

Chapter 2637

“Hahahaha!”

“Filth will always be filth!”

“You’re all just trash!”

“Look at yourselves!”

Louis kept laughing maniacally as he gloated at Edwin and the others’ sorry state.

“You people dare to show off in front of me?!”

“You’re the ones bringing justice?!”

“Hah! I haven’t even thrown my babies out yet, but you’re all already this terrified!”

“If I really did it, you would’ve all burst into tears by now!”

“All of you are really useless!”

“The Mendoza family? The Clarke family?”

“Stop joking around!”

“You only got your statuses because nobody’s there to steal your spot!”

“You think you’re so awesome to the point you’re on par with people like us?!”

“Are you even worthy?!”

Louis tapped Edwin on the face, arrogance seeping from his every pore.

Helena and other beautiful women covered their mouths and giggled snidely.

After tonight, both the Clarke and the Mendoza family would turn into Hong Kong and Las Vegas’s biggest jokes.

Edwin shot a deadly glare at Louis. If only there weren’t innocents around, he would’ve been prepared to die with Louis.

“Alright! I’ll give you people a chance to redeem yourselves! Either you never show up in front of us ever again, or you don’t get out of here alive!”

Louis scoffed with disgust.

“If you see me or Kaitlyn, you must get away as far as you can! The Mendoza family and the Clarke family have no right to join any occasion with us around!”

“If not, we’ll beat the sh*t out of you everytime we see you!”

“This is my order!”

“Get Rina and the money here already!”

“If not, I’ll kill every single one of you! You understand me?!”

Louis grabbed the champagne bottle on the table and smashed it right on Edwin’s head, laughing coldly.

“In Hong Kong, nobody’s worthy enough to bring me justice!”

“None of you have what it takes!”

Edwin stumbled backward, covering his head all the while. He was boiling with anger. If it weren’t for the grenades strapped on Louis, he would’ve long taken action.

Seeing the resentment on Edwin’s face, Louis felt a lot more arrogant and pompous.

“I’ll bring justice instead!”

A man took a step out of the crowd and headed for Louis.

Louis, who was in his own world, instinctively stepped back, but he was still too slow. When he reacted, Harvey had already grabbed him by the wrist.

There was a loud clack as Harvey immediately pulled out the safety pin of the grenade in Louis' s hand.

The entire crowd gasped in fear at this very moment. Those who were initially watching the show with glee stumbled their way out in an instant, scrambling to leave.

Some ducked for cover, while others immediately ran outside.

A few even leaked their pants from fear. The terrible stench could be smelled from a mile away.

Even Kaitlyn, who seemed calm and collected, screamed in terror before ducking behind the couch. Her entire body trembled uncontrollably, presenting a wretched sight.

“Didn't you want to play, Young Master Castro?”

“I’ll play with you!”

Harvey ignored the dark-skinned bodyguards pointing their firearms toward him, his tone extremely calm. No emotion could be felt from him, as if he was like the untouched surface of a still lake.

“You have two choices.”

“Number one: let go of your baby. We’ll all die together!”

“Don’t worry. When that happens, you, me, and Kaitlyn will die along with everyone here! We’ll all have company!”

Chapter 2638

“Number two: if you don’t want to die, kneel and give yourself ten slaps in the face. Apologize as you should, and only then I’ll let you off the hook.”

“Choose how you want to play. I’ll stick with you till the end. How’s that sound?”

Harvey’s tone was very casual, as if he had Louis by the neck.

Louis’s eyes frantically twitched before he released his murderous intent.

“Who the hell are you?!”

He wanted to send Harvey flying with a kick, but he realized that Harvey had his hand clasped like a handcuff.

If Harvey used a little more force, the grenade in his hand would fall to the ground. If that were to happen, everyone would be dragged down and die together.

Thus, Louis didn't dare do anything rash.

“It doesn't matter who I am. What's important here is your choice.”

Harvey exerted slightly more force as he went on speaking nonchalantly.

“If you really can't choose, I'll do it for you.”

A loud crack could be heard from Louis's hand after Harvey exerted more strength into his grip. The pain was so terrible, Louis almost couldn't feel his hand anymore. His grip weakened and the grenade in his hand was close to falling.

“You're mad! You're insane!”

The arrogant Louis wanted to take a step back, but he couldn't even do that because of his captured hand.

His expression constantly changed for the worse.

Kaitlyn shivered behind the couch after poking her head out to take a small peek. Her high and mighty face vanished, replaced with utter fear.

She didn't even dare look and ascertain who the other man was.

Endless fear had completely occupied her heart. If Louis let go of his hand, the grenade would slip out and explode.

The people around him would either die, or end up horribly mutilated.

“Come on! Let's die together!”

Harvey put more force into his grip, but Louis kept stopping himself from letting go of the grenade. Cold sweat dripped down his head.

“What's wrong? Are you scared?”

“Where’s your earlier dominance?”

“You’re not scared of death, are you?”

“Weren’t you making a lot of threats with this?”

Harvey kept tapping on Louis’s face to further aggravate the latter.

“I thought you were supposed to be something else. Some mercenary in the Dark Island you are! Living life on the edge, unafraid of death!”

“Make it blow up already, then!”

“I don’t know if the others will die, but we sure as hell will!”

“Come on! Let’s play!”

“Who the hell are you?!”

Louis gritted his teeth, frustrated.

“Why does that matter?”

Harvey continued tapping Louis in the face, aloof and indifferent.

“Keep going! Show off some more!”

“If you can't let go, that means you're just as useless.”

“You're just trash!”

Louis gritted his teeth, a wretched look on his face.

“You dare humiliate me, you bastard?!”

Slap!

Harvey swung his back hand across Louis's face, slapping the man silly.

“So what if I humiliate you?!”

“Come on, then. Let go! Die with me!”

“Do you dare, you trash?!”

Louis took the slap in the face without even saying a word. He knew that the man in front of him was way crazier.

He dared to threaten people with his grenades, but Harvey was ready to die with him.

The crowd was dead silent. Everyone watched in frightened silence, not daring to move a single inch.

They were terrified that Harvey would actually take the grenade and throw it to the ground the moment he felt that he was provoked. If that happened, everyone would have to die together.

Edwin and his comrades, however, felt refreshed by the turn of events.

They wouldn't dare do anything rash when Louis suppressed them by force.

But after Harvey showed up, Louis's facade was literally slapped out of him.

They decisively waved their hands before completely surrounding all of Louis's bodyguards.

A war could break out at any second, after all. People could die in an instant!

Chapter 2639

Louis's expression changed constantly, his arrogance long gone.

This was utterly humiliating for him.

He had roamed the Dark Island and was well-known for being fearless.

Yet, at this moment, he was completely suppressed by another person.

The man turned out to be a lot more ruthless than him. The grenade would explode at any second, and people were really going to die.

Louis thought that he didn't fear death, and that he could scare everyone off with this fact.

But today, the man that showed up out of nowhere made him realize the fear in his heart.

His arrogant and domineering attitude was built upon his lack of fear toward death.

But after having no control over the entire situation, after realizing that there was a chance he would perish in someone else's hand...

Just like everyone else, he would instantly give up without breaking a sweat!

This realization twisted Louis's face into a horrible expression of fear.

“You've got guts, kid! Are you one of Mendoza's men?! State your name if you dare!”

“I'll burn down your entire family tomorrow!”

Louis flashed the man a grim look, trying to sound sinister and fearsome. In truth he had no courage to actually die with Harvey, but he still attempted to sound intimidating so as to scare Harvey away.

Slap!

Harvey swung his back hand across Louis's face, looking cold and aloof the entire time.

“Stop nagging already.”

“We either die together, or you apologize right now.”

Harvey knew exactly how to deal with people like this.

He had been roaming the battlefields for such a long time. Why would he even be scared of a silly brat playing mercenary?

“Aaaaah!”

The group of beautiful women who were so snide and vain before screamed in fear, all color in their faces lost.

They were terrified of Louis letting go of the grenade. Their bright future ahead of them would be completely ruined if that were to happen.

Kaitlyn's face darkened in horror, and she couldn't look any worse. She never thought that someone would be capable of suppressing her.

She was the one who called Louis here, yet, everything still ended up this way.

She put her head down and tried to slip away quietly, but realized that the Dragon Palace's branch had completely blocked off every single exit. They were clearly ready for everyone to die together.

Pure terror struck her at this very moment.

She was still young. There was still plenty of glory and riches waiting for her to enjoy. She didn't want to die so early!

Louis touched his swollen face, chuckling furiously.

“You think you have the final say here?! You wish!”

“Let me tell you right now. I’m not interested in your choices at all!”

“I’ll pick the third one: I don’t die, but you do!”

He narrowed his eyes as he glared at Edwin.

“Not bad at all. You actually have someone like this by your side! No wonder the Mendoza family’s status has been steadily rising during the past few years.”

“But you better cherish this man well, or I’m going to kill him!”

Even though it was Louis’s first time meeting Harvey, he was already prepared to end his life there and then.

With what Louis could do, he would obviously get revenge, especially when someone disrespected him this much for the first time in the many years he spent in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

Edwin simply looked at him coldly, not uttering a single word. Before Harvey, he knew he had no right to speak.

If Harvey was truly prepared to die, then Edwin would follow Harvey to the bitter end.

Harvey kept on nonchalantly tapping Louis's face and said calmly, "Stop spouting nonsense, Young Master Castro. Your third choice won't work here."

"Kneel or die. Pick now!"

"The clock's ticking."

"Hell's waiting for us, after all!"

Chapter 2640

Louis's eyes twitched frantically. He was a very persistent man, but he still felt powerless when facing Harvey.

“Are you really not scared of dying?!” he exclaimed, his tone grim.

“Of course I am. Who isn't?”

“But I'm just some nobody. What about you?” Harvey said calmly.

“You're one of Four Masters of Hong Kong, the invincible fighter who roams the Dark Island. You have a bright future ahead of you!”

“If we die together, I'd have nothing to lose.”

“When I die, everyone will forget about me.”

“But they'll remember you for being a clown who died for the sake of vain pride!”

The two were talking casually, but Helena and the others behind them had their eyes twitching frantically.

One madman was already scary enough.

But two of them were simply terrifying!

They were on the verge of leaking their pants at this very moment.

Louis sighed and tried to relent.

“I have to admit, Kid. You’re bold! You’re strong! I admire you!”

“I’ll admit defeat for this!”

“I apologize!”

“I was wrong! I’m sorry, everyone!”

“That’s not how you’re supposed to apologize, Young Master Castro,” Harvey interrupted him calmly.

“Kneel, apologize, and let Irene go.”

“Don’t even try to skip one of the conditions.”

“If you do, I’ll drag both of us to the grave!”

Louis’s eyes twitched at the threat.

“You bastard! You better know what’s best for yourself!” he screamed.

“I gave you respect and apologized to Edwin because of your character!”

“This has nothing to do with Irene!”

“I’ve no right to get involved with her grudges against Kaitlyn!”

“Besides, do you really think I’m scared of you?!”

“I’ll give the order to fire right now! Let’s see who'll die first!"

Louis's bodyguards took a step forward and took off the safety of their firearms before pointing them right toward Harvey's head.

Yoana waved her hand, and the members of Dragon Palace's branch did the same with their firearms. All weapons were pulled out at this moment. A war could break out at any time.

Harvey smiled as he looked at Louis, whose face was grim.

"If you want to die so badly, it's really easy. Why waste any bullets?"

"Why don't you let go? Or do you want me to do it instead?"

Harvey took out another grenade from Louis's chest and pulled the safety pin.

A look of abject horror flashed on Louis's face.

He could control his own hand, but there was no way he could keep the unhinged man in check!

“Let her go!”

Harvey remained aloof.

“I’ll give you three seconds.”

“Three. Two. One!”

The sight was reminiscent of when Louis kept forcing Edwin’s hand.

Louis glared at Harvey with a scornful look.

Harvey smiled, and let go of his hand.

“Aaaaaaah!”

Screams of terror could be heard all around them. Helena and the others quickly ducked to the ground, fear filling them entirely.

Kaitlyn’s mind went blank at that instant.

Cold sweat dripped down Louis's back.

At this very moment, he lost control of his body and pissed his pants.

The foul stench could be smelled throughout the entire place.
