

Chapter 931

The voice sounded terrifying.

It was like scraping a knife on a blackboard. The high-pitched and piercing sound made people feel rather uncomfortable.

He didn't look like a human at all. Instead, he looked like a demon crawling out of hell.

It was fine for Tom, but Prince William and Alice were both scared out of their wits.

Prince William cried out with his teeth trembling, "Devil. Devil..."

Alice was also trembling badly, but she was not so out of control compared to Prince William. She held Tom's hand tightly now as if only Tom could give her a sense of security in this situation.

"Who are you?! You are too arrogant to ambush us! This is Eagle Country, and you will be hanged by our country!" Prince William screamed hysterically and weakly.

The enemy didn't respond to him at all. Instead, he grabbed the door with one hand and yanked it. The door of the Rolls-Royce was pulled down.

The crash was so violent that Prince William was even more scared.

"Come out, my respected Prince William and beautiful Miss Alice."

He seemed to be very polite, but what he said was so unpleasant, only adding to the fear and panic of Prince William and Alice.

Tom scrutinized the man. He sensed that the man did not come from the whole nation, but from the Clan. He had great strength and possessed the strength of the third stage of the Innate Realm.

However, the man was evil, like a vampire in legend. Ordinary martial artists had never encountered such a situation. When they met such a person of the same level, they would definitely be suppressed.

The first to come was a master of the third stage of the Innate Realm. It seemed that the killers were determined to win.

Tom was a mentally alert person. According to what he heard from Pence, the Clan and the whole nation were generally free from conflict. The status had been maintained for nearly a thousand years. But now, the people of the Clan attacked the people of the whole nation brazenly, and the target was even the royal family of Eagle Country.

This shows that the balance between the Clan and the whole nation has actually been broken.

But the exact reason remained to be investigated.

It would have been fine if Tom hadn't met the situation. Now that he was involved in it, he was not going to stand by.

He did not act immediately. Instead, he started divergent thinking.

To him, it was not difficult to keep Prince William and Alice safe. Even if all the killers combined, they were no match for him.

But what he had to do was to catch the whole lot in an action!

Therefore, he couldn't do it now, so as to avoid alerting them.

Prince William shrank in the corner of the car trembling and refused to come out.

The assassin seemed a little impatient and his tone became even more gloomy. "Dear Prince William, I'm not patient enough. If you don't come out, don't blame me for being rude to you."

As he spoke, the assassin grabbed the door frame of the Rolls-Royce and twisted it. Such a tough door frame was twisted into hemp by him, which showed how strong he was!

Prince William was even more afraid when he saw this, and his face turned even paler.

He was so scared that he burst into tears. He didn't act like a prince at all.

Alice was extremely disappointed to see him like this. William was a prince, representing the face of the royal family, and he was scared to tears.

Even she, as a woman, was afraid of this situation, but she was not scared to cry. In contrast, Prince William was really timid.

She took a deep breath, forced herself to calm down, and said, "What do you want to do to us?"

The killer was even more impatient and did not answer. Instead, he said rudely, "Come out!"

Alice was startled. Her legs were so weak that she could hardly walk. No matter how good her mental quality was, she was still a woman, an ordinary person. It was difficult to keep calm in such a situation.

At this moment, she glanced at Tom. She found that Tom was very calm and did not panic as she had imagined. She was shocked and immediately thought that what Tom had just said he would protect them...

But soon, she threw the idea away again.

Tom was just an ordinary person. How could he protect them?

Prince William also saw Tom's calmness, and he quickly called out, "The man from H Country! Didn't you say you would protect us? Now it's your chance to show off. Why don't you fight with them?"

Tom ignored him. How dare he use his status as a prince to order Tom?

Alice once had a little expectation, but when she saw Tom's indifference, her heart immediately fell again.

Sure. How could she even imagine that Tom was able to protect them?

It seemed that something was really going to happen this time!

They heard another fierce battle and immediately stopped. It turned out that all the guards had been killed.

Soon, the killers also surrounded them.

There were more than a dozen of them, all with ferocious masks on their faces. They exuded an evil aura, not like humans, but more like demons.

Seeing this, Prince William did not dare to hide in the car and came out.

Alice and Tom also came out in great fear.

They saw the situation around them. More than 20 extraordinary guards actually died miserably, which made Prince William's mind go blank and he almost lost his balance.

Alice was no better. If Tom hadn't been there to hold her, she would have fallen to the ground.

Soon, a tall man, nearly two meters tall, came over. This man was dressed in more cautious clothes and outlined his great muscle lines. It was obvious at a glance that he was a super fierce man.

He walked up to Prince William and began to speak, "Hello, Prince William."

"You, you, you, who the hell are you?!" Prince William stammered.

Chapter 932

"Me?"

The man seemed to be smiling. His eyes narrowed slightly, revealing a playful smile, and then he said, "Soon you will know who I am."

Prince William was stared at by his eyes, and his whole body was shocked. He did not dare to speak again.

Soon, the killer's eyes fell on Alice again, and he made a gentleman's gesture and said to Alice, "Beautiful Miss Alice, your beauty is indeed extraordinary. This time, we finally see you and Prince William."

Alice resisted the panic and said sternly, "How dare you oppose the royal family! You are trying to get yourself killed!"

"Really?" The killer took two steps forward. "May I ask who will kill us?"

"Of course, it's the military power of Eagle Country and Her Highness!" Alice said loudly.

"Ha ha ha..." However, it was as if the killer had heard a big joke that made him laugh. His voice was already very unpleasant to hear. This kind of laughter was even more difficult to bear as if it would pierce their eardrums.

Prince William and Alice both showed pained expressions.

"Miss Alice, forgive me for taking the liberty. You are naive and as innocent as a piece of white paper." The assassin said confidently, "Okay, take them away. You'd better not resist. OK?"

All of a sudden, he seemed to have found something new. He looked at Tom and made a puzzled voice. "An oriental? Miss Alice, when did you find an oriental to be your bodyguard?"

The other killers also looked at Tom.

Tom had always been by Alice's side, but until just now did they find Tom, which made them feel very strange.

However, they did not care about Tom, because in their eyes, Tom was just nobody.

Even Prince William's royal guards were vulnerable in their hands, let alone an oriental.

However, when they saw that Tom was very calm and did not panic at all, they all felt very strange. Wasn't this oriental afraid of death?

The assassin's leader looked at Tom with interest and asked, "Are you from Red Sun State or H Country?"

Tom replied calmly, "H Country."

"Aren't you afraid of us?" The assassin's leader asked immediately.

Tom smiled and asked, "Why should I?"

What Tom had said really got the assassin's leader. His eyes suddenly sharpened and he stared at Tom, trying to see through Tom!

But no matter how he tried, he couldn't see through Tom, because in his opinion, Tom was just an ordinary person, without any strong sign.

"Interesting." The leader of the assassins looked at Tom with interest, then said to Alice, "Miss Alice, you actually found a lunatic to be your bodyguard. No wonder your family is so disappointed in you. In that case, I have to kill him first."

Alice bit her lips tightly and made a huge decision. She took a step forward and stood in front of Tom, then said, "He's just an ordinary friend I met at the airport! He's an innocent person from the H Country. Even if you kidnap him, it's useless! Why don't you let him go? I'm willing to go with you!"

It was as if she had expended all her strength to say this.

Tom was surprised and touched at the same time. He really didn't expect Alice to protect him at this point.

It seemed that Alice was really a kind person. What a pity that she would marry Prince William.

Before the assassin's leader could speak, Prince William shouted, "You can't let him go! He's not an ordinary person! He's Alice's friend. You kidnapped him, and it's also useful!"

Hearing Prince William's words, Alice was furious and scolded Prince William. "What nonsense are you talking about? You know he's just an ordinary person. He's innocent. How can we get him involved in this?"

Prince William gritted his teeth and said, "Alice, you bitch! Now I know why you went to H Country. You just went to meet this man! You are a disgrace to our Eagle Country!"

"You..."

Alice was so angry at Prince William's words that her tear streamed out!

She had nothing to do with Tom. It was fine that Prince William didn't trust her. But how could he slander her like this!

Prince William was also very unhappy now. He thought that Alice must have cuckolded him and had some secret with this damn man from H Country.

Now, even if he was going to die, he had to pull Tom along!

"Well..." Tom sighed. When he saw Alice crying like this, he sympathized with Alice. He took Alice's hand, took out a tissue, wiped Alice's tears, and said comfortingly, "Miss Alice, you don't have to cry. Such a person is not worth your sadness."

Alice said sadly and guiltily, "Tom, I'm sorry. I got you into trouble. If I had known, I shouldn't have invited you..."

Tom patted her on the shoulder with a gentle smile and said, "You're silly, what's the matter? I said I'm here to protect you."

Hearing his words, Alice was stunned for a moment, then shook her head. She thought that Tom was just comforting her. In this situation, even if Tom had three heads and six arms, he couldn't protect her.

However, the killers were impatient. The head of the assassin ordered directly, "Bring them all back together."

"Yes, sir!"

Assassins were coming to catch them immediately.

At this moment, Tom spoke.

His voice sounded distant and grand.

"Are all of you here?"

Hearing his inexplicable words, the killers were shocked. They didn't understand what Tom meant by that. What a lunatic.

In the meantime, an assassin was about to hold him down and violently arrest him.

But at this moment, Tom said again, "Do you know why I didn't fight with you just now? Because I'm waiting for you to gather together so that I can clear you all."

After saying this, Tom put on a playful smile, and then he made a bold move.

There seemed to be no sign that before the assassin could react, Tom grabbed his neck and gently pinched it. His neck was just broken.

Chapter 933

Then the killer's struggling body drooped weakly, with fear and pain on his face, then he completely stopped moving.

Tom loosened his hand and the killer fell to the ground.

What happened could be said to be unimaginable for everyone present, which made them stunned and looked incredulous.

Especially for prince Alice and Prince William, their eyes were widely opened, completely dumbfounded. They could not come back to their senses for a long time. They never thought that Tom would be so powerful.

With only one attack, the killer, who looked fierce and unmatched, was strangled to death.

This feeling was too stunning as if a weak woman had easily strangled a strong man. It didn't make sense.

For the other killers, it was an extremely shocking scene. They had just sized up Tom and confirmed that Tom was just an ordinary person.

But Tom's strength was far beyond their expectations.

However, they were professional killers after all, and their strength was extraordinary, so they quickly came to their senses.

The killers' leader's pupils shrank and showed a frightened expression because he didn't even see how Tom did that clearly.

The point was that Tom didn't release any powerful aura now, which was too unscientific.

"Who the hell are you?"

The leader's muscles instantly were tensed up, as if facing a major enemy.

At this moment, the other killers reacted instantly and became tensed up, staring at Tom. As long as the leader gave an order, they would attack Tom.

Tom didn't hurry to take action after putting down the killer's body. He looked across all the killers and his eyes were like laser scanners, gathering all the killers' information in his mind, and he began to quickly calculate how long it would take him to finish them off.

"Tom."

After hearing what Tom said, the killers didn't have any reactions. Obviously, they didn't know Tom.

This made Tom feel kind of confused.

After the Kungfu Cup, he was no longer a nobody. For the martial artists in the world, they should know him.

And these killers here were all masters of the Innate Realm. Logically speaking, they should know him.

However, seeing from their reaction, it was obvious that they did not know him.

Could it be said that the people of the sect didn't care about the affairs of the state and society?

Or they were ignorant?

Anyway, it was kind of a good thing for Tom. In this way, he could save some time.

Alice covered her mouth and looked at Tom in disbelief. She exclaimed, "Tom, you..."

Tom turned around to smile brightly at her, "Alice, I told you I would protect you. Do you forgot?"

Hearing this, Alice's heart started to beat quickly and she had an unspeakable feeling.

For Prince William, he was dumbfounded and suspicious. He never thought that people in H

Country had such great strength.

"It seems that I underestimated you. I didn't expect you to be a master."

The leader made a harsh sound in his mouth, and then he snapped his fingers without much verbiage to order the killers to attack Tom.

The order he received was to catch Prince William and Alice by all means. Now Tom's attack was nothing but an accident for them. He couldn't stop their task.

The killers acted quickly. Hearing the order, they immediately surrounded Tom.

They knew that Tom was a top master, and they did not underestimate the enemy. They had weapons in their hands and attacked Tom together, like the storm directly enveloping Tom, with no flaws.

Seeing this, Alice began to get nervous again.

But Tom was calm and even moved up the corners of his mouth slightly, showing a disdainful expression.

These killers were powerful, at the very least, they were at the third stage of the Innate Realm, but to him, they were weak, no different from ants.

No kidding, at the Kungfu Cup championship, Tom crushed the seven great Major Perfection Realm Innate masters of the Innate Realm, not to mention the ants at the third stage of the Innate Realm.

He didn't move. Instead, he didn't attack the killers until they approached him.

At first glance, his speed did not look fast, and they could see his outline, but the moves he made were extremely exquisite, with an indescribable charm.

As if it would attract everyone's looks and spirits.

As if Tom controlled the time and space.

Which made these killers' fierce attacks slow.

Of course, it was an illusion. In fact, Tom's speed was extremely fast.

He was only at the level of martial arts, to the extent that a master of the Innate Realm could not understand.

Bang, bang.

The sound of beating to flesh kept bursting out around him.

In less than five seconds, these aggressive killers were defeated by him.

One by one, they flew out. When they fell, there was a huge wound on their bodies, with a series of cracks spread to the whole body from the wound.

It was as if they were porcelain which was broken by Tom.

Others were grunting.

Seeing this, the rest killers swallowed crazily, with great fears and panics in their eyes.

And disbelief.

The strength that Tom showed was powerful, and it was definitely beyond their recognition.

They were not ordinary martial artists, you knew. But facing this man from H Country, they were so vulnerable.

This was scary.

The leader swallowed heavily.

At this moment, his eyes met Tom's. He saw the tease and ridicule in Tom's eyes, and he felt scared.

He knew that he met a match today.

Without any hesitation, he turned around and ran away.

"Do you want to run away? Can you escape?"

Seeing his movement, Tom smiled disdainfully.

Chapter 934

The other killers reacted quickly. When they saw their boss running away, they became even more demoralized and turned around to run.

It was not that they were timid, but that Tom was too powerful and frightening to them!

In their life, they had never met a Strong with such terrifying strength.

It was no exaggeration to say that they were scared, and they no longer had the idea of resisting. Instead, they only wanted to run as far away as possible!

Although they were so arrogant and fierce just now, they were still afraid of being killed.

After all, one only lived once.

Tom sneered. The next moment, he instantly chased after the killers.

His was extremely fast, which was far beyond the limits of human beings.

His speed was unimaginable even for the Innate Realm masters.

It was even more unimaginable for Prince William or Alice.

They only saw a flash and then a strong wind blew out of thin air. The wind made them unable to open their eyes.

They quickly rubbed their eyes and looked over, but they could no longer see Tom and the killers, as if they had disappeared!

They were stunned for a few seconds before Prince William came back to his senses. He swallowed hard and had a complex expression. He asked Alice, "Who the hell is that guy?"

Alice also had a dumbfounded expression. She came back to her senses when heard Prince William's words and said, "I don't know. I met him on the plane. He said that he was a scholar and had insight in his speech. He should be a scholar. But why does he have such remarkable strength?"

Alice was in a mess and she could not understand why Tom was so powerful. This was completely different from her perception!

When Prince William thought of how he had mocked Tom just now, he couldn't help but sweat on his back. He felt chilly cold.

He also felt a pang of fear.

Speaking of Tom, he did not immediately chase after the leader of the assassins but the remaining killers first.

It had to be said that the reaction and cooperation of these killers were very good. They ran in different directions, which greatly reduced the possibility of Tom catching them all.

Unfortunately, their plan was clever, but they still underestimated Tom's strength.

It took Tom less than 20 seconds to catch the rest of the assassins. He crippled them, attacked their vital points, then threw them back on the road.

When these killers were thrown in front of him like a ball, Prince William was frightened, he felt numb and couldn't help to scream.

To him, these things were too scary!

Run!

Run as fast as I can!

This was the inner voice of the assassin leader.

Now his mind was filled with horror.

Tom's strength was far beyond his expectations.

At the same time, he couldn't figure out that he had already investigated Prince William's identity and he was 100 % sure that this operation was in the bag!

There were no top experts in Prince William's guards.

But where did this H Country citizen come from?

And he was so scary.

He had completely stronger than Innate Realm masters!

Wait a minute, suddenly, the head of the assassin held his breath. Stronger than the master of Innate Realm meant that he was already a master of the God Becoming Level!

God Becoming Level...

When he thought of this, he trembled with fear.

A master at the God Becoming Level was the absolute outstanding existence for both the Clan and the whole nation.

Even their leader had just arrived at the God Becoming Level, right?

But now, they actually got into trouble with the Strong of God Becoming Level...

He didn't dare to think about it anymore. It only felt more fearful than meeting death.

Anyway, he had to escape and bring this news back to the Clan!

He was running so hard that he had exceeded his limit. In less than a minute, he had run a long distance.

He sensed that the H Country citizen was not behind him and thought that he must not be able to catch up.

He was finally out of danger and felt a little relieved.

However, at this moment, a voice suddenly came into his ear, "You're not slow."

This is...

That H Country citizen's voice!

In an instant, he felt numb and all his muscles tightened to the extreme at this moment!

At the same time, there was a look of fear and disbelief on his face. He looked back subconsciously and immediately saw a playful face, appearing silently behind him, smiling at him.

This scene could be said to be the most terrifying scene he had encountered in his life time!

He was so scared!!!

"Ah!!!" He let out a loud scream. His strong desire for survival actually increased his speed by 30 % again.

Unfortunately, this speed was no different from a snail to Tom.

Tom grabbed the head of the assassin with his right hand, tackling him by the neck.

"I'll fight you!"

The leader of the assassin was so vicious that he wanted to fight back immediately.

But before his fist could touch Tom, he was squeezed by Tom behind his neck and with a seemingly easy shake, his bones all fell apart at once.

And he also let out a shrill scream.

He turned into a marionette and was held by Tom.

Tom threw him on the ground, then looked down at him and said, "Which Clan are you from?"

After hearing Tom's words, the head assassin's pupils contracted in shock.

"You, you, who the hell are you?!" The assassin leader was stuttering.

"Let me guess. You're from the Sun & Moon God Sect?" Tom continued. Indeed, the aura of these killers was very similar to Gario's.

After hearing Tom's words, the head assassin's pupils contracted again. It was obvious that Tom was right.

"You are a God Becoming Level expert?! But in the secular world, how could such a young man like you become a God Becoming Level expert!"

The assassin leader's expression was extremely frightened.

When Tom heard his words, he was a little aware that the people of the Clan called the people of the Sovereign state secular.

Now that Tom knew his identity, he was impatient to talk to him anymore and asked the key directly, "Why did you kidnap Prince William and Alice?"

However, the head of the assassin did not answer his question but stared at him. "No matter who you are, if you dare to interference Saint Abbey, you will die. You will die!"

Chapter 935

"Lack of self-knowledge."

Tom shook his head, then Tom hit him directly and broke the assassin leader's neck easily.

He had already gotten the answer he wanted from the assassin leader, so there was no need to keep him alive.

But his face also darkened.

In the end, the assassin leader's words made him hesitate.

The other party claimed to be from the Saint Abbey, which was a branch of the Sun & Moon God Sect overseas. Tom didn't expect that he and the Sun & Moon God Sect were quite destined. They had met each other twice.

Soon, he brought back the body of the assassin leader and threw it in front of Prince William, saying calmly, "Call the royal family and let them deal with the scene."

After that, he was ready to leave.

Tom had finished his work and there was no need to stay.

Prince William was shocked by Tom's sudden appearance. Looking at the corpses all over the ground, he felt very scared. There was no more contempt and disdain in his eyes when he looked at Tom. Instead, there were intense fear and awe.

After all, the strength that Tom showed just now was too terrifying. These fierce killers actually all died in Tom's hands.

For Alice, the shock in her heart was even greater. She had never seen a man as powerful as Tom and he saved her.

If Tom hadn't saved her earlier, she would have been kidnapped by now. It was self-evident what would happen at that time.

Seeing that Tom was about to leave, she called out nervously, "Wait a minute!"

Tom looked back at Alice and said, "Is there anything else?"

Alice looked into Tom's eyes. She felt as if her whole body was sucked into his eyes, and her heart beat faster involuntarily.

She actually had a feeling of love.

Her face turned red all of a sudden, and her lips moved. Finally, she mustered up the courage and said, "Tom, thank you so much. You saved my life just now."

Tom smiled, waved his hand, and said gently, "You're welcome. This is our fate."

Fate...

Alice had half the blood of H Country, so she was full of beautiful yearning for the "fate." For women, fate was a wonderful thing.

Especially for Alice, fate was equivalent to marriage in her mind.

Because she had been engaged to Prince William when she was very young, she was very resistant to marriage. Deep down in her heart, she had always hoped that a prince charming would appear in her life to take her away and save her marriage and her life!

This would be a very romantic thing.

Now, Tom perfectly echoed her imagination for a prince charming.

"Tom, where are you going?"

She mustered up the courage to ask again.

Tom smiled faintly and said, "I still have something to deal with, so I can't accompany you. Goodbye."

"Wait!" Seeing that he was leaving, Alice felt reluctant and couldn't help but call out.

Tom looked puzzled and asked, "Is there anything else?"

Prince William was in awe of Tom, but how could he not see that his fiancée had already developed an affinity for Tom!

This was his fiancée, but she was flirting with another man in front of him. For any man, it was unbearable.

Besides, he was a prince!

But he didn't dare to show it. He just clenched his fists, lowered his head, and was very angry.

If Tom hadn't shown his strength just now, Prince William would have dared to scold Tom. But now, Prince William knew that Tom was absolutely strong. Even if he was angry, he wouldn't have dared to lose his temper with Tom, unless he wanted to die.

Alice was looked at by Tom, and she was a little nervous for a moment, but her brain was running at a high speed. She didn't want Tom to leave.

Because she had a feeling that if she let Tom leave this time, she would never meet Tom again. Therefore, no matter what, she had to make him stay!

So, she took a step forward, had an idea, and said, "Didn't you say you were going to see the queen just now? We're going back to the castle, too. You can come with us."

Hearing this, Prince William clenched his fists even tighter!

Damn Alice, how dared she flirt with another man in front of him! I must teach you a lesson in the future!

He thought he covered his anger up well, but he didn't expect that Tom still noticed it. Tom shook his head and said meaningfully, "Forget it, lest your fiancé misunderstand."

When Prince William heard this, he was shocked. What? Did this man from H Country see through his mental activities?

Just then, Alice looked over and saw his twisted face, which made her even more disgusted.

Alice said, "Tom, I must repay you for saving my life just now. If you're not in a hurry to see the queen, why don't you come home with me first? Our family will repay you with the highest treatment!"

After that, Alice looked at Tom eagerly, hoping that Tom would agree.

At first, Tom wanted to refuse, but when he saw that Alice was so eager and thought that he was unfamiliar with the Eagle Country, he agreed. "Okay."

Alice was immediately very happy and smiled brilliantly.

Not long after Alice called, some people from her family came over. When they saw the mess on the ground, they were all shocked and they rushed over. Only when they found that Alice was fine did they heave a sigh of relief.

"Miss Alice, what happened just now?!"

He was an old man in a tuxedo, and he looked like the butler of Alice's family.

After Alice briefly explained what had happened just now, their eyes were filled with shock and awe as they looked at Tom.

Tom nodded politely to them and did not speak.

Then these people greeted Prince William. When the other royal guards arrived, the bodyguard team took Alice back to the family under Alice's order.

Tom also followed them back, and he was a little hungry.

What Alice didn't know was that after they left,
Prince William looked at them with malice.

Chapter 936

0956 Take Me to Elope

"Tom, thank you so much this time. If you hadn't done it, Prince William and I would have been in a terrible situation!" In the car, Alice said gratefully, her eyes shining.

Tom was a little embarrassed by her adoration and gratitude. He waved his hand and said, "Miss Alice, you've said 'thank you' many times along the way. There's no need to say it anymore. It's not a problem, really."

The more modest he was, the more charming Alice felt about him because no one in Eagle Country was as modest as Tom.

Especially since Tom had just shown such great strength, it made him even more charming.

The butler who was with him was surprised to see the mistress admired Tom so much. The butler was the one who had watched Alice grow up, and he had never seen Alice show such an expression to any man like this.

Even Prince William, who was in a high position, had never been treated like this.

As the saying went, "The onlookers see most clearly." The butler could tell that Alice had feelings for this man from the H Country.

Tom naturally saw it, so he kept his distance from Alice.

To him, Alice was just a passer-by. He didn't want to have any affairs with Alice.

However, regarding Prince William, he still had to remind Alice, "Miss Alice, are you Prince William's fiancée?"

Alice was originally very happy. After hearing this, her face immediately darkened. She sighed and said, "Yes, my father betrothed me to Prince William very early."

When she said this, her eyes were a little red. It could be seen that she was really dissatisfied with the engagement.

Tom added, "What's your impression of Prince William?"

When Alice heard this, she blurted out, "I don't like Prince William at all! When I get home, I'll ask my father to withdraw the engagement!"

When the butler heard this, he was immediately frightened and said quickly, "Dear miss Alice, this is not appropriate! Prince William is very outstanding. It's your blessing to marry him!"

At the same time, he also winked at Alice, indicating that there was an outsider here. If this was spread to the royal family, it would be difficult for her to deal with it.

Alice saw the housekeeper's eyes, and her eyes became even more gloomy. Yes, as the daughter of the Alexander Clan family, how could she choose her marriage?

However, she was really unwilling to accept it.

Tom said at this time, "Prince William is not a magnanimous person. It's not a happy thing for you to marry him."

He knew Prince William's character very well. If Alice married Prince William, most of her life would be ruined.

When the butler heard this, he immediately frowned and looked very unhappy. He thought that this man was too annoying. Even if he had just saved miss Alice and Prince William's life, he was still from H Country so he was always inferior. How could they judge the alliance between the Alexander Clan and the royal family?

So he coughed twice, signaling Alice not to listen to him.

When Alice heard Tom's words, her eyes lit up, and she was in high spirits. Then she asked, "Tom, you also don't think I should marry Prince William, right?"

Tom smiled and nodded as if he could not see the fierce expression of the butler beside him.

At his level, people would do whatever they wanted and not be restrained. How could they be threatened by a small butler?

Alice was his friend and a good woman. She shouldn't marry someone like Prince William.

Alice got Tom's approval, and she was even more excited. Suddenly, she thought of something. Her white face suddenly turned red, and she bit her lips gently. Then, she made a bold decision, grabbed Tom's hand directly, looked at Tom, and said, "Tom! I like you! Take me away!!"

After this sentence came out, not to mention the housekeeper on the side, even the driver was shocked. His hands trembled, making the car start to drive crookedly.

As for the butler, he was so scared that he opened his mouth wide and immediately scolded, "Miss Alice! What nonsense are you talking about?"

Tom was also a little scared. He looked at Alice in surprise. "Are you kidding?"

Tom had talked to Alice on the plane, and he probably knew that Alice was a direct and generous woman, which was different from the reserve women in H Country.

However, he never expected that Alice would let him take her away directly. This joke had gone too far.

Rumors said that women in Eagle Country were all very bold and unrestrained. They could love and hate others at their wills. When they met the man they liked, they went straight to him. But Tom did not expect a woman as knowledgeable as Alice to be so bold and unrestrained.

Alice's face was red, but she didn't avoid it. Instead, she said seriously, "Tom, I'm serious. I'm not joking! I don't like Prince William at all. I like you. Take me away. We'll live happily for the rest of our lives. I'll give birth to many children for you."

Oh geez. It was so crazy.

Even though Tom's psychological quality was very strong, he was still frightened by Alice's enthusiasm. For a moment, he didn't know what to say, so he said awkwardly, "Miss Alice, your love is just an illusion. We've only known each other for less than 24 hours. After you sleep tonight, you'll be sober tomorrow."

"No! Tom, I'm serious! As long as you agree, I can go with you right away." Alice's expression was very serious, not caring about the butler coughing and winking crazily.

Tom smiled bitterly. He didn't expect his good thinking.

Alexander Clan-Horton walked up, speaking to a tall white man in the front line respectfully, "Excuse me, general, you're here for...?"

The tall white man pointed at Tom and replied in tough tone, "We are here to arrest this man from H Country. Please stay out of this."

So was the case. Alexander Clan-Horton breathed a sigh of relief. No doubt he would stay out of this as long as the Alexander Clan family was safe.

But Alice disagreed. "You have no right to arrest him! He didn't break the law! He also saved Prince William and me! I will definitely report it to Prince William if you dare to arrest his savior!"

What the man replied was out of her expectation, "There's no need to report. We were sent by Prince William. This man from H Country is also one of the assassins!"

Chapter 939

Indeed, he had led the army for many years and had never encountered such a powerful enemy. It was beyond his imagination!

In his opinion, the army was the most powerful existence in the world. No matter how powerful a martial artist was, he would not be comparable with an army using firearms.

But Tom's existence was greatly beyond his expectations and overturned his perception!

Although these soldiers of his army were not the soldier king or the sharpshooter, their marksmanship was already outstanding in the world rank.

However, just now, more than 30 soldiers fired at this man from H Country, but they did not hit him once. Instead, he, the general, was captured by him.

This result really mismatched his expectation.

Especially now that he was grabbed by Tom, he had an unprecedented sense of powerlessness. For Tom, he was so weak, and his life was completely at Tom's mercy.

"Do you want to die?", said Tom.

Hearing that, the general felt extremely anxious and scared.

Logically speaking, as a general, he had been on many battlefields and had experienced many cruel wars. His fear of death was far less than that of ordinary people.

Even if there was a gun pointed at his head, he wouldn't be as panicked or scared as he was now.

But now that he was caught by this man, he had a kind of fear and panic that he had never had before.

And this fear was completely beyond his control!

It was instinctive fear, deep in his soul. It was as if he met a natural enemy, which made him panic and tremble uncontrollably.

Thousands of soldiers in the scene saw their general, who was so easily captured by Tom and was unable to fight back. Suddenly, they were all nervous and frightened as if they were facing a great enemy!

They were soldiers who were used to life and death, but they had never met such a strong man as Tom, which was beyond their understanding of humans.

In their hearts, there was a question, the man in front of them was a human or a ghost?

As for the members of the Alexander Clan family around, they were also shocked by this scene. Tom actually fought against the entire army alone and captured the general. It was really incredible!

Bodyguard Hilton was much scared now. He had watched the live stream of the Kongfu Cup and knew Tom's power. Now seeing how strong Tom is with his own eyes in the scene, he was all the more panicked.

And Tom gave him a meaningful look just now. He was much more frightened. His legs swung violently and he almost fell.

"Devil, this is the devil..."

Alexander Clan - Horton said in a daze. He had never seen such a powerful human!

In his mind, Tom was not a human, but a devil.

Tom saw everyone's reaction. He faintly smiled with a hint of disdain.

The Eagle Country's international ranking is not low. Tom originally thought that even if the overmatches are not many here, the strength of the army should be strong. But now, it seemed not great.

The core(courage) of the soldiers was also far smaller than that of H Country.

"You, you, you, who the hell are you?!" The white general swallowed and said. Now that he was not arrogant as before. He was a captive of Tom. His fear now overwhelmed him.

Tom just said faintly, "I saved Prince William. But your Prince William bit my hand. Usually, I would kill your royal family and then kill Prince William. But for the sake of your queen's highness, I would spare him this time. If anything like this happens next time, don't blame me for no mercy!"

After saying this, Tom stamped hard, and there was a loud bang. The ground beneath actually shook violently, as if it was an earthquake, scaring everyone around him!

And cracks appeared on the ground and spread around.

Such a horrible scene scared all of them. Their faces turned pale and their pupils constricted. They indeed thought that Tom was not a man, but a devil.

After Tom finished speaking, they only saw a flash cross them and felt a strong wind blew through them. When they opened their eyes again, Tom was not there anymore.

Tom disappeared.

It was as if he had never appeared before!

They couldn't accept the fact at once. They froze for a while before coming back to their senses.

The white general's expression was very ugly. His expression was mixed. He was a little angry, ashamed, and repentant but more afraid.

Tom's power was far beyond his knowledge. He had a feeling that even if he had led more soldiers than today's, like an army of more than ten thousand soldiers, he was still unable to catch Tom!

The army had no threat to a master of Tom's level. Only nuclear weapons would work.

He wondered why there was such a big gap between people.

Soldiers were still filled with fear for the strength that Tom had shown just now.

"Pack up!"

The white general said in a low voice.

Then he thought of something, turned around and said to Alexander Clan Horton, "Mr. Alexander Clan, please don't tell anyone about what happened just now. Otherwise, the royal family will be very unhappy."

Alexander Clan - Horton gave a shudder and nodded quickly, indicating that he would not leak out what happened.

He was a smart man. He knew what the white general meant. As an army, they represented the strongest strength of the Eagle Country. If it was spread out that the army of thousands of soldiers could not catch a man from H Country, they would lose their face.

And the more serious consequence was that the public would have doubts whether the army could safeguard their security.

The white general quickly led the troops out. They were well-trained and disappeared in less than two minutes as if they had never been here before.

After they left, a middle-aged woman next to the Alexander Clan-Horton, swallowed and said with lingering fear, "How did Alice associate with such a powerful being?"

When Alexander Clan - Horton heard this, his expression became complicated...

After Tom left, he didn't care much about the interlude. At this time, he received a message from an agent in Military Intelligence 3 of the Eagle Country.

Chapter 940

This information was a string of codes that ordinary people could not understand at all. But Tom could tell at a glance what the codes meant.

It was an address in Eagle Country. After he used his phone to navigate, he found out that it wasn't too far away from him.

Soon, he rushed to the place.

At the same time, there was a hidden base in Eagle Country. It was dark and remote.

There were more than a dozen Asians inside, and they were in the middle of a meeting. They all looked worried. Obviously, they were in some trouble.

"Alas! It's been almost half a year, and we still have no way out. What can we do now? Are we really going to give up?"

A middle-aged man in his thirties sighed.

His words resonated with others and deepened their sorrows.

"The Saint Abbey is too powerful. We are no match for it at all. We don't even have a way to get in undercover! Some guys were discovered on the spot when carrying out missions. They were executed immediately."

"Fuck off! They have killed many of our agents!"

"What else can we do? Do we really have to give up the mission?"

They all sighed gloomily.

They were all agents of the Military Intelligence 3. In fact, they had actually infiltrated the Eagle Country many years ago and had carried out many missions over the years.

And each of them was a master of the Innate

Realm, which could be said to be a very powerful force!

Over the years, they had completed many seemingly impossible tasks, and they had made a lot of achievements. As long as they returned to H Country, they would definitely be promoted.

However, just six months ago, they received a mission to save a few scientists from a powerful organization in Eagle Country!

They used to think that it would be a very easy task, so they did not take it seriously. After all, they had completed other more difficult tasks successfully.

But the difficulty and danger of this mission were far beyond their expectations!

In the past six months, they tried three rescue operations, but they were perfectly resolved by their opponents, losing several agents.

They all died miserably.

Now, there was really nothing they could do.

Just then, a middle-aged man sitting in the main seat knocked on the table and said, "A new agent was sent up. Director Pence said he is very powerful. I believe he can complete the task."

He was in charge of this group of agents. But when everyone heard his words, they were not surprised and frowned even deeper!

A female agent complained. "What? An agent was sent over from the organization? What do you mean, humiliate us, or let this agent die!"

One of the agents next to her said unhappily, "That's right. What was wrong with Director Pence? Just send an agent over? He must be kidding!"

"Let me see. Could it be that Director Pence has given up the mission?" Another agent said sadly.

His words also caused silence among the others. Right, Pence must have given up the mission, or else he couldn't have just called an agent over.

After all, they had been agents for many years. They knew that no matter how powerful a person was, it was limited!

Only people like God of War Albert could make a change.

However, this was obviously impossible! There was only one God of War in H Country.

Even a master like the Little Martial God could not make any change, because the Saint Abbey was too powerful. Its strength could already be comparable to a small country, and its top experts were numerous. They couldn't compare to them.

Moreover, they all knew that the Military Intelligence 3 had fallen. Apart from Pence himself, there were no powerful experts any more.

And Pence himself couldn't come. Even if he came, it wouldn't help.

So they all agreed that Pence should have given up the mission and the scientists.

"Alas! Pity these excellent scientists. They are the hope of our H Country. It is a huge loss for our H Country as they have been kidnapped by the Saint Abbey!"

"Yes, these scientists are much more valuable than agents like us."

"Especially that Mr. Loong. He's a super scientist who's going to win the Nobel prize. What a pity, what a pity..."

They all looked very unhappy and lamented that H Country had given up on these scientists.

The middle-aged man in the main seat knocked on the table again and said, "Stop whining. The new agent will be here soon. I've sent him our location. Let's make the plan after he comes."

They all nodded. That was all they could do now.

They continued talking for a while. Suddenly, they were shocked by the footsteps coming from outside!

Their position was very secretive, and no one else could know except for their own people.

But now, someone actually came in.

They looked at each other and saw the horror and worry in their eyes.

"Could it be that new agent?" Someone immediately thought of this possibility and said in a low voice.

"Impossible. Our base is very secretive. Even if he knows the location, he can't find it all at once. The most important thing is that we have set up alarms everywhere. Not to mention people, the alarm will go off even if a fly flies in!"

"There are invaders!!"

They immediately realized this and their muscles tightened.

At this moment, the footsteps had reached the door of their conference room and then there was a knock on the door.

Knock, knock, knock...

They looked at each other, and one by one, they focused their minds to the extreme. They put their guns on their waists, as they prepared to take out their guns and attack.

But they did not act rashly. The middle-aged man in the main seat spoke first, "Come in."

Then he heard the sound of the doorknob being twisted and a figure appeared.

It was a young face.

Who else was there but Tom?

With a swish, everyone pointed their guns at him. As long as he made any rash moves, they would immediately fire.

But Tom did not panic at all when facing this situation, nor was he surprised. He just smiled faintly and said, "My name is Tom, and I'm here to support you."
