The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1261 - 1264

Paige Rockefeller suddenly turned pale.

The embezzlement deficit of two billion was a significant amount. Once handed over to the police, she and her husband's life would be over. They would at least be sentenced to life in prison. They would be required to hand over that embezzled money...

The key was ever since Rockefeller Group grew, their earnings also increased. Typical assh*les like her had been raised corrupt. Where would there be money left when she had burnt through two billion worth of embezzled money, which was accumulated over the past ten years?

“What about it?”

“With this evidence, do you still think it's fake? What about handing it over to the police to verify the authenticity?”

“It just so happens that there are people from the Summers family present at the scene, so why not ask the Summers family to come forward and oversee this matter. What do you think?”

When Paige heard Brittany's words, she was instantly scared and trembled. She couldn't imagine the terrible consequences. She definitely did not want to go to jail.

Thud!

Paige knelt heavily in front of Brittany, " Sister-in-law, Sister-in-law, I was wrong, please forgive me! I really know I'm wrong. Let me stay alive, give me a chance. I don't want to go to jail!"

As she was talking, she vigorously slapped her face. This scene made all the visitors below the stage stare in disbelief.

Several staff members of Rockefeller Group looked at Paige with eyes full of contempt.

In the company, Paige and her husband had always acted all high and mighty. They were very demanding of others and were also constantly educating others to have the spirit of dedication, to know how to make sacrifices for the company. In the end? It turned out that they were the company's biggest rats, the greediest assh*les.

The funny thing was Brittany that knew all along. She just chose not to point it out.

Now that the evidence was out, it was as if the main point of the whole incident was finally focused on. Brittany said indifferently, “You want to stay alive? No problem! It just so happens that you have John and Noah’s documents with signatures in your hands. Sign the document, and I will use a dollar to buy all the shares of the Rockefeller Group from your hands!”

“What?”

Paige was dumbfounded.

Staring at Brittany in a daze, Paige felt as if she could not recognize her. People like Brittany definitely should not be so ruthless.

“Buying all the shares of the Rockefeller Group with one dollar, Sister-in-law, how can you be so evil hearted? This is daylight robbery!”

“Not, absolutely not!”

Brittany sneered, “Why not? A year ago, it was the Rockefeller family who snatched Rockefeller Group from William and me. Back then, you didn’t give us a single dime. Not only that, but you also used shameless means to freeze all the money on our joint accounts, snatch our house, leaving my son at a loss and me with no way to cure my illness. I even kneeled and begged to borrow tens of thousands of dollars from you, but it was all in vain. Did you think that your hearts were so evil back then?”

Paige was speechless.

However, she then said, “Sister-in-law, this was all the decision of the old man and john’s idea. They are in charge of the Rockefeller family. Where do I, a married woman, have the right to do this?”

“But you have the right to do business now.”

“But you have the right to do business now.”

“I... Sister-in-law, I really can’t! I can’t... Carol, she will kill me, she is now very scary and terrible. She is the one who asked me to sell the company. She is the one who wants fifty billion, I really can’t make the decision to sell it to you for one dollar, or she will kill me!” Paige cried out loud.

It looked like it was hard for her.

“You have one minute to think about it. You can either go and explain to the police what was on those papers or sign the papers!”

Brittany didn't want to care in the least about the pressure Carol was putting on Paige. After all, they were relatives!

A minute had passed quickly.

Gritting her teeth, Paige finally gave in. “I will sign that document!”

At Rockefeller Group's auction.

Chapter 1262

It all ended in an unconventional way. Brittany regained control of all Rockefeller Group's shares, which was once established by her, at just one dollar. She counted the days.

It was exactly three months since the death of Bill, her grandfather. In other words, Brittany had successfully fulfilled her goal, which she had declared in front of Bill's coffin.

Rockefeller Group, indeed, was overthrown. Even the person in charge of the Rockefeller family was gone.

A sign of resurrection was on the cards since Brittany was now back in control.

A loud clapping sound was heard. Suddenly, a round of applause rang out.

It was one of the top executives inside Rockefeller Group who was the first to applaud the moment Paige signed her name on the new assignment contract. He said with a smile, "Welcome, welcome, welcome the return of General Manager Brittany to the Rockefeller Group. I have been looking forward to this day for a long, long time. Only under the wise leadership of General Manager Brittany, Rockefeller Group can develop healthily! Without Ms. Brittany, it's like a ship at sea losing its direction. Now that Ms. Brittany has returned, I believe tomorrow will be much better."

Nonetheless. His applause did not impress Brittany at all.

She looked at him and said faintly, "After merging with our Lush Cosmetics, Rockefeller Group will indeed become better and better. The future achievement of the first enterprise in America is not impossible. But all of this has nothing to do with you, Marcos, because, from now on, you are fired.”

“Aah?”

The man named Harrison Marcos was rendered speechless. Like an old duck whose throat was caught, his face turned red, and he wore an awful expression.

“Ms. Brittany, why? What I said was sincerely from my heart. It was not just flattery!”

Brittany said, “You are not flattering me, but you are doing things based on the other person’s background, which is treacherous! Do you think I didn’t know that you and John colluded together long ago? Back then, you were also John’s assistant in the deal with Japanese, right?”

After that was said, Harrison’s expression became increasingly awful. His face was full of cold sweats.

It was already close to 9:00 pm.

Brittany gently waved her hand. “Okay, today’s auction has finally come to an end. Everyone can leave now!”

Then, she patted Azure’s shoulder and said, “Little Storm, well done. Come to my house tomorrow for a meal!”

Azure was flattered and hurriedly bowed and saluted. “Thank you, Madam!”

Brittany then said to Keith, “The head of the Yowell family, please come over as well.”

Keith hurriedly said, “Thank you, Madam Rockefeller, for inviting me. I humbly accept your invitation!”

After that, Alex and the others left the exhibition hall in big strides.

Azure and Keith also led their men and quickly disappeared.

The crowd in the exhibition hall finally let out a long sigh of relief. The tense ambiance just a while ago was slowly easing. They, too, left Rockefeller Group anxiously as if there would be a precarious danger if they stayed a little longer.

Half an hour later.

Alex and the others returned to the Rockefeller family estate.

In the main entrance, Maya pulled Alex aside. “Little Brother, I’m suddenly a little hungry. Come with me to get a midnight snack!”

Alex was stunned. “Uhm... Mom, do you want to go?”

Brittany had a smile in her eyes. “No, I do not like late night snacks. You young people like this stuff. Since Maya wants to eat, you should go with her! You can come back at any time.”

Chapter 1263

Brittany smiled at the two of them and walked into the Rockefeller family’s manor.

She just got back the control of Rockefeller Group. Thus, she needed to plan the business arrangement. Initially, Maya was her best helper. With her assistance, Brittany’s work would be much easier. However, in comparison, it was the grandson who was most important.

This was especially after seeing Winnie. This wish of hers became even stronger. It would be great if tonight, her son could accomplish something with Maya and give birth to a son and a daughter.

“Where do you want to go to eat?”

“The street at the night market in the university city, do you remember that?” Maya blinked and looked at Alex with a playful expression as she spoke.

Alex thought for a long time before he remembered.

In the past, there was indeed a night market after the back door of his university. Many students would go there to eat and shop, and even students set up stalls there. It was a lively place.

However...

For Alex, that night market would seem too low-end because he was a young master with an expensive three hundred billion big business back then. He would usually go to all the high-end places, so this kind of place did not attract him.

He had also been there so often with his roommate, but he had a poor impression of the area. Not only did the food taste bad, but there were also thieves too.

“Why did you think of going to that place?” Alex frowned, not wanting to go. “What can be good there? Why not just go to Moonlight Lake’s west bund corridor? The food there is cooked by famous chefs, and all the food tastes so good.”

Maya shook her head. “No, I want to go to the night market street! Are you coming or not? Are you accompanying me or not?”

The woman pouted and crossed her arms.

A burst of natural body fragrance rushed into Alex’s nose. The feeling of serenity was completely absent in an instant. Instead, a primitive urge rose in his heart. He immediately surrendered and said, “Yes, yes, yes. Let’s go wherever you want. I will also accompany you to hell.”

Smiling sweetly, Maya hugged Alex’s arm and jumped forward. She whispered, “I don’t want you to go to hell, but you can go for a tryst.”

“What did you say?”

Alex froze for a moment as he did not hear clearly. “Nothing! Let’s go!”

Maya tightened her grip.

Then, Alex felt a fire in his body. The incredibly warm feeling on his arm came as if squeezed into the warm butter. At that walking pace, he swayed around and could not walk properly.

At the same time.

Paige returned home, looking disheveled. Tonight’s auction finally made her realize that she was really a piece of trash compared to Brittany. All of her was crushed. There was no half advantage, if Brittany had really wanted to screw her, she could have easily sent her to prison as early as ten years ago.

However, she only came up with that stack of evidence now. The imaginary tens of billions were gone, and she did not know how to inform Carol.

Nevertheless, again, she felt lucky. This was because Brittany didn't pursue the matter any further.

There was even boundless regret welling up in her heart.

If she had been on William and Brittany's side, what would have been the result? The result would have been completely different from now. Brittany would likely be drowning in the affection from her relatives and continue to turn a blind eye to her activities. Brittany's career would grow after regaining control of Rockefeller Group. Since she was considered her relative, not to mention two billion or twenty billion, even earning twenty billion was not impossible.

Unfortunately... It was too late to regret it!

She had just returned home when she saw her husband on the ground, unconscious, in a pool of blood on the floor

"Ah, hubby...? Hubby, what happened to you?"

Paige screamed in surprise. Her face turned pale. She rushed over to him.

The man was lying on the ground, so she did not see very clearly at first what was going on. But when she turned the man over, she felt as if her whole body was struck by lightning. She stiffened. The next second, she shrieked and vomited.

She saw there was a large hole on her husband's shirt near the chest. There was also a large hole in his body.

His heart was no longer there. That area looked like a piece of rag.

The person was dead long ago.

Despite seeing so much blood in today's exhibition hall auction where nearly twenty arms were broken, and Theodore's legs cut off by Gervinho, that bloody scene was incomparable to the one before her right now.

"The devil! This must be the act of the devil!"

She mumbled and was lost in thought.

At this moment, she heard a voice from the side.

Paige had just entered the house and did not pay attention. Only at this moment did she realize a woman was sitting in the dining room of her home. At a closer look, it was her niece, Carol Rockefeller. At this moment, she was slowly eating a bowl of noodles.

“You... it’s you! Carol, did you kill my husband?”

She rushed over only to see the bowl of noodles in front of Carol. It was blood red and had a pungent smell of blood. It was not a dressing at all, but blood!

‘Yes, it was her own husband’s blood!’

“Oh...?!”

Paige shrieked and sat on the floor on her buttocks. She looked at Carol with terrified eyes. Is this still her niece that she knew? It was almost like a demon crawling out of hell. She subconsciously asked, “You... You are drinking my husband’s blood?”

Carol lifted her head and licked her lips. She licked the blood clean.

Carol said indifferently, “Your husband’s blood was not good to drink at all. He must have been with many women out there. The body is contaminated! By killing him, I’m helping you! Not only did I help you get rid of countless cuckolds, but I also gave you freedom! In the future, you can be with whichever man you want, for example, that male subordinate of yours, Leonard!”

When Paige heard that, she froze. Leonard was her secret lover!

No one in the company knew about it at all, and she had had that affair quite stealthily.

But, how did Carol know?

The key reason she coveted that handsome and cute male subordinate was for his young age and muscular body. She did not plan to have a long-term relationship with him. After all, she had a son, and she simply did not want to divorce her husband to start a family with that handsome and cute male subordinate. Moreover, he was only twenty years old. At her age, she could be his mother.

“You... How did you become like this? With this kind of behavior, are you even a normal human?” Paige was fearful of impending disaster and panicked as she looked at Carol as if she was looking at a hungry ghost.

“Of course, I am a normal human. In fact, I am much better than a normal person!”

Carol stood up.

She released an aura of a martial artist, shaking the table in front of her, and violently moved the table aside.

Boom!

It hit the opposite wine cabinet, and seven or eight bottles of wine fell, spilling the wine all over the floor.

“Did you mess up the auction?”

“I heard that Brittany used only one dollar to buy all of our Rockefeller family’s shares in Rockefeller Group, didn’t she?”
