

Chapter 561

"Hey, Phoebe, my training is finished. Are you home? I'll be right back." Tom smiled happily.

But Tom didn't hear Phoebe's voice, only to hear slightly rapid breathing.

Immediately, the smile on Tom's face froze because he could hear clearly that the breathing was not Phoebe's, but...

Soon, an old voice came from the phone. "Tom, it's me."

"Dad! Where's Phoebe? Is she okay?" Tom asked nervously.

It was James, his father-in-law, that answered the phone. When Tom heard James's voice, he immediately realized that something bad had happened to Phoebe!

James sighed and said, "I don't know. Just come over and visit her."

Hearing his words, Tom felt more nervous. He said quickly, "Okay, where are you? I'll be right there!"

James told him that they were in the Central Hospital in H City. After Tom hung up the phone, he rushed over as fast as he could.

He was a little flustered and confused. Before he went to practice with the door closed, he specially examined Phoebe's body and found that although Phoebe's life essence had been lost a lot, it could still support for a month. And the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit would mature in half a month. So he still had enough time to save Phoebe.

Could it be that Phoebe's sudden illness accelerated the loss of life essence?!

Tom did not dare to think further. He had to speed up and reach the Central Hospital in the shortest time possible.

Now his speed was faster than before, because of the closed-door training, his cultivation had improved even more. Although he had not reached the level of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, he was almost as strong as the master of Major Perfection Realm.

He was now at the peak of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, which could be called the invincible Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm!

In particular, through the training, he eliminated his mental demons, became stronger in spirit, and there were no negative factors that would make a bad influence on him. He even had the confidence to defeat the master of Major Perfection Realm!

In this way, he was more confident in seizing Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

He needed to be faster!

Tom didn't choose to drive, but went on foot. He was running on the high buildings in the city. In a short while, he reached the inpatient department of the Central Hospital. His appearance startled the family members who were smoking on the roof, thinking that they had seen a ghost.

Tom ignored their shock and quickly found Phoebe's ward. He took a deep breath, pushed open the door and walked in.

In the ward, it was very quiet. Tom immediately saw Phoebe lying on the bed. She was very quiet, as if she had fallen asleep.

With just one look, Tom's heart ached violently because he saw that Phoebe's hair was half white and she was even weaker.

If it weren't for Phoebe's face, Tom would have thought she was a woman in her fifties.

In just eleven days, Phoebe lost so much life essence and became so old.

In the ward, James and Elizabeth were also there. When they heard the door open, they immediately turned around and looked over.

Their eyes were red and bloodshot, and their faces were tired. It was obvious that they had not rested for a long time.

"Dad, mom..."

Tom greeted them and walked over.

"Tom, you're here." A forced smile appeared on James's face. Elizabeth wanted to smile, but she couldn't. Instead, after seeing Tom, her eyes turned even redder.

Seeing the two elders in this state, Tom became even sadder, but he did not show it. Instead, he smiled brightly and said, "Mom and dad, I'm here. You can go back and rest."

The tougher the situation was, the more Tom had to be calm and steady.

Both of them shook their heads, showing that they were not that exhausted.

Tom sighed in his heart and said nothing more.

He walked to Phoebe and saw Phoebe clearly, then his heart ached. He had never seen Phoebe so haggard and weak. Phoebe had always been beautiful and healthy.

"Tom, Phoebe..."

As soon as Elizabeth started to speak, she couldn't help but cry. She only had Phoebe as her daughter. It was no exaggeration to say that Phoebe was her world and was important than everything.

Tom turned around and smiled at her, "Mom, don't worry. With me here, Phoebe will be fine!"

"Really?" There was some hope in Elizabeth's eyes, "But the doctor said that Phoebe is impossible to be cured..."

James's face also became sad.

Tom said seriously, "Even if it's terminal, I would cure Phoebe. I promise you!"

Elizabeth was stunned. She looked at Tom in a daze and nodded, as if she believed him.

But James sighed heavily. He had just talked to the attending doctor and knew that Phoebe was suffering from an incurable disease. At present, there was no way to cure Phoebe. Tom was just an ordinary person. How could he cure Phoebe?

But he didn't say it out, lest it would spoil the mood.

Tom knew James's thoughts, but he did not explain anything. After all, this kind of thing was too rare and strange. Even if he told them the truth, James would not believe it and would think that he was crazy.

Anyway, Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit would be ripe tomorrow, and they would know everything by then.

At this moment, Phoebe on the bed suddenly moved. Then, her eyelashes moved slightly and she slowly opened her eyes.

Her vision gradually changed from blurry to clear, and she saw a familiar face in front of her, smiling, looking at her affectionately and gently.

"Tom, is that you?"

She murmured softly and reached out her trembling hand to touch Tom's face.

But she was so weak that she just reached halfway through the air and lost all her strength to fall.

Just as she was losing her strength, Tom gently took her hand, put it on her face, and whispered, "It's me. I'm back."

When Phoebe heard this, she felt Tom's gentleness. Her eyes immediately turned red and were soon filled with tears. She kept apologizing, "Tom, I'm sorry, I'm sorry..."

Tom gently wiped the tears from the corner of her eyes and said with a smile, "Silly girl, why are you apologizing to me?"

Phoebe saw Tom's affectionate eyes. Suddenly, she realized something. She quickly covered her face and turned away to prevent Tom from seeing her. She yelled, "Don't look at me. I don't want you to see me like this!"

Chapter 562

Phoebe finally realized that she was old. Her hair was half grey, and her face became pale and sallow. She was no longer a beautiful wife!

She was ready to die, but she couldn't accept that Tom saw her ugly face!

She wanted Tom to remember that she was beautiful, instead of being as sallow and grey-haired as she was now.

She didn't care what other people thought of her, but the only thing she could not accept was that Tom would feel her disgusting.

Even if Tom wouldn't, her ugliness would ruin her image in Tom's heart, which she wouldn't accept either.

There was a saying that a woman would dress up for the person she liked. Similarly, a woman did not want the person she liked to see her as ill-looking, which was even worse than killing her.

That was what Phoebe was thinking at the moment.

She didn't want Tom to see her hideous appearance. She would rather not see Tom before she died.

Tom felt her emotions, and he was even sadder. His eyes reddened. He took a deep breath and hid his sadness. He held Phoebe's hand and said gently and affectionately, "Silly girl, what are you hiding from? You will always be the most beautiful girl in my eyes. I love you, but not because of your face."

Phoebe covered her face in the pillow and sobbed, "No. I'm so ugly. I don't want you to see me now!"

When James and Elizabeth heard it, their eyes were red, and they cried.

Tom hugged Phoebe and said with a smile, "It's no use hiding. I saw you just now."

Phoebe grunted, feeling even more painful and crying even louder.

"Why do you come here? I want to die alone. Why are you here? I don't want you to see my old face... God, why do you do this to me?" Phoebe wailed. She was desperate. Sometimes, women were strange. They would rather die than showing their ill-looking faces in front of their beloved ones.

A lump came into Tom's throat. He hugged Phoebe tightly and said firmly and seriously, "Yu will be able to become beautiful again tomorrow. Phoebe, wait another day, and you will be fine."

Phoebe was stilted, and she still didn't dare to reveal her face. Her voice trembled with a trace of hope. "Tom, is that true? Can I really recover?"

Tom beamed. His right hand went underneath the quilt, and he held Phoebe's hand tightly, "Of course it's true. You know how capable I am."

Phoebe remained silent for a while before saying, "But I've seen many famous doctors, and they couldn't do anything about it. This is a rare disease. No one can cure it."

Tom said, "You are not sick, but your body is having a little problem temporarily. There is a magical fruit in this world that can restore your health and can even help you be more beautiful and prolong your life."

There were doctors and nurses in the ward. When they heard Tom's words, they shook their heads, showing pity and sympathy. They thought that Tom made up a lie to comfort Phoebe.

James and Elizabeth wept silently, thinking that Tom knew Phoebe was about to pass away, so he began to comfort her.

Phoebe seemed to believe it. She smiled brightly and said, "Okay! Tom, I believe you!"

Tom smiled and nodded.

After that, Tom stayed with Phoebe for another two hours before he left the hospital.

For the past two hours, Phoebe had been hiding her face from Tom. It was not until Tom left the ward that she revealed her face. She sighed, and a smile appeared on her face. It seemed that she was satisfied and relaxed.

...

Thorn was excited to receive Tom's call. He said in a shrill voice, "Tom! Thank god! You finally called me!!"

His voice was loud and agitated, which startled Tom. Tom thought he had been in trouble, so he asked in a hurry, "Director Sunn, what's going on? Did something happen while I was on retreat?"

"Yes! Something happened! Something bad happened!!" Thorn shouted.

Tom's heart jolted when he heard this. He had a bad feeling and asked, "Is the Colorful Fruit of Essence ripe early?!"

His eyes widened, and his breathing hastened. His efforts would be in vain if the Colorful Fruit of Essence was ripe and picked. He could not accept this!

Thorn was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect Tom to have such a reaction.

He quickly explained, "No, no, it isn't."

After hearing it, Tom calmed down.

Fortunately, the Colorful Fruit of Essence did not mature in advance, or else he would collapse.

"That's good. That's good..." Tom replied.

Thorn said, "No, something happened.

You are in trouble!"

Tom was a little surprised by this. What happened?

Wait a minute...

Suddenly, Tom thought of something. He said, "Is Redford here to pick on me?"

Tom's reaction was quick. He only thought about it for a second and figured it out. Since the Colorful Fruit of Essence had not matured in advance, there was only one possibility that Thorn was so nervous. Redford of Military Intelligence 2 had confirmed his identity and went to Military Intelligence 3 to seek revenge.

Sure enough, Thorn said on the phone,

"You know that too! Tom, you're a smart guy. How could you kill Redford's brother-in-law? Now that Redford wants you to pay in blood, even Military Intelligence 3 can't protect you! Redford is the most powerful man in the fourth stage of the Innate realm. He's on the same level as Director Pence, and he has many disciples. They can consume your strength even if they cannot beat you!"

Tom was not afraid. Instead, he laughed and said, "Is that all? I thought it was a big deal."

Thorn was speechless when he heard Tom's laughter.

Tom didn't talk to Thorn for long. He went straight back to Military Intelligence 3.

Chapter 563

Thorn hung up the phone. Not long after, someone walked into his office. "Thorn, why are you still here? It's time to leave."

It was Marlin. He said resentfully, "Redford of the Military Intelligence 2 is too arrogant. He's just in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. There's no need to be so self-conceited."

After Thorn heard Marlin's words, he was stunned and said, "Marlin, is Redford here again?"

Marlin nodded and said, "Yep. As soon as he comes, he will show off his power. By the way, Thorn, have you contacted Tom? The Colorful Fruit of Essence will be mature tomorrow. If Tom doesn't show up, he won't be able to participate in the mission. By then, he may be blamed by the superiors."

"Oh no!" Thorn slapped his thigh, then he quickly picked up the phone and dialed the number. Marlin was puzzled. "Old Sun, who are you calling?"

Thorn said worriedly, "Tom is on his way back. It would be horrible for him to meet Redford. I have to remind him!"

Marlin was also shocked. "What? Tom has returned? Where has he been for the past two weeks?"

"He had been in seclusion, but he's rushing back now." Thorn answered.

Then he found that the phone couldn't be put through. "Oh no. Tom's phone couldn't be got through."

At the moment, Thorn's cell phone rang. It was Pence who asked him to go over. So he had to put down the phone and pray that Tom would be very low-key this time and not meet Redford.

Otherwise, according to Redford's strength, he really didn't think Tom could beat Redford.

When he went out, he saw that Redford and the others had arrived. Redford looked around. Obviously, he was looking for Tom.

The Military Intelligence 3's base was closest to the top of the mountain where the Colorful Fruit of Essence was born. Therefore, both the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 came here a day in advance.

In the past half month, the top management of the three organizations had discussed many times, made various plans, and also arranged the scene, waiting for the Colorful Fruit of Essence to mature tomorrow.

When Thorn came over and saw Redford, he was obviously nervous because he knew that Tom was coming back soon. When Tom met Redford, Redford would definitely be in trouble.

In addition to Redford, there were also many experts from the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 who gathered here.

There were also three masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Their aura was extremely strong, which made the entire Military Intelligence 3 breathing fast and uncomfortable.

"Redford, I heard that your brother-in-law was killed by the new instructor of the Military Intelligence 3. Is that true?"

At that moment, someone suddenly teased Redford. The man was one of the Military Intelligence 1's fourth stage experts in the Innate Realm. After he said that, the atmosphere immediately turned stressful.

Redford's face suddenly darkened. He snorted and said, "That's true."

Another master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm also smiled, "I can't believe that the guy from the Military Intelligence 3 has the guts to hurt your family. But according to your character, I'm afraid this guy will die miserably, right?"

As they spoke, they did not care about the people present at the Military Intelligence 3 at all. They were joking casually and putting on airs.

The master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm said with a wicked smile, "Hehe, then you guessed wrong. He's living well. Redford hasn't seen the guy yet."

"No way, Redford. That doesn't make any sense. Redford, you can't beat him, can you?"

Everyone else looked at Redford in surprise. They teased him and gloated over him.

Redford was already furious. Under such circumstances, he was even more unhappy. He said directly and coldly, "Hmph, the Military Intelligence 3 is hiding this beast, or else, I will wring his neck off on the first day!"

With that, he stamped his foot hard, and the floor under his feet immediately split like spider silk, spreading to the left under the feet of the Military Intelligence 3.

Pence's face darkened. Apparently, they did not take Military Intelligence 3 seriously, nor did they take Pence seriously!

If it had been five years ago, when the Military Intelligence 3 hadn't broken out in that war, and no talent loss had they suffered, how could the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 dare to be so provocative?

Pence took a deep breath. He decided to endure it. Tomorrow, when the Colorful Fruit of Essence was mature, if he could successfully pick it, then it would be a great achievement. At that time, the top management would not treat the Military Intelligence 3 badly. And they would pour more resources into it. There was still hope for the rise of the Military Intelligence 3!

Seeing that the people from Military Intelligence 1 were still so timid after being humiliated, the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2's people looked down on Pence even more.

Another Military Intelligence 2's master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm stood up and said to Pence, "Pence, I heard that a master has come to your Military Intelligence 3. Where is he? Where has he gone?"

Pence said with a cold face, "Tom is in seclusion."

"Seclusion? I think that he's afraid of Redford, so he hid, right? That's your Military Intelligence 3's style. If something happens, you will retract your heads into the shells like a turtle. Hahaha."

His words caused a lot of people to laugh at Pence. It was embarrassing to mock the Military Intelligence 3 in their territory.

All the Military Intelligence 3's people clenched their teeth and were very angry, but they had no choice. There was a great disparity between their strength. In the past competitions, they were all defeated by the Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2. They were scared now.

Redford sneered disdainfully and said to Pence, "Pence, you don't have to pretend. Aren't you afraid that I'll hit your new instructor too hard and beat him to death? So you hid him? Why did you lie that he was in seclusion? Let me tell you. I've already found out his identity. Tom, isn't he? He's a businessman from H City who killed Peter and May, two losers. Tom was called the number one master of G State. So ridiculous!"

Pence's face darkened and he clenched his fists. He was very angry, but there was nothing he could do. After all, he was no match for Redford. Even if he and Redford fought alone, he might not be Redford's well-matched opponent. Besides, there were three masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm behind Redford.

So he had to endure it and not talk back to Redford.

Redford sneered and despised Pence even more. He disdainfully glanced at all the people from Military Intelligence 3.

All the people from the Military Intelligence 3 were very angry, but there was nothing they could do. Many people were looking forward to Tom's quick arrival. Tom was able to teach Redford a lesson, and win credit for the Military Intelligence 3!

At that moment, a loud voice came from behind the crowd. "Who said I was hiding?"

The voice sounded loud and clear, but it was also very faint, coming from far away.

The people of the Military Intelligence 3 immediately became excited when they recognized who was speaking.

Pence and Thorn darkened their faces and became nervous.

The next moment, everyone looked back and saw a tall man walking over in the distance.

Who else would it be if it wasn't Tom?

Chapter 564

"Oh no! Why is Tom back at this time?!"

Pence's heart skipped a beat.

Other executives of Military Intelligence 3 were also full of worry. They didn't expect Tom to come back at this critical moment. They were busted!

When other members of Military Intelligence 3 saw Tom, they were excited. Many of them began to cheer. Those of the Fourth Group were especially excited.

"Great, Tom is back!"

"I told you, Tom is so powerful and afraid of nothing. How could he be afraid of a mere instructor of Military Intelligence 2?"

"It's great that Tom is back. He will teach that man a good lesson! I just don't like him. What does he have to be so arrogant?"

They had just been ridiculed by Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2. They had to hold back their anger because of the gap in strength. They pinned their hopes on Tom. Now that they saw Tom coming back, they were extremely excited.

When the members of the two divisions heard their words, they realized that Tom was the enemy who had killed Redford's brother-in-law.

Immediately, they became excited, and they looked fixedly at Tom to see what he got to be Redford's enemy.

When Redford saw Tom, his eyes widened and his breathing quickened. He stared at Tom angrily!

He clenched his fists, which caused a cracking sound. Anyone could feel his anger and aggression.

"Is this the new instructor of Military Intelligence 3? He looks so ordinary."

"Yes, he is just a little taller. How dare he offend Redford? Is he out of his mind?"

"This guy dares to show up in front of Redford. Redford will definitely not let him go."

"Is Redford going to kill him?"

"That's hard to say. Everyone knows Redford is fierce and hot-headed."

After Tom's arrival, everyone burst into an uproar. Everyone's eyes were on Tom.

The other three top experts at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm were also staring at Tom. They couldn't wait to see what realm Tom was in.

However, no matter how they looked at it, they still could not clearly estimate Tom's strength. They just felt that Tom was very mysterious. They thought Tom seemed very powerful but at the same time had no real strength.

Tom had just arrived. When he heard Redford's threat, he showed up without hesitation.

This was the first time he had seen Redford, but he recognized him at first glance. It had to be said that Redford was indeed quite strong and was more powerful than Sean.

He also sensed three other people at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

"Interesting."

Sensing the contempt and hostility of these people, Tom smiled, and felt the urge to fight.

He had come out from seclusion and destroyed the "demon" in his heart. He was completely reborn and his strength had increased a lot. He was thinking about having a fight with an expert to test his strength. Redford and the three masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm appeared in time.

"Tom!!!" When Redford saw Tom, a terrible hatred filled his eyes. A strong aura emanated, and his hair stood up one by one, like a hedgehog, which looked especially scary!

He did not hide his murderous intent on Tom at all. Everyone present felt it and could not help shivering. They now felt pity for Tom.

"Damn, Redford is going to kill Tom!"
Someone from Military Intelligence 3

exclaimed, and others soon realized it.

Pence immediately stepped out and stood in front of Redford. He said in a deep voice, "Redford! Don't mess around. The Colorful Fruit of Essence will be ripe soon. The mission is more important. You can't fight with Tom!"

Redford stepped forward, glared at Pence, and said coldly, "Get lost!"

He did not make a move, but the aura was extremely powerful. Even Pence, who was at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, was frightened.

Pence did not retreat. He resisted Redford's pressure and continued to say in a deep voice, "Redford! Think about it! This mission is very important. You want to attack your own people just because of your personal grudge! If the mission fails, can you bear the responsibility?"

Pence's words were loud and powerful, full of authority. What he said was very compelling.

Sure enough, after hearing it, Redford frowned slightly and hesitated. Pence was right. This mission was very important. The superiors wanted to have the Colorful Fruit of Essence very much. If the mission failed because of his personal grudge, then he couldn't bear the blame.

However, just as he was hesitating, a voice came from the side. "Redford, are you getting cold feet already? The mission is important. But there are so many experts here. You don't have to be afraid that it will fail. Besides, once you accomplish the mission, it is a great achievement. Do you think it can't make up for your mistake of killing an instructor?"

It was an instructor from Military Intelligence 1. He said those with a faint smile on his face, trying hard to stir up trouble.

After hearing this, Redford's eyes lit up. He suddenly realized this. "That's right. As long as we finish the task in the end, the superiors will reward us. How can they blame me?"

In such a short time, Tom was already very close, and he still had a faint smile on his face. He was not afraid at all. It was obvious that he did not take Redford seriously, which made Redford even angrier.

"Pence, get lost. If you don't get out of here, don't blame me for hitting you!" Redford didn't care about the civilities and said to Pence coldly.

As he spoke, his eyes became extremely cold, which meant he was very serious now. When Pence saw him like this, his heart thumped and he cursed Redford for losing his mind in his heart, but he still did not retreat and said to Redford, "Redford! As the director of Military Intelligence 3, I'm a level higher than you. I am your superior. How dare you hit me?!"

At this time, Pence could only use authority to force Redford to back out.

Pence was the director of the department, while Redford was a deputy.

Redford burst into laughter as if he had heard a huge joke. "Pence, you are just a director. Do you think I will listen to you? It seems that you really want it the hard way. I will hit you! I can't wait to see if the top executives will punish me for you!"

After that, he attacked Pence.

Pence was enraged. He was at least a director, but Redford humiliated him.

"You will die for this!" Pence didn't retreat and bumped into Redford.

There was a loud noise. The ground shook violently, which showed how deep their strength was.

Pence kept retreating, causing loud noises, and his face flushed a little. He felt the strong power of Redford when they were palm to palm. He couldn't stand the power and was forced to retreat.

He immediately adjusted his breath. When he was about to make another move, someone grabbed him from the side and said with a smile, "Director Pence, Redford is unworthy of you fighting him yourself. I'll deal with him."

Chapter 565

Pence was ready to launch a counterattack against Redford, but Tom grabbed his wrist and he couldn't move!

Tom still wore a faint smile and looked very relaxed. He sighed in shock as he found out that Tom was so strong.

When the others saw Tom coming, they all looked over. Redford's eyes were fixed on Tom. He said with a sneer, "Tom, you're finally here! How dare you to kill my men?"

Tom walked over from Pence and looked at Redford indifferently. There was no fear in his eyes at all. He apparently looked down upon Redford.

"You know well what kind of person your brother-in-law is. Such a good-for-nothing, he's supposed to be punched to death," Tom said lightly in disdain.

Redford was furious and roared, "You're seeking death!"

Then he rushed straight at Tom. He made a fierce attack on Tom, trying to kill him.

Redford was very fierce, powerful, and more than ten meters away, he stepped two steps in front of Tom and brought a lot of mental pressure. In everyone's mind, Redford was not a person, but a god of apes who were hundreds of feet tall. Holding an iron rod that could pierce through the ground, he walked towards Tom!

They thought Tom was about to be stabbed to death.

"Oh no! Tom is in danger! Redford is too scary!"

Everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 at the scene was filled with dread, worrying that Tom was no match for Redford at all and was about to be punched by Redford.

For Tom, what he saw in his spiritual world was not a god of apes, but a two-meter-high ape. His momentum was indeed quite strong, but it was far from enough to stab Tom to death.

Just as Redford's punch reached him, he moved.

Whoosh!

He did not choose to face it but moved to the right. He transported himself to the right, leaving a crack of 20 centimeters deep on the ground. That was because he was moving too fast, and the strength spread to the ground. The strength was like a knife, cutting a crack in the ground.

It was also because of this amazing speed that he dodged Redford's punch in time.

"Eh?" Redford called out in surprise. It seemed that he did not expect Tom to be able to dodge his fist in such a situation, because he was king of making a sneak attack.

Redford didn't stop. He immediately launched a series of attacks on Tom.

One punch after another, he punched Tom faster and fiercer. All of a sudden, it covered Tom's whole body, mainly towards Tom's face. Tom would be seriously injured if he was punched!

Redford didn't believe that Tom could dodge such a dense and fast attack!

Their fight caused a stir. After a while, a strong wind rose out of thin air and blew around. Especially the hard ground was trampled by their footsteps as if it had been crushed by a bulldozer. It was very scary!

Except for the remaining three masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and before Pence, including Marlin, the others did not dare to get too close, so they quickly dodged, afraid that they would be hurt!

Anyway, they were not in the position to be involved in this kind of fighting.

As Tom faced Redford's attack, his eyes brightened and he was getting excited.

"Great!" He roared and uttered a long and loud cry

This time he came out of seclusion and was reborn. He just wanted to find a master and have a good fight!

He kept dodging. No matter how fast

Redford was, he couldn't hit him. After a long time, Redford got angry and shouted, "Tom! You can only hide! Come and fight me if you think you're hard enough!"

Play hardball?

Tom's smile widened. "Okay, as you wish."

...

All of a sudden, Tom's temperament suddenly changed, which was no longer the gentle and plain temperament just now. Instead, he changed into a different person, fierce and domineering!

Tom stopped retreating. His eyes were no longer as calm as before, but suddenly became much colder, like two suns, shining brightly!

He said, "Redford, take my punch!"

By the time he finished speaking, his fist was already in front of Redford. There was not much movement, nor was there any expected explosion. It seemed that his punch did not spread through the air, but came out of the void. It was silent but subtle.

Redford felt the horror of this punch. In an instant, his eyes widened, and his heart thumped.

However, he did not choose to retreat because he was also extremely confident in himself. Strength had always been his forte. He did not believe that Tom's fist was as powerful as his!

So instead of retreating, he sank his right foot back and exerted force on his waist to fight Tom's punch!

"I want to see what you can do!" Redford smiled coldly, but before long, his smile froze because he felt the terrifying force of Tom's punch!

He felt as if he had collided with a high-speed train. This powerful force could not be stopped by manpower, even if he was a master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm!

"Bang!"

A deafening sound broke out between them. The next moment, Redford fell back and flew out!

Tom stood still, while Redford flew out as if he had been hit by a train, which made everyone feel especially at odds with him.

Poof...

Redford spat out a mouthful of blood in the air!

Everyone was shocked.

"How could he lose to Tom in boxing?"

They found it hard to believe.

Not only him but all the people present from Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 were also stunned. They felt that this scene was too shocking and incredible.

They all knew very well who Redford was and how powerful he was. But they were unable to believe that he was spitting blood after being punched by Tom.

Tom did not take advantage of the victory to make another attack but stood there with a faint smile. Looking at Redford, he said, "How can a good-for-nothing like you dare to confront me?"

Chapter 566

"You!!!"

After Redford heard it, he was enraged again and spat out another mouthful of blood.

As the instructor of the Military Intelligence 2, he was in a high position, with great power, followed by countless high-ranking disciples. He was also a top master in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. He was almost at the top of the Pyramid in this world, basically suffering no humiliation before. The point was that he objected to the humiliation from his enemy. This was even worse than killing him!

Especially for the many agents of the Military Intelligence 2, it was an extremely weird thing. They even suspected that they had hallucinated!

It was Redford they were talking about. He was on the top of the list for the entire H Country, and now he was defeated by the new instructor of the Military Intelligence 3?

Not to mention them, the people of the Military Intelligence 3 were also very surprised. They knew that Tom was very strong, but they did not expect that Tom had been so strong that even a real deal like Redford could not take one punch from Tom.

The other three masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm suddenly widened their eyes with their pupils dilated, and stared hard at Tom. They had just felt Tom's strong vibe. Even they were not confident of catching Tom's punch without getting hurt.

After five seconds of silence, people at the scene began to scream.

"Tom won!"

"Great!"

"Tom is the best!"

"Hahaha..."

All the people in the Military Intelligence 3 were excited now. Even the people of the Scout Team and the Dragon Blood Team were now full of admiration for Tom.

As for the people of the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, it was a completely different story.

"How could it be? Redford lost?"

"God, am I right?"

"No, this must be an illusion. It is Military Intelligence 3! How could such a powerful instructor appear in such a weak team?!"

Tom stood with his hands behind his back and looked coldly at Redford. "I did kill Beckett. If you want to take revenge on me, I'm here for you anytime. But this time, I will spare your life because we are in the same position, shouldering the same responsibilities in H Country. But for next time, it won't be like this."

After that, Tom stopped looking at him and walked over to Pence. He cupped his fists and said, "Director Pence, I'm sorry. I've been in the zone for the past half month and didn't inform you in advance. I've worried you."

Pence looked at Tom and his lips moved. Originally, Tom had violated the Military Intelligence 3 rules and was to be punished, but now he looked at Tom's calmness whose visceral energy was even stronger than his. Where did this leave him to clamp down on Tom?

He waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter since you're fine."

"Yes."

Sensing that Thorn and the others were looking at him in surprise, Pence coughed twice and added, "Not this once."

Tom nodded with a smile and agreed, "I won't do it again."

Pence breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Tom got the point and didn't make him look bad.

Redford gritted his teeth in anger. For the past half a month, he had been thinking about how to take revenge and torture Tom every day. He had never thought that he would lose nor he would be beaten up!

He had never been so humiliated before. It was hard for him to accept this fact!

He stared hard at Tom and was spoiling for another standup fight, but he had lost the courage. In fact, Tom's punch just now was too powerful. It was obvious that Tom's strength was above him. Even if he fought Tom alone, he would be humiliating himself.

He could not figure out why Tom could be such powerful at such a young age. It was completely unrealistic!

Redford's defeat was a great encouragement to the Military Intelligence 3. The morale was boosted a lot and they were no longer as depressed as before. On the contrary, it was a huge blow to the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, and they immediately grew less arrogant.

"Redford, what stage is this Tom at? You can't even take a punch from him?"

Immediately, Shaw, the instructor of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm at the Military Intelligence 2, asked in a deep voice.

At this time, Carl and Will - another two instructors who belong to the Military Intelligence 1 of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm - also came over. They both looked serious and grim.

Redford looked horrible. He looked at

Tom in the distance with hatred and fear and said a word, "Unfathomable!"

Shaw raised his inquiring eyebrows and asked, "Is he already at the Major Perfection Realm level?"

Carl and Will were also shocked. That would be horrible if Tom climbed to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm as he was only so young. With his development, it was possible for him to make a breakthrough to Immortal Realm!

Redford took a long breath and said, "I'm not sure, but his punch just now was too powerful. I felt like I was hitting a train when I tried to top him. He was unstoppable! In my opinion, even if he wasn't of the Major Perfection Realm, he was at least at the peak of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm."

Will frowned. "I didn't expect the Military Intelligence 3 to be able to cultivate such an amazing master after the war five years ago!"

Carl said meaningfully, "Redford, I don't think you can take revenge."

Redford snorted heavily and said with a ferocious face, "Why can't I? I have plenty of ways to kill him!"

There was a frightening light in his eyes, smoldering like two balls of ghost fire, which made people shudder at first glance.

On Tom's side, he returned to the Military Intelligence 3 and held a simple meeting. After getting to know tomorrow's mission, he changed into a new suit and set off with the army.

Reckoning the time, it was less than 20 hours before the Colorful Fruit of Essence got ripe. At this time, there must be many factions lurking, waiting for the Colorful Fruit of Essence to mature, and then seize them at one fell swoop.

According to the top scientists, the Colorful Fruit of Essence would be ripe in Lion Mountain.

Lion Mountain was a high barrier between H City and Phoenix . In high land areas, stretching away for hundreds of kilometers, it was covered in ice, extremely cold all year round.

According to the previous locations of the ripe Colorful Fruit of Essence, they were all grown in extremely cold places, either in the south pole or in the north pole. But this time, they were found in Lion Mountain, with some deviations.

When Tom followed the army to Lion Mountain, he found a lot of powerful masters holding back among them. There were more than 30 masters of the Innate Realm, and that was crazy!

As people knew the masters of the Innate Realm were rare no matter where. This time, there were more than 30 masters along, who could even destroy a medium-sized country!

In addition to Tom and others, masters of the Innate Realm gathered in Lion Mountain directly broke through 40.

Many of them were at the top in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

Tom felt such a powerful vibe so that he frowned. Even with his power, he was still under great strain.

Chapter 567

Fortunately, Tom didn't feel the masters of the Innate Realm and the Major Perfection Realm. Otherwise, it would be harder for him to take the Colorful Fruit of Essence by force!

But no matter what, he must get the Colorful Fruit of Essence. No matter how difficult it was, he would overcome it!

"There are many masters here!"

The other people also felt this way. Pence frowned.

Marlin and Thorn were also worried. They felt that there were so many masters, who surpassed them.

Nikolai said in a deep voice, "I'm afraid it is not easy to complete the mission."

Another senior leader of the Military Intelligence 3 said, "I don't think it's easy to complete. Maybe a lot of people will be sacrificed!"

As soon as they finished speaking, someone sneered and said, "We just arrived at the Lion Mountain. The Colorful Fruit of Essence is not mature yet. Please be optimistic."

"Hahaha, isn't it normal for the people of the Military Intelligence 3? Otherwise, do you really expect them to have the guts?"

After hearing their words, the people of the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 started to ridicule them.

A master of the third stage of the Innate Realm said with contempt, "If you're afraid, you can hide away. Anyway, I don't expect you to be able to help us this time."

"Yes, you're not serious here. You have to depend on us, the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 to complete the mission."

"Why don't you go back now? Don't be frightened when we fight tomorrow. Hahaha..."

They ridiculed them one by one. The people of the Military Intelligence 3 were upset. The senior leaders including Pence looked unpleasant.

The people of the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 were so bad and never stopped mocking them!

Pence snorted heavily and said, "Mind your own business! It is an important mission. Don't let us get the Colorful Fruit of Essence!"

Shaw laughed and said, "You idiot get the Colorful Fruit of Essence? Pence, are you dreaming?"

The people of Military Intelligence 2 sneered and disdained those of the Military Intelligence 3.

At this time, Will from the Military Intelligence 1 stood up to made peace,

"All right, all right, stop arguing. Our mission is to get the Colorful Fruit of Essence. This is the top priority."

The people of the Military Intelligence 3 thought that Will was helping them. But immediately Will said, "But you're right. It will be a fight tomorrow. It is dangerous. Why don't you, the people of the Military Intelligence 3 go back first? We won't report it. Don't worry. You can't help us here anyway."

When they heard him, the people of the Military Intelligence 3 were so angry.

Marlin was fiery. He couldn't bear it. He stood up and said angrily: "Will! What are you talking about? When are we afraid of death?"

Marlin was angry, but Will was not afraid of him at all. He was still calm. He smiled and said faintly, "Marlin, you don't agree with me. Do you want to practice with me? I can use only one hand."

After saying it, he really hid his left hand behind his back and crooked his finger at Marlin. He looked down on Marlin and did not take him seriously at all.

Marlin was fiery and arrogant. Will did not respect him. He was already in a rage. He stepped forward to have a great fight with him.

Even if he did not reach the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he could not be humiliated!

But he was quickly stopped by Tom.
"Marlin, focus on what is the most important."

"Tom!" Marlin stared at Tom and gritted his teeth, "I wanted to focus on what is the most important. But Will is bullying us!"

Tom looked at Will and said, "Will, are you proud of humiliating your teammates? Do you know how many people from other countries are watching us? Is it the style of the Military Intelligence 1?"

Will's face immediately changed when Tom finished speaking. He seemed to make a serious mistake in Tom's words.

Immediately, the people of the Military Intelligence 3 began to discuss him.

"Tom is right. You're bullying your teammates when we're going to fight with an enemy. Since you are so powerful, why don't you fight with the enemies? It's ridiculous to bully your teammates."

"I think he can just bully his teammates. He will be a coward immediately if he faces the enemies abroad."

"He must be a traitor during a war."

"He is an instructor of the Military Intelligence 1. But he is so immoral."

When Will heard the people of the Military Intelligence 3, he looked upset. And many people of the Military Intelligence 1 looked at him strangely.

They were the agents of H Country, so they were more patriotic than ordinary people. The people of the Military Intelligence 3 were right. It was unreasonable of Will to bully his teammates when they faced the same enemy.

Will looked upset. He did not expect Tom to be so eloquent. It was normal that the three divisions compete and suppress each other. For so many years, they never stopped. But, it was inappropriate for him to bully Marlin when they were seen by foreign people.

"Tom, don't slander me! I was just joking with Marlin." Will snorted and argued.

Tom smiled faintly. He ignored Will and looked ahead.

Just then, they heard the sound of clapping. Tom saw eight masters of the Innate Realm. And three of them are at the fourth stage!

"Haha, is it how the people of H Country get along? Tsk tsk tsk, no wonder you have been weaker over the years."

The man spoke poor Mandarin. He was not too tall, but he had a big skeleton. He wore loose white clothes with a long sword at his waist. He looked like the people of H Country. He was yellow. But his outline was different. It was obvious that he was from Red Sun State.

Hearing his voice, Will's eyes immediately sharpened. He looked back and saw him. He spat out two words, "Ryuki Miyazaki!"

Ryuki Miyazaki was walking on the snow, leaving no footprints. It was as if he was floating on the snow. They could tell how strong he was.

When Tom saw this person, he narrowed his eyes. Ryuki Miyazaki was a very strong master, who reached the top level of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

Chapter 568

When the others saw Ryuki Miyazaki, they were terrified. Even Redford, who was so arrogant, was staring at Ryuki Miyazaki with hostility and caution.

After Pence, Thorn, and some others saw Ryuki Miyazaki, their reactions were huge. They gritted their teeth at Ryuki Miyazaki, and a strong hatred and hostility appear in their eyes. Silas, who had always been very calm, clenched his fists with a cracking sound. He did not hide his hatred and murderous malice towards Ryuki Miyazaki.

Tom noticed this scene. He was extremely smart and immediately figured out that this Ryuki Miyazaki must have killed a lot of Military Intelligence 3 agents. It was very likely that Ryuki Miyazaki was involved in the war the Military Intelligence 3 battled five years ago, in which they lost a lot of elites!

In addition to Ryuki Miyazaki, the other Innate Realm masters behind him should also not be underestimated.

To be honest, it was the first time that he had met so many masters in the Innate Realm after he reached the stage!

The Innate Realm masters should be rare existences in the whole world and they were the representation of the noble status no matter where they went. But now so many of them gathered in the Lion Mountain.

It made Tom suddenly feel that the Innate Realm masters were worthless.

But in fact, it was not the case. It was only because this time the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was too tempting that many Innate Realm masters across the globe had come.

The scene was spectacular.

However, Tom did not expect that such a small place as the Red Sun State could cultivate a master as high-level as Ryuki Miyazaki. Actually not only one, but three such masters.

Facing so many people's hostility, Ryuki Miyazaki did not seem nervous at all. He was especially calm, with a faint smile on his face all the time.

Silas walked out and stared at Ryuki Miyazaki. He gritted his teeth and said, "Ryuki Miyazaki! How dare you step into my H Country territory? Go to hell!"

Ryuki Miyazaki looked at Silas, not angry or afraid, but smiled politely. He nodded at Silas and said, "Mr. Silas, we meet again. You have improved a lot. Congratulations."

He spoke indifferently. It may sound very polite. However, judging from his tone and manner, it was obvious that he despised Silas.

Silas was even angrier. He stared at Ryuki Miyazaki, as if he would spit fire towards him.

Pence also stepped out and said, "Ryuki Miyazaki! You sneaked away from the battle five years ago. You still dare to appear in H Country today. It seems that you are tired of living!"

As his voice fell, more than 20 people from the Military Intelligence 3 spread out to surround Ryuki Miyazaki's eight people!

Then Pence said to Redford and Will, "Let's work together and kill Ryuki Miyazaki and his gang here! Let's take revenge for our lost colleagues!"

His words were passionate, making people excited. But none of the people from the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 1 cooperated with him, making him look very embarrassed.

Ryuki Miyazaki laughed when he saw this. "Pencejun, it seems that your colleagues don't listen to you. Haha."

Pence looked even more embarrassed all of a sudden. Not only did he, but all the people in the Military Intelligence 3 looked bad and they seemed more disappointed and gloomy. The attitude of the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, as if this whole thing had nothing to do with them, which made the Military Intelligence 3 so disappointed and angry!

Tom frowned deeply. As a citizen of the H Country, he had a strong national sentiment and never fawned on foreign powers. Once he encountered national problems, he would be the first one to solve them.

"Redford, Will, Shaw, Carl, what are you still standing there for? Let's go up together and catch Ryuki Miyazaki!" Thorn shouted. He was so excited that his face reddened.

However, Redford and the other three of them did not react at all, as if they could not hear it.

Silas gritted his teeth and said, "Are you still people of H Country?!"

Redford snorted coldly. "Why aren't we people of H Country? Silas, you'd better watch your mouth!"

Silas was so angry that his eyes were about to pop out. His chest heaved and he breathed heavily. If he had the ability, he would have already blown off the heads of Ryuki Miyazaki and the others!

Marlin couldn't bear it anymore. He stepped out and denounce them loudly, "You know that Ryuki Miyazaki is the enemy of H Country. How many H Country compatriots have been killed by him. But you are all indifferent and you don't come out to beat Ryuki Miyazaki. Do you have the face to say that you are people of H Country?!"

"Ridiculous!" Will immediately shouted. "Whether we are people of H Country or not, it's not up to you, Marlin, or your Military Intelligence 3!"

Shaw also said, "The task assigned to us this time is to pick Colorful Fruit of Essence, not to be a hitman for your Military Intelligence 3! Make sense of which is more important!"

"In my opinion, your Military Intelligence 3 is too selfish and arrogant. For personal revenge, you can throw away the order given by the top!" Carl said.

Redford also sneered, "If for the sake of your Military Intelligence 3's selfish desires, we fight Ryuki Miyazaki in advance, lose our strength and fail tomorrow for our real mission, can your Military Intelligence 3 bear this responsibility?"

One by one, the four of them shouted louder than the other. They made a complaint against the Military Intelligence 3 and turned this around on them, which made the people of the Military Intelligence 3 so angry that they even trembled.

Even people like Tom, who had just joined the Military Intelligence 3, could not bear to listen to it. He originally thought that the three military intelligences should be united to battle against their enemy even though they were competitive at normal times. This should be a principle and awareness of every citizen of the H Country.

But now, the attitude of the four really made Tom angry and disdainful.

Of course, he hoped that this was just the personal conduct of the four and that the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2 were not like this, or else he would really be disappointed and upset.

In the face of this situation, Tom had nothing to say. It was never his character to resort to violence of the tongue. When he saw something unpleasant, he immediately took action.

Just like now, it was very unpleasant.

So he snorted, didn't say anything, and just stood up and attacked Ryuki Miyazaki.

Whew... Bang!!!

Once Tom moved, he was impressive. He had been hiding his power just now, so Ryuki Miyazaki did not take him seriously. Now he suddenly became so powerful that he even scared Ryuki Miyazaki.

In an instant, Ryuki Miyazaki's pupils widened, and her scalp was numb. He got goosebumps all over on him. It was like how a cat's hair bristled up when it was in danger.

The others were also stunned. No one expected Tom to attack Ryuki Miyazaki without saying anything.

Ryuki Miyazaki's reaction was very fast, but it was still not as fast as Tom's.

In the blink of an eye, Tom was already standing in front of him. With a slap, the wind changed and the sound exploded as if the air on Ryuki Miyazaki's forehead had been crushed and it was rumbling.

In such a short time, Ryuki Miyazaki could no longer dodge, so he had to hold his arms above his head to bear Tom's slap!

When Tom saw his action, a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth. The next moment, his strong palm was already slapped on Ryuki Miyazaki's arms, making a cracking sound.

Then, a shocking scene happened. Ryuki Miyazaki's arms could not bear Tom's slap as they were making a cracking sound, and it seemed that his joints were about to burst. Two-thirds of Ryuki Miyazaki's body, hit by Tom, was already inserted into the ground. There was snow as thick as tens of centimeters on the ground. So, Ryuki Miyazaki had only one head left above the ground.

Chapter 569

It was not until Ryuki Miyazaki was slapped into the ground and only his head was above the ground that everyone present came back to their senses.

In fact, they were not ordinary people. Even the weakest man was in a half-step of Innate Realm. All they had seen many powerful martial artists, but none of them had ever seen someone as strong as Tom who just attacked Ryuki Miyazaki and hit him to the ground with one palm.

It had to be said that they were all shocked!

Ryuki Miyazaki was also stunned. He did not expect that there was such an awesome man from the Military Intelligence 3 who attacked him without warning... No! This was a sneak attack! Such a despicable man!

"Ah!!!"

Ryuki Miyazaki roared, "Despicable man, how dare you sneak on me! I'm going to kill you!!"

Ryuki Miyazaki was humiliated for being slapped into the ground by Tom. He had never been humiliated like this since he had made the breakthrough in his martial arts.

"Retarded." Tom snorted with disdain. Tom had never had a good impression of people from Red Sun State, not to mention that Ryuki Miyazaki had killed so many H Country agents. So Tom couldn't let him go easily.

As he finished speaking, Tom continued to attack Ryuki Miyazaki without hesitation and kicked Ryuki Miyazaki in the head.

There was another sonic boom. Before Tom's foot could kick Ryuki Miyazaki, Ryuki Miyazaki felt a huge crisis. His heart suddenly contracted, and he was gooseflesh all over. He blocked his arms in front of his head and tried to defend himself from Tom's attack.

He had to do this because he knew that Tom could kill him. If he didn't resist, then his life would be over here.

Tom sneered. Ryuki Miyazaki's reaction was indeed fast, but so what? Even if this kick didn't kill Ryuki Miyazaki, it would make him injured seriously!

With a bang, Tom kicked Ryuki Miyazaki's arms hard. With a click, Ryuki Miyazaki's expression became painful, and he spat out a mouthful of blood, then flew out of the ground and fell on the ground heavily.

"Damn it!"

"You're despicable!"

"How dare you sneak attack our respected lord Ryuki Miyazaki! Unforgivable!"

"Kill him!!!"

The other seven people of Innate Realm all came to their senses and were furious. They immediately launched a fierce attack on Tom together.

Two of them were masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Tom immediately felt great pressure.

He felt ten times stressed than he felt when he was in the third stage of Innate Realm and fought with Sean.

However, Tom did not flinch or fear at all. Instead, he was full of pride and burst out laughing. "How dare you trash say that you would kill me! What a joke!"

At this moment, Tom was like a God of war, fighting bravely. The thunderous bursts added to his momentum, as if heaven and earth were infected by his heroism.

"He's amazing!"

"Does he reach the Major Perfection Realm?!"

"That's impossible. How old is he? Even if he started practicing before he was born, he couldn't reach the Major Perfection Realm!"

"He slaps Ryuki Miyazaki to the ground and fights seven masters of the Innate Realm. Except for the master of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, who else can do it?"

Redford, Shaw, Will and Carl were all stunned at this moment. They looked at Tom in astonishment and disbelief.

Not only them, but also Pence and Marlin and others reacted the same way. They knew that Tom was very powerful, but they did not expect that Tom was so strong!

After Tom kicked Ryuki Miyazaki away, he immediately turned to fight with the seven masters of the Innate Realm.

He was so powerful that he wasn't defeated by that seven masters.

However, Tom felt high pressure. It was really difficult to defeat seven masters of the Innate Realm. Especially, there were two top experts of the fourth stage, on the same level as him. No matter how strong he was, he couldn't last long. He would lose sooner or later.

Half a minute later, Tom immediately fell into a disadvantage.

"He hasn't reached the Major Perfection Realm level yet. He's weak. Kill him!"

"His potential is limitless. We can't let him grow more powerful. We must kill him!"

The seven masters of the Innate Realm felt Tom's power, especially his terrifying potential, which stimulated them to kill Tom! Because they knew that if people like Tom developed into the Immortal Realm, the entire Red Sun State would be threatened, so they had to kill Tom now!

Pence saw this situation and immediately reacted. Without hesitation, he shouted and joined the battle.

With his help, Tom suddenly felt much more relaxed.

At the same time, Marlin and Silas also joined them.

With the addition of the two of them, the situation changed. Tom took the upper hand, and the seven masters of the Innate Realm were about to be exhausted.

The change in the situation surprised everyone in the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2. Obviously, they did not expect that the Military Intelligence 3 was so strong.

It soon occurred to them that Tom played an important role.

"Retreat!"

"They are too despicable. We can't fight with them anymore!"

These Red Sun State experts looked at each other and were about to retreat. They stopped fighting and began to run away.

Pence, Silas and Marlin wanted to chase them, but they were not fast enough to catch up.

Tom could have done that, but he did not chase after them because he felt an unprecedented strong aura, and someone's eyes were locked on him!

In an instant, his scalp went numb, and his heart beat violently. Even, he felt fearful in his heart.

This was unusual. Ever since he entered the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, his psychological quality had been extremely strong! Especially after the training, he eliminated the mental demons, and his mind became pure and powerful. Even in the face of great difficulties and dangers, he should not have been afraid.

But now, he did have the thought of fear.

There was only one possibility. The person who targeted him was invincible!

At least he was the most powerful master of the Major Perfection Realm!

"Is he the son of the previous generation of Saintess? Indeed, he is extraordinary."

At the top of the snow mountain in the distance, there were two people. One of them looked very young. He looked at Tom, and smiled.

Chapter 570

This man was exceptionally young. He seemed to be only 18 years old and looked like a high school student, but his eyes were very dark, deep, sharp, and full of wisdom. Such a pair of eyes was quite weird.

He was dressed plainly with his long hair in an updo. Standing on the top of the snow-capped mountain, he was like an elegant and extraordinary ancient man.

Beside him stood a woman in red. She was Sunny, who was still so beautiful but less outstanding compared to the man beside her.

When Sunny heard the man's words, she raised her eyebrows and said, "Yes, his name is Tom."

"Tom, that's a good name." The man smiled, his eyes fixed on Tom, and a faint smile appeared on his face. But others could not figure out what he was thinking about.

Sunny stared at the man, frowned slightly and asked in a low voice, "Master Fausto, are you really going to have a fight with Tom?"

When Fausto heard her, he withdrew his eyes away from Tom and looked at Sunny. The smile on his face was wider, "Sunny, you have feelings for this Tom."

Sunny's expression froze and became unnatural. She snorted and said, "Master Fausto, you're joking. I only treat Tom as a younger brother. And he has never thought about going against the organization."

The LT Organization asked three experts from the fourth stage of the Innate Realm and Fausto to carry out the mission. But Fausto only asked Sunny to come with him.

Indeed, Fausto's cultivation was Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, and he could deal with it.

There were only few masters who reached the fourth stage of the Innate Realm in the world, let alone the Major Perfection Realm. So the LT Organization thought Fausto could definitely get Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

"Really?" Fausto smiled but didn't say anything else. Instead, he looked at Tom again, and found Tom was looking at him too.

He immediately sensed that Tom was not afraid of him at all.

"Well, last Saintess's son was interesting" Fausto said while looking into Tom's eyes.

When Sunny saw Tom dared to provoke Fausto, her scalp immediately tingled. She cursed Tom for being too bold. Fausto was the number one master of the Saint King, not a nobody like Sean.

And Tom immediately sensed Fausto's gaze on him too. He stopped chasing after the people of Red Sun State, turned around, and looked into Fausto's eyes.

As soon as he met Fausto's eyes, he felt Fausto's sharp sword aura, which pricked his eyes.

In Tom's spiritual world, the first thing he saw was not a young man of seventeen or eighteen years old, but a sharp sword. Even though it was nearly ten kilometers away from him, the sword aura was blinding!

"An expert of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm!" Tom exclaimed in a deep voice. He immediately noticed that only experts with the cultivation of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm would oppress him.

Beside the young man stood a red figure. Even she was ten kilometers away, he still recognized she was Sunny.

So, this young man was Fausto, the number one expert of the LT Organization.

He was also his biggest rival for Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

He and Fausto looked at each other for five seconds, and there were sparks in the air. Ordinary people could not notice, but they had already fought in their spiritual worlds.

Tom's head buzzed, and a mountain in his spiritual world collapsed, flattened by Fausto's sword sense!

And his face immediately turned pale. If he hadn't already defeated the demons in his heart and had become many times stronger in spirit, he would have spurted blood.

He withdrew his eyes and did not look at Fausto again. But his mind was in a mess.

"Is this the spiritual strength of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm? Incredible!" Tom muttered to himself. He was not frightened. Instead, he was more determined to fight against him. He must break through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm!

No, the Major Perfection Realm was not enough to him. He even wanted to break through to the Immortal Realm, to explore the world as his will!

He heard that the Saint King of the LT Organization was at Immortal Realm. Tom thought there was no weapon in the world that could defeat him other than nuclear weapons.

He was invincible.

Fausto also looked away. He said "bravo" three times in a row, and the smile on his face became even more mysterious.

Sunny saw this clearly. She was worried about Tom, but also felt that he was too bold. How did him dare to provoke Master Fausto, whose cultivation was at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm?

Tom was strong in the physique. Within a breath, he adjusted his state to the peak and caused no mental damage to himself. Others could not notice that he had just fought with the expert of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

"Damn it!"

Pence, Silas and the others watched Ryuki Miyazaki and his men run away. Gnashing their teeth, they cursed them.

"Tom, why did you stop? You could have caught them!" Marlin said unhappily.

The others also looked over. No one dared to underestimate Tom anymore. Instead, they were frightened by him.

Tom took a deep breath and said, "Fausto has arrived."

Everyone was stunned when they heard what he said. Many of them had never heard of the name Fausto. Only Redford, Shaw, Pence, Silas and other masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm had heard him, and their eyes widened.

"What? Fausto's already here?!"

"Where is he?!"

"Fausto is the most powerful person with the cultivation of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. We're in trouble!"

"Isn't LT Organization has an agreement? Why would Fausto come here to get the Colorful Fruit of Essence?!"

"Is that Saint King here too?!"

They became nervous all of a sudden. Fausto's coming surprised them. And if the Saint King was here too, then they would have no chance of winning.

Tom said at this moment, "Only Fausto and Sunny. The Saint King is not here."

Redford and Pence and the others breathe a sigh of relief, but they became worried again. Even though the Saint King wasn't here, Fausto alone would let them suffer.

Shaw frowned and asked Tom with an odd expression, "How did you know Fausto's here?"

Others became curious too. They had looked around and spread their consciousness, but they did not feel Fausto's coming.

Tom said evenly, "Fausto was on the top of the snow-capped mountain ten kilometers away. I fought with him in the spiritual world."

"Tsk!"

Redford sneered disdainfully, thinking that Tom was just boasting and grandstanding. Fausto was an expert of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. How powerful his spiritual world was! How could Tom still be so relaxed after fighting with him? He must have been injured!

Chapter 571

Others also did not believe him and thought that Tom was bluffing. Even Pence and Silas felt that Tom was exaggerating. It was undeniable that Tom was really strong and could stand at the peak of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

However, compared with a big master like Fausto, Tom was still a lot worse.

If Tom had really fought with Fausto on a spiritual level, he would never have remained intact.

Tom sensed their disbelief. He just smiled and didn't bother to explain.

What happened just now was seen by many forces in Lion Mountain. Tom's amazing performance attracted a lot of attention.

On Ryuki Miyazaki's side, they were no match for Tom and Pence and ran away in a hurry for a few kilometers. They didn't stop until they reached another mountain. They looked very pale and gloomy.

Ryuki Miyazaki, in particulars, was as white as sheet as if newly bereft of both parents.

He was humiliated this time. Moreover, he was badly injured, which made him furious.

"Military Intelligence 3, despicable people!!!" He gritted his teeth. The kick that Tom made just now not only broke his arms but also dislocated his internal organs. After running at high speed, he felt extremely uncomfortable.

"Bastard!" He couldn't help but curse. His hatred for Tom was surging

Other masters of the Innate Realm were also very angry. They were all cursing Tom in their Red Sun State language.

"Master Miyazaki, you are injured now. The Colorful Fruit of Essence will mature tomorrow. Can you still rob it?" A master of the Innate Realm said in a deep voice.

Ryuki Miyazaki immediately gave him an unfriendly look. "Sasaki Kojiro, are you doubting my ability?"

Sasaki Kojiro quickly bowed and apologized, "Master Miyazaki, Kojiro didn't mean that! Instead, I wanted to say that H Country is very strong this time, and now you are injured..."

What he meant was obvious.

Several other Red Sun State masters were equally worried.

Ryuki Miyazaki snorted coldly and said, "You don't have to worry about this! Colorful Fruit of Essence, the Red Sun State will definitely get it."

"Yes! Master Miyazaki!"

They showed absolute obedience to Ryuki Miyazaki.

In fact, Ryuki Miyazaki was also quite worried. This time, he invited the top expert of the Red Sun State to make sure they succeed in getting Colorful Fruit of Essence. Originally, the victory was in the bag, but now, his confidence was greatly affected.

If he had known, he wouldn't have provoked the Military Intelligence 3. However, he couldn't figure out why such a powerful agent would appear in the shabby Military Intelligence 3.

When he thought of Tom's attack just now, he was still afraid.

Similarly, a few other forces in Lion Mountain also noticed Tom.

As the center of the topic, Tom looked very relaxed and calm. In fact, he was also very nervous now. He should only succeed in this task and failure was not allowed because he couldn't afford the price of failure!

Tonight, all the people of Military Intelligence 3 were camping in Lion Mountain, waiting for the maturity of the Colorful Fruit of Essence tomorrow.

In fact, over the past few days, Lion Mountain had been rummaged. Everyone wanted to find the Colorful Fruit of Essence in advance and wait for maturity. When the Colorful Fruit of Essence matured, they wanted to be the first to pick it!

And now that technology was advanced, many drones could be sent out to monitor every corner of Lion Mountain at all times.

Tom never fought unprepared battles. This time, he was well prepared. As long as the Colorful Fruit of Essence was mature, he would find out in a very short time!

Of course, there were too many people targeting the Colorful Fruit of Essence. If the Colorful Fruit of Essence wasn't mature around him, the chances of getting it were too small. And once Fausto got it first, then he had almost no chance.

So the best situation would be that he was around when Colorful Fruit of Essence matured. Then he could pick it first and run away.

Late at night, heavy snow began to fall, which heavily covered Lion Mountain. The sky and earth were boundless, bringing out the insignificance of human beings in front of nature.

It was not wintering yet. H City was a city to the south. It would not snow so heavily in this season.

Now Lion Mountain shrouded by snow was a wonder.

Tom stepped on the snow and walked slowly. The heavy snow fell on him. But he was very clean as if there was an invisible force repelling the snow, which was unusual.

It was less than ten hours before the Colorful Fruit of Essence had matured. Tom had a good night's sleep and adjusted to his best. He did not stay in the camp and began to walk.

After going through many places, he felt the aura from the masters of Innate Realm and knew none of them could pose a threat to him.

Fausto was the only one who could threaten him here.

The snow grew heavier and heavier. It didn't stop snowing until six in the morning.

After a night, the whole of Lion Mountain was covered in a thick layer of white clothes and became much thicker. The thickness of the snow was 1.5 meters!

It was less than two hours before the Colorful Fruit of Essence matured!

The atmosphere in Lion Mountain became serious. Almost all the people who were ambushing Lion Mountain came out. They searched everywhere, hoping to find the Colorful Fruit of Essence as soon as possible and become the luckiest person!

"Em? Where's Tom?"

Pence found out that Tom was not in the team and asked with a frown.

Thorn said, "Tom went out by himself last night."

Pence thought it was a little strange, but he didn't ask much. He believed that Tom wouldn't grab Colorful Fruit of Essence.

"There's only one hour left!"

Marlin said solemnly. Now they were all ready for war. As long as the Colorful Fruit of Essence appeared, they would react immediately!

Time passed minute by minute. As time passed, everyone became more and more nervous and focused. Each of them had professional detection tools in their hands. As long as the Colorful Fruit of Essence appeared around them, they would be able to find it in the first place!

Half an hour left...

Fifteen minutes, ten minutes, five minutes...

At this moment, the sky suddenly changed. It had been clear for a long time. In half a minute, the sky became overcast. All kinds of lightning and thunder flashed in the clouds, which looked especially scary. The sky seemed filled with endless energy!

Even many masters of the Innate Realm could not help but feel nervous when they saw this scene.

In the last three minutes, the lightning flashed even more fiercely. All kinds of fierce lightning flashed in the air as if Heaven was angry that treasures such as Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit were not allowed to appear in this world!

The last minute!

59, 58, 57 ...

Deep down in everyone's heart, they began to count down.

In a secret corner of Lion Mountain, Tom was hiding there. He stared at a huge stone in front of him. Under the stone, there was a huge gap. The gap seemed to have opened its eyes and breathed hastily.

After searching all night, he finally found the place where the Colorful Fruit of Essence was born in advance. It was this inconspicuous crack in the stone!

"Five, four, three, two, one!"

Finally, when Tom finished counting down, he could clearly see that in the crack of the stone, the little flower began to bloom!!!

At the same time, the lightning in the sky began to bombard this side...

Chapter 572

This kind of power from heaven and earth was terrifying. Even Tom, in his current realm, was also afraid of such a thunder bombardment. He was like a drop in the bucket, and any thunder could make him go up in smoke.

He had never seen so much thunder and lightning. It seemed as if the angry god wanted to punish the humans with the thunder and lightning and didn't allow such things as the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit to exist.

In a second, there were several flashes of lightning above his head and around him. The rumbling sound was very loud and deafening. Even a strong man like Tom was shocked. Fortunately, he was quick enough to cover his ears; otherwise, his eardrums would be broken.

This scene also shocked everyone on Lion Mountain.

"God, what's going on here? Why is it so scary all of a sudden? Is the end of the world?!"

"These thunders are too powerful. Any one of them has enough power to power a city for a year."

"The Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit is definitely about to ripen. It's really unusual."

"Find out where the blossom is!!!"

As for Tom, he did not move, as if the world had nothing to do with him. At this moment, he only saw the little white flower in front of him and he watched it change!

Finally, when the time was up and as the thunders roared, the white flower began to condense at a speed visible to the naked eye, which lasted for half a minute. And less than half a minute later, it grew from a little flower, which was about the size of a thumb, to a colorful flower that was half a meter wide. And in the bud there was the fruit of seven colors!

Tom opened his eyes wide and watched this motionlessly. His heart almost stopped beating and his breath was quick.

It was too shocking, too bright, and too magical. He had known that there existed such a magical fruit in the world, but when he saw it with his own eyes, it was still incomparably amazing. This was a spectacle he had never seen before!

Ever since the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was produced, the air around it had changed. It was cleaner and more refreshing. Tom took a deep breath and felt a lot more energetic as if he had taken some tonic!

And, there was also an indescribable fragrance. It smelled even better than the most expensive perfume in the world!

In the end, there came another tremendous bolt of lightning, directly at the fruit, as if deliberately trying to destroy it.

"No!" Tom came to his senses in time. Without hesitation, he rushed over as fast as he could, grabbed the style of the fruit, and pulled it out...

It was so heavy!

Tom couldn't help but exclaim. If he hadn't become the top expert in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he wouldn't have been able to pull out the fruit. Tom estimated that it might weigh at least 500 kg!

Poof! It suddenly became loose after being pulled out. It turned out that the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was difficult to pull out not because the fruit itself was heavy, but because the style was as tough as the high-strength composite materials.

After he pulled out the fruit, he immediately rolled to the side. Almost in an instant, the thick lightning struck down, aiming at the stone and breaking the huge stone into pieces.

There were a few stones that hit Tom. They were so powerful that if Tom hadn't been so powerful, he would have been injured!

Miraculously, after this thunder stroke, heaven and earth suddenly quieted down, and there were no more lightning and thunder.

In about a minute, there was no lightning at all, and the dark clouds in the sky slowly dispersed, as if the lightning that had almost destroyed the world had not existed at all.

Everyone on Lion Mountain was shocked by this situation, and many people were still in a daze.

"Colorful Fruit of Essence! It must have ripened!!"

At this moment, someone shouted after realizing that.

Everyone on Lion Mountain soon got excited and even crazy in their search for the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

At the Military Intelligence 3, Pence also opened his eyes wide and said excitedly, "The Colorful Fruit of Essence is ripe! Hurry up, we must find it. If we can pick it and send it to our superiors, it will be a great achievement!"

Thorn breathed rapidly as well and said excitedly, "Yes, that's right. Let's go find it! This time, our Military Intelligence 3 is fully prepared and will definitely get the Colorful Fruit of Essence!"

Marlin and Silas were also thrilled as if they had taken stimulants. They stopped talking nonsense and began to look for the Colorful Fruit of Essence.

The same thing also happened in Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2.

Will widened his eyes and said both seriously and excitedly, "The Colorful Fruit of Essence is ripe. It's on Lion Mountain. We must find it ahead of others!"

Redford also said to a group of Military Intelligence 2 agents, "Get moving! The Colorful Fruit of Essence has already appeared. We must complete this task, okay? The first one to find it will be awarded and get promoted, understand?"

"Yes, instructor!"

After Redford waved his hand, all the Military Intelligence 2 agents dispersed to look for the fruit.

On Ryuki Miyazaki's side, a group of experts from Red Sun State gathered, and all of them looked excited and serious.

"Everyone, the Colorful Fruit of Essence must belong to our Red Sun State! Once we take it back and give it to the honorable King of Heaven, he can successfully reach the legendary Immortal Realm. At that time, our Red Sun State will definitely go to glory under the guidance of the King of Heaven! This is the only chance. We can't miss it! Everyone, am I clear?"

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

"Okay, go find the Colorful Fruit of Essence!"

Ryuki Miyazaki watched his men leave one by one. He clenched his fists and a strong light burst out in his eyes. This time, he was determined to get the Colorful Fruit of Essence. Once he got it, the Red Sun State would emerge as a great power, and H Country would be no match by then!

With a whoosh, he started to make a move.

There were also other forces, and now they had begun a carpet search. They all felt that they were the chosen ones and that they would be the first to find the fruit.

At the top of the snow-capped mountain, Fausto glanced across the Lion Mountain, his eyes like lightning. No one could escape wherever he was hidden.

Sunny was also searching, but her mental strength was not as strong as Fausto's. Her strength could only cover one-third of Lion Mountain.

At this moment, Fausto's expression suddenly changed and he cursed in a deep voice, "Damn it! The Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit has been picked!"

When Sunny heard this, her expression changed and she blurted out, "Who is it?!"

Chapter 573

Fausto's eyes were extremely piercing, and a sharp light flashed in his eyes. His view covered the whole Lion Mountain, trying to find the thief who had stolen Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

However, he searched the side again and still couldn't find it, which made his face look extremely terrible.

This time, he promised the Saint King that he would get the Colorful Fruit of Essence, and now he was beaten by somebody. How could he bear it?

He was one of the most powerful persons in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, and he was only one step away from Immortal Realm. If he really didn't get Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, where would he put his face in the future?

So he would never allow it!

He did not answer Sunny, but Sunny was not stupid. Seeing him like this, she knew that he did not find out who picked Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

Suddenly, an idea popped up in Sunny's heart. "Could it be Tom who picked Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit?!"

As soon as this idea appeared, she killed it. She felt that this possibility was too small. There were no less than 40 masters of Innate Realm gathered in Lion Mountain, which could be called master-hands get-together. Every one was prepared, so how could Tom beat others?

On Tom's side, he successfully picked the Colorful Fruit of Essence, and a smile of great joy and relief appeared on his face.

"Phoebe, you can be saved." Tom smiled brightly, like a child.

At this moment, the flowers wrapped Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit began to wither. Slowly, only Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit in the middle was left. It really emitted a colorful dazzling light as if it was not as simple as a fruit, but a life with soul and thought!

Tom had never seen such a magical food before. Looking at this Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, he had to sigh with the wonder of nature and the craftsmanship on the earth.

As Sunny said, the world did change and became different slowly.

That's why such a magical fruit was born, which could increase the origin of human life, and could be called an elixir of life.

This Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was as big as an adult's fist. It continuously emitted strong fragrance. Smelling it, people was full of energy. It had endless wonderful uses.

Holding it, Tom could clearly feel the rich original vitality inside. If Phoebe ate it, she would definitely be able to be reborn, fill up the deficiency in her physique, and also break through to the Innate Realm in one fell swoop, which could directly increase her life span for decades!

If he swallowed it himself, the strong original vitality would definitely be able to break through to the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. It was possible directly achieve the level of Immortal Realm!

The temptation was so great that even he could not help but have a thought of swallowing it in an instant.

But in an instant, this thought faded away. This was Phoebe's only hope.

Naturally, he couldn't swallow it!

However, as he was about to put Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit into his pocket and go home, suddenly, in front of him on the right, a person appeared and saw the fruit in his hand. He was stunned for a second. Then, he shouted out loudly, "It's you who picked the Colorful Fruit of Essence!!"

The voice was extremely loud, like a thunderbolt. It spread across half of Lion Mountain, and many eyes looked over!

Suddenly, Tom's heart thumped and he realized that it was not good. Without saying anything, he turned around and ran away.

Oh no, he was found out. It wouldn't be so easy for him to leave Lion Mountain now!

Fortunately, he was already at the top of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and he was absolutely invincible under the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. In Lion Mountain, only Fausto was the top one in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, and as long as he didn't meet Fausto, he still had the chance to run.

However, as he thought about it, he immediately felt a sharp eye, from far and far away, projected on him, with huge killing mood, which made him feel a sharp pain in the brain in an instant.

He hurriedly turned around and saw the strong figure standing there on the top of the snow-capped mountain, like a god, warning him. It was Fausto!

Suddenly, Tom's mood sank. In the end, he was discovered by Fausto, and Fausto also locked him, so it was difficult for him to leave.

At this moment, Tom was not flustered. Instead, he calmed down and his mind was running fast!

In this situation, he couldn't be panic. He had to calm down and face it calmly.

If it was others, Tom would still be able to escape unscathed, but now that Fausto had his eyes on him, it would be difficult for him to leave. Even if he could walk, there was not much chance of winning. Once he was stopped by Fausto, with his current cultivation, he could not defeat him.

Taking a deep breath, he took out the phone and began to call the Chou, "Hey, Chou, take my wife Phoebe to the foot of Seven Mountains... You don't have to ask the reason. Do it. Bring her here as soon as possible."

After making this call, Tom smiled. He was relieved. With Chou's ability, he believed that he could bring Phoebe here in a short time!

And he only needed to survive this period of time before he met Phoebe and let Phoebe swallow Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit.

Fortunately, Fausto was at the top of the snow-capped mountain, ten kilometers away from him, and he would not be able to catch up with him for a while.

After doing these things, Tom had no other thoughts. He only had one idea. To escape, he must protect Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit well!

He believed he could do it.

He ran. Soon, in front of him, two tall, blond foreigners appeared. They were both pointing guns at Tom with burning eyes.

In poor mandarin, he said, "The person of H Country, give us the Tears of the Earth. We won't kill you."

These two foreigners were at the level of the first stage of the Innate Realm, which was known as the "S" level, with pistols in their hands. If they were elsewhere, they were quite powerful.

But it was Tom, for him they were no different from children holding pistols.

There was a sneer on Tom's face. Without any nonsense, he rushed straight at them like a fierce tiger, pouncing on two weak lambs!

"Court death!"

"I think you're tired of living!"

The two foreigners were furious and began to shoot at Tom. They were masters of Innate Realm. Both their reaction and strength were far superior to ordinary people. The pistols in their hands were like a tiger adding wings. Not only did they shoot quickly, but they also had little recoil force.

They fired six shots in a row and sealed off Tom.

They did not panic at all, and a sneer appeared on their faces, thinking that Tom was asking to die and that Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was theirs.

Chapter 574

But then, the smile on their faces froze!

Because they felt that Tom's overwhelming momentum was too strong. In their spiritual world, it was as if they had seen a tsunami raging, Mount Tai pressing down, trying to engulf and kill them all!

They did shoot six times, and their shooting skills were superb. They stopped all of Tom's moves. No matter which direction Tom dodged, he would be shot. Once he was shot, he would die.

However, the next scene completely reversed their minds.

Because Tom did something they did not expect at all. In an absolutely strange position, he dodged the six bullets they shot, and his speed had not decreased. By the time they wanted to shoot again, Tom was in front of them.

"OMG!"

"Why is he so fast?!"

They realized that things went worse, which made their hair stand on end. They were about to fight back. Unfortunately, they underestimated Tom too much. Perhaps, they didn't know who they were facing at all.

Before they could react, Tom slapped them on their foreheads...

"Bang, bang!" Suddenly, their bodies froze, their pupils dilated, and their eyes were filled with horror and pain. The next moment, their eyes began to appear bloodshot and blood flowed from their eyes, ears, nostrils and mouths. Then they fell down backward and died.

When they fell, Tom was already a hundred meters away, and his speed was extremely fast.

"Kill a man in ten steps, leave no trace in a thousand miles.

With the flickering sleeve, deep to hide the name."

At this moment, the poem "Ode to Gallantry" was fully demonstrated by Tom.

At the same time, a few foreigners in other places saw this scene and their faces showed shock and fear. They did not expect that Tom's strength was so strong that two S-Level masters with guns in their hands had no ability to resist and were killed by Tom!

"Why is this man of H Country so powerful that even S-Level masters can't stop him?"

"He must be a 4S-Level fighter. It's too scary!"

"Hmph, so what if he is a 4S-Level strong man? He is now carrying the Tears of Earth. He will definitely be hanged by other strong men. He must die!"

"That's true. There are too many strong people in Lion Mountain."

"We have to tell Mr. Zeus immediately. He is also a 4S-Level fighter, who can be called superman. If he goes into action, we can definitely snatch the Tears of Earth over!"

A few foreigners began to spread the news to Mr. Zeus.

Soon, Zeus received their message, and a bloodthirsty smile appeared on his face. He looked in the direction of Tom's rapid gallop. "4S-Level man from H Country, you are mine."

As soon as he finished speaking, he disappeared from his original position.

When he appeared again, he was already more than ten meters away, and his speed was extremely fast. He was rushing towards Tom.

Tom found him immediately, but he did not dodge or avoid him. Instead, he rushed straight at Zeus face to face, not afraid of Zeus at all.

He looked indifferent and he did not take Zeus seriously. Zeus felt his disdain and was furious. "Arrogant man, you are looking for death!"

Zeus was extremely tall, almost two meters tall, and his body were very strong, probably more than 300 catties, like a brown bear, so the visual impact he brought was extremely huge!

Tom was twice smaller than him. Their bodies were not at the same level at all.

A lot of people noticed them and saw this scene, especially many foreigners, who were very excited. They thought that Mr. Zeus would definitely kill this man from H Country and then snatch the Tears of Earth over!

On the ground of H Country, it was a proud thing to grab the Tears of Earth from so many powerful people and successfully left. At that time, the man from H Country would lose face!

From the bottom of their hearts, they looked down on the people of H Country, thinking that they were born weak, and they were no match for the noble white people like them.

Tom and Zeus were both moving too fast. The distance of about a kilometer was rapidly shortened. In just ten seconds, they met each other.

In the eyes of everyone, this was a complete confrontation between the two top fighters, like Mars hitting earth.

Zeus clenched his fists. He could move about ten meters in one step. It was very scary. When he rushed in front of Tom, he punched Tom on the head hard!

With the inertia of his galloping over so far, the strength of this punch was extremely huge, so even a piece of iron plate would be pierced by him!

Tom didn't dodge the punch, but his lips rose slightly. With a meaningful smile, he made a shocking move.

He didn't dodge at all but began to box with Zeus!

"This is a madman! How dare he box with Mr. Zeus?! Doesn't he know that Mr. Zeus is famous for his heavy fists?"

"This is not a madman, but a fool! This man must die. Does he think he is invincible as a 4S-Level fighter?"

"Just wait, this arrogant man will be punished!"

Before they could finish their discussion, Tom already began to box with Zeus. There was no dodge, no fuss, just a hard fight between real men.

The smile on Zeus's face froze in an instant. He was in a tight grip, and he had imagined the scene of this man being punched away by him and his arm dislocating.

However, at the moment of the collision, he felt an overbearing force, sweeping towards his fists, as if he had not hit a person, but a high-speed train! It was not the strength he could bear at all, which made him scream and stagger back. "It's impossible?!"

He couldn't help but scream.

The man from H Country in front of him, boxing with him, actually had no expression of pain. His body only trembled slightly and he did not retreat at all. In less than half a second, he continued to attack Zeus.

How could this be?

This man was a head shorter than him, and he was not of the same size as Zeus. How could he beat Zeus back with one punch?!

He couldn't believe it was true.

Of course, Tom was not completely safe and sound. After boxing with Zeus, he felt pain, but that was all. His actions were not affected at all and he could completely crush Zeus!

Not far away, Redford, who had rushed over, saw this scene. His pupils suddenly shrank and he cursed, "Shit, that's exactly my feeling! Tom is too strong. He can't be a human!"

He was the only one present who had fought with Tom besides Zeus, so he knew this feeling very well.

Tom did not stop at all. Almost in the blink of an eye, he came close to Zeus again. This time, he did not choose to box with Zeus. Instead, he wanted to crush Zeus by his superb martial skill.

Zeus was indeed a master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. He was very strong, surpassing Redford and Pence at the same level. But because of this, his martial skill was too rough. He was not on the same level as Tom at all and was completely crushed by Tom.

He roared, unable to accept that this was true. When he saw the murderous intent in Tom's eyes, he began to fear.

The man in front of him wanted to beat him to death!!!

Chapter 575

This was not the first time Zeus had dealt with people from the H Country. In fact, many people from H Country were killed by him. His impression of people from H Country was that they were easily bullied because of their poor health and weak character.

He thought that all the people from H Country were like this and that he could easily defeat Tom. But now, Tom's strength was against all his expectations, which made him feel frightened.

At that moment, he had the idea of running away.

"This is a lunatic!" He couldn't help but think this way.

Zeus tried to fight back, but it didn't work. Not only was Tom stronger than him, but his skills were much better than his. If he didn't run, he would definitely be killed by Tom.

As soon as he thought about it, he no longer hesitated and turned to run.

But Tom knew exactly what he was thinking and would absolutely not let him go. What's more, when he ran away, he turned his back to Tom, which was even more suicidal!

"You want to run? It's too late!" Tom sneered. He stepped out and dashed along. In the blink of an eye, he caught up with Zeus. He slapped him with great power. Zeus did not turn around but could clearly feel how powerful it was. His was totally freaked out, and all his muscles tensed. As he got close to death, he completely panicked.

"Master, I was wrong. Please don't kill me..."

He begged for mercy, but Tom ignored him and, instead, hit him directly on his back with the palm of the hand. With a loud bang, Zeus, though burly, suddenly flew out and spat out a large mouthful of blood in the air!

By the time he fell down, he had been seriously injured. His clothes were all smashed on his back. There was a palm print there and blood oozed from the edge of it, which showed how heavy Tom's slap was.

Zeus fell to the ground. He looked extremely pained, frightened and regretful. Why did he provoke this man from the H Country?

His body was very strong, and even bullets couldn't kill him. However, Tom's slap had displaced his internal organs. He would feel intense pain if he moved a little.

Zeus turned around and saw Tom walking towards him with a cold face and an indifferent look in his eyes. Zeus completely lost his dignity as a strong master and began to beg for mercy, "Master, I don't want to die. Please don't kill me, please..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Tom stepped on his neck and killed him. Zeus couldn't believe until his death that he, a 4S master, would be killed by a man from the H Country.

"Hoo... Ha!"

Tom killed Zeus. In total, it took him less than half a minute. It looked like Tom defeated Zeus effortlessly, but actually he did spend some of his energies.

Fortunately, he was physically strong enough. After a deep breath, he almost recovered. Instead of hurrying, he glanced at the people around him and warned them.

He told them with his eyes that whoever wanted to stop him must die.

He would not have any mercy!

After being warned by him, the people around him immediately did not dare to act rashly, not because they were timid, but because Tom's strength was too terrifying. They would surely die if they confronted him because of their limited strength.

Tom snorted coldly. After he seized the chance to regain his total strength, he sensed a few powerful people behind him. Therefore, he no longer stayed there and continued to run.

"Damn it, the Colorful Fruit of Essence!
That guy named Tom got it first!"

Not far away, Will found Tom, and his face immediately darkened. Tom was a member of the Military Intelligence 3, which would thus be credited with completing the mission! But in fact, it was the Military Intelligence 1 and Division Two that were mainly responsible for the mission, and the Military Intelligence 3 should only play a supporting role. If someone of the Military Intelligence 3 snatched the Colorful Fruit of Essence, it would be a shame for the other two divisions.

They could not let this happen!

Redford also noticed that. He frowned, with anger in his eyes. "Damn Tom, damn the Military Intelligence 3! Why the hell was him so lucky to find the Colorful Fruit of Essence ahead of others, fuck!"

Shaw said insidiously, "We can't let the Military Intelligence 3 get this credit. Let's go together and take the Colorful Fruit of Essence! This credit must be ours."

They looked at each other without hesitation and rushed towards Tom together.

At the same time, people from the Military Intelligence 3 were overjoyed to find that Tom had picked the Colorful Fruit of Essence.

Pence clapped his hands and said, "That's great! Tom is excellent. He was the first to pick the Colorful Fruit of Essence! This time, our division has made a great achievement!"

Thorn also widened his eyes. He was extremely excited and joyed, and said, "Ha ha ha, yes, Tom is so great. This time, he's made us in the Military Intelligence 3 proud!"

Marlin and Silas were also extremely excited.

"Let's go. Let's gather with Tom. We can't let Tom fight alone!" Marlin said with a red face.

The others nodded and began to chase after Tom.

Ryuki Miyazaki looked at how Tom was moving fast in the snow. His eyes were filled with anger and hatred. "Damn those people from H Country. He should find the Colorful Fruit of Essence in advance! Damn it! Damn it!"

Then he smiled evilly. "You were the first to find it? So what? This Colorful Fruit of Essence is both precious and ominous. Now everyone on this snowy mountain wants to kill you."

He touched the long sword around his waist when a cold, murderous look flashed in his eyes. After a night's rest, he had recovered a lot. Yesterday, he was defeated by Tom because Tom attacked him sneakily and he was unarmed. If he was prepared and got his sword with him, Tom would not be his match!

He was not in a hurry now. He would wait until Tom was exhausted by other masters and then he would stab and kill Tom to clear his name.

The wind was blowing.

Now, the sky had changed again. The clouds were moving rapidly, and strong winds began to blow over Lion Mountain.

Meanwhile, other masters in the Innate Realm came to surround Tom and ask him to hand over the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, but they were all beaten up by Tom.

Now part of Tom's attention was on Fausto. He was more afraid of Fausto than of anyone else over Lion Mountain.

Fortunately, Fausto was still some distance away from him, and he still had a chance to escape.

Not long after, two people appeared in front of him and looked at him with a smile. "What a hero. Tom, you've reached such a stage at such a young age. You've also picked the Colorful Fruit of Essence and made a great achievement. Now, give us the Colorful Fruit of Essence, and you will be safe."

These two people were Will and Carl. They looked nice as if they were thinking for Tom.

Chapter 576

But who was Tom? How could he be fooled by them?

"I won't bother you. I'll take care of Colorful Fruit of Essence myself." Tom said calmly and he continued to run forward.

Will and Carl raised their eyebrows angrily and embarrassedly. They stopped Tom and directly said. "Tom, we're doing this for your own good, so you'd better hand over the Colorful Fruit of Essence to us!"

"Tom, we must take Colorful Fruit of Essence back. We can't let anything go wrong. You'd better let us keep it!"

They said that with a serious face. They seemed to be righteous and really want to protect the Colorful Fruit of Essence.

Tom sneered, "Come on, stop being hypocritical. You just want to take credit for yourself. Don't you feel ashamed?"

Hearing that, their faces immediately darkened, and their attitudes became much worse. They no longer pretended to be kind and yelled at him, "Tom! We're polite to you since you're the instructor of Military Intelligence 3, but how dare you be so arrogant?"

"Tom, I'm warning you, don't be shameless! The Military Intelligence 1 is the main force in this mission. The Military Intelligence 3 is supposed to assist us! Now I order you to hand over it, or don't blame us for being rude!"

They no longer pretended to be polite but decided to snatch Colorful Fruit of Essence.

There was no denying that the pressure they brought was quite terrifying and other masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm would be intimidated by them.

Tom didn't take them seriously at all.

Tom sneered, "Stupid."

They were even more enraged. How dared Tom insult them? He had gone too far!

"You're dead meat!!" They roared at the same time and attacked Tom.

Both of them were top experts in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and they had been reached this realm for several years. Now that they attacked Tom together, the threat they posed was even greater.

In an instant, Tom felt great pressure, which made him breathe a lot faster. It was as if two high mountains were pressing upon his shoulders, making his movements much slower.

However, Tom was not intimidated at all. Instead, he became excited, and his fighting spirit was surging. All his cells were highly active and he roared, "Hahaha, amazing!"

Facing their attack, he did not retreat, but strode forward and launched a counterattack.

In the distance, Pence and Thorn, who were rushing over, were furious when they saw this. "Damn it! Those bastards want to snatch the Colorful Fruit of Essence!"

"They have gone too much!"

"They are committing a crime. How dare they attack us!"

"Stop!!"

At that moment, Tom had already fought against Will and Carl.

He was alone, but he didn't lose at all.

He could resist their attack and counterattack.

Even though they were in the snow-covered mountains, their battle still caused great damage.

Bang bang...

All the food, stones, and trees that they touched were destroyed. It seemed that there were many strong bombs constantly exploding, and the thick snow was blown away by the wind of their fists and legs. The scene was very scary.

"How powerful he is!"

The exclamation occurred to Will and Carl, and they were frightened by Tom's dominating strength.

Tom was clearly on the same level as them, but his strength was far superior to them!

Not only could they not defeat Tom by attacking him together, but they were also at a disadvantage. How terrifying he was!

Pence and the others who were rushing over were also surprised.

"Tom is so powerful that even Will and Carl can't defeat him?!"

"Yes, Tom is so young but he has such cultivation. Incredible!"

"I think Tom is scarier than before."

"Well, we're all going to help Tom."

They ran as fast as they could towards Tom.

Not only them, but all the masters in Lion Mountain were rushing towards Tom at full speed.

On the other side, there was a man running very fast. Behind him was a red figure. They were Fausto and Sunny.

"The son of the previous Saintess is amazing. He can resist their attack alone though the three of them's cultivation is at the same level." Fausto said meaningfully as he ran.

Sunny tried her best to catch up with Fausto. She bit her lip. She was also surprised by Tom's cultivation. A few months ago, Tom was only in the third stage of the Innate Realm. After dual cultivation with her, he barely reached the fourth stage. But now, Tom was already at the peak of the fourth stage, and even she couldn't defeat him.

The improvement of his cultivation was faster than anyone she had known.

"He is indeed a miracle." Sunny could only say that.

Fausto glanced at her and said meaningfully, "You have a good relationship with him."

Then Fausto added, "I heard you are the girl with extreme Yin power, and practicing dual cultivation can bring great benefits..."

His words suddenly stopped, and she immediately understood what he meant.

Sunny became flustered. This was her biggest secret. Did Chou tell others about it?!

No, Chou should not dare to do that, nor could he get in touch with such a big shot as Fausto. That should be Fausto's guess.

Thinking of that, Sunny snorted, "Master Fausto, I don't understand what you're talking about."

Doubt appeared in his eyes. Was he wrong?

At this moment, the battle between Tom and Will, Carl had reached a highlight.

Will and Carl had been overwhelmed by Tom. Carl, in particular, was almost unable to breathe since his cultivation was lower than that of Will

They couldn't believe what was happening was true, but the truth was in front of them, and they had to face the reality. They were extremely shocked.

Seeing that Pence and the others were getting closer and closer, Tom hesitated. Instead of beating them to death, he just forced them back and ran away again.

He slapped Will and Carl respectively, forcing them to stagger back. They spat out a mouthful of blood.

Tom did not chase after them. Instead, he stopped and stared at them coldly, "For the sake of your credit for the country, I will spare your lives. If you dare to provoke me again, you can't bear the consequences!"

After saying this, he already retreated to tens of meters away.

Will and Carl's faces were very gloomy, and they were shocked and scared by Tom's strength. They looked at each other and couldn't help exclaiming "Monster.."

Chapter 577

"Hello, how long will it take us to get to Seven Mountains?"

Phoebe asked weakly in the back of a speeding car that was driving on the freeway.

Her body was weaker than yesterday, her hair was much whiter, and her face was very pale. It was very difficult for her to say a complete sentence, and her breathing became much faster.

Ten minutes ago, the man in front of her found her in the hospital and took her away with absolute toughness.

Even the hospital did not dare to interfere. At first, she was very repulsed. But later, the man said something which calmed her down.

"Miss Scott, don't worry. I'm Mr. Howard's man. It was him who asked me to take you away." The man said so and played a recording of Tom's phone call to him.

Phoebe thought for a moment and agreed. She was already like this. No one should be interested in her except for Tom.

The person who took her away was Chou. After receiving Tom's call, Chou did not delay at all. He immediately put down his work and came to pick up Phoebe to go to Seven Mountains. "We'll get Seven Mountains soon, madam."

Phoebe nodded and asked, "What is Tom doing? Why did he let me go to Seven Mountains?"

Chou shook his head and said, "Young madam, Young Master didn't elaborate. He just asked me to take you to Seven Mountains. I believe Young Master is already waiting there."

"Okay." Phoebe responded and looked out the window. For some reason, she suddenly had a bad feeling in her heart. Her right eyelid kept fluttering and she muttered to herself, "Tom, what on earth are you doing?"

Phoebe was not a fool. After Tom found out that she had this disease, he chose to train himself in seclusion for 11 days. Now that she was brought to Seven Mountains, she felt something was wrong.

Seven Mountains was a mountain not far from Lion Mountain, and to go from Lion Mountain to Seven Mountains, one had to go through a deep cutting. It was even impossible for a master in the Innate Realm to cross the cutting without auxiliary equipment.

Tom was ready to cross the cutting with the help of auxiliary equipment.

In this way, he could buy time to successfully give Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit to Phoebe and have her swallowed it!

Now Tom was running in the direction of Seven Mountains. He calculated the time and it was almost time Chou should have brought Phoebe to Seven Mountains. He had to be faster, faster!

However, he was not stupid enough to walk in a straight line. Instead, he began to zigzag, in order to not letting the people behind him find out that he was going to Seven Mountains.

All the masters in Lion Mountain began to move close to him. Along the way, he couldn't even remember how many masters he had killed. There were top masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, those in the first stage of the Innate Realm, and even Extrinsic Peak masters killed by him.

Only masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm could block his way for a while. The others would be killed by him in only about three seconds.

This kind of physical exertion was considerable. Even with Tom's unusual physique, he was a little unbearable now. His body was sweating a lot and his breathing was much faster.

No matter how strong he was, he was still human and he had his limit.

But even so, the strength and tenacity he showed had shocked countless people. Even Fausto was treating him more and more seriously.

"The son of the Saintess is so energetic. That's great. That's great" Fausto sighed. He didn't slow down at all as he said so. He moved more than 20 meters in one step, which was very scary.

Sunny's eyes were also full of shock. Tom really surprised her. She never thought that Tom had become so powerful.

However, no matter how strong he was, he was still in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. In front of a master like Fausto, he still looked weak, and the chance for him to win was still little.

"It's not bad if such a talented person would be willing to join our organization." Fausto added.

Sunny did not say anything because she knew that according to Tom's character, it was almost impossible.

Pence and others from the Military Intelligence 3 were once again shocked by Tom.

Thorn was just a master in the second stage of the Innate Realm. His speed could no longer compete with that of Pence or Marlin. He stared at Tom from afar and was very excited. He believed that Military Intelligence 3 would definitely go back to glory under Tom's leadership!

He was getting closer and closer...

The deep cutting between Lion Mountain and Seven Mountains which was a few hundred meters wide appeared in Tom's sight and his mood lifted because of that.

Suddenly, in the snow in front of him, a few figures appeared out of nowhere. They attacked him with a samurai sword in their hands. They were the warriors of the Red Sun State.

Facing their siege, Tom raised the corner of his mouth with disdain. "You are like ants trying to shake a tree. You are overextending yourselves!"

He was unarmed but fearless. Even if he had exhausted nearly half of his strength, he was still not someone these Red Sun State warriors could beat!

In less than ten seconds, he ended the battle.

Among the five Red Sun State warriors, there were two masters in the third stage of the Innate Realm, and three in the second stage. With just one slap, Tom killed them all while they were still holding their samurai sword in their hands.

However, it wasn't that he didn't pay any price. He was stabbed twice. Fortunately, it wasn't a fatal injury, but his blood flowed out and dyed his clothes red.

His reaction was quick. He immediately pressed the acupoint, sealed it, and stopped the blood from flowing out.

Although he had killed five Red Sun State warriors in less than ten seconds, he also looked like he was in a state of devastation. He was in worse condition now, breathing faster, sweating more, and even his movements were much slower.

The rest of them were surprised to see this.

"He's exhausted too much. He's dying!"

"This is our chance. Hurry up and take his Colorful Fruit of Essence now!"

Pence and some others sped up and stopped Tom.

"Tom, that's great. You actually snatched the Colorful Fruit of Essence! This time, our Military Intelligence 3 has done a great job. Tom, you get us a great credit!" Marlin said excitedly.

Silas also opened his eyes wide, looked at Tom with great excitement and admiration, and said, "Yes, Tom, you really make us in the Military Intelligence 3 proud. You even killed five Red Sun State bastards, hahaha!"

Pence also smiled and said, "Tom, don't worry. Now that we've gathered with you, with us protecting you, you won't have to work so hard. Haha."

Silas said, "Tom, you're injured now. Why don't you hand over the Colorful Fruit of Essence to us first? Don't worry, we won't take your credit!"

"Yes, Tom. If you hand over the Colorful Fruit of Essence to us, no one else will do anything to you." As Pence spoke, he began to reach out to Tom.

Tom looked at them with a complicated expression. He took a deep breath and said, "Director Pence, Marlin, Silas, I'm sorry. I may have disappointed you. This Colorful Fruit of Essence is of great significance to me."

Hearing Tom's words, they were stunned.

At this moment, Tom bypassed them, and his speed was much faster than before!

After a while, he rushed to the deep cutting.

Pence came to his senses and saw that Tom was about to jump down the cutting. He shouted loudly, "Tom! You will die if you jump down!"

However, as soon as his words fell, Tom jumped down into the cutting with his arms spread out. After a while, two wings grew on the back of him and he began to fly.

Chapter 578

Tom came here well-prepared this time. He was wearing a high-tech coat. Upon zipping it slightly, he had two wings made of composite materials on his back, which helped him leap far and successfully land on Seven Mountains!

And his movement made everyone who had been chasing after him all the way from Lion Mountain's widen their eyes.

"No! He's running away!"

"Damn it! He ran away!"

"I hate him..."

Many people stood on the cliff of Lion Mountain, watching Tom fly to Seven Mountains and escape. They gritted their teeth and stamped their feet in anger, but there was nothing they could do.

This time, they had prepared everything except the flying suits that could help them leap as far as he did.

The expressions on Pence's and the others' faces also changed. "This is troublesome! Tom is...going to be taken to the military court!"

Marlin also looked anxious and confused. "Why did Tom do this? He's already powerful in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Is it worthwhile for him to betray his country for the Colorful Fruit of Essence?"

Silas's eyes were burning, fixed at Tom who was flying. He had little contact with Tom and did not know Tom very well. He said in a low voice, "Tom is still too young to resist the temptation. He thought that if he took the Colorful Fruit of Essence, he could successfully break through to Immortal Realm. However, it was just a scam..."

When he said the last sentence, his voice became much lower, and Pence and Marlin did not hear it.

At the same time, Fausto finally arrived.

As soon as he appeared, he immediately brought great pressure to the people around him. Some people with lower cultivation could not bear his anger and knelt down.

Fausto was the only one in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm here, and his aura was the strongest. Even Pence would feel great pressure in front of him, not daring to do anything rash.

"Tom! Howard!" He stared at Tom, who had already flown to the Seven Mountains. He gave a murderous look that was as cold as ice and as sharp as a knife.

Sunny also felt it. She looked at Tom opposite her and frowned. She was worried and angry. She had never expected that Tom would have the guts to take the Fruit!

Besides, Tom dared to do it when Fausto was here. He was killing himself!

Sunny knew very well how powerful Fausto was. Now that Fausto wanted to kill Tom, Tom couldn't run away.

"Master, I think Tom did this in a moment of madness, otherwise he wouldn't have dared to take the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. I hope you can let him live. After all, he was the only son of the previous Saintess." Sunny bit her lips and said in a pleading tone.

However, Fausto just glanced at her coldly, snorted, and said, "It depends on what he would do!"

Sunny understood what Fausto meant. If Tom didn't eat the fruit, then there was a chance for him. But if Tom did take it, then he must die.

Tom was very strong, and his speed of cultivation was miraculous. However, Sunny never thought that Tom could escape from Fausto.

Now she could only pray that Tom would not do anything wrong that would make him die.

A weird smile appeared on Redford's face. "Tom, you should dare to take the Colorful Fruit of Essence. Now you're doomed. No one can save you in the world!"

Tom successfully landed on Seven

Mountains. He finally looked back at everyone on Lion Mountain from afar.

He saw everyone's expressions. Most people were furious and hated him to the bone. Some felt sorry for him. At this moment, he had mixed feelings.

How could he not know what would happen if he secretly took the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit? They would not stop chasing after him until he died.

But he didn't care, because he had no choice. He had made this decision and he didn't regret it.

Now a heartfelt smile appeared on his face. It was an expression of relief. Finally, Phoebe could be saved.

He no longer looked back but plunged into the forest of Seven Mountains.

At the foot of the mountain, a black car was parked. Chou was smoking outside the car. He had brought Phoebe here and waited for two minutes, but he still didn't see Tom.

Just as he was thinking about whether to call Tom or not, suddenly, he heard something coming from behind. He quickly looked back and saw someone rushing down the mountain at a very fast speed.

It must be Tom.

Chou was stunned because Tom was in such a mess. His clothes were not only shabby but also stained with so much blood. His face was covered by dirt and sweat. It was obvious that he had been through a fierce battle and was badly injured.

"Young Master?!"

Chou quickly put out the cigarette and went to Tom.

Tom was relieved to see Chou here. Fortunately, Chou arrived in time, and he didn't have to wait. Otherwise, he might have already died before Phoebe arrived.

"Is my wife here too?" Tom came straight to the point and asked.

Chou nodded and said, "Young Madam is in the car."

Tom saw Phoebe in the car. His immediately felt relieved. He patted Chou on the shoulder and said, "Chou, thank you!"

Chou was flattered by his gratitude and said quickly, "Young Master, it's my honor. This is what I should do."

"OK." Tom nodded. He opened the door and got in the car.

Phoebe also noticed Tom just now. She was surprised to see Tom get in the car, but when she saw Tom's messy look and bruises, her expression changed immediately.

"Tom, why are you hurt?!" Phoebe's heart ached. Tom had two deep knife wounds, which must be very painful. Her eyes immediately turned red.

As she got emotional, she began to tremble violently with a pained look.

Tom quickly held her up and said, "Phoebe, don't get emotional. I'm fine. The injuries are not serious at all."

"Tom, don't lie to me. You've been hurt so badly. Your blood is all over your clothes..." Phoebe cried sadly. She was so weak that she couldn't even cry. It seemed as if she were suffering from dehydration.

"You silly girl, why are you crying? These are other people's blood. I'm fine." Tom held her face. She was no longer young and beautiful, but there was no dislike in his eyes, but only affection.

"Tom, promise me not to do anything dangerous in the future, okay?" Phoebe seemed to have used all her strength to hold Tom's hand. "I'm dying, Tom. Promise me that after I die, you must forget me and live a new and happy life..."

Chapter 580

"Young master, did you snatch Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit?!"

Chou opened the car door and looked at Tom in shock.

Tom frowned slightly, dissatisfied with his behavior. Every second spent with Phoebe was extremely precious now, but the atmosphere was ruined by him.

Tom just nodded calmly, acknowledging it, and then said, "Get out and close the door."

He and Phoebe only had less than a minute. He didn't want Chou to waste this precious time.

But Chou did not listen to him and he said excitedly, "Young master! The Saint King wants Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit so he sent Master Fausto and Master Sunny here. But you have snatched it, so Master Fausto will never let you go!"

Tom's face was still very calm. He said, "Have you finished? Then get out and shut the door."

Phoebe realized something was wrong and asked anxiously, "Wait! Tom, the fruit you just gave me was snatched from others?"

Tom shook his head and said, "No, I picked it myself. It doesn't belong to anyone."

"But this man just said..."

"That's nonsense. Don't take his words seriously."

Chou added, "Young master, how can you snatch Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit? That's not allowed! Both Saint King and the official of H Country want the fruit. If you don't hand over it, you can't bear the consequences!"

"What?!" Phoebe's eyes widened in shock when she heard this. She grabbed Tom's hand and asked nervously, "Tom, what's going on? Why didn't you tell me about it?"

Tom was annoyed. He glared at Chou fiercely and then comforted Phoebe, "Don't listen to his nonsense. It's not a big deal at all. Phoebe, you don't have to worry. I'll be fine."

But Chou said anxiously, "Young master! I'm not joking. Master Sunny has called me and said that this matter is very serious. If you don't hand it over, Master Fausto will kill you to vent his anger! And now all forces are hunting for you! Young master, I think you'd better hand it over, or you're doomed!"

When Phoebe heard this, her face turned pale and she was stunned. She did not expect this to happen.

"Enough! Shut up!" Tom was completely enraged. He glared at Chou angrily. His plan was disrupted by him!

He was very sad to see Phoebe in such a state of panic and guilt. He held Phoebe's face in his palms and said to her seriously, "Phoebe, trust me. I'll be fine. Don't feel guilty. This is my decision and my responsibility. I won't let anything happen to you. Well, it's getting late. You should go back to the hospital first. I'll see you later."

Then, Tom said to Chou, "Send my wife back to the hospital. And, you can't say a word about what happened today! You can't say anything, understand?"

Chou was so smart that he could tell that Tom had been made up his mind to sacrifice himself. Chou bit his lips tightly. He didn't obey Tom's words. Instead, he said, "Young master! How can you do that? Don't you know that you're the only son of madam? Don't you know that madam has sacrificed herself for you? Do you deserve madam's love?"

Chou gritted his teeth, his eyes were red and swollen, and he was very excited.

Tom's eyes reddened when he heard this. He closed his eyes and muttered to himself, "I'm sorry, mom."

It was almost time. Tom came out of the car directly, pressed Chou's shoulder, stared at him, and said seriously, "Chou, I know I have disappointed you. I apologize to you. If I really can't come back, please apologize to my mother. I let her down. But I have to do this. If you still regard me as your young master, please help me this time for the last time!"

"Help me send Phoebe back, help me secretly protect Phoebe for three years, and help me keep this secret. Don't let others know that Phoebe has eaten Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. Even Sunny and my mother can't know that!"

Tom stared straight at Chou and said in a serious and pleading tone. Finally, he bowed to Chou, "Please."

Chou looked at Tom in front of him. Chou's body was trembling violently, and he had very complicated feelings now.

Chou had been working for Anna all his life. It was no exaggeration to say that his life belonged to Anna, and since

Tom was Anna's only child, he had been told to take good care of him by Anna a long time ago. It could be said that protecting Tom was his lifelong mission. He would never fail to fulfill the mission. But now, he was to see Tom fall with his own eyes, and there was nothing he could do. The powerlessness and pain were beyond any words!

He burst into tears. Even when he faced Sean in that desperate situation that day, his expression wasn't changed! But now, he cried. He had forgotten how long it had been since he cried.

"Young master..." His voice choked.

Tom's eyes also reddened. Chou was an important person to him. He had known Chou long ago, and even his martial arts were taught by Chou. In a sense, Chou was like his master, and he was the one who brought him in.

"Chou, I'm sorry." Tom took a deep breath, smiled and said, "Please take care of Phoebe for me from now on. There's not much time left. Don't waste my efforts, okay?"

Chou lowered his head. He didn't have the courage to look at Tom. He nodded in pain and squeezed a word through his teeth, "Okay."

Tom smiled happily and brightly. Then, he turned to Phoebe and said, "Phoebe, you go back with Chou."

Phoebe heard what they had just said. She knew clearly what Tom had done for her, and tears streamed down her face.

"No!" Phoebe was very excited. She hugged Tom hard and shouted, "I don't want you to do this. I won't let you disappear from my side!"

Tom's eyes became redder. He managed to hold back the tears and smiled. He gently stroked Phoebe's hair and said, "Silly girl, I've told you I would be fine. How could I disappear? Go back to the hospital and wait for me, okay?"

Phoebe's face was full of tears and she kept shaking her head. "No! No! No! You're lying! I heard what you just said.

You're being hunted by a lot of people. They're all very powerful You're no their match at all. You're doomed, you'll die. You..."

She couldn't continue. Tears were streaming down her face as she pounded Tom's chest. She was very sad, painful, and angry. "Tom! You selfish guy, why did you do this? You didn't ask my opinion. Why did you do this? The person who will die should be me! How can you die for me? I hate you, I hate you!"

Tom gritted his teeth and remained silent and motionless, just letting Phoebe punching him.

"Phoebe."

He took Phoebe's hand and looked at her affectionately. "Listen to me. Don't tell anyone about today. Don't even tell your parents. Don't tell anyone. You should wait for me for at most a year. If I don't come back a year later, don't wait for me anymore but forget me, okay?"

Phoebe kept crying, and she could not even speak. If it weren't for the fact that she had eaten Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit and the huge source of life constantly replenished her physical strength, she would not be able to stand still now.

But she hated this feeling. It was not what she wanted. Tom his life for this!

At this moment, Tom had already sensed Fausto's breath. He was only a few kilometers away and he would soon be able to catch up with him. He stopped comforting Phoebe but held her face and kissed her hard. Three seconds later, he pressed on Phoebe's acupuncture point and she lost her consciousness immediately.

He gently put Phoebe in the car, fastened her seat belt, and said to Chou, "I'll leave the rest to you. Don't disappoint me!"

Chou knew that no matter what he said, he would not change his mind. He could only look at Tom deeply and said with a low voice, "Young master, you must be fine. I'm waiting for you to come back!"

Tom smiled brightly again and said, "I will."
