

Chapter 1327

Jennie looked away, crying as she said, "Don't look! Aren't I so ugly..."

"You're not... Jen, the way you look. I might not be able to control myself!" Sean suddenly said.

Jennie looked up at Sean as if she was caught off guard.

Her eyes were still tearful.

Sean's heart had already jumped up to his throat thanks to her.

What happened next was just a logical flow of events.

After two hours, there was another knock on the door.

However, this time, Sean and Jennie had both already put on their clothes.

Jennie opened the door like nothing had happened. The person who came inside was Lori.

"Mom." Lori looked at her mother, pretending that nothing had happened. "Uncle Ford is here as well?"

Sean looked at Lori. "Lori, how... How is your work going along? Is everything going well?"

Lori's expression darkened a little. "Uncle Ford, do you think my mother and I shouldn't have come back?"

Sean immediately asked in concern, "Child, why do you think you shouldn't come back? Your mother's family are all here. Your granduncle's family, and even me. We're all your family. Where would you go if not here?"

Lori smiled sadly. "My mother was beaten up to this degree the moment she came back. I really want to take revenge for her. I want to just take a knife and stab that violent woman! However, Uncle Ford, I have a daughter as well. Because of my daughter, I can't do anything.

"I just want to do my job properly. My job is quite decent. I'm getting thirty thousand a month.

"However, my boss gave me an order. If I can't get a number of orders from the Ford Group, I'll be terminated very soon. Even though... Even though I don't have to worry about my expenses living with my granduncle, I still don't want to rely on someone else."

Lori's words were incredibly sad and seemed to be filled with integrity.

Sean could not help but praise her. "You're a good kid. You don't have to be sad about your mother's matters, as I'll help her resolve them.

"As for the orders from the Ford Group, I know my son best. Remember, Sebastian cannot be forced, but can be coaxed."

Lori's eyes brightened up. "Thank you, Uncle Ford."

Sean got up. "It's getting late, I should go back now. Lori, you should put some ice on your mother's face today; take care of her well."

"Yes, I understand, Uncle Ford," Lori agreed obediently.

Sean nodded and got up, leaving right after.

The two of them looked on as Sean walked past the corridor into the elevator.

At that moment, the two of them gave each other a high-five.

"Mom! Did you get it done?" Lori's eyes were fixed on Jennie.

Jennie nodded. "I've done it."

Jennie nodded. "I've done it."

Lori wrinkled her nose. "So old."

"Don't say that, he's quite vigorous." Jennie's old face reddened.

Lori was immediately interested. "Mom, do you..."

Jennie immediately said, "Of course! I've longed for that man for half my life.

Furthermore, if the two of us can rely on that man, on top of how much your granduncle hates Gloria, I refuse to believe we can't get rid of that despicable woman!

"There's also her daughter Sabrina, I'll make sure Sabrina divorces Sebastian the same way they got married! Lori, cheer me on!"

Lori immediately nodded. "Yes! Mom, just look at me!"

The two of them were full of ambition and schemes.

The next morning, Lori went to the parking lot that she had scouted incredibly early. After waiting for two hours, she finally saw Sebastian's car.

The car stopped.

The next morning, Lori went to the parking lot that she had scouted incredibly early. After waiting for two hours, she finally saw Sebastian's car.

The car stopped.

Kingston first opened the door for the young master.

After that, Sebastian walked out of the car.

Lori rushed over to Sebastian with a bundle of materials in her arms, "Young... Young Master."
