

The Mans Decree Chapter 2741 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2741-The next morning, Yuven was woken up by a loud commotion. and he was displeased.

“Who’s making all the noise outside? I can’t sleep for—”

“Bad news, Your Majesty!” Julius rushed into Yuven’s chamber in a panic. Typically, without Yuven’s permission, no one was allowed to enter his chamber. However, Julius had just barged in without hesitation.

“What’s going on, Mr. Poulsen? What happened?” Yuven knew something had happened when he spotted the look on Julius’ face.

“I bring terrible news, Your Majesty! Xandros is leading an army from Norwal City to attack Imperial Beast City!”

“What?” Yuven sprang up from the bed when he heard that. “Is Xandros the only one leading the army? Is King Lucian with him?”

“I didn’t see King Lucian. Tigerus is holding off the attackers with the royal guards!”

Yuven sighed in relief. “It’s been over two years since a conflict of this scale took place. What is Xandros trying to do? There’s no way he can defeat us without his father’s aid.” I don’t believe he can take down Imperial Beast City on his own with an army! If he can, then it’s time for someone else to take my place!

“What’s happening, Father?” asked Ivasha after she was woken up by the noise outside too.

“Xandros is attacking Imperial Beast City with his army,” Yuven answered.

“What? Is he crazy? Is it because I refused to marry him?” Ivasha was shocked because she didn’t expect Xandros to be that bold.

“Let’s save the speculation for later and check out the situation for now. If Xandros is attacking rashly because of a grudge, then I’ll punish him a little and forget about it. However, if this is something he has been planning for a long while, and his father is aware of it, then it’s an official declaration of war between our two cities!”

Yuven hurriedly headed toward the gate with Ivasha.

At that moment, outside the humongous gate, Xandros was leading an army of soldiers and generals from above an elephant more than ten meters tall. Tigerus was leading the royal guards, standing by and staring at the army before them.

When he spotted Yuven, he warned, “This place is too dangerous, Your Majesty. You should return to the palace!”

“I’m not in danger if Xandros is the only one leading the army here. He can do nothing to me!” Yuven said arrogantly.

Standing on top of the city wall, Yuven stared at Xandros, who was below him, coldly. “Are you attacking Imperial Beast City at the behest of your father, Xandros?”

“Of course! You broke your promise and toyed with Norwal City! There’s no way my father will forgive you, you old fart!” Xandros growled.

“You have some nerve to speak to my father like that, Xandros! Do you think I can’t kill you?” Ivasha was enraged when she heard Xandros calling her father an old fart.

Xandros cackled and mocked, “Do you really think you can me? Can’t you see I’ve surrounded Imperial Beast City with my army?”

“No matter how many people you bring with you, it’ll still be easy for me to eliminate you! In fact, I can do it within a single breath! However, I’m giving you and your army a chance to return to where you came from. Once I lose my temper, none of you will be able to escape my wrath! To think you believe you can succeed in conquering Imperial Beast City with that few people! How absurd!” Disdain was written all over Yuven’s face.

He didn’t take Xandros seriously as a threat at all. If he wanted to end Xandros’ life right there and then, he could. Xandros’ army didn’t intimidate him because they were no different from ants in his perspective.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2742 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2742-“You’re too arrogant, you old fart! I’ll attack Imperial Beast City right now and show you what I’m capable of!” Xandros roared, waving his saber. “Attack!”

His Sky Breaker had been destroyed by Kai, so he had switched to using a saber.

Tens of thousands of soldiers shouted and charged toward Imperial Beast City.

Looking down at the soldiers and the smug Xandros, Yuven said coldly, “It seems if I don’t teach that brat a lesson, he’ll think he’s undefeatable!”

He was about to catch Xandros from among the latter’s army personally when a cold blade settled next to his shoulder.

“I suggest you stay put, Your Majesty,” threatened Tigerus from behind.

Yuven was shocked to hear Tigerus’ voice. A moment later, rage swelled in Yuven’s eyes.

“What are you doing, Tigerus?” Ivasha was shocked when she saw that.

“How dare you commit regicide, Tigerus!” Julius was similarly surprised.

“Regicide? I was loyal to him for years, but what did I get in the end? I couldn’t even be compared to a human. Princess Ivasha would rather follow a human than spare a glance at me! In their eyes, I’m always an insignificant subordinate! I find this sort of life meaningless. Instead of some nameless general, I’d rather be the king! I want to rule over Imperial Beast City! Then, I’ll be able to pick any woman I want, and they won’t be able to refuse, including Ivasha. When I ascend to the throne, she will lose her status as a princess and become my plaything!” Tigerus laughed maniacally, his eyes filled with madness. He looked all the more terrifying when a gust of wind ruffled his hair.

At that moment, accompanied by Tigerus’ loud laughter, the city gates opened, and Xandros and his men promptly rushed in.

“Tigerus, you traitor! I’m going to kill you!” Ivasha was absolutely furious and immediately tried to attack Tigerus.

However, Julius stopped her. “Calm down, Princess Ivasha. His Majesty is still in danger. You mustn’t be rash!”

“If you don’t want your father to die at my hands, I suggest you obey me!” Tigerus sneered.

Fury was burning in Ivasha’s eyes, yet she couldn’t do anything but glower at him.

At that moment, Xandros came to the city wall. He looked at Yuven and smirked. “Didn’t you say I couldn’t attack Imperial Beast City? Well, not only am I inside, I’m standing in front of you right now!”

“You think a cr*ppy sword can stop me? I can kill you both right now.” Staring at the arrogant Xandros, Yuven spoke calmly instead of losing his composure.

“I’m standing right here. If you want to claim my life, come and take it,” Xandros provoked.

“You asked for it!” Yuven was finally enraged and his aura exploded.

The air stirred, but when he was about to attack, his expression abruptly changed. Then, his face scrunched up in agony.

At the same time, Ivasha pressed her hands on her abdomen before collapsing to the ground in pain.

“Your Majesty! Princess Ivasha!” Julius panicked upon witnessing that sight.

At that moment, Yuven felt as though his internal organs were thrown into an active blender. The aura within his body was depleting rapidly, disabling his ability to manifest his power.

Xandros watched the effects of the drug kick in and burst into laughter. “Did you think I would attack Imperial Beast City unprepared?”

“Stop resisting, Your Majesty. I spiked your dinner last night. The drug is colorless and flavorless, which is why you didn't detect it. Once you take it, you'll lose your power," Tigerus revealed.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2743 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2743-Yuven began to panic. He discovered that he really couldn't unleash his power, feeling as though something was suppressing it within him.

Enduring the pain, Ivasha stood up slowly and barked, "My father trusted you, Tigerus! How dare you conspire against us! You're a shameless man!"

Tigerus roared furiously, "Everything I did, I did it because of you! I loved you since a long time ago, but you chose a human over me! I refuse to accept that! You will be mine! Once I have you on my bed, I'm going to make you squirm under me!"

Ivasha blushed in anger. "I would rather die than sleep with you! You don't deserve me!"

"Is that so?" Tigerus smirked. "If you don't agree to my request, then your beloved father will leave you forever."

He pressed his blade on Yuven's neck, creating a crimson slash.

Seeing that, Ivasha panicked and shouted, "No!"

"What do you say? If I ask you to come with me and serve me right now, will you say yes?" A twisted, delighted smile settled on Tigerus' face as he stared at Ivasha.

Ivasha glowered at Tigerus. If looks could kill, Tigerus would've been dead a thousand times over.

"Leave me be, Ivasha. Don't agree to his sickening request! Julius, I order you to escape with the princess right now! Quick!" Yuven commanded.

At that moment, Yuven only hoped his daughter could escape alive and not be tainted by Tigerus.

However, Julius didn't have the nerve to move. After all, Yuven was still in great danger. If he moved, Tigerus would undoubtedly chop Yuven's head off.

"Shut up, you old b*stard!" Tigerus punched Yuven in the face.

Once, Yuven was the great king of Imperial Beast City. At that moment, he was reduced to a mere prisoner, beaten by his former most trusted subordinate.

"Stop it, Tigerus! Stop hitting my father!" Ivasha shouted when she saw that.

"Have you considered my request, Princess Ivasha?" asked Tigerus. "If you agree, I promise His Majesty will remain unharmed. In fact, you two can continue to stay in the palace with your basic needs taken care of."

Staring at her bruised father, Ivasha nodded with tears. "Okay, I agree." She couldn't afford to resist because if she did, Yuven might actually be killed.

"You're a wise woman! Don't you think it's better for you to be with me than that human? At the very least, you and I are of the same race. I'll ensure you experience the joy of womanhood!" Lust swirled in Tigerus' eyes.

Once he handed Yuven over to his subordinate, he strode toward Ivasha.

"Don't agree to his request, Ivasha! This is all my fault! I should've listened to you and not attended that dinner!" Yuven said.

Alas, it was too late for him to regret his actions.

Ivasha had felt something was off last night, but Yuven had trusted Tigerus.

He had blindly believed that his subordinate wouldn't betray him.

However, Yuven was horribly wrong, and it was his fault that Tigerus had won.

"I hope you'll keep your promise, Tigerus. Now that I've agreed to your request, you better not harm my father!" said Ivasha.

"Worry not, Princess Ivasha. Now that you and I are together, His Majesty is my father-in-law. How can I possibly hurt him?" Tigerus smirked before he carried Ivasha down.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2744 -

Chapter 2744 Take Care

Ivasha closed her eyes, and tears rolled down her cheeks. "If there is a next life, I hope I can be by your side, Kai." She believed it was impossible for her to stay with Kai after she was defiled by Tigerus.

"Ivasha! Ivasha!" Yuven shouted as he watched his daughter get carried away by the traitor, but it was useless. Soon, Ivasha and Tigerus vanished from his sight.

Tears streamed down his cheeks. Because of my mistake, my daughter is forced to submit to Tigerus! Yuven lost his will to live. He turned to Xandros and said, "Kill me, Xandros!"

"Don't worry. I won't let you live. It must feel awful to be betrayed by someone you trust most, huh? I wonder how happy my father will be once he learns that I've taken control of Imperial Beast City without sacrificing a single soldier." Xandros said proudly.

At that moment, a cold look flashed past Julius' eyes. A terrifying aura exploded from his body, creating a tornado that swept many people to the ground, including Xandros because he was unprepared.

"Let's go, Your Majesty!" Julius grabbed Yuven's wrist and leaped off the wall. Earlier, Julius didn't act when Yuven and Ivasha were still around because he didn't know who to save. Additionally, his own daughter was still in the palace.

Since Ivasha had been brought away by Tigerus, and Yuven was in danger, Julius decided to save his king. Of course, he knew that his daughter would probably be doomed once he saved Yuven, but he had no other choice.

"Godd*mmmit! Where do you think you're going?" Xandros stood up and leaped downward. "Get them!" In the blink of an eye, countless beast soldiers pursued Yuven and Julius..

"Leave, Your Majesty! I'll hold them back!" exclaimed Julius. With a grim expression, Yuven bade Julius goodbye. "Take care, Julius."

He knew that Julius was planning to sacrifice himself to buy time. Julius nodded before facing Xandros and his men. Yuven had lost a great amount of his strength. He couldn't run fast. Right then, the bone-chilling howls of wolves could be heard..

Leifr had appeared with thousands of Demon Wolves. "Your Majesty, please ride on my back!" said Leifr after he transformed into a gigantic Demon Wolf.

Yuven was overjoyed to see Leifr and swiftly climbed up. Following Leifr's growl, thousands of Demon Wolves charged toward Xandros army.

He was asking his clan members to buy time for him and Yuven to escape. The Demon Wolves weren't as powerful as the guards inside Imperial Beast City.

Additionally, those guards were joined by the soldiers Xandros had brought with him. In total, their forces had over ten thousand men.

Meanwhile, Yuven only had Julius and thousands of Demon Wolves. It was pretty clear who was going to win. Despite that, neither Julius nor the Demon Wolves retreated.

Yuven was swiftly brought far away the city by Leifr. Seeing that, Xandros roared, attempting, to pursue his target, but Julius forced him back. Xandros glowered at Julius and turned to his men. "Get Tigerus and kill the rest of them!"

Battle cries and the sounds of war reverberated outside of Imperial Beast City. At that moment, Tigerus had eagerly settled Ivasha on his bed.

Ivasha shut her eyes, unwilling to look at Tigerus. She gritted her teeth and braced herself for the inevitable.

Since she still believed her father's life was in Tigerus' hands, she didn't dare to resist. She was afraid that if she did, her father would be in danger.

Tigerus grew excited when he stared at the motionless Ivasha.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2745 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2745-"Rest assured that I'll be incredibly gentle with you for your first time, Princess Ivasha."

While saying that, Tigerus started removing Ivasha's clothes.

Tears streamed down Ivasha's face like a faucet, but he turned a blind eye to her distress. Still as thrilled as ever, he slowly stripped her.

Just when she was almost wholly divested of the last of her clothes to reveal the most intimate part of her, a guard barged in in a panic.

"Bad news, General! There's a problem!" the guard shouted frantically.

A frown marred Tigerus' countenance. Having been interrupted in his fun, he swiftly kicked the man out of the room.

On the heels of that, he stalked out and cursed, "D*mn it! What's the matter? Don't you know that I'm currently busy?"

"King Yuven has been rescued by Mr. Poulsen, General. Mr. Xandros sent me to summon you to give chase right away!" the guard answered.

Upon hearing that, Tigerus hastily glanced back into the room. Seeing that Ivasha did not overhear that, he replied, "I'll go now. Stay here and keep watch. If Princess Ivasha escapes, I'll kill you."

"Don't worry, General," the guard hurriedly assured.

With that, Tigerus left. When Ivasha had waited a long time without any more advances from the man, she slowly got up and put her clothes back on.

She had no idea why he left in a hurry, so she darted her eyes toward the outside of the room.

At that precise moment, someone suddenly pushed open the room door. A girl about her age then rushed in.

"Princess Ivasha!" the girl cried out.

"Why are you here, Lilianna?"

Ivasha gaped at the girl with surprise written all over her face.

That girl, Lilianna Poulsen, was Julius' daughter and grew up with Ivasha. Ivasha was very much curious about why she was at Tigerus' residence.

"King Yuven has already escaped from the city, Princess Ivasha. You should also follow suit. Otherwise, Tigerus will be back in a while!" Lilianna urged.

As soon as Ivasha heard that Yuven had escaped, joy flooded her. "Flee with me, then. Tigerus has already taken over Imperial Beast City, and they'll never let you off the hook!"

However, Lilianna shook her head.

"I can't leave, Princess Ivasha. The guards outside will check on you frequently. If they discover the room empty, they'll undoubtedly hunt you down. Let's swap our clothes now. I'll stay in the room and dupe the guards while you make a run for it immediately from the back entrance. Someone is waiting for you there!"

Hearing that, Ivasha quickly objected, "No, I can't do that. At that time, you'll..."

She trailed off, but they both knew that if Tigerus were to return and find her gone, he would definitely take his anger out on Lilianna.

“Don’t hesitate anymore, Princess Ivasha! We’re running out of time!”

As Lilianna spoke, she swapped clothes with Ivasha and sent the latter out through the back entrance.

Right then, the forest a near distance from Imperial Beast City was littered with dead bodies.

Julius was covered in blood, but his aura kept rising. Despite being littered with wounds, he remained standing to buy Yuven more time to escape.

Fury blazed in Tigerus and Xandros’ eyes as they glowered at the man. After all, Yuven would never have managed to flee if it were not for him.

“Kill him!” Tigerus roared.

Subsequently, he again led his men into charging forward. Xandros did the same, swinging his sword while at it.

Although Julius’ capabilities far surpassed theirs, he ultimately fell in the face of the legion attacking him.

His dead body lay among thousands of Demon Wolves in the forest.

By then, Yuven had long since been carried hundreds of miles away by Leifr.

“Where should we go right now, Your Majesty?”

Leifr was at a loss as to their destination since they obviously could not stay in the beast race’s territory anymore in their current situation.

However, if they were to go to the human race’s territory, they might be picked on if their presence were discovered.

“We’ll go to Emerald Cauldron Sect.”

Yuven knew that Kai was at Emerald Cauldron Sect.

It was only by seeking Kai out and having the man remove the poison within him that he would have the capability to take Imperial Beast City back.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2746 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2746-Meanwhile, Tigerus was hopping mad in Imperial Beast City because Yuven had escaped.

“Take it easy, Mighty Tigerus. King Yuven has been poisoned, so he’s worthless. He won’t be a threat anymore. That poison of mine can only be neutralized with a special antidote. No one else will be able to offset it!” Xandros said.

“I’m not afraid that he’ll come back for revenge. I’m just worried that Princess Ivasha will rebel upon learning that he has fled. If she were to commit suicide, I wouldn’t get anything!”

It turned out that Tigerus was afraid Ivasha would take her own life.

The only reason she was obeying him and offering no resistance was that Yuven was in his hands. Thus, she dared not disobey.

However, if she were to learn that her father had gotten away, she would have no qualms about acting up anymore.

“Don’t worry about that. So long as we keep silent about it, she won’t possibly know,” Xandros declared.

“You’re right!” Nodding, Tigerus swung his gaze to the guards behind him and ordered, “Keep in mind that the lot of you aren’t allowed to leak a word of King Yuven’s escape. Otherwise, don’t blame me for showing you no mercy!”

“Understood!” all the guards replied posthaste.

“Here I come, Princess Ivasha!”

A salacious smile bloomed on Tigerus’ face, and he eagerly sprinted toward his residence.

Upon entering the room, he saw that Ivasha was already lying on the bed on her side, her back to him.

At the sight of her lying on the bed voluntarily, he was over the moon.

“I didn’t expect you to have climbed into bed so quickly, Princess Ivasha. Did you grow impatient after waiting for such a long time? I’m coming right now, and I promise to grant you immeasurable pleasure!”

He hastily stripped his clothes and lunged at the bed. Hugging her, he braced himself to make his move.

Yet, the moment he glimpsed her face, he was entirely stunned.

“Why are you here?”

Sheer shock showed on Tigerus’ face, and he could not fathom how Ivasha had turned into Julius’ daughter.

“I’m going to kill you, Tigerus, you traitor!”

Without warning, Lilianna whipped out a dagger and stabbed it at Tigerus with all her might.

Tigerus was completely caught off guard. Seeing that she wanted to kill him, he promptly rolled off the bed. Still, the dagger left a bloody gash on his arm.

As he stared at the wound on his arm, towering rage consumed him, and his eyes blazed with fury.

“Where’s Princess Ivasha, brat?”

Taking a step forward, he slapped the dagger in Lilianna’s hand away before grabbing her by the neck.

Lilianna had no hope of resisting when it came to him since the gap between their capabilities was too vast.

“Princess Ivasha has already fled, so you can forget about touching her. Karma will get you, you monster! Pah!”

Shooting daggers at the man, she spat at him hard.

Tigerus glared at her, his eyes bloodshot in his rage.

The animalistic side of him had been unleashed, and he needed to satisfy his urges then.

“Since you let Princess Ivasha go, brat, I’m going to use you as an outlet for my pent-up desires instead!”

While saying that, he shoved her onto the bed.

Lilianna desperately tried to resist but to no avail.

Soon, she was stripped down to her birthday suit. Tigerus proceeded to throw himself on her.

An hour later, Lilianna stared at the man with murderous intent brimming in her eyes.

Tigerus, on the other hand, wore a gratified expression on his face.

“I’m going to kill you!”

Lilianna abruptly launched herself at Tigerus. On the heels of that, her body rapidly ballooned.

She planned to self-destruct and drag him down with her.

With her innocence gone, she no longer had the courage to continue living.

“Hmph! You even want to self-destruct?”

Tigerus snorted coldly before landing a blow on her. Blood spurted out of Lilianna’s mouth, and she died on the spot.

“Even if you escape to the ends of the world, Princess Ivasha, I’ll definitely catch you!”

A feral gleam glinted in Tigerus’ eyes. With that, he led his men out of the city in pursuit of Ivasha and started hunting her.

□

□

□

The Mans Decree Chapter 2747 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2747- Pills From The Medicinal Treasury

Meanwhile, at Emerald Cauldron Sect, Viola had given Kai the best pills while looking after him throughout the past few days, but he had yet to regain consciousness.

That huge battle had left Kai almost completely drained.

“Ms. Warwick, has Mr. Chance woken up yet?” Ghaylen asked softly.

Viola shook her head with a solemn expression. “Not yet. I can’t believe his body is still so weak even after consuming so many pills. I’m not sure how much more his body can take. Had it been anyone else, their body would most likely have exploded after consuming so many high-level pills.”

Ghaylen let out a sigh and said, “Ms. Warwick, Emerald Cauldron Sect has run out of high-level pills. I’ve sent some men to collect herbs from the mountains and to purchase medicinal herbs from various sects as well as prestigious families. However, it would still take time to synthesize high-level pills, so Mr. Chance will simply have to wait.”

Viola fell silent after hearing Ghaylen’s words. “Ghaylen, I want you to get the pills from the medicinal treasury and feed them to Kai.”

Ghaylen gasped in shock when he heard that. “But the rules forbid anyone from consuming those pills! We are only allowed to visit the medicinal treasury to study them! If we give him those pills, then Emerald Cauldron Sect may no longer have research materials left, which will lead to a decline in our alchemy skills. The sect will probably be gone in less than a few hundred years if that happens!”

As it turned out, the pills in the medicinal treasury were strictly for research purposes only, so consumption of those pills was absolutely forbidden.

“This isn’t the time to be worrying about that! I’m the sect leader, so I call the shots around here! I hereby order you to go fetch me the pills from the medicinal treasury!” Viola ordered solemnly.

Ghaylen had no choice but to do as he was told. He returned shortly after with three black-colored pills in hand.

Those were the most precious pills from the medicinal treasury.

Viola quickly took the pills and got ready to feed them to Kai.

“As you know, Ms. Warwick, every medicine has its side effects. While these pills may be from Emerald Cauldron Sect, we don’t know the side effects they may cause. They might just turn out to be far too potent for Mr. Chance’s weak body!” Ghaylen warned her.

Viola hesitated for a brief moment before stuffing one of the pills into Kai’s mouth.

“It shouldn’t be a problem if I feed them to him one at a time,” Viola said while observing Kai’s condition.

Kai’s eyes remained tightly shut, and he showed no signs of movement, but a powerful whirlpool inside his elixir field was absorbing the energy aggressively.

Within seconds, the whirlpool had completely absorbed the energy from the high-level pill and slowly increased in size.

Kai’s spiritual energy level, too, began to recover at an alarming rate.

Even so, Kai was still unconscious and showed no visible response.

As Viola fed him another pill, the whirlpool within his elixir field slowly disappeared while his demonic energy started increasing.

Seeing as Kai was still unresponsive, Viola proceeded to feed him the last pill.

That pill caused Kai’s beast race aura to start intensifying.

After growing rapidly as a result of the three pills, the aura of all three races within Kai’s body fused within his elixir field and became the Power of Three.

Even the Power of Dragons was instantly charged to the maximum, which showed just how powerful the three pills were.

Kai’s body began to show some changes as the Power of Three flowed through it. A faint glow slowly enveloped him.

“Ms. Warwick, something is happening to Mr. Chance’s body!” Ghaylen exclaimed happily upon noticing the light.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2748-Breakthrough

Viola's face lit up with joy when she noticed Kai's body responding to the pills. She stared at him excitedly while waiting for him to wake up.

As they watched, Kai's body slowly levitated before a seemingly endless amount of aura exploded from him.

There were three auras in total. The first was golden, the second was black, and the third was blue in color.

Like gigantic snakes, they moved in circles around Kai, occasionally coiling and intertwining with each other.

At the same time, in the skies outside, a dark cloud came floating over and slowly descended upon them.

As though they had realized something was amiss, Ghaylen and Viola quickly ran outside to have a look.

They both gasped in shock when they saw the dark cloud above.

"T-This is probably the lightning tribulation cloud! I think Mr. Chance is about to experience a breakthrough!" Ghaylen exclaimed.

Everyone was shocked when they heard that Kai would have a breakthrough.

As Kai had just achieved the Body Fusion Realm, he would only reach Second Level Body Fusion Realm even if he had a breakthrough.

It seemed a little ridiculous for a small breakthrough in cultivation level to summon a lightning tribulation cloud.

For most cultivators, they would not necessarily be able to summon lightning tribulation clouds even when making huge breakthroughs.

Although lightning tribulation clouds were dangerous, one could benefit tremendously if one's body underwent the lightning tribulation during the breakthrough process.

Boom!

A deafening thunderclap echoed throughout the area as lightning started gathering in the cloud.

"Everyone step back! Hurry!" Ghaylen shouted when he saw that, prompting everyone to get away from the building Kai was in.

A bolt of lightning came down from the sky right as everyone backed away.

The building was instantly blasted into pieces after being struck, leaving Kai's body exposed as he continued to levitate in the air.

Enveloped in the three auras with different colors, Kai's body was repeatedly struck by the lightning tribulation.

After what seemed like forever, the lightning tribulation cloud disappeared before everyone's eyes, much to their surprise.

In the next instant, Kai slowly opened his eyes, and the three auras merged before returning to his body.

The next thing everyone knew, an incredibly powerful and terrifying aura spread out through the area in all directions.

Everyone from Emerald Cauldron Sect stared at Kai as though he was some kind of deity.

Even Ghaylen felt an urge to kneel before him.

"Kai! You're finally awake!" Viola exclaimed excitedly as she leaped into the air and threw herself at Kai.

Kai quickly retracted his aura and caught Viola, who had tears in her eyes as she wrapped her arms tightly around his neck.

Before Kai could even react, Viola gave him a kiss on the lips.

Surprised that Viola would behave so boldly in front of Emerald Cauldron Sect's disciples, Kai was caught off guard and didn't know how to respond.

Ghaylen awkwardly cleared his throat and had the disciples look away by saying, "Ahem! Everyone, please turn around and close your eyes!"

After slowly floating back down to the ground, Kai hurriedly pushed Viola away.

Instead of getting angry at him, Viola had joy written all over her face as she uttered, "You've been unconscious for days, Kai! Do you have any idea how worried I was?"

"How long was I out?" Kai asked.

He didn't think that battle would leave him so drained that he would be unconscious for days.

Kai checked his elixir field to feel his power, only to gasp in shock when he saw that he had made a breakthrough.

"I actually made a breakthrough?" he shouted in surprise.

I know that, for me, it would require a huge amount of resources just to make a small breakthrough, and the resources required would only increase as my cultivation level gets higher. What I don't understand is how I made a breakthrough while I was unconscious. Where did all those resources come from?

The Mans Decree Chapter 2749 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2749- Alchemist Fair

"Ms. Warwick fed you all of Emerald Cauldron Sect's high-level pills while you were unconscious, Mr. Chance. You only woke up after consuming the three precious pills from the medicinal treasury too," Ghaylen explained.

The three pills?

Kai tried his best to recall what happened. Although he was technically unconscious, he could still feel the changes that took place in his body.

There were three types of auras intensifying within my body. Could that have anything to do with the three pills?

“What were those pills, Mr. Samoll?” Kai asked.

“I’m not too sure. Those three pills have been there for a really long time. We’ve researched them for many years but never managed to identify their properties. Now that Emerald Cauldron Sect can no longer produce even a decent pill, I’m not sure how we’ll participate in the upcoming Alchemist Fair...” Ghaylen replied with a helpless sigh.

Kai froze. “Alchemist Fair? What’s that?”

Viola quickly stepped forward and stopped Ghaylen by saying, “That’s enough, Ghaylen. All that matters is that Kai has regained consciousness.”

Ghaylen quickly shut his mouth and said nothing more.

Turning toward Viola, Kai said, “Thank you very much for saving me, Ms. Warwick. You even used up so much of Emerald Cauldron Sect’s resources in the process. Please let me know if you guys have run into any trouble. I’m technically a member of Emerald Cauldron Sect too, so there’s no reason for you to keep secrets from me.”

“I just don’t want you to get worried, that’s all. As for the Alchemist Fair, we’ll just sit it out this time!” Viola stated with a faint smile.

Upon hearing that, Ghaylen wanted to say something in response but held his tongue in the end.

Of course, Kai had noticed the change in Ghaylen’s expression as well, but he knew Ghaylen wouldn’t dare tell him the truth in front of Viola.

“I’d like to get some fresh air after being unconscious for so long,” Kai said.

“I’ll go with you, Mr. Chance!” Ghaylen instantly offered.

“Don’t go spouting nonsense, Ghaylen! Do you hear me?” Viola reminded him.

Ghaylen nodded and headed out with Kai.

“What is that Alchemist Fair that you were talking about, Mr. Samoll?” Kai asked as soon as they stepped out the door.

Ghaylen cautiously glanced at Viola to make sure she wasn't following behind them before answering softly, “Jipsdale, which is about two thousand kilometers away from here, hosts an Alchemist Fair once every year. As you know, being an alchemist is a highly respected career in this country. Although Emerald Cauldron Sect is the only sect that focuses on alchemy in this area, there are dozens of sects in the Southwest Region that practice alchemy. Every year, these sects will gather in Jipsdale and compare their alchemy skills. They will also put their best pills on display to showcase their alchemy skills and possibly trade the pills for some resources. The head of the Alchemist Fair will also gift the champion of the competition a ton of resources as a reward. Now, all of Emerald Cauldron Sect's high-level pills have been used up, and we don't even have many resources left, so I'm afraid we won't be able to participate in the upcoming Alchemist Fair.”

When Ghaylen was finished speaking, he let out a helpless sigh.

“Don't worry, Mr. Samoll. I can participate in the Alchemist Fair this year. I won't let Emerald Cauldron Sect down!” Kai said. It was only fair and logical that he involves himself in this matter. After all, those pills were all given to him.

Ghaylen broke into a smile when he heard that. He was well aware of Kai's outstanding alchemy skills and knew the younger man possessed the Divine Cauldron, which was a legendary item when it came to alchemy.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2750 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2750-Kai and Ghaylen's conversation was interrupted when one of Emerald Cauldron Sect's disciples came running over.

“Hold it right there! Where are you going in such a hurry?” Ghaylen called out to the disciple.

“An outsider has requested to see Ms. Warwick, so I'm heading over to inform her, Mr. Samoll!” replied the disciple.

“Who is that person? Why are you panicking so much?” Ghaylen asked with a displeased frown.

“He introduced himself as King Yuven of Imperial Beast City, and he says he's here to see Mr. Chance!” said the disciple.

“King Yuven?” Kai was surprised to hear that name.
Why has Yuven come all the way to Emerald Cauldron Sect just to see me?
Did something happen to Imperial Beast City?
With that in mind, Kai asked anxiously, “Where is he?”
“He’s at the front gate. I didn’t know who he was, so I came to inform Ms. Warwick about him.”
The disciple had come running anxiously because he didn’t personally know Yuven, but almost everyone in the area had heard about the king.

As such, they didn’t dare keep Yuven waiting if he truly was who he proclaimed to be.
After hearing the disciple’s words, Kai immediately made his way to the front gate. Ghaylen followed closely behind.
Upon arriving at the front gate, Kai saw Yuven pacing anxiously outside. Beside him was none other than Leifr.
As Leifr ruled over the Demon Wolves outside Imperial Beast City, it was rare for him to enter the city unless summoned.
Kai had a bad feeling in his gut when he saw Leifr standing next to Yuven. Yuven’s eyes lit up with joy when he spotted Kai. He was about to rush through the gate when the disciples standing guard stopped him.
“Let him in!” Kai swiftly called out to them.
The disciples quickly stepped aside when they realized it was Kai speaking. Although Kai didn’t hold a high position in Emerald Cauldron Sect, the disciples all respected him enough to obey his commands.
They knew that they would most likely have died long ago if it weren’t for Kai, and Emerald Cauldron Sect would surely have been destroyed as well.
“Mr. Chance!”
Yuven’s eyes teared up the moment he saw Kai.
“Did something happen, Yuven?” Kai asked.
Yuven glanced about and hesitated to speak.
“It’s fine. Mr. Samoll isn’t an outsider, so you can go ahead and tell me what happened,” Kai reassured him.
Yuven nodded and told him how Tigerus and Xandros had teamed up to poison him and Ivasha before taking over Imperial Beast City.
An intense murderous aura burst out of Kai’s body when he heard that.

What had him even more worried was that Tigerus was still holding Ivasha captive.
“Those b*stards...” Kai gritted his teeth in anger as he told Yuven, “Let me see what kind of poison they used on you.”
Yuven nodded and followed Kai into Emerald Cauldron Sect.

“Now that you’ve arrived at your destination, King Yuven, I shall head back and try to gather more information on Princess Ivasha,” said Leifr.

“All right. Stay safe!” Yuven reminded him.

With a nod, Leifr left after saying goodbye to Kai.

Kai then led Yuven straight to his residence.

Viola, who had just stepped out of the main hall, froze in shock when she saw Kai bringing a stranger over.

Likewise, Yuven paused in his tracks when he spotted Viola.

“Ms. Warwick, this is King Yuven of Imperial Beast City. Yuven, this is Viola Warwick, the sect leader of Emerald Cauldron Sect,” Kai said, introducing the two.

Viola quickly stepped forward and greeted him politely, “Welcome to Emerald Cauldron Sect, King Yuven!”

Yuven responded in kind.