

The Mans Decree Chapter 2781 -

While riding on one of the three wyverns, Kai and the Three Bandits quickly caught up with Viola and the others. Kai instructed the wyvern to land and let them off. Jipsdale isn't too far away. If we ride a wyvern to Jipsdale, we'll surely attract too much attention!

"Thank you guys so much!" Kai stroked the wyvern's head. The wyvern let out a roar in response and flew off. "Are you all right, Kai?" Viola was heartbroken when she saw how disheveled Kai looked.

"I'm fine!" Kai smiled. "Mr. Chance, your body is so weak! What happened?" Ghaylen asked in confusion, Mr. Chance isn't harmed physically, but his aura is weak!

"Mr. Chance became like this because he plucked some heavenly thunder fruits. The lightning bolts discharged by the heavenly thunder tree were insanely powerful! It struck down whoever was plucking those heavenly thunder fruits!" Crixus uttered.

"What? Have you really plucked the heavenly thunder fruits, Mr. Chance?" Yuven asked in disbelief. Thunderhawk is a Tribulator, and Mr. Chance is merely at Second Level Body Fusion Realm! How did he manage to pluck those heavenly thunder fruits? Furthermore, thunder and lightning from the heavenly thunder tree are so powerful that they can even heavily injure a cultivator at Top Level Body Fusion Realm! Yet, apart from a weakened aura, Mr. Chance is unscathed!

Kai nodded. "I got three heavenly thunder fruits! If not for the horrifyingly powerful heavenly thunder tree, I would've gotten more!"

Everyone apart from Yuven was unfazed. After all, they didn't know how strong the heavenly thunder tree was.

Yuven's eyes widened as he simply couldn't believe his ears. "Did you say you got your hands on three heavenly thunder fruits, Mr. Chance? That's unbelievable! Didn't Thunderhawk stop you?"

"Thunderhawk wasn't even there! I think he has gone to Jipsdale. That was why I could get those fruits," Kai said.

“Even if Thunderhawk wasn’t present, he would’ve surely assigned a Bloodthirsty Thunderhawk to guard the cave, no? Also, the power of the thunder and lightning from the heavenly thunder tree had to be frightening! How did you keep yourself safe?” Yuven couldn’t fathom how Kai managed to endure the lightning bolts.

Kai told Yuven what had happened prior to that, and he even told him how he had used Tyrone to stall the Nesser family.

Yuven was utterly impressed by Kai. Mr. Chance is bold and intelligent! He doesn’t just rush into things blindly! Mr. Chance surviving the lightning bolts from the heavenly thunder tree is nothing short of a miracle!

“Mr. Chance, you mustn’t let anyone know you have plucked those heavenly thunder fruits. If words spread during the Alchemist Fair, we might get in trouble!” Ghaylen reminded Kai.

“That’s right. We must keep it a secret. If Thunderhawk finds out about it, he’ll surely come after us. We’ll just keep it between us. Don’t tell anybody about it!” Yuven said.

“Don’t worry. The three of us won’t spill the beans. However, those two elders from Stellaris Sect know about Mr. Chance plucking those heavenly thunder fruits. If they’re also going to Jipsdale, they might tell everyone about it,” Crixus said.

“That’ll be troublesome! Perhaps we should camp outside Jipsdale and wait for those two elders from Stellaris Sect. We’ll kill them the moment we see them! That way, they’ll carry the secret to their graves!” An icy look swirled in Viola’s eyes. Evidently, Viola was willing to do whatever it took to keep Kai safe.

“Let’s not worry about them. Tyrone might’ve already been eaten by the Bloodthirsty Thunderhawk. Let’s get to Jipsdale!” Kai said. The others nodded in response, and they started making their way toward Jipsdale together.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2782 -

Meanwhile, Sigurd became the person in charge of the entire Emerald Cauldron Sect since Kai and the others left. As it was his first time in a role of authority, he was filled with anxiety.

“Mr. Brink, there is a young woman outside the sect, asking to meet Mr. Chance,” one of Emerald Cauldron Sect’s disciples reported to Sigurd.

“A young woman?” Sigurd furrowed his brows and immediately got up to walk outside. As the young woman was asking to meet Kai, he dared not make her wait.

Even though Kai was not around, if this young woman was genuinely a friend of his, Sigurd’s delay in meeting her would spell trouble for him.

The moment Sigurd stepped outside, he noticed how shabby the young woman was dressed, how pale her face was, and how she had several wounds on her body.

“Who are you? Why are you looking for Mr. Chance?” Sigurd asked. “I am Ivasha, the princess of Imperial Beast City. I’m currently getting pursuit by a group of people,” Ivasha said to him weakly.

Sigurd froze. He didn’t expect the disheveled young woman before him to be the princess of Imperial Beast City.

It was not too long ago when Yuven had come to look for Kai at Emerald Cauldron Sect looking unkempt as well. When Sigurd recalled that, he realized bad things must have happened in Imperial Beast City.

“Princess Ivasha, Mr. Chance is not around. He has gone to attend the Alchemist Fair,” Sigurd informed when he recollected himself. “He’s not around?” Ivasha muttered in surprise, not knowing what to do.

“Princess Ivasha, although Mr. Chance isn’t around right now, please recover here while you wait for him to return. He has gone to the Alchemist Fair with your father. I think he wants to cure your father of the poison in his system,” Sigurd said. Ivasha visibly relaxed.

She nodded and said, “Thank you.”

“Don’t mention it.” Sigurd quickly invited Ivasha into Emerald Cauldron Sect, then let her take a shower and gave her a change of clothes. Once Ivasha washed up, her youthful, beautiful appearance returned.

Her beauty stunned Sigurd, but he knew he should not bear any indecent thoughts toward her, for she was Kai’s friend.

“Can you contact Kai now? I’d like to talk to them so that they don’t need to worry about me,” Ivasha said. She wanted to call Kai to alleviate her father’s worries.

Otherwise, Yuven would have still presumed that Tigerus still had her trapped in Imperial Beast City. Perhaps he might even think that she had lost her most precious thing to Tigerus.

“When Mr. Chance left, he left behind a communication device. I can contact him with that,” Sigurd said. “That’s wonderful. Please contact him as quickly as you can,” Ivasha said excitedly.

Sigurd nodded, then took out the communication device and muttered the activation spell before squeezing it. Soon, Kai’s voice rang out. “Sigurd, did something happen at the base?”

After all, it had not been long since they left, but Sigurd was already contacting him with the communication device. He reckoned something must have happened.

“Mr. Chance, Princess Ivasha is at the base, and she wishes to talk to you,” Sigurd said. Kai was taken aback when he heard that Ivasha was the one who wanted to converse with him. Right then, Yuven’s agitated voice could be heard. “Ivasha? Is Ivasha really there?”

Upon hearing her father’s voice, Ivasha could not stop her tears from flowing. “Yes, Father, it’s me. I’ve escaped from the city. You don’t need to worry about me anymore.”

Yuven could not make the words leave his throat when he heard his daughter’s voice. “Sigurd, you have to protect Princess Ivasha during our absence. Do you understand?” Kai exclaimed.

“Of course,” Sigurd swore with a nod. Ivasha and Kai briefly exchanged a few more words before her voice faded off. There was a time limit for the use of the communication: device.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2783 -

Knowing that Ivasha was safe and sound brought a sense of relief to both Kai and Yuven. They hastened to Jipsdale. Just as they were only a short distance away from their destination, they encountered another group of people.

They all donned the same attire, and the one leading the group was a thin elderly man. It seemed that the other group was headed for Jipsdale as well.

“Mr. Samoll, do you know them?” Kai asked. If they were heading for the Alchemist Fair, then Ghaylen would surely know them. After all, they were all alchemists.

However, Ghaylen glanced at them briefly and shook his head. “I don’t. It doesn’t seem like they’re alchemists. Did you notice something strange about them?”

Kai only smiled and shook his head. He did not notice anything odd about them, but he could sense that their auras were unlike those of cultivators.

But at the same time, he could not tell what exactly was different, and that was why he had asked Ghaylen that question.

When the other group noticed Kai’s group, they, too, studied them before walking past them. In fact, one of them kept looking at Kai’s group, a pleading look in their eyes.

Right as Kai intended to study that person closer, the other group had quickly distanced themselves, seemingly intentionally. Kai could only knit his brows as he watched them leave.

“What’s the matter, Kai? Was there something wrong with that group?” Viola asked upon seeing Kai’s expression. “There’s someone who seems to be asking for help,” Kai said.

“Asking for help?” Viola blinked in surprise. “Those people are clearly from the same sect. Why would they ask for our help? You must have made a mistake.”

“Maybe,” Kai mumbled, flashing her a smile. After covering some distance, they decided to stop for a break. Jipsdale was not too far now, so there was no need for them to rush.

While they were resting, Kai disappeared. He could not dismiss the look in that person’s eyes, which was clearly a plea for help. Furthermore, the group’s auras confused Kai. In no time, he caught up with the other group.

Likewise, they were resting under a tree. Kai raked his gaze across the people, hoping to find the one who had sought help from him, but he found no traces of them.

Right then, he heard soft voices from his left, so he tiptoed in that direction. He discovered that the one who cast him a pleading look earlier was with the elderly man who led the group.

Before them was a cauldron, wisps of white smoke escaping it. It was obvious that they were practicing alchemy.

“Why are they practicing alchemy in a place like this?” Kai was surprised. He could not understand why they were performing alchemy in the middle of nowhere.

Just as he was about to discover what kind of pill they were trying to create in the cauldron, the thin elderly man abruptly whipped his head in Kai’s direction, staring at that spot with stern eyes. Kai was taken aback. He had already concealed his aura, yet the elderly man had still noticed.

Just as he was about to leave the place, the thin elderly man, Vinicus, demanded, “Who are you? Since you’ve come here, you might as well show yourself.”

Hearing that, Kai stepped out of his hiding spot. The one who had asked for Kai’s help earlier stiffened when he saw Kai.

“Why are you sneaking around, kid?” Vinicus asked coldly, looking at Kai.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2784 -

“I’m strolling around. This isn’t your house, so it’s not as if I’m not allowed to wander around,” Kai replied, looking relaxed.

When the elderly man heard that, he furrowed his brows and said, “This is my territory now, so get lost right away, or I’ll show you no mercy.” He released waves of murderous intent toward Kai, seemingly wanting to frighten Kai into retreating.

To his surprise, Kai appeared completely fearless. He even had a smile playing on his lips as he said, “Do you think you can stake claim to this land just by saying it's yours? Why don't you show me the official papers stating ownership of the land?"

"Kid, you're just asking for it!" Vinicus' aura began to rise up. When the man at the side noticed that, he quickly leaped forward and darted toward Kai.

"Die!" The punches the man rained on Kai were so swift they became afterimages that enshrouded Kai. Kai inhaled sharply, baffled by the situation.

The man had cast a helpless pleading look in his direction earlier, and yet, he was now so ruthless to him when he had come here to check things out. The second Vinicus saw the man jumping into the fight, he smirked and retracted his aura.

Kai did not know what his opponent was trying to do, but he would not stand in his spot like a sitting duck when he was under attack. Just as the other man's fist was about to reach his eyes, Kai shot his palm out..

His opponent was only a cultivator at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm. He was no threat to Kai. With a simple attack, Kai managed to make him retreat.

However, when he shot out his palm, he realized with a start that, despite the man's seemingly powerful punch, the punch barely held any power in it. In fact, it could be described as weak.

Kai immediately figured out that his opponent did not truly want to hurt him, so he hastily withdrew his strength and moved backward. By then, his opponent was already right in front of him, moving his arms and fists, forcing him backward.

However, each of his opponent's punches packed little strength, so Kai played along with his act, making it seem as though he was caught off guard by every punch and had no choice but to retreat.

If Kai had not realized what was going on quickly enough earlier and delivered his attack at its full power, he would have sent his opponent flying.

"Leave at once, or you'll die. These people are Demonic Cultivators. You can't afford to mess with them," the man whispered while attacking Kai.

“Demonic Cultivators?” Kai was stunned. No wonder I sense something strange about their auras, but there aren’t any traces of demon auras on them. “What’s going on?”

“Don’t ask. It can’t be explained in a few words. Hurry up and leave this place. I can’t believe you would come after them despite only being at Second Level Body Fusion Realm. I’m sure you’re heading toward Jipsdale too, right? When you arrive, you have to tell the count of Jipsdale that these Demonic Cultivators are also heading to the area. They’re planning to steal pills at the Alchemist Fair. You have to tell the count about this!” the man said somberly.

It was at that moment Kai realized why the man had abruptly attacked him. The man had thought that he would be easily defeated by Vinicus, so he quickly started the fight to save him.

“Don’t underestimate me. Defeating that old man will be a piece of cake for me” Kai said. to him, a small smile on his face.

Then, he promptly grabbed the man’s wrist. Before the man could react to that, Kai had already restrained him.

The shock was written across the man’s face. After all, he was a cultivator at Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm. Defeating a cultivator like Kai would be extremely easy, yet Kai had swiftly restrained him, leaving him no room to defend himself.
