

Returning from the Dead: His Secret Lover

Chapter 131

After such a massive scare and too tired to bother about anything else, Sasha quickly covered her head with her blanket.

This is crazy! What have I done!

Buried underneath her blanket, Sasha was both blushing and in a panic. She felt as if all her energy had been sucked from her to the extent her fingertips were trembling.

Lowering his gaze at the bundle in front of him, he was intrigued by her reaction.

However, he didn't say anything further and left awkwardly.

The next day.

When the children woke up, they were surprised to see that Sasha was still asleep. Therefore, she didn't prepare their breakfast, and neither did she turn on their heater for them.

Strange, what happened to Mommy?

Was she exhausted from yesterday?

Matteo woke up and got himself changed. "I'll go check on her. Both of you should wait here."

After that, he ambled out of the room.

As expected, when he pushed open the door of the room next door, he saw Sasha sleeping soundly with her blanket over her head. It was rare for her to be oversleeping.

“Mommy still isn’t up yet.”

For some reason, Ian had also come out to check.

He was still in his pajamas and walked barefoot on the freezing cold floor as he followed his brother.

Matteo turned around at once. “Why are you up? Why aren’t you wearing your jacket and socks? You will fall sick easily this way. Quick, go back to your room.

Concerned about Ian, Matteo quickly dragged him back to the room.

He knew it was something to be mindful of.

After all, Ian had lived in a life of luxury where everything was done for him. Unlike Matteo, who had learned how to be independent at a young age growing up with his mommy.

Therefore, he returned to their room and helped Ian dress properly.

Looking at how Matteo was helping him, Ian swore to himself that he would quickly learn how to be independent when he got home.

Once they got dressed, the brothers came out of the room. Meanwhile, Vivian was still asleep inside.

“Mommy must be exhausted after taking us out for the whole day yesterday. Why don’t we go downstairs and buy breakfast instead, so that Mommy doesn’t need to prepare any? This way, we can let her sleep in. How about that?”

“Mmm-hmm.”

Ian nodded in agreement.

After taking some money, both of them walked out hand in hand.

The place they stayed was in a good locality. The moment they came down, they were already in Old Town where they could find anything they wanted. This was the reason why Sasha chose this place as their home.

Matteo led Ian to a shop selling breakfast.

"Ian, what do you want to eat?"

Ian stared at the dirty floor.

He had never been in such an environment before let alone visit a shop like that. Growing up pampered, it was understandable for him to feel unsettled.

Sigh!

Matteo sighed before entering the shop himself.

"Mr. Jacob, give me three raisin buns, a croissant, and some milk please."

"Sure, Matt. I see you're here alone today. Where's your mommy and your sister?"

All the shop owners nearby knew who Matteo was. Whenever they saw this cute kid buying breakfast, they would happily chat with him while serving him food.

Matteo would usually respond with some small talk.

A few minutes later, their hands were filled with a large number of items when they left the shop.

"Let's head back."

"Alright." Ian nodded in agreement.

At that moment, a black MPV suddenly drove in from the end of the street. When the driver saw the brothers, he slammed on the accelerator and headed toward them.

"Mr. Scott?"

Ian's sharp eyes recognized the vehicle immediately.

He was right, it was indeed Luke.

"What are both of you doing here so early in the morning? Where's your mom?"

When Luke saw the boys, he alighted from his vehicle and asked what was going on.

It was indeed worrying to see two little kids walking the streets in the freezing morning.

Matteo explained immediately, "Mr. Scott, Mommy is still sleeping. She was exhausted from last night."

Luke was speechless.

Exhausted from last night?

What does he mean? Is it what I think it is given how late Mr. Hayes came home last night?

Luke recalled that the bodyguards had told him in the morning that Sebastian had spent a long time in the building last night. Suddenly, he couldn't help but blush.

"I see. So what are you doing downstairs? Buying breakfast?"

"Yes, we're buying for Mommy and Vivian."

Matteo replied plainly as he beamed at Luke who then parked his MPV by the roadside.

“Your dad asked me to pick both of you up and send you to school. I’ll go back upstairs with you to inform Mommy about it.”

Checking his watch, Luke quickly went back up with the boys.

However, Matteo was exasperated to hear that they were to be sent to preschool.

“No, Mommy hasn’t woken up and we haven’t told her about it. Besides, Vivian isn’t going so we’re not going too, isn’t that right, Ian?”

He looked toward his brother.

Ian nodded without hesitation. “Mmm-hmm.”

Luke was speechless.

No, I am not in the position to decide. Why are they even venting their anger at me?

However, just when he was stunned by their response, both brothers held hands and started fleeing with their breakfast.

“Hey, Kids! Wait up. Don’t run! Let’s discuss this properly.”

Luke stamped his feet in frustration.

Meanwhile, Sebastian had just arrived in the office when he heard about the incident.

He had not slept the whole night. By the time he returned home from the dilapidated rental, it was already daylight. All he had was forty winks before heading back to work.

When he heard that Luke was unable to pick the children up, his already throbbing head felt like exploding.

“Why aren’t they willing to come back?”

“They said that they wanted their sister to come with them.”

Luke replied with a trembling voice.

Having heard Luke’s answer, Sebastian’s throbbing headache intensified. “Are they in open rebellion? How dare they go against their own daddy? I haven’t even held them accountable for what they did yesterday.”

When Luke heard Sebastian’s rants, he was at a loss for words.

It was difficult to be sandwiched in the middle.

Just as he stood there helplessly, a tiny pair of hands reached out. “Give me the phone.”

“Huh? Give... you?”

Luke stared blankly at Ian and hesitated for a long while.

Finally, when he saw Luke being indecisive, Ian lifted his heels and took the phone from his hands.

“Daddy, it’s Ian!”

“So?”

Sebastian was used to the voice over the phone switching into one belonging to a kid.

“So, I just want to say that you have not been acting like how a man should.”

After at least five seconds, Sebastian could hear the grinding of his own teeth, “Not acting like a man?”

Ian’s voice was cold as usual. “Yes, we came home yesterday.”

“And?”

“Mommy was the one who asked us to return.”

“We wanted to go overseas, but Mommy told us that we shouldn’t make you sad. Then, she brought us back. But Daddy, you... keep acting this way. You can’t compare to Mommy!” Ian explained frankly.

As he seldom had to speak in such length and detail, his explanation came out in bits and pieces, stuttering along the way.

Nevertheless, he conveyed his feelings as best as he could.

Sebastian was stunned by his son’s words.

Just a moment ago, he was ready to launch a tirade at Ian, but suddenly, he became tongue-tied.

Did Sasha actually bring them back yesterday?

How is that possible?

Didn’t she decide against leaving because she was terrified of me?

Holding his phone, Sebastian couldn’t believe what he just heard.

Especially the part where the reason she brought them back was so that he wouldn’t be sad. He still had a hard time believing it.

“Are you trying to coax me into letting your sister go to preschool with you?”

“Check the surveillance cameras at the airport hotel,” Ian snapped in an emotionless tone before ending the call.

Luke broke out in a cold sweat after witnessing what had unfolded before him. He was on the brink of dropping to his knees in front of Ian.

However, after giving it some thought, Ian's actions did make sense. Against someone like Sebastian, only his son can do something like that to him. After all, only he knows Sebastian's weakness.

As expected, five minutes after ending the call, Luke received a message on his phone: Bring the girl along.
