

The Best Son in Law Chapter 270 – 279

Chapter 270

This day a busy night, after all is still fruitless, Haoden Ye to also is not so anxious, so the next day dragged his tired body to work.

Just before arriving at the front of the pharmacy, I saw a large group of people gathered at the entrance.

“May I ask if you are Mr. Ye?” A man in a police uniform approached.

“Yes, may I ask this comrade what you want?” Haoden Ye was curious.

“Hello, you’ve been reported as infringing on someone’s patent rights, please come with us!” The policeman was very polite.

Haoden Ye’s face changed slightly!

How did he not know that he was infringing on someone else’s patent?

Come to think of it, all the things you are selling now are in the koi fish’s medical book, maybe someone has patented something in it and you just don’t know it.

After all, koi fish don’t care if you have a patent or not!

Thinking of this, Haoden Ye laughed bitterly, how come he hadn’t thought of these questions before.

So Haoden Ye didn't defend himself and followed the police to the car, then through the window Haoden Ye saw that the police were seizing his pharmacy.

With a slight sigh in his heart, Haoden Ye couldn't help but get worried.

I don't know exactly which drugs I'm violating someone's rights, and whether it's serious enough to pay for.

He hasn't made much money so far. Don't lose it all!

The police car started and soon arrived at the station.

Haoden Ye was surprised to find that Professor Hua and Jiao Yuchun were also at the police station, and there were a few doctors he looked very familiar with.

"What the hell is going on here!" When Haoden Ye saw them, he was wondering.

What does it matter to them if they themselves infringe on someone else's patent rights?

Professor Hua and Jiao Yuchun looked grave, and Jiao Yuchun leaned in front of Haoden Ye and whispered, "Doctor Ye, tell me the truth, did you steal the formula for your migraine medicine from someone else!"

Haoden Ye wasn't sure about this matter anymore, and wanted to shake his head.

"I learned it from a man, but that man is long dead!" That was all Haoden Ye could say.

“Deceased? Did he say he applied for a patent before he died?” Jiao Yuchun paled at the sound.

The two men’s conversation was overheard by the other doctors, and many of them had angry looks on their faces.

“It’s outrageous, if it’s someone else’s patent, why do you say it’s your own!”

“We’re going to get killed by you, and we went back and made some medicine to sell, and we got sued!”

Hearing these voices, Haoden Ye was also very apologetic.

He could only shake his head at Jiao Yuchun, “I didn’t hear him say anything about applying for a patent!”

Jiao Yuchun frowned, but didn’t say much about the matter, instead saying, “Someone has sued us, saying that our refining of migraine medicine infringes on someone else’s patent rights! And as a dispensary communicator, you’ve seriously violated someone else’s rights and could drug jail!”

Haoden Ye’s heart was cold as he listened.

Soon, a policeman came over and said, “You guys, go over to the interrogation room!”

Haoden Ye was anxious to know exactly who had sued them, and perhaps could plead for leniency, and quickly said, “Comrade police, exactly who has sued us!”

The policeman had an embarrassed look flash across his face and quickly shook his head, “We don’t know about that, we need to wait until the court hearing to tell you!”

Helplessly, Haoden Ye could only give up asking.

After going to the interrogation room and taking a statement, Haoden Ye told all the truth.

When it came to the prescription, he only said that a man had imparted it to him, and that man's name he himself did not know.

After the statement was taken, the police informed them that they would appear in court tomorrow, and they were released.

In front of the police station, several doctors have complained to Professor Wahl.

“Professor Hua, your apprentice has gone too far, this is not a trap!”

“Our pharmacy's reputation has been ruined for years, and now the pharmacy is closed down!”

“When has our Spiritual Medicine Hall ever suffered such a dumb loss, it's outrageous!”

In the face of these accusations, Professor Hua could only laugh.

A few doctors finished and went back to their respective homes, and Professor Hua didn't say much to Haoden Ye, just got into his car and went back.

Back home in the evening, Haoden Ye has been in a very lonely mood, Maya Shen found him wrong and asked about the situation, Haoden Ye did not want to hit her, so he did not say much.

When he went to sleep, Haoden Ye lay on the bed for a long time.

Haoden Ye's heart was incomparably heart-wrenching as he thought of the impending prison disaster.

The next morning, Haoden Ye woke up early, his face ugly gray and his eyes red and swollen.

Maya Shen jumped when she saw his appearance and was busy being concerned. "Looking so ugly!"

Seeing his wife's concerned look, Haoden Ye had a heartache.

"It's okay, I've got something going on today and I might not be back for a few days!" Seeing Maya Shen's concerned look, Haoden Ye really couldn't bear to say.

Maya Shen saw that he was unwilling to talk, so she had no choice but to stop asking questions.

After breakfast, Haoden Ye arrived at the Dan City Court.

At the main entrance, Haoden Ye saw that Professor Hua and the others had arrived, and several people looked rather ugly.

The crowd was about to enter when a car slowly drove up to the courthouse.

A few people didn't pay attention at first and waited until the car came down to attract a few people's attention.

Lin Feng!

Seeing him appear, Haoden Ye and the others were confused.

Professor Hua hurried forward, "Dr. Lin, are you also being sued?"

He didn't believe that anyone would dare sue the Lin family!

If someone really dared to do that, that person must have a big backstage.

The corners of Lin Feng's mouth moved at the news and he smiled, "Professor Hua misunderstood, I'm here to tell someone goodbye today, not someone else to sue me!"

Everyone was startled by the news, but Lin Feng was a member of the Lin family, who did he drug sue?

Still Jiao Yuchun reacted quickly and pointed at Lin Feng with a pale face, "Lin Feng, you're the one who sued us!"

Everyone's faces changed, except for Jiao Yuchun, even Haoden Ye couldn't imagine that Lin Feng would do this.

"Oh, yeah! This migraine remedy is an ancestral one from our Lin family, but I can't believe it's been published, and the Lin family has asked me to solve it through law, so I have no choice but to sue you all!" Lin Feng gave a difficult smile.

"So it's the Lin's formula!" Haoden Ye laughed bitterly in his heart, the formula that the koi fish told him was actually from the Lin family!

"Nonsense! If it's the Lin family's formula, why didn't you use it that day in the competition, and it's not as if you said it was your Lin family's when Dr. Ye named the formula, right?"

While everyone believed Lin Feng's words, Jiao Yuchun looked angry.

Hearing his words, the faces of those who were still planning to plead with Lin Feng changed.

Jiao Yuchun was right, Lin Feng hadn't said anything during the match that day.

If he had told them that this was the Lin family's formula, they wouldn't have risked making pills to sell privately.

Chapter 271

"There's no need to explain everything to you about our Lin family, right!" Lin Feng sneered, "Now that you've infringed my patent rights, I'm just going to hold you accountable according to the law!"

Several of the doctors were furious when they heard it.

No nonsense, Lin Feng's meaning was very clear, he wanted to take the formula for himself.

"Dr. Lin, how could you do that, it's Dr. Ye's formula!"

"That's right, how could a member of the Hallowed Lin family do such a thing?"

Professor Hua and Professor Xu accused Lin Feng in unison, but the other handlers didn't dare to speak although they disdained Lin Feng's actions in their hearts.

"Haha!" Lin Feng raised a smile and looked proud, "Joke, how did my Lin family's formula become his Haoden Ye's formula? You speak with evidence!"

Several professors looked breathless and looked at each other, but they were speechless.

They may not be able to gain the upper hand if they publicly accuse Lin Feng of this matter, and who knows if the Lin family has this formula or not?

Just how many people in the medical community would believe them?

Were they made to believe that Haoden Ye, an illiterate kid, had such a subtle formula?

Jiao Yuchun had already turned red with anger and pointed at Lin Feng, “Shameless, you’re really too shameless!”

With a cold smile, Lin Feng’s eyes looked at him with contempt, “A small doctor who still wants to steal the limelight from our Lin family, you’re tired of living! This one is a lesson for you, to let you know that the Lin family is not easy to bully!”

After saying that, he walked inside the court with a proud step.

“This is outrageous, I want to join forces with the other doctors of the Spiritual Medicine Hall to expose this shameless act of Lin Feng!”

“Good, Dr. Ye was kind enough to make the formula public, but he let Lin Feng apply for a patent before him!”

Several professors vented their discontent with righteous indignation, yet they themselves knew in their hearts that they were still far from fighting the Lin family!

Jiao Yuchun fought for Haoden Ye, but in vain.

Helplessly looking at Haoden Ye, Jiao Yuchun looked apologetic, “I’m sorry Doctor Ye, it’s all my fault, if I hadn’t asked for your help!”

Who knew that halfway through the sentence, it turned out that not only was Haoden Ye not the least bit sad, but he was laughing!

If she didn't know what kind of person Haoden Ye was, Jiao Yuchun almost thought that Haoden Ye was crazy.

"What are you laughing at, Dr. Yap!" Jiao Yuchun was stunned.

The other professors looked over at the news, and Professor Hua frowned, subconsciously wanting to test Haoden Ye's pulse.

A person with a heart attack has a different pulse than normal people and can be diagnosed.

"Don't feel bad guys, it's hard to say who will win or lose this lawsuit." Haoden Ye quickly shook his head, signaling that he was fine.

"Huh?" The crowd was dumbfounded at the news.

Although Lin Feng was lacking in rationality, but the one who had the upper hand in law, Haoden Ye actually said they still had a chance to win!

"Dr. Yeh, are you okay with this, do you want to take a break before court!" Jiao Yuchun was concerned.

Smiling and shaking his head, Haoden Ye confidently said, "Just don't worry about going to court, honestly, I'll take care of this matter!"

The crowd was wondering, but seeing how confident Haoden Ye was, they could only trust him for the time being.

The entrance is a solemn atmosphere that is powerfully oppressive.

It may be the only place where a person can truly feel the majesty of the law.

The two policemen asked about the situation, then took Lin Feng to the lounge to wait, and within thirty minutes, the trial finally began.

Before coming here, Professor Hua and the others had hired a lawyer, and Haoden Ye also thought about hiring Lawyer Jin, but at that time, he wasn't sure whether there was infringement or not, so he still didn't want to cause trouble for Lawyer Jin.

And now Haoden Ye was certain that it wasn't him who was infringing, it was just Lin Feng's greed.

The reason why he laughed was because he was clear about Lin Feng's tactics against him.

Ever since he knew that someone from the Lin family wanted to deal with him, Haoden Ye was naturally very worried psychologically.

But now he was clear that the Lin family only had Lin Feng to deal with him, and he was also clear that Lin Feng was trying to set him up and he didn't have a reason to go to jail.

As for how to deal with Lin Feng, Haoden Ye naturally had a method!

"Koi fish, I want someone to tell the truth!"

"Simple Truth spell, duration is based on consuming merit!"

After Haoden Ye made his wish, a blue bubble disappeared.

And there was an additional curse in his mind.

Of course, the spell needed the power of a bubble to start, so Haoden Ye would need to consume one more bubble to use the spell.

But judging by the knowledge in his mind, the spell required very little merit, consuming just one white bubble!

In the lounge, Professor Hua's lawyer, Li Ling, questioned several people about the situation at the time.

"This case is actually very simple, it's obvious that that Lin Feng is trying to frame you all!" Li Ling's face was pale.

After all, the other party was a member of the Lin family and he was also very scrupulous, if it wasn't for his close relationship with Professor Hua, he wouldn't be willing to take on such a hot case.

"Attorney Lee, what do you think our chances are of winning the case?" Professor Zhang inquired cautiously.

"Hardly!" Li Ling's answer was very direct.

There's no need to give them any false hope at a time like this!

"Outrageous, it's obvious that he infringed on the law in the first place, so how come we're criminals!" Hearing Li Ling's words, Jiao Yuchun was extremely angry.

Sighing, Li Ling laughed bitterly, "After the competition, if any lawyer applies for a patent, you have no right to make and sell it, but the court will usually give a light sentence for such things, after all, the law is also about favors."

At this point, he sighed, "But the case is bigger when it involves the Lin family! You are indeed guilty, and if the sentence is light, Lin Feng will immediately reveal the matter to the media, relying on their Lin family's power to create momentum, so that the judge will be guilty of malpractice!"

"So, legally and axiomatically, the judge will strictly follow the proper procedures!"

Everyone was desperate at the news, and they couldn't help but pin their hopes on Haoden Ye.

He said he had a method that might actually turn the situation around, otherwise they were in danger of revoking their license at a minimum.

"Professor Wahl, I want to talk to you about something!" Attorney Lee suddenly addressed Professor Wahl.

Professor Hua frowned, but followed Lawyer Li out.

Jiao Yuchun felt strange and followed out.

Less than two minutes later I heard Dr. Jiao's angry voice say, "What! You let Dr. Yip take the blame! How is that possible!"

Through two layers of doors, the sound was very low, and Haoden Ye still heard it clearly.

"I'm just making a suggestion that you take it easy!"

"The best outcome of this matter is for Dr. Yap to bear it alone."

Chapter 272

I think Lin Feng wants to deal with him too, and doesn't want to mess with Dr. Hua and the others! As long as Dr. Yeh takes the blame, you can pretend you didn't know and the law won't find you in trouble!" Attorney Lee was bitterly disappointed.

Hearing this, Haoden Ye's heart lifted.

He finally realized why Jiao Yuchun was so worried after Lin Feng openly stated that he wanted to deal with him.

There are times when even your friends have to betray you.

"In this situation, if we all take responsibility together, then we all have something to lose, so we might as well sacrifice one person to preserve the others!" Attorney Lee sighed.

"Master, we can't do that! Think of how much Dr. Ye has helped us, teaching us Xuanjiu needles, teaching us many medical formulas, and saving how many people?" Dr. Jiao's voice became low, a bit like the low growl of a wild animal.

"Don't you worry, Master is not that kind of person!" Professor Hua spoke calmly, "Lawyer Li, let's not talk about this proposal, if it really gets out of hand, Xiaochun and I will take responsibility and won't implicate the other doctors!"

Hearing this, Haoden Ye's heart swelled with emotion.

When the first person was Prof. Wahl, he was just an arrogant old doctor, but now he seems to be worth handing over.

When it was finally time for court, Haoden Ye and a few other doctors arrived in the courtroom.

Lin Feng had already arrived and was looking at Haoden Ye and the others with a sneer from afar.

According to the procedure, first Haoden Ye and the others recounted what had happened, and one by one they were interrogated by their lawyers.

Naturally, Haoden Ye didn't need to worry about all of this, all of it truthfully.

When it was Jiao Yuchun's turn, he kept implying that the judge had set them up by Lin Feng.

The judge seemed to be used to this kind of thing, it was obvious that Lin Feng intended to frame Haoden Ye and the others, and he couldn't see it?

Yet everything is about evidence, and the courtroom is a place of law.

Soon, Professor Hua's lawyer offered to let him ask Lin Feng a few questions.

Eyes sweeping over Haoden Ye and the others, Lin Feng walked onto the stage with a cold smile.

"Judges, juries, and friends of the law, I am Lin Feng of the Lin family, and I am now a doctor in the Spiritual Medicine Hall!" As soon as Lin Feng took the stage, he lifted up his Lin family identity.

It could be clearly noticed that upon hearing the identity of Lin Feng, a member of the Lin family, many people still revealed a few stares of awe.

One bad case in this case could offend the Lin family, so the jury is still very careful.

Sensing the light in the eyes of the crowd, Lin Feng raised a smirk at the corner of his mouth.

"Just a bunch of ants, hearing the name of my Lin family, and they're still acting like grandchildren to me one by one!"

Lawyer Li faced Lin Feng, his mind was still a little nervous, and he tried to stabilize his mind before he approached Lin Feng and said, "Doctor Lin, you said this formula is your Lin family's patent, but I've seen the patent batch number, how come it was only recently applied for?"

This Lin Feng had already thought of a reason, with so many things in the Lin family, how could they all apply for a patent.

It could be said that they were unsure of the medicinal properties of the herb in the first place and did not conduct clinical trials, so they did not patent it.

"Of course you need to apply recently, I've never heard of such a thing as alchemy before! It was only after I heard Haoden Ye tell me the prescription at the competition that I thought of applying for a patent!" Lin Feng looked like he had received a grievance, but the words he spoke made people's faces change.

Boom! Everyone in the entire courtroom stared at him, and Lin Feng's lawyer was now dumbstruck.

But Lin Feng himself didn't notice anything unusual, as if he hadn't spoken his words.

Seeing the crowd looking at him strangely, Lin Feng frowned and said, "What's wrong, am I wrong?"

Seeing his dazed face, the people inside the courtroom looked at me and I looked at you.

In particular, Professor Hua and the others looked surprised.

Is Lin Feng out of his mind, why is he telling the truth!

“In other words, this patent isn’t even your Lin family’s!” Lawyer Li also sensed that Lin Feng was a bit unusual, so he seized the opportunity.

“Of course not, our Lin family isn’t in the herbal business, so what’s the point of working on a broken prescription!” Lin Feng spoke as if it was a matter of course, as if it was good for him.

Even the judge couldn’t sit still when that was said.

How will this case be heard?

The plaintiffs directly admitted to stealing from others, which is the first time we’ve seen that in court.

“I object! My defenders must have been drugged or threatened to say such things!” Lin Feng’s lawyer Zhang Ran couldn’t sit still and quickly stood up.

“A threat? How dare they threaten me? I’m a member of the Lin family!” Lin Feng revealed a look of anger at his words and pointed at his lawyer, “You are a dog in our Lin family and you dare to say that someone else is threatening me? I’m happy to talk law with you, but I don’t even care about the judge if I’m not!”

This one sentence was met with a chaos of voices throughout the courtroom.

The judge was in her early forties, a woman oriented toward integrity, and certainly not in a good temper.

Hearing this, she almost jumped out of her seat and glared at Lin Feng, “Mr. Lin, are you openly flouting the law?”

Rao was under the spell, and Lin Feng realized that something was wrong.

Frowning and looking over everyone, he finally noticed that what he had just said wasn't normal.

"I'm sorry Judge, don't get me wrong, I mean, you're nothing but an ass in my eyes, what right do you have to be here to judge me! If you don't help me today, I'll make sure you can't be a judge!" Lin Feng looked apologetic.

Now the whole courtroom is in disarray.

The judge was red with anger, even if Lin Feng was crazy, he couldn't say such things.

"Judge, my advocate is clearly mentally unbalanced and I want him medically examined!" Lawyer Lin Feng was now so pale that he almost left him and ran straight away.

"Agreed, take the witness down for a physical examination immediately!" The judge tried to take a breath and calm his nerves.

Two policemen came and took Lin Feng away, while Lin Feng was fiercely unsure of what was wrong.

And then the following Professor Hua and the others were looking at me and me at you.

Of course they knew that Lin Feng's insanity was Haoden Ye's doing.

"Dr. Yeh, you really drugged him, so he won't be tested for problems!" Jiao Yuchun was not half happy, but worried.

You know, if Lin Feng really was checked for poisoning, they were the most suspicious.

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye was very sure, “Don’t worry, even if it’s poisoned, as long as it’s from me, no one can check it out!”

Jiao Yuchun looked at him, but there was actually some fear in his eyes.

Chapter 273

It wasn’t that he was afraid, anyone who saw what Lin Feng had just done couldn’t help but feel hairy inside.

Although Lin Feng left, the trial had to continue, however, the plaintiff’s side provided only so much evidence, without Lin Feng’s testimony, the trial could not continue at all, the judge adjourned the court and everyone returned to the lounge.

“Haha, I can’t believe that a hallowed Lin family member is nervous and breaking down in court!” Li Ling got the news from Lin Feng’s court and ran back with a flourish, “The psychiatrist has just diagnosed this, Lin Feng is having a typical mental breakdown, and what he says can’t be used as testimony, but it can influence the judge’s decision!”

Several doctors were relieved to hear this.

“Evil deserves evil, such people deserve it!”

“Hmph, this kind of doctor with a low character, I’ll report him to the company association, and when this case is over, he won’t have to stay in our Spiritual Medicine Hall!”

Several doctors were greatly pleased to hear this, only Jiao Yuchun looked at Haoden Ye with strange eyes and subconsciously distanced himself from him.

At noon, Haoden Ye went out for lunch with Professor Hua and the others.

When they returned to the courthouse, they saw Lin Feng at the door.

At this time, Lin Feng's face was red and he seemed to have woken up.

Seeing Haoden Ye and the others coming over, Lin Feng looked at them with a dark look in his eyes, obviously angry because he had just made a fool of himself in the courtroom.

Seeing Lin Feng and the others, Haoden Ye smiled coldly in his heart, not fearing in the least.

By using this method to trap himself, it was obvious that Lin Feng's means were only this much.

Silently chanting twice without noticing, Haoden Ye once again cast a spell on Lin Feng.

The exchange for the spell cost him a blue bubble, so why not use it twice more?

Before the afternoon trial, Haoden Ye and the others hadn't seen Lin Feng, and Haoden Ye also noticed that a few people who had followed Lin Feng had been running out of town to purchase some food and water, and there were people with gas masks.

Obviously, Lin Feng had protected himself tightly at this point.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, the trial continued.

When the court reconvened, the judge was much more stable, and the jury looked like they were able to keep their cool, although they all looked very ugly.

“The court will now resume and ask Mr. Lin to remain on the witness stand!”The judge’s voice was icy cold, devoid of any reverence for the foresters.

Lin Feng swept a glance at Haoden Ye and the others, his eyes very wary, and carefully walked onto the stage.

As soon as he reached the witness stand, Li Ling stood up and walked over to him, but before he got close, Lin Feng immediately said, “Please keep this lawyer away from me!”

Apparently, he was also afraid of being poisoned.

“I’m sorry Mr. Lin, it’s my right to walk around the courtroom!”Li Ling frowned slightly at the news.

“Your Honor, my witness is not in a good state of mind, and I hope that defense counsel understands the current condition of my witness!”Lin Feng’s lawyer immediately stood up.

The judge didn’t seem to want to troll any further and waved his hand gently in agreement.

Lin Feng was relieved, a smirk on his lips as he looked coldly at Haoden Ye and the others.

“Dr. Lin, you said this formula is from your Lin family, can you cite some evidence!”Li Ling continued the questioning with the words of the morning trial.

“I’ve already told you guys that this recipe is not our Lin family’s, I stole it from Haoden Ye, let me say this a few times!”Lin Feng looked impatient.

A word that made Liling dumbfounded again.

And although everyone in the courtroom had seen Lin Feng's mental breakdown, they didn't expect it to happen again this afternoon.

"Are you having another mental breakdown, Mr. Lin?" The judge frowned, his face unkind.

"Bullshit! Do you think I'm an insensitive member of the Lin family? Don't you know how many times I've been in court? Would be intimidated by such a small scene?" Lin Feng looked disdainful.

And by this time, Lin Feng's lawyer had a cold sweat on his forehead and was crying!

Such a defender, and he's so frustrated that he's telling the truth when he opens his mouth, and this is such a tell-all.

"Mr. Lin, please take responsibility for your words, can you be sure that you are not having a nervous breakdown right now?" The judge finally lost his temper and glared at Lin Feng, "I'll ask you one last time, if you're feeling mentally abnormal, we can continue to adjourn the court!"

Faced with his ultimatum, Lin Feng skimmed his lips and looked unconcerned, "What mental breakdown, your examining doctor here is also afraid of our Lin family, so he deliberately gave me just an excuse! I'm a doctor, don't I know if I have a nervous breakdown myself?"

"Bang!" Lin Feng had just finished speaking when the judge slapped the table hard and scuffled to his feet.

After so many years as a judge, it was the first time she had ever seen such contempt for the law.

"Outrageous! How dare you! Contempt of the law, contempt of the court! Outrageous!" The judge's chest rose and fell, turning his head openly to look at the jury and saying, “No more trial, just pass sentence! I don’t want such a man left in this solemn place for one second longer!”

“I told you long ago to hurry up with the sentencing, but you didn’t listen!” Lin Feng laughed disdainfully, “This kind of efficiency, no wonder people say that our Chinese public officials are inefficient!”

This time it wasn’t just the judge, the jury was also angry drug jumping up and down.

In less than three minutes, the jury had a unanimous opinion, and then the judge delivered his verdict.

“Based on the testimony of witnesses and the evidence presented by defense counsel for both sides, this court declares that the plaintiff is not guilty of holding up the defendant, and that the public is now proceeding against the plaintiff’s side of the patent!” The judge read the results of the trial cleanly.

Hearing his words, Professor Hua and the others were immediately relieved.

And below, Lin Feng was dumbfounded, and within his consciousness he was saying things that were beneficial to him.

I have enough evidence and the facts are clear, so why did the judge sentence it this way?

“Outrageous, what kind of a judge are you, with all this evidence you’re declaring in their favour! I suspect you of taking black money and I’m going to report you!” Lin Feng immediately stood up in anger.

Next to him, Lin Feng’s lawyer was lying on the table, wishing he could find a hole in the ground to get into.

“God, what have I done to run into such a douchebag!”

“This court has not yet finished pronouncing the sentence,” the judge looked at Lin Feng with disgust in his eyes, “Mr. Lin, you are in contempt of the court, in contempt of the judge, in contempt of the law, and this court now sentences you to three months of criminal detention!”

Hearing this, Lin Feng was dumbfounded on the spot.

When they came out of the court, several of Haoden Ye’s people were all delighted.

“Dr. Ye, what did you have to do to get him to tell the truth!”

“I’m not afraid to laugh, I just saw him like that and I’m freaking out!”

Chapter 274

Several doctors were curious, they were all doctors and naturally thought that Haoden Ye’s method of fixing Lin Feng was medical.

“Oh, it’s just stabbing him in a few acupuncture points, but if you’re fast enough, no one will notice!”Haoden Ye laughed casually and perfunctorily.

“Is it the needle technique inside the Xuanjiu Needle?”Professor Wahl’s eyes lit up.

The more he studied the Xuanjiu Needle, the more he felt that it was powerful.

He used to think he was just treating the sick, but now he feels like the Xuanjiu needles can nourish him.

It was very important for him to explore the mysteries of the human body!

“I’m going to stay away from you kid from now on, or you’ll know what’s in your heart!” Jiao Yuchun, however, pulled away from Haoden Ye.

They all laughed again and went back to their respective cars.

Haoden Ye was very happy and looked very happy when he got home.

Maya Shen was mentally relieved to see her husband happy again.

When Haoden Ye was worried, how could she feel better psychologically, the point was that Haoden Ye knew the reason why she was worried, but she didn’t know anything about it.

After a night’s rest, Haoden Ye received a notice from the court the next day, asking him to go to the court in the afternoon.

This time it was because of the patent issue, and since it involved him personally, Haoden Ye had to be there in person.

Thinking of this, Haoden Ye immediately planned to call Professor Hua and ask him to find a few witnesses.

Naturally, Professor Hua was full of assurance, and Haoden Ye hung up the phone and thought of calling Lawyer Jin.

Haoden Ye didn’t call Lawyer Jin in the last case because he was afraid that he had actually committed a crime and was afraid of implicating Lawyer Dao Jin.

Now that he’s in a completely advantageous position, there’s a guarantee that he’ll get a lawyer from Kim.

Soon, Lawyer Jin's call connected, and Haoden Ye smiled, "Lawyer Jin, I have a case here, please do me a favor!"

"Ah!O Dr. Ye!"On the other end of the phone, Lawyer Jin's voice was faint and not too enthusiastic: "What kind of case, I'll see if I have time!"

Haoden Ye's psyche was just cold when he heard it.

He hadn't contacted the Holander family in the past few days, he hadn't been able to tell what kind of attitude the Holander family maintained towards his dispute with Lin Feng, and now it seemed that the Holander family didn't want to get involved.

"Oh, it's just a dispute over a patent, and the evidence of my witnesses on this side is very strong, the trial starts this afternoon!"

Since others were unwilling to help, Haoden Ye naturally didn't want to be embarrassed and smiled very politely.

"This afternoon?I don't have time, or I'll refer you to another lawyer."Lawyer Kim's tone was still very polite, but he didn't hear the familiarity he had before.

"Don't bother, I'll think of something else."Haoden Ye hung up the phone and mentally sighed slightly.

On the other end of the phone, Attorney Kim hung up and shook her head with a grin.

"Hey, I'm afraid Dr. Yeh is going to hurt us this time!"Sighing, Lawyer Kim mumbled.

"What can I do about it, who asked him to offend the Lin family without a life!"On the opposite side of him, Zou always sat lying across the table, skimming, "The boss often says I have no brains, I'm not very measured in my work, once the big family has a conflict, we these small fish is cannon fodder, can not play with life or do not play with life!”

“Get your legs off my couch!” Lawyer Jin stared hard at Zou and said with no good grace, “This sofa is three million imported from Australia!”

With a hehehe smile, Zou switched to a seated position, “Hehe, what does the old boss say about this?”

Lawyer Jin rubbed his brow and intoned, “Mr. Holander said to wait and see what happens first, and if you want to help, don’t let the Lin family notice, this kind of thing is very sensitive between families, especially now that the Lin family has signs of developing in Dan City, once the entanglement starts, Dan City will be reduced to a battlefield between two big families!”

“Is it necessary to be so solemn? As far as I know, that Lin Feng is just a sidekick of the Lin family!” Zou always mix carelessly, “Our sin can’t afford it, but the CEO may not put it in his eyes!”

“He’s a dog, and a dog of the forest family!” Attorney Kim rolled her eyes, “You’re forgetting the history...”

Before he even began to say anything, Zou immediately showed a look of impatience, and Lawyer Jin had no choice but to stop with a grin.

General Manager Zou nodded lightly, whirled around and thought of something, frowning, “Young Master should be coming back from Mi, if he hears about Mr. Ye...”

Lawyer Jin’s eyebrows knitted even more, he thought, “It’s hard to say what exactly the young master’s attitude is, he’s not young, he should be a bit more mature.”

After lunch, Haoden Ye went to the front of the court and waited for Professor Hua and the others to come over.

Soon, Professor Hua's car pulled up in front of the courthouse.

The door opened, and Professor Hua got out of the car with a dejected look on his face.

Seeing his look, Haoden Ye mentally cooled down and quickly stepped forward, "Professor Hua, where are the others?"

Professor Wahl gave a big grin and shook his head lightly.

Behind him, Jiao Yuchun also got out of the car, his face indignant, "This bunch of cowards, when using your formula, one is afraid of being slow, now they need to testify for you, one is afraid of the Lin family's power!"

A slight grin flashed across his face, and Haoden Ye shook his head.

And what could he say? We all have the desire to avoid harm, and no matter how much we call each other in everyday life, if something goes wrong, each of us will be on our own.

"Professor Wahl, it's enough that you're here!" Haoden Ye was moved to look at Professor Hua.

His words have two meanings, one is that with Professor Hua as a witness, the case will basically be successful, and one means that I, Haoden Ye, will only need friends like you in the future!

However, Professor Hua and the others only heard the first layer of Haoden Ye's message and were busy laughing, "I'm an old man, am I afraid of offending people? Haru has a fiery temper and isn't afraid to offend anyone!"

The three men smiled at each other and walked together to the courthouse.

The afternoon session was faster, and the judge was the same judge.

This judge was very impressed with Haoden Ye and the others, perhaps because he was angry with Lin Feng.

So throughout the trial, Haoden Ye didn't provide much evidence.

Because Professor Wahl and the others were there, the playing field was clear to see.

And to Haoden Ye's surprise, Lin Feng seemed to be very cooperative and directly said that it was a misunderstanding.

Only the entire time, he was looking at Haoden Ye with a sinister look in his eyes.

The evidence was sufficient, and the judge quickly pronounced that Lin Feng's patent was outlawed, and Haoden Ye also declared in court that this patent would no longer be applied for.

The case was settled with that ease, and the plaintiff and defendant witnesses left their respective seats.

"Mr. Yeh, please wait a moment!"

When Haoden Ye was about to leave, he was stopped by the judge.

Chapter 275

"Dr. Yeh? Please stay!" From the trial seat, the judge smiled kindly and said to Haoden Ye, "It's been a hard two days!"

Professor Hua and the others had all just walked up to the door, and were a little surprised to see Haoden Ye being called by the judge.

“Judge Xu, what do you want from me?”The judge’s name was Xu Zhenqing, so Haoden Ye affectionately addressed him as Judge Xu.

“Oh, it’s no big deal!I’ve also had a headache for the past two days because of this case, and I’m feeling a little sick!”Judge Xu coughed twice, seemingly feeling a little embarrassed.

Haoden Ye took a closer look at her Qi and came to a sudden realization.

Judge Xu is in his early forties, already in his menopausal years, and people at that age are bad-tempered.

Usually cases she was able to keep her emotions up in court, but these past two days she was so angry with Lin Feng that her blood was a bit off.

“Judge Xu must be suffering from sleep disorders and a slight pain in his eyes these past two days.”Haoden Ye smiled slightly.

Upon hearing this, Judge Xu immediately gave a thumbs up, “Dr. Ye is truly amazing!You’re right, I’ve been sick since yesterday...with this problem.”

Some of the places don’t hurt badly, but are very sad to the person’s torment.

Someone, for example, will have a painful gum ache that is obviously very slight, but the torture is not sleeping well.

“Oh, it’s not serious, just make soup with ginger and put it in the fridge for a quick chill to about fifteen degrees and drink it for immediate results!”Haoden Ye smiled.

Judge Xu was overjoyed at the news, thanked him, then pulled out a business card and handed it to Haoden Ye, "I see that the lawyers that Dr. Ye is looking for these two days are average, I know a few powerful lawyers, you can contact them when you have time!"

Waving a hand and laughing, Haoden Ye shook his head, he still knew Lawyer Jin, what was the point?

Judge Xu seemed to see his thoughts, a slight smile: "You must also know some powerful lawyers, but at this time, they will not help, I introduced you to the lawyer you do not have to worry, they are very honest, some of them are specialized in working against those big enterprises!".

Haoden Ye was very surprised at the news, hearing that he had a problem with the Lin family, his own network was basically gone, and he couldn't imagine that there were people who specialized in going against these big companies.

Taking the business card, Haoden Ye thanked the judge for two sentences.

Leaving the court, Haoden Ye parted with Professor Hua and the others and took a taxi to the pharmacy himself.

The car moved slowly on the road, and Haoden Ye thought about Lin Feng, wondering what method he would use to deal with him next time.

Soon, Haoden Ye felt a little strange and looked left and right, as if he wasn't taking the road to the pharmacy.

"Master! You're going the wrong way, I'm going to Phoenix Street!" Haoden Ye quickly reminded the driver.

However, the driver, as if he had not heard him, drove straight ahead.

Haoden Ye mentally wondered and reached out to pat the driver's shoulder.

This kind of cab had an iron grille between the front and back seats, and Haoden Ye could only barely reach over to it.

However, the driver still didn't respond and Haoden Ye noticed that the speed of the car had increased.

An ominous premonition arose in his psyche, and Haoden Ye spoke angrily, "Stop the car, I want to get off!"

It was as if the driver hadn't heard him and instead sped up.

Haoden Ye started kicking the car door hard, trying to jump out.

At this fast speed, his reflexes shouldn't be a problem.

But not before he kicked the door open and the car turned into an alleyway.

The driver hurriedly opened the car door and ran inside the alley, and Haoden Ye also opened the car door to chase after him.

Just out of two steps, a car came in front and behind each, blocking the alley tightly, and a few burly men in suits came down on top of the car.

"Bastard, how dare you count me out!" Lin Feng's voice rang out.

Haoden Ye followed the sound and saw Lin Feng walking over with a gloomy smile on his face.

"Kid, you really don't know how high the sky is, I'll let you know how to write the word death today!" Lin Feng gently waved his hand and a dozen people immediately surrounded Haoden Ye.

“Lin Feng, you’re the one who hurt me first, I was just forced to resist!” Haoden Ye didn’t want to get too deadly with Lin Feng, so his tone wasn’t very strong.

“Harm you? You think I deserve to get you into trouble? A pariah like you, I’ll squash you like an ant!” Lin Feng sneered disdainfully, “Not even looking at what kind of brother you are, you’re also worthy of reasoning with our Lin family!”

Hearing his words, Haoden Ye mentally laughed bitterly.

It seemed that today couldn’t end well, and he secretly saved his strength to break out of the other side’s encirclement.

And at that moment, there was a sudden sound of braking, followed by the sound of a violent crash.

At the mouth of the alley, a Ferrari crashed Lin Feng’s one, the door opened and a silhouette jumped out of it.

The change was so sudden that everyone didn’t react before they saw the silhouette walk up to Lin Feng and lift his leg!

There was a muffled poof sound, and Lin Feng hadn’t recovered, his body flew far away and landed heavily on the ground.

The silhouette didn’t stop and ran directly to Lin Feng and lifted his foot to kick him.

Those bodyguards were dumbfounded, and one hurried forward to save Lin Feng, but he was held back.

“You’re blind. Don’t you see who that is?” A good friend cautiously reminded him.

That person took a closer look, his face was one side, the visitor was actually the Holander family's youngest owner, Zyden!

On the ground Lin Feng was beaten and his heart was burning with rage, he cursed, "How dare you hit me, do you know who I am?"

"Do you know who I am?" Holander smirked as he kicked, "How dare you hit even my friend, don't you know my surname is Holander?"

The face of Lin Feng on the ground searched at the news!

The Holander family, unlike the Lin family, did not have a hierarchical family system.

There was only one family member in charge of the Holander family, and that was Zyden, and the only one who dared to hit him and was still so young was Zyden!

Although he was a member of the Lin family, he was just a sidekick, but he was the heir to the sturdy Holander family!

"Holander, misunderstanding, it's all a misunderstanding!" Lin Feng no longer dared to be arrogant and began to beg.

"Now you know how to beg me? Didn't you ever ask about my temper when you came to Dan City? How dare you bully even my friends, even if I waste you today, does the Lin family dare to find me bad luck?" Zyden smiled coldly.

If he dared to say that, he certainly wasn't afraid of the Lin family finding trouble with him.

The same thing is the Holander family's attitude problem when Holander takes action.

The Holander family supports Haoden Ye who is at odds with the Lin family, which is a dangerous sign.

However, Simen Holander is different, in the eyes of the elders they are all children, children's petty fights, the Lin family will pull down their faces to be bothered?

Chapter 276

"Hung has spared my life! Holander has spared his life!"

The handsome face of Lin Feng on the ground was already out of shape as he screamed miserably.

After a half day of fighting, Zyden was tired, took a step back in his ragged breath, and began to clean up his clothes.

"Kid, I'll teach you a good boy today, you can be mad anywhere in Huaxia, but when you get to Dan City, you'll have to listen to the Holander family!" Zyden smiled coldly and said, "Go back and tell your Lin family that Haoden Ye is under my protection, and whoever dares to touch him, I'll touch you first!"

His body trembled slightly, and Lin Feng nodded his head like a chicken.

At the end of the day, he was just a minor figure in the Lin family, and he dared to have a temper when he saw Zyden?

"Get out!" Zyden snorted coldly and swept his gaze over the bodyguards.

A few bodyguards were also smart enough to hurry up and prop up Lin Feng on the ground and run, not even wanting the car!

They left before Zyden turned around and walked over to Haoden Ye.

Looking up and down at Haoden Ye Zyden said with concern, "Brother Ye, are you okay?"

Haoden Ye really didn't expect Zyden to make a move and help him with his favor to beat up Lin Feng, he was extremely touched.

He didn't know how big families communicated with each other and thought that Zyden had offended the Lin family for himself, apologizing, "Simen, I'm so sorry I've harmed you!"

"Harm me?" Zyden was stunned, seeing the guilt in Haoden Ye's eyes, and laughed, "It's just beating up a dog of the Lin family, as long as it's not someone from the Lin family proper, it's all fine!"

Haoden Ye saw that he looked relaxed, which put his mind at ease.

"Yeh, it's really wrong for you, it's all my fault for not greeting the people in the face when I left!" Zyden looked apologetic, it was just like how much Haoden Ye had been wronged.

Looking around, apart from Lin Feng's blood on the ground, he hadn't shed a single drop of blood.

"Holander, I'll be fine, even if they fight, they're no match for me!" Haoden Ye smiled broadly.

"Haha, I forgot, you can wrestle too! Come on, get in the car with me!" Zyden laughed and pulled Haoden Ye into the car.

That Ferrari was really sturdy, wrecking Lin Feng's car, but only deforming itself a bit on the front.

“Brother Ye, I’m sorry, I rushed back when I heard about you and the Lin family, but if I hadn’t seen you get into a cab beforehand, I wouldn’t have been able to find you!”

On the way, Zyden looked apologetic, “I hope you don’t blame my father and the Holander family, it’s most inconvenient for people on the stage to make a move on such matters, and once a person of my father’s rank makes a move, it means war between the two families!”

Haoden Ye wasn’t an idiot, and he understood in general from what he said.

“Don’t worry Holander, I can understand!”Haoden Ye smiled cheerfully.

“Oh, why don’t you just come hang out with me in Mi, they love Chinese medicine over there!”After thinking about it, Zyden said, “I’ll make sure you’re developed if you go, and the goal isn’t too high, so let’s make a hundred million in the first year!”

“It doesn’t have to be that much!”Haoden Ye smiled dryly.

A hundred million a year, or a small target?

Even with a workplace elite like Maya Shen, I’m afraid it’s a few million a year.

“Is that too much?I’ll pay more than that for this car!”Zyden pointed to his car, mingling carelessly.

“No, I still want to stay in the country and develop!”Haoden Ye thought for a moment and rejected Zyden’s good intentions.

His original desire was simply to make a name for himself in his own family, but now he wants to promote TCM in China.

This is the treasure of our Chinese nation, how can it be passed on to foreigners?

“Alright,” seeing his refusal, Zyden didn’t force him, smiling slightly, “But be careful in the country, don’t let anyone bully you while I’m gone!It’s just as well that I’m going to sit in your store!”

Patting Haoden Ye on the shoulder, Zyden motioned for Haoden Ye to get into the car.

The Ferrari roared to life and the two of them went off in a desperate daze.

At the entrance of the pharmacy, the two men got out of the car, and Lin Yao rushed out with some concern in his eyes.

“Boss, are you okay?”Seeing Haoden Ye, Lin Xiang immediately said.

“Eh?How did you know something happened to me today?”Haoden Ye was dumb.

It was the first time that Zyden Holander had seen Lin cheng with some curiosity in his eyes.

When Lin cheerfully realized what he had said, he said, “I... I was worried that you might get in trouble in court.You said something happened today?What’s happened?”

“Haha, it’s all settled, it’s not like it’s my first time there, so what’s there to worry about!”Haoden Ye laughed casually.

Lin Xiang was relieved to see that the cover-up was over.

Not wanting to quickly notice Zyden's strange gaze, he subconsciously lifted his head to look up.

"Ye, you look familiar as a sales clerk!" Zyden's eyebrows were slightly raised, as if he recognized Lin Xiang, or not.

Lin Xiang was shocked and wanted to avoid Zyden's eyes, but was afraid to arouse his alarm instead, so he grunted, "Is that how you always provoke girls? Rascal!"

This was the first time that the Holander family's young master had been called a rogue, and Zyden couldn't help but laugh, "Don't get me wrong, I really look familiar to you, a bit like a star!"

Lin Xiang was so shocked that if she didn't have faith in her master's disguise technique she would be panicking now.

The Holander family's young master really wasn't an ordinary person, with such a poisonous eye.

Haoden Ye also looked at Lin Yao curiously at the news and couldn't figure out where she looked like a star.

Lin Xiang has a very ordinary appearance, with only one pair of clear and charming eyes and graceful facial features, but she is not very pretty.

"Holander's eyes don't work that way!" Haoden Ye joked, "One of my little clerks can be seen as a big star by you!"

Zyden kept staring at Lin Xiang and frowned at the words, "No, no, I always feel something is wrong! You're definitely not an easy little sales clerk!"

Shaking my head, I couldn't remember what was wrong, so I shrugged, "Maybe I'm overthinking it." After saying that, he moved his eyes away and walked over to Haoden Ye's store and smiled, "I heard that your Jade Dew Pills are selling well, give me two to try!"

"It's medicine, how can you just taste it, but I can make some Qi nourishing pills for you, I don't think your Qi and blood are going well!" Haoden Ye pulled Zyden to the dan room.

"Haha, you can see it all, I'm telling you, I've had my eye on a Spanish chick for the past two days, not to mention how hot she is, she drained me dry on the first day I met her..."

The two of them made it all the way to the dan room and Lin Xiang slowly breathed a sigh of relief.

Thinking about Zyden Holander's words, Lin Xiang frowned.

The eldest youngster of the Holander family, a thousand favorites in one, has no vices of his own, but is not very proper and playful.

After hearing about the Holander family's young master, Lin Yao decisively rejects the idea of marrying him.

"Don't let Haoden Ye learn badly from him!" Lin Xiang frowned as he looked at where Zyden's figure had disappeared and intoned, "Such a good young master, it's a pity he doesn't do drugs..."

Chapter 277

"Haha, so it was Zyden who did it, now that brat Lin Feng has something to look forward to!"

Lin family villa, Lin old laughing with a tealight in hand.

“Master, you can still laugh! Zyden is now hanging out with your apprentice’s savior, and he might teach him badly soon!” Lin Xiang pursed her lips and looked unhappy, “Haoden Ye came from a poor background, and after being taken around by such a young master for a few days and seeing the life of a rich man, will he ever go back to the past?”

Lin Xiang sighed quietly, she had seen this kind of thing many times.

The scary thing about rich people is that they don’t necessarily want to do a bad thing sincerely, and sometimes it’s poisonous to your good.

She has seen countless girls from poor backgrounds who have been taken out to see the days of the rich because they were taken out by the rich and have since embarked on a journey of no return, sacrificing their dignity and everything for money.

She has also seen many down-to-earth hard working boys who have been enlightened by rich, wealthy women and have been slaves to money ever since.

Hearing her words, Figmen Lin pursed his lips and looked at Lin Xiang, “He will have to pass this hurdle sooner or later, this is the curse given to him by the exotic treasures, Master has seen how many people slowly lose their nature because they get mysterious objects, the fact that he can lose his nature because of money can be considered a test!”

Lin Xiang immediately thought of the foreign treasure and something tugged at his heart.

How could she not know that the foreign treasure was there, sooner or later, Haoden Ye would have to know the charm of money, and once he couldn’t control it and used it in a bad way, it would eventually give him doom as well.

“Master, you also place great importance on exotic treasures, don’t you want to give him a mention?” Lin Xiang thought carefully.

A stern glint flashed in Figmen Lin’s eyes and he turned his head to look at Lin Cheng.

“Yumi! You’re the Lin family’s eldest daughter. You’ll inherit the family fortune. You mustn’t do anything rash! Ordinary love and affection, you’d better look down on it!” Figmen Lin sighed slightly.

“Master... why are you saying this again, I’ve told you, I don’t like that Lin Feng at all, I just think he has a different treasure to cure me!” Lin Xiang bit her lip coquettishly.

Figmen Lin obviously didn’t believe him, sighed slightly and changed the subject, “It’s not that Master doesn’t want to help him, but he’s afraid of helping him, I’ve already acted against the heavens once and harmed many people, and the power of the Exotic Treasure is even more incomparable to an ordinary mortal like me!”

At this point, his eyes slowly narrowed, “This kind of thing that can reverse fate, sometimes it’s a good thing, sometimes it’s like a time bomb that might detonate at some point, the only way to survive is to stay as far away from him as possible!”

“The further away the better?” Lin Xiang gently bit her lips and raised her head to look at Figmen Lin, saying in her heart, “Since Master has decided to stay as far away as possible, why does he refuse to leave Dan City? Is there also an expectation of a foreign treasure?”

“Wow. It sure feels a lot better, even with two more beautiful women, I can handle it easily!” Inside the dan room, Zyden ate Haoden Ye’s pills and immediately became red-faced.

With a bitter smile, Haoden Ye said in a bad mood, “Never, never, it’s a medicine with three parts poison, this medicine of mine has the effect of tonifying qi and benefiting blood, but if you continue to be so depleted, it will be harmful to your body after all! It’s a good thing that your own constitution is good, and when you were small, your Qi and blood were replenished, and your body has no wear and tear for the time being, otherwise this medicine of mine wouldn’t be able to make it up!”

“Haha, are you praising my abilities in disguise?” Zyden smiled proudly and looked at the fire flickering furnace, “This is unimaginable, it turns out that such things as alchemy are real, I’ve seen these things in many history books, and without exception they are not lies!”

At this point, he wondered, “This alchemy method is so good, why isn’t it recorded in the ancient history books?”

Haoden Ye smiled bitterly at the words and shrugged his shoulders, “That’s because the skill required to refine this kind of pill is very high! The average person can barely get as far as I can in a lifetime! And most of those who are willing to put in this kind of painstaking cultivation of alchemy don’t care about money and rights and choose to avoid seclusion, so who’s going to alchemize pills for the emperor?”

He wasn’t boasting, the level of alchemy he possessed definitely surpassed many of the ancients who had taken refuge in seclusion, while most of those who gave alchemy to emperors were half-hearted in what they learned.

It wasn’t that they couldn’t refine pills of Haoden Ye’s level, it was just that the effect of each refinement was too different.

And if the emperors had eaten the best once, they wanted to eat again, and the alchemist masters couldn’t guarantee that it was always the best, so they chose a compromise and used off-shoot methods to refine the pills.

Especially those pills that looked very effective when eaten, but were very harmful to the human body, the emperor could not detect whether they were good or bad, and they were happy to muddle through.

As time went by, no one was learning the true alchemy methods instead, and all they were learning were side steps.

“You mean to say that you are the only one who can concoct this kind of pill?” When Zyden heard this, he had a smug look on his face and said, “Then wouldn’t I be more blessed than the ancient emperors!”

“It’s no fun if you want to compare it like that, ancient emperors didn’t even have air conditioning yet, it’s as hot as us in the summer, let’s just say ancient emperors weren’t as lucky as you!” Haoden Ye shook his head.

“Haha, I’m more blessed than they are anyway!” Zyden trailed off, whirling with regret, “It’s just a pity you can only refine so many in a day, otherwise I’d send one to every single person in my family!”

When he said that, Haoden Ye remembered that it was late, they came to the alchemy room in the afternoon, and five or six hours had already passed since this one pill was made.

“It’s getting late, so come over tomorrow and I’ll refine another one for Mr. Holander!” Haoden Ye began to pack the fireplace.

“Hehe, then please, I’ll go back tonight and ask my dad for tens of millions more to buy these houses behind your store and expand the Den for you! This fireplace is too small!” Zyden took a left and right look at the Dan Room.

Hearing him say that, Haoden Ye suddenly remembered something, revealing a pensive look.

“What are you thinking?” Zyden was sharp-eyed and immediately puzzled.

Haoden Ye thought for a moment, before saying, “When you said that, I just remembered, alchemy is not only about medicinal materials and fire, the timing and location are also very important, this dan room of mine has been in a closed state, so the quality of the refined pills are also inferior, if Simen is willing to invest, why not help me dish out a good feng shui land!”

Zyden’s eyes lit up at this and he clapped his hands in praise, “This is good, this is good! I’ll find out for you tomorrow!”

Seeing that it was getting late, the two left the pharmacy and happened to see Lin Xiang coming in from outside.

Now that the pharmacy wasn’t busy, Lin Yao would occasionally go out, and Haoden Ye would naturally allow it.

When he saw Lin cheng again, Zyden Holander’s eyes started to look strange again.

Chapter 278

“Where the hell have I seen this girl before?” On the car, Zyden pressed the gas pedal to the floor.

He’s been spending every day at the race track these last few days overseas and is used to the feeling of speed.

However, people in China drive very steadily, so fast cars on the road is considered a violation of the law.

Sirens soon sounded and Zyden was stopped.

“Hello, driver’s license, please!” The traffic cop was a girl in her early twenties, with a rather innocent look.

The first time she saw Zyden, the girl was just bright-eyed.

I have to say that Honko is a rare handsome man.

“Please...please show me your license!”The girl blushed and repeated it subconsciously.

Zyden had already pulled out his driver’s license and saw the girl’s shy appearance, his eyebrows raised slightly.

He’s chased many girls, stars don’t know how many he’s hooked up with, and his pursuit of girls has overtaken his desire for lust.

Now, he preferred the simplicity and naturalness emanating from the girl, such as this girl’s shyness, which the white-bones of fame and fortune couldn’t show.

“Pretty girl, I’m so sorry, I just got back from overseas!”Zyden got out of the car.

He was tall and exuded a different kind of manly air, masculine with a sunny dynamism.

The girl’s pretty face blushed even more, not even daring to look him in the eye, and lowered her head, “You’re speeding, two demerit points, fine... two hundred!”

“Oh, there’s still a fine to pay, I don’t know the situation in the country very well, can you hold up a bit of the lady’s time and give me a refresher on the country’s traffic laws?”Zyden revealed a charming smile.

The girl froze slightly and looked up at him, the blush on her pretty face slowly receding.

This obvious way of pursuing Zyden had sobered her up a bit.

She was still very knowledgeable about her condition, how could a rich handsome man like Zyden fancy herself, and at most, just play with herself.

“Sir don’t joke around, why would a rich man like you be interested in me!” The girl’s face went cold, and she said with a straight face, “I’ll put the address on the ticket to pay the fine!”

After saying that, she raised her head and spoke with a sour tone, “A rich person like you wouldn’t even pay the fine yourself, would you!”

Things like chasing girls are all hit and miss, and Zyden has naturally been frustrated.

There are still girls in this world who are very self-loving and don’t love money, or at least Zyden has encountered them many times.

There are also some girls who are very strong and don’t like men who are richer or more powerful than they are, and this kind of women also generally can’t be pursued.

But the necessary effort Zyden is still happy to pay: “Oh, the lover’s eyes out of the beauty, how do you know I do not like you? Haven’t you noticed, you have beautiful eyes, like the current big star Lin Yumo!”

What girl doesn’t like to hear nice words, Zyden Holander this still touched the girl.

With a slight blush on her pretty face, the girl coquettishly said, “Please be serious, sir, I’m in the middle of my office...sir?”

When she lifted her head, she saw Zyden staring at her, as if he had been nudged.

“Do I...do I have really good eyes?”The girl bit her lips, her pretty face blushing even more, “Maybe this rich second generation has a special fetish, he likes my eyes, if he’s after me, should I refuse or not?”

As the girl’s psyche began to drum, she heard Zyden Holander murmur, “Like!It’s so similar!Eyes, nose... it’s just too much alike, our Holander family is the best at remembering people, those who have seen them once, their looks, temperament and so on can all be remembered!”

The Holander family was able to develop by relying on well-developed connections, and the Holander family had a unique talent for living in the world.

“Holander...Holander family!”The female traffic police officer was dumbfounded, “You’re from the Honggs!”

That woke Zyden up, and his eyes narrowed.

“Thank you, beautiful!You solved a big problem for me!”Zyden laughed and suddenly hugged the girl’s cheeks, lowering his head and kissing her.

“What are you doing!”The female traffic cop was so shocked that she came down with an over-the-shoulder slam!

Poof!There was a muffled sound, followed by a crisp cracking sound, and Zyden’s hipbone hit the cold concrete floor, snapping off in a dashing fashion.

“Haw!This strength, this precision, this pain, it’s like the Holander family’s future young lady... “Zyden Holander’s painful features screwed together, and he couldn’t help but mentally think.

For a consecutive day, Haoden Ye was waiting for good news from Zyden, but Zyden was slow to contact him.

It wasn't until it was almost dark that Haoden Ye made a call to Zyden.

"Hey, Holander, have you found the land I was talking about?" Already familiar with it, Haoden Ye didn't have nonsense.

"I'm so sorry, but I'm in the hospital right now and I'm going to be delayed in finding land!" Zyden Holander spoke with an apologetic tone.

Haoden Ye's heart was shocked, how did Zyden get into the hospital? Maybe he took too many pills yesterday and he's showing off again, making him weak?

It's a matter of men's dignity, Haoden Ye was too embarrassed to ask directly, so he said with concern, "How is the doctor's test result? Do you want me to go there and check it out!"

"It's fine hip fracture is all, the doctor said it will be fine after two days of recuperation, I'm still young and recovering fast!" Zyden quickly smiled.

"Fractured hipbone!" Haoden Ye had an exaggerated look on his face.

Fractured hip bones are too... crazy. It's wild!

Haoden Ye gently shook his head and mentally sighed, "I really don't understand the life of rich people, how can I fracture all my hip bones?"

He's a first-timer in this area, and he's only seen all kinds of manipulation techniques from certain island movies.

"I'd better go check it out!" Haoden Ye was uneasy.

Letting cheerful Lin look after the store, Haoden Ye drove to the hospital.

When we arrived at the hospital entrance, we saw a familiar figure, but it was Liu Fei Leng.

He hadn't seen the girl in a long time since the last incident with Master Daikichi.

Opposite Liu Fei Leng was a middle-aged man, dressed in the clothes of a traffic police force, who looked like he should be a leader.

And a girl next to the man, who was quite innocent looking, was now wiping her eyes.

"I'm so sorry, it's my fault for not educating her mind properly and letting her get into such a mess!" The middle-aged man with an apologetic face was saying.

A professional smile flashed, and Liu Fei Leng spoke politely, "Captain Ma don't be polite, our young master is also at fault in this matter, he has already said that he won't file a lawsuit, you don't have to worry!"

"He's the one who kissed me before I did it, that's considered assaulting a police officer, why should he file a lawsuit!" At this time, the innocent girl had an unhappy look on her face and tears, "Can you bully people like that just because you have money?"

"You shut up!" Captain Ma glared angrily with both eyes, "Do you have proof? He's solidly wounded!"

Chapter 279

"Of course I have proof, I've got the law enforcement recorder on!" The girl looked even more aggrieved in the face of Captain Ma's anger.

“I didn’t know you had the recorder on?” Captain Ma grunted, “The fact that the recorder doesn’t show him kissing you on it is not evidence, and if people get a good lawyer, they’re not guilty!”

“I...” the girl’s pretty face flashed with anger and bit her lip, not speaking.

Liu Fei Leng had been watching the two men speak, knowing that there was sarcasm in Captain Ma’s words about Zyden.

“Miss Zhou don’t feel bad, for this matter, we Simen won’t deny it, if your traffic police brigade files a lawsuit, Simen is also willing to accept the punishment!” Willow Fiddler smiled faintly.

“Huh? I’m glad he knows! Captain, he’s admitted it all, so we can arrest him!” Miss Zhou snorted to Captain Ma.

The black lines on Captain Ma’s forehead are coming down, and they say you can arrest him if he confesses.

After arresting Zyden and offending the Holander family, do you still want to work in Dan City?

There is a favor in everything, things can not be too desperate, people have admitted their mistakes, you just take a little loss.

“Zhou Xiaojun! Just shut up!” Captain Ma finally got angry and muffled the doctor.

Giving him such a lecture, Zhou Xiaojun’s pretty face showed some fear, but he was still a little disgruntled and deflated in anger.

“Haha, it’s really troublesome Miss Liu, trouble you talk to Simen, this matter we traffic police brigade is very sorry,” Captain Ma pulled Zhou Xiaojun to walk outside the police station.

“Chief Ma slow down!What Simen means is... he wants Miss Zhou to stay, he needs someone to take care of his body right now!”Willow Fiddler frowned slightly, looking embarrassed.

It was a request that she was really embarrassed to say.

As expected, Captain Ma couldn't even hang up his face when he heard this.

Zhou Xiaojun was even more furious as his petite body trembled with rage, “This is a clear bully!Is it so shameless to have money?I'm a public servant, who am I to take care of him!”

Haoden Ye had been watching from the sidelines and frowned when he heard this.

But if Zyden was a person, he shouldn't be so brutal, maybe he really liked this girl.

After thinking about it, Haoden Ye hurried forward and said, “Miss Liu, how is Simen now?”

When Liu Fei Leng saw him coming, his eyes flickered slightly and whirled into a professional smile, “Holander is fine now, it's just a broken hip bone!”

“Ah!”As soon as Liu Fei Leng finished speaking, Haoden Ye revealed a look of exaggerated surprise and said, “Hip bone?How come the injury isn't anywhere else but the hip bone?”

Upon hearing that, Willow Fiddler's pretty face changed slightly.

“This is...” seeing Liu Fei Leng look surprised, Captain Ma was a bit overwhelmed and confused.

“This is Dr. Yeh!” Liu Fei Leng quickly explained and whirled to Haoden Ye, “What did Doctor Ye mean by what he just said?”

Haoden Ye stomped his foot heavily and looked depressed, “I’ve just diagnosed Simen, he is weak in Qi and Yang, now is the time to replenish Qi and blood, the hip bone is where the Kidney Qi gathers, once the consequences are broken... the consequences could be lifelong infertility for Simen!”

The three people present were directly stunned by what was said.

Liu Fei Leng locked his eyebrows, while Captain Ma and Zhou Xiaojun stared, especially Zhou Xiaojun, whose mouth was open as big as a hippo’s.

“No...infertility? You doctor don’t talk nonsense!” Captain Ma looked questioning to Haoden Ye, “Dean Li even said it was fine!”

“This Doctor Ye’s medical skills are going to be above Dean Li’s!” Liu Fei Leng looked grave to Captain Ma, spinning to Haoden Ye, “Is there any way to salvage it, Doctor Ye?”

“There are ways to save it, of course, but the patient has to be stable, and whatever he wants now, just try to meet him!” Haoden Ye frowned.

Captain Ma looked tight and subconsciously looked at Zhou Xiaojun.

Zhou Xiaojun was also starting to panic at this point, she was an ordinary girl in the end, and she actually had a good impression of Zyden.

Now tit-for-tat with Zyden, he also couldn’t see his captain having to whisper to Zyden.

Being swept away by Captain Ma's eyes like that, Zhou Xiaojun subconsciously swallowed his saliva and whispered, "Or... or I'll go take care of him!"

Haoden Ye put on an appearance like this is all your business and I have nothing to do with it, "You guys discuss it, I'll go check on the patient, but even if you have to take care of him, Haoden Ye tries to follow his wishes, if he's not careful, he'll be out of breath, the consequences are very serious!"

When she first heard Haoden Ye say that, Liu Fei Leng was indeed shocked.

In the end, she is a smart girl, and she has her own set of skills, at this time listening to Haoden Ye said so, Liu Fei Leng psychology can not help but suspicious.

Looking at Captain Ma and Zhou Xiaojun's reactions, Liu Fei Leng's heart was clear.

If Zyden was really in critical condition, how could Haoden Ye have time for so much nonsense.

Laughing bitterly in his heart, Liu Fei Leng secretly shook his head, remembering the first time he met Haoden Ye, he was still a cowardly and bashful man, it was only a few days of work, and he had learned to fool a virtuous girl.

"Xiao Jun, you can take care of Simen, in the end this matter is also your overreaction, the bureau still has things to do, I'm going back!" The horse captain simply came with a triple no matter.

He can't be held responsible for that if it's not a problem.

"Captain... "Zhou Xiaojun was about to cry in a hurry, watching Captain Ma hurry away, a few helplessness appearing on her pretty face.

“Come on, follow me in!” Haoden Ye said to the two girls and hurried inside the hospital.

Inside the ward, Haoden Ye checked Zyden’s body and was relieved after making sure it was okay.

Seeing Zhou Xiaojun and Haoden Ye come in together, Zyden was so happy that he was smiling and teasing the beauty.

Zhou Xiaojun was mentally angry, but didn’t dare to give him any more face, so he could only hold his anger and stare at Haoden Ye, afraid that he would say something bad.

“Well, the breath is sort of stable, he still needs to recuperate for some days, try not to move him these days!” Haoden Ye felt so many people staring at him and unconsciously wrinkled his nose.

He’s guilty of fooling a girl.

Only then did Zyden’s gaze withdraw from Zhou Xiaojun and wondered to Haoden Ye, “Brother Ye, what’s wrong with my body!”

Haoden Ye touched his nose, wringed his body to prevent Zhou Xiaojun from seeing himself, and squeezed his eyes out to Zyden, “Ahem, you have a damaged hip bone now, you can’t move your breath, otherwise you might be infertile for the rest of your life, for the future of your Holander family, Officer Zhou Xiaojun Zhou stoically agreed to take care of you, you can’t move your breath again!”

How smart Zyden was, he immediately came to a sudden realization and smiled gratefully at Haoden Ye, “I understand!! I’ll be sure not to get angry for the next two days, but that’s up to certain people to show!”
