

The Best Son in Law Chapter 180 – 189

Chapter 180

Upon hearing his words, the people present revealed their distrust, and Manager Sun revealed a sneer, “Humph! See, it’s a lie. An aphrodisiac is worth over $10,000. You have to find a good reason to lie! How much medicine can you sell in a day for over ten thousand?”

Captain Zhao also nodded along, but Haoden Ye just smiled, “I can also explain this, the people who come to sell my medicine are naturally rich people, of course, if there are friends, I will also sell at a discount, such as a few friends of the Drug Administration and so on, later I bar phone to Captain Zhao, you ask is!”

Saying that, he looked at Manager Sun and coldly said, “As for how many sales, there are records in my pharmacy that Captain Zhao can check, and my pharmacy is working with the Holander’s Group, which Captain Zhao can verify with Lawyer Jin of the Holander’s Group!”

“What! He’s working with the Hong’s? Just kidding!”

“Kid, can you brag a little louder? The Hong’s will work with you?”

As soon as this was said, a snicker rang out from the crowd, and Manager Sun didn’t even bother to mock it or not, this kind of bull can also blow?

Haoden Ye had already guessed that they didn’t believe him, and said to Captain Zhao, “Right, are your armed police brigade familiar with the City Public Security Bureau, I can have him explain it to you, but you have to let a phone call first!”

“What! You know Bureau Wu as well?” Captain Zhao was stunned at this, generally people bragged that they dared to say that they had a relationship with the Holander’s group, how could anyone dare to say that they had a relationship with the Public Security Bureau, and in front of the police, this Haoden Ye either really knew Wu Bureau, or he was a crazy person.

Haoden Ye nodded and smiled, then pulled out his cell phone and called Wu Zongjian, he didn’t know the number of the Wu Bureau, he could only go through Wu Zongjian continuous Wu Bureau.

Soon the call was connected, Haoden Ye briefly explained the situation, Wu Zongjian naturally did not dare to slow down and immediately contacted his brother.

Less than two minutes later, Captain Zhao’s cell phone rang.

Captain Zhao hurriedly answered the phone, only to hear him mumble a few words into the phone, then said, “Got it, don’t worry leader, I’ll take care of it!” Then hung up the phone.

Everyone watched the scene, especially Manager Sun, who at first thought that Haoden Ye was a madman, and as things progressed, his face gradually started to turn white.

“Mr. Ye, I’m so sorry, but Bureau Wu just checked with me personally and what you said is fine!” Captain Zhao looked smiling to Haoden Ye.

Coax! The crowd in the lobby exploded, no one had thought that someone as poorly dressed as Haoden Ye actually knew Bureau Wu!

“Invisible tycoon, definitely invisible tycoon!”

“Transferring over two million in five days, my God, and such a man dressed so plainly?”

The faces of Manager Sun and the female staff were like eating shit, hard to see in the extreme, who would have thought that this young man in front of him was really a rich man earning gold daily?

“Captain Zhao, now that I’m done explaining things, are we going to hold them legally accountable!” Haoden Ye smiled at Captain Zhao as well and turned his gaze to Manager Sun and the others.

Manager Sun was shaken and his legs were starting to weaken, and honestly he knew he had broken the law, but as long as Haoden Ye was a criminal, who would hold him accountable?

Now well, the man he despised has become a millionaire, and he’s clearly breaking the law!

“Mr. Yeh, I’m so sorry, I apologize!” Manager Sun hurriedly lowered his head and looked pleading to Haoden Ye.

“Apologize? If apologies work, what’s the law for? If you just had a bad attitude, I might have let you off the hook, but your subsequent behavior was a total disregard for the law! Even if you seize me, you still withhold my money and take it backstage, do people like you deserve to work in a bank?” Haoden Ye’s tone became angry and he snorted coldly.

Manager Sun’s face instantly turned incomparably pale, Haoden Ye was clearly trying to pursue this.

“Mr. Ye, I was wrong, please forgive me this time, I promise this mistake won’t be repeated in the future!” Manager Sun had the heart to jump at this point, and even bowed his head and begged.

However, Haoden Ye was really hard-hearted this time, he didn’t do it because he was angry, but because this Manager Sun’s character was really no good.

It's no accident that he's like this to himself, he's obviously used to lawlessness.

Captain Zhao also saw Haoden Ye's meaning, and he didn't bother, he greeted the two armed police soldiers and said to Manager Sun, "Mr. Sun, you are now suspected of illegal detention and illegally detaining other people's property, please come back with us!"

Manager Sun's face was suddenly devoid of human color, he was able to achieve the position of manager at the age of thirty, but it was all because he was a graduate of the famous American School of Economics, because of this, even if he had violated discipline in his position, the leaders could not bear to give up this talent.

Over time, he took the leadership indulgence as natural and dared up, never expecting to fall into the hands of Haoden Ye today.

"Mr. Ye, according to the rules you also have to come back with us to take a statement, but you have something important to do, so let's finish up before coming to the police station." The captain of the Zhao looked five big and three coarse, can't imagine the mind is still very delicate, thought Haoden Ye hand there are several million to save it, now take him away these money if lost will be difficult to do.

Haoden Ye nodded very gratefully, and only then did Captain Zhao close the team and leave.

At this point the people in the bank looked at Haoden Ye completely differently when they looked at him again, but some people were still curious, if Haoden Ye was so rich, why was he dressed so plainly?

Soon, the service staff at the VIP counter ran over to Haoden Ye and very politely invited Haoden Ye to deposit money.

Haoden Ye bar this money village, which went out and drove back, and when he saw his Maybach pass by the bank, those suspicious people also shut their mouths.

On the way back, Haoden Ye was idly looking inside his dantian at a red light intersection and found that there was an orange bubble in his dantian!

Haoden Ye was surprised, he had saved Wu's construction site and had only given a purple and a blue, and now the golden carp had given him an orange bubble.

Although the bubbles were indistinguishable in function, Haoden Ye could also sense that it was very difficult to obtain depending on the color.

How is it that when you grab a Sun Manager, you give an orange bubble?

Haoden Ye thought for a moment before realizing that this Manager Sun must not have done anything unethical.

It is really as Haoden Ye thought, this Sun Manager is responsible for the home loan of 30 million deposits, but he intercepted these loans, ready to take the money to flee privately it, which if he escaped, I do not know how many people have to lose their fortune.

Chapter 181

Back at the pharmacy, Haoden Ye explained to Lin Yao to keep an eye on the pharmacy and drove to the Spiritual Medicine Hall to buy medicine.

Over two million was pocketed on his body, and Haoden Ye felt the weight of it.

Two million would have been a number he wouldn't have dared to imagine not so long ago.

At the Spiritual Medicine Hall, Haoden Ye gave Jiao Yuchun a call, and soon Jiao Yuchun came out to greet him.

Two people entered the Spiritual Medicine Hall, asking Haoden Ye about the herbs they wanted as they walked.

"I have the lingzhi you want, but it's not cheap, it's over a million if you buy it normally, but with you I can get it cheaper, just 600,000, but you can't get the black coral you want that's over 600 years old!" Jiao Yuchun's face was slightly pale at the news.

Haoden Ye also knew that aged black coral was not easy to find, according to the golden carp to his knowledge of traditional Chinese medicine, aged black coral is very rare, now almost no one has seen.

The black coral on the market today is a few years, decades at most, and is usually used as a general medicine.

"No age-old, average ones will do!" Although he was slightly disappointed, Haoden Ye also knew that this was something that could be found but not sought.

Turning his head to look at him, Jiao Yuchun suddenly laughed, "Haha, of course I found something for you, but the price isn't cheap, the other party is asking for six million!"

Upon hearing that he had found it, Haoden Ye's heart had been very happy, but his brows furrowed when he heard the price.

Six million dollars is too slow for him to earn a month.

Seeing that he looked embarrassed, Jiao Yuchun smiled slightly, "But the one selling this is my friend, I can help you!"

"Great!" Haoden Ye was pleasantly surprised and looked grateful, "Truth be told, this thing is also used to save people's lives, you've not only helped me by doing this, you've also saved a life!"

At this point, he looked suddenly embarrassed, it was six million dollars, and Jiao Yuchun's help with this one sentence was a few million dollars in expenses: "Don't worry, I'll pay you back the six million!"

"It's only a few million, we don't lack this amount of money in the Spiritual Medicine Hall!" Jiao Yuchun shrugged his shoulders, clearly not giving the money a second thought.

After saying that, he turned his head and smiled at Haoden Ye with a thieving smile, "I knew you didn't have that much money, so I only have one request, and that is that you have to work as a part-time doctor at our Spiritual Medicine Hall, I don't ask for much, how about a case that gives you a minimum of half a million to start with?"

"Huh?" Haoden Ye's heart thumped when he heard that he still had to work for himself.

It turns out that Jiao Yuchun didn't give this for free, and he still has to work for him.

Thinking of this, Haoden Ye's heart can't help but surge an evil thought, whether that black coral is worth six million or not, this kid won't specifically trap himself to come here to work!

Seems to see his heart thoughts, Jiao Yuchun immediately with a serious face: "The price of the black coral I did not misrepresent to you, six million a point not less, this coral my eyes bought, as long as you promise, the black coral is yours!”

Smiling bitterly, Ye knew there was nothing he could do if he didn't say yes, so he nodded.

A touch of joy flashed across Jiao Yuchun's face, looking a bit treacherous.

He asked Haoden Ye to stay as a part-time doctor, not to use Haoden Ye to make money, although the Spiritual Medicine Hall was very famous in Huaxia, and there were many high officials and noblemen who came to see them, but treating diseases was only a side business of the Spiritual Medicine Hall, they mainly still sold medicines.

Of course if a patient came, the Spiritual Medicine Hall wouldn't refuse, but with the number and level of Chinese medicine nowadays, it couldn't even compare to the Western medicine that was already popular in Warsaw.

So on the whole, TCM is sort of getting more and more out of favor.

Jiao Yuchun asked Haoden Ye to come as a doctor because she didn't want to see TCM lose its market and tell others that TCM is sometimes more effective than Western medicine.

Secondly, he also showed those Spiritual Medicine Hall disciples who had just finished their studies and were high-minded what it meant to be a true expert.

The last reason, of course, is to help the Haven do a little marketing.

Imagine, with a practicing expert like Haoden Ye here, the number of people coming to the Spiritual Medicine Hall to buy medicine wasn't increasing, and compared to this income, the millions he spoke for Haoden Ye was simply a drop in the bucket.

The two of them went inside the pharmacy, Jiao Yuchun took the two medicines for Haoden Ye, looking at the herbs that came so easily, Haoden Ye was very excited.

With these herbs, he could perform the first treatment for Lin cheerfully.

“I say, Old Jiao, since you’re exempt from the six million, this one million or so lingzhi is also free for me!” The more Haoden Ye thought about it, the more he felt that he was losing out, and he smiled at Jiao Yuchun.

“A yard is a yard, six million is just Black Coral’s money, Lingzhi you also have to pay separately, otherwise I’ll lose a lot!” Jiao Yuchun didn’t really care about the money, but he still had to pretend to be distressed in front of Haoden Ye.

“Dr. Jiao, you’re saving a life, a respected doctor like you, do you still care about this amount of money?” Haoden Ye was in the end too young, and was lulled into forgetting his earlier misgivings by Jiao Yuchun’s two words, revealing a pleading look.

Jiao Yuchun pretended to have a hard time thinking about it, but finally nodded, “Alright, it’s a bit of a loss for me!”

Haoden Ye, who didn’t understand his plot, was busy having thanks for half a day before returning with the herbs.

Back at the pharmacy, Lin Yao saw Haoden Ye coming over with two bags of herbs and asked, “How was it? Did you get all your medicine?”

Seeing the tense look on her face, Haoden Ye put away his original thought of making fun of her in the west and quickly said, “Don’t worry, there are only two kinds of herbs in total, a ganoderma lucidum and a black coral, and they’ve both been bought!”

“Black coral?” Lin Xiang’s brow furrowed at the sound of it and wondered, “This is just ordinary medicine for lowering heart fire, what did you buy it for?”

“It’s six hundred years of black coral!” Haoden Ye shrugged, “And black coral isn’t an ordinary medicine for lowering heart fire, but this piece of black coral we’re using is just a little bit of it, not the black coral itself!”

Listening to his explanation, Lin Xiang looked surprised, she remembered that inside the Chinese medicine taught to her by her master, the black coral was just an ordinary-too-ordinary medicine, and she had never heard of black coral having six hundred years.

“Six hundred years of black coral must be worth a lot of money!” Lin Xiang suddenly rang up the price and said to Haoden Ye in confusion, “That money in your hand should only be enough to buy the lingzhi!”

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye said, “You don’t have to worry about the money, I originally estimated that the Lingzhi medicine was more expensive, so I prepared two million, I didn’t expect the price of black coral to be more expensive than Lingzhi, but the problem has been solved!”

Chapter 182

When Lin Xiang heard that the price of the black coral was more expensive, her eyebrows furrowed. When she saw that Haoden Ye was going to the pharmacy, she quickly stopped him and said: “No, you have to tell me the price so that I can know how much I owe you, I, Lin Yu... Lin Xiang doesn’t owe any favors and will pay you back later.”

Seeing her look like she was serious, Haoden Ye instead got funny and said in a bad mood, “Your life was saved by me, is it hard for you to give yourself to me? I only saved you because I’m a doctor and I owe Old Man Lin a debt of gratitude, no need for you to return the favor!”

But he regretted his words, because he saw that Lin Xiang was so serious that he obviously took into account the condition of repaying his kindness by giving his body to him.

“Alright, don’t think too much, I only agreed to be a free doctor for the Spirit Medicine Hall for a few days, a case is worth half a million, I only need to see twenty patients!”

“Twenty patients?Spiritual Pill Hall, these sycophants!”Lin Xiang got angry at the sight of it.

“Twenty patients soon?Why do you still look like you’re in a state of righteous indignation!”Haoden Ye was very puzzled, with only twenty patients he still felt that the Spiritual Medicine Hall was losing out.

“Are you really stupid or not, with your medical skills, being able to see one very difficult case for the Spiritual Medicine Hall is enough for them to make a name for themselves, twenty cases, how much good name is the Spiritual Medicine Hall going to get for this?That’s not to mention the fact that they’ll secretly learn your healing techniques once they hear about you treating them again, so how much benefit would it be to them if they were given the opportunity to steal your healing techniques?”

Lin Xiang began to analyze it carefully, then said seriously, “So this time the Spiritual Medicine Hall has not only made a profit, but it has made more than ten times more than your medicine fee!”

Haoden Ye didn’t think so much about it at first, he just thought that Jiao Yuchun wanted to take the illnesses of twenty dignitaries to treat him and use the medical fees to offset the cost of his medicine, but he never thought there were some more doors.

But even if he figured it out, he didn’t mind it at all and smiled slightly, “I’m a doctor who also saves people, it’s considered a good deed, and if they want to learn my medical skills, I'm not even happy enough, it means my medical skills can save more people!"

Seeing Haoden Ye's frank face, Lin Yao couldn't help but be stunned.

She was a bit confused about Haoden Ye as a person, although Haoden Ye's medical skills came from the exotic treasure that Master said, but who had a brilliant medical skill these days that they wanted others to learn from?

He didn't want to make more money relying on these medical skills, relying on these medical skills to make a name for himself and gain the power and money that he had, but instead he wanted to teach this medical skill to others for free, which made her very confused.

"Do you, man, have any brains at all, you know that if you teach your medical skills to others, you have less chance of making money yourself! Are you willing to give up so many opportunities to soar to the top?" Lin Xiang looked at Haoden Ye in confusion.

Shrugging his shoulders, Haoden Ye said indifferently, "What do I want to fly to the top for?"

Now that the Shen family had begun to accept him, Haoden Ye felt that he was happy now.

"You..." Lin Xiang moved his lips, having the feeling that ten million words couldn't be said.

"When do you start healing?" Lin Xiang finally gave up trying to persuade Haoden Ye and lowered his head.

"I'll go in and make the ointment, it'll only take about half an hour, you'll close the pharmacy in half an hour and come up here to the refinery... right, bring a pair of silver needles, I still need to give you some acupuncture!”After Haoden Ye said that, he went upstairs.

After he left, Lin Xiang lay on the counter and looked out at the crowd with negative complex eyes.

She was born into a wealthy family as a child, but Lin Xiang was not one of those pampered girls; she debuted in the acting world when she was less than ten years old and defeated countless opponents with her acting skills and abilities.

She’s also seen too much intrigue and duplicity along the way.

Although as the eldest Miss of the Lin family, no one dared to actually fight these plots again on her, she was spared from seeing them.

She had seen how many people at the bottom wanted to work hard to make money and become famous, and as long as they had a skill, they would treasure it like their lives depended on it, not permitting anyone else to learn it.

And what about Haoden Ye?Obviously now that he had another chance to fly the coop, he was willing to just be a small pharmacy owner.

“Perhaps it’s really as Master said, this man is indeed different from the average person, and that’s probably why Exotic Treasure chose him!”Sighing quietly, Lin Qi muttered to himself.

Soon, half an hour passed and Lin cheerfully closed the pharmacy and went upstairs.

At this time upstairs, Haoden Ye had already refined the herbs and was making preparations.

As soon as Lin Xiang entered the pharmacy, Haoden Ye said, "Take off your clothes!"

Lin Xiang was so dumbfounded by his words that he didn't react for a moment and gave an "ah" subconsciously.

Honestly, it was very embarrassing for Haoden Ye to have a girl undress in front of him, but he had never seen a woman naked before.

But as a doctor, he knew that if he acted too nervous, Lin Xiang would definitely be even more nervous, so his tone remained calm as he said, "Take off your coat, I'm going to put ointment on you!"

"This... I'll just do it myself!" Lin Yao's face instantly became hot, her speech was out of tune, and her eyes dodged not daring to look at Haoden Ye Dao.

"The ointment is applied mainly to the back, can you reach it yourself?" Haoden Ye also didn't dare to look at Lin Xiang and spoke in a pretend calm tone.

"Ah... I..." her pretty face grew even hotter, almost invalidating her disguise, and she was more worried than shy.

Because when she came to see Haoden Ye, she didn't think that the two of them would one day meet each other with naked sincerity, so she only wore makeup on her face and didn't do any more physical demonstration, what if Haoden Ye saw it later and became suspicious?

But now let come help, she is even more unable to do, the best friend she has hidden, if he knows someone who knows about this, I'm afraid the major newspapers tomorrow is this matter.

"Does this have to be the treatment?" Lin Xiang lowered his head, his voice laced with fiddling shyness.

“Of course it is, I must apply the ointment to you so that the effect of the medicine can penetrate into the skin more quickly, it is a solidifying medicine, direct obedience will reduce the effectiveness of the medicine and if it is delayed too long, it will be lost.” Haoden Ye hurriedly made an explanation.

Hearing Haoden Ye say that, Lin Xiang finally stopped resisting, she quietly swallowed her saliva and started to take off her outer clothes.

Haoden Ye never dared to look at Lin Xiang, and only when he felt that his hardness should be almost enough did Haoden Ye slowly turn around.

With just one look, pitch black’s entire soul was lost.

The skin of the girl in front of him... was simply too white, just like snow, Haoden Ye compared the girls he had seen, and Lin Xiang’s white could directly be said to be number one.

Chapter 183

And needless to say, her body was simply as if carved from white jade, with perfect curves and almost impossible to find any flaws.

“Lie...lie down?” Lin Xiang’s heartbeat quickened a generation, and she only felt goosebumps rising all over her body, and her innocent body of over twenty years was the first to be seen by Haoden Ye.

It stayed for a while before she walked over to a couch and eased down.

The first thing that you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article.

It was unimaginable that a normal-looking girl like Lin Xiang could have such a ridiculously good body and skin.

It was almost by sheer willpower that he managed to keep his hands from trembling!

One hand dragged the ointment with it, and the other began to spread it evenly over Lin Xiang with a spoon.

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good understanding of the situation and that you are aware of the situation.

There was no doubt that the treatment had been an ordeal for both of them, and it was good to see that after applying the ointment, Lin Qi's back cover was almost covered.

Haoden Ye tried not to look at the squeezed shape of his chest as he got down and began to acupuncture Lin cheng, the whole process of acupuncture was very tedious.

At first, Haoden Ye was unable to concentrate at all and almost made several mistakes, but after completing four or five stitches, Haoden Ye gradually began to calm down and became more focused on sticking the needle for Lin Qi.

An hour later, all the treatment was over, and Haoden Ye slowly relieved himself and said to Lin Xiang, "Alright, this treatment is almost complete, you lie here for a while, I'll go out first!" After saying that Haoden Ye left the ward as if fleeing.

After Haoden Ye left, Lin Xiang took a long, empty breath and didn't dare to take a breath when she was being treated, but there was only one person left in the room, so Lin Xiang was proud to relieve her tension.

After spitting out, Lin Xiang gradually felt as if his body had lost all its strength all of a sudden, lying limply on the sofa.

I don't know if it was the effect of the treatment or if it was a psychological effect, but Lin Xiang felt his rear blanket warm and hot, as if it had been gently stroked by a hand, and it was very comfortable.

"He's just seen it all!" A voice suddenly sounded in Lin Yao's head.

As an actress, she was no stranger to the affairs of men and women, but she didn't really have the opportunity to practice, and it was hard for her to imagine that the innocent body she had kept for over twenty years was all shown to Haoden Ye today.

"He's actually not bad, and his future achievements may not be as good as yours, so maybe he's the man of your destiny!" A sudden thought occurred to Lin Yi that made her cheerful body tremble a little!

"To die, how could you think like that, Lin Yu Mo, remember, you're a big sister of the Lin family, your future husband must not be a mediocre person like him!" Lin cheerfully clenched his fist as if swearing an oath to himself with great conviction.

Haoden Ye looked at the pharmacy for a while, and the image of Lin Cheng still lingered in his mind.

He was beginning to wonder if he was still a virgin, so he would react so much to seeing a woman's body for the first time, and in his mind's eye, Lin Xiang's petite body was so beautiful that he could barely look at it.

While thinking about it, suddenly the phone ringing, Haoden Ye pulled out a postscript and found that it was Jiao Yuchun's number.

"Mr. Yeh, I'm so sorry, I'm going to have to trouble you if I've just made a promise!" Jiao Yuchun's voice was very urgent.

For rescuing people, Haoden Ye didn't have any hesitation, and hurriedly put down the tangle in his heart and hurriedly said, "I'll go over right away!"

Hanging up the phone, Haoden Ye went upstairs to tell Lin cheerful that he was leaving, but when he entered the door he saw Lin cheerful getting dressed, and Haoden Ye was stunned.

He saw a girl with an incredibly beautiful face in the room, but with the figure of a forest cheerleader.

The girl was also shocked and quickly turned around, coquettishly saying, "Why did you come in without knocking!"

Everything happened so fast, Haoden Ye thought he was mistaken, and didn't dwell on the matter, but said, "Something happened at the Spiritual Medicine Hall, I'm going over there, you take care of the medicine store!"

"Well!" Lin Xiang won a cry, and only then did Haoden Ye hurried down the stairs and left.

Only when the sound of footsteps disappeared did Lin Xiang slowly turn around while letting out a long breath.

At this time, she regained her beautiful face that was loved by thousands of people, just like the beautiful Chang'e who was falling in the Moon Palace.

"What's going on, but how is it more frightening than having him see your face than your body?"

Not to mention the situation here, Haoden Ye hurried to the Spiritual Medicine Hall, where Jiao Yuchun was already waiting at the door.

"What's the patient's condition?" Haoden Ye couldn't care about the pleasantries and immediately started asking questions.

“The patient is 45 years old, male, a construction site worker, came in with abdominal pain only, our doctor diagnosed him with abdominal pain and finally internal colic, I made a preliminary diagnosis, except for the patient’s abdomen area swelling, did not find him abnormal .....Oh, the patient’s pulse is also disturbed, but it can be attributed to pain causing it!”

Jiao Yuchun was not long-winded and quickly spoke about the condition.

Hearing him finish, Haoden Ye’s eyebrows furrowed, Jiao Yuchun was no ordinary doctor, that was Professor Hua’s senior apprentice, his diagnosis could be taken as the final ruling of many hospitals, but even he couldn’t diagnose anything wrong, obviously this patient’s condition wasn’t ordinary yet.

The two arrived inside the patient’s ward, just inside the door to hear a clear pleading voice: “Doctor, you must save my father!No matter how much the words, our family is willing to pay!”

“Rei, it’s not that we don’t want to save your dad, it’s just that we can’t find out what’s wrong right now!”A gentle voice advised, “Don’t worry about it yet, our Professor Hua’s senior apprentice has already gone to invite a very clever Chinese medicine practitioner over!”

“If you can’t see him in your hospital, then send him to a big hospital, why are you leaving my husband in your hospital?”Then there was a shrill woman’s voice.

“Ms. Li Chunxue, we’ve contacted the doctors at the central hospital, but your husband can’t move at all right now, and if he moves his abdomen a little, he’ll have cramps in his eyes again, and there will be bumps along the way, so I’m afraid your husband won’t make it to the central hospital!”That gentle voice continued to explain.

Two people had already entered the door, and in the eye was the Vice President of the Spiritual Medicine Hall, who was now trying to explain something to a mother and daughter.

Chapter 184

The mother and daughter were both melon-faced, the mother looked to be in her early forties, with a pair of phoenix eyes, her face full of vicissitudes and shrewdness, her skin dark and cracked, obviously from constant exposure to the wind and sun, and her hands thick and thick, obviously having done manual labor as well.

But it was vaguely clear that she must have been a good-looking woman in her youth.

As for the girl who was only fifteen or sixteen, wearing a wrinkled, but very cleanly washed school uniform, she looked somewhat similar to her mother, pretty with a bit of gentleness in her appearance.

Her face was less vicarious and more juvenile, and her large beautiful eyes were red with circles that were obviously freshly cried.

As soon as she saw the two people enter, the young girl's eyes immediately turned this way, and when she saw Haoden Ye her gaze only hurriedly passed by, eventually landing on Jiao Yuchun.

"You must be Dr. Jiao, please save my dad!" Without saying a word, the girl quickly reached Jiao Yuchun and pulled him by the arm and cried out.

"Why are you crying! Your father had no problems, pulled their hospital has not yet begun to see such a big problem, must be related to their hospital, now they even send away your father do not dare, but also said there is no problem, I tell you, if my man is in trouble in your place, I and your hospital every end!" The woman, however, was not so polite and spoke sourly.

“Ms. Li Chunxue, what do you mean by that, who doesn’t know about our Spirit Medicine Hall’s reputation, when have we ever harmed anyone, what exactly is your man’s condition, there isn’t a diagnosis yet, but I can assure you that it has nothing to do with our hospital!”The Vice President was not happy to hear that.

When he saw Haoden Ye coming, he felt confident and spoke less politely than just now.

“Mom!Just cut the crap and let someone’s doctor take a look at Dad before you say anything!”Xiao Li was sensible, though, and was busy turning back to her mother, then said to Jiao Yuchun, “Doctor Jiao, where is the divine doctor you hired?”

This Rei originally looked good, especially that young girl’s childish innocence was even more likeable, and with the pearly whites at this time, it was almost impossible for every man to resist her pleas.

Jiao Yuchun didn’t hesitate and quickly pointed at Haoden Ye, “This is the divine doctor I was talking about!”

Rei’s gaze swept over Haoden Ye again, and the anticipation in her eyes disappeared, even as her trust in Jiao Yuchun seemed to have vanished.

“What!You made us wait so long to find this thing!”As soon as Li Chunxue saw that Jiao Yuchun had invited Haoden Ye, she became furious and pointed at Haoden Ye, “You didn’t get a temporary worker to take on the responsibility, did you, where does he look like a doctor?”

Jiao Yuchun frowned at this, not that he was angry that Li Chunxue had wronged him, but he was angry for Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye was, after all, the one he had invited, and he felt ashamed to be so accused by his patients.

The vice-president also had a slight change of complexion, Haoden Ye's medical skills were very clear to him, even Professor Hua admired him, such a young man with great medical skills must be unhappy to be accused so much, if he got angry and Professor Hua heard about it later, he would be in trouble.

He quickly scraped his head to say two nice things to make Haoden Ye calm down, not wanting Haoden Ye to speak first.

"Sister-in-law, don't worry, I'm not a temp, you'll find out later!" Haoden Ye's face was kind, his tone was very gentle, and his tone was different from that of doctors like Jiao Yuchun and the vice president, but it was like chatting between rural folks.

This tone of speech clearly drew him closer to Li Chunxue, who no longer put up an aggressive front, but snorted, "It's fine for you to treat my man, but if something goes wrong, you'll be responsible!"

Although Xiao Li didn't trust Haoden Ye, but at this point she had no second choice but to remain silent.

Haoden Ye walked to the bed and observed the patient for a while first.

The symptoms described by Jiao Yuchun were basically consistent with Haoden Ye's observations as well, and Haoden Ye began to examine the patient's pulse again, carefully observing a few symptoms.

When he made his diagnosis, several people in the ward stared at him, especially the young girl, Rei, whose big beautiful eyes were filled with tension and anticipation inside.

Outside the ward, there were also some people gathered at this time, these were all doctors from the hospital, they had all heard of Haoden Ye's name and came over to see this young man that even Dr. Jiao had to respect so much.

It was less than two minutes later that Haoden Ye stopped diagnosing, slowly stood up, and said to Jiao Yuchun, "I've basically confirmed the condition!"

Upon hearing this, several people inside the ward showed joy, however, Haoden Ye's words soon caused everyone to fall silent.

"It's just that this patient is not in very good shape and may need an amputation!" Haoden Ye took a look at the person on the bed and sighed slightly.

"What!" Li Chunxue became furious at this and glared at Haoden Ye, "You're a liar, I'm obviously injured in my abdomen, why would I need to amputate my leg, you're simply a liar!"

Don't tell her, even the doctors in the ward and outside the ward couldn't believe how the withdrawal tract amputation came up when it was clearly a symptom of the abdomen.

Even Jiao Yuchun revealed a confused look, but he didn't question it, instead he looked at Haoden Ye in confusion and waited for him to explain.

As for the young girl, Xiao Li, she had already despaired of Haoden Ye and was beginning to think that Haoden Ye was here to take responsibility.

"This lady, if my diagnosis is correct, this big brother's initial symptom wasn't abdominal distension, but rather severe pain in his inner thighs, right!" Haoden Ye didn't panic and turned his head to look at Li Chunxue.

Li Chunxue turned slightly pale and hurriedly said, "How do I know if he... if he fell off or not! You should ask someone at the construction site!"

Haoden Ye chuckled, not panicking, "This is not difficult, your clothes have changed, but looking at your injuries, you can see that you are working on the construction site again and in the same position as your husband, right?"

Li Chunxue was stunned at his words, she didn't expect Haoden Ye to even guess this, the momentum weakened a few points, stalked his neck: "What, I'm working with him on a construction site, so what? He didn't fall I saw it with my own eyes!"

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye said, "Auntie Li, your husband's illness is due to the fact that he fell and injured his leg, and there was another infarction inside the blood vessel of the leg thigh, and the sludge entered the circulation along the blood vessel and ended up staying in the abdomen, if you don't tell the truth, your husband's intestinal blood vessel will clot again with more sludge and end up losing his life as a result!"

Hearing Haoden Ye's words, Li Chunxue turned white, hesitated for a moment, and finally gritted her teeth and said, "His leg didn't fall, you don't need to scare me!"

Chapter 185

Jiao Yuchun and the vice president are smart people, when they saw her face change, they guessed the inside story, especially when they trusted Haoden Ye's medical skills.

"This Ms. Lee, you and the doctor can tell the truth, or you'll be sorry if something happens to your husband!" The Vice President hurried forward.

Li Chunxue's face became even whiter, took a look at her husband in the hospital bed, and then at her daughter, or a bite: "He just never fell, your hospital treated my husband, and when something went wrong, you pushed it on us!" After pointing at Haoden Ye, he said, "This person is a temporary worker, and your hospital is shirking its responsibility to the shirkers!"

The vice president's brow furrowed at the sound of his words, which were meant to rely on the hospital.

In fact, if Haoden Ye's diagnosis was true, this patient's situation was now very critical.

"Ms. Lee, I hope you'll be honest with us as to whether or not your husband had a fall!" The deputy director is a little angry, Li Chunmei is obviously trying to frame the hospital!

"You're lying, my husband didn't fall!" Li Chunxue still stood by her words.

The vice president frowned, now there are two paths in front of him, one is to treat the patient, so that the patient is well, but Li Chunxue will definitely rely on them, one is not to treat the patient, send the patient to the central hospital to wait for the diagnosis results, so that their hospital is safe, but the patient's life is in danger.

He and Jiao Yuchun believed Haoden Ye, but those doctors outside might not, and some of them had already started whispering.

"Is this Dr. Ye going to be okay or not, people's families have said that their legs haven't been broken, so why must he still change his family!"

"The Vice President is really believing the words of such a person, and even Dr. Jiao doesn't object!"

"Isn't he just showing his acupuncture skills, acupuncture is good, diagnosis may not be good..."

The vice president was now in a very difficult situation, turned his head to look at Jiao Yuchun, Jiao Yuchun's heart was also a battle between heaven and earth, if he started treating the patient, even if he was cured, Li Chunxue would wrongfully accuse the hospital, the hospital would have to bear not only the medical expenses, but also the loss of reputation.

"What the hell should we do?" Jiao Yuchun's face turned gloomy.

“Oh, don’t worry this auntie, your husband is a typical case, our hospital is willing to cover the medical expenses, just tell the truth!”Haoden Ye smiled gently at Li Chunxue.

Upon hearing that the hospital was willing to bear the medical expenses, Li Chunxue’s face clearly showed some hesitation, but she still quickly shook her head and said, “It’s because of your hospital, why does it have to be our patients!”

At this time Jiao Yuchun was furious and couldn’t help but say, “Even if you don’t admit it, when the Central Hospital people come to do the autopsy report later, they’ll still see what’s wrong!It’s no use wronging our hospital!”

“You hospitals are all colluding to try to bully us civilians, aren’t you?”As soon as Li Chunxue heard this, it was like a bucket of dynamite had been lit.

Rei could now see that something was wrong with her mother and hurried forward, “Mom!Just tell the truth, Dad’s life is at stake!”

Li Chunxue became furious and glared at her daughter, “You’re a money loser, you’re turning to someone else before you’re even married!Even your own mother doesn’t believe it!”

“There’s no need for Dr. Jiao to be anxious, since she won’t talk, I can make the patient anxious to talk!”Haoden Ye wasn’t in a hurry and smiled slightly at Doctor Jiao.

Hearing his words, the doctors outside and inside were stunned, and since Li Chunxue insisted on saying this, she was obviously in collusion with her husband.

That way the hospital would have to compensate her even if something happened to her husband.

Of course, that's what she thinks, but actually, if a patient dies, the central hospital can certify them.

Li Chunxue had a sneer on her face: "Hmph! Don't scare me, I'll see what you can do!" She thought Haoden Ye was just scaring her, how could her husband tell the truth?

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye pulled out a silver needle and quickly inserted it into the patient's head, but the patient's body convulsed violently and actually woke up.

"What have you done with my man?" At the sight of Li Chunxue, she jumped straight onto the patient and pushed Haoden Ye away in anger.

"I treat patients ah, unless you don't let me treat them, then it's not our hospital that's responsible if something happens to that patient!" Haoden Ye smiled with a righteous face.

Li Chunxue suffocated, if she refused Haoden Ye to treat her husband at this time, the hospital would directly put down the decision to quit, and she wouldn't be able to put the blame on the hospital if something happened to her husband.

"You...if you cure my husband, I'm not done with you!" Li Chunxue threatened without killing her, before getting up from the patient.

And then the patient had slowly opened his eyes, and there was a look of confusion in them.

Haoden Ye slowly attached himself to the patient and spoke in a gentle tone, "This patient, we made a diagnosis for you, and now we've determined that your calf may have been injured in a fall, please answer whether or not it has really been injured, otherwise we can't treat it!"

All eyes were focused on the patient's face, but they saw a dreamy look on the patient's face, dumbfounded, "A fall? I fell, just yesterday, but the foreman on the site doesn't care, my wife told me to come to the hospital, the hospital can't see anything wrong, my wife said I can't talk to the doctor about my leg, it's all on the hospital, or we don't have the money to pay the medical bills!"

Afterwards, he added, "Don't you ever tell anyone, Old Liu, I can trust you the most!"

Hearing his words, everyone stared at him, and Li Chunxue's face was filled with horror, almost suspecting that Haoden Ye was some kind of demon.

In fact, what Haoden Ye did was very simple, just stabbed the sleeping point at the root behind the patient's ear, this point can inhibit some functions of the human brain, making people feel like they are asleep even though they are awake.

Everyone's eyes were focused on Li Chunxue, and then Li Chunxue also came back to her, her eyes suddenly red, and a look of shame on her face.

"I'm sorry doctor, we really don't have the money to pay the medical bills ah, if my man's leg is sawed off, he won't be able to work, my daughter just got into high school, I can't let her not go to school ah!" The voice was filled with sadness.

Many of the doctors were just now outraged at why she wronged the hospital, but hearing her words, everyone understood compassion.

Jiao Yuchun's fury was gone, and he sighed when he saw how pitiful Li Chunxue was.

It is reasonable to say that if the family conditions are really difficult, the hospital can waive some of the medical fees, but they are a hospital, they can't just waive when they see a patient in bad condition, besides, Li

Chunxue's behavior just now was too much, the hospital should not consider a waiver.

Eyeing the young girl Xiao Li, Jiao Yuchun sighed again, he could also see that this girl was very smart, and if she studied well, her future achievements would not be small.

Chapter 186

“I'm so sorry, doctors!” Seeing that things had reached this point, Li Chunxue cried out with a wow, “My man fell and hurt himself, the people at the construction site aren't responsible, and there's nothing we can do about it!”

Xiao Li also looked very guilty when she heard that her mother had lied, but she was more worried about her father and walked up to Haoden Ye, “Divine Doctor! Please save my father, I'll do anything if you can save him!”

Many people were moved to compassion when they saw the two men in this state, but the hospital couldn't get over the thought of what the two men had done.

“Don't worry, I'll save your father!” Without hesitation, Haoden Ye smiled at the mother and daughter and said, “I've just done simple acupuncture for the patient, which can slow down the deterioration of his condition, but it's better to do the surgery as soon as possible, otherwise the bruising will enter the bloodstream again and his life will be in danger at any time!”

Upon hearing this, both mother and daughter put their hearts at ease, and Xiao Li turned to the vice president and pleaded, “Mr. President, my mother really did something wrong just now, could you please help us for the sake of the fact that she was also forced to do so?”

In the end, the vice president was old and used to such scenes, and said with a cold face, "I'm really sorry, if you just don't have the money, our hospital can reduce some of it, but what you just did was too much!"

Mother and daughter's faces instantly turned pale, and Li Chunxue gave a cry, her body slumping to the ground.

"Vice President, I'll pay for their medical bills, let's treat the patient first!" At this time, Haoden Ye's voice suddenly sounded.

Hearing his words, everyone turned pale, the mother and daughter had renewed hope and looked up at Haoden Ye gratefully, the vice president frowned, "Mr. Ye, just now she not only wronged us, but also tried to frame you, and you're still willing to help them?"

Although the heart is equally angry, Jiao Yuchun saw the mother and daughter, after all, still shook her head and sighed: "Vice President, their medication costs also count as my share, the hospital and give them some remission should save almost! We can't afford to see a doctor die!"

"Good people! You're all good people!" Li Chunxue saw the person who had just been wronged by her speak such words, ashamed and infinitely moved.

"Hey! Okay, but only this once, and if this happens again in the future, the hospital will simply refuse to treat it!" The Vice President grunted and turned to go out to prepare for surgery.

"Dr. Yeh, Dr. Jiao, thank you!" Xiao Li rubbed her reddened eyes and walked to Haoden Ye with gratitude.

That pretty face was pear-shaped, and I could see the gratitude inside a pair of big, teary eyes.

“The patient needs to be prepped for surgery now, so we’d better get out of here!” Haoden Ye smiled at Xiao Li and her daughter.

Mother and daughter nodded and everyone left the room.

Xiao Li still looked very worried, Haoden Ye spoke in a gentle and comforting tone, “Don’t worry, your father only has a necrotic blood vessel in his calf, there’s nothing wrong with the other organs, just amputate the leg and you’ll be fine!”

Rei nodded gently, but she still looked very lonely, and Li Chunxue’s face wasn’t too good either.

And Haoden Ye could tell that they weren’t sad because that patient needed an amputation, but had other reasons.

I was about to try to persuade him a little more, when all of a sudden there was a loud noise in the hallway.

“Where’s that idiot Li Laosan?” The voice was very vicious.

Turning his head, Haoden Ye saw seven or eight men with tough figures walking over here, led by one wearing a casual suit with a big back, and a brilliant gold chain hanging from his neck.

There were seven or eight people behind him, some in black T-shirts, some in black sweatshirts, none of them nice by the looks of it.

“Boss Zhang!” Upon seeing that person, Li Chunxue immediately stood up, a look of fear on her face.

“Huh? There you are!” Boss Zhang stepped forward, followed by the seven or eight men behind him, “Where’s your man? He smashed up our construction site, don’t you have to pay for it?”

Upon hearing his words, Li Chunxue's face went white and she lowered her head to apologize, "Boss Zhang, my man is having an operation right now, our family really can't afford to take out any money ah!"

At this time, a look of righteous indignation appeared on the face of Xiao Li on the side: "My father fell from the building, it's not because you are not willing to give him protective measures, and now my father is injured, you construction site is not responsible for it?"

"Bitch, don't you dare talk to me like that!" Boss Zhang's face sucked in a flash of light and took a vicious look at Xiao Li, but glancing at her beautiful face, the corner of his mouth revealed a wisp of a grin, "Your father's illegal operation, what does it have to do with us! I told you before he did this job, whoever has the guts to do it, whoever does it, your father has to be a hero, what do we care!"

Mr. Zhang said as a matter of course and whirled around with a smile, "You're sixteen this year, haven't you taken your exams yet? Do you want to come work for your uncle and I can use your wages to cover the debt!"

Rei's pretty face paled at the words and took a subconscious step back.

"Boss Zhang, you can't say that, my man agreed to go up there and work, but you also said you'd arrange protective measures for him, and you were greedy and didn't put him on the rope before he fell off!" Li Chunxue stepped forward to protect the woman, defending her with a sad face.

A wisp of vicious light flashed across Boss Zhang's face, and Boss Zhang sneered, "Li Chunxue, if you still want to hang around in Dan City, I advise you to keep your mouth shut! It was your man himself who tried to save trouble by not getting on the rope, but this matter has nothing to do with our site!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at the few people behind him, who were looking over at Li Chunxue with evil intent.

Haoden Ye has been next to the cold-eyed onlookers, also roughly guessed the matter, the heart can not help but a surge of anger, the Zhang boss is also too black, obviously their own fault but the fault is pushed to the workers do not say, but also think of people's daughter.

Seeing the fearful looks of mother and daughter, Boss Zhang suddenly reached out and grabbed Rei's arm, grunting, "Your father owes us money, you have to come with us, and if you don't pay up, you'll be working in my nightclub for now!"

"I'm not going!" Rei's pretty face turned white as she curled up and tried to duck backwards.

How could Boss Zhang pay any attention to what she meant, his arm pushed, and Rei's weaker figure was pulled over by him.

"Help, I'm not going with you!" Rei cried out in pain and tried to break away from Boss Zhang's hand.

The people around them all looked angry at this scene, but when they saw Boss Zhang and the gang behind him, no one dared to come forward to help.

Chapter 187

Li Chunxue saw her daughter being dragged away and rushed over, "Let go of my daughter, I'll fight with you!"

Two men immediately went forward to pull him, one of them sneered: "I advise you to be honest, Boss Zhang is interested in your daughter that is your good fortune, in exchange for being not paid back Boss Zhang can take the life of your family!”

“Hey hey, stinky girl, who dares meddle in other people’s business these days? Be good and come back with me, and you’ll be able to eat and drink a lot, no better than following your useless parents!” Boss Zhang smiled gloomily and had a look at Xiao Li’s teary-eyed pretty face.

Just at that moment, a voice rang out, “This gentleman, please let go of the girl!”

Boss Zhang’s figure paced, a fierce glint in his eyes, and when he turned his head, he saw a young man standing behind him, plainly dressed.

“Ouch, how dare some meddler!” Not only did Boss Zhang not feel anger at being obstructed, but he revealed a wisp of a racy smile and said, “Kid, mixed up in that way, even daring to meddle in your grandpa Zhang’s affairs!”

“I’m a doctor from the Spiritual Medicine Hall, and I’m the one responsible for treating Mr. Zhang’s illness!” Haoden Ye took a step forward, his face didn’t show the slightest sign of fear at the angry stare of a Boss Nei Zhang.

“Doctor? How dare a stinking doctor meddle in my affairs!” Boss Zhang laughed and his face looked even more emotional as he looked at one of his men and said, “Clean up this brother!”

That guy of his was about one meter tall, with a fierce build, looking in stark contrast to Haoden Ye, his arms were basically as thick as Haoden Ye’s thighs, needless to say, with only one punch he could probably beat an ordinary person for three days to get out of bed.

The man sneered and stepped over to Haoden Ye.

“I advise you not to fight me, or we won’t have a doctor here to treat you if you get hurt!”Watching the man walk over, Haoden Ye said faintly.

Hearing him say this, not only Boss Zhang and his men, but also the surrounding onlookers couldn’t help but laugh.

Looking at the two bodies, it was almost as if Haoden Ye could take a punch from that man, and that man even laughed and pointed at Haoden Ye, “Are you trying to laugh me to death?You can also occasionally last a minute in my hands, and I’ll take your last name!”

A bunch of punks also laughed, but at this moment, they saw Haoden Ye’s shadow flash and arrive in front of that person in an instant, then a punching gun hit that person in the abdomen.

Everything was too fast for anyone to see what was going on, and by the time someone sensed it, the man had fallen to the ground with his abdomen covered and his face looking like he was in pain.

“Ah!”After taking two breaths, the man cried out in pain.

Everyone in the entire corridor was dumbfounded, countless pairs of eyes dumbfoundedly looking at Haoden Ye, who didn’t know what had just happened.

Boss Zhang also viewed it, and with a release of strength in his hand, Xiao Li escaped from his clutches and ran to hide behind Haoden Ye.

“Boy, listen can you fight!”The smile on Boss Zhang’s face receded, finally revealing a fierce glint!

“Overkill, just a few days of practice!”Haoden Ye replied back with a light-hearted smile, then said, “This brother of yours was injured internally by my punch, he probably won't be able to get out of bed this month, I could have treated him, but... I'm not in the mood!"

Hearing his words, everyone in the room once again turned pale, some looking suspicious, how could one punch hurt someone's internal organs in a big way? Some were surprised, what Haoden Ye said was clearly an internal skill from a martial arts novel!

Boss Zhang's face also changed and he lowered his head to look at his men, a touch of fear flashed in his eyes, but he soon revealed a fierce look, "Kid, if you have the guts to tell me your name, I'll be back to settle the score with you for today's incident!"

"Oh, it's nothing to tell you, I'm Haoden Ye, I run a pharmacy on Phoenix Street!" Haoden Ye smiled slightly.

"Yes! You've got balls, we'll see!" Boss Zhang snorted coldly and glanced fiercely at Xiao Li and Li Chunxue, stepping forward to walk out, but as soon as he stepped out of the two sections, he heard Haoden Ye's voice behind him ring out again.

"Slow down! It's not as if we're done yet!" Haoden Ye sneered and spoke loudly to Boss Zhang's back.

Boss Zhang turned around and looked at Haoden Ye, his voice hinting at a fearfulness, "What? I've let you go, what more do you want?"

"I'm afraid it's not whether you're going to leave us alone today, but whether we're going to leave you alone!" Haoden Ye snorted, "Xiao Li's father was injured in a fall at your construction site, you as the boss always have to pay for it!"

"Haha!" Upon hearing this, Boss Zhang burst out laughing and pointed at Haoden Ye, "Kid, you've got guts!" Saying that, his smile gradually became grim, “I already told you, it was his father who didn’t follow the rules of the construction site, he had to do the high-risk construction himself, what do we care?”

“What do you think I am, a child? You’ve been fooled by two words?” Haoden Ye sneered, “Since it’s a high-risk operation, will there be no supervision at your construction site? Someone is not following the rules, what are you site supervisors doing? If you don’t, you’re in violation of state regulations and you’re still paying for it!”

Haoden Ye’s legal knowledge wasn’t much, but some basic legal common sense was there.

Construction on the site, if it is a high-risk job, there must be special supervision, it is impossible to let the workers work freely, and the country’s laws for this area is also relatively simple violence, as long as something goes wrong, the site is responsible!

Naturally, Mr. Zhang also knows the law, but he bullies Xiao Li and Li Chun Xue for not knowing the law, and uses that to put them off.

Not to mention the two of them, even the workers at the construction site rarely knew the legal requirements in this area.

“Of course we have oversight, but what does it matter to us if he, Lee, insists on doing it secretly without following the rules!” Boss Zhang saw that Haoden Ye was actually an understanding person and started to make strong arguments.

The workers on the construction site have to listen to him anyway, and what he says is evidence of that.

“Sneaky construction? You can lie to the kids, but the court will believe you. If that’s the case, the courts could be looking at your company’s tool management problems!”Haoden Ye shrugged, “It won’t be a problem that can be solved by losing money when the time comes!”

Boss Zhang was refuted by Haoden Ye for several reasons in a row, and was also enraged, staring at Haoden Ye viciously, “Kid, you’re really planning to get into this mess, aren’t you?”

In the end, he is a social mix, vicious look really afraid of people, Xiao Li mother and daughter two people see his vicious look, frightened of the head are lowered.

Chapter 188

“Get this kid dead for me! I’m responsible for anything that goes wrong!”Boss Zhang looked at Haoden Ye with a fierce look and gritted his teeth.

Although the few people standing behind him feared Haoden Ye, they didn’t dare to disobey Boss Zhang’s wishes and jerked their sleeves over.

Haoden Ye glanced at the man lying on the ground and shook his head and sighed, “Do you all want to be like him? Don’t want to ask him how he feels now?”

Those people took a look at the person lying on the ground and their pace faltered for a moment, but they soon continued to walk over to Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye shook his head and sighed, it’s not going to work today, he was about to fight back when he heard Jiao Yuchun’s voice behind him angrily say, “This is the Hall of Spiritual Medicine, I’ll see who dares to hit someone!”

An angry shout made several people stop again and turn their heads to look over at Boss Zhang.

When Boss Zhang saw Jiao Yuchun coming, his fierce look couldn't help but reduce a bit, in his eyes, Haoden Ye was just an ordinary doctor of the Spiritual Medicine Hall, beaten up as he pleased, but Jiao Yuchun was not an ordinary person, he couldn't afford to offend.

"Dr. Jiao, your hospital doctor is too much in charge of things, and he wants to be in charge of everything on our construction site!" Boss Zhang raised his head and looked at Jiao Yuchun with an angry face, which looked as if he had been wronged.

Jiao Yuchun was a very smart person, and knew what was going on at a glance, and her gaze hurriedly swept Haoden Ye, her eyes showing some grumbling as if to say, "Do you know this family, and are you guilty of offending people for them?"

Sighing in his heart, Jiao Yuchun snorted, "I don't care what he's done, since he's a doctor of our Spiritual Medicine Hall, I have to ensure his safety, you rushed to try your hand at our hospital?"

Boss Zhang had a furious look on his face and said with righteous indignation, "Do you still have a king's law, even if you are good at medicine, you can be so arrogant? Believe it or not I'll expose you to the media!"

Nowadays, the power of the media is very strong in the developed network technology, and for a place that values its reputation, Spirit Medicine Hall certainly does not want any negative reports in the media.

For a time, Jiao Yuchun couldn't help but hesitate, of course with his connections, it would be simple to settle this matter, but as soon as one media outlet reported the negative news about their Spiritual Medicine Hall, this matter would be infinitely magnified!

And even if a foreman like Boss Zhang was reported, he would find someone at random to take the blame, lay low for a while, and the matter would be resolved.

“Hey, are you scared? I’m not an unreasonable person, so let this doctor of yours apologize to me and then tell him to stay out of our construction site affairs or else...hmmm! I have quite a few media friends in the city again, and a little bit of coverage would be a very hit loss for your Spiritual Medicine Hall, right!”

Seeing Jiao Yuchun’s hesitant look, Boss Zhang’s look became even more arrogant.

“Yes! You can just report on it, and by the way, let the media report on Mr. Lee, so that everyone knows how safe your construction site is!” When Haoden Ye saw Boss Zhang’s arrogant face, it really looked like he was punching him hard.

“Hey! We have no responsibility for the site, it’s not up to the court to decide, I’m rich and can afford to hire a lawyer, how much money do you kid have, what kind of lawyer can you hire?” Boss Zhang naturally wasn’t afraid, as long as there was money these days, black could be described as white, how much money could a small doctor like Haoden Ye have, and what kind of doctor did he hire?

However, Haoden Ye’s next sentence left him dumbfounded.

“Is it okay if Hong Kim, the lawyer?” Haoden Ye looked at him coldly and faintly.

“Lawyer Kim?” Boss Zhang’s eyes widened and whirled around with a laugh that echoed inside the corridor, “Even you can hire the Hong’s lawyer? How much money do you have?”

He said, suddenly taking out a wad of bills from his bag and shifting them in mid-air, “See, real gold and silver, you have the guts to measure it out for everyone to see too?”

Shrugging his shoulders, Haoden Ye said indifferently, “I don’t have any money!”

Hearing this, those who were still holding a slight hope for Haoden Ye also shook their heads up, if you are really rich, it’s fine to say such big words, without a penny who will give you help?

Even for someone like Jiao Yuchun, if he wanted to hire Lawyer Jin, he couldn’t do it without money!

In the midst of everyone’s disappointed eyes, Haoden Ye slowly took out his cell phone and dialed a number: “Lawyer Jin, this is Haoden Ye, I have a case here for your help... Well, you are free to come over now, I’ll be at the Hall of Elixir, the defense fee is one million.....No money of course not, this million is what I insisted on giving you... well, then I’m grateful for your kindness!”

After saying this, Haoden Ye hung up the phone and said to Boss Zhang, “My lawyer will be here in twenty minutes, where is your lawyer?”

Of course Boss Zhang won’t believe that Haoden Ye really can hire the Holander’s group’s lawyer, sneered and took out his phone, but it was the latest model of love crazy 8, he was very arrogant to the phone: “Hey, old Sun, give me a trip, I have a case here, within ten minutes, you must give me to the spiritual medicine hall!”

Haoden Ye's tone was very humble when he just called the lawyer, while he made an arrogant face, looking as if he was much more powerful than Haoden Ye.

Ignoring Lawyer Zhang, Haoden Ye had turned to Xiao Li, "Are you okay!"

Xiao Li obviously did not believe that the lawyer Haoden Ye hired had Boss Zhang strong, but he could help himself to here, he was already satisfied, at least in the face of Haoden Ye, Boss Zhang did not dare to do anything to her.

"I'm fine!" Xiao Li felt a handful of tears and said, "Thank you, Dr. Ye, I've met you by accident, my mother just did that to you and you're still so nice to us!"

Haoden Ye smiled gently and shook his head, "Oh, I'm helping you because I'm not used to this Boss Zhang, if you really want to be grateful to me, study hard and come work in my pharmacy after you graduate from college!"

Rei immediately nodded vigorously at his words.

At this time, Li Chunxue also came over with a worried face and whispered, "Doctor Ye! Boss Zhang is very rich, his lawyer must be very good, I think you should leave this matter alone, we don't want this money, I'll lend the money to my relatives and return it to them!"

This woman was obviously used to being bullied, and she didn't even put up any resistance at all when she saw someone like Boss Zhang.

Haoden Ye very resolutely shook his head and said, "It's okay if I don't make a move, but once I do, this matter is no longer your business, and today I must make this Boss Zhang pay for his actions! You guys go rest in the ward first, just leave things here to me!”

Chapter 189

Mother and daughter to walk, Jiao Yuchun went to Haoden Ye in front of him, bitterly smiled, “I said Brother Ye, this kind of thing you also control, will not be fancy that girl, people only sixteen, do you have any human nature at all ah!”

Haoden Ye almost didn’t punch him down as well, and said in a no-nonsense manner, “What are you thinking, I can’t stand to see someone’s mother and daughter being bullied!”

Shrugging his shoulders, Jiao Yuchun looked depressed, “Hey! This matter has been linked to our Spiritual Medicine Church, if your lawyer can’t do it, I’ll try to help you think of a way, I can hire a lawyer, but the lawyer’s fee is quite a lot, and this money will be deducted from your medical fees!”

Haoden Ye committed a white eye, thinking you’re too black-hearted, but he didn’t say much, if Lawyer Jin can’t do it, I guess the lawyer Jiao Yuchun hired won’t work either.

Jiao Yuchun said here and suddenly said, “Right, I just asked over at the Central Hospital, they recently introduced a batch of heart equipment, if we can control Mr. Li’s condition and make him last until the Central Hospital, we might not have to amputate his leg!”

Haoden Ye was delighted to hear this, as the only laborer in the family, losing a leg was undoubtedly a very big blow to Xiao Li’s father.

The two men forgot about the present for a moment and began to discuss the condition.

It was said to be a discussion, but it was actually Haoden Ye explaining to Jiao Yuchun the way to control Mr. Li's condition, he was busy with something now, and it would be Jiao Yuchun who would be treating him later.

It was easy to explain, and a ticking sound was heard.

In the corridor, a young man in his early thirties, dressed in a suit, quite handsome, with a spotless body and shiny shoes on his feet, walked on the floor making a crisp ticking sound.

"Boss Zhang, I'm pretty quick, aren't I?" The young man walked up to Boss Zhang, a professional smile on his face to.

As soon as they saw his appearance, those who had a few expectations of Haoden Ye also lost their confidence completely, looking at the lawyer's temperament, they knew that he must be very powerful.

"Well, not bad!" Boss Zhang had sensed the fearful gazes coming from the four corners of the room and looked smug, "Lawyer Sun, you've heard about Old Li, now someone wants to hold us accountable on the site, you help me settle it!"

Lawyer Sun was startled by the news, and looked at Boss Zhang strangely: "Boss Zhang, that matter you only need to compensate a 300,000 to 500,000 to solve it, why invite me, this matter you site must bear some responsibility!"

He spoke very quietly, not worrying about anyone else hearing him.

Boss Zhang was not happy to hear that and snorted, "If I want to take responsibility, what else do I need you for? I'll give you half a million dollars if you level this thing!" Boss Zhang snorted coldly and cast his gaze viciously towards Haoden Ye.

Today he wasn't just going to settle this matter, but also make Haoden Ye understand that there was no benefit to fighting him!

Although in his eyes, Haoden Ye was just an ordinary doctor, but this feeling of crushing people, Boss Zhang liked it very much.

Shrugging his shoulders, Lawyer Sun revealed an amused look, Boss Zhang this kind of rich people's mentality he also understands a little bit, for this kind of psychology, he not only does not oppose, but very much likes it.

If they didn't have this kind of injustice, how would they make money as lawyers?

With a professional and serious look gradually appearing on his face, Lawyer Sun walked over to Haoden Ye, "You must be Dr. Ye, I'm Boss Zhang's lawyer, may I ask where Mr. Li's family is in this matter!"

The situation on Haoden Ye's side, he had already learned about it from Boss Zhang.

"The family has entrusted me with the matter, just talk to me!" Haoden Ye knew that the other party was not good, but still didn't allow Rei's mother and daughter to participate.

"Well, then, I'll give you a full rundown of the situation!" Sun lawyer reveals a confident smile: "First of all, I want to make sure with you, this Mr. Lee accident, mainly because of his own improper operation, did not take safety measures, to the court, the judge will first consider Mr. Lee's own responsibility."

No matter what the content of what he said, first of all, when he said this, the momentum was very strong, giving a strong pressure, if it was an honest person like Xiao Li mother and daughter, just based on this sentence alone will show cowardice.

Rao Haoden Ye, a grown man, couldn't help but be oppressed and frowned.

See Haoden Ye performance, Sun lawyer corner of the mouth a wisp of undetectable smug smile, then: "Secondly, involving our responsibility on the site, our boss Zhang has sufficient reasons to exempt, because this thing is Mr. Li asked to do, equal to him voluntarily bear the main responsibility, and we have also done the site to persuade him to work safely responsibility!"

Lawyer Sun had thought that this speech, Haoden Ye at least to show hesitation, began to consider this matter into the law or not necessary.

After all, it costs them money for lawyers and lawsuits once liability on the site is minimized, and they can easily change their minds once the compensation is disproportionate to the money spent on litigation.

That's what makes Attorney Sun so powerful, you don't have to go to court to get things done.

Unexpectedly, once he said this very well-founded word, not only did Haoden Ye not look hesitant, but he showed a sneer and said, "Lawyer Sun, do you want to negotiate with me?"

Lawyer Sun was shocked at the news and thought to himself that this kid was not easy to deal with.

A powerful man like Boss Zhang, once he has the upper hand, is unlikely to be allowed to negotiate with him, they will negotiate a settlement, it must be because they are legally weak again.

“Well, Dr. Yap, I’m only talking to you for the sake of your representation of the two ladies, so please be serious!” Lawyer Sun’s look was suddenly stern and he looked at Haoden Ye angrily, “Mr. Li violated the site rules and has already caused damage to the site, and now the site is suspended and rectified because of him, because he fell and made the site suffer huge losses, do you know how much these losses are?”

General people were so frightened by him, will be afraid, and the beginning of Haoden Ye face is still very calm, of course, Sun lawyer does not expect a word to scare Haoden Ye, sneered: “Mr. Li can of course sue us, the site is also willing to take some responsibility, but our boss Zhang will also sue Mr. Li, let him compensate us for site losses, these losses add up to the bonus! Four million!”

At this point, he smiled coldly and said, “I am now officially informing you that Boss Zhang is suing Mr. Li for four million dollars in damages to our site!”

What exactly was lost on the construction site, Boss Zhang naturally said what he was going to say, he was going to say four million, and Attorney Sun would definitely be able to gather four million of what he had to offer and prepare sufficient evidence.
