

Chapter 1298

When Sabrina caught a clear look at the newcomer, she immediately addressed him. "Mr. Ford..."

Sean's face was dark with anger. "At least you still know I am Sebastian's father..."

Then, he turned and looked toward Sebastian. "The entire Ford Group was built and left behind by your ancestors! The women of the Ford Group hardly stepped foot in the company! Even though your stepmother worked together with me and greatly expanded the company, even though she had a position at the company, we hardly strutted through the office as a couple, with our hands all over each other!"

Sebastian looked at his father coldly. "What are you trying to say?"

At his son's question, for a second, Sean himself forgot what he wanted to say. "..."
He even forgot his aim in coming here today.

Sebastian continued questioning his father. "Back then, you did not dare to flaunt your status as a couple with my stepmother because, according to the laws back then, you committed an act of adultery. At home, you had my stepmother back then, you committed an act of adultery. At home, you had my stepmother, and outside, you had my mother! Would you even dare to flaunt your relationship?"

Sean was speechless. "You..."

His embarrassment turned into fury. "It's true that I was with your mother, but I only paid her living expenses, to support you. I did not wrong your stepmother!"

Sebastian snorted. If the man was not his birth father, he might have killed him a long time ago.

Sean shouted, "Ask Sabrina yourself! What she did! How could she act so indiscriminately, even going so far as to beat up your client? And what did the two of you do, locking yourselves up in your office for half an hour? What is this nonsense!? Sabrina, your behavior is getting worse by the day!"

Sabrina was speechless. "..."

Sebastian asked again, "Who did you meet when you entered the office?"

At his son's question, Sean still felt a thread of guilt. After all, the reason he did all of this was because he now harbored feelings for Jennie Gibson.

for Jennie Gibson.

He stammered, "The point is! I saw a client running out of the office, crying. As she ran, she was saying why the wife's director was causing trouble in the office, even going so far as to beat up a client! Did this happen?"

"So you met her by chance?" Sebastian asked.

Sean answered, "Yes! But still, I cannot allow an incident like this to happen!"

"So why did you come here today?"

Sebastian looked at his father with cold eyes. Because he was busy, that was why he did not take the time out of his schedule to settle things with his father. Besides, he could not bear to do it.

However, time and time again, his father...

"Why did I come today?" Sean asked him instead.

This was the umpteenth time that the anonymous man had attacked Sean. Every attack the man made on him was fearless, even though he never really caused him any harm. But the man was determined to harm the Ford family.

In the most recent incident, he drove an
... and drove it straight into armored Hummer and drove it straight into the main entrance of the old Ford residence. He was determined to destroy the entire house!

Luckily, they had many bodyguards and the man's plot had failed. But he made a quick escape.

Because he did not fear for his own life, even if there were a line of cars blocking his path, he would still drive straight into it. That was why he managed to escape every single time.

However, the fire in Sean's chest only grew the longer it was suppressed. Usually, his son ignored his calls every time he tried to call him. Even if Sebastian answered, his son's tone was extremely biased toward Sabrina.

Therefore, today Sean planned to have a long talk with his son. However, he never expected that Sabrina would come to the office and pester his son!

That woman! Old Master Shaw's judgment of her was indeed accurate. She was indeed skilled at seducing men. Not only did she enjoy continued alliances with other men, but she could also even seduce Sebastian, who was usually never fond of women, to

However, the fire in Sean's chest only grew the longer it was suppressed. Usually, his son ignored his calls every time he tried to call him. Even if Sebastian answered, his son's tone was extremely biased toward Sabrina.

Therefore, today Sean planned to have a long talk with his son. However, he never expected that Sabrina would come to the office and pester his son!

That woman! Old Master Shaw's judgment of her was indeed accurate. She was indeed skilled at seducing men. Not only did she enjoy continued alliances with other men, but she could also even seduce Sebastian, who was usually never fond of women, to the extent that even when they were in the office, he would...

Could it be that Sabrina was a succubus?