

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 741 - 750

Alex looked helplessly at Sharpay who was sitting opposite him.

'This is too blatant, right? She just made advances by using her legs!'

Sharpay was blushing when Alex looked at her but through her expressions, she was seducing him. It seemed as long as Alex gave her a signal with his eyes, the room next to them would become the location for their intimate act.

Clearly, Sharpay got the wrong idea at the moment. That pretty leg actually went higher and it was going to harass his crotch area.

'Damn it. This woman is too daring. Even Waltz has never done it so blatantly before!'

Smack!

Alex relentlessly smacked Sharpay's instep with his utensils. Unguarded, the woman screamed out of pain.

She immediately retreated her leg but she did it too quickly. So, her knee knocked on the table so hard that the table even jumped.

Shocked, Adrianna exclaimed, "Sharpay, what are you doing? Are you going to flip the table upside down?"

Sharpay was going to cry. Her entire instep was swollen and the bones were nearly broken.

Never did she expect that Alex failed to understand her hint. 'Didn't he say that he and Cousin were just spouses on paper and they didn't even have sex before? A young man like him should be easily hooked up with!'

However, she certainly couldn't tell the truth. Aggrieved, she said, "A mosquito bit me."

Adrianna said, "It's just a mosquito bite and you're making such a big fuss? Quickly go and get your father's precious wine from the cellaret and pour some for Alex."

She then turned to Alex and smiled as she said, "Alex, there used to be some misunderstanding between us and it was all because of that woman, Claire Assex. She deliberately told us to be rude toward you because she wanted you and Dorothy to get a divorce, so that Dorothy could marry a rich heir. That family failed to recognize your great capabilities... Well, my daughter is different. Even though she had a few boyfriends in the past but she is still a virgin. I think if you're interested, maybe you could try dating my daughter."

Alex was dumbfounded.

Before Sharpay could go and get the wine, he put down his utensils and pulled Sharpay. "Follow me."

As he spoke, he pulled Sharpay into her room and banged the door shut.

With a forceful swing, Sharpay fell onto the bed.

Adrianna was shocked by the scene of Alex's wildness, but she immediately smiled...

The reason that she wanted Sharpay to fetch the Chateau Lafite was to intoxicate Alex and make him sleep with her daughter. It would be perfect if he could impregnate her in just one attempt.

He hadn't drunk any wine and he just dragged her daughter into the room now. It was even better!

When the time came, there would be no excuse for him to ditch her shamelessly.

Sharpay was slightly stunned when she was being flung to the bed. She was nervous at first while looking at Alex, but soon, she smiled happily. Sharpay thought, 'This guy was still acting in front of me just now. In fact, he really couldn't stand it anymore, isn't it? Hmph, is there any man who is not lecherous?'

She slowly got up while twisting her body and moved closer to Alex.

She put one of her hands on his chest and gently said, "Mr. Rockefeller, please don't be like that. I'm scared..."

She was about to unbutton his shirt as she said.

Smack!

At this moment, Alex suddenly gave Sharpay a slap on her face. Her face became even more red than before and she could feel a burning sensation.

Sharpay screamed as she was stunned.

Meanwhile, Adrianna, who was outside the room, was overjoyed when she heard it, thinking that they had done it.

However, the doorbell rang at this moment.

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0742

She looked through the peephole and she was instantly shocked. It was actually her sister, Claire Assex who was at the doorstep... She cursed secretly, 'Why the hell would this snob show up at this critical moment? I must not let her mess up my plan.'

Hence, she didn't utter a word as if there was nobody at home. However, her phone soon rang loud and clear. Adrianna rushed toward her phone and grabbed it. She immediately silenced her phone and turned it off. However, Claire had already heard the sounds inside.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

She knocked on the door loudly as she shouted, "Adrianna Bardot, what the hell are you doing inside? I can hear your phone ringing. Hurry and open up."

Adrianna kept quiet.

However, Claire refused to give up. Not only did she knock the door even louder, but she also continued shouting with her loud voice, "Adrianna Bardot, open the door. What the hell do you think you're doing? Trying to act like you doesn't know who I am? I'm your sister! Open up! Don't you dare tell me that you're having an affair inside? You daring piece of sh*t, you are actually having an affair in your own house! Aren't you afraid that your husband would come back all of the sudden and catch you red-handed?"

Adrianna was so furious that she wanted to sew up her sister's mouth with a needle.

'How could she be so mean?'

'The neighbours are all coming home from work at this time yet you're yelling with such a loud voice. The others might have misunderstood that me, Adrianna Bardot is really having an affair. How could I continue to stay here?' In fact, Taylor Bellamy had always been questioning his own wife's loyalty all the time because of her beauty. He would really go berserk if he were to hear all these rumours.

She had no choice but to open the door for her.

She looked at her coldly as she said, "Claire Assex, are you insane? What the hell are you talking about outside of my house?! Who is having an affair? Do you think that I'm you? So, you'd just spread your legs for every man you see after being a widow for many years?"

"You're the one that can't keep your leg close. I've been knocking on the door for so long, why didn't you answer?"

“Couldn’t I be in the washroom?”

However, Claire noticed something was wrong. There were three sets of cutlery on the dining table. “Isn’t Taylor out of town? Why are there three sets of cutleries? Who came to your house?”

Adrianna replied- “Nobody.”

Claire acted like a detective. “Nobody? Do you think I’m blind and I can’t see anything? Oh, is this the car key of a Porsche? Sis, did you really cheat on Taylor with a rich guy?”

Adrianna was getting anxious. She was very afraid that Claire would find out about Alex’s identity. When the time came, who knew what would happen next. So, she instantly kept her cool expression as she said, “What does it have got anything to do with you? Why are you here? Could you please leave if there’s nothing important? I’m going out soon!”

Claire was shocked. “Are you serious? Are you really seeing a man out of nowhere?”

“No. That’s Sharpay’s boyfriend.”

“Oh, Sharpay has a new boyfriend again... She really should look for someone who is more reliable. He better doesn't be like the previous two, they were all liars! This Porsche is your future son-in-law's?”

Adrianna rolled her eyes at her speech. She was upset after hearing Claire's words in such a tone. She couldn't help but want to show off.

Anyway, she thought that since Alex and her daughter had done the deed and he couldn't run away from it anymore.

So, she smiled and said, “This car is a gift to my daughter, Sharpay from my new son-in-law! It's worth more than two million dollars. You don't have to worry about whether he's reliable or not because he's a CEO with billions of dollars' worth of assets! His fortune will even be multiplied several times in the future!”

Upon hearing her words, Claire was shocked yet envious. “Who is it?”

Adrianna said, “You'll find out soon.”

Meanwhile, Alex and Sharpay who were inside the room certainly heard that Claire was outside. They were shocked for different reasons but they did not want Claire to find out. Hence, both of them decided to keep quiet after making eye contact, waiting for Adrianna to make Claire leave.

However, after waiting for a minute, five minutes and even ten minutes, she still had not left.

Both of them could not just stand there.

Alex pointed at the window and thought of jumping out Sharpay was shocked, she nervously whispered, “This is the tenth floor. You’ll die if you fall from here.”

However, her voice was heard by Claire who was just outside the door. She immediately rushed over and opened the room’s door.

In the next second, she was stunned.

“Why is it you trash, Alex Rockefeller? What are you doing here? Oh, you couldn’t possibly be Sharpay’s new boyfriend, right?”

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0743

Claire was extremely dumbfounded when she saw Alex and Sharpay inside the room.

Not even in her dreams would she have imagined this!

She was shocked yet contemptuous. Then, she looked toward her own sister, Adrianna and started laughing. “My dear sister, are you sick recently? Everyone knew that Sharpay has bad taste in men but how could your brain not function well too? Don’t you already know the background of this Rockefeller? You actually allow him and Sharpay to be together and even addressed him as your good son-in-law. Are all the other men in this world dead? He’s the useless scumbag that got chased out of our house. He’s tantamount to the rubbish that was thrown out by Dorothy, and you people can actually accept that kind of trash?”

Alex sighed in his heart. Never did he expect that Claire would have reached the point that she actually opened the door.

Upon hearing those words from Claire, a hint of anger flashed inside Alex but then the feeling was immediately gone. Before the divorce, was there even a day that she didn’t scold him badly? He had gotten used to it. Hence, it didn’t cause any ripple of emotion in his heart.

‘The most important thing is that no matter how you scold me contemptuously, I’ll turn around and sleep with you daughter.’

However, Adrianna could not take it anymore. She truly believed that Alex and her daughter had slept together and Alex was her good son-in-law.

How could she allow Claire to humiliate him like this?

The most worrying part was, what if Alex even abandoned her daughter out of anger because of Claire?

She immediately chided, “Claire Assex, why do you have such a dirty mouth? What’s wrong with Alex? In my eyes, he’s the best son-in-law I could ever ask for. He and my daughter find each other congenial, and what does this have anything to do with you?”

Claire angrily stomped her feet. She glared at her as she said, “How dare you talk to me like that?”

Adrianna did not back away. “Why can’t I talk to you like that? Do you really think that you’re such a highly respected Madame? You’re just a failed widow whose husband ran away with another person. Claire Assex, stop acting like everyone owes you something all the time. Dad and I have been tolerating you all these while because we treated you like you were mentally ill. Do you know that?”

“You... B*stard!”

Claire was extremely furious. Her husband’s affair was a humiliation in her life. She immediately gave Adrianna a slap on her face.

However, Adrianna had exploded as well today. She too gave her a slap in return. With a loud smack, Claire's originally injured face immediately turned red.

Adrianna chided, "Claire Assex, don't think that I dare not fight back. If we were to get into a fight, you are no match for me even if there are two copies of you. Furthermore, I even have two men in my family, what about you? You have none in your family."

Claire said, "Who are two men in your family?"

"One is my husband, Taylor Bellamy and the other is my son-in-law, Alex Rockefeller. Both of them are men!"

Alex's mouth twitched when he heard that.

'Since when did I become Adrianna's son-in-law?'

He wanted to explain for himself but the two crazy women of the Assexes were fighting each other and there was no place for him to speak.

Adrianna said loudly, "Claire Assex, if it wasn't for you being lonely and did not have any men, do you really think I'd talk to you nicely? It's just Dad who pitied you, saying that you're slightly crazy because your husband had run away and you couldn't be provoked. Hence, I kept tolerating you. Who would have known that you're really insane, and you even come to my house to create a scene?"

"Who do you think you you're? Alex was chased out of the house because you're crazy. He's such a nice young man and you treated him like a slave all the time. Who could stand your attitude?"

"I should just be honest with you. I've looked up to him for a very long time. I've always wanted him to be my son-in-law. As soon as you made him get a divorce, I immediately wanted Sharpay to marry him. Unlike you who treats him like trash, I will treat him like a treasure and serve him at home every day. Do you have any comments?"

Alex glanced at Adrianna.

He really hoped to have a mother-in-law who could serve him every day. But it was Adrianna... He really should forget about it! He knew clearly in his heart that Adrianna's attitude did a one-eighty because she saw the light in him. If he were not rich, she would have the same virtue as Claire.

Claire was shocked. "You're the one who's insane. Oh, now I get it! Do you really think that he's becoming rich because his mother opened a Lush Cosmetics whatsoever? And the fortune will keep coming in, and he will become a wealthy heir again? You can stop dreaming about it now. They must be out of their minds for going up against Rockefeller Group. When the time comes, he won't have a single penny and the company will be snatched away by Rockefeller Group. Furthermore, Lush Cosmetics isn't something good either. Where could you find any cosmetics that have such good effects? There must be some hormonal drugs in them. If there's any problem with the cosmetics, you're all going to be involved."

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0744

Adrianna had already heard all about it from her daughter a long time ago. The qualities of Lush Cosmetics' products were all qualified and licensed. How could there be any hormonal drugs?

More importantly, she knew that Alex's current identity was not simple!

Even the shareholder of Thousand Miles Conglomerate had to bow down to him. How could an existence like that not be able to settle Rockefeller Group?

Rockefeller Group was way too inferior than Thousand Miles Conglomerate...

She believed that Alex did not directly destroy Rockefeller Group because he wanted to play cat and mouse for a while. However, she did not plan to tell Claire all of these.

She said, "What does it have to do with you? We are willing to do so. Your daughter and Alex have already gotten a divorce. They will go their own ways in the future! Either it's good or bad, it's our family's business. We won't ask you for a single penny... So, what are you truly here for today?"

Claire was so angry that she forgot about what she came here for.

She pointed at a few people and started cursing. She then slammed the door and left.

Alex was speechless after what had happened. He only looked at Sharpay and said coldly, "Work harder from now on and stop overthinking. The two of us are impossible! But if you have the capability and you're willing to work hard, I'll guarantee you abundance of wealth on behalf of Dorothy."

'What?' Adrianna was dumbfounded.

"No, Alex. You... you can't do that. You can't just leave after sleeping with my daughter!"

Alex's eyes turned cold. The vibe that he was giving almost made Adrianna fall to the ground.

Sharpay hurriedly grabbed her and said bitterly, "Mom, stop talking."

Alex said again, "I want the detailed proposal within three days. Can you do it?"

Sharpay nodded. "Yes, Mr. Rockefeller."

"Alright!"

After Alex left, Adrianna couldn't help but start scolding him. Sharpay immediately stopped her and said, "Mom, what are you thinking? He didn't do anything to me."

She then told her what had happened in the room. Only then did Adrianna realize that Alex did not sleep with her daughter but gave her a slap to awaken her when she tried to seduce him.

She immediately pounded on her chest and stamped her feet "It must be that crazy Claire's fault. She suddenly came here and destroyed the goodness! Why do I have such a crazy sister... Otherwise, we could have gotten Alex and we'll immediately be rich. I don't want to stay in this dilapidated house anymore. I want to live in a huge villa!"

Sharpay said, "Mom, please don't be like that. Alex said that he was very satisfied with my proposal. When the time comes, he would let me be in charge of it and he even promised me some shares if I were to perform well! According to the current trend of Lush Cosmetics, it could rake annual profits of tens of billions of dollars, or even more. I believe that as long as I clamped onto him tightly, I'll be rich too!"

Adrianna's eyes brightened up. "You're right! If you really could help him to earn more money, he would change his view toward you. He might not accept you now, but it doesn't mean he won't accept you in the future!"

Sharpay nodded. "That's right. I want to prove to him that I'm his lucky charm!"

Half an hour later, Claire was back at Assex Villa.

Seeing Dorothy and Beatrice who were talking on the sofa, she walked up to them and finished a glass of water on the tea table. She put it down with a loud thud and then growled, "I'm so angry!"

Dorothy frowned as she said, "Mom, who angered you again?"

Claire said, "Who else do you think it is? That trashy ex-husband of yours. I'm truly speechless at him. He just got a divorce with you and now he's seeing that dumb b*tch Sharpay Bellamy. Does he want to hang onto the Assexes' women and die so badly?"

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0745

The Assexes' sisters were shocked.

Beatrice who had just come back from Eastward Island said with her eyes widened, “Is it real? Alex and Sharpay... How is that possible? They don’t even match each other!”

Claire scornfully said, “Of course it’s real. I saw it with my own eyes.”

Dorothy seemed surprised at first but soon she was back to normal again.

She wore a pair of shorts, sitting with her legs crossed on the leather sofa at home while holding a tablet in her hands. She was reading her work report on the screen as she asked nonchalantly, “What did you see?”

Claire replied, “What did I see? Of course, I saw the useless trash doing indecent stuff with Sharpay. I caught them inside Sharpay’s room. They were acting surreptitiously, I guess they were probably getting intimate! The main problem wasn’t this, but it’s that stupid Adrianna. She actually said she’s very satisfied with this son-in-law. Is she a beggar? Trying to pick up the trash that we have thrown out?”

Dorothy glanced at her. “Probably? That means you didn’t see it happening!”

Claire replied, “What? You still don’t believe me?”

Dorothy smiled gently and kept quiet.

She did not believe it at all. Based on her understanding of Alex, Alex should never like Sharpay... If he really were to hook up with Sharpay, that would only mean that he was going to be blind.

Beatrice also shook her head. "I don't believe it either. Alex is a useless trash but he's very picky when it comes to women."

Claire said, "How would you know?"

Beatrice said, "I can tell in normal days. Most importantly, he had lived with us for about a year and he's always around with beauties like us. It naturally made him picky. Look at the other women that he had found later. Dr. Cheryl, Michelle Yowell, and Maya Howards. They were all beauties! Sharpay is just a level below his standards."

Claire continued, "But I heard it from Adrianna. It couldn't be wrong. Who knows what drugs she's on, she suddenly cares so much about that brat... No, this isn't right. Something must be wrong. I know your aunt very well, she's way smarter than a goblin. She shouldn't fancy Alex, with his current state. Is there something that I don't know?"

At this moment, the news was playing on the television. Suddenly, the news jumped out. "A car was being tailgated today at 4 pm. on the streets of Peace Road. The following scene is rather funny. Moony will take it from here..."

The scene changed to the scene of the car accident. As soon as the scene was shown, slapping on a person's face for multiple times was seen.

It was the scene where Sharpay was getting slapped by the transgender rich woman. The video was slightly shaky as if it were recorded with a handphone.

“Look! It’s Sharpay!” Beatrice shouted.

“Oh, it really is her. What is going on?” Claire was shocked.

Even Dorothy did not look at her tablet but her eyes were fixated on the news.

Even though the video was slightly shaky but they could still clearly tell that Sharpay and Adrianna were getting beaten up by a rich woman. The few of them frowned, even Claire got slightly worried. After all, it was her biological sister. However, the following scene made her mouth agape as she was speechless for quite a long time.

“Is that... Alex Rockefeller?”

“Oh my god, what is going on? How dare he break that person’s wrist on the spot? Is he insane?”

“What? That woman is the wife of Thousand Miles Conglomerate’s shareholder. That useless trash really loves to get into trouble. Does he really think that he could take over the world just because he knows a bit of martial arts... Look! The Rolls-Royce even drives over, the big guy is here. He's truly looking for trouble... Dorothy, luckily you got a divorce with him, or else our family is truly ruined!"

It was until Darwin fell on his knees in front of Alex, he even exposed his wife was a transgender.

It was truly a surprise!

Claire had her mouth agape, slightly tongue-tied. Her mind was in slight confusion as she could not process what had just happened.

After watching the news, Dorothy stood up and said, "I have an appointment tonight, I'll be back late."

Claire asked, "An appointment with whom?"

"A business partner. There's some business matter to discuss about I'll be with my colleagues, don't worry."

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0746

After speaking, Dorothy went upstairs to get change while texting Alex. “Babe, I miss you!”

Alex replied immediately. “Where do you miss me?”

Dorothy was putting on lipstick while she replied with a smile. “There!”

Alex replied with a tongue-licking emoji. “I’ll meet you outside your housing area in half an hour.”

When Dorothy was done dressing up seductively and leaving the house with a small bag, Beatrice stared at her back as she talked to Claire, “Mom, don’t you think Sis is a bit odd? Why would she dress up so beautifully at this hour? Is she really out to talk about business?”

Claire only hummed twice, her mind was not on this matter at all.

After a while, she suddenly looked at Beatrice and said, “Beatrice, do you think that Alex could defeat Rockefeller Group and take it back?”

Beatrice was dumbfounded. “Why do you suddenly ask about this?”

Claire said, “Think about it, even the shareholder of Thousand Miles Conglomerate had to bow down to that ungrateful rascal. What qualification does he have? Don’t you find it odd? It couldn’t be because of Lush Cosmetics that was opened by his mother, right?... Also, the boss of Thousand Miles actually came personally and apologized to us last time. He even gave you many presents, how is that normal? Thinking about it now, something is really wrong. Even with the help of your university classmate from the Yowells, she couldn’t possibly make Lord Lex speak to Alex humbly, right?”

Beatrice thought about it and her eyes were widened as she said, “Do you think Alex has been playing dumb to take advantages of others all this while? In fact, he’s actually an heir of the royalties?”

“What are you talking about? What royalties?”

“Mom, you don’t understand it! I saw an entirely new world when I went to the Eastward Island. There are really martial artists in this world. They could break metals with a punch and even reach out their hands to summon lightning! Furthermore, the royalties truly exist.”

She thought of Mask when she spoke about this. Her face was filled with admiration and fascination.

Of course, Claire did not believe her. "I think you're just addicted to your martial arts novels. If they could summon lightning with their bare hands, do you believe that I know Buddha Palm Technique and I could slap sh*t out of you with just a palm strike? I'll give you a mission. Go and find out any hidden information behind Alex and to what extent the business of Lush

Cosmetics has reached."

"Sure. I just happen to have an omniscient classmate about California. I'll just call him and ask!"

While both the mother and daughter were having their axes to grind with their plans, Alex picked up Dorothy and went to Maple Villa.

Once they entered the villa, the two people were excited to get together.

Bags were thrown to the side, shoes were flung to the corner of the wall and their clothes were all over the place. The temperature in the room was rising rapidly. After all, they were energetic young people. They couldn't forget the taste once they had tried it and they wanted to try it again.

Furthermore, short partings made the reunion even sweeter than a honeymoon. How could they withstand the temptation?

Soon after, everywhere in that villa had become a scene for them.

Two hours later, Dorothy lay on Alex's chest lazily. She closed her eyes as she listened to his heartbeat. After a while, she suddenly said, "I heard that Zendaya is engaged and her fiance is Coleman's young master of Missouri. You should know about that, right?"

Alex's heart instantly skipped a beat. He thought, 'Why is she talking about this?'

He immediately sounded her out by asking, "I think I heard a bit of rumors, but I'm not sure about the details."

Dorothy smirked. "I thought you were planning to snatch the bride!"

Alex was shocked and a trace of panic flashed through his eyes. He hurriedly covered up for himself. "How's that even possible? I can't afford to mess with the Colemans of Missouri nor the Stoerrners of Michigan!"

"Does that mean that you would go and snatch the bride if you could afford to mess with them?"

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0747

“Of course, no!”

How could Alex possibly admit it? Only an idiot would admit it!

Alex rolled onto Dorothy and his body slightly touched hers. He said, “I saw your mom just now, she was fighting with your aunt. She should have told you something when she got back, right?”

Dorothy knew that he was trying to change the topic.

However, she had no intention to pursue the matter further. She replied to him, “She did. She said that she saw you were hooking up with my cousin in her room. Oh, since we have already gotten a divorce, I have no right to control your matters like this... But, a rich heir has been pursuing me, I was thinking if I should accept him.”

Alex exploded in anger when he heard that. “Don’t you dare! ”

Dorothy flipped her long leg and chuckled. “Why wouldn’t I? If you can have a woman, why can’t I have a man too?”

Alex immediately explained what had happened in the morning. It turned out that she did not even listen carefully. Only then did he realize that she did not believe what Claire had said at all.

He sunk onto her and a new round of conquest began.

Nobody knew how long it had been, the two of them were satisfied. Dorothy went to take a shower first and she came out with a bath towel. She slowly walked toward the window and stared at the cultivated frosty octagon flower and spiritual grain in the pot of spiritual soil. She asked, "What kind of flower is this? It's so beautiful."

Alex did not hide it from her. "It's the frosty octagon flower. A very rare species."

"Why haven't I heard of it before? It even bears seeds already... Hubby, do you not know how to grow flowers? This pot is too small. There's not enough space for the roots, you'll need a bigger pot or just plant them in the garden... How about let me plant them for you?"

'Huh?' Alex was dumbfounded. 'This is not a normal flower. Most importantly, these are not normal soil, they are the spiritual soil!'

"That's too troublesome. These... These soil and the flowers came from a special source and they are very expensive. The flower will die easily if they are separated."

“I know, but aren't you always away from home? The flowers will die in that case too. It is decided then, I'll take them with me... What's wrong? You won't even give me a pot of flowers now? And you still plan to bog me?”

“I do, of course I do. It's just a pot of flowers! Just take it.” Alex waved his hand generously.

The time was getting late, Beatrice gave Dorothy a call at this moment, asking her when she would go home. Dorothy said, “I'll be back soon.”

After changing her clothes, she hugged the pot of flowers downstairs and had Alex drive her back to the villa area of Senna Port.

“Don't worry, I'll take good care of this pot of flowers, you can go back now! ” She smiled and kissed Alex goodbye.

Then, she hugged the pot flowers as she walked into the villa area like a night elf. Upon entering the area, she turned around and smiled. The few guards at the gate who were all intoxicated by her smile had lost sense of direction for a brief moment.

Even Alex who just had a violent battle with her went blank for a while.

He always felt that ever since Dorothy had transformed from a lady to a woman, every part of her seemed to have become a secret treasure. She was constantly exuding the charm of a matured woman, every frown or smile of hers could render a man weak.

Once again, Alex returned to Maple Villa.

He suddenly remembered that he needed to do something today. He was supposed to try Blood Refinement reminded by Kenji Miyagi in order to find the owner of the head... He had been studying about the head for a long time but there was no progress at all. However, he ignored the step of Blood Refinement all this while.

The teachings in The Ultimate Book of Medicine had mentioned the method of Blood Refinement in recognizing the owner more than once. It was actually a shortcut to help the people of low cultivation to refine their spiritual tools and magical treasures.

Through a certain connection created between the essence of a person's blood and the magic treasure, it could make the refining process much easier.

Alex took out the bead. He then forced out a drop of his blood essence onto the bead. The blood was quickly absorbed into the bead.

Alex was excited as he thought something was going to happen.

However, after a minute, two minutes, five minutes...

There was not a single reaction on the bead's surface. 'Damn, what's the matter? Could it be that there is not enough blood?'

Alex continued to drop more blood onto the bead.

There was still no reaction on the bead after more than ten drops. However, the bead had absorbed all of the blood.

Alex was a bit frustrated. 'Let's see how much of my blood that this tiny bead could absorb.'

He cut open his palm and put the head into his wound. 'Suck it!'

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0748

In the next second, he let out a terrifying roar because the bead was gone with a whoosh. It went inside his wound.

Then, it melted!

‘What is happening? Where’s the bead?’

Alex was terrified. He searched the ground, but it was not there! It was impossible for it to be on the ground! It was because he saw the bead disappear before his eyes and went into his palm wound. More importantly, he did not feel anything at all.

‘The head was as big as a Longan fruit. How did it go inside? It’s not scientifically possible at all.’

In the next moment, he was even more shocked. Through his inner sight, he found the bead in his upper energy core, which was located near the center of his brow. The bead was quietly seated in his upper energy core and it was not moving at all.

After trying for two hours, Alex lay on the bed with a face that looked like he wanted to die. He helplessly accepted the fact.

The bead was in his upper energy core but he could not do anything about it at all. He could neither force it out nor make it move by shouting. He could not even control it.

'Forget it. As long as it doesn't affect my brain, I'll just act as if my brain is storing a quail egg!

As for the other bead, he did not dare to try it.

On the second day, it was Lord Lex's funeral.

Alex drove to Hell's Angels.

Meanwhile, the news about the death of Lex Gunther, the boss of Thousand Miles Conglomerate, had been spread around California. Even the news has reported it early in the morning. "Lord Lex Gunther has unfortunately passed away. The CEO position of Thousand Miles Conglomerate will be taken over by Lord Lex Gunther's goddaughter, Waltz Fleur."

The news spread quickly.

Soon after, everyone was talking about the news of Waltz Fleur.

In California State University, Beatrice's classroom. "Goddess Assex, someone is looking for you!" A shout from a guy had caught the attention of the entire classroom.

There was only one Goddess Assex in the classroom and that was Beatrice. Countless students looked toward the entrance of the classroom and they saw a short guy wearing glasses standing outside the entrance. He looked at her indecently.

"Tch!" The students boomed one after another.

That guy was considered as a famous character in California State University, his nickname was Rat.

Some people called him the Know-it-all because he loved to collect all kinds of gossip. However, there were rumours that this person was most likely a hacker. His computer skills were insanely good. He knew a lot of information because he got them via hacking.

He sold information for pocket money with the skills that he had.

“Beatrice, why is Rat looking for you?” The guy behind Beatrice asked.

“It’s nothing. I just asked him for some information.” Beatrice went outside the classroom.

Rat pushed his glasses as he swung his hand with the document bag. “Once I, Rat set out to run your errand, how could I possibly come back empty handed? Here’s what you need. I’ll give it to you after you pay me.”

At the staircase, Beatrice transferred three thousand dollars to his account and took the document bag. However, Rat said again, “Lady Assex, why are you investigating your ex-brother-in-law? I have something more interesting about you and your ex-brother-in-law, would you like to buy it?”

Beatrice was shocked as she said, “What is it?”

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0749

“Me and my ex-brother-in-law?”

Beatrice looked at Rat shockingly but she immediately calmed down. “Don’t you dare spread rumours. I have nothing to do with that man at all. Don’t think about using Photoshopped photos to extort my money, I don’t have money either.”

Rat smiled as he said, “Really? I didn’t say I was going to extort you but I found accidentally something really interesting. If you’re not interested, then forget about it!”

Beatrice was getting curious and asked. “What is it?”

Rat replied, “A footage at Apollo Hotel. Well, technically there are three footages.”

Beatrice was shocked.

'Apollo Hotel, isn't there the place where I got drugged and almost got raped by that Spark Rockefeller, and then saved by Mask? Spark and Yeferson died there.'

This had always been the biggest secret in her heart. Outsiders must not know about this.

'But, what did it have to do with Alex?'

Beatrice was unsettled. She was worried that Rat might have known something. Especially, if the death of Spark were to be blamed on her, the Rockefellers would never let her off the hook.

She forcibly calmed herself and asked, "Say it properly, only then I'll decide if I want to buy it."

Rat said, "That night, your ex-brother-in-law seemed to have done something to you. If you don't want to know, then forget about it. I promise that I won't say anything about it. After all, I have good work ethics."

After pondering for a while, Beatrice finally said, "How much?"

"Five thousand dollars!"

“Isn’t that expensive?”

“Ms. Assex, your sister is now the CEO of Assex Conglomerate with a net worth of hundreds of millions of dollars. You couldn’t possibly don’t have this much money, right? I believe we can still be friends after this, right?”

“Fine. But I don’t have enough money right now. I’ll owe you two thousand dollars first.”

“Sure. Add me on Line, I’ll send you the footage.”

Ten minutes later, Beatrice received the footage.

Her heart raced wildly, fearing that her affairs would be exposed, especially when Mona was involved in it and it might cause huge repercussions.

She did not dare to click on the video in public. Instead, she went under a big tree in the campus where no one was there.

She clicked on the video and there were three CCTV footage.

All of the footage was less than five minutes but after watching them, Beatrice felt as if she were struck by lightning.

It was the footage of the incident that day. She saw Alex was following Yeferson and putting on a mask. Then, she saw... Alex carried her and left in a dark alley.

'It's actually Alex Rockefeller.'

'The person who rescued me was Alex Rockefeller. Alex Rockefeller is Mask!'

This was all true and the footage was evidence.

She covered her mouth tightly and her eyes turned red... Multiple scenes suddenly appeared in front of her eyes, they were the scenes of Alex stabbing his stomach, California State Stadium, Apollo Hotel, the deadly alley, and the cliff of Eastward Island. He stepped forward to rescue her each and every time.

If it weren't for him, she would have died countless times, or even suffered a fate that was worse than death. However, how did she treat him all these times?

Unknowingly, tears started falling off her face.

'Why, why didn't you tell me?'

'You have been doing all these quietly without asking for anything in return. Alex Rockefeller, why are you so stupid?'

'No, I need to look for him. I need to apologize to him...'

Beatrice suddenly strengthened her conviction.

At this time, the images of usual trashy Alex and the brave, invincible Mask had been completely merged in her mind. She was still holding the document bag about Alex's information, which was given by Rat earlier.

However, at this moment, she didn't want to open it at all. No matter what was written inside, it was Alex's privacy.

She believed that if she ever opened it, it would be a desecration and tantamount to trampling on her faith. So, she decided not to look at that file.

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 0750

Not far away, there was a boiler house in California State University. There were coals burning inside, she went over and nobody was inside. The boiler was burning intensely and she threw the document bag inside.

The blazes immediately swallowed the document bag. Then, she gave Alex a call.

Meanwhile, Alex just reached Hell's Angels.

He was slightly startled when he received a call from Beatrice. Then, he picked up the call. "What is it, Beatrice?"

"Alex, are you..." Beatrice wanted to ask him but she immediately stopped herself because she suddenly felt that it would not work. If she were to reveal Alex's identity as Mask, he might instantly block her and never talk to her again.

Therefore, she must never reveal his identity.

"Am I what?" Alex frowned as he asked.

“Are you together with Sharpay?” She immediately changed what she was about to say. “I heard it from my mom.”

Alex was too lazy to answer questions like that. So, he replied, “Yes or no, it’s none of your business. If you called me just to ask me this kind of silly question, then I’ll hang up.”

“No, no!” Beatrice hurriedly said, “I just wanted to say I believe that you won’t fancy Sharpay. I’m pretty sure that my mom was just spewing nonsense.”

“Oh, seems like you know me quite well?”

“I can tell, okay. Sharpay is way too inferior than my sister, she is not even as good as me!”

“Is there anything else?”

“About that... My mom is probably going to trouble you soon. You... You should be careful.”

Alex felt weird and asked, “Aren’t you always on the same team as your mom? Did the sun rise from the west today? Why would you inform me about it?”

“B-because... You saved our entire family by willingly stabbing yourself in the small alley last time. I feel like no matter how big this misunderstanding is, it is time to let it go. I hope you won't get hurt anymore because of my mom. That is it.”

“Alright, I understand. That's it for now, I've things to attend to!”

“Alright, I have class too. Bye!”

After hanging up the call, Beatrice realized that her heart was thumping quickly, as if it was going to jump out of her chest. Even her face was burning hot. Meanwhile, Alex did not care about what Beatrice had told him earlier.

‘Claire Assex is just a crazy woman. What could she do to me now?’

Just when he was about to go into Hell's Angels, he suddenly heard a voice nearby.

“Savior!”

It was a woman. Her voice was like an orchid of the empty valley, delicate and gentle.

Alex turned around and saw Xyla from the Stoermer family of Michigan. She was Zendaya's aunt, who was just rescued by him at the Sanctuary Shrine earlier.

"Miss Stoermer, what are you doing here?" Alex was surprised.

Xyla seemed much better today as compared to before. Clearly, the Stoermers of Michigan had something similar to heavenly treasures. She looked like a forty year-old woman before this, but now she was almost like a woman below thirty year old.

"Do you not welcome me?" She smiled gently.

The elegant demeanor of a lady from a great family was undoubtedly revealed.

Alex smiled as he said, "Of course not. Then, you are here to..."

He pointed at the inside of Hell's Angels.

At this time, the exterior of Hell's Angels had been decorated with heavy funeral decorations: white cloths and banners, black flowers and two big white lanterns were hung up high.

Xyla nodded as she said, "Yes, Savior. I came to give my condolences to Lord Lex on behalf of the Stoermers' sisters that were hurt. At the same time, I came to thank you as well."

Alex replied, "Please don't address me as Savior, just call me Alex. Let's go in then!"

"Okay!"

The two of them walked into Hell's Angels.

Soon after, they saw Waltz, Azure and the others inside. However, before he could talk to them, a shareholder of Thousand Miles Conglomerate rushed in and spoke with Waltz, "Ms. Fleur, this is not good. Someone deliberately short sold our stock and now our stock price has plummeted, causing the shareholders to sell their shares out of fear. What should we do?"
