

Chapter 836

At such a critical moment, Tom reopened his eyes as if he had foreboded it and then made a weird movement. His feet remained motionless, but his body was in a strange posture. He was like a boneless rubber man and escaped these steel balls.

And his Great Momentum was not destroyed yet. Instead, it was even more surging!

"Oh no, I failed to stop him!"

"The Momentum of this H Country man has become stronger. Once he has formed Momentum, we are definitely not his rivals! We can not wait. Let's do it together!"

At this moment, several Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm, after having brief eye contact, attack Tom together. Even if they broke the rules, they had to stop Tom developing Great Momentum!

The pressure they brought when attacking Tom together was extremely great. Immediately, the expressions of Amos, Pence and Marlin began to change drastically with panic and anger.

"How dare you! How dare you attack Tom privately?!"

Pence roared.

"You are breaking the rules. When the time comes, you will be hunted down by God of War of our H Country. You are looking for death!" General Watson also shouted violently with overbearing authority.

Hearing General Watson's words, they showed some hesitation before making movements.

Obviously, the words "God of War of H Country" still gave them a lot of pressure. If God of War of H Country really took action, they wouldn't be able to leave H Country!

But at this time, a foreigner snorted, "What are you afraid of? H Country has the master God Becoming Level. Is there no master in our Country M?"

Another person also echoed, "Yes, this Kungfu Cup has already stipulated that God Becoming Level is forbidden to take action. If God of War of H Country dares to do so, he will definitely be strangled by master God Becoming Level of our country."

What he said didn't hold water. After all, they broke the rules first in H Country territory. Even if God of War did kill them, it would be H Country taking advantage.

However, they also knew that if Tom successfully developed Great Momentum, they would really not be able to handle it. For them, it was a great threat.

Their eyes met again. After making eye contact, they quickly decided to continue attacking.

They understood that they weren't really trying to kill Tom. It would be enough to destroy Tom's Great Momentum.

So they continued. Within a second, they already presented themselves in front of Pence and Amos...

"How dare you!" ...

"You're bullying us!"

They ignored the roars of Pence, Amos and others. With a cold face, they beat them back as fast as possible and then disturbed Tom.

Although Pence, Amos and others were also masters of Innate Realm, they were still far behind the best Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm.

They couldn't even resist a single move and were directly beaten back.

Fortunately, their opponents showed some mercy. Otherwise, this move would cause them severe injuries.

They also felt the gap between them and the Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm!

"Tom, you can't develop Great Momentum anymore!"

"H Country people don't deserve a powerful person like you!"

"How dare you develop Great Momentum in front of us? You are looking for death!"

The four Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm arrived in front of Tom in almost a second. They attacked Tom together heavily from four directions.

They didn't have to kill Tom. Just hurting him was enough.

And they absolutely didn't believe that Tom could resist the four of them attacking together! This was absolutely impossible.

When so many H Country martial artists saw this, their eyes were splitting and they were filled with righteous indignation. Tom was their hero and their only hope. It was so hateful that he was being framed by a snake now!

Unfortunately, they could do nothing but just watch.

"Tom! You must hold on!"

"Tom, our H Country depends on you!"

They were in a great mood, and at this moment, their momentum had gathered to the extreme.

If each of them was an oil lamp, and the momentum was their burning flame, at this moment, their flame was exuberant to the extreme, burning all their energy out to ignite Tom.

It also made Tom feel a stronger momentum and resonance in an instant.

It let his mind buzz around!

If his spiritual power was originally like a stream flowing slowly, just now he had entered a mysterious realm by mistake. The Great Momentum developed initially was a small river, then it was now directly becoming a big river!

It made his Great Momentum develop successfully ahead of time.

It was a lot to say, but in fact, it was just an instant thing.

Just as these four Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm were about to punch Tom together.

Tom's eyes widened suddenly.

A strong spiritual force emanated from him.

It was like a storm, piercing into the minds of these four Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm like a needle made them feel the pain instantly. The originally fierce attack had halved at this moment, but it also hit Tom collectively.

However, before Tom was hit, he rotated to minimize the damage caused by these four punches.

"No! Tom was ambushed!" Pence's expression changed drastically.

Other martial artists were also worried with their hearts sunk.

Although they had absolute confidence in Tom, believing that Tom was the most powerful one in the entire Kungfu Cup. But Tom still didn't enter the God Becoming Level after all. Now he was attacked by four top experts at the same level and hit at the same time. Even if Tom was in good health, he would definitely be seriously injured!

When other foreign martial artists saw this scene, their reactions were completely different. They began to be excited and happy.

However, before they could be happy for long, Tom was not seriously injured as they thought. He just frowned slightly and then attacked the four Major Perfection Realm giants of the Innate Realm at the same time!

Bang bang...

Four consecutive punches went out from Tom's hand in four directions, but to him, it was like four hands punching from four directions at the same time!

Repulsing these four Major Perfection Realm experts in the Innate Realm simultaneously!

At the same time, Tom's absorption of Great Momentum stopped.

"You ants dare to stop me?"

Tom stood up with his hands behind the back and said faintly. At this moment, he was the only protagonist in the world, overlooking the world's martial artists.

Chapter 837

The Kungfu Cup scene suddenly quieted down. Everyone opened their eyes wide and looked at him in shock.

It was as if at this moment, everything had disappeared, leaving only Tom's tall figure.

Although Tom's height was only 180 cm, in the eyes of everyone, his figure became extremely huge, like a giant, and he could pierce through the sky as long as he raised his head!

This was because Tom's momentum was too strong at this moment. His Invincible Spiritual Momentum had been successfully brewed, and now he had the foundation to reach the God Becoming Level.

It was no exaggeration to say that he was now the strongest at the God Becoming Level, which was admitted by everyone!

In particular, his mental strength was so formidable that it was at least one level stronger than the masters at the same level.

If only he was the strongest in the same level before his Invincible Spiritual Momentum was successfully brewed, now, he was much better than the other Major Perfection Realm experts!

In other words, he could already fight against several Major Perfection

Realm experts on his own!

"He is too strong! Remarkable!"

Pence came to his senses immediately. He felt Tom's horrible momentum and was too excited to say a word.

Tom was not only from H Country but from his Military Intelligence 3. The more powerful Tom was, the more he could lead them to glory. How could he not be excited?

Not only him, but other Military Intelligence 3 members, such as Marlin, Silas, Thorn, and others were also excited. They looked at Tom as if they were looking at a war god.

But for those strong foreigners, it was absolute bad news!

At that moment, Johnson, the leader of these foreigners, changed his expressions and his scalp felt numb, "No! This man has really brewed the Invincible Spiritual Momentum. His momentum is much stronger. None of us can be a match for him now! He is absolutely invincible in the same level!"

"Damn it! Damn it!" Black Mamba gritted his teeth and cursed. The way he looked at Tom was not only full of fear but jealousy and resentment. As a strong expert at Major Perfection Realm, he had been looking for his momentum, and he had always wanted to brew it successfully, but he never had the chance.

But now, he looked at his opponent to achieve what he had desperately wanted to do. How could he not be jealous and mad?

But even so, he did not dare to make any rash moves, because he knew that Tom was now stronger than ever before. If he dared to attack Tom, then he would definitely be killed by him!

In addition to Tom, there were a total of 12 strong Major Perfection Realm experts present. They were all the peerless masters from other major powers, and each of them was in high status and a respected big shot in their country.

They were all the chosen ones. Apart from the expert at the God Becoming Level, they had never given in to anyone. They all believed in their hearts that they were the strongest and that they were bound to win the champion of the Kungfu Cup this time.

But now, Tom completely shattered the confidence and pride in their hearts!

It was not because they were mentally weak, but because Tom was too strong. They didn't care he was younger and better than them. Now, accidentally, he had brewed his Invincible Spiritual Momentum! In this way, how could they win Tom? It wasn't possible at all!

They hated it, but there was no other way. This feeling was the most unbearable.

If they had known this, they should not have let their men bully the H Country martial arts that harshly so that they would not have stirred up the strong national pride, and Tom would not have had the chance to brew Invincible Spiritual Momentum.

But at this time, it was useless to regret. After all, they had been through a lot of trouble. Soon, they calmed down, exchanged glances, and reached an agreement. When the finals came, they would do everything to kill Tom!

Even if they couldn't win the Kungfu Cup championship, they had to kill Tom. Otherwise, he would definitely become a big problem!

They would never tolerate the appearance of two God Becoming Level giants in H Country!

The other H Country martial artists cheered when they saw that Tom could defeat those four experts alone. Their solemn emotions disappeared, and they were full of admiration and hope for Tom!

Tom smiled faintly, then glanced at the four Major Perfection Realm masters who had attacked him secretly, which made them numb.

"If you dare to attack me secretly, you must pay the price!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Tom made a move. His speed was almost to the extreme.

He was too fast for the human eyes to catch. Not only was it an ordinary person, but even the martial artists at Extrinsic Peak could not catch his movements.

In an instant, the four Major Perfection Realm masters felt great pressure, and their expressions changed all of a sudden. They actually wanted to give in subconsciously and wanted to retreat.

If they attacked him jointly, it was possible to defeat Tom.

However, because of their thoughts of retreat at that moment, their cooperation was flawed. Tom caught the flaw and successfully broke free.

Tom went straight through them and crushed them in an absolutely invincible manner.

Moreover, Tom's speed was very fast, and the huge impact spread throughout the entire venue. These four internationally renowned super-strong masters were unable to beat Tom but were hit separately by Tom one by one, and then flew out.

And they flew far away.

Tom quickly defeated the four Major Perfection Realm giants in the innate realm. In total, it took less than five seconds, which caused an unprecedented shock to everyone on the scene!

This time, not only those ordinary martial artists, but even the remaining Major Perfection Realm masters were all gasping for air crazily, only feeling numb on their heads, and had the thought of fear for Tom!

Each of those four Major Perfection Realm experts was a remarkable existence, and they were famous internationally.

But now, they were defeated by Tom in five seconds and had no power to fight back. Everyone could feel that Tom was extremely powerful.

They didn't dare to imagine it anymore.

Chapter 838

Although Tom hit him for only five seconds just now, he consumed a lot of his energy!

Now his face was ruddy, and a mist came out of his head, looking as if it had been boiled.

His breathing was also much faster. It was conceivable how much energy he had expended just now.

After all, they were the four masters in the Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm!

If a master in the Major Perfection Realm attacked him now, then he would definitely not be an opponent. In fact, a person at the same level with Amos and Pence could defeat him.

But even so, no one dared to attack him again, because his deterrence was too great.

Now, his eyes did not show any timidity or guilt, but full of confidence and arrogance. He glanced at everyone. "Whoever wants to challenge me, just come up."

His eyes deliberately crossed over the remaining masters in the Major Perfection Realm, but they were all cowardly, and no one dared to fight Tom.

They slowly backed away and turned to leave.

At this moment, Tom had completely become their common enemy, and they had to unite against Tom!

This kind of thing had never happened before.

In a sense, Tom was a pioneer.

After the masters in the Major Perfection Realm left, the rest of the martial artists became even more depressed. They no longer had the courage to fight Tom, and they suddenly became much more low-spirited.

On the other hand, because of Tom's invincible behavior just now, the people from H Country now were all enthusiastic and imposing, and their momentum actually suppressed the momentum of so many martial artists from so many countries!

Tom was sure that there was no threat, so he breathed a sigh of relief. His feet were a little weak, and his chest began to feel stuffy.

Pence was the first to notice that something was wrong with Tom. He quickly walked forward and whispered, "Tom, are you okay?"

Next, Amos, Marlin and the others also surrounded Tom, which was a kind of protection for Tom.

Tom breathed a sigh of relief and said with a bitter smile, "It's nothing. It's just that I overdrawn my strength just now.

I'll take a rest."

He didn't lie. Just now, he had gathered a "momentum," his strength had increased by a level, and he was getting closer and closer to the God Becoming Level.

But in such a short time, he had only improved a lot in spiritual level, and in physical level, he had hardly improved.

The reason why he was able to play such a strong strength just now was that his spiritual level had been improved. If the spirit of a battle master was possessed into the body of a sick patient, no matter how strong his fighting ability was, because the patient's physical quality was not good, the ability to play was still limited.

A truly powerful martial artist must be at the same level of spirit and physique in order to display the most powerful strength!

Now Tom was spiritually strong, but his physique was not strong enough, so next, he had to focus on improving his physique strength and keep up with his spiritual strength in order to be the strongest.

Tom immediately went to rest. After having a sound sleep and a good meal, he could regain his exhausted energy.

And his awesome behavior just now cheered the remaining strong men from H Country up, sweeping away the decadence before, so they displayed 120% of their strength. On the other hand, those foreign martial artists were overwhelmed because of their momentum, and in the next competition, those foreign martial artists suffered one defeat after another, so the martial artists from H Country won many competitions.

om slept soundly for almost 12 hours! It had been a long time for him. Ever since he broke through the Major Perfection Realm, the quality of his sleep had risen sharply. Generally speaking, he could be full of energy with just an hour of sleep a day.

Sometimes, he didn't even need to sleep and could recover his energy by meditating.

This time, he actually slept for 12 hours. It was conceivable how much energy he had consumed.

But when he woke up, his improvement was huge!

First of all, his spiritual strength was twice as strong as when he was gathering the "momentum"!

He was in high spirits.

In particular, his eyes were extremely sharp, like the sun. Even masters like Amos and Pence would feel fear and panic when they looked at him.

This was just Tom's natural state. If he was ruthless, Amos and Pence would be trembling with fear, and their strength would be reduced by at least half!

In addition, Tom's physique had also been greatly improved.

This was difficult for ordinary martial artists to understand.

Because Tom was clearly sleeping. Without cultivation, how could he improve his physique?

Tom's muscle density, in particular, increased a lot, which was so tough that in the case of using no force, an ordinary knife could not cut his skin!

As long as people held his hands, they could feel his extraordinary body, full of explosive power. It seemed that ordinary people could not have such a body, which seemed to be greatly modified by the most advanced biological technology.

But in fact, during the 12 hours of his sleep, Tom's body produced a large amount of hormones, constantly refining his physique, and there were no side effects, so naturally, his physical quality could be greatly improved.

The effect of this promotion was that he was starving.

So when he woke up, the first thing he had to do was eating!

He would eat as much as he could.

Originally, his appetite was ordinary enough compared to ordinary people.

But now even Pence and Amos would feel his appetite terrifying.

Tom kept eating for two hours. Tom ate up to 30 ordinary people's portions!

Tom went to the bathroom twice. Every time he came out, his body state would change.

They couldn't figure out why a person could eat so much!

Finally, after Tom finished eating, he burped with satisfaction and said, "Finally, I'm full."

In front of him were hundreds of plates and a table of food residues.

There were a lot of black impurities and sweat on his body, sticky, so he immediately went to take a shower and washed his whole body clean.

He took another half an hour of this shower. When he came out, many people looked at him with strange expressions.

"What's wrong? Why do you look at me like this? Don't you know me?"

Tom said with a smile when he saw their strange expressions.

"Tom, you seem to have changed." Marlin scratched his head and said.

Tom said, "What's different?"

"You seemed to become taller, more handsome, and more elegant." Marlin thought for a long time and said.

The others nodded in agreement with Marlin.

Tom smiled. He understood the reaction of Marlin and the others, because he had indeed changed and become more powerful.

Chapter 839

In fact, it was just after one day. generally, it was impossible for ordinary people to be so powerful in such a short time. It did not conform to common sense.

Most people couldn't reach Tom's level, just like an ordinary person couldn't understand the most cutting-edge technology.

Tom was a super master who was now in the mid-point of the God Becoming Level. Besides, he accidentally condensed Invincible Spiritual Momentum. It was destined to he was not at the same level as the ordinary warrior.

Although it had been less than a day, he produced too many hormones thanks to the increase in his mental strength. The hormones constantly refined his body. In fact, it was reasonable that he became so powerful.

Moreover, he still had a lot of room for improvement.

Tom himself could probably sense that after the Kungfu Cup, his strength would at least increase by one to two times compared to now!

That sounded shocking.

So there were so many masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm who wanted to brew their own Invincible Spiritual Momentum, but it was too difficult. Most of the time, it counted on destiny rather than talent!

Even people like Little Martial God could not brew his own Invincible Spiritual Momentum, because this was not something that an individual could control.

It could be said that the more all the masters of Major Perfection Realmin of Innate Realm wanted to brew their own Invincible Spiritual Momentum, the harder they were to brew it. This could not be deliberately done.

If Tom hadn't happened to meet the Kungfu Cup and felt the tragedy and hope of the nation, which had stimulated that kind of mysterious state, he wouldn't have been able to brew Invincible Spiritual Momentum successfully. Even if he spent his whole life, he wouldn't have been able to condense.

So Tom felt that he was very lucky. God was not mean to him. The more this happened, the more he felt that he had a huge responsibility!

Since God had given him this opportunity, he could not waste his ability to lead H Country back to glory.

This was his responsibility and his mission.

"Tom, are you stronger now than before?"

Amos asked this question, which everyone wanted to ask.

After he asked, everyone immediately stared at Tom tightly. After all, he now represented the hope of the whole of H Country.

Because of the peculiarity of the Kungfu Cup, he was the only one who could participate in now.

Tom nodded and said with a smile, "It's probably doubled."

Hiss...

Hearing his words, everyone gasped.

In fact, Tom himself was strong enough previously.

Known as the toppest master under the God Becoming Level, even the internationally renowned Junichiro Nakai and Black Mamba were not his opponents.

Originally, they all thought that Tom was already at the top of the Major Perfection Realm, but now, Tom told them that his strength had doubled... At this moment, they didn't know what to say. It was too shocking!

After a while, Pence said, "Tom, you are really awesome!"

Even Pence, who had always been gentle and elegant, could not help but say something indecent at this time, which showed how shocked he was.

Marlin clenched his fists and said excitedly, "That's great! This is absolutely a good thing! With Tom's current strength, even in the quarterfinal, there is no problem. He can definitely help us get back the champion in H Country and the qualification to enter the Secret Realm! Hahaha!"

Hearing this, the others also reacted. Yes, Tom's strength had improved, so their chances of winning are even greater.

After a burst of joy, Thorn asked carefully, "Tom, are you sure?"

Facing the expectant eyes of the crowd, Tom remained silent for a while and said, "I have 50 % confidence."

50% confidence...

That's also high.

The Kungfu Cup continued to hold, and Tom successfully signed up before the end of the registration. His name was quickly displayed on the big central screen.

Because he was a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, he was directly assigned to Innate Realm Group.

When his name appeared, it was a big shock to the whole audience!

For warriors of H Country, it was an encouragement, but for those foreign warriors, it was a blow. The masters of Innate Realm even panicked.

After the Kungfu Cup held these days,

Tom was the most famous. Even most people thought that he was actually the most powerful person in the Kungfu Cup this time!

He was also the common enemy and the biggest opponent of all foreign warriors.

"Great! Tom has finally signed up. H Country will definitely win this time! The champion belongs to our H Country!"

"That's for sure. Tom is the most powerful warrior in H Country. With him on the team, we can win the championship easily!"

"We have to work harder. We can't lose Tom's face!"

"Hahaha, I haven't had such a good time in a long time!"

When all the warriors of H Country saw Tom's name appear, they burst out with 120 % of their power. Some of the originally unbeatable competitions also won, and their confidence suddenly increased.

On the other hand, the foreign warriors all sighed and even panicked.

It wasn't that they were too timid, but that Tom's reputation was too strong!

"Did I see it wrong? That demon of H Country also signed up! It's over. We're all going to be unlucky now!"

"He really signed up. It's hard to say we will win now!"

"Hmph, even if he signed up, so what? Don't forget that this Kungfu Cup's quarterfinal requires eight players to compete in a melee, and the winner is the champion. No matter how powerful he is, can he play seven 5S-level superpowers at the same time?"

"I think since that he dares to sign up, it will be his last day in the quarterfinal!"

Although they said so, the fear they showed could not be extinguished.

Therefore, in this day, almost all the competitions with warriors of H Country were won by warriors of H Country, and their momentum rose one after another.

Tom stood there and became everyone's spiritual totem.

By the next day, Tom was finally going to play. This was his first match. His opponent was a third-stage warrior of Innate Realm. His strength was extraordinary. At least he was ranked in the same level, but in the face of Tom, he couldn't even stand firm and surrendered directly.

On the third day, everyone who faced Tom quickly surrendered.

In this way, Tom's ranking soon went up.

In view of this situation, more than a dozen foreign masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm gathered to hold a meeting to discuss how to fight Tom!

Chapter 840

In a closed conference room, there were twelve masters in the Major Perfection Realm, each of whom was on the top of the international ranking list.

Each of them was a big shot. In their country, they were all respected heroes who were considered omnipotent beings, but now, they were all gathered together, depressed and worried.

If this scene was seen by outsiders, it would definitely cause a shock.

Finally, after a moment of silence, Johnson, the leader of the westerners, broke the silence and said in a deep voice, "Tom has gathered the momentum. His strength is already a level higher than ours, and his strength is still growing over time. None of us is his opponent."

After a pause, he continued, "Today, I called you here to come up with a plan to deal with Tom! Otherwise, our lives would be difficult!"

Hearing Johnson's words, the others nodded silently in agreement.

But their faces were full of unwillingness, because each of them was extremely proud of themselves, and in their hearts, they all thought that they were the most powerful existence at this stage.

Even if they were not the strongest at this stage, they believed that they would be number one in time, which was the confidence of geniuses and strong people.

But now, their faith was broken by Tom!

Tom was too strong, too young, and left them far behind.

Originally, Tom had not gathered the momentum. Even if they could not defeat Tom now, they were still confident of surpassing Tom with their later efforts.

But now, Tom's momentum had been gathered, and he was no longer on the same level as them. He had completely reached the threshold of the God Becoming Level. This kind of progress made them all feel out of reach for the first time.

They didn't allow such a man to be above their heads!

Even without the Kungfu Cup, they would have tried everything to get rid of Tom.

Because only by getting rid of Tom would their faith come back!

It was precisely because of this that they reached a tacit understanding.

"Johnson, what do you suggest?" Black Mamba said immediately.

Johnson hesitated for a moment and said, "I have a suggestion. We can destroy Tom's faith and distract him by threatening his family!"

However, as soon as he said this, he was denied.

Junichiro Nakai said, "This method won't work. We represent our national images. It's not appropriate for us to do this. H Country will definitely send agents to protect Tom's family. Unless we do it ourselves, we can't do it with our men. Besides, if we really do it, the God of War from H Country will definitely not let us go."

When the others heard Junichiro Nakai's words, they nodded and agreed with Junichiro Nakai.

They were on the land of H Country. It was too difficult and risky for these foreigners to kidnap Tom's family.

Another master in the Major Perfection Realm asked, "Junichiro Nakai, what do you suggest?"

Junichiro Nakai said, "I have a suggestion that we can assassinate Tom. Let's do it together. Even if he has gathered his momentum, he still has to die!"

Many people heard his suggestion and nodded quietly, thinking it was feasible.

After all, there were 12 masters in the Major Perfection Realm gathering, and each of them had great strength!

If they fought together to murder a person, it would be impossible for him to escape unless the other party was a master at the God Becoming Level.

Once Tom died, there would be no threat to them.

If the God of War from H Country really wanted to attack them, he had to think twice. After all, their countries also had masters at the God Becoming Level.

"That's a good suggestion, but how do we know Tom's whereabouts and create an opportunity to assassinate him?" Another master in the Major Perfection Realm asked.

Junichiro Nakai thought for a while and said, "We can bribe the people in H Country and let him ask Tom out. Then we can kill Tom without anyone noticing. Once and for all!"

"Inappropriate!" As soon as he finished speaking, he was immediately opposed.

Everyone looked over and saw a tall figure standing in the corner all the time. There seemed to be a black aura coming from his body, which looked very scary.

"Solomon!"

When the others saw this tall figure, they all showed a fearful expression.

Johnson, on the other hand, showed an admiring expression.

His name was Solomon, and he was the most powerful master under the God Becoming Level in Country M. Even Johnson, the leader of the foreigners, was much inferior to Solomon.

Solomon was a martial madman. He rarely spoke and gave people the feeling that he was just a killing machine. Now that he spoke, everyone was surprised.

However, no one dared to ignore Solomon. Instead, they were afraid because Solomon was the fifth best player on the international ranking list!

His strength was terrifying!

It could be said that he was the most powerful person among them.

"Solomon, what's your idea?" Black Mamba asked in a low voice.

He looked into Solomon's eyes and revealed some fear, because he had fought Solomon before, but was defeated by Solomon! And it was a complete defeat.

If this time, Tom didn't participate in the Kungfu Cup, then their biggest enemy was Solomon.

Solomon looked up and revealed his pale face. His face was very clean and white, abnormally white, like a piece of white paper, and even his hair on the face could not be seen!

He was wearing a black cloak, looking like a wizard with dark and evil power in a magic movie.

He said a word calmly, "Kill."

"Kill? Didn't you just deny Junichiro Nakai's suggestion? Why are you changing your mind now?" A master in the Major Perfection Realm frowned and said.

Solomon didn't answer immediately. Instead, he walked out of the corner and slowly walked into the light. He glanced at everyone present like an evil wizard before he said, "I'm not talking about killing Tom, but the people Tom cares about. I'm talking about killing those who would participate the competition."

After a pause, the corner of his mouth rose and a creepy smile appeared. "Tom has gathered momentum when his nation is in a tragedy. Then let's help him to make this tragedy even worse. Let's kill all the martial artists from H Country who will compete next! I'll see if he can still keep his faith and the momentum!"

Chapter 841

Everyone was shocked to hear it.

It was cruel to kill all the martial artists of H Country who participated in the competition!

No one dared to do it in the past Kungfu Cup.

Although there was no limitation in the rules of the Kungfu Cup, not many competitors were killed in the past. After all, as a global martial arts competition, the original purpose of the Kungfu Cup was to promote international communication.

If they did it, the people of H Country would be shocked and furious!

Most importantly, if they did this, the martial artists of H Country would definitely retaliate. And the peace with H Country would be sabotaged.

Moreover, Tom was from H Country. He would take part in several games before entering the quarterfinal. Could they withstand Tom's anger by then?

They were silent and looked at Solomon in shock.

Solomon looked at them and smiled disdainfully. He said, "Are you afraid? They were nobody from H Country? As masters of 5S-level, are you afraid?"

He ridiculed them.

Soon, a white master frowned and said, "Solomon, it is too extreme to do it. No one did it in the past. If we kill all the martial artists of H Country, the public will be provoked. Have you thought about the consequences?"

Some people agreed with him.

After all, it was too extreme and inhumane to do it.

At least 70 to 80 martial artists of H Country would participate in the competition.

If all of them were killed, they would definitely cause quite a stir.

"That's right. It is too extreme. I don't agree." Another person immediately said, "Besides, Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum is the solemn nationalism. If we kill all the martial artists of H Country, we will help him."

"Tom is strong enough now. If he becomes stronger, we cannot beat him in the quarterfinal even when we fight with him together!"

"I agree with that..."

Solomon still didn't say anything. He just smiled and looked disdainful.

Johnson, the leader of the foreigners, snorted and said disdainfully, "You are too timid! H Country is so weak now. But you are so scared by Tom. I agree with Solomon. We should kill all the martial artists of H Country. Tom got his Invincible Spiritual Momentum by solemn nationalism. Let's help him and make him more tragical! Let's see if he can bear it!"

After saying it, Johnson even sneered viciously, which was very creepy.

All of them were masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. They understood what Johnson and Solomon meant immediately.

Tom got Invincible Spiritual Momentum by solemn nationalism. If they kill all the martial artists of H Country, he would have more intensive solemn nationalism!

It was like ballooning. A balloon could be expanded by pumping air into it. But if too much air was pumped, it would burst!

The balloon was just like Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum.

If they kill all the martial artists of H Country in front of Tom, he would be too sad and couldn't bear it. And then he would be damaged by his Invincible Spiritual Momentum!

At that time, not to mention improving his strength, it was impossible for him to maintain his original strength!

What's worse, it would be excessive to him.

And then he would be damaged by himself.

Things like it had happened before.

When they realized it, they found that Solomon was vicious to come up with the suggestion.

They could do it. Even their reputation would be damaged, but they didn't break the rule. So the top master of H Country could do nothing about them.

If the top master of H Country dared to attack them, the masters of God Becoming Level would stop him.

It was silent. Everyone began to thought about the feasibility of the suggestion.

After all, it was important to get the champion of the Kungfu Cup. They were rivals now. Even though they did nothing, Tom would do something.

After a while, Junichiro Nakai broke the silence. He stared straight at Solomon and said, "Solomon, if we do it, Tom might be damaged by himself. But if he has a strong mentality to bear it, he will not be damaged by his Invincible Spiritual Momentum and will improve his strength. And then even if all of us attack him together, we might be unable to defeat him. And he will be the champion. And he can have the opportunity to get into the Secret Realm and become a master of God Becoming Level!"

After a pause, he said in a deeper voice, "We can't afford the consequences."

The other people also realized it and looked gloomy.

If there was one more master of God Becoming Level in the H Country, H Country's international status would rise sharply. And then they couldn't oppress H Country!

In particular, if they did it, they would create a blood feud with H Country and Tom wouldn't forgive them easily.

So it was risky to take Solomon's suggestion.

Solomon snorted coldly. He was not nervous at all and spoke in his special voice, "He can't bear it... It was not tragic but despair for him. When all the martial artists of H Country die, his belief will be converted. So we needn't attack him and he will be damaged by his Invincible Spiritual Momentum. He might be weaker than before or be destroyed for the excessive tragic mood. So he has to quit whatever happens!"

When they heard him, they felt a little at ease. In fact, they agreed with Solomon in their mind.

After all, it was not easy to get the Invincible Spiritual Momentum. Tom got it for a short time. If he found that a large number of martial artists of H Country die and he could do nothing, his belief would definitely be converted!

And they discussed it for a while and agreed to do it!

Chapter 842

The Kungfu Cup continued.

It was already the tenth day of the Kungfu Cup.

After the first ten days of intense competition, the Kungfu Cup also entered the white-hot stage.

It was not just the Kungfu Cup, but even the entire martial arts world was filled with tension. More than two-thirds of the world's martial artists were focusing on this.

The Kungfu Cup was truly a feast for global martial artists, just like the World Cup in football. Once every four years, it was a carnival for all martial artists.

However, the difference was that the Kungfu Cup was not open to ordinary people but to martial artists who were above the Master Realm.

After all, the Kungfu Cup was too violent. If it was known by the public, it would still cause panic.

Today was the eleventh day of the Kungfu Cup. It was drizzling, leaving the scene a little wetter. The arena was also stained with water, which made it seem wet.

At present, the results of H Country martial artists were not bad. Although a lot of H Country martial artists were eliminated in the previous week, since Tom returned, all H Country martial artists have cheered up and brought out extraordinary strength.

Now that one-third of the Kungfu Cup had passed, in fact, many of the marginalized martial artists had been eliminated, and the remaining were more or less much powerful.

It could be said that all the martial artists at the Master Realm had been eliminated.

The lowest level of the remaining martial artists was Extrinsic Peak, and there were even many experts at the Innate Realm.

"Bro, it's my turn."

From a corner of the Kungfu Cup, a conversation sounded. A tall, slender young man in a white Taoist robe said to an older man in front of him, his eyes especially bright, full of confidence in victory.

The man nodded and patted him on the shoulder with his eyes full of hope and pride. He said, "Go ahead and make a stunning victory. Let all the martial artists over the world see the demeanor of H Country!"

The young man answered with a bright and confident smile, "Come on, I won't let you down, and I won't let H Country down, let alone Tom!"

When the young man mentioned Tom, a strong admiration erupted in his eyes. He subconsciously looked in one direction and saw the tall, lean man, who was in military uniforms, like a sharp sword, guarding the whole country.

The man was none other than Tom, his idol too!

At this moment, Tom felt the man's gaze, so he also looked over to him. He nodded at the young man, giving him an encouraging look.

Immediately, the young man's face reddened. He clenched his fists excitedly and his lips were trembling. "Bro! Did you see that? Tom just looked at me! He nodded at me and cheered me on with his eyes! I'm so happy! Bro, I will definitely sweep this battle. Tom has supported H Country for us, and I, Zayd, won't let Tom down!"

The young man was extremely excited. His voice was so loud that the other martial artists around him could hear him. They all looked at him and showed an envious expression.

Yes, they all envied Zayd because it was such a great honor to be encouraged by Tom!

Zayd's brother was also excited. He clenched his fists as well and patted Zayd on the shoulder, saying, "Brother, then you must work harder. Don't let Tom down! I'm here waiting for your triumph!"

Zayd nodded hard and said solemnly,

"Mmm! Brother, wait for me to triumph! When I win the Kungfu Cup this time, I will go and get Tom's autograph... No, I will also acknowledge Tom as my master and follow him to fight for the world!"

Zayd said very seriously as if he were talking about something extremely sacred.

After that, just at this moment, his name was broadcast, which meant it was his turn to play.

He took another deep breath and strode onto the ring with the belief of victory.

His opponent was a white man who was not particularly tall, and his muscles were not that strong. More importantly, neither was his momentum.

Zayd immediately breathed a sigh of relief. Such an opponent was at the same level as his last one, and Zayd would definitely win.

He smiled and said to the white man, "You're going to lose."

The white man seemed to understand what he said and was not angry at all. Instead, his eyes showed coldness and cruelty, as if he was just looking at a dead man.

The white man now felt that his body was filled with explosive power, and he could even defeat a master of the Innate Realm! Not to mention, the H Country martial artist in front of him was only at Extrinsic Peak.

Originally, he was only at Extrinsic Peak, but because he was secretly injected with hormones before he went on stage, his potential was further stimulated. Now, he had at least doubled his power, and how could this H Country martial artist compete with him?

Moreover, he not only wanted to defeat the martial artist but also directly kill him. This was an order given to him by his superiors. He was told that if he met a H Country martial artist, he should kill him directly! Not giving him a chance to surrender!

Zayd saw the coldness and cruelty in the white man's eyes. He inexplicably felt something wrong and was a little nervous, but he immediately drove these negative feelings out of his mind was ashamed of his cowardice. He had to win this competition. He couldn't disappoint Tom, who just encouraged him!

"Ding!"

At the start of the match, Zayd did not hesitate at all and sprinted towards the white man as fast as he could!

He was at the top speed. With the help of his excitement, he was able to perform exceptionally well. In a blink of an eye, he was in the face of the white man.

He was also confident that he could defeat his opponent within twenty moves!

The white man did not move but watched him rush over without any expression on his face, except for the coldness and cruelty in his eyes.

Finally, Zayd came over and gave him a big chop, which was quite powerful. He believed that once the white man was hit, he would definitely get hurt. What's more, in such battles, once injured, he would be defeated!

However, just as Zayd's hand knife was about to strike, the white man moved with a disdainful smile. He regained the initiative and punched Zayd directly.

Surprisingly, he was even faster than Zayd, and they bumped into each other with a bang.

With a crack, a scream sounded. Zayd's right hand was actually fractured! A look of horror appeared in his eyes. "That's impossible!" He thought.

However, the white man did not give him a chance to retreat but smiled grimly again. With a quick struck, he grabbed Zayd's neck and then twisted it...

Chapter 843

For a moment, Zayd was frightened to his very core. A sense of crisis crept into his mind. He had never felt such insecurity before, which made him get goosebumps.

He felt the touch of the death. And he was clear that if he could not dodge this attack from his opponent, his neck would be broken!

At the critical moment, he burst out with unprecedented potential. Shortly, his speed increased to another level and he gave out a shout as he barely ducked the neck twisting!

"What!" The white man was a little surprised that Zayd could dodge his best move.

However, it didn't take him much time to digest his shock and soon he struck another attack.

The leaders gave him a mission to kill the H Country martial artist. He couldn't afford to fail.

Just then, Zayd also detected the white man's intention to kill him. He was having a bad feeling. 'Crap, his true purpose is to kill me!'

At that moment, fear had gripped his whole body. His first reaction was to escape, or even call for surrender!

But when the words almost slipped out of his mouth, he bit them back, because he remembered the encouraging gaze

Tom gave him before he went on stage. "I had just stepped on stage. If I surrendered now, what would Tom think of me? How could I follow Tom in the future?"

With that in mind, he held back the fear in his heart. He then roared again, launching a counterattack against his contestant. "I won't lose to you!"

Upon hearing what he said, the white man only laughed disdainfully and said in his language, "You are looking for death."

After he finished his words, he threw a punch at Zayd. Injected with dope, he was much more powerful than Zayd now, especially in force.

With a bang, Zayd's fist collided with him. The opponent's force made him stumble backward. And a painful expression appeared on his face.

"This guy is so powerful. I don't think he's just in Extrinsic Peak realm!" Zayd was in a frenzy. At this point, he knew that he had zero chance to win.

But even if he lost, he had to lose in a decent way. Right now, Zayd gave up the thought of surrender, for the sake of both H Country and Tom!

Holding this belief, he endured the pain and continued to rush towards the white man.

A murderous look flashed across the white contestant's eyes, and a cruel smile lifted his lips. He was a little flustered because he failed to kill Zayd just now. If Zayd surrendered immediately, then he wasn't supposed to continue the attack and kill him, which would mean the failure of his mission.

But instead of surrendering, Zayd charged at him again even they both knew Zayd couldn't win.

"Since he is looking for death, then I shall fulfill his will and show no mercy!"
The white man thought to himself.

Bang bang...

As soon as they fought, the white man showed unrivaled strength while Zayd could merely fought back a few moves even though he had exerted extraordinary strength with strong will. But Zayd had to admit that he stood no chance in this fight. Unsurprisingly, he was defenceless against opponent's beating. Within half a minute, he was already injured.

Upon seeing this, Zayd's elder brother who was sitting at the auditorium, was heartbroken and shouted loudly, "Zayd, don't give up! You can defeat him!"

Hearing his brother's cheering words, Zayd gritted his teeth, dragged his aching and tired body, launched the attack against the white man again.

Although his willpower was strong, his body was strained to its utmost. And given his injuries, he couldn't hold much longer now, but he attempted to give the white man another hit. But as soon as he approached the white man, the white man punched Zayd directly in the face. It made a clear crack under his punch. Zayd was knocked off far away.

"Zayd!" His brother cried out in worried tone.

Many of the H Country martial artists who were watching the battle were also shocked. Zayd was knocked down on the ground and couldn't stand up.

Zayd hadn't fainted yet. He then struggled to open his eyes and said to the white contestant with a pained look on his face, "I, I can still fight—"

As soon as he finished speaking, the white man rushed over and kicked him hard on the head. With a crack, Zayd's skull broke, and he died on the spot.

Zayd was beaten to death!

Everyone suddenly became quiet in the whole arena. Then A shrill roar broke the silence.

"Ah!!! You kill my brother, I'm gonna kill you! I'm gonna kill you!" Zayd's brother exclaimed as he rush onto the stage and attack the white contestant to avenge.

But he was even weaker than Zayd. How could he be a match for the white man? Before he could get close to the white man, he was kicked away. When he fell down, he struggled with a twisted and pained look. Then, he stopped and died as well.

His death aroused the anger of all the H Country martial artists!

"How dare you kill someone! I'm gonna show you hell!"

"Don't waste breath! We all go up there and kill this white pig!" someone suggested.

"Damn it! He's going too far! Kill him! Let's kill him together!"

At this moment, more than a dozen H Country martial artists were rushing up in an attempt to kill the murderer.

On the side of the white contestant, a dozen foreign martial artists soon came up to back him, blocking the other group. The melee was about to start.

At this juncture, a cold voice sounded, "What are you doing? Get down there!"

It was Marlin. He was in charge of the security here and saw everything that happened just now. He also wanted to kill this white contestant, but he couldn't, because he didn't break any rules.

The H Country martial artists said sadly and angrily, "Marlin! This white man is too much of a bully. He killed Zayd! And he even killed Rizzo! We want him to pay in blood!"

Marlin asked coldly, "Why did you kill the latter H Country warrior?"

The white contestant chuckled and said arrogantly, "He just rushed at me and threatened to kill me. It was only natural for me to fight back and defend myself. I hadn't expected your H Country fighters to be too weak to bear one kick."

"What did you say!? Who are you calling weak?"

"Say one more word, and you're a dead man!"

"Go to hell! You liar! Rizzo didn't even reach Extrinsic Peak. How could he hurt you? You did it on purpose. You wanted to kill them!"

"Stop the crap! Let's go together and take revenge for Rizzo and Zayd !"

They were filled with righteous indignation and eager to take revenge.

However, the dozen foreign martial artists on the stage were protecting the white contestant. They would not be merciful if the martial artists from the H Country dared to attack.

A fierce battle seemed inevitable.

Chapter 844

"You must explain!" Marlin took a step forward and exuded his powerful aura. He was at the third stage of the Innate Realm, and his strength was very overwhelming though he was not as outstanding as Tom.

So those ordinary foreign martial artists felt great pressure and they became nervous and panicked. Staring at Marlin, they were alarmed.

But a tall figure jumped into the ring in two steps. He stood in front of Marlin and said coldly, "Marlin, are you abusing your power to intimidate my people?"

Marlin immediately frowned, his eyes full of vigilance. "Soratu! What do you mean? One of your men killed a martial artist of H Country. He broke the rules and must be punished!"

Soratu was a famous master all around the world. At the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he was more powerful than Marlin.

In the early years, Marlin had been defeated by him, so Marlin was alarmed now.

Soratu sensed Marlin's fear and a mocking smile appeared on his face. "My man did not break the rules. It was your martial artist who ambushed my man first. He was defending himself. But your man was so weak and couldn't even dodge his kick!"

His disdain for the martial artists of H Country was obvious. And he even glanced at the martial artists of H Country on the stage with arrogant eyes. Even Marlin was despised by him.

They were very angry, but they did not dare to act rashly, because they could tell that Soratu was very powerful. Even if they fought against him together, they couldn't win.

Seeing that so many people were afraid of him, Soratu became smugger and smugger.

But just then, a cold voice came, "You're arrogant. I wonder if you're able to stop me."

Hearing that, all the H Country martial artists became excited. Marlin also breathed a sigh of relief. With Tom here, they wouldn't be bullied.

Soratu, however, trembled with fear after hearing Tom's words. His face turned pale and his eyes were filled with fear.

The pressure caused by Tom was overwhelming. He didn't even see Tom, but when he heard Tom's voice, he couldn't help but shudder. It was obvious how terrifying Tom's strength was!

He looked over and saw that Tom was walking over unhurriedly. When their eyes met, Soratu's heart jolted and he was very scared.

Tom's appearance was encouraging, and the martial artists of H Country were cheered up and no longer afraid at all.

"Great! Tom is here. We can avenge Zayd and Rizzo!"

"These foreigners are too arrogant. Only Tom can teach them a lesson!"

"Yes, fortunately, we have Tom here. Otherwise, we might have been bullied!"

When Marlin heard them, he felt quite ashamed, but he was not dissatisfied or jealous at all. Instead, he was very glad and proud that Tom was his fellow countryman because H Country had the hope of revival since there were people like Tom. As his fellow, he felt happy.

However, those foreigners, including Soratu were intimidated and they even took a step back, not daring to look into Tom's eyes. They seemed to have an instinctive fear of Tom.

But Soratu was also a master at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and Tom did not fully release his momentum, so he was able to look at Tom and say, "Humph, Tom, as the organizer of this year's Kungfu Cup, are you going to break the rules?"

Tom ignored him but walked towards the bodies of Zayd and Rizzo. He bowed to them, sighed slightly, then turned to stare directly at the white man who had killed them. "From the beginning, you're determined to kill them. This is your superiors' order, right?"

The white man was injected with doping and his strength doubled. He had been very confident in himself, but under Tom's gaze, he shuddered and turned pale. His mind went blank, and he answered subconsciously, "Yes, yes..."

But just as he finished speaking, Soratu slapped him in the face and scolded him, "Nonsense! It's your own will to kill your rivals. It has nothing to do with your superiors!"

Only then did the white man come back to his senses and he panicked even more. Realizing that he had slipped up, he quickly changed his words, "Yes, yes, yes, it's my own will. It has nothing to do with my superiors!"

But how could Tom be fooled by them? And others also realized that it was a totally vicious murder!

Tom narrowed his eyes. He immediately understood that this was probably the plan that those masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm had made to deal with him.

Soratu said, "Tom, Kungfu Cup allows death and injury. You don't want to break the rules just because H Country is the organizer, do you? I'm afraid that you can't bear the consequences!"

Tom did not say anything. He looked at those masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm behind Soratu.

He was emotionless, so no one could tell what he was thinking. He said, "Are you trying to increase my Invincible Spiritual Momentum by killing the martial artists of H Country? So that I will be crazy because of the increase of my Invincible Spiritual Momentum?"

When Soratu heard this, his pupils constricted. Obviously, he didn't expect Tom to figure it out so quickly.

Although other martial artists did not really understand what he was talking about, they could see that they were targeting Tom, so they became nervous. Tom was their hope. If something happened to Tom fell, they would collapse too.

Tom pointed directly at the white man and said, "You, apologize to Zayd and Rizzo."

Soratu had been being ignored, which made him feel humiliated. He immediately became angry. "Tom, how dare you ask my man to apologize to the corpses..."

Then Tom glanced at him, his eyes were full of pressure, and Soratu was scared out of his wit. He suddenly stopped, unable to say anything else. He was like being strangled.

"Do you have a problem with that?" Tom's tone was very calm, but the oppressive force in his tone was overwhelming.

Chapter 845

It was just a very plain statement, but for Soratu it sent a jolt through his whole body as if icy water had been poured over his head, causing his whole body to shiver from coldness!

Before this, he had never faced Tom alone. So even if he knew Tom's stories, he did not have that much respect for Tom in his heart. He thought that no matter how powerful Tom was, he was only a stage higher than him.

But it was only now that he fully understood how powerful Tom was. So many Major Perfection Realm experts in the Innate Realm were afraid of Tom and joined forces to deal with him!

Soratu became speechless because of a simple sentence. He did not dare to continue to look at Tom, let alone resist Tom.

The white contestant didn't have to apologize, because there was no violation. But under Tom's compulsion, he could not speak up in defence of that player, and he could only goad himself into bowing his head and acquiescing.

As for the white player, his body was now cold. Under the immense pressure of Tom, he was completely devoid of the idea of resistance. He directly threw himself down on his knees and apologized to Zayd and Rizzo, "I'm sorry."

Only then did the discontent on Tom's face fade a little, but the sadness and grief in his eyes did not completely dissipate, he knew that Zayd and Rizzo, in a sense, had been dragged down by him, but he could not avenge them now, he could only be crule when he was on the field and kill more foreign martial artists!

At this point, it could be said that there was no possibility of reconciliation between H Country and these big countries, only bloody war to the end, at least in the Kungfu Cup!

In fact, when Tom turned into the Invincible Spiritual Momentum, he had thought about this possibility. But he still underestimated the courage of these foreigners, and they actually dared to do so!

Next, he remained silent, sighed, and squatted down to help Zayd and Rizzo close their eyes, letting them rest in peace.

There were so many martial artists present from H Country, and their hearts were still heavy when they saw this scene. However, Tom standing up for them made them feel much better.

When they calmed down, they could understand Tom's actions. After all, during the Kungfu Cup, no matter how powerful Tom's martial arts were, he had to abide by the rules of the Kungfu Cup and could not act recklessly.

The other foreign martial artists did not dare to linger any longer. Soratu led the way and they left in a hurry.

After all, the pressure to stay next to Tom was too great, and it was just the feeling of living with a dangerous tiger.

Tom stood up and said to the many martial artists from H Country in front of him, "The next competition will be a tough one. They want to depress me by killing all the H Country martial artists who participated in the competition."

Hearing this, many H Country martial artists guessed it and were not too surprised, only a few of them had some panic flashing in their eyes, after all, one only lived once.

Then Tom continued to say, "I hope that if you really encounter an opponent you cannot defeat, don't try to be brave, surrender if you have to. Life is the most important thing."

No one spoke. Everyone was looking at Tom.

At this moment, they could actually feel Tom's heaviness, guilt, and loneliness. The entire burden of H Country was on him alone, and he needed to earn respect for H Country. The pressure at this moment was extremely great and he must be extremely lonely.

Immediately, a man strode out and said loudly, "Tom, you don't have to feel guilty, and you won't be alone! H Country has us! They want to kill us, but we also want to kill them! Since they dare to do this, we will never admit defeat! We will see whose fist is harder!"

"That's right! That's what I thought! Before I joined the Kungfu Cup, I was just a very ordinary martial artist in H Country. If it weren't for the Kungfu Cup, I would be one of the most ordinary people in the world. Even if I have a passion, there is no chance to show my power and passion. Now the Kungfu Cup has given me this opportunity. At a time when our great country is being targeted, and we are growing up in the warm embrace of our motherland, what reason is there for us to retreat? We must defend the dignity of our country, even at the cost of our own lives!"

"Even at the cost of our own lives!"

"Even at the cost of our own lives..."

"Go ahead whatever it takes!!"

For a moment, more than a dozen martial artists in front of him were expressing their true feelings loudly. Moreover, more and more martial artists from H Country joined in. Tom saw this scene and saw them go forward without any regrets, he was really touched and felt warm.

At that moment, he finally felt that he was not alone!

"That's right!" He smiled brightly, clenched his fists, raised them high, and said with a heroic spirit, "Even at the cost of our own lives! We should show our demeanor and tell the world that we H Country have no cowards!"

"No cowards in H Country!"

"No cowards in H Country!"

For a moment, the impassioned voices of many martial artists in H Country resounded throughout the Kungfu Cup, making many foreign martial artists frown and feel inexplicable pressure.

As for the dozen of masters of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm were all grim-faced. They could clearly feel that Tom's momentum was more pure and powerful!

If this continues, Tom's strength would increase even faster. Then after a while, they would not be able to defeat Tom!

Immediately, a master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm said to Solomon unhappily, "Solomon, it's all your faults. Not only did it not hit Tom, but it also made he was more powerful! If this continues, we would all be no match for him in the top eight!"

Another master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm also complained, "You are causing troubles. We shouldn't have agreed to your proposal! I think we should stop hunting martial artists from H Country immediately, otherwise, Tom would become more powerful, and then it would be troublesome."

Listening to the complaints, Solomon just snorted coldly and said, "Country M, as H Country's first opponent, is not panicking. Why are you panicking? All of this is under my control. The stronger Tom becomes, the more he will suffer when the time comes! The two dead martial artists just now were nothing, and then the main show begins..."

With that, Solomon gave a grim smile.

Chapter 846

The Major Perfection Realm masters of the Innate Realm, who were also aggrieved, now slowly calmed down. It was true that they were afraid of Tom, but it didn't mean that they would lose their minds. In fact, after listening to Solomon's words, they immediately came back to their senses.

The two H Country martial artists who were killed just now were nobody, whom Tom didn't know, so it was no big deal for Tom.

Tom didn't care about their presence at all.

Then, there were more martial artists from H Country who had yet to join in the contest. Most importantly, those who had something to do with Tom, who knew him, hadn't showed up yet.

When they were in a meeting, they focused their attention on the agents of the Military Intelligence 3 because they all found out that Tom was the chief instructor of it. All the agents of the Military Intelligence 3 were his disciples, and many of them were close to him.

If these agents were killed on the stage in front of Tom, it would be a big blow to him!

They did not believe that Tom could watch his fellow die in a calm mood.

After thinking about this, they began to calm down and immediately ordered their men to go all out to defeat H Country.

As Tom returned to the Military Intelligence 3, Pence came up to him and said in a low voice, "Tom, in my opinion, this could be a conspiracy against you by those who are in the Innate Realm of the Military Intelligence 3! Since you're not in the next competition, why don't you shy away from it for a while?"

General Watson also echoed, "That's right. Since they are so bold and dare to do such a thing, we can't fall for them."

They all analyzed it and gave the countermeasures, and it seemed very feasible. If Tom was not on the scene, he wouldn't need to suffer the great shock, and there was a chance to have the situation under control.

Tom, however, shook his head and said, "There's no need to do this. If I really leave now, it'll mean a defeat. My cultivation will be affected, and I don't know how to face myself. My future will be destroyed."

Tom was right.

After all, Tom had been fighting all the way to the beginning of martial arts. He was fearless, especially after he gathered the momentum. If he retreated now, his cultivation would be affected and he wouldn't be so powerful by then.

The biggest impact was that once he retreated, it would leave an indelible scar. He wouldn't be able to break through to the God Becoming Level for the rest of his life.

As a martial artist, sometimes the most important was not physical strength but one's heart. Tom knew this very well.

This was a conspiracy that he could not escape. No matter what, he could only face it on his own and crush it.

"Ah!" Pence and the others also figured it out and sighed. Pence continued, "Tom, can you really bear it? It will be very tragic."

Without answering him immediately,

Tom closed his eyes. He had already expected what would happen next...

However, imagination of it was suffering for him. After all, as a man from H Country, he loved his country. He could not be indifferent to watch his fellow die in front of him.

In the end, he was never an indifferent person. He was full of emotion, vigorous, and passionate. Otherwise, he wouldn't have reached this level.

Opening his eyes, he nodded and said, "Try it."

Pence and the others couldn't say anything more.

The rest of the competition continued. As expected, Tom did what he had promised without flinching. He had been watching the competition from the audience.

On the first day, twelve H Country martial artists had been killed on the ring!

Eight of the H Country warriors had the chance to surrender, but they chose not to. Instead, they sacrificed themselves, unwilling to give in!

Not only Tom, but all the people from H Country present were deeply touched by this spirit. Thorns clenched his fists tightly with tears on his face, and he kept saying, "These animals, these animals! I won't be able to teach them a lesson, or I will definitely kill them all!"

Marlin, who was more bad-tempered, cursed, "I'm dying to kill these animals! These are all the elites of our country. They are all heroes of our country!"

General Watson had been silent, but his eyes were now red. Over these days since the Kungfu Cup began, he had been able to maintain his composure. But at this moment, he broke into tears when he saw so many outstanding compatriots sacrifice themselves for the dignity of the country!

He clenched his fists and did not say anything harsh or vent his anger. Instead, he said forcefully, "They are heroes of our country! They will always be in our mind!"

His words were full of power, and the people present nodded hard and born his words in mind. They must not let them down.

They might be ordinary, but now, they were no longer ordinary. They used their blood to protect the dignity of their motherland. They were all respectable heroes!

Not only them, many other people from H Country who saw this scene shed tears and were deeply moved, including Isabella and Diana who came in a few days ago, and now they had long lost their initial longing and relaxation for the Kungfu Cup.

Now, every one of them had tears on their faces, and their eyes were fixed on their compatriots on the arena.

Diana muttered, "Master is right. The competition for Kungfu Cup is really cruel..."

Isabella said, "Yes, but their sacrifices are valuable. They are all respectable heroes."

Jasper and Musa did not look as arrogant and relaxed as before. Now with a grave expression, they looked at the audience stage, fixing their eyes on the figure who had been standing there motionlessly for a long time.

Tom.

Chapter 847

Not only the two of them but a lot of people looked at Tom.

He was the most powerful martial artist in the Kungfu Cup this year, as well as the only hope of H Country.

If these twelve martial artists died on the ring today, Tom should be the one who suffered the most.

The greater the ability, the greater the responsibility. Tom, as the strongest martial artist on behalf of H Country in this Kungfu Cup, who achieved the Major Perfection Realm and got close to the God Becoming Level, should be the most depressed to watch his compatriots being killed!

Under everyone's gaze, Tom stood there like a statue. He remained motionless and expressionless. No one could figure out what he was thinking, but he must be very upset.

Finally, Tom made a move. He saluted the twelve heroes who died on the ring with a solemn and respectful look on his face.

Soon, someone followed suit and saluted the twelve heroes.

All of this happened quietly.

But it was extremely somber.

When other foreign martial artists saw this scene, they all smiled. They had gradually stopped paying attention to H Country. Even a super powerful man like Tom could only watch his own countrymen being beaten to death.

Those martial artists from H Country were also brainless. They knew they could not win, but they did not surrender. They would rather die on the ring than surrender.

Of course, not all the martial artists from H Country lost. A few of them were strong and outdid themselves. They delivered a stunning victory, and even crippled the opponent, raising a lot of morale!

Finally, the competition of this day came to an end. According to the calculations, twelve martial artists of H Country had been killed. Eight of them were seriously injured, and only six of them had won the competition. Even among the six who had won the competition, three of them were wounded.

In other words, H Country suffered heavy losses today.

The atmosphere was very solemn, but no one said anything negative. At this moment, all the martial artists of H Country were united as one.

Even the martial artists who had to compete next knew that danger lay ahead, they did not say a word and showed no fear at all.

At night, the twelve H Country martial artists who died on the ring were placed together. Everyone simply held a funeral for them.

Tom appeared. When people saw him, they all saluted and showed their admiration for him.

"You're all good. You didn't humiliate H Country." Tom looked at the twelve corpses in front of him and said seriously, his eyes full of respect.

At this moment, a martial artist said, "Tom, can we really win the championship this time?"

Hearing this, others looked at Tom with anticipation and trepidation.

Before this, no one had expected that this Kungfu Cup would turn to be such a disaster for H Country where it was targeted by all the other countries.

Under everyone's gaze, Tom smiled and said, "Why, you don't believe me?"

When they saw Tom's smile, they immediately felt a lot more relaxed. They had been in a nervous mood, but now they were much calmer.

Yeah, could they not believe Tom? The answer was yes. They would definitely trust Tom.

Tom continued, "Don't worry, I won't disappoint you. Otherwise, how can I face my fellow soldiers who died in the fight?"

He looked at ease when saying this, and even put on a bright smile, but no one could smile on hearing it because they all felt his pressure.

Yes, Tom was now carrying the hope of the entire H Country. If he really couldn't win the championship, how would he be criticized? He was very likely to be stigmatized as a traitor!

Just like the athlete who had won countless championships for H Country but did not get a good place in a key international competition because of physical problems. He was scolded by the whole country. The original national hero instantly became a traitor.

Tom's current situation would only be trickier than that athlete's.

Because now Tom shouldered more than the dignity of a country. There were so many people who died in the fight. If he really failed, no one knew how he would be scolded.

They could feel the pressure just by thinking about it.

Now that Tom could still smile, they really admired him!

"Tom, come on, no matter what, I will be on your side! Don't put too much pressure on yourself. You've done enough for H Country. Even if you can't win the championship, I won't blame you!" A beautiful female voice sounded.

Tom looked over and immediately saw Isabella's beautiful face. Her eyes were fixed on him, and she clenched her fists to cheer him up.

Tom's heart warmed up and he nodded slightly.

Diana also said, "Master, just do it. There's no pressure. Even if you fail, we won't blame you!"

In addition to these two people, there were also some voices who agreed, but the majority were silent. More people still put their hopes on Tom. They had placed too much hope on him so far and could not accept his failure!

If Tom really failed, they might not be willing to forgive him, though they all knew that it was not his fault but the fault of the whole country. It was because they were too weak that only Tom could take the responsibility.

Too often, capable people had to shoulder more responsibility.

Of course, Tom also understood this, so he didn't say anything to shirk his responsibility.

In fact, if he really failed, even if everyone understood him and forgave him, he would not forgive himself.

However, it was meaningless to say these things. A real man did not speak by his mouth, but by his actions.

Tom then stayed for a while longer, giving the H Country martial artists some advice and boosting their confidence. When it was almost time, he left.

He didn't say anything more. If one surrendered just because he could not defeat the opponent tomorrow, he would be too selfish and sanctimonious.

Everyone had the right to contribute to and die for their country. What right did he have to stop others?

He didn't stay that night but went home.

Although he was calm and pretended that nothing had happened, in fact, he was very restless and needed to go home to calm down.

However, just as he was about to get home, he met another acquaintance.

Chapter 848

This person was none other than Lexie.

She just appeared in front of Tom and blocked Tom's way. Tom was absent-minded then, so he almost bumped into Lexie without noticing her first.

With Tom's current speed, if he bumped into her, Lexie would definitely be badly hurt!

Fortunately, Tom caught a glimpse of her and made the fastest reaction in time. He stopped the car immediately and turned the steering wheel drastically. He changed the direction of the car to avoid hitting her!

Even so, Tom was quite frightened by this!

Fortunately, his reaction was fast enough. If it were someone else, it would be impossible to react at such a short distance and she would be hit directly.

Tom's approach made the car turned around directly. If Tom's driving skills were not outstanding enough, he would not be able to control it now, and the car would be turned over directly!

In a hurry, Tom saw clearly who was standing in front of him. It was Lexie.

He was immediately furious!

This girl had been causing trouble for him ever since he met her. The last time he was in Y City, she caused a lot of trouble. He even used the Little Martial God. If he hadn't been strong enough, he would have died in Y City.

Originally, he had no good feelings for Lexie, so, fortunately, he managed to escape from Lexie. However, she immediately appeared in front of him, blocking his way.

If he hadn't reacted fast enough, he would have killed Lexie!

And once she was killed, he would be in big trouble.

What was more, with the Kungfu Cup incident these days, his mood was already very bad.

Tom was so angry that he strode down from the car. He couldn't stand Lexie anymore. He had to teach this willful girl a lesson!

"You crazy girl, are you crazy? If you want to die, don't blame me..."

Tom strode up and was about to teach Lexie a good lesson but he realized that Lexie was standing there in a daze and looking deeply at him. Her eyes were red and a little moist. It seemed that she was not afraid of his fury.

Tom was a little stunned by this look.

The hand that had been raised was suspended in the air.

Because he could tell that Lexie was really sad now. She was not pretending.

Tom held back his anger, put down his hand, snorted, and said in a deep voice, "Miss, what are you doing? Can you leave me alone just for once!"

Now Tom was really afraid of Lexie. To be exact, there was nothing he could do to her. It was not appropriate for him, a man, to beat her, and he was no match for her in arguing.

Lexie's eyes were red already. Then she suddenly burst into tears. Big drops of tears came out of her eyes.

She pouted and looked extremely aggrieved. Tom was immediately startled. He was too surprised to be angry, he said quickly, "What's the matter? Are you scared by me or hit by my car?"

However, Lexie still did not say anything. She just opened her eyes wide and fixed her eyes on him, making him a little frightened.

Just as Tom was about to speak again, Lexie finally spoke. "Did you sign up for the Kungfu Cup?"

Tom was stunned. He didn't expect that Lexie had this exaggerated expression actually because he signed up for the Kungfu Cup. He never saw this coming.

His intuition told him that Lexie was probably playing tricks on him again, so he snorted, looked at Lexie warily, and said, "What are you up to this time?"

But then, Lexie did a move that made him extremely surprised. Lexie opened her hands and rushed towards him. Before he could react, she hugged him tightly and said with a crying voice, "Why did you sign up for the Kungfu Cup? You will die in it. You will die!"

Tom immediately felt that Lexie's soft part of her body as she leaned against him in the arms. Especially, the plumpness of her chest gave him some room to imagine.

"Ahem!" Tom coughed twice and his heart beat faster. He wanted to push Lexie away. But Lexie held him very tightly. Without using brute force, he couldn't push Lexie away at all. "Hey, what are you doing? It's inappropriate for a man and a woman to hug like this!"

The Dragon Bay was not far away ahead. If his acquaintances saw him, he would not be able to prove his innocence.

Especially at this point, it was also the time for his wife Phoebe to come back from work. If he was really so unlucky as to be seen by Phoebe, she would misunderstand it.

So Tom felt guilty and nervous.

However, in addition to guilt and nervousness, there was also an unspeakable excitement that made his heart beat faster. Looking around, he was afraid that he would meet an acquaintance.

At this time, any person and car passing by would make him nervous. He was afraid that it was his acquaintance, and he was more afraid that Phoebe would see this.

Lexie was still hugging him tightly. "I know, I know it all! The last time you went to Y City, it was my grandfather and my father who asked you to take part in the Kungfu Cup and get the champion back! But I found out that we don't have any other master but you in H Country to take part in the Kungfu Cup this time. You are the only one. When you fight alone, you will be attacked and killed!"

Tom, who had intended to push Lexie away with all his might, suddenly stopped when he heard what she said.

He could tell the fear and unwillingness in Lexie's crying voice.

He felt a little panic, and he didn't understand why Lexie was crying for him. Did Lexie have a crush on him?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but be afraid. Now he'd rather hope that Lexie was playing tricks on him!

Because he couldn't afford to spread any more seeds of love in other girls' hearts, especially for a woman like Lexie. He couldn't afford to, and it was absolutely impossible between him and Lexie. The further they went, the more painful it would be.

The Ross Family would never tolerate Lexie marrying a married man!

"Let go of me." Tom said in a deep voice.

Lexie shook her head hard. Instead of letting him go, she hugged him tighter.

"I won't let go! Unless you promise me not to take part in the Kungfu Cup!" Lexie said firmly as if this could threaten Tom and make Tom give up.

Tom's face darkened. "I'll count to three. If you don't let go, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

However, Lexie was not afraid of his threat at all. "I said I won't let go. I won't let you go!"

Chapter 849

"You! Do you really think that I don't dare to hit you?!" Tom said angrily with gritted teeth. As long as Lexie was not going against her deliberately, she could tell that he was really angry and would stop.

But Lexie really didn't seem to take him seriously and was as willful as ever.

"You can hit me. I won't let you go even if you kill me!" Lexie was also angry and said loudly.

Her reaction made Tom even angrier. Here was the H City, and the Dragon Bay was ahead nearby. He would meet acquaintances every minute, and maybe he would even meet Phoebe when she came back from work!

This time, Tom was really angry. He didn't care so much, nor did he care about Lexie's identity. With anger, he slapped Lexie directly, and his strength was not small, so he hit Lexie heavily. Because of his strength, the skin on her face trembled.

Lexie, on the other hand, let out a grunt. It hurt so much that she almost burst into tears. She shouted, "Tom, you bastard. You really dare to hit me!"

Tom was stunned. He actually hit Lexie? It was indecent.

But soon he understood that there was nothing indecent between him and Lexie, not to mention that he had been closed to Lexie before, and even now, Lexie was still hugging him tightly.

"Let go of me. I'm not joking with you!"
Tom said in a low voice.

He thought he had already shown his attitude with his action just now. As long as Lexie didn't really want to die, she should stop and let him go.

However, he didn't know Lexie's temper at all.

Lexie looked up. Her eyes were red, bloodshot, and there were even tears flowing down. That scene was quite shocking, and Tom was stunned.

Just as Tom was about to speak, Lexie made a move that shocked and even frightened him!

Lexie kissed him promptly in the mouth, and it happened all of a sudden, so suddenly that a great master like Tom could not react to this crazy girl's surprise attack.

In an instant, Tom felt a pair of warm and soft lips pressing his. That feeling made his body and soul tremble violently!

At this moment, his pupils opened and his mind exploded!

He was completely stunned. He would never have thought that this crazy girl would kiss him.

Did this crazy girl not know what a lady should be? Did she not know what propriety was? Moreover, he was not a single man, but a married man. Lexie knew that!

At that moment, Tom felt overwhelmed...

Lexie's cold face also turned red and scorching at an extremely fast speed.

Not only was Tom shocked and flustered, but Lexie also felt the same.

You know, this was her first kiss. She had never kissed anyone since she became a grown-up, let alone the fact that she took the initiative!

Throughout Y City, countless people regarded her as a goddess, and countless people made it their lifelong goal to pursue her.

But Lexie was very demanding. Because of her background, her character, and her ability, she was destined to despise more than 99 % of the men in the world. Of all the people in the past, no man had ever been able to enter her heart until Tom appeared...

In fact, from the beginning, she didn't think much of Tom. She just thought that Tom's martial arts were very powerful and talented, and that's all.

But after a long time of contact, she began to realize more about Tom and was captivated by Tom's charm.

Otherwise, how would she, such a proud person, let Tom be her fake boyfriend?

However, Tom didn't seem to have any feelings for her at all, and Tom was still a married man. She was really sad about this. She once thought that she would never see Tom again in her life.

She had never shown this in front of Tom, nor had she ever shown her confusion and pain in front of anyone. But in fact, she really did struggle like this.

Tom's indifference, in particular, hit her hard. She was such a proud person. She was also rebellious.

The more she couldn't get something, the more she wanted it. So she had once been a coward. The more Tom disliked her, the more she wanted to pester Tom. She didn't believe that with her charm, she couldn't conquer Tom, and she couldn't compete with Phoebe.

However, her conscience and her morals tended to tell her that she shouldn't do this...

This not only made Tom sad and made herself unable to get true love, but also humiliated the Ross Family.

So in the end, she made a decision, which was to be a friend of Tom. Anyway, there were many good men in this world. She could always meet a man who suited her better than Tom!

She seemed to have seen it through, with her self-hypnosis.

But last night, when she heard that

Tom was going to participate in the Kungfu Cup and would be in a dangerous situation that risked his life, she panicked at that moment!

She immediately rushed out and asked her father and grandfather why did they send Tom to die.

Originally, her father and grandfather did not intend to talk to her about it. They even scolded her that why an unmarried young girl like her tangled with a married man?

However, in the end, with her stubbornness and her last pleading, father and grandfather were persuaded and told her the whole story...

When she heard that, she stayed for a long time because she knew that Tom was really close to death... No, it should even be said that there was no chance for him to survive at all!

So the next day, she flew over to H City right away.

She wanted to find Tom, but with her remaining energy after she was away from the Ross Family, it was really difficult to find Tom's whereabouts, so she had no choice but to wait for Tom in Dragon Bay.

In fact, she had been waiting for Tom in front of Dragon Bay for six hours!

The moment she saw Tom, she was less worried. At that time, when she saw a strong light shooting at her and the car was driving so fast that it was about to hit her, there was no fear in her heart, only reluctance and relief...

Perhaps it would be easier to be hit to death?

Chapter 850

Fortunately, the car just brushed past her but did not hit her. Immediately after that, she saw Tom jumping out of the car and rushed at her fiercely.

A part of her heart burst open at that moment.

She kissed Tom. All feelings rushed to her at that moment. Her heart melted when her lips touched his. She felt confusion, shyness, and happiness all flushed in at the same time. However, there wasn't any regret anymore.

She did what she had always wanted to do. It didn't matter to her if Tom pushed her away and repelled her for this, or he decided he would never talk to her ever.

Just as she was still immersed in the kiss, she was suddenly pushed away by Tom.

"You... What did you do!"

Tom pushed her away and pointed at her, his body shaking with anger and disbelieve.

Panic and guilt flashed in his eyes.

The expression in his eyes made her heart ache slightly.

"How could you do this! Why! You are a girl from a reputable family! We are not..." Tom wanted to blame her for something, but his mouth suddenly became so clumsy that he couldn't finish any sentences.

For some reason, Lexie found his clumsy mouth and angry feature quite funny and cute. She stopped being sad and worried and burst into laughter.

Tom felt even more angry and speechless at her seeing her laugh. He gritted his teeth and said, "How can you still laugh! How can you!"

At the same time, Tom looked around to see if any acquaintances were around him and if anyone had seen him being kissed earlier.

Fortunately, he did not see anyone he knows. Although a few people were pointing at them and looked very gossipy, they were all strangers. This made him relaxed a little bit.

Lexie calmed a little after kissed Tom. She said, "Why did you enter the Kungfu Cup? You might die, don't you know?"

The more she spoke, the more she felt that Tom was such a fool. He was trying to act like a hero and will get himself killed!

Tom took a deep breath and tried to calm his agitated mood down. He despised himself a little. Who would think she could trick him when his Kongfu had reached the God Becoming Level. He shouldn't have let it happen.

Now hearing her words, he snorted heavily and said, "You came all the way here to question me about this?"

Tom really couldn't figure out what she was thinking, or rather, what was in her head?

She was a young lady from a wealthy family and the future princess of H Country. He was just a guy who knows some martial arts. Did she do this for fun?

Lexie said, "You haven't answered my question yet. Why did you do something that will kill you?"

Tom stared at Lexie's stubborn look and wanted to leave. She gave him a headache.

But he also knew that if he left now, Lexie would probably do something even crazier.

What if Lexie went straight to Dragon Bay and met Phoebe on her way... He would be screwed.

"I'm not looking for death. I'm donating my body to my country..." He realized what he had just said and quickly changed his words, "What was that. Who said I was going to die? I'm going to win the cup! Who told you I would die? Did you come all the way here to scold me? What's your problem?"

Tom felt angry.

However, Lexie became agitated again and punched his chest with her hands.

"You liar! You're still trying to lie to me! You WILL get yourself killed! Do you think it's very great of you to do this? I'm telling you, on the contrary, it is childish behavior! It's the stupidest and the most meaningless thing ever!"

Tom was hit in the chest. Their distance became even closer. The feeling of her hands on his chest and the sweetness that came from her body distracted him. He quickly pulled away and said, "That's bullshit! Who said that I would die? Did you want me to die? Besides, why would you care?!"

This seemed a little harsh. Lexie stopped moving and looked disappointed.

Tom also realized that what he said seemed a little hurtful. Lexie came all the way here, which meant that she must be worried about him. No wonder Lexie would feel upset when she heard him saying this.

But then he realized that he didn't say anything wrong. They were just friends.

"Do you hate me?" Lexie bit her lips tightly, looking very upset. She kept looking at him. Her watery eyes made Tom feel wired. He couldn't bear women cry in front of him.

Tom sighed. He didn't know what to say to her. Ever since he became a martial artist, this rarely happened. He didn't feel this uncomfortable even when targeted by the four innate Major Perfection Realm experts.

"My lady, can you stop doing this? I told you, I'm not looking for death. I go there to win glory for the country. Besides, I'm part of H Country, and we're also one of the organizers of the Kungfu Cup this time. How can I not participate in it?"

Tom didn't want to argue with her anymore. It wasn't because he was weak, but because he had to.

Lexie shook her head and said firmly, "I don't care! I won't let you do this!"

Tom felt a headache. He even thought about blacking her out and let people send her back.

But Lexie's next sentence changed his mind, "Tom, I am begging you. Please don't enter the Kungfu Cup. Please don't let yourself die, okay?"

The pleading look in Lexie's eyes was not something that one could pretend. It was obvious that she was truly worried about him. Tom's heart softened. He sighed and said, "Why would you try to stop me? We're just friends, aren't we? In the worst-case scenario, let's say I do die because of this competition. What difference does it make to your life?"

Lexie looked straight at him and wanted to say something more. However, at this moment, Tom's phone started to ring.

The ringtone had broken the moment.

Tom took out his phone. The word "wife" appeared on the screen.

He was pulled back to reality, and at the same time, Lexie looked over and saw the name on the screen. The lights in her eyes suddenly disappeared, and her expression became gloomy...
