

Love At First Night Chapter 31

Chapter 31

Frank looked out of the window, searching for Judith. Suddenly, he saw Judith walking with a man, talking and laughing together. Judith and the man were both holding a cup of milk tea.

Frank paused for a moment, and a sudden sense of jealousy came over him

He felt unpleasant because he had a feeling that Judith was Jodie. Frank clenched his hand into a fist, his lips pressing together, and his deep gaze fixed on Judith and the man beside her. Although the car had passed by them, Frank still looked over his shoulder at them. Both Edwin and Gary perceived Frank's displeasure.

And they knew the reason.

They also saw Judith and the man next to her.

The man came to pick her up at midnight, and they behaved like a happy couple. Gary looked at Frank, who wore a cold face. "Frank, you don't really think Judith is Jodie, do you?" Frank did not answer. He looked out the window with a stony expression. Gary had got used to Frank's long silences. After a long time, Frank looked forward and said coldly, "Edwin, drive me back to the Taylor's." "Okay!" Edwin responded softly and turned the car left. At night, a cool breeze caressed Judith's cheek. She felt refreshed after the walk. She did not drink too much tonight. Adam had noticed the stain on her shirt and asked jokingly, "Judy, who poured red wine on you? Did you offend anyone?" Judith looked down at her clothes and replied, “A colleague. She accidentally spilled her wine on my shirt. Never mind. It’s dry now.” Judith recalled Zoe’s dramatic expression. “Well.” Adam frowned slightly. He didn’t speak it out, but he was not sure if it was really an accident. He had encountered similar situations. Some women played tricks to draw people’s attention. Judith knew what Adam was thinking. She smiled and comforted him. “Adam, it’s fine! Thank you for picking me up at night. Tomorrow is Friday. Let’s have dinner tomorrow night. After dinner, we can hang around.” This weekend, Judith planned to go out to look for a house. If her kids were going to attend a school in this city, it would be convenient to buy a house. Adam nodded at Judith with a gentle smile. He paused for a while and then suggested, “Judy, if you plan to stay here with your kids, you’d better buy a house. In this way, they can attend a public school.” Judith smiled brightly and said excitedly, “Adam, you can read my mind, can’t you? I have been thinking about the same thing. I plan to go check out some houses this weekend.” Adam looked straight at her. He also wished that Judith could read his mind. Sometimes, he was almost about to tell her that he loved her and liked her kids. However, he knew Judith wouldn’t accept him, and he was afraid that she would stay away from him after he said that. am He didn’t want that result. So, he chose to hide his love and support her by her side. Adam smiled bitterly and said, “Judy, let me go with you!” In fact, he had an extra apartment in this city which was big enough for Judith and her kids. But he knew Judith was a proud and stubborn girl who wouldn’t want to trouble other people.

Love At First Night Chapter 32

Chapter 32

Judith looked at Adam guiltily. “Adam, you come here for work. I don’t want to affect your job.” Adam knocked her on the forehead. “Don’t be silly. It’s a pleasure to help you. And I’m free this weekend.” “It hurts!”

Judith let out a cry mischievously although it didn't at all. Adam chuckled and patted Judith's head. "You are a good actress!"

Soon, they arrived at the building where Judith lived. Adam felt reluctant to part with Judith. He even wished the road to be longer. He looked at Judith and smiled gently. "It's too late. You have to work tomorrow. Good night!"

"Well. Good night! Get home safe!" Judith said. She felt warm and grateful. Actually, she had asked Adam not to walk her home because it was very late, but he insisted. "I will! You could go up first." Adam urged gently. Judith said goodbye and walked to the apartment. Adam had been staring at her back. He didn't leave until the lights on the fifth floor were on. He thought about what had just happened and smiled happily. After returning home, Judith took a shower and went to bed. The Taylor's was a villa that had a good view of the river. What was more, it was next to the Chaney's. So, the two families had a good relationship. Edwin slowly pulled into the driveway in front of the garage. Frank opened the door and came out. He looked back at Gary and coldly commanded, "Gary, find out Judith's identity and who the man next to her is. Don't let anybody else know about this." Gary also nodded with a solemn expression. After so many years, he knew Frank had been waiting for Jodie for many years and hoped that he could find her this time. Frank walked towards the three-story villa. It was bright inside. He revealed a cold smile. Frank pushed the door open. The decoration and furnishings were luxurious and elaborate! He changed into slippers at the entrance. The servant, Susan, greeted Frank with a smile. "Mr. Frank, welcome back." Frank nodded slightly. Susan continued, "Mr. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are on the second floor. Miss Eliza and Mr. Steve are both there."

“Well! I see.” Frank spoke to Susan friendly. He glanced at the stairs, and a strange look flashed across his face. Then he strode upstairs. As he walked, the laughter and talking became clear. A sudden sadness took hold of him as Frank thought of his mother who had disappeared. “Mom, it would be a warm place here for me if you were still here,” Frank thought to himself. As soon as Frank entered the room, he heard a sharp voice. “Oh! Frank is back!” It was his stepmother, Gina.

Frank looked at her and sneered, “What? Are you surprised to see me return in one piece?” Gina paused for a second when she heard it. Other people there also changed their faces. Carlo, Frank’s father, was dressed in grey home clothes. He was sitting on the sofa and staring at Frank seriously.

Love At First Night Chapter 33

Chapter 33

A young man who was rather plain-looking was Steve. Beside Steve sat Eliza, a woman who had an arrogant expression. Before Gina married into the family, she gave birth to Steve and Eliza. Frank had an older sister who was sent abroad by Carlo at a young age. After their mother left them, she married someone abroad and rarely came back. She would only come back only to visit Frank. But she only stayed for a few days every time she was back. And she already had a five-year-old son.

“Frank, watch your language. Gina is your mother. How can you speak to her in that way?” Carlo reproached in anger. When Carlo was young, he was also a charming man. Even though he was old now, there was an air of command about him. Gina was tall and slender. She had a pretty face and beautiful eyes. Today, she was dressed in a fitted red dress which showed off her curves perfectly. However, this woman was always scheming and plotting. Frank said coldly, "She is not. She doesn't deserve to be my mother! "I had a car accident yesterday because someone had broken my brakes. Coincidentally, all the security cameras around the parking lot didn't work either." Frank went straight to the point. Since Gina married into the family, conflicts between Frank and his family never stopped.

All the people knew Frank detested Gina. Because Gina had something to do with the disappearance of Mila. "That's too bad! It's a pity that you didn't find that person out. Frank, you have to be careful when you go out. After all, you have offended too many people these years." Gina put on a worried look, but her words were mean. With those words, she raised her eyebrows at Frank. Gina had tried to kill Frank many times in those years. However, he always got away. Frank looked into Gina's eyes without fear. He hinted, "I will. Since there are some ungrateful people in this family!" Gina glared at Frank threateningly. Steve jumped up from the sofa when he heard it. He roared angrily, "Frank, who do you mean?" Frank narrowed his eyes and sneered, "Don't you understand that? Who benefits the most from my death?"

Frank continued to provoke them because he wanted to stir up trouble with his family. It didn't matter even if his father gave all the property to Steve and Eliza. He had built up his own business in Mayfield. "Stop!" Carlo shouted, looking at them sternly. Every time Frank came back, he would have a fight with Gina and the others. There was no peace in this family.

Carlo knew it was his fault to have betrayed Mila. He didn't know why Mila disappeared suddenly at that time. But Frank hated him because of this thing. Carlo slowly stood up from the sofa and glared at Frank.

“Frank, you are supposed to meet the Chaney family to talk about your wedding tonight. How can you be absent because of a new employee?”

Love At First Night Chapter 34

Chapter 34

Frank gazed at his father, his eyes ice cold.

He thought, “They got the news so quickly.” Frank shot a sharp look at Steve. “I’m not the only son in our family.” Three years ago, he had made up his mind to start his own business because he wanted to free himself from the arranged marriage. He wouldn’t marry anyone before he found Jodie. What was more, he was still waiting for his mother to come back. So, he was suggesting that Steve should take his place to marry Ann. “It’s none of my business,” Steve opposed. Ann was just an adopted daughter of the Chaney family. He would not clean up this mess for Frank. As a Taylor, he could have a better choice. Many women had a lovelier face and better family background than Ann. What was more, Frank, who had always been against Carlo, might not be able to inherit anything from Carlo. “Frank, the Chaney family only recognizes you as Ann’s future husband. Ann is a good girl. She likes you too. You shouldn’t let her down,” Carlo persuaded. His tone softened. He admitted Frank was more capable than him. Actually, he cared about Frank very much. However, Frank’s manner towards Carlo was as cold as ice. He showed a mocking smile and announced, “I won’t marry Ann. You’d better drop the idea.”

Frank finished his words and turned around, heading to the third floor. He came back tonight just to get his stuff. “Frank! Frank!” Carlo called at Frank’s back, but Frank didn’t look back. Carlo felt miserable to have such a bad relationship with his son. “Alright. Don’t you know him? He just comes to piss you off,” Gina said deliberately. Eliza took the opportunity and handed a glass of water to Carlo. “Dad, don’t be angry. We have got used to Frank. Don’t be mad at him. That’s bad for your health.” Carlo sighed heavily. The more he grew older, the more he missed the old days with Mila. Mila was a good cook. No matter how late he came back, she would prepare a big dinner for him. However, the warm home did not exist after Mila left. Frank went to the third floor, took out the card from the pinhole camera that he had installed, and put a new one in it. He hid the camera and changed his clothes. Then he walked downstairs. Carlo heard the sound and frowned at Frank. He asked, “Frank, it’s so late. Where are you going?” Frank replied shortly, “I still have things to do.” Then he left without looking back again. Carlo stood up and said helplessly, “You all go to sleep. Leave me alone.” Then he walked towards the study Gina looked at his back with mixed feelings. Steve narrowed his eyes with a malicious expression.

He said huskily, “Mom, Frank is so arrogant!” Gina gave a cold snort. “He doesn’t depend on your father anymore. So, he gets more presumptuous.” She looked out of the window, plotting against Frank in her heart.

Love At First Night Chapter 35

Chapter 35

Gina slowly withdrew her gaze, and her eyes full of killing intent. Frank got away this time. He wouldn’t be lucky next time. Eliza had a complicated look. She looked at her mother and said firmly, “Mom, Frank is powerful in Mayfield, so we have to be nice to him. Why are you at loggerheads with him all the time?” Gina glared at Eliza and said coldly, “Go to bed. What do you know?” “I’m not a child anymore. Why can't you treat me as an adult?" Eliza pouted. She turned around and walked back to her room.

Steve wanted to speak but was stopped by Gina. "Steve, go to bed. We can talk tomorrow in the company." Steve nodded and then went to his room. Gina looked at the study room with disdain. She thought, "The old bastard is thinking about that woman again, but she will never come back." Gina smiled coldly. Frank was a good bargaining chip. Mila never appeared again. Gina twisted her slender waist and walked into her room.

Judith was exhausted the whole day and did not wake up until eight o'clock.

The phone on the bedside table rang. Judith smiled and reached for her phone to answer the call. "Mom, it's Lucas." The eldest son's voice came from the other side of the line. Judith smiled happily. "Lucas, why are you calling so early?" "Mom, grandma said that we are going to settle in Mayfield. It's a sudden decision."

Judith pursed her lips and was thinking about how to explain to her son, "Lucas, I will work at the headquarters here, and Mayfield is a good city. The three of you can receive a better education when you come here." "Mom, I respect your choice. Emily is very happy too. Eric had a successful audition yesterday. He has an event today and was picked up by Alissa this morning." When Judith heard this, she smiled happily. Eric liked acting. She couldn't stop him so she just let him do it.

Judith suddenly asked cautiously, "Lucas, how is your grandma? Is she okay?" Judith knew that her mother didn't want to go back to Mayfield. When Judith mentioned Mayfield, her mother's face would change suddenly. "Mom, grandma is fine. She was very happy. She said that she was happy as long as we were together." Hearing this, Judith felt relieved. She was pleased that her mother was willing to come back. "Mom, you have to go to work. I'm going to hang up." "Okay! Lucas, I will buy a house and take you over soon." After the call, Judith was in high spirits. She quickly got out of bed and prepared to go to work. In Kimshire.

In Judith's apartment.

A pretty little girl half-opened her eyes. Her eyelashes were long and curly, as beautiful as butterfly wings! The little girl had the same face as Lucas, but she looked more lovely as a girl. But right now, she was very unhappy. She pouted her little mouth and squinted at her brother sadly. She complained in her soft voice, "Lucas, you hung up the phone again. You didn't even let me talk to mom. I miss her so much. You are so bad. You only think of yourself every time." Her thick and long eyelashes flickered. She had tears in her eyes now. Lucas couldn't stand seeing his little sister cry. It would break his heart. Emily was the little princess of their family.

Love At First Night Chapter 36

Chapter 36

Emily had been likable since she was born. She was lively, cheerful, and talented. She was good at painting. This year, she even had a chance to participate in art exhibitions. However, Emily was not a quiet princess, but a little schemer who liked playing pranks. Perhaps beautiful girls were born mysterious. Lucas looked at Emily and smiled indulgently. He couldn't do anything with her. Lucas gently stroked her head and comforted, "Emily, don't cry. I will take you to buy something good. Don't you like candies the most? You can have some candies while Mom isn't here." When Emily heard this, her big eyes instantly sparkled. Bright and clear. A happy smile was shown on her face. "Wow! Lucas, you are the best." She rolled her eyes and suddenly asked carefully, “Lucas, if we go to Mayfield, can we find our father?” Lucas heard this and frowned. The face of Frank, the president of the Taylor Group, suddenly flashed across Lucas’s mind. Lucas smiled at his sister. “Emily, do you really want to find our father?” Emily nodded. Her shoulder-length hair fell loosely behind her. Her beautiful eyes were filled with anticipation. Emily opened her mouth and said, “Lucas, wait a minute!” As Emily spoke, she took out a painting from a drawer to the side. Emily fluttered her long eyelashes and pointed at the painting. It was a family portrait. Emily’s style of painting was quite mature. In the painting were Lucas, Eric, Emily, their mother, and their grandmother. There was also a vacancy on the side. Emily smiled and said excitedly, “Lucas, look. There is a vacancy by our mother’s side. When we find our father, I will fill him in.”

Looking at Emily’s expectant eyes, Lucas smiled. Outside the door, their grandmother heard their conversation and smiled too. She thought, <Lucas, Emily, you will find your father. Your mother has escaped from this for more than ten years. It is time to go back and deal with it. After Judith’s job was settled, she threw herself at work. She had been busy all day. She had met everyone at work, and she had good relations with people. Everyone was very cooperative with her. Judith’s assistant Myla also came to work on time. Only that Myla was not nice to Judith. Before Judith understood the situation, Myla was cold to Judith, while Judith greeted her with a smile.

As for Gary, he flew to Kimshire to investigate Judith’s identity. Frank and Edwin were out discussing business cooperation with other companies. The boss was not in the company, and neither was the secretary.

All the employees felt very relaxed. Judith was satisfied with the nine-to-five job.

This was her dream job. She liked her job. She took everything seriously.

A day passed in a flash. After work, Judith changed into a casual outfit. It was a normal pink dress, with her curly hair, bright eyes, red lips, and a slight smile on her face, she could always blow people away. Judith walked out of the company's door and looked around for Adam. She did not see him. "Judy, I'm here." Adam could always find Judith at first sight. He waved at Judith and smiled brightly. Judith smiled lightly and walked towards Adam.

Love At First Night Chapter 37

Chapter 37

They chose to meet at a restaurant near Fashion Square. Judith and Adam both liked spicy food and had similar interests. They often had meals together. When they were in Kimshire, Alissa and Adam liked to eat at Judith's place. Judith's cooking was very good! The two of them chatted and laughed all the way to Fashion Square. There was a very famous restaurant which Judith had visited seven years ago. Adam gently pulled open the glass door and let Judith in. They chose to sit by the window. Frank and Edwin also came to this restaurant after meeting with their clients. Frank was looking at his phone. Then he looked up and suddenly saw a familiar figure. He thought he had seen wrong, but when he looked closer, there was Judith. She was wearing a pink dress, which fitted her perfectly, setting off her hourglass figure. She was looking at the handsome man opposite to her with a smile. Frank remembered that this man was the one who came to pick up Judith last night. Frank withdrew his gaze anxiously.

Why hadn't Gary found any news yet? It had been a day. He should have found something long ago. Following Frank's gaze, Edwin also saw Judith. Edwin glanced at Frank, who was agitated, and kept silent. At that moment, Frank's phone rang. It was from Gary. Frank excitedly picked up the phone. "How is it?" Frank asked immediately. "Frank, I can't find anything about Judith. Her past all these years have been completely erased. Judith may not be her real name. However, she works hard in the company." Gary was helpless with this result. He truly could not find anything. "As for the man with Judith, he is the president of the Haywood Group, Adam Haywood. Some employees from the company say that he often come to pick up Judith, but they are not in a relationship. They are just friends." Frank hung up the phone before Gary could finish his words. He turned his head and looked coldly at the two people talking and laughing not far away. Adam, the president of the Haywood Group. He owned some clothing companies. Some of them related to film and television. Casual and comfortable clothing was the main product of their company. The design was unique and the style was novel, which won the favor of many young men and women.

Even in Frank's wardrobe, there were two sets of casual clothes of the Haywood Group. He could make the Haywood Group become the top company in Kimshire in just a few years. He was very capable.

The Haywood Group also had good performance in e-commerce. Frank suddenly understood why Judith would work at the Taylor Group.

Judith majored in fashion. Frank watched as Judith and Adam ordered dishes, and Judith never stopped smiling. Her smile was sweet and beautiful. Frank always associated Judith with the Jodie in his mind. They were so similar. The dishes were all served. Edwin glanced at Frank and said, "Frank, let's eat! Then go home and rest!" Edwin's tone was full of concern. Frank did not sleep well last night. As long as someone mentioned something concerning Jodie, Frank wouldn't be able to sleep at night. Frank slowly looked back. He picked up the knife and fork and ate slowly. However, he couldn't help looking at Judith from time to time. “Judy, come on, have a drink. Congratulations on becoming the design director!” Adam opened a red wine and poured Judith a glass of wine. “Thank you!” Judith smiled as she raised her wine glass. The two of them gently clinked their glasses.

Love At First Night Chapter 38

Chapter 38

Judith took a sip of wine gracefully. She didn’t know much about red wine. She thought that all red wines tasted the same.

Adam put on disposable gloves and smiled at Judith. He picked up a shrimp on the plate and began to peel it, “Judy, here. This is your favorite shrimp.” Adam brought the shrimp to Judith’s mouth. Judith opened her mouth and ate it with a smile. As Frank saw that, his gaze turned cold. What Adam and Judith did was intimate. It was hard not to believe that they were not in a relationship. Edwin looked at Frank silently and continued to eat his food. Judith also put on gloves and started to peel the shrimp herself. She felt that was more enjoyable. “Wow! It’s so delicious! I’ve been a little busy these days. I haven’t had this for a long time. I love this taste so much. Adam, the food here is authentic.” Judith smiled. “Yeah!” Adam smiled and nodded. Adam also ate very quickly, as if the two of them were in a competition. The large portion of shrimp was quickly emptied by them. “Judy, leave the last one to me.” Adam was peeling one shrimp in his hand while staring at the one on the plate.

Judith blinked at him pitifully. “Adam, shouldn’t you leave the last one to me? You’ve eaten more than I did.”

Adam quickly ate the shrimp in his hand, then grabbed the one on the plate and smiled at Judy. Judith pouted, her bright eyes full of grievances. Adam could see that Judith was faking it. He peeled the shrimp but didn't eat it. Then he smiled and took it to Judith's mouth.

Judith ate it and smiled happily. In the eyes of outsiders, the two of them were like a loving couple. But in Judith's eyes, Adam was her only bosom friend. They had a great time. However, Frank was miserable. "Judy, do you want to see a movie?" Adam took a sip of water and asked. It was still early. Judith quickly shook her head. "Adam, you could go back home. I'll go to the nearby real estate to see if there is a suitable house."

Judith was a little anxious. In two months, her children would have to go to school. She had to hurry. Adam got up and said with worry, "Judy, I'll go with you. You are too pure. I'm afraid you'll be tricked." Judith glared at him and smiled. "Wait a moment. I need to go to the bathroom." Judith got up and handed him her bag. "Okay. Go ahead!" Adam smiled and took her bag, waiting for her.

Judith smiled and left. Judith stood in front of the mirror, washing her hands. Suddenly, she saw two familiar people in the mirror. Judith did not expect such a coincidence. Judith didn't expect that she would see them on the second day after she came back to Mayfield. The memories from seven years ago instantly came to his mind. The tearing pain tore her heart. Sherly and her mother Julissa were still the same, showy and glossy. Especially Sherly. She was more mature and charming than she was seven years ago. Seeing them getting closer and closer, Judith suddenly did not know what to do. She did not have the courage to face them right now. Judith stared at the laughing people in the mirror. Suddenly, someone appeared by her side. Judith turned to look and saw Frank. She had no time to think about it and quickly took a step towards Frank. Frank saw that Judith was upset. He was just about to say something, but to his surprise, Judith suddenly threw herself into his arms! “Mr. Taylor, please, just a moment!” Judith pleaded in a trembling voice.

Love At First Night Chapter 39

Chapter 39

Hearing her trembling voice, Frank, who had always hated women, suddenly felt distressed. His deep gaze fell on the two women who came in. It was Julissa and Sherly. As the footsteps of them got closer and closer, Judith’s body trembled uncontrollably. He frowned slightly and wrapped his arms around her waist, burying his head in her shoulder.

He seemed to want to give her more sense of security! In this way, he could prevent Julissa and Sherly from recognizing him. He knew how gossipy they were well.

The faint scent of Judith gave him an inexplicably familiar feeling. Sherly and Julissa only saw a man and a woman hugging each other when they walked in. Their eyes were filled with disdain at the same time. Only when the footsteps of the two faded did Judith quickly step back from Frank’s embrace.

ale face, Judith tried hard to curl her lips into a forced smile. “Mr. Taylor, thank you for what you did just now!” With his embrace empty, Frank felt his heart was also empty. Her thanks directly brought him a bad mood.

He curled his lips into a sinister smile and said, “Ms. White, a simple thank you is not enough to pay me back.”

“Then what do you want?” Judith, who still had not come out of the pain, asked in a trembling voice. Hearing Frank’s evil words, she suddenly felt as if she could not breathe. The pain in her heart kept torturing her. She suddenly felt like the pain that she had experienced at that night seven years ago had come back to her. It was a pain from which she even wanted to get free by killing herself! But now she couldn’t. She still had to take care of the three children and Mila. Besides, she had to find her biological parents. Seeing Judith’s fragile look, Frank found it hard to walk away. All of a sudden, familiar footsteps came from inside, which panicked Judith. She said, “Mr. Taylor, goodbye.” After Judith finished speaking, she turned around and ran away. Frank looked at her weak back and pondered. Why was she so afraid of Julissa and Sherly? Frank left with doubt. When he reached the lobby, he quickly took out his phone and dialed Gary’s number. The call was quickly put through. “Gary, find out if Judith has anything to do with the Cooper family.” In the meantime, Gary was booking a flight ticket back to Mayfield. Hearing Frank’s words, he frowned and said, “Frank, the Cooper family has a son and two daughters. The other daughter is adopted from the orphanage. Her name is Judith Cooper. After the night of the banquet at Fonta Hotel seven years ago, Judith Cooper had disappeared. “Let me put it this way. I have a friend that is close to the Cooper family. He knows the inside story. Didn’t you get drugged that night? That girl that your family arranged for you had gone to Mr. Kent’s room. While the person that the Coopers arranged for Mr. Kent was Judith Cooper. At that time, Judith Cooper was also drugged. They wanted to use Judith Cooper to sign a big deal. I have always suspected that maybe the girl you slept with that night was just Judith Cooper because she was also missing since that night. “Someone said that Judith Cooper had committed suicide after she found out the truth. No one knows what had happened to her and where she had gone. Anyway, that's all I know. I need to go to the airport and rush back overnight." Gary was about to hang up the phone. But he suddenly remembered something. "Frank, who did you ask me to check just now?" he asked again.

Love At First Night Chapter 40

Chapter 40

On the other side, Frank was looking at the back of Julissa and Sherly, who were talking and smiling as they left. His eyes were filled with hatred. He said word by word, "Before tomorrow, send me the photo of Judith Cooper and the name of the orphanage where she was adopted." He hung up the phone angrily. After Gary heard Frank's words, his eyes rounded with surprise. <What? What was that? One mission after another! I have to run all the way back and forth! That's my treat?! Gary cursed Frank in his heart before he put away the phone. Suddenly, he seemed to have recalled something. "Judith Cooper? Orphanage? Judith? Jodie?" He muttered to himself word by word. "Hey! It can't be such a coincidence, right?" As he thought of these, his unhurried steps turned into trots unconsciously. Frank turned around and looked at the place where Judith had just sat. It was empty already. He looked at the glass door and saw Judith slightly lowering her head. He could tell from her side face that she was still in panic! Adam was comforting her. Such a scene was somewhat annoying! He thought, <Judy, I have a very strong feeling in my heart. It's you! Otherwise, how would a normal person erase her address for no reason? There is only one possibility. She does not want people to know about her identity and where she lived.

Just like Mom, who would send me letters to let me know that she is safe, but left me no trace of her. Frank's deep gaze maintained as the two disappeared. At this moment, he found his heart extremely empty. He had never felt this way! <Jodie, I have been looking for you for many years. When will you come back? I have always believed that you are still alive. You will definitely come back to me. You said that you will stay by my side forever. Sometimes, waiting could be the most painful part of one's life. Those who waited could only be at ease when the ones they waited for returned. Judith told Adam about how she ran into Sherly and Julissa. Hearing this, Adam only regretted not being there for her.

Judith's face was still pale, and she looked absent-minded. Her gaze at the street was blank. Adam could only carefully protect her by her side. It had been seven years, but she still could not forget the pain. Seven years ago, she was not seriously injured, but she was disheartened and was unwilling to wake up. It took him and Alissa a lot of effort to raise her hope to live again. They both thought that after seven years, at least she would forget a little. With Lucas, Eric, and Emily by her side, at least the hatred and pain in her heart would go away slowly.

And for the past seven years, she had been very busy. It seemed that she wanted to make herself busy and have no time to think about those unhappy things in the past. He didn't expect that the moment she met the Coopers, her fragility would be completely stimulated. "Judy, stop it. You scared me," Adam suddenly said. Judith slowly turned her head and looked at him with a glazy stare. She pursed her lips and wanted to smile, but she couldn't. Her eyes were dull when her hoarse voice came up, "Adam, what did you just say?" Adam smiled bitterly. She hadn't heard what he said at all. He told himself, "Forget it, she would be more worried if she heard what I just said." He smiled and asked in a gentle and concerned voice, "Judy, shall I send you back?" Judith quickly shook her head. Her mood was much better now. If she met the Coopers again, she would be able to face them bravely. She must be brave! She was back for revenge. Next time, she would definitely be tough!
