Boss Chapter 1799

Chapter 1799 Head Over

Heels in Love Nicole smiled. "Mr. Sage, long-term endorsement won't be good for your image transformation. It's also easy for the company's products to form a fixed pattern.

Whether or not you can continue to be the spokesperson of Stanton Corporation will still need to be assessed by the company." Harvey's eyes were dull. He pursed his lips and did not speak. Nicole did not think that Harvey would look so disappointed because of an endorsement.

Harvey had at least two dozen endorsements from big international first-tier brands. He should not value Stanton Corporation so much in comparison. Harvey smiled with his head bowed. 1 "Is that so? Alright then..."

Julie looked at the two people and felt a little awkward. She thought that Harvey was different from the past. He finally had the strength to speak to Nicole. As they were talking, the door outside suddenly opened. Daily new more chapters update on:

They thought that Fabian came back again, but it was not him. The three of them looked at the person who appeared at the door in surprise. Nicole could not hide the joy on her face." How did you get here?" Didn't she say that she would go back later? When Clayton saw Nicole, his eyes flickered with a bit of helplessness.

He loosened his tie and said, "I just happened to be in the vicinity for a meeting, so I came to pick you up." After that, Clayton nodded at Julie. When he saw Harvey, he paused for a second and nodded as well.

However, it was a completely different attitude from Julie's. Harvey felt it. When Harvey saw Clayton, he froze for a moment. "Mr. Sloan?" Everyone who had been in the entertainment circle for a while had more or less heard of Clayton Sloan, the bigwig of the investment circle.

It was said that investment in the entertainment industry was a sure thing. Those entertainment companies tried every possible way to get Clayton to notice them by sending him moneygifts. and women. However, Clayton was unfazed by it all.

He would only discuss projects with other investors and would not stay a minute more after business talks were over. Clayton also did not participate in any entertainment events. Due to this, no one could grasp Clayton's weaknesses and they did not know what he liked.

The only scandal Clayton had was with Nicole. However, news of this gradually quieted down. It seemed that the relationship between Clayton and Nicole had cooled off. However, Harvey suddenly realized something now that Clayton was here. Harvey also noticed the tacit gaze between Clayton and Nicole. Their relationship did not cool off. Instead, they became more intimate. Daily new more chapters update on:

They were head over heels in love. Clayton went over, leaned down, and kissed Nicole without any hesitation. Julie raised her eyebrows and pretended not to have seen it. She just felt sour. Harvey's face stiffened for a moment. Clayton casually sat next to Nicole and held her hand. "If I'd known that you wanted to come over, I would've brought you along when I came in the morning." Nicole smiled sheepishly. "It's a last-minute decision."

I came to find Julie to go shopping with me. Clayton asked, "So, are you guys done talking? Why don't we go for dinner together?" Julie subconsciously glanced at Harvey. This was the third person who asked Nicole out for dinner.

Clayton did not know what had just happened. Thus, he looked at Nicole very frankly. Nicole paused. "Aren't you busy in the evening? I'll be fine with Julie." 5) Clayton squeezed Nicole's hand, which was soft and delicate.

"Nothing can be more important than having dinner with you." 1) This made Nicole very happy. She did not hide the delight in her eyes. "Well, we still need to wait until Julie's done here." As soon as Julie heard this, she immediately stood up. "Understood."

I'll hurry." a Although Julie did not want to be a third wheel, she was already used to eating together with this couple. Julie glanced at Harvey and paused. "Harvey, I'll help you to remove your makeup."

Chapter 1800 Take Something

Fake Seriously If Harvey continued to sit here, he would probably suffocate to death. Harvey froze and hastily stood up. "Yes, please." Harvey nodded at the couple and did not make eye contact. He just turned around and went to the dressing room inside Clayton narrowed his eyes as he watched Harvey's departing back.

He put away the smile on his face "Harvey Sape? Are you guys close?" Nicole was playing with her phone. She shook her head "Not really. I think the last time we met was last year?" Clayton's expression eased and became gentle.

He gently pinched her small earlobe. "Look at you attracting attention everywhere Nicole clicked her tongue. Her eyes were watery as she looked at Clayton. "Is it my fault for being so pretty?" Nicole was innocent. Daily new more chapters update on:

She and Harvey had no relationship at all. Clayton was purely imagining things. However, this kind of explanation seemed superfluous. It was better not to say anything. In the dressing room, Harvey changed his clothes and came out.

He saw Julie leaning against the table, waiting for him. He paused and said, "I can do it myself." Julie smiled and took out the makeup remover pads that were already prepared. "It's okay. I'll do it." Harvey walked over and sat down without saying much.

He cooperated by slightly tilting his head and closing his eyes. Julie was very familiar with this process. Since the makeup artist was not around, she would help out. She looked at Harvey's calm face and admired him for his patience.

The next second, Harvey suddenly opened his eyes. His voice was very deep as she spoke. "They're together?" Julie's hands paused slightly. She looked at the door and saw the couple who were whispering to each other.

It looked like no one could get between them. "Of course." Harvey gritted his teeth. His gaze was cold, and a trace of reluctance crossed his eyes. Julie saw it but did not expose him. She laughed. "In this circle, it's easy to take something fake seriously, thinking that life is like a script.

But Nicole's not on the same level. Some people can only think about her, while others don't even have the right to have any thoughts about her. Well, just look at Eric Ferguson, who was so infatuated with her back then. Didn't he leave just the same?" Harvey stared into the distance, and his eyes flickered.

He moved his lips but finally did not say anything. Julie continued, "Clayton looks like a gentleman, but that's only if one doesn't touch his cheese. Otherwise, he won't show any mercy." 1) She already hinted so much. Daily new more chapters update on:

Even if Harvey was slow, he understood what Julie meant. Julie was advising him to turn back in time. Were his thoughts so obvious? Julie put down the things in her hand. "Okay. You can do the rest yourself."

1) Anyway, she already said what she could. Julie just hoped that Harvey would know what to do. In the beginning, Harvey was not doing well in the entertainment industry, but now, he had a perfect turnaround. During this process, Harvey's performance was noteworthy, humble, and polite.

However, gradually after more interaction, Julie noticed that Harvey had a kind of possessiveness toward the things and people that he liked. Julie admired Harvey's reserve and patience to be able to play such a good hand beautifully. It was just that Harvey better not affect Nicole's interests.

Julie looked at Harvey, who was sitting there stiffly in silence. She left the room and smiled at Nicole and Clayton who were outside. "Well, you two can go on a date. Kai just called me and told me to go find him."

Nicole was a little disgruntled, "Who does Kai think he is to order you around?!" Clayton looked at Nicole with a specious smile and pinched her cheek. "You still have the nerve to say this? Didn't I come here after you called?"
