Charlotte, which they addressed as 'Ms. Lindberg'.

The Lindberg family and the Nacht family were archenemies.

The purpose Charlotte went back to H City was to destroy Zachary, but now, Peter told her that she had a relationship with Zachary before.

"Impossible. This could not be possible. How could this be?" Charlotte shook her head in disbelief.

"I don't know much about..." After being tortured by them, Peter collapsed to the ground and was too weak for speaking. "I'm just working for a living. Actually, I'm not that close with those powerful figures like you. There's no use for you to kill me because I only know very little about the insider information..."

With that, he passed out completely.

"Ms. Lindberg, do you want to wake him up and continue torturing him?" queried Lupine.

"No need." With a serious look on her face, Charlotte lowered her head. At that moment, she recalled the mixed feeling that welled up in her chest when she first met Zachary.

Every time when I saw Zachary, I wanted so badly to strangle him to death, but I always failed to do so.

Moreover, rage flew through me like lava, and bitterness washed over me when I see him with another woman.

I think I had these feelings for a reason.

Maybe what Peter said is true.

"Then, what do we need to do now? Maybe, we can investigate the background of the children?" Lupine asked cautiously.

"Ms. Lindberg, could they be your..."

Morgan stopped before she finished the sentence because she felt a little scared looking at Charlotte's cold gaze.

"Actually, it's very easy to get the answer. We just need to get some blood samples from the children to do a DNA test," Lupine said softly.

Still, Charlotte said nothing as she kept her head low and squinted coolly.

No one knew what she was pondering about.

After a long while, she finally said, "Get me the information about the children. I want to know everything about them."

"Yes, Ms. Lindberg." Lupine answered.

"Also, get me Zachary's whereabouts," instructed Charlotte.

"Yes."

chapter 837

Henry was getting old, so even a simple fall could actually lead to severe injury.

Two years ago, he fell in the bathroom and was hospitalized for about two months. Ever since then, he was confined to a wheelchair.

Today, he fell out of the wheelchair again and was sent to the hospital immediately. But this time, he was still in the ICU after around six hours.

Spencer was worried sick. After a thoughtful ponder, he decided to call Zachary and told the latter about it.

At that moment, Zachary had just arrived at the mountain where Dr. Felch lived. After explaining his intention, he was rejected at the doorstep.

Dr. Felch and his apprentices believed that the Nacht family had plotted the deaths of Charlotte and Mrs. Berry for the sake of keeping the children.

No matter how Zachary explained, they refused to believe him.

Hence, the former decided to demonstrate his sincerity by staying at the door until they allowed him to enter.

However, at that time, he suddenly received a call from Spencer and was informed about Henry's situation.

Color drained out of his face upon hearing that. Without any hesitation, he instructed Ben to prepare a private jet because he wanted to return to H City immediately.

Just as they left, Sam opened the door. Initially, he wanted to let Zachary in. But looking at the car that just departed, he could only let out a long sigh.

"See, I told you! Zachary is a bad guy. He married Charlotte back then just to gain the children's trust. Halfway through the wedding, the Nacht family chased Charlotte and Mrs. Berry out. After that, we heard the news that they died at T Nation..." said Hayley angrily.

"But he said Charlotte is still alive. His eyes were sincere. I don't think that he was lying," Sam was rather hesitant.

"These people are good at pretending. Back then, he pretended to be sincere and managed to cheat Charlotte and the children. If he is a good person, why would he want to force Charlotte to leave?" As the vivid memories flashed across Hayley's mind, a wave of fury crashed through her.

"I have no idea... But, since he had already driven Charlotte to death, why did he come and find us?" Sam was confused.

"Maybe someone from his family was sick, so he wanted to ask Dr. Felch to treat that person?" Hayley guessed.

"I'm not too sure of that. But they already know that we are here. If he really has bad intentions, we are in danger now. We have to move out as soon as possible."

"Ugh, so annoying! We have to move again because of them."

"Oh, you can ask Olivia about it. Maybe she knows the truth."

"I lost contact with her a few days ago. Could something have happened to her? I gave her a call just now, but it still cannot be connected. Maybe it had something to do with the Nacht family..."

"It's too dangerous. We have to move immediately!"

Meanwhile, at the hospital.

Henry was still in the ICU, and the children were waiting anxiously in the waiting room.

Ellie cried till her eyes were all red and swollen while Jamie was filled with anxiety and kept asking Kyle about Henry's situation.

However, Robbie stayed calm and sat in the corner without saying anything.

"Mr. Robinson, Mr. Jamison, Ms. Elisa, it's late now. Let me send you home," Raina coaxed them in a soft voice.

"No. I don't want to go back before Great-grandpa wakes up." Ellie shook her head with tears streaming down her cheeks.

"I want to stay here until Great-grandpa is out of danger. Dr. Langhan, will Great-grandpa be alright?" Robbie choked out the words.

"He..." Raina wanted to comfort them and tell them that Henry would be fine, but she didn't want to lie to them. Although Henry was just falling from the wheelchair, it was very dangerous because he was old. Moreover, this time, he landed on his head.

"Great-grandpa will be fine. There are many things he hasn't done yet. I believe that he will wake up," said Robbie suddenly in a calm voice.

"It's all your fault. You just missed a step. Do you even need to scream? Great-grandpa fell down because you frightened him!" Jamie finally exploded.
