

Chapter 1332

Zayn thought that he had misheard. "Lori, what... What did you say." 1

Lori did not know how to react.

She immediately covered her own mouth.

How stupid!

How could she have let that slip in her happiness?

Lori bit her lips as she looked at Zach.

Zach's face was also incredibly pale.

He knew who Sabrina was.

Back then, Zach had also hated Sabrina due to her relationship with his cousin, Zayn.

That was because, thanks to Zayn running away with Sabrina, the Smith Group suffered immensely.

Zach had repeatedly said in front of Sebastian that he was him, and Zayn was Zayn. Zach did not have any relationship with Zayn at all.

If he saw Zayn one day, he would definitely cut Zayn apart.

Yet, despite Zach distancing himself from Zayn so much in front of Sebastian, Zayn so much in front of Sebastian, Sebastian was still not willing to give the Smith Group any chances.

If Zach did not have his father-in-law's family backing him from Kidon City, the Smith Group might have already been completely swallowed whole by Sebastian.

However, what of it?

Even his father-in-law in Kidon City had to act according to Sebastian's will.

Zach understood in the past few years that, for the Smith Group to survive, he had to humble himself like a dog in front of Sebastian.

Yet, even as a dog, there was no way in.

After that, last year, when Zach saw that Sabrina had been captured and taken back by Sebastian, he had thought that a good chance had fallen at his feet. So, he used every trick he knew to harm Sabrina, and even helped his sister-in-law, Emma, in harming Sabrina.

He had thought that it would win some good will from Sebastian.

No one expected that Sebastian actually loved Sabrina so much.

Sabrina!

That woman hurt the Smith Group miserably!

However, from that moment on, Zach no longer dared to hate Sabrina.

Even if he wanted to hate someone, it would only be his cousin.

At that moment, when Lori said she wanted to kill Sabrina, Zach actually felt quite good in his heart.

However, that good feeling would only bring him even more worries.

Zach shouted, "Lori! You're too bold! Don't you know Sabrina's position in Sebastian's heart? You want to kill her? You're just bringing me trouble! Go go go! The company won't sign the agreement and I won't allow you to stay here anymore!

"Pack up your things and get lost right now!" Zach did not hesitate to chase Lori away.

Lori was speechless.

She felt incredibly hopeless.

She really wanted to tear her rotten mouth off!

off!

Seeing as Lori did not understand, Zach did not hold back from scolding her. "Get lost! Despicable wench!"

Lori viciously looked at Zach. "What did you call me?"

"A despicable wench!"

"Do you know why Sebastian was willing to give me this chance?"

"Of course! You sold yourself!" Zach insulted her!

"Wrong!" Lori looked at Zach angrily.

Zach was speechless.

"My cousin! My uncle, and my granduncle! They all support me! Zach, even your father-in-law would have to bow down to my granduncle, and you dare to insult me?!"

Zach still had no words.

"Don't forget the reason why I chose to ignore my cousin's company and the Shaw family's empire when I came back to the country. Why did I choose your company?" At that moment, Lori seized the initiative.

Zach stammered. "I... How would I know?!"
"I wanted to support you!"
