

Chapter 269

Although Terry rejected Oscar's request, he did give Oscar some new projects.

However, compared to the projects in the northland, these projects were really not enough.

In the recent company executive meeting, the number of people supporting Oscar had obviously decreased, and even the executive who had a relationship with Louis lost his confidence in Oscar.

This made Oscar even more annoyed. He called Terry again.

He had to reach Jessica through Terry.

"If you don't help me, I will go to the Hall Group myself. It's not like I don't know what she looks like," Oscar said bitterly.

"If you go to her, I will immediately suspend all the cooperation with you."

Jessica was Terry's bottom line. Terry wouldn't make any compromise.

After hanging up the phone, Oscar angrily pushed everything on the table to the ground, and then slammed the coffee cup. The sound of the cup shattering came from his office.

Oscar sat in his chair with a gloomy face.

Terry knew Oscar very well. He had recently rejected Oscar quite a few times, but Oscar would not easily give up.

Thus, Terry had to do something to appease Oscar so that he wouldn't go to Jessica directly.

Terry checked the company's recent report and took out a popular project a lot of companies were bidding for.

"Give this project to Oscar." Terry made an internal call and instructed his secretary.

As new projects were continuously achieved, the share price of the Thomas Group began to rise.

Jessica found that the technology development project on Oscar's side was actually a core business of the Davison Group.

She looked at the report Wendy submitted to her and frowned.

Their first cooperation could be said to be a coincidence. Or maybe Oscar took the initiative to seek cooperation.

But as for the following cooperation ... Jessica couldn't help but feel suspicious.

She put down the report, grabbed the car key, and left the company directly.

Soon, she appeared in Lucas' office.

"Look at this." Jessica didn't bit about the bush at all. She handed the document to Lucas directly.

Lucas didn't say anything. He took it over and began to read it carefully.

A moment later, Lucas raised his head and looked at Jessica's familiar yet unfamiliar face. Lucas paused and said, "What does this mean?"

"You can't tell?" Jessica raised her eyebrows and said to Lucas, "Oscar's projects are all related to the Davison Group. Is this a coincidence?"

"As I said before, Terry has always been against me, but you thought I was slandering him." Lucas sounded a little disappointed and then he continued, "Terry will support Oscar as long as Oscar goes to him. I'm not surprised."

"The strange thing is not that he helped Oscar. Look at the latest project. This is the core business of the Davison Group. Oscar has no experience at all. I don't believe that Terry would give such an important project to someone he is not familiar with just to go against you." Jessica frowned.

Lucas was just about to speak when he heard a knock on the door. Then Vincent's voice came from outside.

"Oscar, Mr. Thomas is currently at work. He is not available now."

"I was just going to talk to him about business. What?"

Oscar's voice was heard. Lucas and Jessica looked at each other. Lucas immediately stood up and pushed the door of the internal suite open.

Jessica nodded at him and entered the suite, closing the door behind her.

Right after Jessica entered, Oscar pushed the door open and entered. As soon as he saw Lucas walking over from the suite, a mocking smile appeared on his face.

"Didn't see this coming. You were resting?"

"Why wasn't I resting?" Lucas returned to his seat and glanced at Oscar coldly.

"If I were you, I wouldn't be in a hurry to rest. When I replace you and become the head of the Thomas Group, you will have a lot of time to rest." Oscar sat down slowly and said provocatively.

"Talk big when you make it." Lucas was not angry. His expression remained unchanged.

"You don't have to pretend to be calm. Don't tell me you don't know the weight of the latest project in my hand. This is an S-level project of the Davison Group." Oscar was a little angry when he saw Lucas' indifferent face.
