TPOL Chapter 1401

Soon, the car arrived in front of the Porsche 911. It looked like Joel Quarters and Judy Larsen didn't seem to be in serious trouble.

It was because Alex had used the Seven Blades of Death to puncture the rear tire of the car so that the car wouldn't be overturned. Otherwise, it would have ended up in a car crash with deaths.

"Hey, you drove too fast. Your joy turned to sorrow now, right? Don't worry, when I reach the finish line, I'll send someone back to help you." Alex said with a smile after poking his head out of the window.

The GLC increased the throttle and hit the back of the Porsche, knocking the vehicle out of the way a little before driving forward quickly. However, at this moment, Alex suddenly felt the mental power that had been locked onto himself became stronger and closer.

An unprecedented sense of crisis crept into him.

Bang!

There was suddenly a loud sound on the top of the car. A rush of heavy pressure hit the top of the car, as if a falling meteor beyond the sky.

"Not good!" Alex let go of the steering wheel directly and hugged Phoebe's body while activating the Mystic Armor to the maximum power.

"Ahhh!"

A horrified scream tore out from Phoebe's mouth.

Boom!

The entire GLC was flung up high in the air, and then dropped down heavily from the sky. The entire roof of the vehicle had collapsed.

Meanwhile, Alex, who was protecting Phoebe desperately, used his back to take the heavy blow. As a result, he spat out a mouthful of blood. When he looked up with difficulty, he saw a tall man in black standing in front of him while wearing a pig mask.

When Joel's sports car had suddenly lost control and slammed into the stone wall, everyone from the Sakura Racing Club had already seen the footage.

Richard Dodge's face had gone pale with fright. If anything happened to Joel in his territory, the Quarters family would never let him nor his family off the hook. Therefore, he hurriedly called a large number of rescuers to head into the mountain to launch a rescue operation.

At the foot of the mountain, those rich, young heirs who had come to cheer Joel also screamed out one after another in disbelief.

However, just as these bunch of people were about to rush up to the mountain, another more shocking scene appeared on the big screen.

The GLC driven by Alex suddenly bounced up into the air for no reason, as if something had rammed right into the back of the vehicle... But, as the car bounced up and fell down, the monitoring screen suddenly went black. Nothing was visible on it anymore, as if the monitoring equipment had been destroyed.

"What's going on?"

"Did the GLC have an accident? But, that scene was just too weird. It didn't hit anything, yet it bounced suddenly. Could it be that there was an obstacle on the road?"

"Yeah, otherwise, that sort of thing wouldn't happen!"

"Hurry up and take a look!"

Among these people, Cheryl was naturally the most anxious person.

When she saw her car crash and broke down, she was secretly delighted. With that happening, Alex would definitely win the race, and that was for certain.

However, she didn't expect that Alex's car would also be involved in an accident. Furthermore, the surveillance footage happened to be gone as well.

Seeing the rescue vehicle was going to head up the mountain, she hurriedly stopped the car and asked to be let on. Facing a request from such a beauty, nobody could refuse her!

"Who are you?"

Alex looked at the man who was wearing the pig mask as his heart skipped a beat. He tore off the seat belt on Phoebe and kicked open the deformed car door, carrying Phoebe out of the wreckage.

During the entire process, the man with the pig mask didn't move, but watched them quietly.

After a while, he said softly, "The Holy Book really deserves its name and reputation. I didn't expect that you'd be able to rise to this level in such a short period of time. Given time, it won't be a difficult matter to reach the top of the martial arts world!"

It was because he recalled. 'Isn't the Holy Book something my dad had once obtained?'

For that reason, Pepper Kimmich and those people from the Gokudo Soshiki had planned to let John Rockefeller seize his family's properties and assets. He had been attacked many times too... This man actually knew about the Holy Book. Could it be that this man also knew his father?

"Who in the world are you?"

Chapter 1402

“It doesn’t matter who I am! Most importantly, as long as you hand over the Holy Book, I will turn around and leave without bringing anymore trouble to you!”

This person spoke in a deep muffled voice.

If he listened carefully, he would find that the person’s voice didn’t come from his mouth, but rather, from his stomach... He had once read about a strange technique in the Ultimate Book of Medicine called ventriloquism.

He didn’t talk using his mouth. Instead, he talked through his stomach. Actually, this was a cultivation technique that used the inner force.

However, this technique required extremely high inner force to perform it. Those who did not have enough skills would definitely not be able to use it.

Because of this, when Alex heard the voice, he completely couldn’t differentiate the identity of the other party through sound at all.

“The Holy Book? What the heck is that, I don’t know anything!” Alex said.

The masked man shook his head. “I don’t have time to exchange nonsense with you. I’ll count to three. If you don’t give it to me, I’ll kill your fiancée right away.”

Alex’s heart skipped a beat.

He looked towards Phoebe. At this moment, she had long since fainted.

“She’s not my fiancée!”

“One, two...” The masked man didn’t listen to Alex’s explanation at all, and was extremely domineering.

“Three!”

Boom!

The moment the masked man counted to three, he slammed a ferocious palm directly towards Phoebe. Alex was startled. Never did he expect that the masked man would really make a move.

Furthermore, it was so terrifyingly powerful upon making the move.

Alex hugged Phoebe and hurriedly moved three steps to the side, without daring to confront it head-on.

Boom!

The masked man blasted the road with an enormous amount of energy from his palm.

Suddenly, a huge palm print exploded on the ground, sending sand, dust and rocks everywhere. The road was severely damaged, as though it had just experienced a 7.8 magnitude earthquake.

Alex’s expression turned cold. He would never take a beating like this lying down.

He immediately waved his hand to launch a counterattack.

“Lightning, come forth!”

Rumble! Rumble!

A thunderbolt struck down from the clear skies, aiming directly at the masked man.

The masked man was taken aback for a moment. He seemed to have not expected that Alex would have such a trick up his sleeves, but he was also an exceptional person.

He clapped both hands together and shouted, “Three Return Zeal!”

Around his body, a spherical shield formed, which protected him from the lightning damage, and not a single hint of harm was on him.

“F*ck, so awesome?!”

Alex couldn't take the masked man down with one move, so he immediately brought out his strongest move.

“Seven Blades of Death, kill!”

It was one of the blades from the Dragon's Bane of Thirty-Six, the Seven Blades of Death.

After it was out of its sheath, it turned into a giant sword as big as a door, and fiercely slashed down towards the masked man.

Boom!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

On the road in front of them, a ten meter wide trench was sliced directly. Forget about just the road, even the mountain had been destroyed. Countless rocks fell, burying the GLC under it As for the masked man who was holding up the Three Return Zeal, he had also been cut by the sword.

“Phew!” Alex breathed a sigh of relief. The sword earlier had consumed a lot of his energy.

Fortunately, the effect was good. The masked man should be dead.

However, at this moment, he heard the voice in his ear again. “The power of the magical treasure seems really powerful. It seems that the content of the Holy Book is far more advanced than I thought. Very good, very good indeed.”

Every hair on Alex stood upright. ‘He was still alive even after that?!’

Could it be that the one he had cut down was just an afterimage?

In the next second, he picked up Phoebe in his arms and turned around before jumping off the cliff and fleeing like crazy!

Chapter 1403

The rescue vehicle that Cheryl was sitting in slammed the emergency brakes suddenly. The people in the car all looked forward with horror on their faces.

It was because there had been a burst of violent roar and explosion that shook the ground just now. Their position was still halfway up the mountain and still had quite a distance from Joel and Judy who had an accident ahead. But even so, they could feel the strong quake at this moment. Even the entire car shook and bumped around.

“W-What’s going on?!”

“Is there an earthquake?”

“Or did the car explode?”

However, there was no such a situation of raging blaze. Cheryl was worried about Alex and Phoebe’s safety, so she hurriedly shouted, “Hurry, drive faster! We need to save them!”

However, the driver was relatively a coward. As he wanted to turn around immediately, he hurriedly said, “No, the tremor is too strong. I’m afraid there might have been a strong earthquake, we have to turn around immediately! Let’s go!”

“As*hole, you’re rescue workers. There’s wounded in front of us now, yet you guys want to turn around and leave?! Do you even have professionalism and some human conscience in you?!”

The man in the passenger seat said, “God d*mmmit, an earthquake is happening now. Our lives might not even be safe, and you’re talking about professionalism with us?! So what if I don’t have any ethics? Are you going to bite me for that? Hey, this lady looks very awesome. It happens to be a messy situation now, how about we take the chance to...”

When he said that, the other few men in the vehicle also looked very excited. They looked at Cheryl with a desire that looked like a pack of hungry wolves.

Even the man sitting next to Cheryl reached out his hand to touch Cheryl’s thigh.

Slap!

Cheryl lashed out, landing a heavy slap on the man’s face. The man’s face was beaten swollen in just an instant.

Well, Cheryl was someone who had obtained Immortal Doctor’s Legacy from Guilherme Extraordinaire. The energy that Guilherme stored in the Chaos Bead back then had basically been passed into Cheryl. Even if she had not stepped into the real path of martial arts cultivation, she was almost in the same situation as Alex when he had gotten his legacy. Her body had long since been reborn with tremendous changes.

When the other few men were still dumbfounded, Cheryl instantly chased them out of the car, and drove onwards on her own.

Whoosh!

After jumping off the cliff, Alex immediately infused his legs with the lightning attribute spiritual power, fleeing madly on the cliff. His speed was faster than a free fall. Like a blast of lightning, he turned into a stream of light. Jumping from a cliff of several hundred meters high, Alex held the unconscious Phoebe in his arms, landing safely at the bottom.

Alex turned around to look, but he found that the masked man was chasing after him closely.

It was as though the masked man had turned into a nighthawk, stepping on the cliff walls and chasing after Alex quickly, with a distance of thirty meters away from him at most.

'Who the hell is this person?!'

Alex didn't dare to stop, and hurriedly entered the forest, running frantically all the way.

However, he soon discovered that the guy behind him had used his mental powers to firmly lock onto Alex, as well as Phoebe. Even if he hid himself, Phoebe couldn't do the same! He would never let go of Phoebe at this time.

"Seven Blades of Death, cut him down!" Alex willed the sword to slice down behind him.

A row of giant, towering trees were cut down instantly and collapsed as he tried to use them to prevent the opponent's pursuit.

However, the effect was minimal.

As for that b*stard, he grabbed a thick branch and threw it over towards Alex.

Boom!

The branch was just too thick.

Even if Alex wanted to dodge it, he couldn't do so while holding an adult woman in his arms. Under the circumstances of carrying a heavy load, his speed was also affected.

In the end, he could only use the Mystic Armor to resist it by force.

Borrowing the momentum, his speed increased by several points.

The mask man behind him watched him with cold eyes. Never did he expect that Alex would have such a strong desire to live. Moreover, his ability to resist the blows was beyond his expectation as well. The masked man was also chasing after him desperately while shouting, “Alex Rockefeller, stop and give me the Holy Book right now, and I won’t trouble you any longer! But, if you’re still stubborn, then don’t blame me for not holding back anymore! When I catch you later, I will not just kill you and that woman in your arms, but I’ll also go back and kill your mother. Believe me, I will do it.”

Alex also believed that the masked man would do what he said.

Chapter 1404

However, he still had Aunt Rockefeller as his trump card. It was stupid to surrender now, just because of what the masked man had said.

While running, he asked, “How do you know that I have the Holy Book? If you tell me your identity, I will consider it!”

The masked man said, “Look, I’m wearing a mask just because I don’t want to tell you who I am! Don’t ask these sort of questions, if you really know who I am, then you really won’t be able to live.”

“Boss, I really don’t have the Holy Book. If you find the Holy Book, you can go to Japan and look for the Gokudo Soushiki.”

“Don’t try to mislead me, the Gokudo Soushiki don’t have the Holy Book in their hands at all. If they had it, they wouldn’t have helped John Rockefeller take over your father’s Rockefeller Group.”

In that instant, Alex was surprised. “How did you know that?”

The masked man replied, “Because the Holy Book belonged to me in the first place.”

“What?!”

“Your father was the one who had stolen its core, and then passed it on to you.”

“Huh?” Alex almost believed him.

However, soon, he remembered that it was the legacy from his ancestors, something that belonged to the Rockefeller family. It was the same as having a bloodline inheritance, Guilherme and Yuno could even testify to this point, and it definitely wasn’t the core whatsoever of the Holy Book.

Just then, there was no more road in front of him unexpectedly. It was another cliff. Under the cliff was the dark, endless sea.

Soon, the masked man managed to catch up to him and was in front of him.

“I’m giving you the last chance here, Alex Rockefeller. As long as you give me the Holy Book, not only I won’t kill you, but I won’t retrieve your martial arts! There’s no loss to you in this, right?”

Alex gasped for breath and said, “Boss, since the Holy Book belongs to you, you should be able to tell that I don’t know anything about the Holy Book!”

“So, you’ll be stubborn to the end?” The masked man said. “Okay, if you say so! Fine, this is the path that you’ve chosen yourself.”

The masked man raised his hand, with energy fluctuating rapidly in it.

A gigantic, transparent energy ball came crashing down. Alex could feel a fatal threat.

“Sword of the Universe, Seven Blades of Death, combine and kill!”

As the combined swords slashed the energy ball, an earth shattering explosion sounded.

Alex opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood.

If the Chaos Bead in his mind palace had not suddenly vibrated and blocked a large amount of attack, he would have died almost instantly.

The masked man was not doing very well either. He took five steps backwards consecutively. He really hadn't expected Alex to be this strong.

The two Dragon Bone Swords suspending in the air in front of him made his heart filled with extreme greed.

'Run!' Alex clenched his hands and clutched Phoebe tightly before jumping into the sea.

He ran across the top of the sea, feeling towards the deeper part of it.

"Phew..."

The masked man watched for two seconds before slowly taking off his mask.

The face that was revealed was none other than the Lord Commander of Department Six, Grant Xenos!

The moment he took off the mask, the aura on his body roused up once more.

'Alex Rockefeller, I originally wanted to admit you under my command, but now it seems that you're just seeking for your death!

'Then, don't blame me!

He threw away the pig mask violently. His entire person turned into a black afterimage and leaped into the sea to chase after Alex swiftly.

Chapter 1405

The sea was dark and stretched out endlessly. If someone were to look closely at this moment, he would be able to see a string of faint electric light moving quickly on top of the surface of the waters.

This was what Alex looked like while he was running swiftly after filling his legs with the lightning attribute spiritual power.

His two legs leaked a slight current due to the high running speed.

'At the speed I'm running, I should have shaken that guy off, right?' Alex thought to himself.

However, that faintly discernible mental power that had locked onto him was still there. His eyes shifted as he glanced to the back. At a glance, he almost started cursing.

That guy actually came after him again.

But soon, he quickly discovered something. The masked man's pig mask had disappeared, revealing his real face. When Alex took a close look at the face, he was utterly stunned.

'It's the Lord Commander from Department Six, Grant Xenos!'

'Sh*t, this is too much. This old b*stard, how shameless can he be!'

'But, how could he possibly know about the Holy Book? And, he even believes that it's still on me? And, he also said the Holy Book originally belonged to him?'

A barrage of questions popped into Alex's mind.

He suddenly recalled something. His mother, Brittany, had once said that his father had been convicted of being a traitor to the country and his death was related to a very powerful force in America.

Because of this, she had concealed the reasons and refused to tell him no matter what, fearing that he would suddenly get impulsive to offend the said powerful force, and then brought about murderous disasters.

It seemed that the powerful force was very likely to be Department Six, and the one behind it all, was Grant Xenos!

The important point here was that the old b*sard was currently standing in a translucent tortoise shell and speeding on the sea, as if he was riding a boat. Such means was just too shocking.

However, a whim struck him.

'He has a tortoise shell, I have one too!

'No, no, that's not right. Not only do I have a tortoise shell, but I also have the Sword of the Universe as well as the Seven Blades of Death.'

'Imperial Sword Flight!' The thought suddenly came to his mind.

There was such a thing in the legacy of the Ultimate Book of Medicine.

However, that was a technique that required someone to be promoted to the Core Formation realm in order to use it. However, he was currently on the sea. By borrowing the buoyancy of the sea, it may be possible to barely achieve the same effect.

'Seven Blades of Death, expand!

The Dragon Bone Sword could change its size at will. Under Alex's will, the Seven Blades of Death became the size of a door, and he jumped onto it.

Swoosh!

The Seven Blades of Death flew forward above the sea. The speed was now three times faster than before.

Grant, who was following behind, was stunned after witnessing the scene. He muttered to himself, "Imperial Sword Flight, Imperial Sword Flight, the Holy Book... These are not martial art secrets at all, but cultivation techniques. They're the secrets of the gods!"

At this moment, Grant's desire for the Holy Book had reached another level.

Being in such a high position, he naturally came into contact with many more things than ordinary people. He was not a stranger to the path of cultivation. However, in today's society, firearms were more revered, and the recovery of ancient martial arts had only started to pick up in the recent decades. As for cultivation... He had heard that the cultivation sects of thousands of years ago had long since disappeared, and there was no trace of where they had gone.

Even if there were legacies being passed down, they would still be incomplete.

In America, and even in the entire world, there were very few things of cultivators that had been heard about. The only source of information regarding cultivation was the Blood Cult that had fallen a hundred years ago!

'I must have the Holy Book!'

The Lord Commander's speed picked up sharply once again.

However, it still couldn't catch up with Alex's speed, which had increased three times. Furthermore, his speed was still increasing.

Seeing the gap between both parties getting bigger, the mental power could no longer be locked onto Alex.

To his surprise, thunder and lightning appeared in the front. A huge storm actually appeared on the sea at night.
