

The Best Son in Law Chapter 200 – 209

Chapter 200

When she came out of the compartment, Maya Shen actually still had a hint of an awkwardness in her heart.

Although Haoden Ye's actions touched her, the thought of that woman sitting on Haoden Ye's lap made her feel faint.

However, after getting angry, she started to rethink, what happened today, was it all Haoden Ye's fault?

Thinking about it, Maya Shen decided to be more proactive, and that's why there was that scene earlier.

She was a girl in the end, taking the initiative to do this kind of thing, her heart was naturally also very nervous, for Haoden Ye this was the first kiss, for her what is not, Maya Shen could only use her eyes to suggest Haoden Ye, but unfortunately Haoden Ye had been worried, and did not take any action.

Nervous, coupled with shyness, Maya Shen was completely helpless at this time, and after a half day of stalemate could only have the audacity to give Haoden Ye some more hints.

The action just now, even if it was a clear request for a kiss, how could Haoden Ye not understand?

However, Haoden Ye's reaction disappointed her!

Of course she didn't know that Haoden Ye had sensed something unusual and thought that Haoden Ye was just being cowardly.

Disappointed to get into the car, Maya Shen was very sad, she had obviously hinted so much, why was Haoden Ye still so cowardly?

Turning her head to look at her husband, but seeing that he was now also looking at her with concern, Maya Shen's heart suddenly felt warm.

"I've always been mean to him before, maybe he's got a shadow on his mind, we've got a lot of time, I'll just give him another chance!" Making a decision in her mind, Maya Shen regained her confidence.

She had a lifetime to spend with this man!

Thinking of this, Maya Shen smiled gently at Haoden Ye and said, "Haoden Ye, let's make a promise!"

Haoden Ye just noticed something unusual, but when he turned his head to look again, he didn't find anything, and he began to wonder, his heart was worried about Maya Shen, so he turned his head to observe if there was anything unusual about Maya Shen.

Hearing her words, Haoden Ye quickly nodded and said, "Well, you say!"

"Later...when I no longer punish you for sleeping on the couch or the floor, you have to promise me one thing, and that is that you have to be home by ten o'clock at night from now on!" Maya Shen lowered her head, a slight blush on her pretty face.

That's like saying that they're both going to sleep in the same bed from now on, and every night!

"Huh?" Haoden Ye was dumbfounded, not expecting Maya Shen to make such a promise without saying what had just happened or asking what she was doing in the Imperial Clubhouse: "Good! I will keep my promise!"

“Well!” Maya Shen smiled sweetly, then turned her head and said, “Let’s go home, honey!”

A husband, screaming Haoden Ye’s body was full of power!

Happiness! Simply too happy, Haoden Ye was so excited that tears were coming out of his eyes, he even started the car and pressed the gas pedal hard.

Inside the dark parking lot, a figure slowly emerged from behind a pillar, a sneer on his lips.

Suddenly, the shadow shook all over and spat out a mouthful of blood!

“Hehe, it finally worked, maybe the spell is too strong, it didn’t even backfire in the slightest, Haoden Ye, you’re dead!” The bald man’s voice was weak, then his body went limp and he slowly fell to the ground!

The car in the city on the road fast forward, Haoden Ye while focusing on driving, the eyes are not looking at the side of the closed eyes resting Maya Shen.

“Hey, I’ll make good money from now on to keep Maya from working so hard, she must have been accompanying clients and drinking so much!”

Haoden Ye thought to himself, suddenly his cell phone rang, Haoden Ye pulled out his cell phone, but he saw that it was Lawyer Jin’s number.

With a smile in his heart, Haoden Ye guessed that Lawyer Jin should be worried about himself, and quickly pressed the answer key, and the anxious voice of Lawyer Jin immediately came from the other end of the phone: “Mr. Ye, where are you now!”

“What’s wrong?” Haoden Ye heard that his voice wasn’t right and quickly said.

“Mr. Holander, and Simen has just suddenly fainted, and is now unconscious, you quickly...” lawyer Jin’s voice was urgent, but not waiting for him to finish, Haoden Ye suddenly had a sudden chill in his heart.

Then everything in front of him began to go black, and his hands grew disobedient, and his feet began to push, and he drove the car so fast!

Although Maya Shen’s eyes were closed, she wasn’t asleep, just resting her mind. When she felt the speed of the car accelerate, Maya Shen subconsciously opened her eyes to look over at Haoden Ye, but she saw that Haoden Ye’s face was white and his body was trembling violently.

“Haoden Ye! What’s wrong with you?” Maya Shen’s voice asked urgently.

“An...seat belt!” Haoden Ye stared at Maya Shen with a pair of dead eyes, as if he was using all his strength to spit out a few words from his mouth.

Maya Shen just realized that her seatbelt wasn’t fastened!

Hastily fastening her seat belt, Maya Shen anxiously said to Haoden Ye, “What’s wrong with you? Hurry up and stop!”

As soon as the words died down, a siren sounded and Maya Shen looked up to see a bright truck quickly crashing over!

The speed of the lorry wasn’t fast, but their car was very fast, and Maya Shen instantly went pale underneath!

The sound of the siren was becoming more and more urgent, and Haoden Ye’s heart was also anxious, but it was good that he was also quick to react, and hurriedly looked inside his dantian and began to make a wish, “Let my body be free again!”

Soon, the two orange bubbles inside the dantian disappeared, and Haoden Ye's body finally regained control, but it was already over by this time, the truck had already reached the front, so even if the brakes were applied, it would be too late.

Despair welled up in Haoden Ye's heart, which suddenly recalled Maya Shen!

He was busy unbuckling his seatbelt, jumping up from his seat and using his body to protect Maya Shen!

"Haoden Ye!" Maya Shen's eyes burst into tears as she saw Haoden Ye's actions!

Boom! A roar, the two cars collided, good quality Maybach, so under the impact, the deformation is not even very eyes, but because the truck inertia is large, the car was still directly knocked out!

The airbag also popped out, although it slowed down the impact to some extent, the force was still not small, her delicate body heavily loaded on Haoden Ye's body, which was not thrown out of the car, but Haoden Ye was not so lucky.

He did not have a seatbelt fixed, the body inertia is also very large, plus such a building, the whole person directly from the car from the front of the fly out!

Maya Shen watched Haoden Ye's figure quickly move away and tried to reach out to pull him out, but her body was immobilized by the airbag and she couldn't move at all!

"Haoden Ye!" Maya Shen let out a cry of sorrow, and then the car crashed heavily into the guardrail of the road!

The car finally came to a stop, and Maya Shen nijaed severe pain and hurriedly got out of the car, stumbling over to Haoden Ye's direction.

In the distance, Haoden Ye was passed out on the ground, unmoving!

“Haoden Ye!Haoden Ye!”Maya Shen’s voice was hoarse, her face filled with tears, and her delicate body threw itself on top of Haoden Ye, rushing to test his nose.

Chapter 201

Breathing there is still, but very faint, Maya Shen heart pain, quickly dialed 120, then hugged Haoden Ye and shouted: “Quick someone, quick someone to save my husband!”

A cab passed by and saw this side of the situation and hurriedly stopped, sending Maya Shen, Haoden Ye and the truck driver to the car together and quickly headed to the hospital.

Inside the central hospital, President Li looked at Simen Holander and Zyden on the hospital bed, his face very anxious.

“Where’s Mr. Yap?It hasn’t come yet?”Seeing a little nurse walk in, Dean Lee rushed in.

“Lawyer Kim called Mr. Yeh when Mr. Yeh’s phone hung up abruptly and Mr. Kim has now driven to Mr. Yeh!”The little nurse hurried.

Dean Lee’s brow immediately furrowed and waved the little nurse away, pacing back and forth across the room with his hands behind his back.

“Dean Lee, when the hell are you going to start treating our president!”A few shareholders of Holander’s Group were also inside the hospital room, looking at the anxious-looking President Li who asked anxiously.

“Hold on guys, our hospital hasn’t checked out what’s wrong with Mr. Holander yet, and we have to wait for an experienced doctor to come over!” Dean Lee quickly explained to them.

“Wait wait wait! Are you responsible for anything that happens to our president if we wait any longer?” An obese middle-aged man roared, then shouted to the outside, “Go to the Spiritual Medicine Hall and invite Professor Hua!”

“Zou, I just asked, Professor Hua is not in Dan City, his disciple Dr. Jiao is!” A young assistant outside.

“Then go ahead and invite, why are you talking to me!” Zou stomped his foot and roared, “If Mr. Holander has a yes, you immediately roll up and leave me!”

The assistant listened and hurriedly went, one person next to Zou sighed, “Zou don’t be anxious yet, since President Li has confidence in that divine doctor, he will be able to good our president, let’s go out first, don’t interfere with President Li!”

The crowd also nodded their heads at this, and Zou took a look at Dean Li and walked out with a heavy snort, and when he reached Dean Li, a pair of eyes penetrated with a stern light and said, “Dean Li, if we, Holander, are again, you, the Dean, will quit!”

Dean Li smiled bitterly at the news and didn’t dare to be angry, so he nodded, “Don’t worry Zou, I’ll try my best!”

“Huh!” Zou’s total slave grunted, before stepping away from the ward.

As soon as they left, President Li took a long, empty breath and said to a little nurse next to the bed, “Watch it, I’ll go to the door!” He also left the room after saying that.

Just arrived at the hospital entrance road, came galloping a bright cab, waiting at the door several doctors immediately ran over, as if there is any situation crisis patients.

Dean Li didn't have the heart to look at the car, just a sweep of the gaze was going to continue to walk to the front door, just took a step, the figure suddenly faltered, once again looking over to the cab.

At this time in the cab, Maya Shen and two doctors were carrying Haoden Ye to the car, Dean Li didn't see Haoden Ye clearly, but he saw Maya Shen clearly.

He just felt that Maya Shen looked familiar, and when he thought about it carefully, his face just changed and hurriedly walked over.

"Who is this man!?"The man on the stretcher was so bloody that he was unrecognizable, so Dean Li had to address Maya Shen, who was looking anxious.

"Get out of my way!"When Maya Shen saw Dean Li stop her, her pretty face was filled with anger and pushed Dean Li, "He's my husband, what's wrong?"

"Mr. Yeh!"Dean Li looked at the flesh-and-blood man on the stretcher, his heart chilled to the bottom.

"You know my husband?Judging by your age, you must be a very experienced doctor, please save my husband!"Maya Shen heard him see Haoden Ye's name, and her face showed a look of surprise.

"Quick!Hurry up and carry this man to the third floor, summon all the doctors at the director level of the hospital..." "President Li's face paled and he looked urgent to several doctors.

It took Jiao Yuchun twenty minutes to get to the hospital, and once he arrived, he didn't go to see Simen Holander, but went straight to Haoden Ye's room on the third floor.

It took a full half hour for Jiao Yuchun to emerge from inside the hospital room, his face very ugly.

"Dr. Jiao, how is my husband?" As soon as Maya Shen saw him come out, she hurried forward and asked.

"Mr. Ye is stable now, but the cause... I don't know, according to your description, that kind of impact would have completely killed Mr. Ye, but his pulse and the hospital's tests are all within normal limits now, and yet the man has been in a coma, with no external stimulation! Status seems like a vegetable!" Jiao Yuchun sighed.

"How can this be, you're Professor Hua's disciple, can't you do the same?" Maya Shen's pretty face turned slightly white, and her petite body couldn't stop trembling.

"I'm afraid... the only one who can save Mr. Ye is himself... I'll go down first to check on Mr. Holander and Holander's illness... you... go in and keep him company." Jiao Yuchun saw her sad face and walked away with a small sigh.

In front of the hospital bed, Maya Shen held Haoden Ye's hand and burst into tears.

Haoden Ye on the hospital bed was covered with bandages, his eyes were closed, as if he was sleeping, looking at Maya Shen's heart.

"Haoden Ye! Sorry! It's all my fault, I shouldn't have treated you like that before, you're my husband, I should have loved you whether you were capable or not!" Maya Shen sobbed, looking at Haoden Ye weeping on the hospital bed.

Once she hated the iron and wanted this man out of her life as soon as possible, how many days to spend with him passed by.

Now that she's finally decided to love him, this is what he's become.

"Haoden Ye, do you know that I've actually been in love with you, I used to treat you badly because I wanted you to fight some, but I don't want anything now, as long as you can come back to my Ginseng Hundred Years, I'd rather you be the loser you were!" Maya Shen's hand gradually tightened its grip on Haoden Ye's hand, as if a drowning man was grasping a life-saving straw.

"Did you forget? We just had a deal. You have to be home by 10:00 p.m. Wake up and come home with me, okay? I promise you, when you get back home, we'll be a real couple, and I'm going to be your wife and have a whole bunch of babies for you!" Maya Shen bit her lip and sobbed.

"God, please give me another chance to do anything I can do to bring him back!" Maya Shen raised her head to look at the ceiling and made a silent wish.

"Maya, what's wrong with Haoden Ye!" At this time, Robert Shen and his wife came running in from outside and saw Haoden Ye on the hospital bed, both of their faces changed.

"Dad! Mom!" Seeing her parents, Maya Shen's tears broke down the embankment again and threw herself into her parents' arms, "Haoden Ye he's about to die!"

Chapter 202

Looking at the sad Maya Shen in her arms, after looking at the unconscious Haoden Ye on the hospital bed, Robert Shen and his wife sighed at the same time.

“Dr. Jiao, how the hell is our president!” In front of Simen Holander’s hospital room, Jiao Yuchun had just walked out and was stopped by a few people from Zou.

At this time, Jiao Yuchun’s face couldn’t tell if he was surprised or sad, and frowned at the news, “His illness is the same as Mr. Ye’s, also everything else is normal, but the person is just unconscious!”

“Mr. Yeh? Is that the miracle doctor you were talking about?” Zou glared over to Dean Li and looked over at him with a furious face, “What now!”

Dean Li’s heart was also icy cold at this point, and he smiled bitterly, “Don’t worry, Mr. Zou, perhaps if you wait a little longer, there will be new changes in several people’s conditions!”

“Again, wait!” General Zou’s face glared angrily at Dean Li and whirled to Jiao Yuchun, “Doctor Jiao, when will Professor Hua be back!”

Shaking her head lightly, Jiao Yuchun sighed, “I’m afraid it’s useless for my master to come, I just pierced Mr. Holander with the Xuanjiu needle, Mr. Holander didn’t react, now the only one who can save Mr. Holander, look at that, I’m afraid it’s only Mr. Ye!”

“It’s this Haoden Ye again, what does he have that the two of you, one of you is the director of the Central Hospital and the other is Professor Hua’s senior apprentice, are inferior to him?” Zou was furious and roared in the hospital corridor, “It’s all rubbish! It’s all crap!”

At this time, a man suddenly walked up to Zou and whispered, “Mr. Zou, why don’t you ask that old man for help!”

Zou was slightly stunned, and a glimmer of hope flashed across his face in a whirl, but it quickly dimmed.

He shook his head and sighed, "It's a wonder he's willing to help now, the Lin family is watching him to death, he can't even get out of his own house!" His voice was loud earlier, but very low when he mentioned the man.

"You don't know, Mr. Zou, this surnamed Ye has a good relationship with the Zheng family, maybe Zheng will turn a blind eye and let him over to have a look!" The man whispered again.

Mr. Zou frowned and looked heavy, boss day, before he sighed, "Give Zheng a call, and say it subtle!"

At this time, inside the Lin family villa, Figmen Lin was sipping tea, a leisurely look at the scenery, opposite him, Zheng Lao was holding a chess piece in his hand, the person seemed to be fixed, unable to set the piece for a long time.

"If you really can't think of anything, then forget it, your chess skill is not as good as mine, and besides, Xiangqi is something that is not up to par, the real chess of my China is Go, and you are an amateur!" Lin saw Zheng's indecisiveness and spat out hot air.

Zheng Lao had a few unhappy looks on his face, wanting to say something but unable to, but he couldn't pull a face if he were to actually give up.

At this time, the cell phone suddenly rang, Zheng old joy, so that neither need to admit defeat, and do not have to die to hold on, quickly pulled out the phone and pressed the answer key.

He had only heard two sentences and his face changed.

"What's wrong?" Lin old and young saw him have such a fuss whispering time, put down the tea cup and asked.

Zheng Lao hung up the phone and frowned, "That kid surnamed Ye, he's going to die!"

However, upon hearing this, Figmen Lin didn't seem surprised and continued to take a sip of his tea cup, "Just die, you're so old and you still can't see past this?"

Old Zheng's eyelids rolled over and he said with no good grace, "This kid was recommended to me by you, he's going to die, and you're not worried at all? Don't forget, your apprentice's illness was treated by someone else!"

"Oh, is this the first day you've met me? When have I ever been grateful to anyone, have I ever begged him to heal my apprentice? What has it to do with me that he himself volunteered to treat my apprentice!" Figmen Lin shrugged his shoulders, and the wind was light.

Zheng Lao heard the ugly face and slapped the table, "Surnamed Lin, after being locked up here for so long, why do you still have this heartless and unrighteous temper, if you don't help, your disciple's illness won't get better!"

"It's all fate, my apprentice's fate, and I don't want to force it!" Figmen Lin continued to be breezy and light-hearted.

"You... " Zheng Lao didn't expect him to say such words, staring at him with a pair of eyes, a fire that didn't know where to go, stamping his foot hard, "Surnamed Lin, in this world, except for me, a bad old man. Only that silly girl still has some affection for you, how can you bear to say such things! I don't want to stay with heartless people like you either, I'll never come to you again!"

Zheng Lao stood up and stepped out.

Seeing him leave, Figmen Lin sighed slowly and looked at the distant sky as the sun slowly set and the light in his eyes gradually flickered.

Night fell, ten thousand silent, but the central hospital was very lively, the people of the Holander Group, the people of the major media in Dan City, the Holander family and several other families closely related to the Holander family were all concentrated here.

Compared to the Holander family's father and son's ward, it was much quieter inside Haoden Ye's ward, and only Maya Shen was lying in front of the window by herself.

A breeze blew by, lifting Maya Shen's hair, revealing that exquisitely beautiful face and still tearful, closed eyes.

A figure fell in front of Haoden Ye's hospital bed with the breeze, it was Figmen Lin.

"It's a Southern spell!" Figmen Lin pressed one hand on the back of Haoden Ye's hand, his eyes slightly closed as he muttered, "A spell that was initiated with a thirty-year lifespan, yet it only left people unconscious, and the treasure didn't feel its owner's life in danger again, so it wasn't initiated! But he didn't die in this accident, so he should be blessed by the treasure!"

Figmen Lin said as his finger tapped on Haoden Ye's eyebrow!

In an instant, a lotus-like pattern blossomed on Haoden Ye's eyebrow, then disappeared.

Haoden Ye on the hospital bed slowly opened his eyes, and his face changed slightly as he gazed at everything around him.

"Lin! How did you... how did I get here!" Haoden Ye looked at the hospital room, then at Maya Shen lying beside him, then his eyes fell on Figmen Lin.

"Don't worry, you've been under the Southern spell, you were just unconscious, I've already undone the spell for you!" With a slight smile, Figmen Lin told Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye revealed a look of gratitude at his words and quickly said, “Thank you, Lin!”

“Oh!Don’t thank me yet!”Old Lin smiled benevolently and sat down beside Zhi You, “I can help you undo the spell, provided you’re still alive, and you’re alive thanks to the treasures you have on you!”

Haoden Ye was shocked at the news and looked inside his dantian, and really found that the orange bubbles inside his dantian were missing two.

Chapter 203

By now he had realized that bubbles not only make wishes, they save lives!

“You should be clear by now, that baby of yours can accumulate merit, and using it will not only give you the ability to penetrate the heavens, but it can also save your life at a critical moment!”Figmen Lin smiled slightly and said, “But the treasure is only activated when your life is threatened, if you are just unconscious, the power of the treasure will not be activated!”

Figmen Lin said, smiling slightly, “Thinking that the person who put the spell on you had once been devoured by the power of the treasure, that’s why he used this gentle method, he used his thirty years of life to initiate this spell, so that he could leave you unconscious without being devoured by this power!And the way I just saved you was to do the opposite, to strengthen the effect of his spell, and the treasure sensed that your life was in danger and immediately launched to undo your spell, otherwise with my skills, I wouldn’t have been able to so easily undo a spell that someone else launched at such a cost!”

Haoden Ye suddenly realized that it only took one orange bubble to save his life, and the two bubbles that disappeared were because he had saved himself twice.

“Thank you, Lin!” Haoden Ye hurriedly thanked again, suddenly thinking of the Heavenly Tribulation, and quickly said, “Old Lin, when I used the treasures today, I seemed to feel like I was attacked by a Heavenly Tribulation!”

“Oh?” The light in Figmen Lin’s eyes flickered, revealing a look of interest, “So fast, it seems that you didn’t usually use the power of your treasures sparingly, but don’t worry, this type of Heavenly Tribulation won’t kill you, but will occasionally drain your virtue, you have to be careful, if your virtue is gone, a small Heavenly Tribulation could probably kill you!”

Haoden Ye quickly nodded his head and said to himself, “I’ll have to save more orange bubbles in the future, after all, an orange is a life!”

“By the way, Lin, where’s the man who wants to deal with me? Does Lin know where he is?” Haoden Ye suddenly thought of the person who cast a spell on himself and the construction site and quickly asked.

At this time, Figmen Lin had already stood up and seemed to be leaving the area, turning around with a slight smile at the words, “Don’t worry, even if he’s alive, he’s already an invalid, once the spell is broken, the power will backfire, simply put, it means that if you can’t harm others, you’ll kill yourself, he should have been reversed and unconscious by now!”

Haoden Ye was relieved at the words, and wondered in his heart who was trying to harm him, but when he wanted to ask, Figmen Lin had already disappeared. Accumulated enough virtues to resist the Heavenly Tribulation!”

Looking at his back as he left, Haoden Ye slowly relaxed and looked down at Maya Shen, but he saw that the blanket on which Maya Shen was lying was already full of tears.

“Did Maya cry...for me?” Haoden Ye’s heart surged with warmth and affection as he looked at Maya Shen’s haggard, pretty face.

After trying on his body and moving around without pain, Haoden Ye gently removed the gauze and lifted the blanket to get up from the bed, then picked Maya Shen up across the bed and placed her on the bed.

The movement was light, but it still woke Maya Shen up.

When she opened her eyes, Maya Shen realized that she was lying on the bed, and Haoden Ye was standing beside him, not a single bandage on his body, not even a wound.

“Haoden Ye! You’re dead, aren’t you? You gave me a dream, didn’t you?” Maya Shen’s pretty face instantly turned pale!

Haoden Ye was thrown out of the speeding car, came to be already covered in injuries, the body has many fractures, several broken ribs, not to mention standing, is lying down if not hanging legs also can not, how can stand in good faith?

The only explanation that could be given was that Haoden Ye was dead.

“Haoden Ye!” Maya Shen got up from the bed and hugged Haoden Ye, tears streaming down her face, “I’m sorry, it’s my fault for treating you badly in the past, don’t leave me, okay!”

Haoden Ye heard her first sentence originally felt funny, but when he heard the latter, his heart swelled with emotion, and gently patted Maya Shen’s shoulder, “It’s okay, I’m already all better!”

Of course, Maya Shen didn’t believe it, she let go of Haoden Ye, her hands holding Haoden Ye’s face to look at it obsessively, and suddenly her body tilted, kissing the mouth of also.

This was the first time the two of them kissed, and Haoden Ye was shaken, his entire body stiffening.

“Well?It’s hot!”It was as if there was an electric current passing through Maya Shen’s delicate body, able to clearly feel Haoden Ye’s temperature: “So human ghosts are also hot!”

Just at this moment, a scream sounded from the doorway, “Haoden Ye, you’re awake!”

Hearing the voice, Maya Shen quickly let go of Haoden Ye and raised her head to look over, but saw her mother walking in with a plate of fruit.

“Mom!Why are you in my dreams too!”Maya Shen frowned and said, “This is my dream and Haoden Ye’s dream, can’t you let us stay a little longer?”

Milda Hao is in the midst of surprise, hearing Maya’s words is a stunned, frowned and said: “Dream?What dream?You’re not a stupid girl!”After saying that, he looked up and down at Haoden Ye, “What’s wrong with you?Didn’t the doctor say you had several broken bones, why do you look like nothing now!”

Hearing her mother’s words, Maya Shen was also dumbfounded, she reached out and pinched her arm hard, and the pain immediately came.

“Oh God, I’m not dreaming, Haoden Ye is really awake!”Maya Shen had a surprised look on her face and grabbed his hand: “Why are you awake, how do you feel?That doctor says you’re covered in bruises, so get into bed!”

Seeing her face of concern, Haoden Ye’s heart surged with warmth, and in order to reassure her, he bounced on the ground, “I’m already fine, when I fell from the car, I promptly sealed the degree of my body with acupuncture, although it looks like the injury is quite serious, it’s actually not dangerous, as for the fracture... ahem, IHaving taken some of my own medicine earlier, I recovered faster than the average person!”

“Acupuncture?” Milda Hao was stunned to hear that acupuncture still had this effect? She had seen Haoden Ye’s x-ray with her own eyes when she arrived, and it showed that Haoden Ye’s bones were broken in a dozen places.

Even a child couldn’t recover so quickly, let alone Haoden Ye, an adult.

“Haoden Ye, don’t lie to mom, what’s going on, how did you heal so fast?” Milda Hao looked at Haoden Ye suspiciously.

And then Maya Shen also recovered from her surprise and listened to her mother’s words with the same wondering look.

Haoden Ye knew that if he didn’t give these two women a reasonable explanation today, I’m afraid they would definitely get to the bottom of it.

Chapter 204

But telling lies, Haoden Ye wasn’t good at it!

Suddenly, he remembered Figmen Lin and said in a clever way, “Mom, when things come to this, I won’t hide anything from you, you still remember what I did that time when I saved Maya, right?”

Referring to the last incident, Maya Shen and Milda Hao both revealed a look of palpitations.

“Well, I remember, why?” Milda.

“Actually I wasn’t the only one who saved Maya that time, Maya was dying and I asked for help from the people around me, and an old gentleman happened to pass by, he saw me crying sadly and said he could save Maya, but only on the condition that I had to learn medical skills from him and use the medical skills I learned to help him save people, and if I didn’t do what he said, he would come back and kill Maya!”Haoden Ye is also now made up, so he’s speaking off the cuff.

Both women listened with incredulous looks at the same time!

There was such a magical old gentleman who could put out a life-threatening patient in a short period of time, and why did he take Haoden Ye as his disciple?

But now this situation can only be explained by such a magical old man.

Women are most likely to believe the occult because they are romantic fantasists by nature.

“After the old man saved Maya, he started teaching me medicine and then gave me a life-saving pill, which I took just as I was about to have a car accident!”Haoden Ye continued to editorialize, while carefully observing Maya Shen’s reaction.

“It must have been the old man who was touched by your true feelings!”After hearing Haoden’s words, Milda Hao sighed slowly, “That’s right, I said when did you learn a medical skill!”

Maya Shen’s face also showed a touch of emotion, thinking that a passing old gentleman could see Haoden Ye’s deep affection for her, why couldn’t she see it herself?

Seeing that the two women he had fooled with his words believed, Haoden Ye was relieved, he then lowered his voice and said, “But the old man told me to keep this matter a secret and not to tell anyone, otherwise he would be very angry, so I haven’t told you guys!”

“Ah!”Milda Hao shrieked, her eyes quickly and vigilantly sweeping around the ward, lowering her voice, “I see, don’t worry, we won’t tell anyone, not even his father!”Maya Shen also nodded her head vigorously.

“Thanks Mom!”Haoden Ye revealed a look of gratitude, thinking of what had just happened, he quickly pretended to be tired and sat on the hospital bed, “My body has just recovered, and I’m still a bit tired, so I need to rest a bit more, so you guys don’t need to accompany me!”

“How about that, let Maya stay!”Milda Hao waved her hand in a row, “You always have to have someone around to take care of you!”Finish up and get out.

Inside the hospital room, Haoden Ye and Maya Shen looked at each other, and Maya Shen’s pretty face was slightly red.

Haoden Ye walked to the bedside, wanting to continue what he had just done, but didn’t know how to speak.

“Ahem, Maya, just now we...” coughed Haoden Ye, daringly.

“Just now we what!”Maya Shen kissed Haoden Ye just now when she was in the mood, but now that she knows that Haoden Ye is fine, she is instead restrained, her heartbeat thudding and accelerating, her pretty face also blushing scarlet.

She didn’t want to show her cowardice in front of Haoden Ye and immediately spoke in her usual tough tone.

But one sentence out of the mouth, she regretted it, worried just scared well, opened her mouth to explain, but also feel herself a girl home this kind of words how to open.

“Maya, we just...kissed!”Haoden Ye was indeed fearful in his heart at Maya Shen’s words, but thinking of Maya Shen’s beauty, he still plucked up his courage.

“Yes...yes!”Maya Shen saw that Haoden Ye was finally no longer afraid, and a surge of joy arose in her heart, this man was finally a bit manly: “What do you want!”

“Maya, I love you!”When Haoden Ye saw that Maya Shen wasn’t angry, he became even bolder and turned around to reach out to shake Maya Shen’s hand.

Maya Shen’s delicate body trembled slightly and bit her lips, “Don’t mess around, I just... just felt that you’re going to die, just a moment of excitement, I can’t leave you, but you can also use enough sincerity to impress me, so I can truly be your wife.”

“Well!Ya, don’t worry, I won’t let you down again!”Haoden Ye’s heart swelled with happiness when he heard her say that, so much so that he forgot about the kissing just now.

“Just have faith,” Maya Shen was disappointed when she saw his eyes calm down and he didn’t have the thirst he had just now.

Doesn’t he understand that when a girl says something like that, it means he can act further.

“You should get some rest, I’ll get you a glass of water!”Maya Shen only felt as if there was a thorn in the bottom of her buttocks, sitting very awkwardly and hastily standing up.

Haoden Ye didn’t have any hint of retention, to him, Maya Shen’s words just now made him happier than that kiss.

Maya Shen had just arrived at the door when she was confronted by a man.

“Mr. Ye, you... why are you awake!” It was Dean Lee.

When Milda Hao left just now, she specifically informed Dean Li that Haoden Ye was fine, and asked him not to disturb Haoden Ye for the time being, but she didn't know that Dean Li would already be on fire.

“Dean Lee, what's wrong with you so?” Haoden Ye saw a large blister at the corner of Dean Li's mouth and couldn't help but stare at it, “The virtual fire is up and your legs are weak, are you having trouble sleeping?”

“O my Dr. Ye, you must save me this time!” Dean Li was excited and about to cry out, general age, white hair, but at this time not the slightest bit of the central hospital dean look.

Of course, he wasn't afraid of losing his position as director, but he was afraid that Simen Holander and his son would really be in trouble again in his hospital.

One must know that the head of the Holander's Group had a superb status in Warsaw, and if he died in his hospital, the reputation of the Central Hospital would be completely ruined.

Seeing Dean Li like this, Maya Shen was also slightly surprised and said in her heart, “The medical skill that old man taught Haoden Ye is really great, Dean Li is the head of the Central Hospital, but he also begged Haoden Ye!” The thought of it was sweet.

A woman's greatest happiness is not how much she has accomplished, but how much her man has accomplished, and she is happy even if those accomplishments are not as good as her own.

“You tell me what’s wrong!”Haoden Ye hurriedly got off the bed and assisted Dean Li.

“Ah!Are you well, Mr. Yeh?”When Dean Li saw Haoden Ye’s numb movements, his face just changed, as a doctor, he was aware of how serious Haoden Ye’s injuries were, it was impossible for him to recover in a year or two.

“Ah!”Haoden Ye just sounded that he was seriously injured, and quickly pretended to be in pain, “Ah, I was in a hurry to get out of bed just now, and my body started to hurt again!”

Chapter 205

Only then did Dean Li suddenly come to his senses and quickly said, “Mr. Ye, you must take care of your body!”After saying baby like it Haoden Ye to help the bed, this said: “Holander’s group of Holander’s total and Holander’s young master had a strange disease, has been unconscious, we can not find the problem here, Dr. Jiao came, said Holander’s total and your disease is similar, he has gone to invite Professor Hua!”

Haoden Ye’s face just changed as soon as he heard it, it was obvious that the person who cast the spell wasn’t just targeting himself, but also targeting the Holander Clan!

Is it Master Aggie?

The person that both himself and Simen Holander had offended at the same time was this person.

“Hurry up and take me to see Master Holander!”Haoden Ye got off the bed and looked eager to Dean Li.

“Mr. Ye, you’d better take care of your injuries, you’re in such a state that it’s useless to go there!” Dean Li smiled bitterly, what he was most worried about now was Haoden Ye’s life, if Haoden Ye died, Simen Holander would really be hopeless.

Haoden Ye laughed bitterly in his heart, he couldn’t tell the truth at this point, so he could only say, “Dean Li doesn’t need to worry about me, I have my own life renewal pill with me, I just took one and my body is still able to support it, so take me there quickly, otherwise it will be too late!”

Dean Li didn’t hesitate once he heard it, and hurriedly assisted Haoden Ye to walk downstairs.

Second floor intensive care put door, Zou always touched a sweat on his forehead, sighed: “What the hell idea you have, Zheng Lao simply do not care whether that kid is dead or alive!”

Mr. Wu smiled bitterly at the news and also sighed, “Don’t worry, Mr. Zou, good fortune has a way of working itself out, I’m sure Mr. Holander can get through this!”

Zou turned his head and stared at him hard, then slapped his thigh hard and said, “Grandma, the year is bad! Now it’s the young master’s accident, and then it’s the old master following the accident, which happened in the afternoon and was on the news in the evening, and tomorrow morning the stock will surely fall wildly, and the company doesn’t know how much money it will lose!”

Wu frowned slightly and opened his mouth to say something, but he had the tendency to close it.

Families like his and Zou’s that were branded with the Holander family’s mark, if they left the Holander family, they would basically declare their downfall, and Zou was worried about it.

Just at this moment, a sound of footsteps sounded in the corridor, but Dean Li was seen slowly walking over with a person in tow.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to the newest version of the newest version.

Dean Li gave him a spray of spittle on his face, his heart is a bitter smile, he outline to open his mouth to explain, but listened to Mr. Wu behind the Zou General Manager's surprise: "Mr. Ye?"

"Mr. Yeh!" General Manager Zou also turned pale at the news and stared at Haoden Ye, who looked half-dead.

After sweeping Haoden Ye up and down, he couldn't see anything about Haoden Ye that resembled a divine doctor and looked suspicious, "Is this the Mr. Ye you're talking about? Divine Doctor Ye?"

Wu always had seen Haoden Ye's greatness and hurried forward to support Haoden Ye's other hand, looking up to Zou, "Not bad, Mr. Ye is highly skilled, the last time I told you about that incident, Mr. Ye found it in time!"

The suspicion on Zou's face faded, he pushed away Dean Li, racked Haoden Ye and walked inside the ward, saying, "You're halfway into the ground, what strength do you have, I'll do it!"

Fortunately, Haoden Ye's injuries were all healed, otherwise this fat man would have lost ten years of his life if he didn't die carrying it, this person didn't care if he died or not, he almost ran away with himself against his shoulder.

Everyone quickly arrived inside the hospital room, and Haoden Ye raised his eyes to see Simen Holander and Zyden lying on the bed, their faces looking peaceful and looking like they were asleep.

“You’ve got to see what’s wrong with our old man!” Zou always put down Haoden Ye and was impatient.

“Master Holander and Simen are under a spell, don’t worry, I know how to undo it!” Haoden Ye didn’t need to look at Ye to know how to get back to Ye, immediately.

“Huh?” General Manager Zou was stunned at the words, whirled around and looked angry, glaring at Haoden Ye, “You’re confused, what spell, you were making a movie!”

Nowadays people believe in Feng Shui, but they don’t believe in spells and other occult arts, because there are not many people who know these strange occult arts, and they don’t perform them in front of people.

Wu always believed in Haoden Ye and hurried forward, “Mr. Zou, Mr. Ye is also proficient in Feng Shui, he said it’s a spell, so it must be! Right!” At this point, he suddenly said, “Didn’t Lawyer Kim say this afternoon that that Holander Kong man’s construction site was also under a spell, and he saw Mr. Ye undo it with his own eyes!”

This kind of thing Zou always listened to it as nonsense, that will go to the heart, this time listening to Mr. Wu said, doubts finally receded some.

“Yes! You try it first, but...” said Zou, his eyes cold, staring straight at Haoden Ye, “If you dare to do anything against Holander, I, Zou, will not only take your life, but also the life of your whole family!”

As long as he was willing to let himself be treated, Haoden Ye didn’t talk nonsense and nodded gently, “Well, you guys go out first, I need more space!”

Zou grunted and dragged Wu and Dean Li out.

Haoden Ye saw them leave, which was why he looked within his dantian and made a wish to the golden carp, "Help me undo the spell of the two of them!"

An orange bubble disappeared, and that familiar voice in my head: "Need to consume an orange virtue, does it decompose red virtue!"

Red is the highest virtue inside several colors, Haoden Ye only knew that it could be used, but he didn't know that it could even be decomposed, he quickly said in his heart, "Decomposition!"

Instantly, the red bubbles disappeared and three more orange bubbles appeared, while a method to undo the spell surfaced in Haoden Ye's mind: "Return Soul Revolving Mantra!"

Haoden Ye didn't hesitate, mouthing the incantation and slowly closing his eyes.

Whoosh, a gust of wind whipped up from him, it wasn't very big at first so it wasn't easy to notice, but soon the breeze turned into a small tornado that flipped his clothes around.

The three people outside nervously looking at the situation inside the eyes saw this scene, and at the same time stared, Zou always surprised: "What's going on, the ward door is closed, bring the wind!"

"Well...I can't explain it!" Dean Li had a bitter smile on his face, he had studied medicine for so many years and always believed in science, and seeing this scene today was enough to subvert the three views.

Just at this time, Haoden Ye in the room suddenly had one hand reaching out to Simen Holander, and the wind miraculously disappeared, and the ground seemed to glow pink in the eyes of the crowd.

The light was so faint that those who saw it wondered if they were blind.

Chapter 206

But soon, the light dissipated, and Haoden Ye slowly withdrew his hand, clearly finished.

Dean Li and Zou's face tensed up, eyes staring straight at the bed, and soon Simen Holander, who was originally lying motionless on the bed, moved his hands.

"Haha, done!" Zou was delighted with the situation and quickly walked inside the ward.

Simen Holander, who had just woken up, had a face full of confusion, as if he didn't understand why he had arrived at the hospital, he looked a little weak and his mental state didn't look too good.

"Well? Where am I in this now?" Holander looked left and right, dazed, "Why am I in the hospital?"

"Oh Holander, you scared me to death!" Zou always see him awake, happy eyebrows are going to jump up, two steps to the bed: "You and young master suddenly fainted, our door to send you to the hospital, but scared us!"

Simen Holander's face changed slightly, and he quickly looked over at Zyden, but saw that he was now awake and looked just as surprised as himself.

"Hard work!" Simen Holander quickly came back to his senses and smiled as his eyes fell on Haoden Ye, "If I'm right, it was Mr. Ye who saved us again this time!"

Smiling, Haoden Ye nodded gently and then said to the crowd, "The two of you have just woken up, you must both be very weak right now, President Li, please ask the nurse to get some food and let the two of you rest."

From seeing the two people waking up, Dean Li's heart blossomed with joy, at this time to hear him say this, which is still not promised, busy nodding, then to Haoden Ye concern: "Mr. Ye you also go up to rest!"

Things weren't urgent, and Haoden Ye didn't tell the two men about Master Aggie, letting them rest for a bit before speaking.

After saying goodbye to everyone, Haoden Ye and Dean Li went upstairs together.

"What kind of patient is that downstairs, why does it have to be Haoden Ye to save it!" Maya Shen had been strange since just now, but he was in too much of a hurry just now to ask, and now seeing the two people returning, he couldn't help but say.

"It's the president of the Holander Group, Simen Holander!" Haoden Ye also planned to tell Maya Shen about his relationship with the Hong.

"What!" Maya Shen listened when immediately stared, in her eyes, the Holander's group but Sheng Wen International boss, could not imagine Simen Holander is downstairs in his own, and was saved by his husband, surprised, Maya Shen's worried up: "Your medical skill is no problem, that's the president of the Holander's group ah, something happened, can be bad!"

"Haha, Miss Shen don't worry, Mr. Ye's medical skills are superb, the whole of Dan City can't find another one, Mr. Holander's illness he went to naturally cure!" Dean Li laughed, but the scene of Haoden Ye's rescue just now appeared in his mind.

He wasn't sure if Haoden Ye's method of saving a life just now counted as a medical technique, but the ancients didn't distinguish between doctors and witches, so maybe Haoden Ye's was considered part of Chinese medicine.

“You guys rest first, I’ll leave you alone, if you need anything, feel free to mention it, as long as our hospital can do it, I’ll try to satisfy you!” Dean Li saw Haoden Ye and Maya Shen’s pair of little lovers clear and cozy, and he was not good enough to disturb them, so he said a word and turned to leave.

It was only after he left that Haoden Ye stopped continuing to pretend that sickly look and went back to lie down on the bed, Maya Shen sat down next to him, still looking surprised, “I never thought you still had this ability, you saved the Holander family, it’s a big fortune for you, I heard that the Holander family will repay their kindness, maybe they can help run your pharmacy.”

Haoden Ye thought to himself that my pharmacy was the one that Simen invested in, and smiled slightly, “Well, I understand what you mean, thank you, Maya!”

Maya Shen’s pretty face blushed and greeted him with a glance, “What are you still polite to me!”

The two men were talking when suddenly the door to the ward was pushed open and two uniformed policemen walked in.

“May I ask if you’re Mr. Haoden Ye Ye?” The head one had a dignified face as soon as he entered.

Haoden Ye hurriedly got up from the bed, looking at them with a puzzled face, and nodded lightly.

Getting affirmed substantially, the two policemen’s faces immediately stern, the latter one pulled out his handcuffs and said: “Haoden Ye, you are now suspected of dangerous driving and intentional killing appearance charges, please come with us.”

Both men turned pale at the policeman's words, and Haoden Ye suddenly remembered that he'd lost control of his car last night and crashed into a big, bright truck!

"Comrade police officer, listen to my explanation, last night my husband drove to..." Maya Shen quickly explained like a police officer.

Unfortunately neither of the two policemen seemed to have the patience to listen, and one of them said, "What's the matter, go to court and explain! We only arrest people!"

"Maya, don't obstruct the office of your police comrade," Haoden Ye quickly told Maya Shen.

He was also very worried at this time, but he didn't want to act too scared in front of Maya Shen.

"Comrade police officer, may I ask how that driver is doing?" Haoden Ye hurriedly said.

"He's in critical condition and the doctors have given notice that he may not make it through the night!" The policeman coldly replied back, "You don't want New Village to get lucky, you're the main responsibility for this accident, and you'll have to bear all the damage caused!"

Once Haoden Ye heard that the driver was still alive, he was relieved and quickly said, "Comrade police, I'm also a doctor, can you let me go over and take a look, I might be able to save that driver!"

"Let you check it out?" The policeman snorted, "Do you think that we police officers handling cases is child's play? You are now a suspect! Besides, with so many doctors in the hospital, are you the only one who can cure?" Finished cuffing the handcuffs on Haoden Ye's hands.

Haoden Ye's heart was cold, I'm afraid this time it was inevitable, he was just taking a chance when he said that just now.

Maya Shen's pretty face also turned slightly white as she listened to the policeman's words and hurried forward, "Comrade policeman, please believe my husband, if he says he can save that person, he will, if you don't believe me, go ask Dean Li!"

"Comrade, please don't interfere with our case!" The police started to get impatient, they were already polite enough to Haoden Ye, and they would have used force long ago for a normal human case.

Maya Shen's heart immediately chilled when she saw how harsh the police were, and suddenly she thought of Dean Li and turned to run outside.

The two policemen escorted Haoden Ye downstairs and were about to arrive at the hospital entrance when a loud shout came from behind them, "You three, stop!"

Haoden Ye heard the voice was a bit familiar, but ignored it, the ones holding him were two policemen, who dared to yell at the police so much? So he subconsciously thought that the call must not have been a shout for himself.

As soon as the man's voice trailed off, however, the two policemen who were escorting him stood and turned around together.

Chapter 207

"Zou...Zou?" Seeing the visitor, both policemen turned pale and looked respectful.

When Haoden Ye raised his head, he saw General Manager Zou coming over here with a big belly and a dignified look on his face, and he couldn't help but wonder: “Isn’t General Manager Zou a businessman? Why are two cops calling him Zou!”

General Zou’s face was dignified as he arrived in front of the three, his eyes swept the handcuffs on Haoden Ye’s hands, and he looked serious: “What crime has he committed, you have to take him away!”

“Does Zou know him?” Two policemen did not answer immediately, one of them curious.

“He’s a friend of mine... I’m asking you something, so speak up!” Zou returned, his face beginning to look stern.

“Yes yes, Zou!” Both cops smiled low-brow, and one of them said, “He was involved in a traffic accident that killed someone!”

Upon hearing this, Zou’s face slightly changed and gradually darkened.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to your own collection of products and services.

As soon as he heard that the other party was already dead, Zou’s heart sank, if the other party was still alive, he might be able to that little bit of money to compensate for it, and by the way, let the Holander’s Group’s legal team defend Haoden Ye, and the matter would be easily resolved, but the other party was already dead, and the nature of the matter changed.

While Zou was worried, Haoden Ye hurriedly said, “That man isn’t dead yet, I can save him!”

Mr. Zou was stunned and gazed at the two policemen, who nodded in succession, one of them saying, “Well, it’s true that there’s still a breath left, but it’s just hanging on for dear life!”

As soon as he finished his sentence, Zou suddenly raised his hand and slapped it, hitting the policeman who stumbled back a step and nearly fell over.

“Not dead you don’t tell me exactly what I taught you guys in the first place, what’s wrong?I’ve left the police force, and one of you is out of line, right?”General Zou shouted in anger, his face looking dignified.

The policeman was beaten, but there was no anger on his face, instead he smiled and said, “Yes, yes, Team Zou... ah, no, Brother Zou taught him a lesson!”

Zou grunted to another policeman, “Uncuff him and let him attend to that man!”

The policeman turned ugly at that and looked embarrassed, “Team Zou... no, Brother Zou, this is not in order!”

“Rules my ass!When I first took you, which one of you behaved yourself?If I tell you to untie it, you untie it, and if the top blames it, I’ll go to the crime squad and burden you!”Zou snorted.

“But...” the policeman still didn’t dare to uncuff Haoden Ye and looked at Zou with an embarrassed face.

“What?And you want me to call Wu here?It just so happens that his brother is at the hospital, so I’ll call him over right away!”After Zou said that, he reached for his phone.

“No, no, how can I not listen to what Zou has to say!”At this time the police officer who had just been beaten up also came over and glared at his companion, smiling hehely to Zou.

The policeman had no choice but to remove the handcuffs for Haoden Ye.

Recovering his freedom, Haoden Ye was relieved and quickly told the policeman, “You door take me to the patient!”

The handcuffs were removed, naturally the two policemen would not continue to make things difficult for Haoden Ye, nodding their heads in succession and taking Haoden Ye inside the hospital.

A few people arrived at the door of a hospital room, but there were several people sitting in the doorway, all plainly dressed, including a woman in her early thirties who was sobbing and crying, and a man next to her who was comforting her.

Seeing the two policemen coming over with Haoden Ye and the others, the woman immediately stood up, the sad look on her face turning to anger, “Comrade police, has that murderer been caught?”

The two policemen looked very embarrassed, the man was arrested, but he was brought to them.

“Are you the driver’s family? I’m Zou Shiming from Holander’s Security Department!” Mr. Zou politely extended his hand and pointed at Haoden Ye after saying, “This is the driver who caused the accident, Haoden Ye, but there are extenuating circumstances to this matter...”

Before he finished speaking, the woman suddenly wanted to pounce on Haoden Ye and grabbed Haoden Ye’s collar, her eyes filled with anger and hatred, “You murderer, give me back my man, give me back my man!”

And the man who just comforted her also ran over and grabbed Haoden Ye’s shoulder, raging, “You’re just in time, let you pay for my brother’s life today!”

Haoden Ye’s body would have been thin, so a tug immediately seventy-eight up, Zou always see this, fiercely shouted: “You guys let go!”

This loud cry was truly imposing, and there was an unquestionable majesty in the voice.

The strength in the hands of the two people pulling on Haoden Ye loosened, and Haoden Ye quickly pulled out.

“You...you’re with him?Comrade police, why don’t you arrest them!”The woman was shocked by Zou Shiming’s stern look and didn’t pull Haoden Ye’s clothes anymore, but her eyes were filled with resentment.

Although it was a mess right now, Haoden Ye could understand the two people’s feelings, and this matter was indeed their own fault.

“Sister-in-law, brother, don’t worry, I’m also a doctor, and I’m here to save your loved ones!”Haoden Ye had a look of guilt on his face.

“You can save it, you sound like a good doctor, but the doctors at Central Hospital say no?I’ll fight you for it, you murderer!”He said he was going to try to pounce on Haoden Ye again.

The police are harboring criminals!”

Faced with this kind of woman, Zou Shiming also had quite a headache and quickly turned his head to Haoden Ye, “You quickly go in and save the people, I’ll hold them off!”

Haoden Ye nodded and quickly walked towards the ward, the man also wanted to stop Haoden Ye, Zou Shiming quickly said, “You two, stop him!”

The two policemen laughed bitterly, Zou Shiming used to carry an air of dominance when he was in the criminal police force, and after being under him for a long time, they couldn’t help but listen to Zou Shiming’s words.

Entering the hospital room, Haoden Ye cast his eyes to the bed patient, but saw a red smoke on the patient's forehead by gradually thickening, it was obvious that if Haoden Ye played for a while, it probably wouldn't need to be saved.

Trying the patient's pulse, Haoden Ye began to diagnose.

Outside, the woman couldn't break free of Zhou Shiming, and her face gradually became frantic.

Just at this time, inside the hall, Zyden and Simen Holander were both discharged from the hospital, and a large number of reporters greeted them.

Both men left in a hurry, ignoring the reporters, and there were also bodyguards driving them away behind, many of whom didn't even take long pictures.

As soon as she saw another reporter in the distance, the woman was smart enough to shout loudly.

Chapter 208

"Zou, it's bad, the reporters are coming!" The two policemen's faces just changed when they saw the scene.

Now the internet is too developed, the slightest thing will be infinitely magnified on the internet, it's not like the two of them lost their jobs.

"Zou, why don't we send Mr. Ye back to the police station first and come back after we get the paperwork?" Another policeman chimed in.

"What are you afraid of, I'm here!" Zou Shimei ditched the girl and walked towards those reporters.

“Excuse me, sir, we’re from News Morning and need to interview this lady!”The two reporters walking in front were blocked by Zou Shiming and immediately became dissatisfied.

“That lady is my friend, you don’t need to interview her about this!”Zou Shimei snorted and reached out to stop them.

“We’re journalists and it’s my right to interview, so move over!”The reporter saw him stop himself and got rude.

“Comrade journalist, they’re black police, they’re bad guys, you have to help me!They’re going to kill my man!”The woman spoke loudly to the reporter from a distance.

“You won’t let me open it, will you? Well, I’ll be right here on camera, so people can see how you cops handle your cases!”The reporter, who was getting annoyed that he couldn’t cover the news, told the photographer to start filming.

Zou Shiming smiled without panic, not only did he not have the slightest worry, but he neatly arranged his clothes and smiled at the camera, “I am Zou Shiming, the head of the Holander’s Group Security Department, in which a friend of mine is treating this lady’s family, this lady does not agree, you can report it if you want, but please follow the facts!”

The reporter didn’t expect him to be so cooperative, but showed some surprise, and spoke in a bad tone: “Whether a patient wants to be treated by a doctor or not requires the consent of the patient’s family, so you are forcibly treating the patient, is not an infringement of the patient’s rights?”

Zou Shiming shrugged, “If something happens to a patient, we’re naturally responsible, are you still worried about what we’ll do in front of all these people?”

At this time, Dean Li came over from afar and saw the chaos over here, his brows furrowed.

A few reporters saw him coming and were busy pointing their cameras at President Li: “President Li, please explain why you are forcibly treating a patient without the consent of the patient’s family!The person inside the ward who’s treating now is that doctor!”

President Li just came over, know no need for the reporter more, but the reporter so asked, President Li vaguely understood something, face serious: “This is the most excellent doctor in our hospital, the name I can’t say, but I can think of everyone to guarantee that he will be able to cure the patient!”

After saying that he quickly walked over to Zou Shiming, and when he reached Zou Shiming, Dean Li frowned and said, “Is Mr. Ye inside?Why did you guys start therapy without telling me!”

Zou Shiming shrugged his shoulders, “The time is not right, these two policemen want to take Mr. Ye away, I rely on my old prestige to calm them down, you stall for me first!”

Dean Li nodded lightly and said to Zou Shiming, “Tell these two officers to let the patient’s family over, it’s better to talk about what’s going on.”

Zou Shiming committed a blank stare and grunted, “That woman is crazy, you let him come over, isn’t that looking for trouble?”

Dean Li smiled bitterly and said, “You stop them instead things are more complicated, just listen to me!”

Zhou Shiming had no choice but to nod at the news and beckon the two policemen to let the women and men over.

Two people immediately ran to the reporter, the woman tearfully complained: “The hospital is too dark, and this gang of police collusion, they are destroying evidence ah, comrade reporter, you must go in with me to see! They’re in cahoots with the murderer who did my man in!”

As soon as he said that, a group of reporters showed excitement, this is another big news, they were all talking and started asking questions, and the woman intermittently told the process.

The gang of reporters smelled a conspiracy.

How can there be no conspiracy to have an arrested nuisance treating the same patient he killed!

For a time, all the reporters pounced on Dean Li and Zou Shiming, asking questions with seven mouths, and the flashbulbs continued, simply more lively than Simen Holander’s departure just now.

And at the same time, Haoden Ye in the hospital room was sweating profusely.

He had already made a preliminary diagnosis of the patient, and the result was that the patient hesitated to suffer an impact that caused severe internal bleeding and blood vessel blockage, resulting in a lack of fresh blood to the internal organs, which began to die.

This situation was also a huge headache for Haoden Ye, as it was beyond the scope of treating with acupuncture.

Helplessly, Haoden Ye had no choice but to look within his dantian and began to make a wish: “Decompose the orange bubble!”

Soon, an orange bubble disappeared and turned into two white, one blue and one purple, and Haoden Ye continued to make a wish, "Give me a pill that can unblock his entire body's blood!"

Instantly, the two white bubbles disappeared and Haoden Ye had an extra pill in his hand.

Haoden Ye didn't dare to hesitate, hurriedly gave the pills to the patient, and after a while diagnosed again, found that the patient's internal organs were better, but he was still unconscious, Haoden Ye diagnosed again and found that the patient's body damage caused by a car accident, and his own blood energy was very weak, which should be caused by depleted energy, and his body was already very weak.

In other words, even if you don't get into a car accident with yourself, the person probably won't live long.

And, in the condition he was in, he couldn't drive at all.

It was good that he ran into himself today, and Haoden Ye gave him acupuncture, but it was impossible to cure him all at once, and this kind of blood weakness caused by long-term energy loss would require many days of recuperation.

After getting everything done, Haoden Ye was relieved and came out from inside the hospital room.

Outside has become a mess, a large group of reporters around Zou Shiming and Dean Li asking questions, making the two people frazzled, while the woman is a change of noise, yelling at the two people are not people her husband.

As soon as they saw Haoden Ye come out, Dean Li and Zou Shiming came over in a row, while that woman kept Haoden Ye saying, "It's this man, it's this murderer!"

Suddenly, countless flashes and cameras were filming at Haoden Ye.

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye said to the woman, "Now you don't have to worry, your husband is fine! But he didn't have enough blood before his accident, so he needs to get some rest!"

Zou Shiming and Dean Li were relieved at the same time, while the two policemen also showed a relaxed look.

It had come to this, and they were also worried that Haoden Ye would slip up.

Chapter 209

Unexpectedly, the woman heard Haoden Ye's words and suddenly shouted, pointing at Haoden Ye, "Comrade reporter, you see, they really are framing us, my husband is not sick at all, he's not wanting to be in charge!"

Haoden Ye was dumbfounded, it was reasonable to say that he had saved her husband's life, this woman should be happy.

Isn't she making all this noise because she hates herself for running her husband over?

Dean Li was also surprised by the woman's reaction, only Zou Shiming had a smirk on his lips, obviously he had already seen what the woman was thinking.

"Hey! As soon as I saw how excited you were just now, I knew something was going on inside, and sure enough, I'm afraid that this accident is not just Mr. Ye's responsibility!" Zou Shi Ming sneered.

The woman got agitated and looked at Zhou Shiming angrily, "It's obvious that you hit someone, but you still wronged us, you rich people are too black-hearted!"

Any normal person would choose to believe a woman when they hear the words of two people, and those reporters are naturally no exception.

"The lady is right, you're clearly a black cop and a black businessman working together to frame people, and it's rampant!"

"We want justice, we want the law, and the perpetrators must be arrested!"

A group of reporters shouted loudly, and the atmosphere at the hospital gradually filled with gunpowder.

"All of you, shut up!" Zou Shiming saw this and roared, pointing at the woman, "Whether or not your husband had health problems before the accident doesn't affect the verdict against Mr. Ye, what reason do we have to wrong you, and besides, the reason for the accident is because Mr. Ye had a sudden medical emergency!"

"Huh? You're just covering up and harboring criminals!" The driver's end now also shouted angrily at the news.

"Do you see him, a little sick? Who can guarantee that what you say is true? What emergencies, we need a public trial!" Many reporters followed suit.

For a time, the entire hospital was drowned in these angry voices, and Zou Shiming, seeing this, knew that if the situation continued, it would be detrimental to Haoden Ye, and quickly said to Haoden Ye, "Mr. Ye, we'd better go back to the police station first, the man is already alive anyway!"

Haoden Ye nodded and followed Zou Shiming outside, not wanting the woman to leave as soon as she saw Haoden Ye leaving and immediately shouted, "Murderer, don't run!"

As soon as the reporters heard him, some of them blocked Haoden Ye's way, and some excited reporters punched him.

Haoden Ye wanted to counterattack, just need a punch to open him, but he knew that counterattacking at this time is tantamount to aggravating the situation, naturally did not dare to do it, Zou Shiming did not have this layer of estimation, a look at someone to do it, raised his hand is a punch in the chest of that reporter.

The man screamed and retreated incessantly, and Zou Shiming sneered, "What?Want to do it in front of me?"

"The black police are hitting people!"The crowd was mixed with a lot of fearlessness, a Zou Shiming hands-on, immediately shouted.

At this time is already a crowd of anger, see Zou Shiming hands, those who were already indignant reporter also angry, crowded up and began to punch and kick several people.

There were also many onlookers around the patients, for them, the woman and the driver's brother side was the weak, Haoden Ye and Zou Shiming they were the strong power, seeing this side of the situation, they were also indignant and came over to help.

"You doctors, you just know how to make money and don't care if our patients live or die, and now you've learned to harm people!"

"Shoot them, I don't believe there's no justice in our country's language anymore!"

Soon the crowd was packed together, fists and footprints coming from different directions.

Good Zou Shiming is fat, a person occupying half of the corridor a stretch to pull Haoden Ye behind a body, and let two policemen block the other side, to Dean Li: "You first take Mr. Ye out, here I blocked!"

The director of the company is unable to laugh or cry at this time, he does not know how Zou Shiming this look mixed up in the position of the Minister of Security of the Holander's Group, do things without a brain.

He hurriedly pulled Haoden Ye, "Mr. Ye, you have to get out of here!"

Haoden Ye was about to leave when he suddenly saw Wu and Maya Shen standing in the distance, anxiously walking here, they were in the crowd and didn't see that their side was already safe.

He shook his head at Zou and said, "No, if I leave, they'll get even more excited, it's hard to explain this matter, let's go hide inside the ward, with the patient there, those reporters won't dare to do anything!"

As soon as he heard his words, Dean Li immediately nodded, Haoden Ye was gone, and things were really hard for him to clean up.

The two men entered the ward, and Zou and the two policemen also hurriedly ran in, the crowd crowded to follow the fish.

"Open your eyes, father. This is the murderer who did this to you!" As soon as the woman entered the room, she threw herself at the patient and cried out in tears.

Haoden Ye thought right, these people to the ward inside the much more peaceful, after all, if you really do it, whoever touches a broken instrument, it is likely to be able to kill the patient!

“Comrade police officer, must you defend this murderer?”The driver’s brother now stood out from the crowd and looked angrily at the two policemen.

The two cops were pretty unlucky, they were trying to do something good and never expected it to come to this.

“Hey, back then Zou left the Interpol because he made a mistake with his temper, why did I listen to him!”Both policemen laughed bitterly, remembering the reason why Zou Shiming had left the crime squad back then.

When Zou Shiming was a captain in the criminal police force, he received orders from his superiors to investigate a case of child trafficking.

He was so good at handling cases that it took him a few days to lock down the criminals’ lair and raid it one night with the police.

However, seeing the situation inside, Zou Shiming was furious, it turned out that these people have broken the legs of the abducted children, some broken arms, used to beg.

Zou Shiming saw the miserable state of the children inside, and in a fit of rage violently beat the traffickers.

One trafficker was beaten on both legs, and several others had either broken legs or arms.

The incident was also not a big deal, and the trafficker’s family demanded compensation, for which the crime squad paid out a sum of money and fired Zou Shiming as a result.

Hearing the driver’s brother’s questioning, the two men were helpless, and turned their heads to look at Zou Shiming, and Zou Shiming snorted, “Haoden Ye’s current status is that of a suspect, not a criminal, whether he committed a crime or not, the court will decide!”

He said, pointing at the patient's brother, "You said Haoden Ye is a murderer, didn't he save you?As for him saying your brother has other problems, does he need someone else to check?"

"Well, you're clearly shirking your responsibilities, who believes that!"Immediately someone started shouting loudly.

"Yeah, your hospital colluded with him to make you do the test, of course it's the same as what he said!"
