

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1991

Chapter 1991 The living room fell into silence.

Nicole couldn't bear it anymore, and glanced at her: "Mrs. Lindstrom, if you can pay attention to international affairs, you will know that it is not illegal to carry guns in South Africa, and your helicopter will fall into the sea if it runs out of fuel halfway. If you can't fall into the sea, you can be chased and killed. If you have the conditions, you can try it. We are powerless here, and we have done our best to achieve this step."

Nicole spread her hands, and Mrs. Lindstrom blushed white.

"There's a gun, so can't we call the police?"

Clayton lowered his eyebrows and didn't speak, just gently turned the teacup in his hand.

Floyd also sighed.

"Then you have to go to the United Nations to report to the police. Wouldn't our family help your son smuggle it out? It's better to be clear about which way you want to choose, don't play with people."

Floyd put the cup heavily on the table.

Mr. Lindstrom's face changed several times.

Mrs. Lindstrom also did not dare to say a word.

Mr. Lindstrom said, "That's not what Mrs. Lindstrom meant. She doesn't understand anything. I completely agree with Mr. Sloan's plan. As long as I can bring my son back, I have nothing to say!"

Clayton smiled and said: "Don't worry, President Lindstrom, during the process, there's nothing I can do if I lose contact. But after two or three months, I'll have someone notify you."

He said and stood up.

This move is equivalent to sending a guest.

Mr. Lindstrom couldn't continue to sit down, so he could only stand up embarrassedly and leave with Mrs. Lindstrom.

Floyd sat there with a confused expression, looking really angry and helpless.

"Originally, I helped them for the sake of being from Mediana. It's nothing to help everyone. But if you listen to that woman, are you complaining about Clayton's lack of care?"

Dissatisfaction with the Clayton plan.

But they have limited ability, so they open their mouths and let others do it.

Even Floyd heard it and was so angry!

Nicole smiled and shook her head.

"Forget it, they are also anxious to get angry, understandable."

Floyd stood up and said, "If I didn't understand, I would have seen the guest off."

After speaking, he looked at Clayton: "Don't worry about it, I know You tried your best."

Clayton smiled: "I can't understand, Dad."

Although he said so, in fact, he had no interest in saving people at all.

In order to leave a good impression on my father-in-law, everything is worth it!

Nicole took her arm and sighed: "Our baby has been wronged, and a kind person will definitely have a good reward!"

Clayton was stunned by the sudden distress. The coolness in his heart just now disappeared without a trace.

He smiled, lowered his head, and said extremely modestly, "It's okay, don't be wronged."

Floyd frowned at the two of them sticking together, and stood up in disgust: "Sitting or not, what a formality!"

Although he said that, he stood up by himself and went upstairs with his hands behind his back.

At an age, I can't eat dog food.

He is still out of sight and out of mind!

Seeing this, Nicole laughed so hard that he lay down on the sofa.

In the warehouse.

When Liliana saw the antiques carefully placed in the box, his eyes lit up instantly.

Ancient calligraphy and painting, antique vases, and all kinds of valuable ornaments are all worth the price.

He really didn't expect that Nicole, a woman, tinkered with something so valuable!

Liliana carefully opened one of the boxes and touched it inside.

Suddenly.

He touched something cold, his face changed, and he slowly drew out his hand.

Oh sh*t.

Nicole really didn't scare him, there was a detonating device inside.

One or two is easy to take, but with so many boxes, he don't know which one he missed, and they will all be broken into pieces by then.

Not worth the risk.

His subordinates followed up and took a look: "Boss, there are 16 boxes in total, do you think this is not a trap?"

Liliana stood coldly for a while: "Take such a valuable thing as a trap?"

"Maybe it's fake. That's right!"

Liliana said, "No, I've done this before, and it's obviously shipped from a private collection with a mark on it."

Liliana was about to speak carefully when the phone rang.

Picking it up and looking at it, he picked it up decisively: "Sister?"

It took a while.

He don't know what the other person said.

Liliana's face changed greatly, then he hung up the phone and looked at his subordinates: "put things in the safe, put them in our boat, and leave tomorrow night."

"Yes."

Liliana strode out of the warehouse with a calm face. He went directly to the Ferguson Corporation.

Eric was listening to the report.

Seeing Liliana hurried in, no one outside could stop him. "Eric, my sister is gone, did you do it?"

Eric frowned slightly, then waved his hand.

The people in the office are leaving one after another.

"What did you say?"

"Don't play stupid, did you do it? My sister suddenly disappeared!"

Liliana's face was ugly.

Eric lowered his eyes calmly, pursed his lips, and his face was cold and forbear:

"I don't know what's going on."

"Isn't it you or who?"

Liliana pointed at him rudely: "You are cold-blooded and cold-hearted. The person, she gave you a son and you still don't let her go. Have you forgotten that your sister and your mother are still in my hands? Do you want them to be the same as your father?"

His voice was a strong chill and threat.

A stern look flashed across Eric's eyes. He lifted his eyelids and said in a cold voice, "Is my mother and sister really in your hands?"

He clenched his fists secretly, not forgetting what Nicole said to him.

For no reason, he felt that Nicole was right.

Liliana's face twitched slightly, his eyes surging undercurrents, and his murderous intent suddenly appeared: "Of course, do you want me to show you some hints?"

It was just that moment of hesitation, which was captured by Eric.

He's hesitant and angry, indicating that people are not in his hands.

Eric's heart was relieved, as if a boulder had been removed, and his endurance increased a lot.

Nicole was right!

It's just that he couldn't let Liliana see through it.

Eric raised his eyes and said in a cold tone: "Liliana, don't forget, we are already on the same boat. You forced me to get on the boat, my sister and my mother are in your hands, I will send them to death Is it?"

He glared at him sharply.

Obviously do not believe.

Eric pursed his lips, "Well, I'll send someone to check it."

"No, I'll check it myself, it's best not to have anything to do with you, otherwise, wait and collect the corpses for them!"

Liliana dropped this sentence, Turned around and left.

He threatened Eric with his family. When Angie's accident happened, Eric was the first to be suspicious.

Cooperation is inherently fragile.

How could he be at ease?

But now the most important thing is Angie, and that batch of goods.

He can't wait, he's leaving tonight.

Eric looked at his back, squinted his eyes, and the bottom of his eyes flashed a bit fiercely.

When Nicole received the call, he was a little surprised.

"So fast?"

Luca: "Yes, it is said to be the ship tomorrow night, but I observed that they are loading the ship tonight and are expected to leave tonight, miss, our plan can start."

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1992

Chapter 1992 Nicole raised her eyes and looked at the sky. It was evening. The stars were twinkling, and the weather was fine.

She hooked her lips and said coldly: "Okay, the plan begins."

Nicole hung up the phone, squatted down in a good mood, and kissed Lil Chatty who talked about it.

"My dear baby, wait for Mommy at home. When Mommy comes back, you can play with Mommy everywhere!" She said that Lil Chatty didn't understand at all, but it didn't prevent her from making trouble everywhere.

She stepped directly on Nicole's feet and staggered in the past, and began to find another target...

Nicole: "..."

She sighed and went straight to go out with her clothes.

Clayton stopped her suddenly, his voice was slightly heavy:

Show your love with a Little Donation. Click Here

“Where are you going?”

Nicole paused for a while, and immediately put on a relaxed expression:

“Go out, I’ll be right back.”

Clayton looked at her with deep eyes: “It’s so late, let me accompany you.”

Nicole: “...”

Clayton: “Not willing?”

“Yes.” Nicole smiled reluctantly, not wanting to waste too much words.

She can’t wait to run over to see how bad luck is!

With a smile on his lips, Clayton took his clothes and went out:

“Let’s go baby, don’t worry, it’s our date.”

Nicole smiled silently.

Hehe...

Such a date, I’m afraid it can scare people to death!

After Nicole got in the car, Clayton got in the car.

Luca glanced at it and was stunned for a few seconds before starting the car.

The car went farther and farther, and Clayton had long felt that something was wrong.

When he was far away from the Calienter, he finally couldn’t help it and didn’t turn his head to look at her.

The ship has been transformed to avoid the tracking of the coast guard of the Mediana within the sea area of the Mediana, and use its own special equipment to locate and navigate.

These things are already used to, so he is not unfamiliar at all.

But when they were out of breath after carrying the boxes, they were about to set sail.

Suddenly, the lights on the shore lit up, and the street lights pulled the light and shadow for a long time.

That moment.

Countless special police officers came out from countless corners, armed with guns and weapons, and surrounded the ship.

Seeing this, Liliana's subordinates panicked for a moment.

"Boss..."

Liliana calculated inside, he and Snakehead couldn't get along in the first place, so why would he be black after delivery?

Hearing the people outside screaming, he was furious: "I told you not to shout because I'm afraid others won't know that we are going to smuggle?"

He went out while scolding.

Looking at the police on the shore, guns were aimed at themselves.

For a moment.

The face of Liliana changed instantly.

He realized immediately that he had been fooled.

And it's still a woman's trick.

He despised beautiful women the most. Beautiful women have no brains. He always felt that Nicole was the same.

But at this moment, when he had nowhere to go, all he wanted to do was cut that woman and Clayton into pieces!

This is clearly a game!

Antiques are real, so they dare to use them as bait!

Liliana scolded, turned his head and ran in, and the boat roared away.

What's the use of the police on shore?

Put a few empty guns at most.

Even if he breaks, he will never be caught!

But the boat was less than 200 meters away when he stopped.

Because of the boundless sea.

I don't know when, so many coast guard ships appeared, the dazzling white light flickered, and it was cold.

He has been surrounded by circles, and he has not even a chance for a gap.

His subordinates broke in with a pale face: "Boss..."

The siren from outside rang through the sea.

He never dreamed that he would be folded here!

Cold handcuffs wrapped around his hands, and the police escorted them back to shore.

Then the box they had worked so hard to move in was moved out again.

"There are sixteen boxes in total, and none of them are missing." The police went over to make a report.

Liliana's eyes stared at them coldly.

The international police can't do anything about him, what is this group?

The leading police officer walked over with a cold voice: "According to the police, the Stanton Corporation warehouse has lost 16 boxes of antiques that are going to be donated to the museum, and now you are officially arrested in the name of illegal theft and smuggling. We will determine the actual value of this batch of antiques. I'll convict you."

His chest heaved up and down.

actual value!

"It's f*cking worthless, what's the real value to talk about!"

He couldn't help but yelled: "It's clearly that woman who framed me, and she asked me to smuggle it. You go and investigate, and I'll be innocent!"

Well, he was really mad.

Wrongful and angry!

I feel like I've never been so foolish in my life!

Nicole, this d*mn woman!

The policeman gave him a calm look: "You will listen to her? Heh..."

With an expression like You are idiots.

Liliana was even more angry and could not wait to find a vent, the anger was stuck in his chest, and he almost suffocated himself!

"Otherwise, how could I get the key, it's her, that sly woman!"

He would even pull the woman on his back!

Policeman: "The Stanton Corporation has called the police three days ago. The warehouse key is lost. You stole it, right?"

Liliana: "D*mn!"

Just as he was about to say something, he watched a luxury car parked in a low-key manner. not far away.

Nicole lowered the car window and watched the scene with a small smile on the corner of her mouth.

Enjoy your plan.

It was just right, and she looked at Liliana's sullen eyes. She raised her eyebrows, nothing to be afraid of now.

Even the most vicious criminals have to be afraid of the police!

Clayton also saw this step and instantly understood all this.

He glanced at Nicole meaningfully. It can't say it's not shocking.

It was he who kept her behind him subconsciously all the time, so that she would have less trouble.

But he ignored that Nicole was not an ordinary eldest lady.

There is no eldest lady who can manage the group at a young age, and no eldest lady can be so perfect in arresting Liliana.

Even if he wasn't stingy, it would be easy for her to take revenge.

While he was still racking his brains to protect her, Nicole was already preparing to fight back.

And, quite beautiful!

Looking at the unwilling look of Liliana, you can see how much she hates her.

Nicole, how can you impress him like this?

If he hadn't insisted on following today, would he never have known about it?

Clayton didn't dare to think that her ability was far beyond his imagination.

Once again, there was a small wave in his heart.

Cheers for what she has done!

Nicole's side face is bright and bright, and it is reflected in the car in half-light and half-darkness, but his eyes are quietly admiring the tragic state of being caught.

She is calm and calm, cold and alert, this is the real her.

Clayton smiled softly, he almost forgot.

Wasn't it because of her fearlessness that she was attracted to her in the first place? Only later, he was completely fascinated by her tenderness.

The policeman walked to the side of the car and handed over the key in the transparent bag:
"Ms. Stanton, please take a look, is this the lost key from the warehouse?"

Nicole smiled and nodded sincerely and gratefully: "Yes.. Thank you, comrade police, for restoring such a huge loss for the country!"

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1993

Chapter 1993 “should be.” The police said, and left.

Liliana was unwilling to break free from the shackles and stumbled towards this side. As he ran, he scolded: “Stinky woman, you dare to play with me, you and Clayton are the same raccoon dog. D*mn, I will never let you go, you wait to die!”

Nicole smiled and looked at him with nothing to do. She said in a cold voice of fear: “D*mn it is you, no matter who you are, don’t even think about running away. Just like you, you still want to bully my family and friends. Did I warn you that this is my territory?”

The police didn’t hear those words, but Liliana could hear them clearly. He was so angry that he saw Clayton in the car. He was even more mad: “You wait for me, I will never let you go like this!”

Clayton glanced at him, his eyes extremely dark. From the beginning, he has remained silent.

Liliana was dragged away by the police, and Nicole directly asked Luca to drive away.

Nicole was very satisfied.

On the way back, Luca played a piece of music she liked very well.

Nicole squinted and listened for a while. Suddenly remembered something.

She almost forgot that there was someone sitting next to her!

Careless!

"I...I also heard that there was an arrest operation tonight to watch the fun, what a coincidence..."

She subconsciously made an excuse for herself.

Mr. Sloan pursed his lips and laughed lightly: "Yes, the coincidence is all related to the Stanton Corporation, how can my wife be so smart?"

He looked at her with a meaningful smile, his eyebrows were warm and there was no blame. and strange.

On the contrary, it was with some admiration and admiration.

Nicole paused.

"You see it all?"

"Is it difficult?"

She raised her eyebrows: "I've been thinking about this plan for a long time, and it's foolproof."

Clayton sighed, "I originally planned to make some noise abroad and let him leave by himself, but I didn't expect you to do it first."

Nicole was puzzled: "Why can he leave on his own?"

Clayton smiled, and his voice was light: "Perhaps, my brothers and sisters are gone?"

Nicole frowned, "How could it be, it's too risky!"

Those were the brothers and sisters of Liliana.

Without Caleb and Liliana, Angie is also the leader of the exclusive party.

Say no, it's not that easy.

“Although the trick I think is a bit of a loss, it depends on who is right. He has only harmed people in his life, and he should also taste the taste of prison.”

Nicole couldn't help but feel complacent. If she didn't, she would worry all day about family and friends being implicated.

In this way, once and for all, she will be able to sleep well!

Clayton couldn't help bending the corner of his lower lip when he saw how she couldn't help but be excited. “It's because I started too slow and put you under pressure.”

“It doesn't matter, I can solve it.” Nicole said with a relaxed smile.

Clayton didn't say anything until he reached Stanton mansion.

Floyd didn't expect the people who went out to come back so quickly, and was stunned for a moment. “Didn't you guys go on a date? Come back so soon?”

Nicole was stunned for a moment, hesitatingly trying to fool him.

Floyd was suspicious.

Clayton walked over and smiled, knowing that Nicole didn't want to worry Floyd, so she didn't say it.

“Going to the beach, the wind was a little strong, so I came back.”

Floyd believed Clayton's words and nodded: “Yes, the temperature has dropped recently, so we should go to a better place for our next date!”

Nicole: “...Oh.”

Nicole changed her shoes and was about to go upstairs: “Dad, did you talk about sleeping?”

“Sleep, go to bed early!”

Nicole went directly to Kai's room and knocked on the door.

She can't help but share this good news with Kai!

Kai came out with a blindfold and sighed: "Sister, I don't understand that they are all strong women, why are they different from you? If you can be lazy, you can be lazy, and if she can give, she will give. The leave you asked for yesterday has become today's overtime..."

Nicole ignored his complaints and raised her chin with a smile:

"Kai, I'm telling you good news! "

Kai chuckled lightly: " Okay, say it."

Nicole rolled her eyes at him.

It's so promising!

"I've put Liliana in jail, so you can go out with confidence! "

Kai was about to go in without a word. It was swift. His body froze and he turned around slowly, his pupils dilated: "What did you say? "

"You heard that right, is this good news?"

Kai was excited and questioned: "You can't lie to me!"

Clayton happened to come upstairs, and Kai ran out and grabbed his arm: "Brother-in-law, is Liliana really caught?"

Clayton paused and nodded with a smile: " It's all Nicole's idea, very clever!"

After hearing what Clayton said, Kai completely believed it! He suddenly ran over and hugged Nicole and turned around, and then threw himself into Clayton's arms.

"Great, this is my good sister and reconciliation. Brother-in-law, don't say anything, I'll change clothes and go out to pick up my wife! "

Nicole twitched the corners of his mouth, dare he not go out at night?

He rushed into the room suddenly, and quickly came out. He put a card in Nicole's hand: "Hey, just spend the pocket money that brother gave you as a reward!"

He waved his hand in a big way, and happily went in again.

Nicole looked at the card in his hand and smiled slowly. "Thank you brother..."

She smiled sweetly, what a surprise!

Clayton raised his eyebrows, and Nicole quickly took him back: "I'll go back to online shopping, or Kai will regret it when he wakes up..."

Clayton said, "Is this the love and killing of rich brothers and sisters? "

She didn't disappoint Kai's good intentions at all, especially spending other people's money online shopping, especially without pressure.

Soon.

"Rich baby" came to the live broadcast room again and was instantly swept away by everyone.

At the beginning, her feat of throwing hundreds of millions of dollars is still praised by people.

Now that she appeared again, countless people flooded into the live broadcast room instantly, and everyone was going crazy.

But Nicole glanced at it, then withdrew and paddled away.

She don't like this live broadcast room, change to the next one, then the next one...

Everyone follows her footsteps, just like following the little brothers of the gods!

She watched a few in a row and didn't like it very much.

Nicole backed out.

How to do?

She couldn't spend the money, and she felt a strong sense of loss in her heart.

Unhappy!

Clayton looked at her lying on the bed in low interest, his eyes darkened, and his hair was still wet after taking a shower. He picked up the hairdryer and sat down beside her, gently massaging her and blowing her hair slowly.

Nicole enjoyed lying on his lap, closed her eyes, and pursed her lips.

Clayton massaged her head for a while before putting down the hair dryer: "Don't you want to buy something? Why are you unhappy?"

Nicole muttered: "I don't know what to buy..."

Clayton: "... "

Can a woman have such troubles?

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1994

Chapter 1994 Clayton hugged her lying on the bed and kissed her on the forehead After they kissed, the two of them were about to go on fire in a chaotic manner...

Nicole suddenly came to his senses and pushed him away:

"I know what to buy!"

“What?” “Take me The donated antiques are all my dad’s!”

Clayton snorted and touched his chin: “Yes, this is very important.”

Later, Floyd will know!

Nicole happily regained her interest in online shopping. After a few hours on the trend, it was taken offline. Because she only appeared for a while and did not break her own record.

Everyone is disappointed with the “rich baby”.

Early the next morning.

Nicole saw many missed calls on the phone. She frowned, familiar with the number, and called back directly.

“Ms. Stanton, Liliana ran away during the delivery last night...”

Nicole was shocked and suddenly remembered that it was the call from Mr. Jenson.

“Run?”

“Yes, he jumped out of the car. We chased to the seaside, he disappeared after jumping into the sea, our people searched all night, but no one was found! It is very likely that this person has escaped our sight. He finally knows that you are the one who harmed him. You have to be very careful. “

Listening to Mr. Jenson’s cold warning, Nicole only felt that she was chilling all over.

What’s going on?

She was so happy that she was called back in less than a night?

The call was hung up, and Nicole’s face had already changed pale.

Clayton came in from the outside with milk in his hand. His eyes were gentle and soft: "Awake? Quickly drink a glass of milk and say that the children wake up earlier than you..."

Nicole paused, a little helpless and panic in her eyes.

Clayton finally realized something: "What's the matter? "

"Mr. Jenson just said, Liliana ran away."

The room was silent.

"Don't worry, I will increase the number of people to guard here. You should not go out these days."

His proposal is the same as Mr. Jenson.

Although Clayton has a bit of coldness in his eyes, he still walks over as if nothing had happened. He reached out and touched her head, with a touch of comfort: "It's okay, don't be afraid, you've done a good job, it's just an accident, the rest will be left to me."

Nicole blinked, she was really panicked just now. After all, what she did will definitely make Liliana hate herself.

Yes, as long as she doesn't do anything, Liliana will not find a chance.

She took a deep breath and clicked Nodding. She stretched out her hand to hug his shoulder. Her voice was a little lost: "I've caused you trouble, I thought I did it perfectly, but I didn't expect this result."

Clayton clapped her hand with a smile, and squeezed it lightly: "You've done it flawlessly, it's just too cunning."

Nicole sniffed, raised her head, and frowned slightly: "But how could the police lose such an important prisoner so carelessly? Dozens of people Can't you see a stinger?"

There was silence for a few seconds.

Clayton's eyes deepened a little, and he smiled: "Accidents can happen, don't pursue this. Just take advantage of these few days to rest and recuperate. If you want to go shopping, let them in the store. Bring all the clothes of the current season to save you fatigue. The company's affairs can be handled online, and if you can't handle it, let the big brother go."

He thought really unusually meticulous. But he thought too much.

"You are not someone who can't sit still."

Especially in the face of danger, she would not do things like sneaking out to find death by herself.

She simply nodded, turned her head and thought: "How about I go to the island I bought before and live for a while?"

Wouldn't it be safer to live on the island?

Clayton paused and looked at her: "Then what should I do?"

"Come with me!"

Clayton looked at her for a long time, feeling that she didn't seem to be joking, and immediately pursed his lips: "If we leave, Liliana will definitely let everyone know that we escaped. I think we should not do this. We can better protect ourselves within the sphere of influence we are familiar with."

Nicole didn't respond. Oh... Then she hugged his waist again and sighed.

Her mind is in chaos now, and she just wants to throw the mess to Clayton, what he says is right!

The big deal is to be a tortoise with its head shrinking for a few days, and it's nothing.

Seeing her being so obedient, Clayton couldn't believe it for a while.

Clayton lowered his head to study her expression carefully, groaning unhappily, it seemed that he was really hit.

Immediately.

His heart hurts.

He didn't want to see Nicole, who was so assertive and confident, become depressed at all.

It's all tortuous!

He will definitely make him pay for it.

His eyes were a little deep, and he raised her chin and lowered his head to kiss her gently. The soft touch made him want to comfort him and become lingering.

Nicole tightened her arms, hooked the man's waist, raised her head and entangled with his lips.

It seems that he can draw a sense of security from him to clean up the irritability and anxiety caused by the grinding.

The warm, quiet and cold fragrance on her body made her resistance less and less, and Nicole squeezed deeper into his arms.

Then, for some unknown reason, the two of them rolled onto the bed, their clothes were loose, and no one wanted to stop...

Two hours later.

Clayton came out of the bathroom, refreshed and not at all tired.

Nicole moved her head and stuck her head out of the quilt, not even wanting to move his fingers.

You shouldn't be indulging in male sex on such a beautiful morning, why can't you hold it back?

Tired but can't sleep.

Clayton picked her up from the bed and took her to the bathroom, where the water had already been filled.

He didn't act like it was the first time he did it.

Nicole murmured in a low voice.

Clayton thought she fell asleep and was woken up again, so he pinched her face: "After washing, sleep better. I'll help you or do it yourself?"

It was the first time that Nicole was so awake with him like this. Be honest in the situation.

She felt a little uncomfortable, her heart skipped a beat, she pursed her lips, and the tips of her ears turned a little red: "I'll do it myself, you go down quickly."

Clayton licked his lips and seemed a little regretful, but he knew that she was thin-skinned, did not continue: "Okay, everyone was waiting for you to eat just now, I'll go down and explain."

Nicole was slightly shocked and raised his head.

Why didn't you tell me sooner?

With a smile in his face, Clayton looked at her amusingly: "Don't worry, I'll 'explain' it well."

As soon as he left, Nicole didn't have the mood to continue soaking.

She quickly and simply cleaned it, and went downstairs in less than 20 minutes.

It's like being a thief with a guilty conscience.

Floyd had already taken the talker kid to go out to play with Levi.

Only Kai, Clayton and Butler were left at home.

Nicole went down the stairs, Kai was already neatly dressed and was playing tricks with Tigger.

Clayton was talking to Butler, and Butler nodded solemnly.

Seeing her go downstairs, Butler smiled casually: "Good morning, miss, I'll

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1995

Chapter 1995 Nicole smiled and nodded.

Kai chuckled and said, "It's almost noon, what about morning? I'm dying of laughter, Clayton went up to deliver milk for you, and it took two hours to come down, you guys are really tired!"

Nicole took a breath and told herself not to be angry. Her face turned white and red, she glared at Kai, stretched out a finger, and pointed at him confidently: "You are jealous of the two of us living together. We were talking about work just now, what do you know?"

Clayton Hearing it on the side, he accidentally laughed out loud.

Kai even more smiled and bent over: "Talking about work? Your husband just said, you are watching a movie!"

It turned out to be mocking her. This cunning Kai is really hard to change.

She raised her chin and said to herself, "Oh, I'm just about to invest in a movie to find out."

Kai obviously didn't believe it.

But he had more important things to do. He got up with his clothes, checked the time, and planned to go out.

Nicole immediately went down and told him solemnly: "One bad news which one do you want to hear?"

Kai frowned, "It's a bad new, I don't want to hear either!"

Nicole blocked in front of him: "Required!"

"Then tell me."

Kai raised his eyebrows, with a wicked smile, loosened his neckline, and looked cynical.

Since he learned the good news of Liliana's arrest last night, his suave temperament has returned.

Even in the face of two bad news, he didn't take it to heart.

Is there any better news now than his free entry and exit?

He looked at the time and urged her: "Come on, I have an appointment with Julie to go to dinner, and now I'm going to pick her up!"

Nicole pursed her lips: "The bad news is that Liliana ran away, and we are in danger."

Kai's shocked expression changed, and his pupils suddenly enlarged.

Nicole continued, "The other bad news is that I spent the card you gave me!"

For a moment, Kai's face turned blue and white, his indescribable mood and his words were pale. He twitched the corners of his mouth, frowned, and gritted his back molars: "You're not kidding me?"

Nicole shook his head: "I swear, no."

Kai sat back on the sofa sluggishly. The feeling of powerlessness instantly made his spirited attitude vanish.

It seemed that he had returned to the way he had been frightened before.

Horrible.

Nicole suddenly felt ashamed, but seeing that he was more afraid than himself, the feeling of helplessness and panic just upstairs was almost reduced.

Clayton coughed and came over: "Kai, don't worry, I have already secretly protected this place, and everything will be fine."

Kai raised his eyelids lightly, sniffed his nose, digested it for a while, and then looked at the two people in front of him: "Are you two working together to cheat me for money?"

He returned to the dangerous moment, the key It also lost a lot of pocket money.

Nicole also felt guilty.

She smiled bleakly, with a strong sense of helplessness in her smile: "Brother, I am even more dangerous now."

Kai blinked, shaking her shoulders, and had to accept these two facts. He took out his mobile phone and called Julie: "I know, I'm going to miss my appointment at noon. I'll double the number of bodyguards to protect you. Be careful at this critical moment!"

Julie didn't know what she said then Hung up the phone call.

Kai looked at the darkened mobile phone and scolded: "Stinky little sister!"

Nicole looked away with a guilty conscience and went to eat at the table.

...

Stanton Residence.

In order to accompany Nicole, Clayton simply moved his office to his home.

Fortunately, the flower room behind Stanton house is big enough, and they like to enjoy flowers, drink tea and talk about things in it on weekdays.

The sun is just right, and even the wind is not impatient or impatient.

Roland came over to report on the work, and happened to meet Nicole and invited many friends to come over to play and pass the time.

Clayton prunes and waters the flowers raised by Nicole in the flower room.

Roland looked at it for a while, but said as usual, "Mr. Sloan, you are sly and cunning, although we have investigated a few places where he has appeared, when our people went, the building was already empty. It seems that the old suspicion was created to confuse us, and several warehouses in South Africa have been bombed in succession. If we do not take measures, other people who are on the sidelines will be ready to move."

Clayton was not surprised, nodded, and lowered his head comfortably to prune the flowers: "There is no need to investigate his whereabouts, let them go. The arsenal has been transferred, and the research information and personnel list have been taken away looking for..."

Roland paused and was silent for a few seconds before asking him, "Mr. Sloan always wants to attract the attention of Liliana? Is it because you are afraid of stinging your eyes all the time on Ms. Stanton? "

Clayton paused and smiled lowly: "Is it so obvious?"

Roland: "Mr. Sloan, it was originally planned to wait until these key information are in our hands before releasing the smoke bombs. Isn't it just to divert their attention by taking a step ahead?"

Clayton raised his eyebrows: "That's right."

Roland hesitated: "This will only irritate Liliana even more. He knows that he has been tricked, and I'm afraid he won't let it go."

Clayton chuckled lightly and glanced at the crowd outside the glass.

Nicole's happiness and Kai's sadness formed a stark contrast.

It's just that Julie found a lot of people to come and play, and Kai sat glumly on the lawn and looked up at the sky.

Fortunately, Nicole could see it.

He let out a low laugh, and then calmed down: "It must be the plan above, Nicole was deceived. She thought the cooperation was simply a play.

If Liliana was caught for smuggling cultural relics, he would be overkill.

I guess he was kept on top, and he was going to put a long line to catch big fish.

Roland was silent for a few seconds, then nodded, "Ms Stanton is so unlucky."

Who said no?

Clayton squinted his eyes, the plan above didn't reveal anything at all, and he didn't dare to tell Nicole casually.

Forget it, as long as he doesn't run out, there will be no danger.

Ferguson Corporation.

Liliana, dressed in a cleaner's clothes, sat opposite Eric.

"Clayton, b*stard and his woman deserve to die. They dare to slander me. I have to avenge this revenge!"

Eric lowered his eyes and looked at the company's bodyguard with a cold expression, without raising his head: "It must be Clayton's idea, Nicole can't think of it."

"You are talking nonsense, that woman is insidious and cunning. I understand it, what is the most poisonous woman's heart. When I catch her, I will definitely let her survive. I can't beg you to die!"

Eric's eyelids twitched and he lifted his eyelids:

"Clayton is insidious and cunning, he knew that you would let down your guard against Nicole, so he let Nicole come forward, otherwise where would he have the opportunity to humiliate you? "
