

The Best Son in Law Chapter 230 - 239

Chapter 230

“Who are you, this is a matter between me and the Sun family, you’re tired of living, aren’t you, how dare you interfere!” Factory Manager Zhao came out from the crowd and pointed at Haoden Ye and yelled at him.

“I’m Sun Qian’s boyfriend, the Sun family’s business is my business, I came here today to reason with you, not to fight!” Haoden Ye quickly said to Factory Director Zhao, “You’ve already hit Uncle Sun, that’s breaking the law, aren’t you afraid the police will arrest you?”

“Arrest me?” Plant Manager Zhao laughed at the news and pointed at his nose, his eyes looking at Haoden Ye with disdain.

“Call the police if you can! Huh? After arresting me, you see how the Sun family can still live in the village, besides, you also need another evidence, I’ll see who dares to testify to you?”

It wasn’t that he was talking nonsense, although Factory Manager Zhao was a wealthy man, but the only industry in the village that could make money was his family.

In this kind of poor countryside, the Zhao factory manager was considered to be a great influence, and his status in the village was even more important than that of the village chief.

“Surnamed Zhao, what are you crazy about, I can do this stone factory too!” Sun Wei braced himself and stood up, snorting coldly.

“You do? Hey, hey, yeah, can you sell the stones? Are you going to buy a rock truck? Clients you go looking for?” Zhao factory director dared to be so rampant, of course he also had business sense.

Sun Wei was dumbfounded, he hadn't really thought of driving the factory to be so troublesome, and his appearance became hesitant.

“Huh? If you can't do anything, you can't do anything?” With a sneer, Plant Manager Zhao said disdainfully, “Get the hell out of my way!”

“Then you can't be such a bully, even if you don't get paid, you're still hurting people!” Haoden Ye also couldn't help but get angry and looked at Factory Manager Zhao furiously.

“What? You still want to pick a fight? Let me tell you, I didn't kill surnamed Sun just now because I asked for mercy, if you still find fault with him, I won't be polite!” Factory Director Zhao sneered and pointed at Haoden Ye, “Call everyone over and fight!”

The two workers immediately nodded, and soon everyone in the factory came running over, and there were even thirty or forty of them!

Sun Qian came over behind the two men, and was terrified at the sight of the situation, and hurried forward to pull Haoden Ye along, “Haoden Ye, let's forget about this today!”

Haoden Ye saw the situation and didn't want to make a big deal out of it, but he also knew that this time Sun Wei and Factory Director Zhao had a falling out, and if he didn't let Factory Director Zhao know how powerful it was, the Sun family would be bullied by the village people in the future.

Factory Manager Zhao's eyes couldn't help but light up when he saw Sun Qian from afar, and his current wife was also very beautiful, thirty years younger than him.

Everyone in the village knew that he was rich, and although the girl felt that he was too old to do it, she could only reluctantly agree when she saw how rich his family was.

He was so proud of himself because of this, he couldn't think of any prettier than his wife, and his eyes heated up and he smiled.

“Sin, right? Having grown up so much, if you had come earlier, I might not have settled your brother's salary, in the end we are all from the same village, so why make such an unpleasant scene!”

That lustful look didn't shy away from the meeting at all, causing the other workers to let out a shock of laughter.

Sun Wei was trembling with anger and raised his stick in anger, “Surnamed Zhao, I'll fight you today!”

He outlines to make a move but is pulled by Haoden Ye, Sun Wei turns his head to look at Haoden Ye angrily, “You're Xiao Qian's man, she's being flirted with like this and you can't even sit still?”

Shaking his head slightly, Haoden Ye said, “Don't worry brother, I won't let the Sun family be bullied like this!” Afterwards, he crossed over to Sun Wei and walked forward.

“Zhao factory manager, if we really do it, you people are not enough for me to stuff my teeth, I am here to come to reason, don't want to get to this point, let's each take a step back, I don't want the salary, you just need to give the Sun family an apology and promise not to bother them in the future is!”

A statement that caused the crowd to laugh.

Plant Manager Zhao shivered with laughter at the fatness of his body, a little unable to breathe, pointed at Haoden Ye and laughed, “Oh my mother, are you trying to laugh me to death? You're beating up all my men by yourself? You think you're Batman? Haha!"

Sun Wei also felt that Haoden Ye's words were a bit exaggerated and frowned, "Haoden Ye, don't joke around, hurry up and take Xiao Qian back, I'll solve this matter myself!"

Haoden Ye didn't have any nonsense and slowly shook his head and sighed, "Alright, since I have to fight, I can only do it, but the deal is, if I win against you, you must apologize to the Sun family!"

Factory Director Zhao sneered and accused Haoden Ye of being angry, "If you can stand out today, I can call you grandfather, give me a fight!"

At the command, dozens of workers gathered around and jerked up their sleeves and came over to Haoden Ye.

These long-time manual workers aren't as muscular as fitness trainers, but the strength is definitely not small, and the dozens of people combined are intimidating in their strength.

Sun Qian and Sun Wei looked nervous, Sun Qian pulled Haoden Ye, "Haoden Ye, don't be impulsive, it's not too late for us to leave!"

Haoden Ye didn't say anything and gently pushed his hand away, slowly walking towards the crowd.

When he walked up to the first person, that person looked at Haoden Ye with cold eyes and sneered, "Brother, you're still not running, you're considered a bit brave, but you have to think carefully, if you really do it, we don't care if you live or die!"

He was in a sudden trance, and before he knew what was happening, a black man flew out across the room before his eyes.

Seeing Haoden Ye make a move, the others moved forward as well, and Sun Wei's face widened as he watched Haoden Ye strike from behind.

He was far from Haoden Ye's reluctance, and usually liked to study some fights, but the way Haoden Ye made his move, he didn't even see it clearly.

"Ah!" Another scream came out and another person flew out and landed in front of Factory Manager Zhao.

Factory manager Zhao started with a cold smile on his face, and as one scream was heard, his smile gradually solidified on his face, and in less than five minutes, dozens of workers all fell to the ground, some holding their arms, some holding their thighs, screaming incessantly.

Factory Manager Zhao was pale and dumbfounded at the scene, his fat body slightly shaken.

Haoden Ye slowly walked up to him, looking overbearing.

"Brother have mercy!" Factory Manager Zhao was so frightened that he bent his knees and wept.

"It's all because Zhang Wuxuan told me to do this ah, he told me to sack Sun Wei, and he told me to beat up old man Sun, and he also said you must come back so that I can prepare to teach you a lesson!"

"I'm going out of business in this factory, and he said he'd pull a few orders for me, so I don't dare not follow what he said ah!"

Haoden Ye was trying to get him to apologize to the Sun family, dumbfounded by the words.

Zhang Wuxuan!

Sun Qian and Sun Wei's face also changed when they heard this, Sun Wei heard that his dismissal and father's beating were actually ordered by Zhang Wuxuan, and he shivered with anger.

Chapter 231

"You say it was all Zhang Wuxuan who ordered you to do this? Did he make you hit my dad, too?" Sun Wei fiercely arrived in front of Plant Manager Zhang and grabbed him by the collar with red eyes.

Factory Manager Zhang was two hundred pounds, but in his hands he was like a doll with noodles.

"Yes!" Factory Manager Zhang looked fearful, snot and tears all over his face.

"We're all from the countryside, how can I have the nerve to fight your father, and I know that you're usually solid in your work, so even if I drive you away, I can't not pay you!"

"It's all because Zhang Wuxuan told me to do this, I had no choice ah, now the factory is not profitable, everyone is pointing at my factory to eat!"

With a poof, the obese body of Plant Manager Zhang landed on the ground, raising a cloud of dust on the ground, Sun Wei gritted his teeth and turned around with an angry face, "Surnamed Zhang, I'll fight for you!"

He was talking about Zhang Wuxuan, and the factory manager thought he was talking about him, his face was white, and he almost peed out, so he hurriedly said, "Sun Wei, don't be impulsive, this is really none of my business."

"Brother! Don't be impulsive, uncle is fine now, we'll settle Zhang Wuxuan's score later!" Haoden Ye was afraid that Sun Wei would go directly to Zhang Wuxuan and quickly persuaded him.

In anger, Sun Wei looked up at him, sensing the concern in Haoden Ye's eyes and warmed his heart.

Just yesterday, he thought that his sister was a bit of a loss for following Haoden Ye, but now that he knew what Zhang Wuxuan was like, he was lucky that his sister was interested in Haoden Ye and not Zhang Wuxuan.

Remembering that he hadn't given him a good face many times, and Haoden Ye still helped himself without complaint, Sun Wei's heart was just overwhelmed, and his anger calmed down.

"What brother-in-law said is that my personality is just too impulsive, and we should still have a steady person like you in our family!" Taking a deep breath, Sun Wei calmed down his mood.

He called this brother-in-law is convincing, however Haoden Ye heard but a jump in the heart, Sun Qian's pretty face is a blush.

"Alright, let's hurry up and check on Dad, he should be awake by now!" Sun Qian came forward like a little daughter-in-law and bowed her head.

Sun Wei nodded and the three of them headed to the clinic together, leaving behind the man lying contorted on the floor of the stone factory and the crying Zhang factory director who was crying like a dead mother.

"Plant manager, you told that Haoden Ye about Zhang, if Zhang knew about it, he wouldn't have a problem with us, right?" This bruised and swollen little worker ran over and covered his arm to Factory Manager Zhang.

A moment ago, factory manager Zhang, who looked frightened, changed his face and looked angrily at the little worker, "Do I need you to remind me? In that situation, if I didn't say anything, the one surnamed Sun would have the heart to kill!"

Barely able to climb up, Plant Manager Zhang looked bitter, "What do you think this is about, I thought things were getting better, but I never thought I'd get into trouble again!"

Back to the hospital, Sun's mother saw Sun Wei is a scolding, but the eyes are still concerned inside the meaning.

Father Sun has woken up and still looks a little weak, he should be suffering from blood loss and needs to heal up a bit.

Sun Wei said something about Zhang Wuxuan, and Sun's father and mother were outraged at what they heard.

"That surnamed Zhang looks like a dog, but I never thought he'd be this kind of person!And it's really human!"Father Sun gritted his teeth.

Sun mother but secretly lucky, if not Sun Qian trust Haoden Ye, may not be they were cheated by Zhang Wuxuan, in vain to push her own daughter into the fire.

Mother Sun took Haoden Ye's hand and placed it on Sun Qian's hand, her eyes moist.

"Haoden Ye, it's our Old Sun family's good fortune that our Xiao Qian can find one like you, with this deep friendship between you and Xiao Qian, in the future, when you two get married, our Old Sun family doesn't want the bride price, just be good to Sun Qian for the rest of your life!"

Haoden Ye laughed bitterly at her words, feeling that he and Sun Qian were a little too proud to lie to the old man this way.

"All right!With Haoden Ye's skills, is he the one to pay the bride price?Besides, Hsiao-tsing has started making movies and will be a big star in the future.You're a wife who loves to nag!"Father Sun was not well in his bed.

Sun mother's face became pale, just wanted to be angry at Sun father, glanced at him in wearing a weak look, the words swallowed on the edge of her mouth, turned into a sentence: "I really like Haoden Ye as a son-in-law, what's wrong with saying a few more words!"

Seeing this old couple, Haoden Ye unconsciously smiled, although the Sun family didn't have money, but compared to many couples from wealthy families in the city, their feelings were more simple and true.

I don't know if I'll be bickering like this when I'm older with Maya Shen, either.

"Dr. Yeh...hey, do you have a moment?" Haoden Ye's thoughts were interrupted by the clinic doctor's voice, and he turned his head to see him rubbing his hands and laughing as he walked in.

"Xiao Wen ah, you are too unkind, our Xiao Ye's medical skills are the ability to eat, why do you keep thinking about it, you've been allowed to learn it all, what does our Xiao Ye rely on for a living ah!" When Sun's mother saw Sun Wen coming, her face immediately pulled down.

Sun Wei had an embarrassed look on his face, sniffled, looked at Haoden Ye and then at Sun Mother, and seemed to hesitate whether to go out or not.

"Dr. Sun wants to learn the art of medicine, right!" When Haoden Ye saw his embarrassed look, he turned around with a slight smile and pulled out his cell phone, "I've made a document of the Xuanjiu stitch, you can pass it on if you want to learn it!"

After realizing the subtlety of the Xuanjiu Needle, Haoden Ye made a document of this needle technique to facilitate teaching it to more people.

However, the subtlety of the Xuanjiu needles is to be understood, and there is only a limited amount of content that can be put into words.

A lot of people who can't understand it at all will definitely think the stitching is a trick.

Of course, just learning the Xuanjiu needles is not enough, to reach Haoden Ye's kind of fire, without decades of hard training is not carried out, this is also the main reason why Xuanjiu needles are lost, too much reliance on the user's personal acupuncture skills.

So even though it was made into a document, Haoden Ye still felt it was lacking, but this was his way to maximize the spread of the Xuanjiu needle.

Once he heard that Haoden Ye was going to pass on such a subtle needle technique to him, Sun Wen was so excited that he was about to cry, although he had learned a little from Dean Li, it was far inferior to what Haoden Ye, a true expert, had taught him.

"Haoden Ye, what are you doing!" Mother Sun got nervous and pulled Haoden Ye's hand.

She could treat Haoden Ye as her son-in-law, how could she give away her son-in-law's treasure easily?

"Auntie, the practice of medicine is supposed to treat the sick, so what difference does it make who treats the sick as long as they can get well? Moreover, I admire Dr. Sun in my heart for being able to hold a rural post for so many years."

"Think about it, if Dr. Sun knew how to use the Xuanjiu needle in the first place, would uncle be in danger?" Haoden Ye smiled slightly to his grandmother.

Chapter 232

Sun Wen's eyes were red when he was moved by his words, and in fact when he graduated, the school offered him a number of high paying positions.

But when he thought that there wasn't a proper doctor in his hometown yet, and he had to travel several kilometers to the county to see a cold, he decided to give up those high-paying positions.

Even the classmates who accompanied themselves to the university for five years ridiculed this piece of their own pain, and it was unexpected that Haoden Ye could understand.

"Dr. Yeh!" Sun Wen excitedly grasped Haoden Ye's hand, about to cry out.

Mother Sun still felt a bit of a pity and frowned, "Why don't you just teach him a little bit, but don't teach it all to him!"

"You're an old lady, you can't keep your mouth shut!" Father Sun got angry and glared at him, "Haoden Ye is borrowing Dr. Sun's hand to benefit the people on our side, people aren't people who care about money!"

Sunmu seemed to be a bit overwhelmed in her heart, and muttered something and didn't say anything.

Seeing this scene, Sun Wei was even more satisfied with Haoden Ye in his heart.

After teaching Sun Wen some of the basic principles of the Xuanjiu needle, Haoden Ye planned to go back with Sun Qian and the others.

Leaving the grandmother to take care of the father, the three of them headed for home.

When they had just arrived at the entrance of the village, they saw two groups of people standing at the entrance of the village, but it was Zhang Wuxuan and Factory Manager Zhang's men.

At this time, Factory Director Zhang didn't look any better than when he was beaten by Haoden Ye, and was being scolded by Zhang Wuxuan on this collar, while the stone factory workers were right behind him, not arrogant at all when facing Haoden Ye's three people, but rather fearful.

Xu Guiya didn't come, and following Zhang Wuxuan were a few flowing young men.

Sun Wei saw them from afar and had a smirk on his face, "Deserved it! Dog eat dog, dog eat dog, dog eat dog, dog eat dog! Let's take the shortcut, I'm afraid I'll bump into Zhang Wuxuan and can't help but want to hit him!"

Sun Qian also nodded in succession, only Haoden Ye stopped and frowned at the pleading face of Plant Manager Zhang.

"What? You still want to be in charge of this?" Sensing the hesitant look on Haoden Ye's face, Sun Wei immediately became unhappy and said, "Neither of them are good people, they deserve that Fatty Zhang to be beaten by Zhang Wuxuan, what do you care about him!"

Shaking his head lightly, Haoden Ye frowned, "Let's go over there and take a look, in case Zhang Wuxuan has any bad ideas again, wouldn't we be unable to defend ourselves?"

Sun Wei nodded and followed Haoden Ye once he heard that too.

"You have the nerve to talk business with me? You don't even take a piss to look at yourself, what are you!"

At this time Zhang Wuxuan grabbed Zhang factory director, angry face full of curses: "I raised dogs are smarter than you this thing can not be done! Get the hell away from me, I don't want to see you!"

After Zhang Wuxuan finished speaking, his hand was thrown away and Factory Director Zhang fell into the mud.

He couldn't care less about the sludge, and hugged Zhang Wuxuan's thighs, "Mr. Zhang, give us a way to live, dozens of people in our factory rely on the stone factory to eat, I promise you, as long as the deal is done, I'll give you 80% of the profits!"

"Dead fat pig, let go of my hand, you can afford to pay for dirtying my pants!" Zhang Wuxuan was furious and lifted his foot to fathom Plant Manager Zhang, but no matter how hard he kicked, Plant Manager Zhang just wouldn't let go.

"Are you all blind? Get this pig off me!" Seeing this Zhang Wuxuan turned his head to stare at the humanity behind him.

Those guys looked like no good guys at first glance, and jerked up their sleeves at the news and came over.

Plant Manager Zhang was afraid even at the sight of this frame and was about to let go when he heard a voice angrily say, "Stop!" Turning his head, he saw Haoden Ye and the others walking over.

Plant manager Zhang stayed, the strength of his hand loosened, Zhang Wuxuan's leg was taken out, only this time Zhang Wuxuan saw Haoden Ye was also very surprised, might as well his side lost the strength, almost fell to the ground.

Seeing Haoden Ye and Sun Qian come over, a chill rose on Zhang Wuxuan's face.

“Bastard, I haven’t gotten to you about my girlfriend yet, but I can’t believe you’re bringing it to my door!”Zhang Wuxuan sneered.

“Surnamed Zhang, you still have the nerve to say that it was obviously you who designed to frame Haoden Ye, how long do you want to lie to people!”As soon as Sun Wei heard Zhang Wuxuan say that, he immediately broke into a rant.

“I set him up?Stinking poor sour, he really knows how to put gold on his face, with my status do I need to frame him?”Zhang Wuxuan had a look of disdain on his face.

“Whether or not you are setting me up, you don’t know it in your own mind, I didn’t come to you today to talk about this matter, Plant Manager Zhang has nothing to do with us, you’d better not embarrass him!”Haoden Ye’s face was calm to Zhang Wuxuan.

Once they heard that Haoden Ye had even come to plead for Factory Director Zhang, the faces of the stone factory more or less showed embarrassment, some lowered their heads with shame, their own boss was beaten, none of them dared to stand up.

Instead, it was Haoden Ye, a man they had harmed, who dared to take action.

Zhang factory director heart moved, but thought of their own situation now, immediately angry at Haoden Ye: “What are you talking nonsense, I do not need you to plead?I’ll talk things over with Zhang, so don’t bother!”

Sun Wei was not happy to hear, furious, “Factory Manager Zhang, Zhang Wuxuan beat you up like this, you don’t blame him, but instead we helped you you talk to us like this, do you still have any conscience!”

Haoden Ye knew the difficulty of Plant Manager Zhang and reached out to interrupt Sun Wei.

Zhang Wuxuan's mouth curled up in a contemptuous smile, lifting his foot and kicking Factory Manager Zhang in the shoulder again, hehehe laughing, "What can you do if they are willing to be beaten by me? That's the power of money, and you poor bastards know nothing about it!"

Saying that, his gaze fell on Sun Qian and sneered, "Sun Qian, I, Zhang Wuxuan, have never chased women with my hands and spent the most thought on you, I never thought you would be such a stupid woman, preferring to choose this stinking poor man over me!"

"I pooh, even you are worthy of chasing my sister, I won't let you get a finger on her even if I die!" Sun Wei was furious.

"Hey, a family of idiots is what makes them so poor!" Zhang Wuxuan revealed a look of regret, "I'll show you what the power of money is today!" Afterwards, he pointed at Haoden Ye and said loudly, "You guys say, who is the good guy between me and him!"

"Of course Zhang is always a good man, how many people have made money by investing in our village fertilizer plant!"

"Yeah? Mr. Zhang even helped my little sister go to a major high school in the city, our family thanks him!"

"Mr. Zhang is young and promising, he's the hope of our county!"

A bunch of ass-kissers began to clap, Zhang Wuxuan swept his gaze over the people from the stone factory, and those people followed suit, as if they were afraid that Zhang Wuxuan was deaf, their voices were very loud, and even the director of the factory Zhang Wuxuan also clapped.

"Mr. Zhang is young and handsome, that woman is blind to reject him, if I were a woman, I would definitely not marry Mr. Zhang!" Thanks to his fat body, he kissed ass so meatily.

Chapter 233

Looking at this distorted face, Haoden Ye sighed in his heart and shook his head, “Hey, you guys believe what you say yourselves, don’t you?”

“Do they believe it themselves?” Zhang Wuxuan laughed and pointed at a few people behind him, “This one says I helped his sister get into a major high school, but in reality it was his sister who let me play for a month, and I just barely gave her the money to spend!”

“This says I helped their village invest in a fertilizer plant, but in reality I just used my father’s connections to help them get a quota for poverty alleviation, and most of the money invested was state aid! Haha, so what? I’m rich and they still have to thank me!”

The faces of those whose asses he had ordered were all red, but they dared not to be angry.

Zhang Wuxuan pointed at Haoden Ye and said, “What can you do for them? His sister wants to go to a major high school. Can you help her? Their village is broke. Can you get them investment? And this factory of dead fat pigs, what can you do for them?”

“And Sun Qian, she’s a movie maker, if she wants to be famous she needs someone to invest in her movie, can you invest? I have the money, come up with tens of millions to say it doesn’t matter, can you?”

A few questions in a row, asking Sun Wei to lower his head, Sun Qian’s eyebrows furrowed slightly, seemingly not knowing how to refute Zhang Wuxuan.

She once had a better chance at everyone, and that was Sun Yuxuan, not to mention tens of millions, even hundreds of millions Sun Yuxuan could have easily offered her a movie, she refused because the pride in her heart wouldn't allow her to make such a deal.

However, in all fairness, she really couldn't refute what Zhang Yuxuan said.

A penny can kill a hero and a good man, and a man with sufficient capital to back him up often succeeds more easily than a man with more than ten times his intelligence and effort.

Thinking of this, Sun Qian sighed in her heart and her gaze couldn't help but cast her eyes towards Haoden Ye while the others faced Zhang Wuxuan's question.

Anyone who was even unshocked under these questions again would have to be dumbfounded, but Haoden Ye looked very relaxed, as if Zhang Wuxuan's words were simply farts to him.

"You're right, money is a kind of capital, but it doesn't solve all problems, or at least the evil in a person that money can't wash away!"

Haoden Ye spoke calmly and said slowly, "I used to be looked down on by many people for not having money, even my family looked down on me, but I never looked down on myself for that, I know I'm a good person and I stick to being a good person."

"Until someone finds something good in me and chooses to help me, you're too reliant on money now, even though you have it, and you're walking your way to death and eventually you'll have nowhere to go!"

Hearing his words, many people showed disdain.

Be a good person?The good guys are being called fools these days!

“Big words, how old are you and how much you’ve suffered, and you still dare to judge Mr. Zhang!”

“That’s right, can you fix our stone factory?How about you being a nice guy and helping us out, do you have the capital for that?”

“This man is retarded, it feels like his intelligence isn’t fully developed!”

Before Zhang Wuxuan’s men spoke, the Stone Factory’s men immediately lashed out at Haoden Ye.

“Haha, that’s ridiculous, there are still people saying such retarded things these days, come on, today I’ll see how you, the good guy, will be taught a lesson by me, the bad guy!”

Zhang Wuxuan sneered and pointed at Haoden Ye, “Cripple this man for me, I’ll be responsible for anything that happens!Fifty thousand each for those who make a move!”

Everyone had red eyes when they heard that!

Just do it fifty thousand fast per person, not to mention the Stone Factory’s men, even Zhang Wuxuan’s men were tempted!

Usually they followed Zhang Wuxuan although they ate and drank spicy food, but they didn’t take much real money, beating someone once is fifty thousand, they still don’t fight to the death!

Suddenly, everyone looked at Haoden Ye like they saw a mountain of gold and pounced on him.

“Haoden Ye, run, I’ll block them!”As soon as he saw this, Sun Wei looked nervous and hurried to protect Haoden Ye.

Sun Qian's face also paled, and she did not expect Zhang Wuxuan to say such words.

However, Haoden Ye didn't run away, there wasn't even a nervous look on his face, instead, he actually blocked in front of Sun Wei and Sun Qian and smiled, "You guys back off a bit, this road is full of mud, be careful of getting your clothes dirty later!"

"Boy, you're crazy enough!" Zhang Wuxuan couldn't even breathe from laughing, pointing at Haoden Ye, "Crazy, really crazy, I'll add another 10,000, give me a scoop on his head!"

"Beat him up!" A large group of people pounced on Haoden Ye.

Sun Wei and Sun Qian's hearts were about to jump out of their throats, but they couldn't stop Haoden Ye at this time.

What one didn't expect was that at this time, Haoden Ye didn't even retreat, but instead, his figure flashed into the crowd before they pounced on him.

Then, a burst of screams could be heard, and Haoden Ye's feet kept weaving on the muddy road, but there was no splash, instead, all the people near him without exception flew out across the road and fell to the ground screaming.

In less than three minutes, more than forty people actually all collapsed on the ground.

Seeing this scene, Zhang Wuxuan Zhang, the factory manager, and the Sun siblings were all stunned.

"Sister, what did my brother-in-law just do?" Sun Wei couldn't quite believe his own dao and rubbed his eyes vigorously with one hand.

Sun Qian was also quite surprised, she was associated with fighting for a while, when a martial arts school hired a model, she went to work part-time and learned some Taekwondo along the way.

But even the best teacher in the school can't put real people down all at once.

While the crowd was surprised, Haoden Ye's eyes walked up to Zhang Wuxuan and the corners of his mouth revealed a sneer, "How's it going? Will your money help you now?"

"What are you doing!" Zhang Wuxuan's face paled underneath and he retreated incessantly, "Don't you do anything reckless, or I won't spare you! Don't you do anything, I'll pay you half a million, okay!"

With a cold smile, Haoden Ye didn't have any nonsense, raising his leg was a kick that kicked Zhang Wuxuan inside the mud pit, followed by another punch and kick.

When had Zhang Wuxuan suffered such a loss, now not only was he beaten by Haoden Ye, because there was too much sludge on the ground, making his designer suit all muddy as well.

"I thought you said money was everything? How much are you going to pay me to stop hitting you!" Haoden Ye sneered as he fought.

"A million... a million and a half!" Zhang Wuxuan kept quoting the price, but Haoden Ye never stopped.

Only after a full two minutes did Haoden Ye stop, and by this time, Zhang Wuxuan was covered in mud.

Seeing Haoden Ye walk away, Zhang Wuxuan's dog leg dared to approach and hurried over to help Zhang Wuxuan.

Chapter 234

“Surnamed Ye, count you as having the guts to wait for me!” Zhang Wuxuan was pulled up by the two men, not having that arrogant stance just now at all, and his face was filled with a vicious look, “What are you waiting for, hurry up and protect me out of here!”

The second sentence was a scolding of his own men, the gang of dogs had already been frightened by Haoden Ye and quickly dragged Zhang Wuxuan away.

“Mr. Zhang, don’t go!” As soon as Factory Manager Zhang saw that Zhang Wuxuan was gone, he remembered to look for Zhang Wuxuan’s help and immediately shouted loudly, but he was obese and had a hard time standing up, let alone hugging Zhang Wuxuan’s thighs again.

Seeing Zhang Wuxuan go far away, Zhang factory director looked desperate, dumbfounded for a while, suddenly turned his head to Haoden Ye: “It’s all your doing, angry Zhang away, who will pull a single for us!”

“Fatty Zhang, you’re too heartless, do you think you’ll help Zhang Wuxuan by begging him like that? If Haoden Ye didn’t pull it, it’s a wonder he didn’t kill you today!” Sun Wei became furious and glared at Factory Manager Zhang.

Factory Manager Zhang seemed to know he was right, but he was now just trying to grasp with the straw again, which was better than having no hope.

At this time by Sun Wei, the last line of defense of his heart broke, Zhang factory director sat on the ground, incomparably desperate heart.

However, some of those workers still held a few expectations for Zhang Wuxuan, and some immediately spoke up after hearing Sun Wei’s words.

“Of course you say that, people Zhang is willing to say a few million to a person, to invest a few million in our factory is not a small matter?If it weren't for you, would we have no way to live?”

“You're responsible for what you've caused, you're so good at it, pull a few lists over for us!”

Immediately some people began to cater, they didn't care if Zhang Wuxuan would really help them or not, at this point they had lost one of their sources of income and it was the time they needed to vent.

“I wouldn't help you even if I had the money!”Sun Wei spat and sneered, “Who just tried to break my brother-in-law's leg for fifty thousand dollars?Let's go and leave these guys alone!”Sun Wei said and pulled Haoden Ye away.

However, after pulling twice but not pulling, he twisted his head but saw Haoden Ye's pensive face, as if he was thinking about something.

“Brother-in-law, you're really going to help them!”Sun Wei looked nervous at the sight of God, he knew that Haoden Ye had a good heart and couldn't see people suffering, but even so, how much money could he have, it was better to leave this money to his sister.

Of course Haoden Ye wanted to help these people, but he knew he had other uses for his money, and the reason he didn't leave immediately was because he thought of one thing.

The cloud of purple he had seen on that hill yesterday indicated that this village was not nothing, or a piece of blessed land.

After thinking for a bit, Haoden Ye said, “Consider today's matter as my fault, I'll find a way to help our village, but we won't know if we can succeed until tomorrow!”

“What are you bragging about, if you can’t help it, just say so!”

“How can you help? Show us the money!”

The group of workers naturally wouldn’t believe, only as Haoden Ye was comforting them, factory director Zhang even more disbelieving, he traveled south for so long, Haoden Ye this kind of response to people he is still very familiar with.

Seeing the crowd’s disbelief, Haoden Ye could only smile bitterly and shake his head, this group of people were really given to poverty, and it was not their fault that they would have this kind of reaction.

“Brother-in-law, you’d better calm down, our village is famous for being poor, the county has been trying to pull investment in over the years and has given us aid for an unknown amount of money, but it’s useless ah!”

On the way back, Sun Wei was afraid that Haoden Ye would really take the money out and kept persuading him.

“In addition to this stone factory, the village is not good for planting land, not good for opening factory roads, the county invested more than 40 million a few years ago ... that’s zero years, more than 40 million to catch up with the current 70 or 80 million.”

“But the money that was put in was drifted away, the factories that were built either had problems here or there, the land that was developed simply couldn’t get anything out of it, and finally the county had no choice but to start mobilizing our village people to move out!”

“Those of us who are still holding onto this land are staying in the village because we don’t have any skills of our own and we’re afraid we’ll be bullied if we go to the city!”

“I’ll tell you secretly, the county leaders even invited a feng shui master to take a look at it, and the feng shui master looked at it for more than half a month, leaving only one sentence, this place is so bad feng shui, it’s hopeless!”

This journey Sun Wei could not be described as bitter, afraid that Haoden Ye pulled out a word out.

Haoden Ye only laughed bitterly at his words, honestly Sun Wei’s thoughts were already obvious to him.

Of course he is not a fool, people tens of millions of investment in it is useless, even if he has so much money, he does not dare to invest in it.

And he had been watching Feng Shui for so long, he had an idea of the pattern, but there were bound to be many places around the blessed land that were barren.

And a barren place will definitely have a piece of blessed land, depending on whether or not the feng shui master will look at it, and he talks about a bargain that allows him to look directly into the air and see those treasures that even decades of professional study of feng shui can’t see.

“I know brother, don’t worry about it!” Seeing that he was home, Haoden Ye interrupted Sun Wei’s long-windedness and smiled slightly.

Sun Wei was relieved to see him speak.

Haoden Ye still cooked at night, the three of them ate and went to rest, Sun Wei rested in his mother’s room and theirs, while Haoden Ye rested with Sun Qian in the same room from the night before.

Maybe it was because both of them had been used to it for three days, but tonight there wasn’t even any awkwardness about sleeping together, and they didn’t even want the divider.

When Sun Qian undressed, Haoden Ye turned around self-consciously and Haoden Ye undressed...at least Haoden Ye didn't see Sun Qian peeking.

The two men burrowed inside the nest, smelling the other's scent in the air from an unwilling distance, very peacefully.

"Haoden Ye!" Suddenly, Haoden Ye, who was thinking about his thoughts, heard Sun Qian's slight shout.

He was beginning to think Sun Qian was talking in his sleep until Sun Qian's voice rang out again, "Are you asleep?"

"No, thinking about things, why don't you rest!" Haoden Ye Lian Amon asked in a small voice.

As soon as the words fell, suddenly the quilt shivered, Haoden Ye felt a wind in his ears, then Sun Qian a hand like a snake into his chest on the inside of the quilt.

Haoden Ye's heart jumped, and his entire body trembled slightly as if he had been electrocuted.

Honestly, aside from yesterday morning's misunderstanding, this was the first time he'd been this close to a woman in bed, and a girl had taken the initiative.

A kind of anticipation and tension surged up, but Haoden Ye forcefully suppressed it.

Trying to keep his sanity, he said, "What's wrong?"

"It's nothing, I just want to hug you, it's the first time I've ever hugged a boy, so don't say no!" Sun Qian's voice was a little unreal, like the sound of fairy tones in a dream, but it was clean and pure, without a trace of impurities from the adult world: "Your heart is beating so fast!"

Chapter 235

Haoden Ye said to himself, “This is nonsense, being held by such a big beauty like you, my heartbeat is still fast, isn’t it?”

Since the two of them each had a blanket, hugging like this with two layers of blankets between them, it made it easier for Haoden Ye to calm down.

“Thanks for pretending to be my boyfriend, Yeho!” Sun Qian’s voice came again, with a bit of sleepiness and a bit of serenity.

“It’s nothing, we’re just good friends!” Haoden Ye was infected by her voice, and his mood gradually stabilized.

“Oh, the first time I met you, you gave me a silly feeling, at that time I was just about to graduate and was annoyed by Sun Yuyuan no way, so I wanted to seduce you a bit and trick you into helping me find a job!”

Sun Qian suddenly laughed and said, “I can’t believe you actually found me a job.”

“Huh?” Haoden Ye was dumbfounded, he had always had a good feeling about Sun Qian, he felt that she was a very driven and ambitious girl, but he never thought that the reason she was looking for herself was because she had misunderstood that she was a rich second generation.

“Ah what ah, don’t tell me you helped me just because you saw that I had a talent for acting, not because I’m pretty, you men are all the same!” Sun Qian snorted lightly, her tone disdainful.

“I... “Haoden Ye wanted to say that he didn’t help because she was pretty, but I guess she wouldn’t believe it if he said it, so he didn’t bother to explain.

“It was only after I got to know you better that I gradually came to think of you as a friend, yet even then I still felt that there was a barrier between us, a barrier between the poor and the rich!” Sun Qian said, her arm tightening, “But after hearing you say that today, I realized that there’s actually no separation between you and me at all!”

“Well, you originally approached me with a purpose all along, did you still have me as a spare tire!” Haoden Ye felt her petite body getting closer and closer, and had to swallow his saliva.

“Huh? Do I still need a spare tire, Sun Qian?”

Sun Qian smiled proudly, whirling her tone back to calm, “You’re already married, so how can you be my spare tire!”

She inhaled through the blanket as if she were trying to sniff something out of it.

“Three days with you plus a boyfriend, I don’t know why, it seems like a lifetime, there was a lot of unpleasantness, but now that I think about it, it’s a really good memory!”

When Haoden Ye heard her tone gradually deepen, a bad feeling arose in his heart, and he quickly cut her off, “We’ll have better memories in the future, it’s not too early, you should rest quickly.”

“Oh, what are you afraid of, don’t you want to hear me out?” What kind of mind Sun Qian had, she naturally guessed what he was thinking.

Soon, a pretty face was pressed close to Goodwill’s chest and the blanket was blowing a slight scent of air.

“Yeho, what if we’re not pretending? Would you leave your wife for me?” Sun Qian’s voice came from inside the quilt, causing Haoden Ye’s heart to sink.

“No!” Haoden Ye’s reply was cut to the quick: “I love my wife!”

The petite body in his bosom instantly stiffened, and Haoden Ye felt a chill coming from her body.

“Why are you answering with such certainty, I saw that day at Wu’s construction site that you two didn’t seem to have a good relationship, she... didn’t love you!” Sun Qian’s voice was slightly trembling.

“You don’t understand, I’ve been through so much with her, I can’t cut it anymore!”

Haoden Ye sighed, “You saw her and me on bad terms the other day because she was mad at me, and I can’t tell you these things clearly!”

Haoden Ye tried to do the explaining, though he didn’t know exactly where that explanation would lead.

In fact, it was the first time he experienced being confessed by a girl and was a bit caught off guard, and he was more worried that his relationship with Sun Qian wouldn’t go back to the old days after his rejection.

“Oh!” Sun Qian in the bosom suddenly giggled.

“You’re such a fool, if another man would have said he kinda liked me too, and got me while he could! Women are the most brainless at this time of year, and you’re missing a great opportunity oh!”

Hearing her laugh again, Haoden Ye slowly shushed her.

To think that I was a little ridiculous just now, but I was worried that Sun Qian would be sad and break off her relationship with him.

She's definitely been through more than she has, and she's much better at dealing with emotions than she is.

"Maybe, but if you knew me better, you'd think I'm not just stupid, I'm useless!" Haoden Ye laughed at himself.

The arms of the girl in the embrace tightened again, the pretty face of the whole carrying their own chest, Sun Qian's voice came again.

"I think you're no good right now, why can't you be a little greedy and resourceful like other men, I wouldn't blame you even if you cheated me!"

Haoden Ye's heart was funny, how come all the girls nowadays think so strange and would rather be cheated by scum, he shrugged his shoulders, "If I were greedy, I'm afraid you would have hid far away when you first saw me, and we wouldn't have become friends!"

"Well?" Sun Qian was stunned for a moment, then giggled once again, "You're right, hmm, so you're not stupid either!"

Laughing, she added, "If your way doesn't work tomorrow, let's go back, I really don't want to get you in trouble because of what's going on at home!"

Shaking his head lightly, Haoden Ye said, "No, I have one more and me thing to settle before I go!"

Sun Qian's delicate body shook slightly and suddenly lifted the blanket and raised her head.

In the darkness, a pair of glittering eyes shone, and by now their faces were so close together that they were almost indistinguishable from the lovers sharing the same bed.

However, those eyes were now filled with worry, “Are you going to deal with Zhang Wuxuan? No, Zhang Wuxuan’s family owns a mine and is very rich, you are no match for him, even if you were able to fight, how many people can you beat?”

With a smile, Haoden Ye’s face didn’t look half panicked, instead, he revealed a look of chestiness and smiled, “Don’t worry about that, I just thought of someone who would be best to deal with a character like Zhang Wuxuan!”

“Well? You’re not just backed by Wu, are you?” Sun Qian revealed a look of surprise, “Could it be that you still have a relationship with the Holander family?”

Haoden Ye was startled and wondered, “Eh? You’re making it sound as if Mr. Wu and the Holander family are very close!”

Mr. Wu had a good relationship with the Holander family, which Haoden Ye was clear about, but how close it was to that point, he didn’t know.

A hand popped out of the blanket and gently nudged Haoden Ye’s nose.

Whirling around was Sun Qian’s unkind voice: “You’re really stupid! The background of your own patron is not even clear, the largest family in Dan City is the Holander family, the second ranked is the Zheng family, and the third is the Lin family in Dan City.”

“And there are many small families under the hands of these big families, such as the Wu family!”

Chapter 236

Haoden Ye was surprised that he was willing to do it for Wu and Holander who were just on good terms.

“Why are you telling me this?”Haoden Ye was suddenly curious.

“I’m going to make it clear to you, don’t befriend anyone who doesn’t care from now on!”Sun Qian fiercely pinched his hand.

“Don’t look at Mr. Wu being so polite in front of you, there’s no telling how many people in Dan City are afraid of him!”

Sun Qian spoke in a sobbing tone: “Wu’s business tactics are ruthless, once a lot of people who were against him were screwed over by him, and Wu’s relationship with his brother is not good, because Wu is too desperate to do things!”

Haoden Ye was surprised, to what extent does one have to do things to make his own brother have a problem with him.

“Then I’d better have less contact with Mr. Wu in the future!”Haoden Ye thought about how casual he used to talk to Mr. Wu, and his heart palpitated.

“Oh, that’s not necessary, Mr. Wu is still very good to his friends, he’s very jianghu!”Sun Qian’s head came out of the nest and smiled at him.

Thinking that Wu had helped him dodge so much, Haoden Ye nodded in his heart, no matter what his reputation was outside, at least Wu was still good to him.

“Well, sleep! I only know a little bit about these big families in Dan City, and I know so much about Mr. Wu, or the other actors in our crew told me!”Sun Qian’s head shrank back and yawned.

Haoden Ye also closed his eyes and put down what was on his mind to enter dreamland.

In the morning Haoden Ye got up to cook as usual, Sun Wei saw Haoden Ye busy, standing dry rubbing hands can not help, a look of embarrassment, or Sun Qian let him sit down at ease.

After breakfast, Haoden Ye found a quiet place to call Zou.

“Dr. Yeh is up so early, what do you want from me?” On the other side of the phone, Zou seems to have just gotten up, yawning incessantly.

It’s more than nine o’clock now, and Zou always says it’s early, so what time did he get up?

“I’m really sorry to bother Zou!” Haoden Ye quickly apologized, then said, “It’s not a big deal, I just want Zou to help me teach someone a lesson!” Afterwards he said about Zhang Wuxuan.

“Oh? Even Dr. Ye’s friend dares to bully him, okay, I’ll take note of this person and get right on it!”

Zou always came to life immediately, and the figure sounded very excited.

Remembering what Sun Qian had said last night about General Manager Wu, Haoden Ye was afraid that General Manager Zou would make things worse, and quickly said, “Just a small lesson is enough, and don’t make it too difficult for him!”

“Haha, I’m relieved you’re not relieved yet, you’re Holander’s friend, whoever dares to bully you is not giving him face, he’ll definitely have to eat this loss, I’ll just keep an eye out to not kill him!”

General Zou trailed off, clearly not taking Haoden Ye’s words seriously.

Haoden Ye laughed bitterly in his heart, already thinking that Zhang Wuxuan’s outcome was bound to be miserable.

But for this kind of person, any punishment Haoden Ye received was not excessive.

This time Zou hung up the phone and lifted his leg to fathom the buttocks of a beautiful woman next to him.

A beautiful woman in the midst of sleep was kicked, panic open eyes, half a day to understand what happened, but also dare not get angry, quickly pull up the blanket want to cover the naked body.

“Where on you have I not seen!” Zou smiled, pulling off the blanket in the beauty’s hand.

The beautiful woman gave an ouch and her pretty face immediately blushed, coquettishly saying, “Mr. Zou!”

Zou always laughs, and is about to flirt two more sentences, glancing at the pretty girl’s pretty face, his eyes suddenly bright....

Twenty minutes later, Mr. Zou and the beautiful girl appeared together at the Dan City Criminal Police Station.

“Zou’s here!” The detective at the gate booth and Zou are very familiar with each other and greeted each other politely upon meeting.

“Fuxin Ye Wei all these brats are there, right?” Zou hugged the pretty girl and grinned widely after the greeting.

“It’s all there!” The police officer’s cheeks were drawn and he looked nervous: “Zou brother looking for them is not another ‘business’, these brothers have been on the captain’s blacklist this year, and the captain will certainly not spare them if they commit further crimes! Zou would like to change a few people!”

“What’s there to be afraid of, if something happens, come hang out at my company, good pay and a beautiful woman!” Zou pinched the face band of the beautiful woman in his arms and said, “Tell them to take a day off and I’ll take them to a big case!”

“Sooner or later, our Interpol team will be dug clean by Zou!” Shrugging his shoulders, the detective still helped Zou contact a few people.

Three hours later, in front of a KTV in the county town, a bright ordinary Santana car stopped, and four men and one woman got down from the car.

At this time inside a private room of KTV, Zhang Wuxuan was singing a sad love song with his arm around Xu Guiya’s shoulder.

“Mr. Zhang is so infatuated, that Sun Qian is too insensitive!” A dog-legged man looked impressed, not caring that Xu Guiya, his decent girlfriend, was right beside him.

“Hey! Stupid women in this world are still again, but it’s to my liking, and I was worried she’d do it for my money.”

Zhang Wuxuan sighed, then looked up at the sky at a forty-five-degree angle, looking like he was infatuated, “Who let me be too infatuated, after seeing her, I don’t have any other woman in my eyes... Ah!”

As Zhang Wuxuan was speaking, a beautiful woman at the door slowly walked over.

The beauty even glanced inside as she passed by, her soul-stirring gaze making Zhang Wuxuan’s sweat hairs harden.

Zhang Wuxuan jumped up from his seat at once and ran after her.

“Leave a number, pretty girl!” Catching up with the beauty, Zhang Wuxuan immediately revealed a smile that he thought was charming.

The beauty was slightly surprised, but quickly still reacted, fawning a smile, “I’m sorry hello, I have a boyfriend!”

“Anything’s possible without marriage!” Zhang Wuxuan felt that this beauty should like herself, smiling slightly and pulling out his own men, deliberately revealing his 200,000 Rolex watch.

“Lou, who are you talking to!” At this time a five big and three coarse man came over, a hand to reveal the beauty, his face guardedly looking at Zhang Wuxuan.

“Honey, this guy is asking people for their numbers!” As soon as the beauty saw the man coming, she immediately showed an aggrieved look and said, “People didn’t give it to him, but his teacher pestered me!”

At this time, Zhang Wuxuan had already looked the man up and down, but when he saw that he was wearing ordinary clothes, his eyes became contemptuous.

“Bitch, let your boyfriend give you to me to play with himself right now!” With a cold snort in his heart, Zhang Wuxuan said coldly to the big man, “It’s your first time in the county, I’m Zhang Wuxuan, the vice president of Sheephorn Mining!”

When ordinary people heard the four words Goat Horn Mining, they were terrified, but to my surprise, the big man was just stunned and whirled around with an angry face, “I don’t care who you are! Come on, why are you hitting on my girlfriend!”

Chapter 237

“Why do you need to know who I’m hooking up with? I’ve got a crush on your girlfriend and want to chase her, aren’t you glad?” Zhang Wuxuan gave a contemptuous smile and said, “Don’t worry, I’ll give you the money, is one million enough?”

One million million was not a small amount for an ordinary person, but for this beauty, Zhang Wuxuan felt that it was worth it.

“You’re picking a fight aren’t you,” the big man looked fierce and grabbed Zhang Wuxuan by the collar, “Money is great!”

“Hehe, don’t be impulsive,” Zhang Wuxuan didn’t panic, his smile became even more arrogant, “I’ll teach you a good boy today, money is useful, this KTV is owned by me, you try it?”

He was expected to hear this and not dare to do anything, but to his surprise, he shouted a fist and swung down, hitting Zhang Wuxuan’s eyes.

“I’m going to kill you!” Zhang Wuxuan crawled up from the ground and yelled at the top of his voice, “Call someone, waste him for me!”

One of the dogs saw it and hurried to call for someone, at this time three young men also came up and ran to the big man, “Brother Zou, didn’t you say that you would wait until we found out what was going on before doing anything?”

“This kid is too arrogant, I was itching to do something, it’s the same to fight sooner or later, take care of the little building later and let go of the fight!” The big man struck out, looking like he didn’t do it on a whim.

Soon, more than twenty people came down from upstairs and downstairs of the KTV and surrounded the five men.

“What are you waiting for? Waste them!”

Zhang Wuxuan had been helped up, and Xu Guiya was at the side rubbing the swollen wounds on his face.

A whiff of aggravation appeared on her face, her hands doing very carefully.

More than twenty people KTV security guards went on without saying a word and a scuffle began.

Many of the people in the KTV booth came out to watch the fun, and when they saw this, they couldn't help but whisper, wondering who was so unlucky to have angered Zhang Wuxuan.

However, in less than five minutes, more than twenty security guards all fell to the ground, and five of them, except for two young men who took a punch to the face, were not even injured at all.

Seeing this scene, Zhang Wuxuan was also stunned.

What's going on these days? If you run into one of them, you're a fighter!

The big man glanced disdainfully at the security guard lying on the ground and looked over at Zhang Wuxuan with a sneer.

Zhang Wuxuan was in a state of shock and quickly said, "Don't you dare, I'm going to call the police!"

"The police? I'm a cop, or a detective!"

As his voice trailed off, a young man pulled out his police license and opened it to show the crowd, snarling, "Bullying someone's girlfriend and calling security to fight her, does that count as a black power!"

"Huh?" Zhang Wuxuan was dumbfounded, looking at the police badge.

“Of course it counts as a black power,” the big man nodded evenly, fuming, “I’ve also heard that they still have prostitution here, comrade police must investigate it properly, for us small folk ah!”

“Oh?And this situation, I’ll definitely react to my superiors, hey, take a good vacation today to relax in KTV, but I never thought I’d run into something like this!”The young man sighed with a regretful look.

The two men sang and sang, escalating the incident again.

“You two are in cahoots, lying fools!You’re fishing for law enforcement and deliberately looking for a fight!”Zhang Wuxuan hinted that he understood what was going on and pointed at the big man in anger.

“Hey, you’re not a fool, either!”

The big man laughed and tightened his bosom beauty: “My girlfriend is okay, she was the runner-up in last year’s Dan City Model Competition, and she’s a few hundred thousand for a model show.

Zhang Wuxuan was shaken, that little building was actually the runner-up in the model competition, then this big man was not a poor man.

At this time, the big man had walked up to Zhang Wuxuan and looked at him condescendingly, with a cold smile on his lips, “Today the torturers have been beaten up, if you don’t check who you’re checking, you’re hiding dirt in this place, a check is in order, you’re just waiting to go in!”

Zhang Wuxuan’s face paled as he gritted his teeth and looked at the big man, furiously saying, “Who the hell are you and why are you trying to trap me!”

The tips of the big man’s eyebrows jumped slightly, revealing a look of amusement as he said, “Pit you?I’m Zou someone to trap, you can’t just go in for a few days and be done with it, Dr. Ye said to keep you alive, I've got a great deal of control!"

After saying that, he raised his hand and patted Zhang Wuxuan's face, "Kid, from now on, keep your eyes open, don't be too crazy, how can you hang around when you don't even know what people you've offended!"

"Dr. Yeh?" Zhang Wuxuan's mind tried to search for a doctor surnamed Ye, but he hadn't been to the Face Hospital for the past few days, so where had he offended Dr. Ye?

Suddenly, Zhang Wuxuan's body shook, and a name popped up in his mind, saying off the top of his head, "Haoden Ye!"

The big man laughed and patted him on the shoulder, "Not bad, still a bit of a brain, for the sake of the fun you let me have today, I'll talk to my brothers about giving you mercy, just lock you up for a year!"

"Haha! You also don't want your old man to bother moving up and down, it's useless, if you don't believe me, you can go to the city and ask about my Dan City Zou Dahua name!"

After saying that he turned around and laughed and sailed away....

In less than twenty minutes, the crime squad searched the KTV.

Of course, Haoden Ye didn't know everything that happened in the KTV, and at this time, he had already arrived at the mountain he saw the day before with Sun Wei Sun Qian and the two of them.

Here a lot of mountains, the road is also very rugged, obviously very close to the mountains, to go around a long way, Haoden Ye and Sun Wei okay, Sun Qian a girl will rest many times.

Finally arriving at the foot of that mountain, before Haoden Ye went up, he suddenly heard the sound of a gong beating a drum.

“Mr. Chang?” Haoden Ye saw a funeral procession from afar, headed by Plant Manager Zhang and a beautiful girl.

“Did someone die in Fatty Zhang’s house?” Sun Wei was also extraordinarily surprised to see them: “It must be that he has done too much wrong, and his family has been implicated!”

The two men said as they walked over to Factory Manager Zhang.

At this time, the director of the Zhang factory in a fatherless, walking while crying, mouth sobbing also do not know what to say.

Seemingly sensing something, Plant Manager Zhang lifted his head and saw Haoden Ye and the others coming over.

Factory Director Zhang’s face fell as he reached out his hand to stop the funeral procession from continuing to beat the gong and walked forward with a knitted brow, “Sun Wei! What are you guys doing here!”

Sun Wei looked past him at the funeral procession wondering, “Is there a death in Factory Manager Zhang’s family? Why don’t you see a coffin?”

Factory Manager Zhang’s face went cold and he said angrily, “I’m paying homage to my ancestral grave, have you ever seen a funeral without blowing a suona and beating a gong?” Saying that, he looked at Haoden Ye and said, “Didn’t you try to find an investment for our stone factory?”

Chapter 238

Smiling, Haoden Ye said very politely, “I didn’t say looking for investment for your stone factory, I said looking for a way for the young people of your village to get rich, and that way is right here on this mountain!”

“This hill?” Factory Manager Zhang gave a disdainful smile, “If you can’t find it, you just can’t find it, why are you looking for such a reason, we weren’t expecting you!”

At this time the young girl also came over, with an impatient gaze.

“What are you talking to them about, get it over with, I’ve got skincare this afternoon!” The girl came over and whined at Factory Manager Zhang.

“Miss Zhang don’t worry, I’ll talk to your father about some business matters, right away!” Haoden Ye also wanted Factory Manager Zhang to go over to see the blessed land with him, so he quickly explained for Factory Manager Zhang.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he said that, Plant Manager Zhang’s cheeks smacked, while Sun Wei and Sun Qian showed a look like a smile.

The girl’s pretty face paled, obviously angry, but she didn’t say anything.

“This is my wife Min Yue!” Plant Manager Zhang breathed a ragged breath and was vicious.

Haoden Ye was directly dumbfounded, how did this girl look like she was only in her early twenties, and Factory Director Zhang was at least forty, the difference between the two of them was more than twenty!

With a dry laugh, Haoden Ye quickly apologized, “I’m sorry sister-in-law!”

“Hurry up and finish the conversation!” Min Yue snorted coldly and turned around, looking angry and embarrassed.

“Plant Manager Zhang, I’ll take you to see a place later, it’s good feng shui there, I think we can make use of it, you’ll still be bothered to come with me after you finish the festival later!” Haoden Ye quickly explained the reason for his arrival.

Factory Manager Zhang’s brow furrowed as he listened, looking suspicious, “We have a feng shui master here who has come to see what kind of feng shui treasure there is, you’re not lying to me, are you! I’m telling you, I can’t take a joke right now!”

Hastily shaking his head, Haoden Ye pointed at the mountain in the distance, “That’s it, believe me, the feng shui is definitely good!”

Factory Manager Zhang stayed for a moment and pointed to the distant mountain, “That mountain? There’s nothing there but our old Zhang family’s ancestral grave!”

At this point, his face changed slightly, as if he thought of something surprised, “Ah! You mean, my ancestors of the Zhang family have been buried on a feng shui treasure! No wonder, since last year’s rain, my ancestral grave washed away!”

Haoden Ye was also surprised, but thinking about it, it was only natural that Factory Director Zhang was able to make a splash in the village, it must be because of the lucky land, but he wouldn’t be able to use Feng Shui, otherwise it wouldn’t be as simple as just a small factory director now.

At this time, factory director Zhang was already overjoyed, patting his thigh, “Why didn’t I think of it earlier, the days are just right, on the first day the ancestral grave is in trouble, and the next day the factory is in trouble, Mr. Ye, you are really a god!”

He took Goody’s hand enthusiastically and looked thrilled.

With a bitter smile, Haoden Ye shook his head and said, "Don't get excited yet, this hill used to be used as a graveyard, but now the feng shui pattern has changed, if you knew how to make use of it before, I'm afraid you'd be a very rich family by now, but not anymore!"

"Huh?" The smile on Factory Manager Zhang's face solidified, whirled around and became angry, pointing at Haoden Ye, "Kid, you're not greedy for a good place in my ancestral grave, trap me!"

"Fatty Zhang, you're lard blinded, we're going to trap you, why tell you this place is good feng shui! Just bury our ancestors directly and secretly, and Little Leaf knows feng shui, so the burial will definitely be better than you!" Sun Wei was not happy to hear it.

Factory Manager Zhang thought about it, if it was true that he could still bury people, why would Haoden Ye need to tell him.

When he thought about it, he looked disappointed, or his own family didn't have the luck.

"Don't worry, Plant Manager Zhang, I will separately choose a good feng shui place for you to bury your ancestor's grave, it's definitely better than the way you were buried before, as for the blessed land, I have other uses for it!" Haoden Ye quickly explained.

Plant manager Zhang finally eased his appearance upon hearing it, although the place Haoden Ye chose was definitely not as good as his previous place, but his own family didn't know how to use it before, what was the difference between it and nothing?

"Trouble Mr. Ye, let's go there now!" Fatty Zhang took off his mourning clothes with impatience.

"You don't sacrifice your ancestors anymore?" Sun Wei was surprised.

“What kind of ancestors are still being sacrificed, I only have the factory and my brothers’ survival on my mind now, the ancestors love to bless or not, they are already dead I still care for their feelings?” Factory Manager Zhang trailed off.

Haoden Ye stared, and it was the first time he had ever heard someone respect his ancestor so much.

“Fatty Zhang, are you done or not, I didn’t marry you to get a tan, and you’re making all of us wait for you on this hot day?” At this time, Min Yue behind her shouted this way.

“Let them all go back, no more ancestor worship, I’ll go over to the ancestral grave!” Factory Manager Zhang waved his hand from a distance.

Min Yue’s face was filled with anger as she quickly walked over, “Do you still have any righteousness, the whole village is watching, you said no to the sacrifice, who have we been busy for most of the day?”

After saying that, he pointed at Sun Wei, “Sun Wei, what did you say to this dead fatty!”

“Talk about a way to get rich!” Sun Wei didn’t even get angry, but instead spoke in a teasing tone.

As soon as Min Yue heard that there was a way to get rich eyes got cold and hurriedly said, “Where, I’m also going to see!”

Factory Manager Zhang couldn’t help but show off, “It’s our ancestral tomb, this Mr. Ye is a Feng Shui master and said that our ancestral tomb is a treasure land!”

Min Yue’s face went cold and reached out to twist Factory Manager Zhang’s ears.

“Fatty Zhang, you are really the more you live the more you go back, but you actually believe in the divine stick, he knows the way to get rich, not himself muffled before telling you? What sin did I do in my last life to be charmed by your money and marry you, a dead fatty!”

Seeing her acerbic appearance, Haoden Ye couldn't help but frown.

This Min Yue was more than twenty years younger than Plant Manager Zhang, but not to mention the respect for an older husband, there was no respect for an ordinary family man ah!

“Sister-in-law, to tell you the truth, the little money this village can earn, I still don't put it in my eyes, and I told Factory Director Zhang, because I thought he could bring us folks to make money, if you don't believe me it's fine, I'm leaving!” Haoden Ye's face was unhappy.

Of course he wasn't really leaving, but scaring Min Yue.

Min Yue's face really showed some hesitation and thought for a moment before muttering, “I only said I doubted you, I didn't say I didn't believe you!”

Afterwards, she pinched her waist and said, “You take us there to take a look, and if we can really make money, we'll just give you the benefit fee!”

Factory Manager Zhang also hurriedly said, “Mr. Ye don't be angry, Haodene is just this quick tempered!”

Haoden Ye grunted and turned around, and the others hurriedly followed.

Chapter 239

When they reached the mountain, they saw that the land was not very steep, and three graves stood alone on a flat piece of land half the size of a soccer field.

Only now the graves had been washed away, and even the land had been washed out by the rain in a deep furrow, like a piece cut off a cake.

The others were fine, but Factory Manager Zhang was already panting when he climbed up, and on the way Haoden Ye wanted to give him a break, but Factory Manager Zhang refused, eager to come up and take a look.

“What do you see that’s different here, Mr. Yeh?” Plant manager Zhang was completely unconcerned about the ancestral graves, pulling Haoden Ye in for questioning as soon as he came up.

Here, after the rain had washed away many ravines, the land had become moist from the original drought, and Haoden Ye could see that the land was already good, but it was just too arid and too troublesome to bring water, so it was treated as barren land.

After observing carefully for a while, Haoden Ye nodded and said, “Just as I thought, this is indeed a precious land, if it is used to grow crops, it will definitely yield a bumper harvest!”

“Huh? Growing food?” Factory Manager Zhang frowned at the thought, how much grain could be grown in such a large area?

“Why do you feng shui master talk like a fart, we worked so hard to come up here to look at a piece of crop land?” Min Yue immediately looked ugly, angry in her heart at Haoden Ye for making them work so hard to climb the mountain for a piece of crop land.

Turning his head to look at her, Haoden Ye said indifferently, “You can go down if you’re unhappy, I didn’t beg you to come up, did I say that planting crops means you have to be a banker? What if it’s used to grow herbs?”

Min Yue’s eyes immediately lit up and quickly said, “Oh? What herbs do you grow and how much do you make a year?”

“It’s hard to say, before the earth’s energy leaks out here, a herb should grow, nourished by the earth’s energy here, very valuable, and the type of herb will determine what is planted here in the future!”Haoden Ye Xu Dao.

The crowd listened in the clouds, Sun Qian understood what Haoden Ye meant and quickly said, “Haoden Ye means that the land here is suitable for growing what kind of herbs, then there must have been such herbs growing before, so he’s still not sure!”

Only then did Factory Manager Zhang understand and immediately nodded, “Okay then, let’s split up and look!”

Haoden Ye quickly shook his head and said, “No need, let you find you don’t know the shape of the herb, I can go alone!”

“What!Do all of us have to wait for you?”Min Yue must have gotten upset and said with a straight face, “This herb grows in our land, so if you find it, it’s also our family’s!”

With a furrowed brow, Haoden Ye said unhappily, “This herb must belong to me, or I won’t find it!”

“By what!Aren’t you just a feng shui reader, and what grows on our land is ours!”Min Yue immediately showed a sharp look.

Haoden Ye looked over to Factory Manager Zhang, waiting for him to speak, and at this time, Factory Manager Zhang also looked embarrassed, and it was obvious that there was nothing he could do about this wife.

“Min Yue, you can’t be so unkind, think about it, if it wasn’t for Haoden Ye, you wouldn’t even know that this land is a treasure, people want just one herb from you, if you don’t agree, you’ll have nothing!”Sun Wei was on the verge of persuasion.

Min Yue snorted, “Well, if you don’t look for it, we’ll find someone else to help us find it, and all the doctors under the sky are dead? You had to come looking for it!”

“Yes! This is how you, Fatty Zhang, do business, I, Sun Wei, remember!”

Sun Wei also got angry and pulled Haoden Ye, “Let’s go, let’s go back and tell the people in the village that Fatty Zhang is too greedy, so he’ll be an empty wolf.”

Factory Manager Zhang finally couldn’t sit still, if Haoden Ye was chased away by his wife today, his face would be disgraced, as a businessman, who would trust him in the future if he didn’t have this much integrity.

“You’re enough, a few words won’t kill you, as long as Mr. Ye helps us, this one herb is for him!” Factory Manager Zhang muffled.

“Good, you fatty Zhang is now temperamental, is not tired of me, to quickly kicked me to find a new lover,” Min Yue began to make a scene as soon as he heard this, but also did not make any more demands.

Obviously, she was also like borrowing Factory Manager Zhang’s words to step down.

“You guys take a break here, I’ll go first!” Haoden Ye said to Sun Qian and the others, turning around to search along the direction of the violet flow.

The slowly flowing violet Qi in the air was not visible at all, but Haoden Ye was clearly visible, and he followed carefully all the way to the depths of the graveyard.

The washed-out ravine grew full and large, from being only one man wide to being big enough for three men to run alongside, while the height gradually diminished.

Haoden Ye walked for a while, making sure that the violet energy came from inside the ravine, before jumping off the ravine and continuing to walk inside.

Less than three minutes later, a cave entrance appeared in front of Haoden Ye's eyes.

Apparently, the cave used to be buried deep underground and was naturally formed, with many prototypical irregular columns inside the cave.

Haoden Ye took out a lighter and lit a pile of straw and threw it in, the flame burned normally and there didn't seem to be any wind in it.

Haoden Ye was relieved, being able to burn meant that there was oxygen and that he could breathe, apparently this cave was still well ventilated.

Entering inside the cave, Haoden Ye walked forward along a very shallow stream under his feet, and after about ten minutes, a faint red light appeared in front of him.

"Rockflower!" From afar, Haoden Ye saw a very red and beautiful flower blooming on a stone pillar.

The rock flower is actually a fungus similar to a reishi, except that the reishi grows outdoors while this flower grows on rocks underground.

According to Haoden Ye's knowledge of golden carp, this rock flower grew on rocks, similar to reishi, which was a fungus and had very good medicinal effects.

He is also shaped like a lingzhi, but the leaves are very thin and look like a flower.

Although this flower is precious, it is highly poisonous on the surface and should not be picked by hand.

“I never thought I’d find such rare herbs here!” Haoden Ye’s insides stirred, and he quickly turned to find a branch to knock down the flowers, then put them in a bag.

After searching for half a day, I found a branch that wasn’t too long or short, and was about to go back when suddenly a voice at the door sounded, “Haoden Ye, have you found it?”

In the middle of the conversation, Sun Qian came in from outside the cave and happened to stop underneath the flower.

Smiling slightly, Haoden Ye pointed at the many rock flowers and smiled, “This is it!”

Sun Qian looked up, but saw that the color of the flowers, petals amber, as long as the rock on the general eyes is a bright, subconscious reached out to pick.

Haoden Ye was shocked and quickly said, “Don’t move!”

However, it was already too late, Sun Qian’s hand just touched the rock flower, her pretty face was white, the whole person stiffened there.
