

Bewedded Not Beloved Chapter 301 – 310

Chapter 301

I thought Jade Jinyuan would tell me about life principles or pouring some chicken soup, but he seemed to be here for dinner.

When the food was served, he stretched his arm to show me: “Livia, you see that my skin disease was completely cured by your prescription. Both father and mother know that you cured my skin. I’m sick, they said I will thank you well someday.”

“No need.” I was about to say that we are a family, but I felt a little strange.

“By the way, my mother asked me to give this to you when I came out.” He handed me a paper bag, and the swollen inside didn’t know what was in it.

“It’s just some ointment. My mother said that you can drink it with a flush of water, and said that you have just been discharged from the hospital. These are all for strengthening your foundation, so you can eat less cold.”

I thank mother Jade, she has always been a very soft person.

Although she dislikes me very much, she has always treated me very tenderly, which I am very grateful for.

Soon the dishes came, and Jade Jinyuan ordered Mandarin Duck Pot, which is not spicy for me.

Actually, I’m almost done, and the hairy belly will not taste good if it is not spicy.

Jade Jinyuan seems to be here for dinner, and it is estimated that he hasn't eaten hot pot in a long time. As if he hadn't eaten it in eight lifetimes, I was worried that he would choke himself to death.

I said, "You eat slowly, and I'm not going to fight with you."

"You eat too." He raised his head in his busy schedule and said to me: "If you don't eat it, I will eat it all up."

"It doesn't matter if you eat it all, you can order more."

Jade Jinyuan's good appetite affected me. I could hardly eat anything these days, but Jade Jinyuan was like a gluttonous food in front of me, and my appetite was aroused by him.

I only ate the whole portion of the goose intestines in the big ice hockey puck.

Jade Jinyuan finally ate herself full, and I ate and leaned on the chair with my belly in my arms.

Jade Jinyuan hiccups, I still cared about my image of a lady, so I blocked it with a tissue and hit one.

"We will go to eat dessert at the next stop." Jade Jinyuan said, startling me.

"Can you eat it?"

"Don't all you girls have two stomachs? One is for dinner and the other is for dessert. There must be a place in the stomach for dessert."

What he said makes sense, and I really want to eat dessert to him.

Ok. I went to a dying and expensive dessert shop with him to eat desserts.

The food in his house is really delicious, and the dishes are exquisite. They don't need to be eaten to be pleasing to the eye, and at a glance, I think they are not delicious.

So it makes sense to sell it expensively.

Their signature is cheesecake, which looks very plain, but it definitely makes dessert lovers want it after one bite, and cheesecakes from other places cannot be imported.

Jade Jinyuan ordered a lot of weird desserts, some of which I have never heard of, but they were delicious.

He is a person who is able to try new things, maybe young people are like this.

In fact, I am three or four years older than him, and I feel much older than him.

After eating the dessert, my stomach was so strong that I vomited it out, and there was no room to support it.

Jade Jinyuan told me after buying the order: "Have you ever eaten red beans with ice?"

I want to shake my head: "No..."

"Let me tell you it's on the corner of this street. There is a shop that sells red beans and red beans are super delicious."

"Brother, I'm really terrified, I'm going to die, I can't eat anything anymore."

"Don't say it too early, the red bean soft ice is to be eaten when it is very supportive, and it has the effect of digesting food."

Is it so magical as he said? He was very enthusiastic. If he didn't eat it today, he would die in front of me.

So I accompanied Jade Jinyuan to eat the red bean ice.

He ordered two large servings, looking at the majestic iceberg in front of me, I vaguely felt that I had to die here today.

Jade Jinyuan patted me with a huge iron spoon: "Livia, have a taste, it's delicious."

So I reluctantly took a bite and put it in my mouth. The texture of the ice is very good, not as hard as a smoothie, the mouth is soft, and there is a pear in the ice, which is sour and appetizing.

I also tasted the taste of hawthorn, which can really digest.

"What? I didn't lie to you, did I?" Jade Jinyuan ate with big mouthfuls. He is a big stomach king, how can I be as powerful as him.

In the end he ate a large portion of Mian Mian Bing, but I did not finish it, and he did not force me. After eating his own portion, he helped me eat what I did not eat. I was worried that he would give himself to Struck to death.

I took his hand: "It's fine if you can't eat it."

"The potential is endless," he continued to eat.

"Farewell, human potential is not so stimulated, it will be uncomfortable to eat too much."

In this way, the two of us ate from noon to evening, until my brain was a little hypoxic when eating, and we walked out of the ice shop.

There was already a glow in the sky, shining red on the back of my instep wearing white sandals.

“Would you like to use an umbrella?” Jade Jinyuan asked me thoughtfully.

“The sun is not shining, and the sunset is beautiful.”

He and I walked forward slowly along the street. This is a commercial street. It is now dinner time. There are many long queues in front of some Internet celebrity restaurants.

People who are full can't see others line up for so long for a bite.

Jade Jinyuan asked me to come out and didn't say anything. It seemed that the main purpose was to eat. Send the care of grandma and mother Jade.

That's good, and I don't need others to persuade me with that kind of heartbreaking tone. Anyway, things are already like that.

We walked, walking from the sky full of glow to the sunset.

The neon lights up, colorfully projected on our feet.

I stepped on the colorful halo and felt like a happy fool on the outside.

“Livia,” Jade Jinyuan spoke suddenly without speaking, and I turned my head to look at him.

A blue neon just happened to shine on his face.

Maybe it was because he was handsome, so that the evil light hit his young face, and he wouldn't feel like a monster, still so beautiful.

The colorful colors were printed in his eyes. He looked at me intently and said to me: "Livia, go out with me to read."

Chapter 302

"What?" I didn't understand: "What did you say?"

"I said, you go to study abroad with me. Our school also has an art department, which is very suitable for you. I have seen the paintings you painted and the jade carvings for your mother. You are very talented in this aspect. Since you don't like it To manage the company, either go to school together, okay?"

Jade Jinyuan's proposal was a good idea. My heart moved, but in fact, I wasn't particularly eager. I just suddenly discovered that I found a reason to escape.

Anyway, the Ron family doesn't need me now, so I can just leave here with excuses.

I am thinking hard about the feasibility of Jade Jinyuan's proposal.

He suddenly grabbed my arm and was very excited: "You think it's good too, don't you? Since staying in Rovandel is not happy, then don't stay here, you go to study with me! There are not so many things abroad, The main thing is that there is no my brother."

Jade Jinyuan seems to have said the essence of the matter, that there is no Naven when going abroad.

I said I would think about it again, and he spared no effort to continue lobbying me.

“I have a house over there, and an aunt who takes care of me and cooks food for us. You don’t have to worry about anything there, you just need to study, OK? I’ll book a ticket.”

Jade Jinyuan drew out his pockets in a hurry, and I quickly held his hand: “You are so anxious, I’m still thinking.”

“What is there to think about? Is it possible that you have anything to worry about here? As for Lina, don’t worry about him. That kid is very powerful. No matter what happens, she can completely handle it.”

I agree with this point. I don’t want to read too much. I don’t think I can avoid it because of my curiosity.

Jade Jinyuan jumped up and down beside me: “Don’t hesitate anymore, Livia. There is nothing you can’t let go of in Rovandel. As for my brother, I don’t think he has any reason not to let people go. Let’s go to school and forget about it here. Are you disturbing?”

“Jade Jin, Jade Jinyuan, don’t jump around.” He made my head hurt because of his quarrel: “This way, you ask me to go back and think about it. I will give you the answer as soon as possible.”

“I’m leaving the day after tomorrow, and the ticket cannot be booked online. So, can you give me the answer before 12 o’clock this evening?”

“My head hurts a little, I have to think about it.”

“It’s not a big matter of killing people, why bother to be so entangled? The more you think, the more you worry, the more you worry, you can’t make a decision. In this way, the decision you gave me before 12 o’clock this evening is good? Then I will help you book your ticket.”

“Okay.” I don’t promise Jade Jinyuan anymore, he must kill me.

The street we walked on was a commercial street, and in the evening, many people were queuing up for those Internet celebrity snack bars. The line is very long and long, twists and turns like an earthworm, for people who have eaten enough, they will feel that they are lined up meaningless.

Everyone's situation is different. We can't expect everyone to stand in our own position.

Jade Jinyuan is full, he has more bad ideas than the mosquitoes on the side of the smelly pond.

He took me to the beach for a walk, the sea in Rovandel is also beautiful, but I rarely go there.

Because it is far away, and it is also very important to be able to accompany me to the beach, for so many years there is only Lina.

I remember that when I was a child, I went to the beach with her. She climbed onto the reef to pick kelp. She accidentally cut her legs by the reef, and then a big wave came over and almost swept her into the sea.

From that time, I was scared, and I never dared to take Lina to the beach again.

Jade Jinyuan and I were walking on the beach. The sand was very soft, and it itched back and forth between my toes.

Jade Jinyuan has been playing treasures all the time. In order to make me happy, he turned somersaults somersaults for a while, and one somersault turned over, but the sand was too soft and could not stand firmly, so he fell a dog to chew the sand.

Seeing him standing there and spitting out sand, I held my stomach to laugh but didn't dare to laugh too loudly, because there was so much food in my stomach that I vomited it all out with one mouth. Isn't that an idiot? Up.

At this moment, I was actually happy, happy like a heartless fool.

With a mouthful of sand, Jade Jinyuan borrowed a bottle of water from the beauties around him. He is handsome and the beauties are happy to lend him.

Then he rinsed his mouth clean, spinning around me like a fly: "Livia, are you happy with me?"

"Happy!" I'm really happy. Today he didn't say anything, didn't explain me anything, but I was just very happy.

He suddenly climbed onto the reef and stretched out his arms. The wind was so strong today that it scared me to death.

I told him: "You hurry down!"

He faced the wind, and his voice was divided by the wind.

"Livia, since you are so happy with me, then we are together!"

"What?" I heard everything he said, but I didn't quite understand what he said, so I asked him aloud.

"I mean let's go to school together, you will be very happy."

"I think about it!" I also answered him loudly.

“Don’t think about it anymore. You can change your mind so easily and look at the people who look forward and backward.”

Even Jade Jinyuan knows my characteristics, what else can I say?

I spent an afternoon and an evening together with Jade Jinyuan, until Lina called me.

“Where did you go, Livia? You haven’t come back yet, did Naven capture you?”

He didn’t mention this person, I didn’t think of him all day today.

I said no, I was with Jade Jinyuan.

“Oh, that defeated general, give him the phone.”

I handed the phone to Jade Jinyuan, and he turned on the hands-free, and Lina’s voice was super vicious on the phone: “Bring me my best friend, kid!”

Jade Jinyuan returned the call to me: “Look, for a vicious woman like Lina, you don’t need to worry about her at all, let her fend for herself.”

Jade Jinyuan drove me back. I had asked the driver of Smith’s family to go back before I ate Hesai.

I asked Jade Jinyuan: “How can you drive? Didn’t you say you haven’t got a driver’s license last time?”

“So I drive without a license!” He could see his smiling molars, and I was scared to death by him.

“You come down and change me!”

“Are you driving without a license?”

Yes, I forgot.

Suddenly, I saw someone in front of me, pointing to the front: “There is a traffic policeman, turn, turn, turn...”

Chapter 303

I don't know what Jade Jinyuan's driving skills are, but I was panicked when I slapped and beat like this.

Not only did he not turn, but instead drove the car with the brakes and drove to the traffic police.

I saw the traffic police saw our car and really thought we were going to hit him to death.

Jade Jinyuan and I yelled at the same time, and then I stepped on his brake foot and finally stopped before the traffic police was only a few meters away.

I was shocked in a cold sweat, and I could see that the traffic police were also very scared. After a few seconds, I came back to my senses and walked towards our car.

I leaned back in my chair and muttered to myself: “It's dead, it's dead now.”

“Livia, are you okay!” Jade Jinyuan turned to look at me: “Just now, I was about to vomit out Mian Mian Bing.”

I know he wants to ease my tension, but the traffic police standing at the window will make me more nervous.

Jade Jinyuan and I collapsed on our seats like two jellyfish until the traffic police flexed their fingers and knocked on our car window.

I glanced at Jade Jinyuan, and he said to me, "Do you want to open the window?"

"Does not open the window violently resist the police?"

Jade Jinyuan is a coward, listen to me and open the window quickly.

The traffic police frowned, very unhappy.

"How did you drive, you almost drove the car to the safety island. If I stood tens of centimeters too far, I would be hit by you. Driver's license."

My driver's license has been revoked and I can't get it out. Besides, Jade Jinyuan was driving.

I turned to look at him. He looked at the traffic policeman with a weeping face and rubbed his whole body. It is estimated that the traffic policeman of ours has seen too many, so he is not surprised.

"Did you not bring it or not?"

Fortunately, Jade Jinyuan is an honest child. He thought for a while and answered honestly: "No."

"What about you?" he asked me again.

"My co-pilot shouldn't need to bring a driver's license, right?"

"Then do you have it or not?"

My voice is small and probably only I can hear it: "There is or there is, but it has been revoked."

The traffic police was so angry that we laughed and nodded vigorously: "You are really good, two people without a driver's license are still driving like this on the main road. Get out of the car and follow me to the traffic police team."

Driving without a license in Rovandel will be detained, starting at least three days.

Jade Jinyuan was very righteous, patted his chest: "The policeman, I will go with you, she is only the co-pilot."

"What is the relationship between the two of you?" the traffic policeman asked.

Jade Jinyuan looked at me like a little idiot, rubbed his nose and answered the traffic police: "She is my sister-in-law."

"ID card." The traffic police said to Jade Jinyuan.

Jade Jinyuan couldn't get it out for a long time. I couldn't help but glanced at him strangely: "Did you not bring your ID card?"

He touched for a long time before taking out his ID card and handing it to the traffic police.

Traffic police officer O frowned after a glance: "I'm not yet 18 years old."

"What? You are not yet 18 years old?" I was about to be shocked to death by Jade Jinyuan. I took my ID card from the traffic policeman and looked at it carefully.

Sure enough, he is only 17 and a half years old now, not even 18 years old.

I glared at him: “You liar, didn’t you tell me that you are 20 years old?”

He touched his head and groaned: “I’m afraid that I am too young to say that you are not playing with me.”

I was about to be pissed off by him, and the traffic police pointed to my nose: “Bring your ID card.”

I handed my ID card to the traffic police, 23 did not reach 24, and I did not hide my age with anyone.

“The relationship between you and him is really his sister-in-law?”

I nodded.

“Well, you are a guardian. It is dangerous for you to let a minor drive. Did you know?”

I don’t know, but I am at a loss. I nodded like smashing garlic.

Jade Jinyuan struck her neck: “She doesn’t know anything, she thought I was 20 years old.”

I touched Jade Jinyuan with my elbow: “You shut up!”

He still has the face to be noisy here. If he hadn’t concealed his age, if he hadn’t been driving without a driver’s license, how could we be caught by the traffic police?

Therefore, Jade Jinyuan and I were taken away by the traffic police without any suspense. Our car was also towed away. It is estimated that this is the first time that Jade Jinyuan has taken a police car in his life. He was actually very happy. It’s Santana, this car is very comfortable.”

I glared at him.

“Don’t worry, Livia, I won’t put you in jail.” He patted his chest loudly: “I will protect you!”

“You liar!” I pinched his arm unbearably, and he yelled in pain, “Why don’t you tell me the truth?”

“Didn’t you just say it? I’m afraid you won’t play with me.”

“Is this a reason?” I shouted angrily.

“Of course this is a reason,” he actually said with confidence: “If you don’t play with me, then I will be even more boring at home. You don’t know if you haven’t lived at home during this time, I’m so boring.”

Jade Jinyuan is really suitable for selling cuteness. His pitiful appearance makes me not know how to scold him.

“Livia,” he tugged at my clothes, looking pitifully, “Don’t be angry, okay? Really, apart from this, I have nothing else to hide from you.”

“You are a liar, you didn’t lie to me before that you have a heart attack.”

Thinking of this is going to blow me up, his appearance is even more pitiful: “Then I am also afraid that you will not play with me.”

I was mad at him, but there was nothing to do with him.

How to do? I can’t beat him, and I can’t beat him anymore.

He held my sleeve like a child: “Livia, don’t be angry, okay? I won’t lie to you again next time. I swear there will be nothing to lie to you except for these two things.”

So I took a 17-year-old child and was caught by the traffic police into the traffic police team.

However, the traffic police was kind to us, poured us tea, and said, “Call a legal guardian.”

“Who is it?” I asked the traffic police stupidly.

“His immediate family members are fine,” the traffic policeman pointed at Jade Jinyuan: “Parents and brothers, I suggest that it is his brother. Are you not his sister-in-law? Call his brother and your husband.”

Does he mean Naven? I haven’t contacted him for several days, and I don’t want to see him in this way.

Jade Jinyuan and I looked at each other, and Jade Jinyuan secretly bit my ears at me: “Uncle Liu’s eldest son was in Rovandel recently, and I asked him to come and pretend to be my brother.”

Fortunately, he can figure it out that Uncle Liu is the gardener of the Jade family.

My voice is extremely small: “People need to look at their ID cards. Are you a fool as a traffic policeman?”

Then Jade Jinyuan didn’t say anything.

I told the traffic police Naven’s phone number, and the traffic police went to call Naven. Jade Jinyuan and I were sitting on chairs to install sculptures.

Chapter 304

Naven came faster than I and Jade Jinyuan thought. About 20 minutes later, I heard Naven talking to the police at the door of the office.

“Mr. Jade, they are here.”

Jade Jinyuan and I didn't even dare to lift their heads. We didn't see Naven for a few days. We didn't expect to meet in this situation.

I really fell to the extreme.

I don't know if Naven is watching us, anyway, my head is about to plunge into the floor.

Finally, Naven finished speaking with the traffic police and walked in. I heard his footsteps.

My nervous nose is sweating.

“Jade Jinyuan.” When I heard Naven calling Jade Jinyuan's name, he immediately raised his head and saw that he was super afraid of Naven.

“Brother.” Jade Jinyuan clearly heard a vague voice.

I don't know if Naven is very strict with Jade Jinyuan. How will he deal with this kind of thing?

If you are irritable, you can do it.

I quickly raised my head, but I didn't dare to meet Naven's eyes.

He didn't look at me, he just said to Jade Jinyuan: "Your university does not popularize basic laws and regulations? You can't drive without a driver's license, don't you know?"

"I know." He groaned: "Brother, I was wrong."

He is quite positive in admitting his mistakes. He who knows the current affairs is a good man, afraid of being beaten by Naven.

"You are not proficient in driving without a driver's license. You can drive by yourself, and you still dare to drive others."

I'm probably the other person in his mouth.

"What if there is a danger? How do you bear the consequences?" He scolded Jade Jinyuan. I thought he was scolding me after scolding him. After all, I am his sister-in-law who is older than him. I have the responsibility to supervise him.

But surprisingly, Naven did not scold me. After scolding Jade Jinyuan, he turned around and went out.

I don't think he will be so kind, maybe he is too lazy to scold me.

In fact, in my heart, I would rather he scold me than he would ignore it now.

Am I cheap? I asked myself.

Jade Jinyuan quietly tugged at the corner of my clothes: "Livia, my brother is out."

"Well," I am not interested.

“He didn’t scold you, it really surprised me.”

I still smirked with him.

“Don’t worry. I’m not an adult. You just sit in the co-pilot and don’t drive. My brother will not send us to jail.”

Now I am afraid that I will go to jail. I feel sad that Naven ignores it.

I don’t know why I feel sad, I found that I actually care about his attitude towards me.

After a while, Naven walked in again, raised Jade Jinyuan, and then did not look at me, with a faint voice: “Let’s go!”

What does it mean to go? Has he got it done?

Also, as long as it is not for murder and arson, there should be no things that Naven can’t handle.

So I followed them out of the traffic police brigade. It was already late at night outside, and Lina made one call after another. I was afraid she was worried, so I quickly picked up.

Just after the call, Lina’s voice rang in the microphone: “Livia, don’t move, wait for me at the door of the traffic police brigade, I will pick you up right away.”

I’m a bit blindfolded. How did Lina know that I was in the traffic police detachment? I didn’t tell her again.

She added over there: “Naven just called me and asked me to pick you up.”

It turned out to be like this. I looked up at him. Jade Jinyuan was standing in front of him with his head down, Naven was reprimanding him, and Jade Jinyuan was being taught.

However, Naven never looked back at me from beginning to end.

I feel that I have been completely given up by Naven.

It's not that he doesn't scold me, he simply doesn't bother to scold me.

Just over 10 minutes after Naven scolded Jade Jinyuan, Lina arrived.

Lina didn't drive today. The driver drove. As soon as she got out of the car, I smelled a strong smell of alcohol.

Of course, it was not Lina who went to drink on a whim. Seeing that she was wearing a fairly formal dress and a small brown suit, I knew that she must be going to socialize.

I am sad, Lina is so busy, Smith's condition is not particularly good, Smith's father had a serious response to treatment in the past two days, Smith's mother stayed with him in the hospital undressed.

And Wu Simei. That is, Dad Smith's ex-wife, the most untiring thing every day is to harass them in the hospital, they are too busy to take care of themselves, I also trouble Lina.

"Livia!" Lina ran towards me, touching my head and my feet: "Are you okay?"

"It's okay," I said quickly. "I'm fine."

"That's good." Lina took my hand: "Let's go home."

Lina's hands were warm and strong, and I seemed to have strength all at once.

I subconsciously turned my head to look at Naven. She and Jade Jinyuan had already walked to the parking lot.

Jade Jinyuan turned back and made a call gesture with me, and then compared a 12 with his finger.

I know he said that he was waiting for my call before 12 o'clock in the evening, about me going out to study with him.

"Don't look." Lina dragged my hand and stuffed me into her car and told the driver to drive.

As soon as the driver started the car, Naven's car passed in front of us.

Naven personally drove this evening, and I saw him sitting in the cab driving the car intently without squinting his eyes.

He didn't say a word to me from beginning to end. I thought he would at least scold me and say something that ridiculed me, but this time he didn't even say those words, even looking straight at me.

The wind outside today was very hot and humid. The air conditioner in the car was very cool. The air outlet under the seat kept blowing on my calf, and my calf was almost cramping.

I shrank into a ball, Lina immediately took off her coat and put it on my lap:
"Are you cold, Livia?"

I shook my head and looked at her. She was still wearing a long-sleeved shirt:
"It's over 30 degrees today, aren't you wearing this hot?"

“No way. Today is a very formal dinner meeting. The women are all wearing evening dresses. I can’t get used to that, so I have to wear a suit.”

She unbuttoned the dead button and let out a long sigh of relief: “I can breathe, I’m almost exhausted.

“Lina.” I looked at her sadly: “You are so busy that it will cause you trouble.”

“Bah,” she suddenly tweeted at me: “What are you talking about? Or it’s not human words. What do you mean to trouble me? You remember Livia, your business is my business, why is it troublesome? Don’t talk nonsense with me, you know?”

Chapter 305

I knew Lina would say that.

In this world, even if I lose everyone, I still have Joe.

I found a bottle of water in the car and gave her: “Your alcohol is so heavy, drink some water quickly.”

She took it and poured it down half a bottle, “It’s okay, I can’t drink this wine. But I can’t help but pretend that I can’t drink it. Livia...” Lina suddenly held my face and sighed: “My father always told me that shopping malls are battlefields. I always think he is alarmist. Now I know that every person I contact now, every word they say, every look in their eyes, is not necessarily passed to me. My ears and the thing in my eyes, I have to think carefully, carefully consider, and I can’t expose myself to the truth and look at anyone. In short, you must be a dummy, but you must fake I even believe in myself. I can drink, but I have to pretend that I can’t drink them. I obviously hate the Taiwanese businessman surnamed Jia. I can’t wait to blind him with a punch. I can’t be as headstrong as before, I can only Treat him equally hypocritically.”

“Joe, you are very good.”

“No, no, no.” Lina pulled down my hand: “I’m not telling you how hard I am, I just tell you that you have to treat this hypocritical world with a hypocritical face, and the true intentions are only for the right You are also a sincere person. Livia, do you know why the failure was so bad?”

I shook my head, and she held my hand tightly: “Oh, that’s because you have no reservations.”

Lina has really grown up, she rarely tells me such things.

In my consistent cognition of her, she is just as generous as her father Smith is often stomped by her and said: “When will you be able to grow up as a little bunny?”

Lina seems to have grown up in an instant. She has grown up not only to be alone in the Smith family, but also to face this unfriendly world alone.

“My little Shengsheng, you are so kind to the world.”

The car is very dark, I can only see her eyes are very bright.

“Then it’s not your fault.” She immediately said: “Not everyone has such a good heart. But you can rest assured that I will protect you. I will manage Joe’s well, and I will do my best to protect you. No matter what happens.”

“Lina.” I didn’t cry in the past few days, but at this moment, my tears were forced out by Lina’s words.

Without the lights in the car, I could only see Joey’s eyes, her eyes seemed to be composed of lakes that made me quiet in an instant.

Suddenly made my heart less panicked.

I want to cry, but I resist it.

Tears are out of control once they flow out.

Lina suddenly stretched out his hand to hug me and gently patted my back: “Cry, tearing is not a sign of a weak person. Don’t blame yourself, don’t feel sad, you are not wrong, you treat me sincerely. Everyone in this world. You are right, the world is wrong, and those who treat you that way are wrong.”

Only Lina will always affirm me and warm me constantly,

I held her tightly, tears wet her light green shirt.

“My poor Livia.” Lina repeated these words: “Don’t be afraid, it will be fine after a while. I will help you and help you regain the position of president.”

“Lina.” I couldn’t make it clear when I cried: “I am willing to give this position to Mira, and no one pushes me.”

“I know I know.” Lina nodded: “Even if you give it to her willingly, it is a sign of your helplessness. You think you can’t adapt, for fear of dragging Ron’s hind legs. Your starting point is Ron The poem is good, but you didn’t take yourself into consideration. It doesn’t matter, I will support your Livia. When Joe has survived this period, I will help you fight the world.

In fact, I really have no ambitions in this regard, but looking at the flame in Lina’s eyes, what can I say?

We went back to Lina’s house. Smith’s mother came back earlier tonight, and the whole living room was filled with the aroma of broth.

Mom Smith walked over to me. Before I said a word, she hugged me: “My Livia has worked hard.”

I didn’t do anything, what have I worked so hard for? Apart from giving up, I don’t know what I have tried.

Mother Smith’s hug made me ashamed. When she held my shoulders and looked into my eyes, I didn’t say a polite remark that made you bother.

Mom Smith patted me hard on the shoulder: “Look, Livia, this is life, not all flowers are blooming, but there are thorns. But it is interesting to cut off the thorns and smell the fragrance of flowers. Then you sit all day. In the garden, this life is also boring, isn’t it?”

Mom Smith is such a person who cuts off thorns all the time.

I admire her very much and admire her from the bottom of my heart.

“Well, let’s not talk.” Mom Smith squeezed my face: “Look, my face has become thinner these days. I can’t take care of you when I’m not at home all the time. Is the fourth aunt’s food cooked? good to eat?”

“No, no,” I shook my hand hurriedly: “Aunt Si’s food is delicious.”

“I’m still young, so I can’t eat fat.” Mom Smith smiled.

In fact, Smith’s mother has not been particularly smooth in the past few years. While running the Smith family with Smith’s father, she also has to deal with Wu Simei. She has had a harder life than any woman.

But I never seem to have seen that kind of suffering in her face.

Ma Smith’s strength makes me awe, so what reason do I have to cry again?

I wiped away my tears, and Smith's mother asked us to have soup.

Today, the stew is oxtail soup. The meat of oxtail is relatively smooth and tender, and it tastes very refreshing.

I couldn't hold it anymore, but after some tossing at night, my stomach was empty again.

Lina was originally a big appetite, but today's appetite is not so good. He can't drink after only half a bowl.

I asked my fourth aunt to cook some hangover soup for Lina. I know that although she drinks well, drinking will hurt her body.

Although Mom Smith was very tired, she still sat down to drink with us.

She talked about Wu Simei's finding of faults today: "She took the tablet and asked him which cemetery he likes in front of Dad Smith. Seeing the face of their husband and wife, she will pay to help Dad Smith pick the best one. Ok."

Wu Simei has always been so excessive, I'm really afraid that Lina will jump out.

But Lina was very calm, and slowly sipped the sober soup that her fourth aunt gave her.

I was a little worried and asked, "How about Dad Joe, right?"

Mom Smith smiled very happily: "Daddy Smith knows Wu Simei better than we do, why would he care about her? The best way to make Wu Simei explode in place is to ignore her every action or word."

Chapter 306

Mom Smith is so free and easy, and I feel relieved to see that he will not worry about Wu Simi's harassment at all.

Now that Wu Simei is mentioned, I think of Smith Jianqi.

I asked Lina: "Didn't it say that Smith Jianqi would go to the Smith family, did he go?"

"He's here." Lina said: "I came last week and Wu Simei came with him. Wu Simei said at the general meeting that my dad would give 50% of the shares to Smith Jianqi."

"What did Smith Jianqi say?"

"He said that my dad hasn't passed away, and now is not the time to divide the family property."

"Then what position does he do now?"

"A director of the sales department."

"That's not an administrative management post!" I was a little surprised, I thought he should be at least a group general manager or a higher-level position.

"It just so happened that our sales director was suspended due to some financial problems and was short of people. Then Smith Jianqi volunteered. He does a lot of business in chain restaurants abroad, and he has many high-quality customers on hand. If he proposes this kind of proposal, I will also. There is no reason to object."

"Then Wu Simi is not angry."

“Yeah, I’m so angry, but from this point of view, it is too early to say that Smith Jianqi is an undesirable person. He is a shrewd businessman. Who knows what medicine he sells in the gourd.”

“The heart of harm is not allowed, and the heart of defense is necessary.” Mom Smith finished her last sip of the soup in her closing statement: “Jian Qi, this kid has not played cards logically since he was a child, and we haven’t seen him for so many years. Understand him. But Lina, he is your own brother anyway, and you should save three points for doing things, and five points for your own brother, you know?”

Lina nodded: “I know, even if he doesn’t treat me as a sister, I will treat him as an older brother.”

Mom Smith went upstairs to rest after drinking the soup. I also asked Lina to take a shower and go to bed early.

Jade Jinyuan’s WeChat keeps sending one by one, just like the reminder, he keeps asking me: “Have you thought about it? Have you thought about it? I’m leaving the day after tomorrow. I have to book a flight ticket.”

At first I was hesitating, and when I knew he was not yet 18 years old, I was a little bit more murmured.

“I’m messing around with a young kid like you.”

How does Naven think of me when I run away with him?

I thought I kidnapped an underage boy.

Seeing that I kept looking at the phone, Lina glanced at the phone in my hand.

“What does Jade Jinyuan mean when he says he wants to book a ticket? Where is he going? Or where are you going?”

Now that Lina asked, I want to discuss it with her, but I think she should scold me.

I said that Jade Jinyuan asked me to go out for dinner today, and later mentioned that he was going to study abroad with him. He was returning to Rovandel for medical treatment. Now that he is cured, he wants to go back and continue studying and let me go with him.

“Read what?”

“He said that their school has an art department, I can try to apply for the exam. Even if I fail to pass the exam, I can pay for it.

“It doesn’t matter as long as you have money to travel all over the world.” Lina looked into my eyes: “I have thought about letting you go out and relax. Anyway, there is nothing particularly important about the Ron family for you to deal with. Mira has put you on a free job again. You can go out and change your mood. And I plan to work hard wholeheartedly for a while. It is also a good choice for you to go out and relax.”

I was surprised that Lina said that. I thought she would scold me, and call Jade Jinyuan to scold me by the way, saying that he abducted me.

“Are you agreeing? Originally, my father had a house in country Y. I still wanted to let you relax. But I was afraid that no one would accompany you and you would be lonely. In fact, it’s okay if you go out to study, look at you. According to your own wishes, don’t you always want to cultivate art? If you want to go, go.”

“But with Jade Jinyuan...”

“It doesn’t matter who you are with, what matters is what you want to do.”

Do I want to do it? The problem is that I don’t know if I am or not.

I looked at Lina blankly, and she pressed my shoulder forcefully: “Livia, as long as you understand one thing, you go out and adjust: Then try to adjust yourself to the best state, instead of avoiding it. Then you go out and I support you 100%. When you adjust, you will come back and face all this bravely.”

What Lina said I suddenly understood. I was always afraid that she would say that I was a tortoise, but she never said it from beginning to end.

Lina’s phone rang, and she looked down.

I said, “Is it a company business?”

She nodded: “I used to think there are no real workaholics in the world, but it turns out that there are indeed. The Smith’s executives have worked so hard that they have to talk about things in the middle of the night.”

“Then you go quickly.”

Lina answered the phone and said to the person on the phone: “You will call you later.”

Then he turned his head and looked at me: “Livia, do it when you think about it. I will always be your strong backing. I will explore the road first, and then we will fight the world together. Go or not, you consider yourself, I will call first.”

Lina went out and I sat in front of the dressing table. Look at my face in the mirror.

Cora always scolded me for a bitter melon look since I was a child. I touch my face, and sometimes I feel bitter even when I smile.

I have to think about everything for so long, so entangled, this time, I think very quickly.

I made a choice between the electric light and flint, and I plan to go with Jade Jinyuan.

Whether he is under 18 or a minor, it has nothing to do with me and him going to school abroad.

And I am to adjust, not to escape.

I was very excited when I figured this out, and then Jade Jinyuan called.

“Livia, have you considered it?”

“Will you go back tonight?” I said.

“Fortunately, it’s okay. Didn’t my brother train me in front of you at the beginning? After that, he didn’t say a word, and then he let me go back to the room.”

“He has already scolded all the scolding in front of me.” I smiled bitterly:
“That’s good.”

“Have you considered it?”

I said: “I’m thinking about it. I plan to go out to study with you.”

“Really?” Jade Jinyuan jumped up over the phone.

“You have a lower voice, don’t be prejudiced by your brother.”

“Why can’t you hear it to him?”

“I’m still his wife now, have you forgotten?” This recognition made me a little frustrated.

Chapter 307

I feel that when a person is entangled in a matter, after she decides, no matter how difficult and dangerous the matter is, how many problems will be solved in the future, it does not seem to be an issue anymore.

I handed over the ticket to Jade Jinyuan to book. Now I only have one full day to pack my luggage and go to the Ron family to explain it. In fact, one day is enough.

Another thing is to tell Naven, will he agree?

What is the reason for his disagreement? I can't think of it, but what if he agrees? Would I feel a bit disappointed because he didn't stop me at all?

I don't know, my heart is like a pot of boiled red bean porridge.

The next day I went to Mira to say hello. Now that Mira is the president, I naturally went to her, and I went to her office.

Ruan Ling was busy in front of the computer. She told me that Mira was going to a partner company and she would not be able to return until 10:00.

But after I came back, there was a small meeting. She checked the schedule for me and said that Mira only had time for 10 minutes before the lunch meeting at noon.

I didn't expect Mira to get started so quickly, and she was really busy compared to me. It seems that the president is not a free job, just someone who does it.

I think Ruan Ling is dealing with this kind of thing now. There are several secretaries of the president. The least promising and most trivial is the schedule secretary. Every day all the schedule notices of the president are processed. There is no technical content, but it is very trivial. The busiest.

Now there is a chain of contempt in all walks of life. Even in the secretary industry, each secretary is responsible for different things, which will affect her salary and so on.

“Why are you the schedule secretary?”

Ruan Ling smiled indifferently: “Mira is now the president, and of course she brought her current secretary. Then I will naturally become the secretary of the schedule, but it doesn’t matter,” she immediately said, “Don’t have a psychological burden. It was not because of my personal reasons that I opposed your handing over the position at the beginning. Since the salary does not drop anyway, I will be more comfortable with this kind of thing, right?”

“Ruan Ling,” I was a little embarrassed: “I was too impulsive at the time. I didn’t care too much about these.”

She made tea for me and handed it to my hand: “It’s okay, it’s really okay.”

Ruan Ling is very busy, and I can’t always chat with her to interrupt her work.

I went back to the office. The things from Livia and Mira have been removed. The things I moved in last time have not been put in the cardboard box. I don’t want to take them out now. Anyway, I have been away for a long time. Office here, save the dust and make it difficult to clean up.

I sat blankly in the chair, my eyes naturally falling on the opposite white wall.

There is a picture hanging on the wall. It is the back of Naven and Mira on the beach when he went to Sun Island last time. It was almost used by the company’s advertising department as a promotional photo.

Regardless of whether they were seen from the back or from the front, they belonged to the party where the gods and relatives were right.

In terms of ability and courage, Ron and poems are far more suitable than me.

I just watched it for a long time, until Ruan Ling called me inside and told me that Mira was back, and if I had anything to do, I went to her as soon as possible, because he seemed to have another schedule to hurry.

I panicked and got up and ran out of the office. I met her at the door of Mira's office, and she was about to go out.

The secretary behind her helped her carry her bulging briefcase. She was still in a white fit commuter suit, with luxurious and low-key rhinestone eardrop earrings on her ears. She was very aura.

"Livia, I heard you are looking for me." She raised her wrist and looked at her watch, and said to her secretary, "Call me in 10 minutes."

Then she waved to me: "Let's go to the office and talk."

I walked over to her, just standing at the door: "No need to sit, I know you are in a hurry, I have a little thing to tell you."

"What's the matter? Sit down and drink a glass of water!"

"No, I drank it in the office just now." I said, "I have a merciless request."

"You said." Mira was very gentle.

"I want to ask, how long are the cases you have on hand?"

Mira had the final say: "About a year or so."

“Then I want to study abroad.”

Mira raised his eyebrows: “Why did you suddenly have this idea? Did they say something in the company?”

“No, no, no.” I shook my hand hurriedly: “I’m not that fragile yet, I mean I have nothing to do during this period of time. I can just go out and do something I want to do. It will take about a year. , And then you can take over.”

Mira pondered for a while, lowered his head and pursed his lips, thought about it seriously, and raised his head to look at me: “If you really figured out that going out to study is not for other reasons, then I totally agree. Within a year, you will not lose a point in Ron’s salary and dividends, and I will let the finances hit your account.”

“This is not important, I have money.”

“I know, one yard goes to one yard, but did you tell Naven?”

“not yet.”

“I think you are now a husband and wife, no matter what you have, you should discuss it with him!”

She was talking about her secretary coming and knocking on the door:
“President, 10 minutes are here.”

Mira looked at me sorry: “I’m sorry, Livia, I have to go out for a meeting.”

“It doesn’t matter, you go.” Mira nodded to me in a hurry, and squeezed my hand: “You think it over and discuss it with Naven, you go and do it.”

I stood at the door of Mira's office and watched her hurriedly walk away in high heels.

When I was the president, I had never been so busy.

I was still looking at Mira's back in a daze, Ruan Ling came over and said to me: "President Ron, you are going out to study."

I nodded: "I want to go out for a while."

"But if you don't stay in the Ron family for a long time, you won't be able to grasp the dynamics of the Ron family even more. It will be even more difficult for you to get started after you come back."

"I have nothing to do now anyway."

"Does Lina know?"

I nodded: "I told her and she agreed."

Ruan Ling looked at me for a moment: "Well, since Lina agreed, then I have no right to object. If you want to go out and relax, it's okay, but I suggest you don't go for that long. Report to you."

"Don't, you are not my secretary anymore. It would not be great if Mira knew about it."

"I'm just reporting to you about the company, and I am not revealing the company manager to outsiders. It doesn't matter."

I looked at Ruan Ling, she was a good secretary, but I was not a good boss.

Chapter 308

When I came out of the Ron clan, I had a kind of lofty ambition that the strong men were gone and never returned.

It started raining like this, I didn't take an umbrella and hurriedly covered it with my hands. The big raindrops dripped through the gap between my fingers and dripped on my face, giving me a desolate feeling.

Jade Jinyuan called me and told me that my plane ticket had been bought for me.

By the calculation, I only have a few hours to leave Rovandel.

I don't know how long I will go, but as to whether or not to talk to Naven, I haven't decided yet.

Lina said that I just need to make a confident call to him and tell him that I am going out to study.

But I was very frustrated. After thinking about it for a long time, I still didn't have the courage, so I procrastinated and didn't fight.

In the evening, Jade Jinyuan called me to confirm the passport and visa, and I asked him: "Does Naven know about you going back to study abroad?"

"My brother has been very busy these past few days. I was already asleep when I came back, so I didn't tell him, Livia, don't you tell my third brother yet?"

I was downcast: "Yeah, I haven't said yet."

"Or else, we will leave tomorrow anyway. How about calling him to report our safety when we get there?"

It is a good way to cut first and play later. At least I don't have to tell Naven a lot of things that I want to go out to study.

Lina finished socializing very late, and when she came back, she had to help me pack up. I told her to stay still. The more she cleaned up, the more messy I got.

She took a lot of messy things and stuffed it into my suitcase, saying that Smith's mother asked me to take it.

They are all medicines, plasters, and some snacks that I like to eat that I can't buy abroad. .

"Enough is enough, my box is going to be jammed."

"Then bring another box over. You have to take the year last year. The mountains and rivers must be a little more insured."

"Lina." I touched her face: "You only become an old mother in front of me."

"My poor Livia, you need to be taken care of by others." Lina looked at me sadly: "I have called to warn Jade Jinyuan today. If he dares to bully you or doesn't listen to you, tell me Me, I flew over to bash him fiercely."

Lina can definitely do this.

"You always scare him, Jade Jinyuan is good."

"The stinky little kid, who is not an adult, every time he sees me, he shouts Joey Joey, he has to ask my aunt if he knows!"

Obviously it was a very sad parting atmosphere. I was fooled by Lina. I couldn't help but laugh out loudly: "How can someone call your aunt when you are five or six years old."

"Anyway." Lina supported my shoulders: "We have been together since we were young. We have always been together, no matter in middle school, high school or university. With me by my side to protect you, now I can't fly over to study with you, Livia You must remember to protect yourself."

My nose is sour, but I have warned myself that I must never cry.

I sucked my nose, sucking all the sour feeling back into my stomach: "I know, it's like I'm going to some Longtan Tiger Den soon."

"When you are alone, you must be fierce and strong, and weak can be used as your packaging, but you must be hard inside to protect yourself, don't you understand?"

I understand, but I don't know if I can do it.

Mother Smith left early the next morning without saying goodbye to me.

I know she is afraid of me crying, and she is also afraid of crying herself.

The fourth aunt made a delicious and rich breakfast. She also made a lot of small snacks, which I took on the plane to eat. She also specially prepared a blanket for me, saying that the air-conditioning on the plane was well on. Don't let yourself freeze for hours of flying.

Lina said that there are blankets on the plane, and the fourth aunt quickly said: "The blankets on the plane, it's not hygienic for you to cover me."

I thanked my fourth aunt, and I took all her kindness.

Lina originally said that she wanted to send me off, but the company called and asked her to go there in a hurry. She yelled on the phone, saying that they were all stupid and she had to run everything in person.

I told Lina that I could go to the airport by myself, and I had already arranged an appointment with Jade Jinyuan to meet at the airport gate.

Lina couldn't help but call one after another. She had to gritted her teeth and threw away the phone and hugged me at the gate of her house: "I didn't like the atmosphere of going to the airport and saying goodbye. I'm back, and I can fly over to see you anytime and anywhere. I seem to be going to your meeting next month. I will stay a few more days."

I touched Lina's hard stubble: "Don't cut your hair anymore, it will be no different from a boy if it is shorter."

"No matter how long my hair grows, I am not a little princess. You have been our little princess since childhood."

I smiled, yes, they have always regarded me as a little princess. Although they did not develop me into a princess disease, they thought of me everywhere and paved all the roads for me. So now, just a little I couldn't stand the small setbacks, and followed Jade Jinyuan to escape.

Lina helped me put all my luggage in the car, and Smith's driver took me to the airport.

Then she was about to leave. I watched her get in the car. She almost leaned out of the car window and shook her hand to me: "When you get to the place, call me. If Jade Jinyuan brags, the environment where he lives is not so OK, I will find you another place to live."

"No." I waved to him: "You go quickly, your phone rang again."

“Those guys waste their rice buckets,” Lina was swearing again: “I have to report anything big.”

“It’s not because you can do it.” I rubbed her hair: “You behave, just call me if you have anything to do. If Dad Smith is too busy, I will come back anytime you call.”

“There are several nurses on duty 24 hours a day. What can’t be too busy? You just need to adjust yourself. After I come back, I want to see a refreshed Livia, OK?”

I gave Lina a smile and waved her to go.

I watched Lina’s car drove forward slowly, and then turned around.

Before I walked a few steps, I heard Lina shouting to me from behind: “Livia!”

I turned around, Lina had gotten out of the car, ran towards me with both hands open and hugged me hard.

She was like a cannonball, almost stunned me.

Chapter 309

Lina’s way of saying goodbye was too roundabout. I didn’t expect that she would get out of the car. Originally, I couldn’t help crying, but her tears were forced out.

I held Lina and cried for more than 10 minutes, until my fourth aunt came over and urged: “Just now Madam called and said that you know you will be like this, and Livia will be late soon. Go to the airport!”

Ma Smith really knows us best. Lina cried all her makeup. She is an iron lady who doesn't shed tears easily.

I wiped her face clean with a wet tissue, and didn't even dare to say goodbye to her, so I hurried into the car.

The driver immediately started the car and drove outside of Smith's house. I was sitting in the car and dared not look back, because I knew Smith's was still standing outside the car and looking at me.

I don't know how long it took. I saw that the car was on the flyover. The driver suddenly handed me a tissue: "Don't cry, Miss Livia."

I thanked the driver for borrowing paper towels. While wiping his nose, Jade Jinyuan called in: "Livia, where have you been?"

I looked at the sign and told him the location. He was very excited at the other end: "That's half an hour away. I'm going to the airport soon. I'll be waiting for you in the lobby at the entrance!"

"Good." I said.

Just when Jade Jinyuan was about to hang up, I asked him, "Are you alone in the airport?"

"Yeah, is there anyone else to go with us?" He seemed more confused than me.

"I mean no one will send you off?"

"I've been studying abroad since I was a child, flying around, and they came to see me off the first time I went out, and now no one cares about me, OK."

I don't know if I was relieved, I hung up Jade Jinyuan's phone and closed my eyes on the seat.

I didn't sleep well last night, Lina took me and kept mumbling, talking about many things from my childhood.

Of course I can't sleep. I'm a person traveling, whether in a car or an airplane, unless I haven't slept for a few days or nights, otherwise I will never fall asleep.

I heard the driver whispering in a low voice: "What's the matter? Usually this road is never jammed."

I opened my eyes and looked ahead. There were a lot of cars on the road, and the speed was slowing down, and it was about to be jammed ahead.

I looked at the back and asked the driver: "Or take advantage of it. It's not too busy at the moment. Let's take another route?"

"Okay." The driver nodded, "I know there is a road, it's not easy to walk, but it's better than it is difficult to walk an inch."

The driver reversed and then turned his head and drove in the opposite direction.

He was walking on a newly developed road. The driver was very talkative and interesting. He told me: "Everyone in Rovandel knows everything, and I am a road tyrant."

This road has not been repaired yet, but there are no people now. I see if the time is enough or not.

The driver patted his chest: “Don’t worry, there is absolutely enough time. I’ll drive faster, just go around a little bit further than there. It will definitely be in time.”

The driver drove the car so fast, the wheels were like hot wheels, rubbing the ground covered with gravel, and I felt that the wheels were about to catch fire.

I told the driver: “In fact, you don’t have to be in such a hurry. There is still a lot of time now, so you should not be late.”

Before I finished speaking, the car seemed to have crushed something, rotten wood or something. I didn’t even realize what was going on. The car bumped violently, then it lost control and the whole car rolled over.

I don’t remember if I screamed, and then I turned over in the car, and the car fell heavily to the ground. I felt that something was knocking hard on my back, and it hurt my breath.

I wanted to take a look at the driver to see if he was injured or anything, but my eyes turned black and fainted.

In my memory, the number of passing out is not too many.

The most memorable one was about the time I fell asleep in the bathtub of Jade’s house and then fainted from choking.

When people fainted. It feels different from falling asleep. I don’t know everything about it. The brain waves are still moving. I can vaguely hear the noise outside, but I just can’t wake up.

I don’t know if it was the police who arrived or someone else, shouting around me.

There was a sound, which was very clear, calling my name almost sadly:
“Livia...Livia...Livia...”

I opened my eyes vigorously and found that I was still lying upside down in the car, the car was still the other way around, so that from my perspective, the people standing outside the car and watching me seemed to stand upside down.

I first saw a pair of long legs, then I looked down the long legs and saw a face that looked particularly white in the sun.

That face is a bit familiar, but my head is so dizzy, for a while, I can't tell who that face belongs to.

It's just that I'm standing upside down to see that face is a little distorted, and from the mouth on that face, I've been calling my name.

A policeman stopped him from letting him approach, and the police were yelling to him: “An iron plate pressed her leg. Now the firefighters are trying to cut off the iron plate.”

“Don't use welding, it will burn her leg.” The mouth shouted again.

“Don't worry, we will use the best method, please stay away.”

That person is a little excited, who is he? Why are you so excited.

Is my leg pressed by the iron plate? My legs are numb and I don't feel any pain at all.

It's just that my eyes were too wide open, and I felt a little dizzy. Maybe the blood supply to my brain was insufficient. I couldn't even breathe, and then I closed my eyes.

I just woke up so dizzy and drowsy. I don't know how long it took. I should have been rescued from the car by firemen, and got into the ambulance to the hospital.

At this time, I felt the pain in my leg became more and more obvious, even tingling.

As if someone was digging my flesh with a knife, I woke up in pain.

I opened my eyes hard but didn't open them, but felt something warm dripping on my face drop by drop.

Is it raining? I should be in the car now. The ambulance is not a convertible. How could rain drip onto my face through the roof?

My head is dizzy, my wound hurts, no matter what.

When I woke up completely, it was in the hospital ward, because I smelled the smell of disinfectant, and I heard the doctor talking: "Her leg was hurt by the iron piece falling from the car roof. , I cut a large piece, injured the tendon, and had a slight bone fracture. This is not very serious. I am worried that the injury of the tendon will affect her leg motor nerves. There may be 1 to 2 operations in the later period. To see if we can regain athletic ability."

I was injured and my brain became relatively slow. The doctor's words made me unable to tell whether I was serious or not.

I heard the cry of grandma and the sound of a crutches knocking on someone: "You bastard, are you trying to kill your wife? How often did Livia get married to you? How often did you go to the hospital? "

Chapter 310

Grandma is beating again, and the person I think was beaten is probably Naven.

I panted and made a strong voice: "Grandma, stop beating."

I opened my eyes, and there were a lot of people standing in the ward, including doctors, grandma, father and mother Jade, as well as Naven and Lina.

I saw Naven standing straight, like a telegraph pole. Grandma's walking stick hit him like that, and he didn't move or hide.

I spoke, and everyone rushed towards me.

Grandma ran the slowest on tiptoe, ran all the way with a walking stick to hit people who ran faster than her: "Let all let, let all let."

Grandma squeezed to my bed, her wrinkled, chubby face almost hit my nose.

"Livia, my poor Livia." As soon as your grandma got close to my eyes, her eyes were red, and tears flowed from her eyes with deep wrinkles at the corners of her eyes: "You haven't been married to our house. Going to the hospital in two days or two, you told me how to face your father when I die? How should I explain to Ron Yuan that a healthy and healthy person will have no arms and legs in our Jade family."

Grandma couldn't stop crying. Mother Jade came over to help her: "Mom, the doctor said just now that Livia is not that serious. His bones are not broken and will not affect walking."

"If you don't teach your children, a loving mother is too bad. He makes his wife so angry. You still favor him so much and protect him like this."

What Jade's mother just said was very pertinent, and she really didn't favor Naven.

The anaesthetic strength has passed, and my calf hurts. I really don't have the strength to persuade me. I lick my lips and feel very weak: "Don't be angry, grandma, I'm fine."

"How can you girl make me feel bad?" Grandma sighed, I think her bitter and salty tears have flowed into my heart.

I lifted my eyelids and looked towards the center of the ward weakly.

Naven stood there facing me sideways, standing straight like a wooden stake.

Heh, he is still so arrogant, he refuses to face me with a straight face.

He might think that I was very troublesome, but when he was about to leave, there was a car accident and he was scolded by his grandmother and mother Jade here.

Dad Jade also came over. He is usually very busy, so it's not an exaggeration to describe him with all kinds of things.

He stood by my bed and stared at me for a long time: "Livia, you are raising well in the hospital. If you feel uncomfortable, tell the doctor, don't worry, no matter what the price, I will let you Walk like a normal person."

"The doctor said just now that he just had a tendon injury. As long as he does rehabilitation training, it won't be a serious problem and won't affect his walking." Mother Jade said.

"If Livia is inconvenient to walk in the future, I will break your leg." Grandma said as she spoke and became angry again: "What are you doing standing so far away? Why don't you roll over and take a look?"

“Grandma doesn’t really matter to Naven.” Did I really help him speak: “It’s all accidents.”

“Mom, so many of us gathered in front of Livia’s bed, and she couldn’t breathe. The doctor said she had to take a good rest. We will send you back first.”

Mother Jade and Dad Jade finally persuaded grandma to leave, they let me rest, only Lina was left in the room, and Naven also sent them off.

Lina hadn’t spoken a while ago, sitting next to me and gently massaging my arm, but my arm didn’t hurt.

“Lina.” I looked at the wall clock on the wall. It was 3 o’clock in the afternoon and it was time for work: “You can go to Joe’s, I’m fine now, so you don’t need to keep me here.”

“It’s okay, Joe is not a locomotive, and I am not a driver. I will drive out of the track without turning the steering wheel for a minute.” Lina’s eyes were red and dark circles were thick.

“I’m really fine, Joey, it’s all an accident.”

“Fart accident!” Lina suddenly gritted his teeth: “The driver’s brain is broken, and he doesn’t take the road. He has to walk on the new development road where ghosts don’t lay eggs?”

“Don’t scold him, you won’t scold him, how is the driver?” The driver who drove with me that day was Smith’s family. I was afraid that Lina would trouble him. I guess he was also injured.

“He’s okay, but he broke his head. Now the bag is like a pineapple.” Lina rubbed his nose: “Don’t worry, I won’t do anything to him, and I wrapped him in a big red envelope to count his work injury. There are also missed work expenses, and a lot of salary is paid to him. You can rest assured now?”

“It’s really nothing to do with others. It was because of the traffic jam that day. He was afraid that I could not catch the plane so he found a shortcut. As for the accident, it was purely coincidental.”

“I don’t see it as a coincidence.” Lina sat on the edge of my bed and cut the cantaloupe, with a knife in his hand, and a melon was cut in half: “If it was a coincidence, would grandma be so angry to beat Naven?”

I feel a little confused. I just woke up and my legs hurt. I really can’t think of my car accident. I have a relationship with Naven for half a dime?

“Our driver is very familiar with every road in Rovandel. The traffic in Rovandel is very famous throughout the country. Although there are many cars and many people in the city, when has it been blocked?” Lina cut the cantaloupe into small pieces. Block, poked it with a toothpick and handed it to my mouth.

Cantaloupe is full of moisture and has a sweet taste.

“I asked someone to check. The extra cars that came out on the road that day belonged to Jade’s, and some of them had more or less contact with Naven. They were either cars driven by Jade’s employees or Jade’s. High-level executives. Don’t you think this is too weird? It doesn’t make sense. People in the whole West Market don’t work, and they all drove their cars to that road.

“Then how did you find these?”

“Which section of the road is not under surveillance now. Why can’t I find out when I call out the surveillance to check the license plate? I always feel that the accident was a bit tricky.” Lina licked a large piece of cantaloupe in his mouth: “So you got this accident. Naven couldn’t take it off even if he wanted to. He did it.”

Lina was confused by what I said. According to him, he has already found out that way, so he should have found it right, but why did Naven do that?

He created road congestion in order to force me to take that not easy shortcut and cause me to have a car accident?

Or simply want to keep me from catching the plane and leave me behind in a relatively complicated and roundabout way?

Lina raised his fork hand and stroked in front of me several times: "I know what you are thinking, Livia, you are nothing more than thinking about those romantic things again, thinking that Naven did this to keep you behind, yes Isn't it?"
