

Chapter 2677

Snap!

Along with the snap of Kim Moreno's fingers, a dozen bodyguards from the Moreno family came forward in an instant.

Those people were not from the Dark Island. They were all people of Nanyang. All of them were carrying a weapon and also a long knife in hand while coldly glaring at Harvey York.

They completely surrounded Harvey in all directions without the intention to take any action just yet. They were only taking small steps circling him.

Harvey frowned. He could not figure out what Kim was trying to do.

Kim coldly chuckled.

“This guy’s pretty good at fighting! Keep an eye on him!

“If he moves, kill Katy Cobb!

“These two bastards must have an affair!”

Harvey slightly changed his expressions after hearing those words.

If Kim were to kill Katy, everything Harvey had done would have been for nothing.

Right when he was about to save Katy, he saw Kim completely ignoring him as she strutted toward Dean Cobb.

Katy’s expression changed slightly.

“What are you planning to do, Kim?!”

“What do you think?”

Kim coldly chuckled.

“I’m releasing my teacher from his suffering, of course!

“You two have been torturing him to this sorry state, making a God of War like him end up this way! As a student, I will not tolerate this any longer!

“I’ll send him his way myself! He can’t suffer like this anymore!”

Kim was showing a righteous look when she spoke, as if she was in the right all along.

Harvey’s face darkened after hearing those words.

“I completely removed the Ice Poison from Elder Cobb’s body,” he coldly exclaimed.

“He’ll be back at his peak and become a God of War once again.

“With his strength, it’ll be easy for him to last at least another ten years!

“That’s why you should stop messing around!”

“Messing around, you say?!”

Kim coldly chuckled before she glanced at Harvey.

“Even the top ten doctors of Hong Kong and the saint’s reputed hands had no way to deal with the poison! How did you manage to remove the poison then? With your speech?!”

“If showing off can solve all the world’s problems, then I’m the king of the world!”

Kim was obviously mocking Harvey at that time. She took off the safety of her firearm as she stepped forward. She took out her handkerchief to wipe her gun when murderous intent was showing on her face.

Katy’s face completely lost all color.

“What do you think you’re doing?!”

“That’s your teacher!”

Katy wanted to stop Kim, but two bodyguards of the Moreno family blocked her off before being slapped in the face by both of them.

Katy furiously screamed, ignoring the palm print on her face.

“What the f*ck are you doing, Kim?! You can’t hurt my grandfather!!!”

Harvey was shocked by Kim’s viciousness. He slightly squinted, ready to save Dean at any moment.

“How could I hurt Nanyang’s God of War, the country’s pride?”

“He’s our teacher!”

“But I can’t tolerate seeing him suffering this much pain!

“That’s why I’d rather take the blame and send him his way!

“This is my respect toward him!”

Kim pulled the cocking handle of her firearm and pointed it toward Dean, who was still inside the pot.

“You can’t do this! My grandfather’s fine now! He’s back to normal!!!” yelled Katy with all her might.

Chapter 2678

“If I say something’s wrong, then there’s something wrong with him!

“If I say he’s disabled, then that’s the only truth!

“I own this place now! I call the shots here!”

Kim Moreno daringly walked forward. When she saw the elderly man in the pot with a rosy look on his face, her face slightly changed.

She did not expect that the poison in Dean Cobb’s body seemed like it was removed entirely.

Did the conman actually have some skill?

Without a second thought, Kim’s gaze was filled with murderous intent.

She could accept Dean being disabled. That way, it would fit her interests well.

But she could never allow him to recover. If that were to happen, it would mean death for her!

Dean would reclaim total control over the entirety of Nanyang once again.

The Moreno family would never accept that.

“Stop!”

After seeing Kim about to pull the trigger, Harvey York instantly slapped a bodyguard from the Moreno family away and rushed forward.

Kim’s gaze was filled with disdain as she was pulling the trigger.

Clack!

The sound of the trigger could be heard throughout the room.

Almost at the same time, Dean suddenly opened his eyes before shifting his head to the side.

Bang!

The bullet grazed right past Dean's hair.

“What are you trying to do, Kim?”

Dean still seemed weak, but an unspeakable dignified aura could be felt emanating from all over his body.

Kim's hand trembled after pulling the trigger before her face completely lost all color. She could not help but drop her firearm to the ground after that...

She stumbled backward with a horrified expression.

“Teacher...”

“As expected from my student...” said Dean calmly.

“My dear student...”

“Why did you pull the trigger on me?”

“Are you trying to kill me?”

“No... That’s not it... You’re mistaken, Teacher ...”

Kim kept taking a few more steps back. She acted like a humble servant in front of Dean, who was now back to normal.

In front of Dean’s calm gaze, she instinctively slammed her knees on the ground.

At the same time, all of the Moreno family’s bodyguards, along with Daisy, kneeled.

Their orifices started to bleed while their bodies trembled frantically.

They were going against the pressure of an upperclassman, after all.

A simple aura was able to suppress Kim along with everyone else.

As expected from the Nanyang God of War.

After seeing the sight, Harvey stopped moving with a calm look on his face.

No matter what, Dean was still a God of War.

As his student, Kim was ready to put a bullet inside his head. Naturally, things were looking bleak for someone like her.

After all, in Dean's eyes, a king's return would always need sacrifices.

If not, no one would remember what the Nanyang God of War represented.

After the thoughts came across Harvey's mind, Harvey completely ignored the Moreno family and walked forward with a smile on his face.

“Congratulations, Elder Cobb! You're back in your prime, I see!”

“You truly are a young hero, Sir York!

“All doctors and priests couldn’t do anything to help, but you alone managed to heal me in just three days! I’m truly impressed!”

Dean hopped out of the pot and changed into the clothes prepared for him without even batting an eye at the people who were kneeling.

Harvey smiled.

“You’re too kind, Elder Cobb. I’m also happy to see you regain your strength.

“But even though the poison’s been removed, I suggest you have some rest and get a few doctors that you trust to treat your body further.

“I won’t be of much help after this.”

Chapter 2679

“Hahaha! As long as the poison’s removed, everything else should be easy enough to deal with.

“The top ten doctors of Hong Kong are my good friends! You don’t have to worry about such a trivial thing.”

Dean Cobb burst out laughing. After being paralyzed in his bed for almost ten years, how could he hold back his joy when he was back in his prime?

“Grandfather, Sir York almost got shot by Kim Moreno while trying to save you!”

Katy Cobb struggled off the ground and lifted Dean with a warm smile on her face while making complaints.

Kim’s face completely lost all color after hearing those words. Despair could be seen on her face. She had something to say but would not even dare to utter a single word at this moment.

She might have shown off in front of Dean, who was on death's door...

But after the Nanyang God of War was at his peak once again, there was no way she would do such a thing unless she was an actual idiot.

“This great favor cannot be thanked with just words, Brother.”

Dean showed his admiration toward Harvey York.

“When I was at my peak, I made tons of friends worldwide. After falling out of power, I knew just how frail human relationships are...”

“But, because of your help, I'll call you my brother no matter what happens in the future.”

He then waved his hand as he was talking.

“Go. Bring that to me.”

Harvey smiled.

“No need to be this generous, Elder Cobb. I have personal reasons to help you anyway. You don't have to give me anything. Really.”

Dean chuckled.

“Since you're being so honest, I won't be able to forgive myself if I didn't give you anything.”

Soon after, Katy brought out an antique box from the back hall with a joyful look on her face and then put it in front of Dean.

Katy then respectfully bowed in front of Harvey.

“You saved my grandfather, Sir York! You saved me along with the entire family!

“From now on, I’m yours to command!

“I’ll even go to the depths of Hell if you ask me to!

“If anyone tries to hurt you, they’ll have to go through my dead body!”

Harvey showed a warm smile.

“You’re too kind, Head Cobb!

“I only got here at the right time.

“Besides, we’ll have plenty of chances to work together in the future!

“We’ll make money if there’s an opportunity and help each other out when we’re in trouble.

Harvey was being honest. Besides Katy’s kind heart, Harvey helped her because he understood the importance of the Nanyang Gang's influence in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

“No matter what, I'll remember what you did to us, Sir York.”

Harvey felt extremely awkward before averting his gaze elsewhere.

“My dear granddaughter's right, Brother York. No matter what your intentions are, you're still our savior!”

Dean smiled.

“You saved me and even got me back to my peak! Surely I have to pay you back somehow!”

“Come! This is yours from now on!”

He took out a badge made out of quartz from the antique box and set it in front of Harvey.

The name “Cobb” was lightly engraved on the badge. It was indeed an elegant object.

“This is the Cobb Badge, Brother York. When I was titled the God of War back then, countries of the southeast seas joined forces to make this for me!

“This represents my identity as a God of War and my status in the southeast seas.

“Back then, this badge would have the same authority as I have!

“Even the king of Thailand and India would have to pay their respect!

“This thing no longer had an effect for the past ten years...

“But from now on, I believe it will regain its former glory as a sacred treasure!”

Chapter 2680

“I know you might not be interested in it, Brother York.

“After all, with your skills and broad mind, you wouldn't even need such a thing.

“But this is just my small token of gratitude. You have to take it, or else I won't be able to sleep soundly!”

Dean Cobb was looking serious as he shoved the badge into Harvey York's hands.

Kim Cobb and the others were utterly shocked after hearing those words.

Nobody thought some conman would be valued this high to the point where he was given the Cobb Badge.

With the badge, nobody would dare to challenge him within the entire southeast seas in the future.

Harvey froze slightly. He did not expect that Dean would be this generous.

He shook his head.

“This is too much, Elder Cobb. I can’t have this.”

Harvey knew full well the meaning of this item.

Dean was the Nanyang God of War. He was a legendary being even throughout the entire southeast waters.

If he returned to his country, all the southeasters would have to pay their respects to Nanyang.

If that were to happen, the power of the Cobb Badge would be unimaginable!

Harvey felt he did not need to take the badge away since he thought he had no use for it.

It would be a lot better if Katy were to hold it.

Katy slightly froze after hearing Harvey's words. She was confused.

Not just anyone, even Vince York would stop at nothing just to obtain the badge itself.

But Harvey was not interested in the priceless and powerful Cobb Badge at all.

This man truly was filled with mystery and charm.

Harvey respectfully handed back the badge with a warm smile.

“You don't have to give me this. If you really want to thank me, just buy me a drink or two sometime.”

“Drinking is one thing, and presenting you a gift is another thing entirely.”

Dean was getting angry.

“I’m an old man now! If you don’t accept my gift and ruin my mood, you have to bear the consequences!

“But if you really don’t want this, you can have my dear granddaughter.

“If you become my grandson-in-law, you won’t have to accept the gift. How’s that sound?

“If you’re married into my family, my riches, my authority, and everything else will be her dowry.

“Mmm! Mmm! This is good! Katy’s already of age to get married anyway...

“Since ancient times, heroes have always been paired with beauties. Not bad... Not bad at all...”

Katy’s face was flushed bright red after hearing Dean’s words.

“Can you stop playing cupid already, Grandfather?! I’m the head of the Nanyang Gang here! I can’t just marry whoever you want!”

Katy’s wonderful gaze was focused on Harvey, even with her bright red face. Naturally, she was completely content with that arrangement.

Dean let out a scoff.

“Since ancient times, the parents are the ones who make the call along with the matchmaker!

“I’ll handle everything for you this time!

“Harvey is a good man! I’ll only be relieved if you’ll marry him!

“If he’s willing to be the family’s live-in son-in-law, I’ll make him the head of the Cobb family from now on!”

Harvey’s eyes frantically twitched before he snatched the Cobb Badge over.

“Elder Cobb, I think I really need this badge after all! I can do whatever I want in the southeast waters with this!

“Thanks a lot!

“Oh my! I still need to deal with something big tomorrow! I have to go now! You two have a nice chat...”

Harvey ran off in an instant. The problems with women kept getting bigger and bigger. To stop himself from getting a huge headache, he immediately steered away from the situation.
