This is the role of the safety island!

The key is that the materials for construction are carefully selected and can hold everything.

Otherwise, it will definitely die!

The Kingdom of God's future technology kingdom has also been activated, with many people and equipment hiding in it.

And the future science and technology kingdom is also activated, and a shield is formed to protect the entire science and technology kingdom in it.

This can be regarded as a super large island.

Countless people from other countries fled around the future technological country in an attempt to enter it.

However, the Galaxy Guardian Alliance is very unfeeling, and is determined not to open the future science and technology city.

So that outside the future science and technology city, there are people everywhere, three circles inside and three circles outside, densely packed, like a locust outbreak...

In the Science and Technology City, many people are holding red wine glasses and watching all this indifferently!

There are devices on the border of the Eagle Nation!

It was the device used to get rid of the laboratory of the gods!

Pieces of devices rose from the ground, covering the entire Warhawk Nation!

Then the device started...

All devices started to work with each other.

There seems to be no change.

In fact, there is a force field covering the entire area.

It is equivalent to adding an invisible protective cover out of thin air.

Covered tightly from the inside to the outside.

Until this moment.

Many people understand.

It turns out that the Galaxy Guardian Alliance is also taking defensive measures.

Originally, they thought that the Galaxy Guardian Alliance was unprepared and unprepared.

After all, there is no large-scale personnel transfer.

Especially compared with Daxia's side, the gap is too big.

There is almost no action at all.

Therefore, many spectators think that the Galaxy Guardian Alliance has no actions.

As a result, they were preparing very early.

Naturally won't come close!

Several people from God's Brain followed the Black Hawk agent and hid in this safe area.

"Now the Antarctic Glacier has fully erupted! Doesn't that mean Levi Garrison is dead?"

"Well, that's for sure! How can this survive?"

Everyone said.

The Black Hawk agent nodded: "He wants to live, he has to continue! But now it's fully erupted..." Agent Black Hawk did not continue.

This is never possible!

Everyone mourned for Levi Garrison.

“The power of this super spiritual vein is even more terrifying than what I calculated! Next, it depends on whether the shield can block it!”

Said the brain of God.

He had calculated the Super Soul Vessel before!

I thought that the value was accurately grasped.

It seems that there is no such thing.

The energy of the Super Spirit Vessel is much more terrifying than his accurate calculation!

The true power may be five or six times as much as he calculated!

Or even stronger!

Under this level of energy, it is actually twice as terrifying to the extreme!

The real is at least five or six times!

This is terrifying to the extreme!

It's scary!

It seems that the reserves and extension of this super spiritual vein are far beyond the detection of the Gods Laboratory.

When it breaks out now, it just breaks out everything.

Including the ones that are stored in the deep, undetectable...

This power is simply terrifying!

“How lucky to be born in this country!”

The Black Hawk agents were all beginning to rejoice.

Everyone in the Eagle Nation began to laugh.

Similarly, Daxia is also fortunate.

Unlike other people, when this kind of catastrophe comes, there is no place to hide.

It's so miserable!

Knowing that disasters and catastrophes are coming, but can do anything, can only wait!

What a sadness that is!

Nowadays, except that most places are still messy.

The Great Summer Alliance and the Galaxy Guardian Alliance are ready.

All finishing work has been completed!

Waiting for the catastrophe to come!

now.

The Antarctic glacier is completely shattered!

The super spiritual veins have exploded madly!

Turning into a terrible energy storm, sweeping the world from all directions!

After all, the energy is too strong, it is too easy to disturb the magnetic field and so on.

Moreover, the opening of the spiritual veins in the depths was still expanding.

It also broke out from other areas.

It splits directly from the depths and hits the sky.

I can only say that this is just the beginning!

It will be more and more terrifying next!

Until the energy storm of the entire spirit vein broke out!

“Boom...”

The movement is really earth-shaking, destroying everything!

The dark part of the night quickly expands at a speed visible to the naked eye.

There was only a small part before, and now at least one-third of the field of vision is full of darkness.
