

Chapter 761 – 770 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 761

“The third family?” “Just them?” “Which family is in vain?” Old man Qiu trembled, his eyes widened at that time and he couldn’t believe it.

“Fake it!” “It must be an actor~” Silviana Wang and the others were still swearing hard, with expressions on their faces pale.

Boom~ At this time, a few luxury cars passed by outside the hotel.

A low humming sound came slowly.

Everyone followed the prestige and saw that there were countless figures outside the hotel, and they gathered together and came directly.

Immediately afterwards, the loud voice of the Singer Boy resounded through the sky.

“Chairman of Wrilfill Dongshan Industrial, National Day is here!” “Executive President of Wrilfill Xihai Industry, Vietnamese people are here!” ... “Chairman of Wrilfill NanDollar Group, Dong Guo!” what?

Vietnamese National Day?

Vietnam National Day, which ranks third on the Wrilfill Rich List?

.... Xihai Industry?

The number one state-owned manufacturing enterprise in Wrilfill?

..... This...this.. This is all here to congratulate the Qiu family?

“I rely on~” “What’s wrong with the Qiu family? Is it possible that the family is out of business?” “So many rich and powerful people come to congratulate you?” Outside the hotel, the onlookers listened to that one after another. A voice sounded, watching the big bosses lead the wife down, and hearing the name louder than the other, the passers-by onlookers were almost crazy.

Eyes filled with shock and fright, a pair of eyeballs almost jumped out.

They even feel that this is half of Wrilfill’s rich and powerful, right?

“This Qiu family is amazing~” “It’s amazing~” “After today, I am afraid that it will be completely ranked among the top forces in Wrilfill~” Outside, there was endless feeling and envy of 4a55f3aa.

They never imagined that a little-known little Qiu’s family would be holding a ribbon-cutting ceremony today, which would attract the rich and powerful in Wrilfill.

I’m afraid this is the business of Wrilfill Ericson Li’s business, but that’s all right?

When all the passers-by outside were trembling, inside the hotel, Simon Qiu, Mr. Qiu, and others were already dumbfounded.

“This...

These are all to congratulate them?

“Simon Qiu’s old face is dull, I don’t know why, after the two things just now, Simon Qiu always has a bad premonition in his heart. But the old man Qiu didn’t think so much. After the tremor, he became crazy afterwards. “Haha~ “Unexpectedly, one day, Simpson Qiu, my Simpson Qiu, would also be able to gather the rich and powerful in Wrilfill to congratulate him.”

“Hahaha~” “Okay, okay~” “Simon Qiu, Leonard, come on, whether Mr. Hua and they flew at you or rushed in, you, welcome them in right away.”

“Bring them here, I will personally accompany President Hua and them to drink!”

Old man Qiu smiled proudly, and he was so energetic when he said this. It was really like the supreme emperor sitting firmly in the middle of the hall, watching Wanbang come to congratulate. “Haha~” “Old man Qiu, don’t have to go out to meet him.

“I came in by myself for Vietnam National Day.”

“Congratulations, you are old, your old man has worked hard for the rest of his life, and he failed to make the Qiu family one of the first-class families in Wrilfill.”

“But now, you have a good granddaughter, and you have a good grandson-in-law.”

“In the future, your Qiu family will take the light of your granddaughter and son-in-law to rise soaring and become the number one family in Wrilfill!

“When Mr. Qiu was excited, the head of Dongshan Industry, the third in the Wrilfill rich list, the National Day of Vietnam, has already arrived. With his beautiful and flowery wife, he takes great strides with respect and respect. He walked directly into the Yulong Hotel and walked into the hall. But when he heard the words of Hua National Day, the guests in the room were slightly taken aback. Especially Simon Qiu and the others in the Qiu family also trembled in their hearts. Good granddaughter? Good grandson-in-law?

Old man Qiu smiled proudly, how energetic when he said this.

Really like the Supreme Emperor sitting firmly in the middle hall, watching Wanbang come to congratulate.

“Haha~” “Old man Qiu, don’t have to go out to greet him.”

“I’m Vietnamese National Day, and I came in by myself.”

“Congratulations, your old man, you have worked hard for the rest of your life, and you haven’t made the Qiu family one of the first-class families in Wrilfill.

“But now, you have a good granddaughter, and you have a good grandson-in-law.”

“In the future, you are afraid that you will borrow your granddaughter and son-in-law’s light to rise soaring and become the number one family in Wrilfill!” When Mr. Qiu was excited, the head of Dongshan Industry and the third-ever National Day of the Wrilfill Rich List had already arrived.

Taking his beautiful and flowery wife, he strode directly into the Yulong Hotel and into the hall with full of respect and respect.

But when he heard the words of Hua National Day, the guests in the room were slightly taken aback.

Especially Simon Qiu and other members of the Qiu Family, their hearts trembled.

Good granddaughter?

Chapter 762

Could it be that Chong Leonard and Terrisa came again?

But, Leonard Chu and Terrisa Qiu really have such a big face?

Not only Simon Qiu and others, but even Leonard Chu and Terrisa Qiu's wife themselves were also stunned.

After the previous events, the couple are now more cautious, just watching the situation quietly.

But the old man Qiu didn't care about this. Whether he came to him, he came to congratulate them in the Qiu family and just drink.

So, facing the words of the National Day of Vietnam, Mr. Qiu just laughed and said: "Chenghua has a good word."

"Haha~" "Come on, Mr. Hua, please take a seat and have a drink."

The laughter of Mr. Qiu During the National Day of Vietnam, he also stepped forward, picked up the dirty wine in front of him, raised his glass to the old man and said respectfully: "Thank you, old man, for serving the wine."

Please forgive me for coming."

"Now at the occasion of your company's opening ceremony, I have a thousand words in my heart for Vietnam National Day, but they are all in this glass of dirty wine."

"Today, I will use this wine to bless Mu The opening of the real estate is a blessing!" Hua National Day's respectful congratulations sounded quietly.

Ok?

But when he heard this, Old Man Qiu waited for the Qiu family, but his old face was twitched and he was taken aback again.

In the entire Yulong Hotel, everyone was stagnant.

also...

Again, Mu Fan Real Estate?

Just between everyone's astonishment and surprise, outside the hotel, Hua Guomin, the executive president of Wrilfill Xihai Industry, and the chairman of Wrilfill NanDollar Group, have also arrived.

After stepping into the main hall, the Vietnamese nationals and others, with a smile, strode forward to Father Qiu.

Apart from anything else, he also joined Hua Guoqing and congratulated the old man Qiu who was sitting high above him.

"On behalf of the Wrilfill Xihai Industrial Group, our Vietnamese nationals came to congratulate Mr. Qiu!" "Congratulations, Mr. Father, for raising a good granddaughter, and finding a good grandson-in-law."

"This coincides with the opening ceremony of your company. Citizens and Madam, I would like to congratulate you!" "I wish Mufan Real Estate a good business and financial resources!" "I wish Mr. Chu and Qiu's business will flourish and flourish!" The words of the Vietnamese nationals are just like a huge boulder like a sea, raising a thousand floors. Waves.

After he congratulated him, the rest of the wealthy bosses, all of whom were thousands, worshipped.

"I am Guo Lin, on behalf of NanDollar Group~" "I am Wang Haisheng, on behalf of Beibing Heavy Industries~" "I am Du Mingli, on behalf of~" ... "I wish Mufan Real Estate a good business and financial resources!" "Mr. Zhu Chu and The cause of the Qiu family is flourishing and flourishing!” ... “I wish Mufan Real Estate a prosperous business and financial resources!” “Mr. Chu and Qiu’s career, flourishing and flourishing!” Countless rich people Big brother, congratulate and worship together.

The voices one after another converged into a stream.

The voice of respect and the words of respect are just like waves, sweeping the whole world.

Suddenly, the whole house is dead!

The entire hall of Yulong Hotel was silent, and only the congratulatory words of the Vietnamese people and others remained, which echoed for a long time, shaking the world.

Almost instantly, Simon Qiu was stunned, Silviana Wang was stunned, Terrisa Qiu was stunned, and Mr. Qiu was also stunned.

The entire Qiu family was stunned.

Stupefied, all smiles are stagnant!

Those congratulations, like slaps one by one, hit the faces of the entire Qiu family one after another.

Chapter 763

Yulong Hotel.

In the hall, the respectful voices of Hua Guoqing and others echoed for a long time.

However, everyone in the Qiu family stayed where they were.

“Mufan real estate?” “All... are all Mufan real estate?” “This...

What is going on here?

“Simon Qiu and the others were filled with consternation, and the guests were all confused. As for Mr. Qiu, his old face was even more ugly and ugly. Before Shen Jiuwan had congratulated Mufan Real Estate in their QMove logistics yard, he had already let him Very displeased. Now, all the guests in the house are all congratulating Mufan’s real estate! What does this mean? This is naked humiliation! This is no longer a slap, this is a naked kick. And it’s still three hundred and eighty. Du continuously kicked his face without any dead ends. This is kicking the old face of their Qiu family to death! In just an instant, the old face of the old man Qiu turned green and red, almost swollen into pig’s feet. Terrisa Qiu, etc. People, their faces are very ugly at this time. They are uncertain and hesitate in their hearts. Obviously, they are also a little confused now. Are these people in front of them memorizing their names or going through the wrong door? Wrong name.

“That family is useless, why is there such a big face, so many rich and powerful people come to worship?”

“Only my husband has such a face!”

“It must be that they confuse the name of QMove Logistics with Mufan Real Estate.

“Yes, it must be like this~” Terrisa Qiu was very sure, and said in a low voice. Silviana Wang also echoed: “Terrisa is right, and those present at the scene also have this face in Leonard!

“Helen Qiu and Mark are both useless. How can they invite President Hua to them?”

After figuring it out, Terrisa Qiu's family hurried forward and smiled at the National Day of Vietnam. They said with a smile: "General Manager Hua, are you mistaken? We are QMove Logistics. What you should congratulate is QMove Logistics."

Mufan Real Estate is the small and broken enterprise opposite, and it cannot be compared with the Qiu family enterprise.

"Silviana Wang spoke respectfully, and corrected the tycoons before him. What? Wrong? When Hua Guoqing and others heard this, they were taken aback. Obviously, they were also a little confused. I don't know what happened? "Wait first."

Next, I will call to ask.

Out of caution, Hua Guoqing, chairman of Dongshan Group, hurriedly called and asked.

After a while, an old face of Hua Guoqing turned black, sweating profusely and apologized to the person on the other side of the phone: "Yes, yes, Erye, you are scolding."

"We are confused."

"We will pass." Soon, Hua Guoqing hung up the phone, and after just a while, cold sweat was already on his forehead.

"Mr. Hua, what's going on?" "What's the matter?" Seeing that Hua National Day hangs up, the Vietnamese people and others immediately stepped forward and asked.

Hua Guoqing sighed: "Hey, don't mention it, I made a mistake."

"Haha~" "I knew it, it must be a mistake."

Hearing Hua Guoqing's words, Silviana Wang's face suddenly burst into joy.

"Let me just say, Mr. Hua and they appointed Leonard to come to our family."

"Everyone here, besides my family Leonard is Mr. Chu, who else has the surname Chu?" "As for Helen Qiu's family, her husband is a man."

Useless, Helen Qiu is also a scumbag in society."

"Why are they qualified to let President Hua and the others go to congratulate~" Silviana Wang laughed haha.

When the Qiu family heard this, the stone in their hearts fell to the ground.

Chapter 764

"It seems that the name is really wrong."

Simon Qiu breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, this is the case, otherwise, their Qiu family is afraid this time they will be ashamed or embarrassed.

"Quickly, Leonard, Terrisa, people are coming to you, hurry over and talk to them with President Hua."

Silviana Wang urged at this time.

Afterwards, Leonard Chu and his wife were in front, Simon Qiu and others followed closely, walked over and greeted Hua Guoqing and others.

"Mr. Hua, it doesn't matter if you make a mistake."

“Don’t care.”

“It’s a big deal to congratulate me again.”

“All the bosses came to cheer me in their busy schedule and congratulate Qiu Shui Logistics. I’m Leonard Chu. I can’t be thankful enough.”

“Come on, bosses, let’s fill up the wine and congratulate the old man with this wine.”

Leonard Chu laughed and walked forward and said generously to the Hua Guoqing and the others.

“Congratulations again? Congratulations again for the peat!” However, as soon as Leonard Chu’s words fell, Hua Guoqing kicked over, kicking Leonard Chu directly on the ground, and fell a dog to eat shit.

“Mr. Hua, you are...

“Hua Guoqing’s kick not only stunned Leonard Chu, but the Simon Qiu, Silviana Wang and other Qiu family members were also dazed, and their old faces froze in place. “A bunch of idiots, what are they leading?”

“Doesn’t you know how many kilograms you are?”

“Aren’t we here to congratulate you?”

“Blindly lead the way!”

“Almost killed by your idiots!”

“Hua Guoqing is going crazy at this time. Just now he called and was scolded by the second master, and he was already depressed. Now that the Qiu family idiots are licking their faces again, they can hardly dispel their hearts without kicking Hua Guoqing. Anger. After cursing, Hua Guoqing naturally couldn't stay here anymore. Then, turning around to look at Guo Lin, Wang Haisheng and others who were with him, Qing Qing said with shame: "Sorry everyone.

"My fault, I took the wrong place."

"Now, everyone quickly picked up everything and let me go.

"Let's go to the opposite side and congratulate Mufan Real Estate!"

"Hua National Day's low voice echoed in the hotel hall. After that, after understanding the situation, the rich and powerful people who were originally full of the house, after understanding the situation, undoubtedly followed Hua National Day, and everyone undoubtedly took home the previous gift. "Hey~"
"What's the matter?"

"Is this family an idiot?"

"Are you a guest in your own home, don't you have any compelling points?"

"Why chaotic leads the way!"

"Return to Qiu Shui Logistics?"

I think it's an idiot logistics!

Congratulations to Mr. Chu, and went to the wrong door. This incident is always a shame for Hua Guoqing and the others. At this time, they were all swearing and complaining while walking. That's it. Terrisa Qiu and others saw that the wealthy and powerful people in Wrifill, such as Hua Guoqing and Guo Lin, left the Yulong Hotel without looking back, and then walked into the opposite Mufan real estate with respect. Ji Ran. At this time, the Qiu family were all there, staring blankly at the scene ahead. One by one, the old faces flushed, and they only felt ashamed. It was obvious that Helen Qiu's family never appeared in front of them from beginning to end, but , The Qiu family only felt that Helen Qiu's fierce slap was instigated on her face.

Simon Qiu's face was livid, Terrisa Qiu's eyes were red, and the old man Qiu stared fiercely.

The guests in the room were silent, and the Qiu family felt discouraged and could not say a word.

"It's impossible?" "It's absolutely impossible!" "How could you go to visit Mufan's real estate?" "She Helen Qiu, how can He De?" Terrisa Qiu's brows were blood red, her palms clenched, but she was unwilling. Growl!

Chapter 767

After all, in terms of connections, their Qiu family is still inferior to Leonard Chu.

Leonard Chu's family is also considered to have a face in Wrillfill.

More importantly, I still know Wu Shi.

Leonard Chu and the mayor's son were young.

This relationship alone is enough to kill those cheap merchants during the National Day of Vietnam.

"This...this" Leonard Chu's face changed slightly.

Before that, he did tell Wu Yong that he hoped Wu Yong would come over and cheer him up.

But Wu Yong didn't say he was dead at the time, only that he would come as far as possible.

Therefore, Leonard Chu is also not sure whether Wu Yong and they will arrive.

However, when Leonard Chu hesitated, there was a sound of cars outside the hotel.

Immediately afterwards, the loud voice of the Singer Boy resounded all over the world.

“The son of Wrillfill leader Nangonghai, Nangong Ling arrives!” ... “The nephew of Wrillfill leader Wang Donglai, Wang Tian arrives!” ... What?

“Nangonghai?” “Is it the head of the Industrial and Commercial Bureau, Nangonghai?” “His son?” “And Wang Donglai!” “Could it be the Director of the Public Security Bureau, Wang Donglai?” “I rely on, this is the son of a high-ranking official! At this time, after hearing the names coming from outside, the crowd in the hall was once again surprised.

However, this is only the beginning.

In the end, as a handsome man walked out of the car, the voice of the roll-calling boy resounded everywhere again!

“Son of Ferguson Wu, Wu uses it!” This...this...!

Wu...

Ferguson Wu?

Kure's son?

The prince of Wrillfill?

God, the secretary's son is here?

There were no extra titles, Wu Yong just reported his father's name.

However, this is enough.

In the entire Wrifill city, no one knows the name of Ferguson Wu.

This person is the helm of Wrifill City, the chief designer of urban construction, and the leader of the entire Wrifill City!

The name of Ferguson Wu has long been on the news network and spread throughout the streets and alleys of Wrifill City.

Therefore, after hearing that Ferguson Wu's son was coming, not only the people of the Qiu family, but also the guests in the whole house, and even the passersby around, were all shocked.

"Lively, lively."

"This dispute between QMove Logistics and Mufan's real estate is really lively."

"Even the sons of the government leaders are here."

"The movement is getting bigger and bigger~" It was just calm. The world soon, after Wu Yong and others arrived, undoubtedly became noisy again.

The passers-by outside were talking about it.

Many people shouted in surprise.

I just feel that today's good show is getting more and more exciting.

Perhaps the younger generations like Wu Yong and Wang Tian are not well-known.

But the people behind them are too famous.

Now these people come to join in, in the eyes of everyone, they are here on behalf of their father.

The prince's visit, and the emperor's arrival, how different is it?

Therefore, after seeing the arrival of these leaders' nephews, the Yulong Hotel immediately exploded.

Many people were full of trepidation and excitedly asked Mr. Xiang Qiu: "Old man, these people are you invited?" Mr. Qiu laughed, "My grandson-in-law invited it, what's the difference with the one I invited?" Fei, our Qiu family's distinguished guests are here, why don't you hurry to meet them?" "These are the real powers!" Countertop."

Old man Qiu smiled proudly.

The previous dullness and gloom are undoubtedly swept away at this moment.

Chapter 765

Not only Helen Qiu, but the entire Qiu family couldn't figure it out.

why?

Why on earth?

She Helen Qiu, its Mufan real estate, what on earth did she rely on to let Shen Jiuwan come to congratulate him, let Li Xueqi give gifts respectfully, and let half of Wrillfill's rich and powerful people gather to worship?

Could it be that Helen Qiu's family has any secrets not known?

Could it be that at the beginning of their Qiu family, they really had no eyes, and it was impossible to drive a real dragon out of the Qiu family?

At this moment, the Yulong Hotel was silent.

All of them were shocked and surprised, watching from a distance the countless rich and powerful people in front of them, flocking to Mufan's real estate, and respectfully worshipping the Helen Qiu family.

Even if you are far away, you can still hear the respectful and lively greetings in Mufan Real Estate Company opposite.

Old man Qiu had an ugly face, and Terrisa Qiu and others were even more embarrassed.

The entire Qiu family looked at Mu Fan's house that they had looked down upon before, and the house was full of guests. Undoubtedly, their hearts were as uncomfortable as eating flies.

Especially the old man Qiu, the old face was hot and painful.

Who could have imagined that the scenery that originally belonged to them was snatched by Helen Qiu's family at this time.

The Shen Group, Wrillfill Li Family, Dongshan Group and Beibing Heavy Industries, are now going to congratulate the Helen Qiu family, which one is not a well-known enterprise in the city.

Compared with these people, the Dafeng factory and the flour mill that came to support their Qiu family before are really shit.

The guests who went to Mufan's real estate undoubtedly crushed these guests from the Qiu family in all aspects, no matter from the structure, or from the power and status.

Before, Silviana Wang and Terrisa Qiu comforted themselves. Those were all actors invited by Helen Qiu.

In the beginning, they can deceive themselves and others.

But now, half of the dignitaries of Wrilfill City have arrived.

What Hua National Day, what Guo Lin, what Wang Haisheng's generation, could it be that the actors invited by Helen Qiu failed?

Fame can be pretended, identity can also be played, but the rows of luxury cars outside and the magnificent temperament of each one can not be performed well?

What's more, among the guests in the Qiu family, there are many people who recognize the top wealthy people in the Wrilfill business circle such as Vietnam National Day. It is indeed my 85e19dea.

The Qiu family just deceived themselves and others, no matter how unbelievable they were, they would not be stupid enough to think that these half of Wrilfill's rich and powerful would come here to accompany Helen Qiu in a play.

Therefore, the only explanation is that they really came to cheer for Mufan Real Estate.

Now that the ceremony has started, it can be said that their Qiu Shui logistics has been completely wiped out!

While everyone in the Qiu family was still in a silent distress, inside Mu Fan's house not far away.

Helen Qiu, Sherry Han and others were undoubtedly dumbfounded.

Seeing the wealthy and powerful, Helen Qiu's pretty face was panic, her body trembled, her eyes full of disbelief.

If it is said that the initial Shen Jiuwan, it can be explained that Mark has a good relationship with Greg Shen, so the Shen Group looks at the face of its own young master and surrendered its identity to cheer on their Mufan real estate.

But later when Li Xueqi came, and now when Dongshan Group CEO, Beibing Heavy Industry President, Xihai Industrial Chairman Hua Guomin, and other famous wealthy people in Wrifill, Helen Qiu has undoubtedly been completely stupefied. Up.

At that time, Helen Qiu only felt that her mind was buzzing, and she was completely blank in an instant!

Chapter 766

Prior to this, Helen Qiu thought that her opening ceremony would be so miserable and embarrassing that she would become a self-entertainment for their company, without anyone joining in, and completely become a joke in the Wrifill corporate circle.

But who could have imagined that, during this turn of events, Wrifill dignitaries suddenly came to congratulate them with gifts.

For a time, the Mufan Group was in the limelight, and the Qiu Shui Logistics who was on the opposite side couldn't look up.

All this happened too suddenly.

As a result, Helen Qiu hadn't reacted yet, she was stunned, just feeling that everything was like a dream.

It feels unrealistic.

Even Helen Qiu felt this way, let alone Sherry Han and his wife?

The couple thought that this time they were afraid that they would also be involved by their daughters, so they would lose their ugliness and make a fool of themselves.

But the two of them didn't think about it. Not only was it not ashamed, it was also a big show.

"Haha~" "Okay!" "Helen, okay~" "I didn't expect my daughter to be so good~" "The bosses of the big group came to congratulate themselves."

"Compared with them, the previous Qiu family group What kind of flour mill manager, feed mill owner, what a shit~" Sherry Han was so happy at the moment ee8b319a, she said that she was Helen Qiu's mother and the queen mother of Qiu Shui Logistics.

There is no embarrassment and anger at all.

When these big figures came to congratulate at first, Sherry Han thought they had gone the wrong way.

Said that Qiu Shui Logistics is opposite, they are Mufan Real Estate.

Later, Sherry Han and the others only determined that these people were indeed here to congratulate Mufan Real Estate.

Sherry Han and his wife couldn't believe their ears for a while.

I wonder when my daughter is so awesome?

Have you met so many big people?

But how did Sherry Han and the others know that Helen Qiu was in a daze from beginning to end.

She still hasn't figured out who these people are from.

But now is not the time for doubt, no matter what the reason is, now that the guests are here, it is to give them the face of Mufan's real estate. Of course, Helen Qiu is treated with courtesy.

As a result, the employees of QMove Real Estate who were still lifeless before became busy happily, serving tea and water politely to these big bosses.

Finally, I couldn't sit down in the hall, and in desperation, a few tables were set up at the door of the company to greet everyone.

Seeing the hustle and bustle of Mufan Real Estate, inside the Yulong Hotel opposite, the Qiu family felt very uncomfortable.

"Are they idiots on the National Day of Vietnam?" "The Lord is here. They don't say anything but respectfully worship, but they go to cheer for the whole family?" "How do such people become bosses?" Silviana Wang It was jealous, jealous, and full of resentment.

The old man was even more angry, with a red face: "Huh, a bunch of dogs look at people's things. It doesn't matter if you don't come to celebrate, I will celebrate the autumn family, there are few of them, and not many of them."

"They won't come, we Some are big people."

“Leonard, when will your guests arrive.”

It should have been their Qiu family’s beautiful moment, but now they have been snatched away by Helen Qiu’s family, of course the old man is angry.

Now, he can only put his last sustenance on Leonard Chu.

I hope that Leonard Chu can give them Qiu Family’s face.

Chapter 768

At this time, the old man Qiu was undoubtedly proud of the scenery.

When the surrounding guests saw this, they all trembled with shame: “It’s amazing, it’s amazing~” “Master Qiu, you Qiu family, this is going to be against the sky~” Amidst the tremors of everyone’s respect, Leonard Chu and his wife were the first to take the lead. First rush out to meet.

Silviana Wang and Nelson followed closely behind.

Then Simon Qiu, Jiang Hong and others from the Qiu family rushed out to greet them.

On the other side, in Mufan’s real estate, Sherry Han and others apparently heard the voice of the boy singing 5db41352, and the couple suddenly became calm.

“Helen, did you say that the mayor’s son came at us too?” “Haha~” “We have to go out to meet us!” “That’s the son of Wu City, Wu City, better than Han Dongmin It’s amazing!” The Sherry Han and his wife were undoubtedly excited and went out to greet them with Helen Qiu.

But Helen Qiu knows herself and shook her head again and again: “Mom, what do you think?” “Our family is a commoner, how do you know so many leaders?” “Wu City, they, I have not even seen each other, how can we? , Please move these powerful sons?” “Can’t they come for us?” Helen Qiu kept talking.

But how can Sherry Han and Melson listen.

The congratulations from Shen Jiuwan, Li Xueqi and others had obviously made the couple swell.

“How can it be impossible?” “Have you seen Mr. Shen?” “Have you met the eldest princess of the Li family?” Family congratulations?” “We have missed the opportunity to go out to meet too many times before. This time, this time, this time, we must not let Terrisa Qiu’s white-eyed wolf steal it again?” “If you don’t go to meet us, our old couple will go. Helen Qiu was speechless with Sherry Han’s words.

In the end, the couple did not stay any longer, so they hurriedly took two steps and ran out.

I have to say that people like Sherry Han who often dance square dances have good physical fitness.

This short leg ran extremely fast.

Fei Ye seemed to be able to quickly rush to the front, leaving Terrisa Qiu and Silviana Wang behind.

“Ciao!”

“The shameless things of the old third family~” “Is it your guests, go out to meet them?” Silviana Wang and Terrisa Qiu’s mother and daughter, almost mad at the back, cursed in black.

But wherever the Sherry Han and his wife care, they ran faster than anyone else. Finally, they rushed to Wu Yong and the others first, reached out and grabbed Wu Yong's arm, and said with a big smile: "Haha~" "Wu Shi is really too good. You're polite!" "I even asked my son to come and congratulate us on Mufan Real Estate."

"I am so honored as the hostess of Mufan Real Estate. I am embarrassed."

"My Helen has already prepared a banquet in Mufan's company, so I'm waiting for a few people to come to take a seat."

Sherry Han was very enthusiastic, grabbing Wu's hand and pulling to Mufan's real estate.

"Ciao!" "Where's the idiot?" "Dare to do something to my Angkor?" "Can you afford to get dirty on Angkor's clothes?" However, who would have thought, it was here. At that time, Wang Tian on the side saw it, but he slapped Sherry Han directly on the ground, and that old face was swollen on him.

Chapter 769

"Master Wu, why are you hitting me?" Sherry Han was stunned at the time, covering her face on the ground, almost crying in pain.

"It's you idiots like you!" "I don't know where the shameless girl?" "Returning Mufan's real estate? Returning the mistress?" "Just your cheated Mufan real estate, a small broken company, and worthy of concession Shall we come to congratulate?" "Do you dream of Spring and Autumn?" "Don't hurry up?!" Wang Tian cursed, and Sherry Han was so scared that Sherry Han immediately closed her mouth and dared not say a word.

As for Melson on the side, he was so scared that he stayed in place, not daring to move.

At this time, Terrisa Qiu's family just arrived.

Seeing that Sherry Han was beaten, the Qiu family suddenly enjoyed themselves.

Looking at Sherry Han in front of him like a joke, she sneered and said: "Auntie San, I have reminded you that there are some people, but you can't afford it."

"Angel, what are their identities, what are your identities? "A family is insane, thinking about Pan Gaozhi?" "You are worthy too?" Terrisa Qiu scolded disdainfully.

"A few b*tch merchants came to congratulate you, and the tail went up to the sky?" "I don't know what my surname is?" "Isn't there any way of compelling my own skills?" "A broken company, a woman of a hillbilly, Angkor and the others are blind, they will go to congratulate you?" "It's ridiculous!" "Go back and tell Helen Qiu, let her be a little self-aware!" "How about Shen Jiuwan to congratulate you? What about Princess Li's congratulations to you Like? Compared to ours, your family is still inferior!" "You have a native chicken, and you just lie down on the ground. Some people, you can't afford to climb."

Amidst the laughter, Terrisa Qiu and his wife immediately So Wu Yong and his party were greeted into the hotel lobby, congratulated the old man Qiu, wished the autumn water logistics celebration a victory, and presented gifts to him.

"Haha~" "Master Wu is polite."

"It is a great honor for my old man to come on behalf of your father."

The hearty laughter of the old man Qiu spread throughout the entire hall.

Inside and out, there were voices envious of the Qiu family.

Especially for Leonard Chu and his wife, everyone was even more admired.

"This grandson-in-law of the Qiu family is really amazing."

“So there are such connections?” “Ferguson Wu, can the secretary’s son be invited by him?” “With this kind of connections, Qiu’s family will be in Wrilfill in the future, and I am afraid that they will be in Wrilfill.”

Everywhere is Chu Chu. Leonard and others admire the voice of respect.

For a time, Qiu’s family was beautiful again, and the gloom before it was wiped out.

Yes, as Terrisa Qiu said, what about Shen Jiuwan’s congratulations to Mufan Real Estate, and what about Princess Li’s congratulations to Mufan Real Estate?

These people, to put it bluntly, are just businessmen.

In Vietnam, the status of merchants has not been better than that of officials since ancient times.

Therefore, in the eyes of Qiu’s family and others, even if the entire Wrilfill wealthy businessmen came to congratulate Mufan Real Estate, what?

Even if today is only the nephews of Ferguson Wu and others, in terms of power and status, they still crush the low-ranking merchants of Vietnam National Day!

As for Li Xueqi, perhaps the background is huge.

But she said it bluntly, she was just Ericson Li’s younger sister, and she was going to marry sooner or later.

What can Li Xueqi get with the water thrown out by the married woman?

The power of the Li family belongs to Ericson Li.

Even though Li Xueqi's surname is Li, her status in the Li family is undoubtedly much inferior.

And when the Qiu family was so beautiful because of the arrival of Wu Yong and others.

At a crossroad a kilometer away, the traffic police are maintaining order.

Today, Qiu's family held a celebration, but they specifically greeted the traffic police department through the relationship.

Said that on the day of the celebration, I am afraid that many people will come to congratulate, let them help to ease the traffic, and don't let the guests get stuck on the road again.

The local traffic police brigade gave this face, and sent a few people to the nearby intersection to clear the traffic.

At this time, a few traffic policemen were sitting on the side of the road, taking a rare rest.

Chapter 770

"Brother Li, it seems that the guests of the Qiu family are almost over."

"Well, that's it."

"Hua Guoqing and other big entrepreneurs are here, and the rich and powerful people in Wrifill are here."

"I can't. A small ribbon-cutting celebration can attract rich people from other cities to congratulate it?" "The Qiu family just hugs the thigh of the Chu family in Wrifill, and never has this prestige."

A traffic policeman shook his head and smiled. .

In his opinion, no matter how powerful the Qiu family is, it is already the limit to attract wealthy people like Hua National Day and Wang Haisheng to worship.

People from other places, who would come to Wrilfill all the way to congratulate a little Qiu family?

Boom~ However, when they just finished their words, at the end of the road, I saw a number of luxury cars, galloping in.

The black car body, with Ruoli sword, tore open the sky.

The low buzzing sound is just like the low roar of a beast, shaking the sky.

“This...this...”

Such a movement caused everyone here to tremble.

Pedestrians at the intersection followed the prestige one after another, and they saw millions of luxury cars everywhere.

The black and heavy, trained in a row, like a torrent of steel, rolling in from nine days away.

Seeing the scene before him, everyone present was stunned.

Especially the traffic police on duty, seeing the license plate hanging on the body, was even more shocked.

“This...this...Jiang c, from Haozhou?” “Jianb, Jing...from Denham?” “Jiang a, F*ck, from the provincial capital Edensberg...”

Come too?

“Shall I go to special? What’s going on today? Could it be that the province’s bosses are not coming? Looking at the luxury cars coming from all cities in Noifork, there are five 5, five 8. With the number of license plates in one piece, everyone at the intersection was crazy. Especially the traffic police on duty, a pair of eyeballs almost stared out, and they trembled. “Aren’t these also going to Qiu’s house?

Apart from the tremor, the traffic police brigade captain then laughed excitedly. “Haha~” “It’s enjoyable, enjoyable.”

“Even the big brothers from the provincial capital Edensberg are here.”

“The movement is getting bigger and bigger.

“It doesn’t matter who these big guys are going for, our Wrilfill City Traffic Police Brigade has designated a place to help.”

“Fifth and sixth, immediately inform our district squadrons and city brigade to arrange for manpower to go to nearby intersections to maintain traffic!”

The command of the captain echoed the world. However, the Qiu family and Helen Qiu and others did not know the scene here. At this time, Sherry Han was still lying on the ground, her old face flushed. What happened just now, It undoubtedly made Sherry Han a big ugly. The passers-by around looked at Sherry Han like a joke, their eyes looked alive like a clown. They licked their faces to greet them, and they slapped them on the ground. This kind of thing. It was funny even thinking about it. Helen Qiu was also very angry.
