

The Pinnacle of Life - Chapter 871 - 880

Brittany Rockefeller was furious.

Carol Rockefeller was simply ungrateful. Back then, if Brittany's husband hadn't saved her life, she would have been buried under the ground. Last time, slandering Alex Rockefeller on the internet was also Carol's idea.

This time, Carol actually sent someone to capture Brittany herself.

"Let's go back to California. We're going to the Rockefeller family's place!" Brittany made up her mind decisively.

Alex counted the days. "It's about time. Previously, I gave them the deadline to return Rockefeller Manor to us by the fifth of October, but none of them has taken the initiative to come forward about this," he said.

Brittany had a cold expression on her face. "There's no point in expecting anything from these traitors. The manor was your father's gift to you on your birthday. It's about time you got it back. Let's depart immediately and go to California," she said.

Coincidentally, Zendaya Stormer was driven over by her bodyguard.

The group of people left in a grand manner.

Meanwhile, in the Rockefeller family's place in California.

Carol Rockefeller had gone to Rockefeller Group in the morning to assume her position as CEO. Carol, a twenty three year old woman, had become the female CEO of a business enterprise worth up to one hundred billion. As soon as word got out, all the shareholders were shocked.

However, this was a decision made internally by the Rockefeller family.

As small shareholders, they had no right to question or change anything. Even if they did, Carol used very harsh measures to suppress these people and kicked them out. For a while, the shareholders were divided in their opinions.

Some were shocked by the fact that such a young girl was capable of taking these measures, and they hoped that she would be better than her father, Noah Rockefeller, in leading the Rockefeller family out of this crisis.

There were also people who laughed and claimed that this was the last act of madness by the Rockefeller family. They actually let a young and inexperienced girl take over the Rockefeller family's business. Perhaps, they didn't think the company was going down fast enough.

However, for Carol, this was the pinnacle of her life. She had never been in such a high position before, and she enjoyed this feeling very much. This was how it felt to be able to influence the behavior of others and dictate other people's lives.

All of this was given to her by Seamus Owen.

Meanwhile, all Carol had to do was do her best to please him and him alone.

In the morning, Carol had a taste of the good feelings of having power and she was reluctant to throw it all away. Hence, she even more so wouldn't allow Brittany and Alex to come ruin it. When afternoon came, Carol stayed at home to train with Seamus. She used up all her passion and energy to please him.

After an intense period of sex, Carol turned to look at Seamus. "Seamus, did your people manage to capture Brittany?"

Seamus closed his eyes. Odd waves of energy moved around his body. After a while, he finally calmed down and smiled. "Don't worry. My men are two of the Eight Great Banner Wielders of Leviathan Gate. They are very powerful martial artists and they also have godly talismans from my master. Wouldn't capturing a woman be a piece of cake for them?"

Carol smiled even more joyfully while she rubbed her body against Seamus. "That's wonderful. I can't wait to torture that b*tch already."

Seamus smiled. "Of course, you can do what you want. I can even give you a little help. In fact, I can draw her soul out and lock it inside a mystical tool so that you can burn her soul every day. You'll be able to make her suffer endlessly even after she died."

Carol's eyes glittered like stars in the sky.

"Does something magical like this truly exist?" She asked admiringly.

Seamus snorted. "Don't you believe me? Our Leviathan Gate is a mystic sect. We're hugely different from martial arts organizations. To us, martial artists are just kids playing around, and they don't deserve any attention! My master has the ability to travel to the sky, overturn seas, call upon the wind and rain, and even summon dragons in the ocean and ride them to the south..."

This guy was very boastful.

Anyway, Carol was an ordinary woman. Seamus simply didn't care about her. He was only after her body right now.

If Carol hadn't been able to please him and make him feel like a king, he would have kicked her to the curb long ago.

Now, he did feel a little reluctant to do so.

Chapter 0872

Besides, Rockefeller Group had a lot of money and Seamus Owen wanted to make all the money his. "Seamus, does someone that powerful exist? Doesn't that make your master a god?" Carol Rockefeller asked.

"Mystic cultivation is the path to become a god. Those with high levels of cultivation can have increased longevity and even immortality," Seamus said.

When he saw how impressed Carol seemed, Seamus added even more exciting stuff. "Honey, cultivate with me while I train. This is considered Yin and Yang working in tandem, with both genders cultivating together. You will also receive great benefits. Look, you've been full of spirit recently, haven't you? Even your lower abdomen has expanded, hasn't it? This is to help you with the Foundation Establishment. Once it's successful, you'll be able to live another hundred years. However, you're a normal human, and you don't have enough potential. I'll have to feed the energy back to you. For women, only virgins have sufficient Yin energy to improve their cultivation quickly. To be honest, your speed of cultivation with me is already very slow. I can't give you much energy," Seamus said.

When Carol heard that she could live another hundred years, her eyes lit up. But her heart turned cold after hearing what he said toward the end.

"Seamus, what can I do? I want to reach Foundation Establishment too!" Carol exclaimed.

"You have a normal body, and a single person's Yin energy is limited. However, you can get help from other people. For example, your little sister, Natalie. Since the two of you are sisters, you have a blood connection to each other. This is the best way," Seamus said.

"What?!" Carol was stunned.

Seamus had set his eyes on her own sister. But how could this work?

"Forget it. I'm just letting you know. If you don't want to reach Foundation Establishment, it's fine! Ordinary people can live up to seventy or eighty, and that's about it. Unfortunately, women start to show signs of aging after they reach thirty-five. That can't be helped! Like our female peers who reached Foundation Establishment, they look nearly twenty years old despite being up to eighty years old. This is all fate!" Seamus said.

Carol was enraptured by the things Seamus said, but she was slightly hesitant. "Seamus, I can convince my little sister," she said through gritted teeth as she nodded.

"That's great," Seamus said joyfully.

"She's right outside. I'll get her to come over right away," Carol said.

Natalie Rockefeller took the day off from school that day and she was watching the television with her parents as they chatted.

The thing they talked about the most was naturally Carol becoming the CEO in the Rockefeller family's business.

At the age of twenty three, Carol had become a female CEO. Her parents and other family members were all proud of her.

"Carol's boyfriend is very powerful. He's much stronger than Alex, that loser who got beaten up. He and his b*tchy mother have caused a lot of problem in my family. Carol said that Brittany will be abducted and brought here today. We can do whatever we want to her," Natalie said.

This was why she took the day off from school.

Noah Rockefeller looked in the direction of Carol's room and sighed. "I have nothing against Carol's boyfriend in terms of his abilities, but... They're doing those stuff behind closed doors all day long. It's really... Absurd!"

Natalie chuckled. "Dad, you're just jealous and envious! That's because he has great stamina. In your case..."

"Stop spewing nonsense. Carol told me they're training. It doesn't affect her body, and she even benefits from it," Mariah Hamilton uttered.

Right then, Carol walked out and directly repeated what Seamus told her in front of her parents.

"What?"

"No way. Absolutely not!"

Noah immediately hopped to his feet. Earlier, he still thought that Carol's boyfriend wasn't too terrible. Now, he had a drastic change of mind. After already getting his older daughter, Seamus still had his eyes on Noah's younger daughter. Was he even human?

“This man’s a b*stard!”

How could he allow his older daughter to convince his younger daughter to do such a shameful thing?

“Dad, you’re thinking like an ordinary person. But Seamus isn’t an ordinary person. With the Foundation Establishment, one would be able to live another hundred years, and one can even stay young forever. Where else would you find an opportunity like this? You can go and ask Olivia. Would she be willing to accept such a wonderful opportunity?” Carol said.

After hearing this, Noah entered a state of deep thought.

‘Yeah. A hundred years of life. If I was the one being offered this opportunity, wouldn’t I be convinced?’ Noah thought.

Right then, Mariah suddenly spoke up. “Carol, go ask Seamus if someone like me can reach Foundation Establishment.”

Carol seemed stunned for a moment.

Noah, on the other hand, felt as if his lungs were going to explode.

Chapter 0873

'Do you also want to reach Foundation Establishment? Do you want to live a hundred years longer? Don't you have any idea how that son of a b*tch got people to Foundation Establishment? Do you want to cheat on me?' Although Noah Rockefeller didn't speak his thoughts aloud, his facial expression conveyed everything.

Mariah Hamilton seemed to sense her husband's rage. She rolled her eyes at him. "What I meant was, is there a way to reach Foundation Establishment without doing what Carol did?"

"Sister, does this really work? Increasing one's lifespan by a hundred years and staying young forever sounds absurd. Do bizarre things like this really exist in the world? Could he... Could he be a fraud?" Natalie Rockefeller asked.

Carol Rockefeller snorted coldly. "This once in a lifetime opportunity is right in front of you. Do you still not know how to cherish it? Seamus is a god like person. This is our great luck! Fine, I'll show you something."

Carol was prepared long ago.

When she came out, Seamus Owen gave her a talisman. After retrieving it, she tossed it forward forcefully just like how Seamus taught her.

Poof!

The talisman immediately started burning and exploded in the air.

Immediately after that, an enchanting beauty appeared in front of them. She looked lively with a smile on her face, almost as if she had walked out of a painting. Most importantly, this beautiful woman could even speak. She saluted them one at a time before speaking. "Sir, Madam, nice to meet you!"

Apart from Carol, everyone in the Rockefeller family was shocked. The talisman had transformed into a living being!

If this wasn't a god like move, what was?

The beautiful woman even danced for a while before gradually disappearing.

Natalie immediately nodded. "Sister, I'm willing to do it."

Noah opened his mouth. He wanted to say something, but he closed his eyes and remained silent in the end. On the contrary, Mariah's eyes kept rolling around.

If it was as magical as her daughter mentioned, it would be worth it even if she had to sacrifice a little!

Unfortunately, none of them knew that it was merely a simple talisman for the manifestation of spirits.

That beautiful woman was only a female ghost raised by Seamus... When Carol walked out, the female ghost was already following her.

Meanwhile, living a hundred years longer and staying young forever were merely jokes.

Half an hour later, Alex Rockefeller and other people rushed over from Michigan to California.

There were ten cars in total.

Including Zendaya Stoermer and her personal female bodyguard, they added up to over thirty people. Without even entering their own house, they went straight to Rockefeller Manor.

Carlos Jung and Max Dunne, the two banner wielders from Leviathan Gate, severely injured as they were, had also been dragged over.

The main entrance to Rockefeller Manor was closed. But nobody had the intention to knock and wait for someone to open the door. Brittany Rockefeller, the strong woman who walked in front of the group, directly slammed her palm against the brand new, vermillion colored door.

Creak...

A brief, subtle sound could be heard.

Right after that, the entire door exploded like a piece of compressed ice.

Zendaya's female bodyguard, who stood not far behind Brittany, nearly cried out when she witnessed this. This female bodyguard was newly appointed by Michigan's Stoermer family. Her name was Helen Stoermer, and her surname was given to her. At Beginner-Earth expert rank, Helen was the strongest female bodyguard Michigan's Stoermer family could offer. She was around the age of forty.

Now, due to Alex, Zendaya's status had risen significantly. Zendaya herself managed to showcase her strong mental powers. This made Zayn Stoermer think even more highly of her.

Her previous bodyguards naturally weren't good enough anymore.

On their way here, Helen already found out a lot of information about Brittany.

Chapter 0874

But Helen Stoermer absolutely could not have imagined that Brittany Rockefeller would be such a powerful expert... This kind of move that could seal the door with ice and blast it apart after that was something an Earth expert like Helen wouldn't even dare imagine. It was far beyond the capabilities of martial arts.

'Indeed, Master Rockefeller's mother isn't a simple person either!' Helen silently thought to herself. She found Alex Rockefeller's family even more admirable.

Meanwhile, the explosion woke the middle-aged bodyguard, who had fallen asleep behind the door. When he looked at the door, he was shocked.

“You people...” The bodyguard shouted. However, he very quickly recognized Alex and Brittany. The words got stuck in his throat after that. He knew who they were, the previous owners of this house.

“Don’t you recognize me?” Brittany’s face was as cold as ice.

Since Brittany received help from Alex, her cultivation had been successful. In addition, Alex occasionally provided her with various pills and original products from Lush. Now, she seemed a lot younger than she was a year before.

On top of that, Brittany had also been a rare beauty back when she was younger.

Now, she seemed even more charming and attractive.

The security guard quickly nodded in a panic. “Yes... Yes, Madam... Young master.”

Brittany shook her head. “I’m not qualified to be your madam. Where is Carol Rockefeller?”

The security guard seemed nervous, and he spoke somewhat slower.

Holly Yates, who was nearby, reached out and made a move.

The security guard was immediately sucked toward Holly's hand by a huge force in the air.

The young girl spun a small knife with the thickness of a finger in her hand. Within a second, she pressed it against the security guard's neck "Quick, say it. Otherwise, I'll stab you and make a hole right here. It'll surely be fun," Holly said.

The security guard nearly pissed himself in fear. He hastily pointed into the house. "She's... in there. They're all in there."

Holly tossed him aside casually.

The security guard crashed into the wall next to him. His head knocked against it with a thud before he passed out directly.

The group of people, with Brittany taking the lead, walked to the west wing where Noah Rockefeller's family lived.

On the way, they met several maids and nannies in the Rockefeller family.

Seeing the huge group of over thirty people with such aggressive looks on their faces, none of these people dared to even look up.

Someone wanted to report this to the only male in charge of the Rockefeller family, Noah Rockefeller, but this person was stopped by someone else who was slightly more sensible. “Are you a fool? This is Brittany Rockefeller returning with vengeance. Haven’t you heard about Brittany’s strength and dominance? Now that John Rockefeller is in a coma, Noah is no match for Brittany. We might have a change in masters.”

Thus, in the end, nobody dared to report this.

Meanwhile, Noah Rockefeller and Mariah Hamilton were feeling very uncomfortable from hearing the sounds inside their daughter’s room.

They couldn’t sit still anymore, and they wanted to open the door to take a walk outside. In the end, just as Noah’s hand reached the door, he was sent flying backwards by a huge force. His plump body fell forcefully on the coffee table, smashing it into pieces.

“Who’s there?” Mariah screamed.

By the time she saw who was standing by the door, she was instantly shocked, and she subconsciously cried out ‘aunt’. That’s because Brittany’s previous identity as the powerful sister-in-law had left a deep impression on Mariah.

After two seconds, Mariah finally started yelling angrily. “Brittany, what are you doing here? How did you get in?”

Brittany looked at Mariah coldly. In the past, Mariah would always kowtow to her like a b*tch. “Didn’t your daughter want to see me? I took the initiative to come here on my own.”

When Mariah saw the large group of people dressed in black by the door, she couldn’t speak.

Right then, Holly cocked her head and paid attention to the noise. “Listen to this, you guys. What is it?”

Maya Howards quickly covered her ears “Somebody is doing that thing in the room... Kids shouldn’t listen to this.”

“That’s not right. I hear two women’s voices,” Holly said.

Noah and Mariah both looked horrified with pale faces. If word got out that something like this happened, their daughters would be done for. Their entire family would be criticized by everyone in society!

Chapter 0875

The people who came with Alex Rockefeller's family were basically martial artists.

Now, while they stood in the living room of Noah Rockefeller's house, they could clearly hear the voices coming from inside the room. Indeed, there were voices from two women, one shrill and the other one deep.

As for the man's voice, it could be directly ignored.

Brittany Rockefeller was familiar with Noah's two daughters. She could immediately figure out what was going on. Apart from feeling shocked on the inside, she felt deeply disappointed and angry with Noah's family. She found it odd that such parents could exist in this world.

Mariah Hamilton felt guilty, and she immediately denied what was being assumed. "Who said there were two women? There's only one woman, and she's my older daughter, Carol. She's with her boyfriend. I don't think what they're doing at home is illegal, is it? It has nothing to do with you anyway, Brittany."

Mariah spoke very loudly so that the people inside could hear her. She achieved her objective.

Indeed, the people in the room heard her voice.

Carol Rockefeller's eyes lit up instantly. "Seamus, I heard my mother's voice. It looks like Brittany, that b*tch, has been brought over."

She could only blame herself for being too immersed earlier.

She didn't even hear Noah being knocked into the air by the door outside.

Meanwhile, Seamus Owen was focused on cultivating even though Natalie Rockefeller had passed out. However, Seamus still wouldn't stop. When he heard what Carol said, he asked her to deal with it on her own.

Carol adjusted her clothes before opening the door. Right then, Holly Yates had become too curious. She could clearly hear the voices of two women. How could she have heard them mistakenly? While Maya Howards wasn't paying attention, she quickly set herself free, ran over to the door, and kicked it open.

Wham!

"Ouch..."

Carol, who was standing behind the door with a joyful expression on her face, thought about how to torture Brittany Rockefeller. She didn't expect the door to knock against her face.

She nearly went through the exact same experience as Noah Rockefeller did.

The difference was, after being knocked into the air, Carol directly landed on Seamus and Natalie.

"Ow..."

"That's so disgusting!"

Holly looked twice at them before yelling out loudly. She immediately turned around and ran out of the room. "Brother, I told you it was two women. How could I have heard mistakenly? If you don't believe me, you can go and have a look. They are still stacked on top of each other!" Holly told Alex as if she was offering him a treasure.

Alex laughed drily. "I believe you!"

After a while, the three people finally came out.

Carol took the lead. Now, her nose was bleeding profusely. Her front teeth were loose, and she seemed enraged.

Carol saw that a large group of people had come to the house, with Brittany and Alex in the center.

Her immediate thought wasn't that Alex and the rest came to exact revenge. Instead, she thought Alex and her mother had been abducted by Seamus' people. That's because Seamus' sect was a god-like sect. Wouldn't abducting Alex and Brittany be a piece of cake?

The people out there must have been Leviathan Gate's people!

"Brittany, you b*tch, and Alex, you loser. You're finally in my hands now! Today, I'll show you what it's like to wish you were dead!" Carol laughed triumphantly as she made the bold statement.

Slap!

Just after she finished speaking, Alex slapped her across the face.

Fresh blood spurted out of her mouth.

Carol opened her mouth and spat out two teeth. These two teeth, which had been knocked crooked by the door earlier, fell off.

“Ahh! My teeth!” Carol cried out loudly. When she licked with her tongue, she realized these were her front teeth. She became even more furious as she glared angrily at Alex. “You piece of trash. How dare you hit me even when you’re about to die?”

Alex was speechless. “Carol, are you in over your head from sleeping with that man? Do you have bugs in your brain? You’re the one who’s about to die, and yet you still can’t figure it out. Would you like to wash your face in the toilet bowl before you come out?”

Carol froze.

Chapter 0876

Carol Rockefeller finally realized what was wrong. The people standing behind Alex Rockefeller had odd looks in their eyes.

Both Brittany Rockefeller and Alex seemed neat and tidy, and they weren’t tied up to restrict their movements. Meanwhile, the people behind them were looking at Carol with cold and murderous gazes.

If they were Seamus Owen's people, they wouldn't be displaying such expressions.

Her head buzzed for a moment, and the sense of chaos caused by her being knocked into the air earlier gradually went away.

'Could Seamus' men have sided with Brittany and Alex?' Carol thought as she took two steps back.

"Seamus, aren't these people your subordinates from Leviathan Gate?" Carol asked.

Seamus hugged Natalie and shook his head. "No," he said.

He didn't even shift his gaze away from Maya Howards. He was too excited and exhilarated, and he nearly shouted out loud.

His cultivation technique was a kind of magic that originated from Westeros. It was called the Peach Blossom Demon Scripture, and it relied on using women as one's furnace to cultivate. The better the woman's bloodline, the more effective it was. Apart from people with a unique bloodline, virgin women also worked. That's because virgin women had innate Yin energy in their bodies.

But, compared to people with special bloodline, virgin women were useless.

In the Peach Blossom Demon Scripture that Seamus cultivated, there was a very special way of identifying women's unique bloodline, and Maya happened to have one of the rarest and most wonderful bloodlines.

It was called Nine Aspect Jewels.

Women with this type of bloodline were said to be favored by god.

Not only were women with this godly bloodline smart, but they also had a natural fragrance surrounding their body. With this fragrance, cultivators could get into a state of divinity even more quickly. Moreover, one wouldn't easily fall prey to overly intensive cultivation. Most importantly, if he cultivated with this kind of woman, using her as his furnace, his Peach Blossom Demon Scripture would have a rate of cultivation that was ten times faster than normal.

'Oh my god!'

'I'm truly lucky. I've never been luckier!'

'This is superb. I must have her, and I must do it quickly. I can't let my master discover her. Otherwise, he'd take her away from me.'

Seamus carefully plotted in his mind. He couldn't care less about the two sisters from the Rockefeller family. However, Carol didn't know what he was thinking.

She thought she could use powerful connections to intimidate other people, and she thought she'd be able to dominate the world with Leviathan Gate behind her.

Carol pointed at Alex. "I'm telling you, it's over for you! Do you think you're so great just because you know a little bit of martial arts? Come here. Let me introduce you to my boyfriend, Seamus Owen. He's a god-like person who can call upon the wind and rain, as well as summoning spirits. Not even ten of you can beat his single finger. If you're smart enough, you should kneel before me and lick all ten of my toes. Only then I may consider letting you live."

"Can he kill me with a single poke of his finger?" Alex laughed coldly.

"Carol, looks like you remember his finger quite well. You should save it for yourself. Oh, I can't quite understand right now. Is he your boyfriend or your brother-in-law?" Alex asked.

Carol seemed ferocious. "I wanted to show you mercy, but you chose to die."

Wham!

Holly Yates couldn't take it anymore, and she directly shoved Carol to the ground. "Brother, why are you wasting time by talking nonsense with this disgusting woman? I feel like vomiting!"

Carol was furious.

She got up and hugged Seamus' arm. "Seamus, they hit me. Quick, help me out by capturing all their souls. I want to burn their souls every day."

However, a magical scene appeared.

Seamus suddenly pushed Carol away, causing her to fall to the ground.

He then took two steps forward and smiled at Maya.

"Hello, pretty lady. My name is Seamus Owen. I am the prized disciple of the head of Leviathan Gate, and I'll be Leviathan Gate's future head. I've fallen in love with you at first sight. Will you be my wife? In the future, you will become the wife of the head of Leviathan Gate. Not only will you have a high status and a lot of power, you can also have eternal youth. What do you think?"

Carol was speechless, and so was everyone else who was present.

Chapter 0877

Carol Rockefeller sat on the floor. She felt as if her head had been struck by lightning.

Was this her boyfriend?

After seeing a woman who was more beautiful than her, Seamus Owen pushed her to the ground and confessed to the other woman.

Even if Carol was a woman he met at a nightclub, shouldn't he be less heartless than this after they had slept together? Was this immoral behavior a normal human was capable of? This was especially after Carol had even dragged her little sister, Natalie Rockefeller, into this mess.

Noah Rockefeller and Mariah Hamilton also had their eyes wide open while they looked at Seamus. They then looked at Natalie.

At first, Natalie still seemed like a bright and beautiful young girl. After only half an hour, she seemed drained and appeared nearly ten years older.

Godly cultivation?

Increasing one's lifespan by a hundred years?

Unfortunately, these might all have been lies!

The couple saw nothing but pitch black in front of them, and they nearly passed out dead.

Alex Rockefeller was going to kill Seamus, but Maya Howards suddenly stopped him and looked at Seamus with a smile. "Did you fall in love with me at first sight? But don't you already have a girlfriend? I don't like a man who sleeps around with two other women."

After saying that, she suddenly looked at Alex.

Her b*stard of a little brother was a man who slept with two other women, wasn't he?

But she still liked him very much.

Seamus laughed before pointing at Carol and Natalie. "You mean the two of them? Beautiful lady, you've misunderstood. How could I fall for such ordinary women? I'm only using them to cultivate."

Once this statement was made, Alex and the others snorted. When they looked at Natalie and Carol, their eyes were filled with sympathy.

As for Carol, she deserved this.

“So, it’s for your cultivation. No wonder she looks so terrible. You’re using them as your furnace by absorbing their essence! You’re such a terrible person. After being absorbed by you, they’ve lost at least several decades of their lives. I wouldn’t dare be with you.” Maya shook her head while she looked at Carol and Natalie with a teasing expression.

“Beautiful lady, you are different from them. To me, they are no different from pigs, but you’re not the same. You have a very special body. If you cultivate with me in the future, not only will it not shave years off your life, but your cultivation will improve greatly, and your lifespan will also increase. We are meant to be together,” Seamus said.

Carol and Natalie’s facial expressions changed drastically.

Natalie pointed a finger at Seamus while her entire body trembled. “You... Didn’t you say that, after doing that thing with me? That I’ll reach Foundation Establishment, be able to live a hundred years longer, and stay young forever? That I could even step onto the god-like path and become a fairy?”

Carol’s mouth also twitched. She couldn’t believe this was the truth.

“Oh, gosh. This is way too funny. Who told you that reaching Foundation Establishment will give you another hundred years of life? Indeed, brains are good stuff. Since you’ve lost your brains, you deserved to be tricked.” Holly Yates laughed her head off.

Seamus was only paying attention to Maya earlier. Now, he finally looked at Holly. Upon taking a closer look, he was surprised again.

This young girl’s bloodline was also very peculiar. The energy in her body was unusually pure, and her Yin energy was particularly abundant. If Natalie’s Yin energy value was one, then Holly would at least have three hundred in comparison.

This was wonderful!

Seamus’ heart started to quiver again.

Getting one of Holly was like getting three hundred of Natalie, or even more.

He was going to get rich!

‘As long as I get this girl with the bloodline of Nine Aspect Jewels and this young lady too, I’ll be able to significantly enhance my Peach Blossom Demon Scripture within three months. It won't be long before I overtake my master. When the time comes, I might even claim the throne as the head of Leviathan Gate in advance.'

Just as Seamus fantasized about such endless possibilities, Noah suddenly lashed out. Noah grabbed an antique vase next to him and ruthlessly smashed it against Seamus' head.

Seamus wasn't on his guard right then because his mind was filled with fantasies of the future.

The vase hit him hard on the head, and it shattered. Seamus' head was also severely injured.

Chapter 0878

There was also a cut on Seamus Owen's face, and blood was flowing out of the wound.

He reached up and touched it. "Holy sh*t! Old man, how dare you hit my head?" Seamus growled.

Seamus then kicked Noah Rockefeller into the air. Noah crashed forcefully against the television.

Alex Rockefeller would have been able to stop that from happening, but he didn't.

Mariah Hamilton immediately ran to check on Noah's injuries. "Are you even a human being? You just slept with my daughters, and now you're denying it and even hitting my husband? Are all of you from Leviathan Gate so despicable and shameless?" Mariah shouted angrily.

Seamus shook his head with an arrogant expression on his face. "Do you usually step on ants and ask if they are good or bad? In my eyes, you people are no different from ants on the ground! Leviathan Gate's people are all higher existences, just like dragons. Your daughters should feel honored that I slept with them."

Seamus then looked at Maya Howards and Holly Yates. He was determined to show off his amazing skills in front of these two women.

"Now, let me show you what people from Leviathan Gate can do. This is truly a god-like ability," Seamus said before retrieving a piece of yellow talisman.

He chanted something before tossing it forward forcefully. The female ghost from before appeared once more in front of everyone.

Indeed, quite a number of those who came with Alex were shocked, including Zendaya's personal female bodyguard. Each of them shouted in surprise.

“Holy sh*t! He just transformed it into a living person!”

“Is this really a god-like ability? Otherwise, how else could something so magical happen?”

The point was that this didn't seem like some magic trick. The beautiful lady could even smile and speak.

Seamus seemed pleased with himself while he turned to look at Maya and Holly with his chin lifted. “Did you see that? What do you think? The Leviathan Gate is an ancient, godly cultivation sect. Those who have higher levels of cultivation can even fly under broad daylight! Beautiful lady, and this young, pretty girl, I'm willing to lead you toward the realm of godly cultivation. In the future, you'll be fairies in the human world and live forever.”

“Are people like you from Leviathan Gate all dragons? Are you a dragon like these two?” Alex chuckled before grabbing two men from the group and throwing them onto the ground.

Seamus froze.

He was immediately startled when he looked down. Weren't these two Carlos Jung and Max Dunne, two of the Eight Great Banner Wielders, who were supposed to be looking for Guardian Vaudou in Michigan?

Why were they here?

“Did... Did you beat them up like this?” Seamus’ heart pounded when he saw these two men. Carlos had lost one of his arms, and half of shoulder was covered in blood. Max, on the other hand, had countless broken ribs, and his chest even seemed to be a little inwardly collapsed.

It was a miracle that they hadn’t died.

“Yes, they said you asked them to abduct my mother. I think it’s too much trouble. That’s why we, as a family, took the initiative to come here on our own. What do you think? Aren’t I very thoughtful?” Alex said.

Seamus’ eyes glistened, but he was the young master of Leviathan Gate. With many tricks up his sleeves, he immediately calmed himself down.

“These two are just insignificant people from Leviathan Gate. What’s the point of defeating them? I’ll show you what truly powerful abilities look like!” Seamus exclaimed.

With that, he took out an object. It was an arm bone. He brought it close to his mouth and blew at it. There was a whimpering sound. He was controlling the female ghost.

“Kill him!” Seamus ordered blandly.

The female ghost immediately lunged at Alex.

At this moment, Holly stepped forward, and her fair and tender palm instantly turned blood red. She slapped the female ghost on the head. The female ghost was smacked into oblivion before she could even make a sound.

Seamus’ eyes were wide open. The arm bone that belonged to the female ghost before she died fell to the ground with a thud.

Chapter 0879

“No... It’s impossible. How could this be?”

“You... Who the hell are you?” Seamus Owen looked at Holly Yates in astonishment. He couldn’t accept the fact that the female ghost servant, who he worked hard for a decade to raise, had been killed this easily. She didn’t even get to make a sound.

Her soul vanished, leaving nothing behind.

Seamus had fed this ghost servant with his own blood and his own Yang energy. He had planned to turn her into a puppet in the future. In the end...

The changes had happened too quickly, and he didn't even have time to feel remorseful.

Holly sneered. "God-like ability? Is that all you've got? You randomly captured a female ghost and claimed you have godly cultivation. In that case, wouldn't all the god-like people in America be demanding a revolution? Such childish tricks might work on an idiot, but you'll need to study for another ten thousand years if you want to fool us!"

"Most importantly, you actually wanted to use this gimmick to trick Maya and I to sleep with you. What are you thinking?" With that, Holly stepped forward fiercely and kicked Seamus.

"I'll block that!" Seamus raised both his hands and yelled. A black aura diffused from his body.

Although he managed to block it, his body was still sent tumbling three meters away. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

Meanwhile, Holly felt righteous, and she was not going to show any mercy. She ran over and continued to attack Seamus.

Seamus was in a miserable state. The thing he relied on the most was actually that ghost servant. In terms of martial arts cultivation, he was not even as strong as the two banner wielders who were severely injured on the ground. But he ended up going against Holly. Not only was she a real cultivator, but she was also of the rare fire attribute.

Beings like ghost servants were most afraid of fire. Hence, the female ghost was instantly annihilated. Now, Seamus couldn't even escape when Holly went after him.

Wham!

Seamus was slapped on his face, and half of his face appeared to be burned.

After that, his middle energy core was blasted apart by Holly's brute force.

His middle energy core exploded.

Seamus fell onto the ground. He felt both shocked and afraid.

He knew that he had gotten himself into serious trouble this time. There was no way he could defeat this violent young lady. If this went on, he might be beaten to death.

How could he allow that to happen?

'I must escape right away! The middle energy core is my most important part of the energy core. It contains my Demon Arts. I must find someone to help me repair it immediately. Otherwise, my life is over!' Seamus thought to himself. His eyes were red with resentment. He hated Holly from the bottom of his heart

The place where he fell was right next to Carol Rockefeller.

When Seamus saw Holly lunging at him again, he forcefully flung out a handful of poisonous powder.

"Get back!" Alex Rockefeller shouted.

Alex yanked Holly away before activating the spiritual power in his body to create a protective barrier around himself and Holly, as well as everyone behind him.

Right then, Seamus grabbed Carol and forcefully slammed against the window before scurrying out.

Alex grunted coldly.

A thunderbolt essence exploded beneath his feet, and his body turned into a residual shadow that went after Seamus.

“D*mn. How is he so fast?”

Seamus was confident in his speed of escaping because he trained hard at it before. To his surprise, he was like a pile of turd when compared to Alex. Seeing that Alex would soon catch him, Seamus made up his mind and reached for a piece of pendant in front of his chest.

This pendant was a mystical tool, and it was a gift from his master.

Once the pendant was crushed, a red light was emitted from it. It surrounded Seamus and Carol. The next moment, Seamus' speed was amplified significantly. He turned into a beam of red light and disappeared in front of Alex's eyes.

Alex was stunned for a moment before he frowned tensely.

Chapter 0880

The effect of this mystical tool was a bit like Blood Evasion that was introduced in the Ultimate Book of Medicine. It consumed a lot of blood, at the cost of one's flesh and lifespan, to stimulate an endless potential that could be used for escape.

The speed was really fast. Seamus Owen's jade pendant had a similar effect.

Alex Rockefeller shook his head, knowing he couldn't catch up even if he wanted to. When Alex returned, he heard a woman's hysterical scream. She sounded very young.

After fixing his gaze upon her, he realized the voice belonged to Natalie Rockefeller.

Natalie was rolling on the ground. Both her legs were in a bloody mess, and they were making a sizzling sound. There was even some yellowish red color dripping onto the ground. It seemed sticky.

Her legs had been stained by the poisonous powder Seamus had tossed out.

The parts of her legs that were stained by the poisonous powder immediately corroded and turned yellowish. It even gave off a foul smell.

When Noah Rockefeller and Mariah Hamilton saw their daughter in such a miserable state, they were as anxious as ants in a hot pan. Tears began to stream down their faces, but they didn't know what to do. Noah kneeled in front of Brittany Rockefeller. "Sister-in-law, please. I'm begging you, save my daughter. Please save my daughter!"

Brittany looked at him before turning to look at Natalie. In the end, she was still too kind-hearted.

“Alex, is there anything you can do? If there is, save her!”

Alex took out a pill. This was an antidote pill.

Ever since Alex witnessed how people from Gokudo Soshiki used poison, he intentionally crafted a batch of antidote pills.

“Bring me a bottle of white wine!” Alex uttered.

Mariah wiped her tears away and quickly retrieved a bottle of wine. Normally, Noah liked drinking white wine. Hence, Mariah was able to bring some over very soon.

Alex dropped the antidote pill into the bottle and shook it a little.

Once the pill had dissolved, he poured the white wine onto Natalie’s legs.

Natalie cried out miserably.

This was highly concentrated white wine. When poured onto rotten wounds like that, it was no different from using pure alcohol. How could it not hurt? However, Alex's antidote pill could be seen taking effect immediately. Parts of Natalie's legs that were still corroding instantly stopped.

The corrosion didn't spread elsewhere.

Natalie's entire body shivered as her legs twitched. Her legs couldn't be called legs anymore. Instead, they were more like two balls of rotten flesh. One could even see her bones on deeper parts of her wounds.

Alex looked at Natalie, who used to be his younger cousin-sister. Her Yin energy was gone, and her legs... She would probably become disabled. That's because the nerves and veins on her legs were all corroded. Even with advanced surgery, it'd be very difficult for her to recover.

Brittany frowned. She felt a little sorry for Natalie. "Noah, why aren't you taking her to the hospital? Why are you just standing there?"

In the past, Brittany really treated them like family. Unfortunately, they treated her like a b*tch.

By the time Noah came back to his senses, he quickly carried Natalie in his arms and ran outside with Mariah. Behind him, he could hear Alex's voice. "Three days later, I'll come to reclaim Rockefeller Manor. Do as you see fit!"

Noah halted for a moment, but he very quickly started running again.

Somewhere in the mountain, a mass of red light appeared. It started moving slower and slower.

Finally, two human bodies appeared. They were none other than Seamus and Carol. They had successfully escaped.

After stopping, Seamus slapped Carol across the face, and it left a mark on her face. "B*tch. It's all because of you. Otherwise, why would my ghost servant die? Why would I end up like this? You b*tch. You actually got me into trouble with someone like that. Why don't you go to hell?" He shouted angrily.

Carol became enraged. "Seamus, how could you still have the nerves to say that? You lied to me about everything. Not only that, but you even lied to my younger sister and my entire family! What's so great about hitting a woman? If you have what it takes, kill Alex! Why did you brag to me about having god-like abilities? Piece of trash. You can't even defeat a little girl."

Seamus went berserk.

He immediately started punching and kicking Carol. But very soon, he stopped.

When he escaped, there was a reason he brought Carol along with him.

To repair his Demon Arts, he needed to look for a doctor from Leviathan Gate. This person specialized in Dark Medic Spell, and he had very capable medical skills. However, he was also very greedy. His greed was for beautiful women!

Not only was being beautiful a requirement, but the woman also had to be sl*ttt.
