

Chapter 2681

On the next day, two o'clock in the afternoon, Harvey York showed up at the Longmen Budokan.

The entire place was dead silent, probably because everyone knew of Mitchell Bauer's arrival that day. Even the cleaning lady did not show up this time.

Harvey casually sat down inside a gazebo at the back of the mountain with tea in hand. A serene expression was showing on his face...

As if he was only dealing with a bunch of clowns later and not a massive storm.

Other than him, Edwin Mendoza and Carrie Kennedy were the only two other people there.

Carrie had received necessary treatment the night before to ensure she would survive. She was only able to move around in a wheelchair then.

But even so, she was filled with unbridled hate when glaring at Harvey.

“It’s useless, Harvey! When the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen comes, your fate will be sealed!

“Other than him, even Miyata Shinosuke, the Sword Saint of the Shinkage Way, will be here soon!

“That’s a true God of War from the Island Nations we’re talking about! You’ll still die in his hands no matter how strong you are!

“You’re the one who kept causing trouble for the Shinkage Way anyway!

“The fate of an ignorant and arrogant fool like you has already been sealed!

“Hahaha!”

Carrie burst out laughing like a madman.

After thinking of Ken Bauer, who Harvey killed off last night, she could already see her demise.

She would have to be buried six feet under, no matter whether Harvey died or not that day.

That was why she did not care about her life then. She only wanted Harvey to be ripped to shreds and burned to cinders.

Harvey took a sip of his tea, then said, “Cling onto your last bit of hope, Carrie. We’ll see who dies first.”

“A woman from Country H worships a so-called Sword Saint from a small country... What’s the point of you people living for so damn long?”

Edwin walked forward and slapped the teeth out of Carrie’s mouth.

He did not want her to continue barking and disturbing Harvey's hard-earned peace and quiet.

After Harvey was done with his pot of tea, a convoy was seen parking in front of the Budokan.

After the car doors opened, the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen, Mitchell himself, stepped out along with the elites of the organization.

A group of people swarmed the back of the mountain soon after.

While Harvey was still casually enjoying his tea, Mitchell was filled with rage after seeing him. Not only did he disrespect the Law Enforcement of Longmen back in Mordu, but even his own son, who came to call the shots, was perished by him.

Mitchell wanted to gun Harvey down so badly.

But after thinking of his other plans, he held his feelings back.

Obviously, a man with his position would have some form of competence.

A heart to tolerate what others could not was enough to prove his indifferent and ruthless personality!

“Harvey York! Branch Leader York! You’re good! You’re really good!”

After seeing Harvey continue sipping his tea, Mitchell almost broke a tooth, gritting.

“Of course I am.”

Harvey chuckled.

“But, you might not be the same, Head Bauer.

“Conspiring with outside forces, joining forces with the Shinkage Way to hurt the honest people of Country H... Any one of those crimes will be enough for you to die a hundred times over!

“If I were to kill you off right here, no one in Longmen will even make a single complaint.”

Chapter 2682

“How would you like to die, Mitchell Bauer?”

Harvey’s words were calm and collected...

But the atmosphere of the entire place felt colder than before, as if a cold spell had arrived.

“You bastard! How dare you talk to Head Bauer like that?!”

“You dare to show off in front of him?! You’re not scared of your tongue being cut off?!”

“Everyone knows that Head Bauer is a patriot and embodies honesty throughout the Longmen!”

“And yet you dare slander his name like that?! I’ll make you pay for that!”

A group of elites from the Law Enforcement of Longmen pointed at Harvey while furiously screaming at him.

Since the organization's establishment, they were the only ones who blamed others.

They did not expect that Harvey would slander Mitchell's name on the spot at that instant.

This was absolutely intolerable!

“You're good, Harvey!

“You have some skill, but your sharp tongue is something else too!”

Mitchell's veins were popping out of his head out of anger, but he still managed to keep his cool.

“That said, your tongue won't be able to help you today!

“You murdered our distinguished guests from the Shinkage Way! The Sword Saint, Miyata Shinosuke himself, has already arrived in Hong Kong!

“He’ll rip you to shreds himself! You’ll pay for your arrogance!”

“He saved me a lot of time for coming here to die. If not, I’ll be wasting a lot of time and money going to the Island Nations just for him,” said Harvey calmly.

“From this perspective, I guess a conspiring man like you did do something good for once.”

“You...”

Mitchell was boiling with anger after hearing Harvey’s extremely conceited tone.

He gritted his teeth in anger.

“Keep showing off then, Harvey!”

“Soon, you’ll know what the Island Nation God of War from the Shinkage Way represents!”

“Today, you’re fated to die by Mr. Shinosuke’s blade!

“And if you don’t, I’ll represent the Law Enforcement of Longmen myself and deal with you permanently!”

Mitchell’s bloodshot eyes were showing. He saw his own flesh and blood shot to death by the bastard standing before him, even if it was through a screen.

His heart was filled with hatred. He could only hold his feelings back then because he was not confident that he would prevail.

But still, he thought that there was a high chance that Harvey would be cut down by Miyata.

If Harvey were really that powerful to the point where he could suppress Miyata, his strength would be completely spent after the fight.

In his weakest state, Mitchell would surely be able to kill him off.

Mitchell believed he had everything planned out and won even before the fight started.

“I’m afraid you don’t have the right to kill me.”

Harvey calmly poured himself a cup of tea without even batting Mitchell an eye.

“But since we’re all from the Longmen, I can send you your way to reunite with your son.

“If that’s the case, both of you can spend all the time together.”

“Ahahaha!”

Mitchell furiously chuckled while pointing at Harvey.

“You’re still acting this arrogant even on the verge of death, Harvey?! I admire your boldness!

“But it’s useless! The Sword Saint will be here soon! I have already sent someone to pick him up at the airport!

“Once he’s here, you’ll die a horrible death!”

Snap!

Mitchell then snapped his fingers as he spoke.

Chapter 2683

A few disciples of the Law Enforcement of Longmen brought a golden-silk phoebe wood coffin from the car's rear before throwing it to the ground.

“You see this, Harvey York? I spent a lot of money to make you this!”

Mitchell Bauer was showing a sinister look on his face.

“When you die, I'll be sure to put you here!

“I'll head to South Light and Mordu after that...

“And I'll kill off your wife's entire damn family!

“I'll dig up your ancestors and throw them into the same coffin!

“I'll even bury your dog alive inside this thing if I have to!

“Don’t you worry! I’ll find a good spot to bury all of you! I’ll make sure you all get a good chance to be reborn!”

“Ahahahaha!”

“You bastard! How dare you kill off my son?!”

“I’ll destroy your entire family!”

“I’ll burn all of you to cinders!”

Mitchell completely lost his cool. He was speaking in a crazed and gloomy tone at this moment.

The disciples around were all shivering in fear. It was their first time seeing the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen this angry.

Harvey calmly poured himself some tea.

“Just because you said that, you’re not leaving this place alive.

“That coffin’s not too shabby. I’ll put a traitor like you in there along with the Sword Saint.

“I’m sure you’ll appreciate the hospitality.”

Harvey casually took a sip of his tea after he was done talking.

“Bastard!”

“How dare you disrespect Head Bauer like that, Harvey?!”

“Who gave you the courage?!”

Soon after, a few Mercedes G-Wagons drifted and parked in front of the Budokan.

A group of young people with traditional clothing kicked the car doors down. All of them were filled with dignified auras.

Those people were different compared to other wealthy heirs. No bodyguards were there to accompany them. Their waists were full of weapons and firearms covered in bling. They all showed imposing looks on their faces, as if they had seen everything the world had to offer.

The front-most woman had a pretty face with an enchanting figure. At that moment, she was wearing a gown, showing off her slender waist.

The woman was none other than the one from South Light's sacred martial art training ground, Scarlett from the Five Virtues Temple.

This time, she came here representing the Five Virtues Temple.

While she walked on the stone steps, she furiously pointed at Harvey and screamed, “Harvey York! I can't do anything about you scamming people at the Hamilton Residence!

“While you were causing such big trouble at our auction hall, the Maiden was so generous that she even let you off the hook!

“But you dared to disrespect the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen?!”

“Where’s your sense of seniority?! How dare you insult your seniors like that?! This is unforgivable!

“I order you to kneel and apologize to Head Bauer right now! This instant!

“If not, I’ll punish you in the name of the Five Virtues Temple!”

Scarlett was acting all high and mighty.

She felt like the king of the world, representing the Five Virtues Temple.

She actually believed that her orders were second to none.

Even though she knew that Harvey was the prince of South Light and Mordu’s Longmen branch leader...

She was convinced that those identities meant nothing before her.

If it were not for the Five Virtues Temple's restrictions forcing her down...

She was confident that she could slap Harvey to death in an instant.

Chapter 2684

Harvey York calmly glanced at Scarlett.

It was pretty obvious that she was probably backed up by Vince York this time around.

The people behind her must have been the people representing different sacred martial art training grounds.

Not only were they trying to flaunt their strength by being here, but they were also pretending to be referees of some sort.

Harvey did not even bother paying his respect toward Scarlett at this moment.

“Mitchell Bauer’s already dumb enough, but you must be brain-dead!” said Harvey calmly.

“He brought a coffin here, saying he won’t even let my dog go.

“And yet you demand an apology from me?”

“Why don’t you tell me to grovel in front of him instead?”

“Those are two completely different things!”

“You recklessly slaughtered the distinguished guests from the Island Nations, and now the Sword Saint himself is coming to claim justice!”

“Head Bauer even got you a good coffin for you to lie in for the sake of you being a fellow citizen of Country H!”

“He’s showing you kindness!”

“Do you not have any sense of gratitude?!”

“The country’s morals are getting worse and worse because of scumbags like you!”

Scarlett was showing a bitter look on her face.

“You didn’t think this would happen after slaughtering Naoto Takei’s entire family?!”

“Why don’t you look at yourself in the mirror?!”

“You’re the prince of South Light?! Mordu’s Longmen branch leader?!”

“Stop joking around!”

“How dare you challenge our important guests with your mere strength?! You’re dead when the Sword Saint gets here!”

“Are you sure Miyata Shinosuke can even handle me?” Harvey calmly asked.

“What?!”

Scarlett was filled with disbelief.

“What do you mean by that, Harvey?!”

“Do you think you can defeat the Sword Saint himself?!

“You must be joking!

“Let me tell you something. If you can beat him with a single move, I’ll kneel and call you Daddy!

“Confidence is a good thing, young man, but you’ll die a horrible death if you can’t clearly see the truth! Conceit will be your downfall!”

Scarlett showed utter disdain while venting all of her anger after being humiliated by Harvey previously.

“I’ll give you one last chance! If you don’t kneel and apologize right now, don’t blame me for what happens next!”

Scarlett was confident. She was from the Five Virtues Temple, after all.

She was here to watch the fight representing the organization.

Not just Harvey, but even the big characters from Hong Kong or Las Vegas would need to treat her with respect.

But Harvey was just being completely ignorant then!

He was disrespecting her!

He did not even care about the Five Virtues Temple!

This was unforgivable for her!

The female companions from the other sacred martial art training grounds were rolling their eyes at Harvey.

Those people had trained since they were little, so they naturally had some skill.

They believed that they had keen eyes when it came to people.

Judging from Harvey's pretty face, he was definitely just some kept man! How dare he challenge someone like the head of the Law Enforcement of Longmen?!

He even killed the distinguished guests from the Island Nations?!

He must have thought of himself as some hotshot!

Look where it got him!

The Island Nation God of War, the Sword Saint of the Shinkage Way himself, was here to take revenge!

Everyone was excited to see how Harvey would die then.

Mitchell showed a playful expression after seeing Scarlett standing on his side.

“Harvey, I only gave you the coffin because we’ re both from Longmen! At least kneel and thank me for it!”
