

Chapter 1071

She sounded very humble. Her eyes were red and she was panic and ashamed.

She looked pitiful.

Phoebe and Amelia were joking. When they saw her, they looked at each other and smiled wryly.

Amelia especially understood Clarissa. She had experienced it.

Unexpectedly, another woman appeared...

She glared at Tom, who always attracted women. He was so charming that Clarissa was attracted by him unconsciously!

In fact, she didn't hate Clarissa because they were the same.

Phoebe pinched Tom hard and said unhappily, "Look at what you've done!"

Tom was confused. He thought that he was innocent. He didn't show any affection for Clarissa from the beginning to the end. Clarissa followed him actively.

However, he had nothing to explain. He could only smile bitterly and acquiesce.

When Clarissa saw Phoebe and Amelia's reaction, she became even more excited and quickly explained, "Please don't misunderstand him. It's my fault. I'm shameless. I've been pestering him... But I really like him. I know I am shameless, but I..."

Clarissa couldn't continue to speak and started to cry.

It was a double torment for her. She knew that it was immoral to be a mistress with her character and morality. She would be despised. However, she couldn't leave Tom. It was too difficult!

She felt bad when she lost contact with him. She didn't love him so much at that time. After the incident, she couldn't leave him...

She felt especially tortured about the complicated feelings.

When Phoebe and Amelia saw it, they held her hand. Phoebe said, "Miss Brown, you misunderstood. We don't mean to be angry with you."

Amelia said, "Yes, Miss Brown, don't cry. We all know that it's Tom's fault."

When Clarissa heard them, she was more nervous. She shook her head and said, "No. You misunderstood. It really has nothing to do with Tom. It's all because of me..."

Phoebe interrupted her and said, "Miss Brown, come with us."

Amelia said, "Yes, Miss Brown, we should talk in private."

Clarissa was very nervous. She thought that Phoebe and Amelia would warn or threaten her. But she couldn't refuse them. So she followed Phoebe and Amelia nervously to avoid Tom.

On the way, Clarissa looked back at Tom a few times. She was anxious and nervous.

Tom sighed and rubbed his temples. He felt distressed. What's going on?

Soon, they came back.

Clarissa stopped crying. Her eyes were red and her face was a little red. She looked shy and happy. It didn't seem to be real. When she looked at Tom, she blushed all of a sudden.

She didn't dare to look at him.

Tom saw her reaction and felt very confused. What exactly did Phoebe "Stop talking nonsense. Hurry up and take a taxi back. We have a lot to talk to Clarissa."

They already called her Clarissa.

They were so close. Tom wondered who fell in love with the married one.

He shook his head without saying anything. He was gloomy and took a taxi.

After he left, Clarissa said with some trepidation, "Will Tom be discontent?"

Amelia smiled and said, "No, he's thick-skinned. Besides, he looks depressed. In fact, he is in a good mood!"

Phoebe nodded and said, "Don't worry, Tom is not that stingy. Clarissa, why do and Amelia say to her?

After getting out of the airport, Tom wanted to go back with them. But Phoebe rolled her eyes at him and said angrily, "There's no seat for you in the car. Take a taxi back."

Tom was a little surprised. He pointed to the car in front of him and said, "There are five seats. We are four people. Why don't I have a seat?"

Amelia raised her chest and said, "We said that you have no seat. Do you have any objections?"

"Uh... Aren't you here to pick me up? What are you doing?" Tom rolled his eyes and said.

Phoebe pushed him away and said, you like him? He's not handsome."

Amelia said, "Yes, I don't understand. He looks ordinary. You are an outstanding superstar. Why do you like him? It's strange!"

Clarissa said weakly, "You are beauties, but you also like him."

Phoebe and Amelia were stunned and laughed, "Hahaha..."

They drove and chatted. Clarissa was restrained at first. After all, anyone would be nervous under the circumstance.

Fortunately, Phoebe and Amelia accepted her and treated her well, which gradually reassured her.

After the conversation, Clarissa was gradually relieved and was not so nervous and restrained.

But soon she blushed again due to Amelia's words.

"Clarissa, have you slept with him? How is it? Can you bear it? He is strong. It's hard to satisfy him. You must be tired." Amelia said with a wicked smile.

Clarissa immediately blushed and quickly shook her head, "No. I did nothing with him. I've never... slept with him?"

"What? Really?" Amelia said in surprise.

Phoebe was also looking at her.

Clarissa nodded. She was shy.

"What about kissing?"

"No..."

Phoebe and Amelia looked at each other and nodded secretly. Tom was good. He didn't do anything to Clarissa without their permission.

Chapter 1072

Although Tom didn't know what the three women were talking about, he could roughly guess that Phoebe and Amelia had asked Clarissa about what happened between him and Clarissa.

Moreover, judging from the performance of Phoebe and Amelia just now, they had actually accepted Clarissa to be his concubine.

Tom was very happy about this.

As his realm advanced, his charm towards the opposite sex was increasing as well. He always unconsciously attracted the favor of many women.

And he was absolutely not a heartless person. In Clarissa's case, it was difficult for him to reject her heartlessly.

Now that Phoebe and Amelia were willing to accept her, it was even better and saved him a lot of trouble.

In fact, he did not have many feelings for her, but he did not dislike her. Now she was already deeply in love with him.

As for what would happen, let nature take its course.

Tom had never been a stickler for ideas, and he soon forgot about these worries.

All these emotional matters should be settled by Phoebe. He was a man and more suitable to do great things.

Now that he had returned to his country, he did not rush home immediately but went to the Military Intelligence 3 to report first.

This time, he returned to the Military Intelligence 3 in a low-key manner and did not tell Pence and Thorn in advance. When he arrived at the Military Intelligence 3, he planned to go directly to them.

Speaking of which, as the Chief Instructor, he was not qualified to do his job. He had not taught these agents much and spent most of his time outside. This time, he came back and planned to stay in the Military Intelligence 3 for some time to improve the overall level of the Military Intelligence 3!

When he returned here, he felt moved.

Although he had not joined the Military Intelligence 3 for a long time, he still had a strong feeling of belonging to it.

He came back quietly this time, and he was wearing his usual clothes. So when he appeared at the entrance of the Military Intelligence 3, the security guard at the door did not recognize him immediately. He thought he wasn't an employee here and stopped him directly.

"Stop right there! This is a major military area. Staff only!"

The guard seemed to be a newcomer and didn't know Tom, he said sternly.

Tom was not angry either. He had a bright smile on his face and said, "I'm the Chief Instructor. I come back to report today."

Hearing this, the guard immediately froze and frowned. "Chief Instructor? What Chief Instructor?"

"Are you new here?" Tom asked.

The guard did not answer but looked up and down at him. He saw that Tom was wearing ordinary clothes, and looked very normal. There was nothing unique about him. He felt that Tom was just a busybody and came here to make trouble. He then said rudely, "Leave now! This is a major military area, not somewhere you can mess around!"

Said the guard, patting the machine gun in his hand.

Tom smiled, patted him on the shoulder, and said, "That's right. You're very responsible. When you meet someone you don't know, do your duty."

It was strange that the guard felt flattered when he was patted on the shoulder by Tom. He couldn't help but straighten his back even more!

However, when he was about to speak, he suddenly felt his eyes a little dry.

Subconsciously, he rubbed his eyes. When he opened his eyes again, he found that the man in front of him had disappeared!

There was a sudden shock in his heart.

When he quickly looked towards the base, he saw that Tom had already entered and was walking leisurely inside.

He was startled. Without thinking, he quickly pressed the alarm and informed the agents inside that an enemy had broken in.

Suddenly, the piercing alarm spread throughout the Military Intelligence 3. Within a second, the entire Military Intelligence 3 was alarmed, and many people rushed out as if they were facing a great enemy.

"How dare someone broke into our Military Intelligence 3?! Does he want to die?"

"See who's so bold!"

"Go out and take a look. If it's the enemy, I will let him taste my bullets!!"

When Tom heard the alarm, he frowned slightly and smiled bitterly in his heart. He didn't expect that he, the Chief Instructor, had not returned for so long and was now treated as an enemy. It was really depressing.

"Freeze!"

Soon, some found him and quickly surrounded him, pointing a gun at him, looking very dignified. As long as Tom moved, they would immediately shoot him.

Tom stopped. Not long after, the guard ran over and said nervously, "This is the guy who broke in. He moves very fast. With one blink, he rushed in! I seriously doubt that he's an enemy. We can't let him leave!"

The agents surrounding Tom were obviously newcomers and had never seen him.

Someone even scolded him, "How dare you! How dare you break into the Military Intelligence 3? You are asking for trouble!"

"Why are you talking so much to him? Just take him down, torture him, and ask which country he works for!"

As soon as he finished speaking, someone came over with a gun and wanted to take Tom down.

But at this moment, a more dignified voice came from behind, "What are you all doing? Back off! This is the Chief Instructor of our Military Intelligence 3!"

The neat and heavy footsteps came from behind.

When these new agents saw it, they all showed surprised and awed expressions. They quickly stopped and saluted the person who came over.

"Deputy Director!"

Tom turned around and saw Thorn walking over with a group of senior agents and many executives.

When they saw Tom, their faces showed excitement and admiration.

Especially for those senior agents, the admiration and affection in their eyes were even more undisguised.

They walked to him, knelt in unison, and shouted, "Chief Instructor!"

Tom was a little surprised by their greetings, and even Thorn knelt down on him.

As for the new agents and the guard, they were already dumbfounded.

Chapter 1073

They were completely dumbfounded.

Although they had just entered the Military Intelligence 3, they knew what kind of organization the Military Intelligence 3 was. It was among the top of the H Country!

After they became agents of the Military Intelligence 3, their social status was much higher. When they were back to local bureau, those higher-ups had to be respectful to them, because they were not only agents, but also heroes of the country. Under certain circumstances, they even had the right to kill someone.

Especially Thorn, the Deputy Director of the Military Intelligence 3, was even more superior!

It was no exaggeration to say that Thorn's status was much higher than that of a Lord.

But now, how could Thorn kneel so respectfully to this young man?

And not only Thorn, but also so many Military Intelligence 3 executives knelt down together. They were so shocked and dumbfounded, unable to close their mouths for a long time.

After Tom was surprised by Thorn and the actions of these senior officials, he was a little moved. From their eyes, Tom saw the sincere worship and gratefulness.

Indeed, H Country had been suppressed internationally all these years. In particular, Country M was the most oppressive to H Country, and the biggest culprit was Adam.

Adam was like a mountain above the entire H Country and the entire Military Intelligence 3. Many people wanted Adam to die right away and wished that a peerless master would show up in H Country, defeat Adam, and promote the national prestige of H Country!

But such a wish was too difficult to be realized.

They had been waiting for a long time, but no such person appeared. For a time, they were all desperate. Because they knew that even Albert, God of War of H Country, might not be a match for Adam. In this case, who else could be a match for Adam in the whole H Country?

This period of time was also called the darkest moment in H Country.

But at this moment, Tom appeared. In an absolutely violent way, he went to the Country M alone, and had done all kinds of high-profile and arrogant things. This was something that no one in H Country had done before, but they had fantasized about it for countless times!

Tom did it today, and he even beat Adam to death. The whole world would remember his name.

From that moment on, they had regarded Tom as an idol and their faith, far exceeding their usual respect for a martial artist!

Although Thorn and the higher-ups were higher than Tom in terms of position, they sincerely treated Tom as their faith and were willing to bow down to Tom.

At the same time, they knew that a genius like Tom would not stay in the Military Intelligence 3 for long.

Especially when the God of War, Albert, was old, Tom would be a successor to Albert and become the new God of War!

Therefore, they were sincerely convinced by Tom so they knelt down today.

Tom felt their emotions, so he didn't say anything more. He didn't refuse it but accepted it calmly.

However, he still walked forward, held Thorn up and said with a smile, "Director Sunn, don't do this. Please get up."

Thorn did not get up immediately. Instead, he said seriously, "Chief Instructor, I sincerely admire you! Because of you, H Country has returned to its glory! From now on, you are my idol, my faith!"

Other higher-ups also said in unison, "Chief Instructor, you are our idol, our faith!"

Faced with this situation, Tom also smiled bitterly. This time he came back, he knew that the Military Intelligence 3 would be very excited, but he did not expect them to be so excited. This was a little unexpected for him.

And then, more and more agents came out one by one after knowing that Tom had returned.

"The Chief Instructor is back. Let's go out and welcome him!"

"What? Did I hear it right? The Chief Instructor comes back?!"

"OMG. The Chief Instructor is back. That's great. Ha ha ha..."

"Don't run in front of me. I'm going to worship the Chief Instructor! His behavior in Country M was so handsome that he actually defeated Adam. It's so soothing. The Chief Instructor is the pride of our H Country. Ha ha ha..."

Such voices sounded in all parts of the Military Intelligence 3.

All of a sudden, the entire Military Intelligence 3 was bustling. People were like ants, rushing out one after another from everywhere. When they saw Tom, they were all excited.

This situation had never happened in the Military Intelligence 3 before.

To those new agents, it was an unprecedented shock.

Now they finally knew who Tom was.
He was an absolute hero!

The guard's legs were trembling, and he gave himself two hard slaps. What was he doing just now? He actually blocked the Chief Instructor outside the door and asked someone to arrest him!

Thinking of this, he felt dizzy and almost fainted.

At this moment, Tom looked over and smiled at him. Tom was friendly and did not get angry with him. This made him relax instantly, and at the same time, he was more grateful to Tom.

Not long after, all the Military Intelligence 3 members came out and surrounded Tom in a circle, one by one expressing their excitement.

And they all half-knelt down and shouted loudly, "All colleagues of the Military Intelligence 3 welcome back the Chief Instructor!"

Pence and Marlin who came later also knelt down on one knee in front of Tom to show their gratitude and admiration for him. The enthusiasm in their eyes could not be concealed.

Under this situation, Tom's eyes were filled with tears.

He thought he was already hardhearted, and no matter what he encountered, it wouldn't cause a fluctuation in his mood. But now, facing the kneeling, worship, and gratitude of all the Military Intelligence 3, he was still moved.

They were his beloved people from H Country, his fellow countrymen!

He also knelt down on one knee and cupped his fists at everyone. "Don't say this. We are all heroes. It was you who created the stability of H Country that made me what I am today."

"Thank you! Thank you, everyone!"

"Thank you for what you've done for our country all these years!!!"

Chapter 1074

This sentence sounded so powerful that when people heard it, they could not help wanting to cry. This was especially true for Pence and Marlin, who had a stronger desire to shed tears. The two actually couldn't help crying and wiped their tears secretly.

They all had spent a long time in the Military Intelligence 3 and sacrificed more than these new agents.

They were also more aware of how tough life had been for them these years, more aware of how struggling it had been for them to survive through those dark days!!

Especially during the war that happened a few years ago, which cost Military Intelligence 3 too much. Many elites died from that war.

At one time, they became the weakest secret service organization in the country. They were not only bullied by foreign organizations, but also by the domestic Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2.

But now, they finally had Tom with them, who was a true genius and also the chosen son of H Country's National Fortune!

And most importantly, Tom was not an ungrateful person, which was the rarest quality of a person.

Now this sentence Tom had said touched the softest part of their hearts, making them cry uncontrollably.

A man did not shed tears easily unless he was really sad.

Subtle changes occurred to the entire Military Intelligence 3, unknowingly. A flow of enlightenment and change that had never been before was flowing in everyone's heart.

It could be seen that after this, a transformation would surely take place in the entire Military Intelligence 3!

It was because of the changes that Tom had brought to them that they were all enlightened.

Tom felt this change, and he gave a heartfelt smile. If he could really enlighten the entire Military Intelligence 3, then he, the chief instructor, would not be useless.

In fact, in his mind, Tom had always thought that a qualified chief instructor was not just simply teaching secret agents martial arts. Most importantly, a qualified chief instructor should teach them the quality of strength, like planting seeds of strength in their mind. Now, he finally did it.

Next, after gaining everyone's admiration, Tom waved his hand and asked them to return to their positions respectively, so as to do their own things.

Then he followed Pence and the others to the conference room, where he would report on what happened to him in Eagle Country and Country M these days.

He didn't hide anything, either. Apart from embellishing Alice's story a little, he said everything else honestly.

After listening to his experiences, all the senior management staff of Military Intelligence 3 were stunned and their eyes were full of shock and admiration.

At last, Pence sighed and said, "Tom, you are really a chosen son! I have never heard of your cultivation speed before. In my memory, even when the God of War was young, he was far less abnormally unique than you."

Even a steady man like Pence used the word "abnormally unique", which showed how marvelous Tom was.

Tom smiled and said, "It's not that mysterious. I'm actually just lucky."

After a while, Pence asked, "Tom, what are you going to do next?"

Everyone looked at Tom.

Tom was silent for a moment and then said, "Next, I should go to Y City and visit God of War. There's something I've thought about and decided to talk to you about."

"Yes, what's the matter?"

Tom said, "When I came back today, I met something while I was transferring to a country in East Asia..."

Next, he told everyone about Mr. Leo. After that, he said in a low voice, "I have a feeling that the Clan World would invade us in a big way next! A third world war could break out!"

"What?!"

After hearing Tom's words, everyone's eyes widened in extreme horror.

Some people even dropped their cigarettes in shock.

It was not that their psychological quality was not strong enough, but this news was too shocking for them. No, it should be said that it was horrible!

What was the concept of a third world war breaking out?

Moreover, it was the Clan World invading the Secular World on a large scale. Was this sounded like a joke?

The damage brought to the world could be more serious than the previous two world wars!

The problem was that for so many years, the Clan World had been very quiet and polite, and had never offended the Secular World. How could suddenly the Clan World invade the secular world? This was not very scientific.

After the shock, Pence immediately calmed down. He looked straight at Tom and said in a deep voice, "Tom, are you serious? This is not a small matter!"

Marlin also said, "The Clan World and the Secular World have been living together peacefully for thousands of years. How could they suddenly invade the Secular World? Moreover, if they really do this, the harm to the world and the people would be too great!"

Tom nodded and said seriously, "I'm afraid it's true. That's why I've been practicing so hard all this time, preparing for this big battle!"

After a pause, he said in a deeper voice, "Fellow colleagues, I want to tell you this mainly to remind you that we have to prepare for the next war. I don't know when they will start the war, but according to my estimation, it won't be long..."

After Tom said this, the entire conference room fell into absolute silence and no one had spoke for a long time.

The news was too shocking for them!

They were not stupid. They could imagine how much impact this would have if it really happened. It was very likely that half or even more than half of the people on this planet would die!

And by then, there would be disasters everywhere. Even they might not survive this war.

Ordinary people may not know how scary the Clan world is, but they do.

By then, even with nuclear weapons, it would probably be useless. The only way was to fight the Clan World!

And the price was too high...

Finally, after a long silence, Pence started to talk. He looked at Tom and said, "When are you going to Y City?"

Tom said, "It should be tomorrow. I have not been back to home since coming back from Country M."

When others heard him say this, they were also respectful. It was a blessing for H Country to have someone like Tom.

After telling everything, Tom went home. When he thought that he had to deal with three women when he went home, he somehow felt a headache...

Chapter 1075

Half an hour later, Tom returned to his house, but he didn't push the door open immediately, because he felt nervous. It was strange.

He took a deep breath, smiled bitterly, and mustered up his courage to push the door open.

After coming in, he first heard a hearty laugh, without the expected sound of quarreling. The atmosphere was also very harmonious. Soon, he saw that the three women got along very well in the living room. Besides them, his father-in-law and mother-in-law were also there, as well as some relatives. They were chatting happily.

Many young relatives surrounded Clarissa, flattering and fawning her like her fanatics. The scene looked very harmonious.

When Tom came in, he immediately attracted everyone's attention.

"It's Tom."

His father-in-law waved at Tom and said happily, "Tom, you're back. We've missed you very much these days!"

His mother-in-law was also very enthusiastic about him, and was not as mean as before.

The other relatives were also very enthusiastic after seeing Tom. They were even very respectful and afraid.

Indeed, Tom's identity now was not something that ordinary people could compare to. Just his status as the chairman of the Howard Group was enough to make everyone afraid!

If it had been three years ago, they wouldn't have thought that Tom would have such a status!

It was known that Tom was just a useless son-in-law of the Scotts three years ago. And he was the kind of person who couldn't fight back or scold back.

But he had become a super big shot now.

As the old saying went, "when a man gets to the top, all his friends and relations get there with them", it could be said that the entire family obtained a huge profit because of Tom.

The higher status they had, the more they understood Tom's horror. It could be said that they had no disrespect for Tom!

Unless they wanted to die.

When the younger generation saw Tom, they immediately straightened their backs and looked energetic, as if they were showing their most energetic side to Tom in order to get his appreciation.

Tom walked in with a smile and said, "Yes, I'm back."

Phoebe stood up and walked over to him. She naturally took his coat and helped him put on his slippers, acting as a virtuous wife.

In fact, she didn't do it on purpose. She acted purely and naturally from the bottom of her heart. After all, she and Tom had been married for several years.

Amelia and Clarissa were especially envious when they saw this. They also wanted to do that to Tom, but they did not dare. They knew Phoebe's important position in Tom's heart.

No matter how generous Phoebe was, the fact that Phoebe was the wedded wife was undeniable, and they never dared to have any thoughts of competing with Phoebe.

Tom also enjoyed Phoebe's warmth. That kind of love was extremely strong, and it turned into a family affection. It was really comfortable.

He walked in holding Phoebe's hand, greeted his relatives with a smile, and joined the conversation.

They were all very curious about where Tom had been these days and why he had been gone for three months.

These relatives were just ordinary people who did not know about his heroic deeds in Eagle Country and Country M, and he did not have to say it out, so he simply found a reason to prevaricate. Now his status was extremely noble, so they would not hesitate to believe him now matter what he said.

Clarissa got along with them well here. It seemed that his father-in-law and mother-in-law did not know that Clarissa was acquiesced to by Phoebe and became one of his harems.

They thought that they were all Phoebe's friends, including Amelia.

After the meal, it was getting late. Logically speaking, it was not good for Clarissa to stay here late for the first time as a guest.

However, Phoebe insisted that she should stay here for the night, which made Clarissa nervous and happy, but also a little confused, She didn't understand why Phoebe was so enthusiastic.

Was Phoebe really not jealous at all?

Could love really be shared?

Although she had fallen in love with Tom now, she might not be as magnanimous as Phoebe if she was the wedded wife!

Tom also frowned. He always felt something was wrong with Phoebe, but he couldn't tell what it was now.

So he shook his head and stopped thinking.

Tom originally thought that he must sleep with Phoebe because he rarely came back, but Phoebe said that she wanted to sleep with Amelia and let him sleep alone. And Clarissa also slept alone. It was a little abnormal.

"Phoebe, what are you doing?"

Tom took the opportunity to pull Phoebe aside and said in a low voice with some displeasure.

Phoebe blinked and said, "Nothing. I told you that I wanted to sleep with Amelia."

Tom said, "Don't lie to me. It's rare for me to come back. Don't you miss me? And don't you want to canoodle with me?"

When Phoebe heard this, her pretty face immediately turned red. She rolled her eyes at Tom and said shyly, "Pervert, who wants to canoodle with you?"

After saying that, she pushed Tom away.

Seeing her bashful look, Tom became even hotter. He hadn't canoodled with Phoebe for a long time, and he almost got internal injuries because of holding back his physical needs during this time. Now that they had met again after a long separation, they should canoodle with each other well.

He hugged Phoebe directly and said, "I don't care. I'm going to sleep with you tonight!"

He just acted shamelessly.

Phoebe felt his small movements and blushed even more. She quickly pushed him away and said, "What are you doing? They're all outside! What if they hear you?"

"So what? We're a couple, and it is not shameful. I just do that legitimately."

Phoebe scolded, "You're a hooligan."

Seeing Tom grinning cheekily, Phoebe stiffened her face and looked very serious. "Stop doing that. I'm really not joking. I won't sleep with you tonight. You and..You sleep alone."

She inadvertently blurted out. Although she changed her words very quickly, Tom still heard what she said clearly. He widened his eyes and said,

"You really have such an idea! Phoebe, what are you thinking about? Am I still your husband?"

Chapter 1076

After Tom finished speaking, he got angry. How could Phoebe do such a thing as a wife? It seemed that he could be shared by everybody, and she couldn't wait to find other women for him!

Moreover, according to his understanding of Phoebe, Phoebe was definitely not like this before.

Even when he was still hiding his identity and acting cowardly, Phoebe was still very possessive of him and would never allow him to flirt with other women.

But now, Phoebe totally changed, which was too abnormal.

There was a flash of pain in Phoebe's eyes, but it disappeared in an instant. Even Tom didn't notice it.

She frowned and said angrily, "What do you mean by what's in my head? Am I annoying you now?"

Facing Phoebe's sudden anger, Tom was stunned. He quickly explained, "That's not what I meant... But, Phoebe, you weren't like this before. Have you forgotten that we're husband and wife! It would be fine if you could accept a Amelia. After all, she and I have shared weal and woe. But as to Clarissa, we are just friends. I definitely have no feelings for her. Why do you want me..."

Before Tom could finish his sentence, Phoebe interrupted him and stared at him coldly and said, "Tom, you disappoint me! So you are such a heartless man!"

"Heartless? Me?"

Tom was dumbfounded. What was going on? Did he have anything to do with the word 'heartless'?

If he was ruthless, then which man in this world could be called affectionate?

He had been loyal to Phoebe. Even if he became the most powerful master in the world, he had never abandoned Phoebe and was loyal to her.

"Phoebe, are you mistaken? Why am I so heartless?" Tom said with some grievances.

However, Phoebe said, "Oh, aren't you heartless? You know that Clarissa is so deeply in love with you and worried about you. For more than a year, she has no intention of working because we lost contact with you. She has lost a lot of weight! In this way, she won't even live to be 40 years old. Isn't that heartless of you?"

"I..." Tom opened his mouth. He could not make any refutation for a moment. At first glance, Phoebe's words seemed to make sense.

But on second thought, something was wrong. This had nothing to do with his heartlessness. On the contrary, this was the evidence of his love for Phoebe!

But Phoebe didn't give him the chance to explain. Instead, she said, "Tom, I talked a lot with Clarissa today. She's a good woman and she really loves you. Such a woman should not be treated in this way."

Tom could not refute Phoebe's words. Though he had seen many women, it was the first time he had met a woman like Phoebe.

If it weren't for his years of relationship with Phoebe in the hard days, he would have doubted whether Phoebe really loved him.

Otherwise, how could she want her man to have other women?

After a long time, Tom said, "Phoebe, don't you feel uncomfortable doing this? When I'm with other women, won't you feel sad?"

This was what Tom had always wanted to ask, including when Phoebe accepted Amelia. He never asked. With this opportunity today, he finally asked.

He stared at Phoebe closely and observed her expressions. However, he was disappointed for there was nothing unusual about Phoebe. She was very calm and said with a smile, "Why should I feel bad? My husband loves me the most. Besides, they are sharing the burden for me. I should be happy. Otherwise, I can't satisfy you by myself."

Well...

This reason was really irrefutable.

However, when he opened his mouth and was about to continue speaking, Phoebe hugged him, pressed her face against his chest, and whispered, "Tom, don't ask me that, okay? As long as you love me the most, that's enough. A good man like you shouldn't be monopolized by me alone. It's too unfair to you."

When hearing her words, Tom was deeply silent, not knowing what to say.

At last, he sighed deeply, hugged Phoebe and said, "Phoebe, it's hard for you."

Phoebe smiled and said, "No, it's not difficult for me. I'm very happy. You become more outstanding, which proves that I am visionary and lucky. I like to have a lively family with many sisters."

Tom said, "Okay. But tonight, I want to sleep with you, okay?"

"No!" Phoebe firmly rejected him without hesitation.

Tom asked, "Why?"

Phoebe said, "Because tonight... I just can't."

Phoebe was so determined that there was no room for negotiation. Although Tom was very disappointed, he still agreed.

Next, he had a private chat with Phoebe and told her everything about the past three months, including all kinds of psychological experiences.

This made him very comfortable. In this world, the person closest to him was Phoebe. He didn't have this kind of intimate relationship with any other people, even mother Luna.

However, he did not know that the Phoebe had actually changed.

However, Phoebe hid her changes so well that Tom didn't notice them.

It was mainly because he focused on martial arts and had unconditional trust in Phoebe, so he did not notice that Phoebe had become different.

Otherwise, with his intelligence and keen, he would definitely be able to detect it!

When Tom came out of the room, Clarissa and Amelia were left in the room. Everyone else left, including his father-in-law and mother-in-law.

Now that father-in-law and mother-in-law did not live with the couple, they also bought a villa next door, which would give Phoebe and Tom a private world.

Clarissa blushed and didn't dare to look Tom in the eye. It was obvious that she had some intentions.

Amelia, on the other hand, had a bad smile on her face. When she looked at Tom, she was especially charming.

Tom lingered among the three gorgeous women tonight and enjoyed a wonderful night with them. BUT only he himself knew that this was just a facade.

He shook his head. Since Phoebe had made such a decision, it was not good for him to say anything more.

Next, he took a cold shower and prepared to rest.

Tonight, Amelia and Phoebe sleep in the master bedroom, and he and Clarissa sleep in two separate rooms.

Late at night, Tom heard footsteps coming from the corridor outside the door...

Chapter 1077

Hearing this voice, Tom immediately knew that it was Clarissa.

Here was her.

It must be Phoebe's idea. Otherwise, Clarissa would definitely not be so bold.

Soon, the sound of footsteps reached the door. Tom heard Clarissa put her hand on the doorknob, trying to open the door, but she didn't dare to. She was a little nervous and hesitant.

To be honest, Tom felt quite helpless at the moment.

Clarissa was at the door for a full minute, still not daring to open the

Suddenly, Tom opened his eyes and said, "Phoebe let you in, right?"

His sudden words startled Clarissa, and she called out softly.

"You, you're not asleep?" Clarissa patted her chest and said in shock.

Tom gave her a stinky eye and said, "Your actions tonight are so obvious. I can't sleep at all. Okay, you can go back."

Clarissa bit her lips and did not move away. Instead, she stared at Tom. She was nervous at first, but because Tom woke up, she was not nervous now but bold.

"Don't you like me at all?" Clarissa door, and her breathing became very fast.

Finally, she seemed to have made up her mind and finally decided to open the door.

There was a soft click, and then a dim light in the corridor shone in, accompanied by a graceful figure. It was Clarissa.

Tom was lying on the bed. Even if he didn't open his eyes, he could imagine what Clarissa looked like now.

After she came in, she gently closed the door. Her heart thumped.

Then she slowly walked up to Tom and looked at him in the dim light, terribly nervous.

asked.

Tom didn't give her an answer. Instead, he thought about it and said, "It's too fast."

Clarissa shook her head and said, "I don't think so. If you do hate me, I'll leave."

After saying this, she looked very calm, but her tone and eyes betrayed her.

Tom sighed in his heart again. He really didn't know how to deal with his relationship with her.

It was absolutely impossible to hate Clarissa, but it was far from enough to say that he was in love with Clarissa. After all, nothing impressive happened between him and her.

He had never been a promiscuous man.

"I don't hate you."

"Then why did you reject me?"

Tom rubbed his slightly swollen temple and said with a bitter smile, "Because I don't want to be disappointed, you can't stand me."

Clarissa was stunned. "Can't stand you? What do you mean?"

Tom was speechless and said, "You talked so much with Phoebe and Amelia today. Didn't they tell you that?"

Now, Clarissa understood, and her face turned red, and she became extremely shy!

She knew what he meant. In fact, although she was a virgin, she knew what having sex was like, so she knew now!

So, the room fell into a strange silence until Tom said again, "Go back. You can't bear it now."

Clarissa gritted her teeth. Instead of retreating, she walked over and sat beside Tom's bed, saying, "I'm not afraid. I have to make the move eventually. I'm ready now!"

Tom didn't know what to say.

He was very depressed. Clarissa didn't know what she was facing at all. Not to mention that Clarissa was an ordinary woman, even Phoebe and Amelia could stand him.

However, he knew that if he did not take any action, Clarissa would definitely not retreat. So he directly hugged Clarissa and pressed her under him, acting like a pervert.

Expectedly, Clarissa was frightened and curled into a ball. "Don't, don't do this..."

"Didn't you say you were ready? Why are you afraid now?" There was a hint of mockery in Tom's tone.

Clarissa stammered. Tom's action was a little beyond her imagination, making her subconsciously afraid. "I, I'm a little scared."

Tom pretended to be unhappy. "Are you joking with me?"

"I, I didn't mean that..."

In the end, Tom acted like a beast and scared Clarissa.

However, Tom didn't turn the fake drama into reality and let Clarissa go.

Clarissa was obviously frightened. She didn't dare to stay here any longer. What happened tonight was different from what she had imagined. Tom's performance just now was a little too scary...

When Clarissa ran away from the room, Tom breathed a sigh of relief. In order to keep himself from other women, Tom did his best.

Shaking his head, Tom stopped thinking and went straight to sleep.

He did not use his Spiritual Sense to inquire about Phoebe's situation. Otherwise, he would have noticed that something was wrong with Phoebe and she was having a nightmare, while Amelia was guarding Phoebe with worry and sympathy.

Now Phoebe closed her eyes as if she was asleep, but her brows were furrowed and she looked pained. Her face was pale as if she was suffering something. She kept muttering and struggling, looking badly wrong.

Amelia held her hand tightly, trying to give her strength, but he didn't dare to make a sound, afraid that she would wake Phoebe up.

In fact, it was not the first time Phoebe was like that, but many times.

It used to happen once a month, then twice a month, once a week, once every three days, and now it happened every single day, more and more frequently!

So that was why Phoebe didn't want to sleep with Tom. If she slept with him, then he must know!

She didn't want Tom to know, because if Tom knew, it would get him into trouble...

Amelia was the only one who knew about it now. Even her parents didn't know that.

At first, Phoebe didn't pay much attention to it, thinking it was just a nightmare, but as the number of times increased, the dream gradually became clear, and the memory in her mind was stimulated. She knew that this was not a nightmare, but a real thing.

She gradually remembered who she was. She was not Phoebe...

Chapter 1078

To be precise, her real name was not Phoebe, nor was she James and Elizabeth's daughter.

She was adopted by James and Elizabeth, but they didn't even know this secret!

James and Elizabeth's memories had been altered!

In a dream.

She had been running, and there were many people chasing after her. The originally thick fog gradually dispersed, making the whole blurry scene gradually clear.

"Loong, my good daughter, why do you keep avoiding me? You have regained your memory, and you know you are not from the secular world, but why don't you open your heart to me?"

Phoebe heard a middle-aged man's voice, which was full of authority and had an enlightening effect. It was not a voice that mortals could make. It sounded like it came from heaven and could only be made by immortals.

Phoebe had heard such a voice many times these days, and it was also the voice she was most afraid of and repelled.

"I'm not Loong. I'm not your daughter! Don't pester me!!" Phoebe made a roar in her dream.

"Loong, why are you doing this?"

"Loong, come back. I'll make it up to you for all these years."

"Loong, you are noble and don't belong to the secular world. Now that you have regained your memory, it's time to come back. It's time to come back..."

Phoebe roared again, "Get out! Get out of here! I'm living a good life here. Stop pestering me!"

"I won't go back. I don't want to go back. I'm happy here!"

"Please, let me go. My parents and husband love me deeply. I live a happy life..."

However, after she said this, the man, who was chasing her with a knife, flew into a rage. "What?! You married a damned mortal. Who is it? Who is so bold and presumptuous?! I'm going to kill him!!"

His words made Phoebe feel even more pained and uncomfortable. Finally, she spat out a mouthful of blood and awoke from her dream.

Amelia was really shocked by Phoebe. She quickly hugged Phoebe and found that Phoebe was trembling violently. Phoebe was very frightened and flustered. "It's okay, it's okay, Phoebe. I'm here. It's okay..."

Phoebe was still trembling violently, and her lips were pale.

Her eyes were filled with fear and despair.

When she was about to wake up, she heard the man's voice. "You can't escape. I will find you sooner or later!"

This scared her a lot. She grabbed Amelia's hand tightly and said, "He's coming. He's coming!"

Phoebe grabbed Amelia so hard that it hurt, but Amelia didn't frown. When she saw Phoebe like this, she felt extremely sorry for her.

"Who's coming?"

Amelia asked.

"It's him, my father!"

Amelia asked in surprise, "Your father? Isn't your father Uncle James?"

Phoebe shook her head and said, "No, James is just my foster father. I mean my biological father. He's going to find me soon... He's going to take me away from here and back to that cold place... But I don't want to go back, boohoo..."

Even when Amelia heard this, she was extremely shocked!

Her mouth was wide open.

Although she knew that Phoebe had been having nightmares all this time, she did not know that Phoebe was not the daughter of the Scotts!

Amelia patted Phoebe on her hand and said, "Don't be afraid. Tom will definitely be able to protect you..."

However, before she could finish her words, Phoebe interrupted her in horror and quickly covered her mouth. "Don't mention Tom! He's going to kill Tom! Once he finds Tom, Tom will die..."

Amelia was even more shocked, but after the shock, she didn't take it seriously. She smiled and said, "Phoebe, are you worrying too much? Tom is not an ordinary person. He is now a master of the God Becoming Level. Even Adam is no match for him. No matter how powerful your father is, he can't hurt Tom, right? In my opinion, don't keep it a secret. You might as well tell Tom about it. I believe that with Tom's intelligence and ability, he can definitely come up with a solution."

Phoebe quickly shook her head, "No! You don't know how horrible he is. He's not a mortal. Tom is no match for him, definitely no match for him..."

After saying that, she became more and more certain that Tom was definitely no match for her father, and she made a decision that no matter what, she wouldn't let her father know that her husband was Tom, or Tom would really die.

She could accept bad things happening to herself, but she could never accept that Tom died because of her!

She would suffer for the rest of her life.

Amelia was still confused and said, "No way. Even Tom is no match for your father? Who is your father?"

Phoebe did not answer her question. Instead, she lowered her head and lost into deep thought, but she did not stop crying...

Amelia's heart ached when she saw Phoebe like this.

Although she and Phoebe had not known each other for long, after this period of time, she and Phoebe became very close. If something really happened to Phoebe, she would really be sad for the rest of her life!

She held Phoebe's hand tightly and said softly, "Phoebe, don't be so sad. Come what may, heaven won't fall. We've been through so much together.

This time, it will be fine too. Besides, since it's your father who is looking for you, he must also want you to be happy."

Phoebe did not say anything but only wore a bitter smile and sad look on her face. It was not that she did not explain, but that this kind of thing could not be explained clearly.

After a moment of silence, Phoebe said, "Amelia, if one day, I really suddenly disappear, you have to take good care of Tom, okay?"

Amelia was shocked and said quickly, "Phoebe! What are you talking about? Why will you disappear all of a sudden? No, I have to tell Tom that you're not in the right state!"

Phoebe held her tightly and said in a pleading tone, "Amelia, I'm begging you. Promise me, okay? If Tom finds out, he'll die. He'll really die..."

Her eyes were filled with tears.

Amelia also cried, looked at Phoebe for a few seconds, and finally nodded with difficulty. "Okay, I promise you."

Chapter 1079

At this moment, Tom had no idea what was going on with Phoebe because he had already entered the mode of meditation.

He blocked all of his senses.

He woke up early the next morning and went to make breakfast full of energy.

He found that Phoebe and Amelia were already up when he finished making breakfast. It was obvious that they had been crying because of their watering and reddening eyes. Tom picked up the signs and asked, "Have you been crying?"

Phoebe and Amelia didn't panic. They had already made up their lies and said that it was because of a show they had watched last night.

Tom didn't dig further. After all, he was already a mighty existence, especially within the country. Nobody would dare to mess up with his family with a clear mind.

Clarissa also got up not long after. She also had black circles down her eyes. Obviously, she didn't sleep well either. However, Phoebe and Amelia were paying more attention to her lower body instead of her face. They were surprised when they saw that there was no awkwardness when she was walking. Didn't Clarissa go to Tom's room last night?

Clarissa saw their gazes and blushed a little out of embarrassment. She shook her head gently, indicating nothing had happened between her and Tom.

This surprised both Phoebe and Amelia. Tom did nothing with such a pretty girl in bed?

After breakfast, Tom didn't stay any longer. He chatted a bit with them and went to the airport directly. He needed to go to Y City to find Albert.

He had so many questions for Albert.

In addition, he also contacted Sunny to see if she could get in touch with his grandfather.

Grandpa had disappeared again after he saved Tom's life without any contact information. Tom felt stressed but also worried. Grandpa's behavior was too strange, which made him worried. However, at the same time, he was curious about grandpa's identity.

Who was him?

He went to the airport together with Malcolm, Elliot, and Rufus. He wanted to have a chat with them and also check on their current situation.

They were thrilled when they received Tom's call and rushed over without hesitation.

They arrived almost at the same time. They immediately greeted Tom respectfully when they saw him,

"You're back, Mr. Howard!"

"Yes." Tom nodded and said, "How have you been lately?"

Malcolm began to talk. "Thanks to Mr. Howard, we are all doing well. We have all experienced the happiest time since we've been working for you. We couldn't have had this wonderful life without Mr. Howard."

Elliot followed, "Yes, it's our honor to work for you."

Rufus said immediately, "Working for you was the best decision I've ever made."

Tom waved his hand and said, "Stop the flattering. Let's talk business."

Tom had always treated them well. Since the early days, they had followed his lead and had been loyal to him for all these years without any complaints or misbehavior.

Tom trusted them enough to let them handle his business.

Then, Tom let them reported their business in turn and learned that they had managed the Howard Group well. The business was thriving.

Tom said directly when they've almost reached the airport, "Our next step is to focus the business on the high-tech weapons. Try your best to make the best weapons in the least amount of time. We need the ones that can be mass-produced."

They were stunned to hear this. Nobody reacted for a while. Why did Tom decide to go into the weaponry business out of the blue?

In the end, Rufus said, "Mr. Howard, do you want to enter the weaponry business? But as far as I know, this area is monopolized by the state. It can't be easy for us to deal with it, can it?"

Indeed, unlike other western countries, the government of the H Country held all businesses relating to the military side firmly in its hands.

Tom waved his hand and said, "You don't have to worry about this. I'll take care of it. As long as you control the quality of our product."

They had nothing to say since Tom had made up his mind. Knowing Tom, they knew he would achieve whatever he had his eyes on. They never doubted his ability. But what they couldn't figure out was why he wanted to enter the weaponry business.

Besides, the market size was not big either. Who would they sell the weapon to even if they managed to build it?

Elliot said his concern. Tom answered at once, "There will be a market, and it will be a huge market. All you need to do is to be quick. Otherwise, we might lose the chance."

Now they were even more confused. "Mr. Howard, I'm not saying you are wrong in reading the market. However, based on our research, the country won't need a large number of weapons. Who would we sell our weapons to during peacetime?"

"What if I tell you a war is coming? Do you think there will be a market by then?"

They were shocked hearing what Tom had said.

"What? A war?!"

"You are not kidding us, Mr. Howard?"

"Right! Our country has been peaceful for so long. How could there be a war? Plus, the international situation is perfect now. Which country dares to start a war?"

They all spoke agitatedly.

Tom understood how they felt about the news. After all, war was a terrifying thing to almost everyone. Even he felt uneasy when he first heard about it.

Later on, he accepted the fact and began to plan for it.

Fortunately, he had the Howard Group. He could contribute more help to the upcoming war.

Tom looked at them and said, "You don't have to worry about this now. The war is coming. We have to prepare ourselves now. Also, please keep the news between you three. Don't tell anybody else, including your families, understood? We'll wait for the final direction from the government. Now you just need to target the business in the direction of making high-tech weapons and defenses. You do this, and I'll handle the rest."

The air between them became heavy after hearing Tom's words. Since he had said this, it meant that war would definitely break out!

Chapter 1080

"What?! Bright was killed?!"

In a large summer resort, a roar suddenly sounded. The powerful sound waves created spread around and scared countless birds and beasts in the mountain running away.

Fortunately, there were no tourists in this summer resort. Otherwise, many people would have been scared.

But even so, everyone in the summer resort knelt down in fear.

It was a kind of pressure from their souls, which made them feel fear in their bones. They quickly knelt down, not daring to resist at all.

He was an old man with slanted eyebrows, just like a great warrior in ancient times. He looked especially fierce and majestic. With the anger on his face now, he was like the Invincible fighter.

He was indeed very angry. After he knew about Bright's death, he could not control his wrath!

"Who killed him?!"

He looked coldly at the man kneeling in front of him.

The man looked up and said respectfully, "After we went to the hotel, we immediately sealed off the hotel, got their surveillance, and took the video back."

They started the video. It showed that Mr. Leo went into the hotel. Clarissa and Hua were also in. At the same time, Tom was also captured by camera... But of course, it was what Tom looked like after his disguise.

After watching the video, they all knew that the man who killed Mr. Leo was Tom in disguise. Although they did not see the fight, they could vaguely hear the sound of their conversation at that time and the name Tom which was mentioned.

Finally, the man carefully said, "Lord, according to the investigation, the murderer of Mr. Leo should be the most well-known man in the Secular World, Tom."

"Tom?"

When the old man heard the name, he frowned again. At the same time, his expression got particularly angry. He clenched his fists and made a cracking sound, which made him look especially frightening.

"Tom! How dare you!" His words were particularly sinister, and it was apparent that he hated Tom's guts.

His subordinate suggested, "Lord, this Tom is not simple. A while ago, he killed Adam in Country M. He was already at the peak of First Rank of God Becoming Level. It would be difficult to deal with him..."

The old man glared at him fiercely and said, "Of course, I know that there is also a considerable part of H Country's Great Momentum in him. If anyone can kill him, they can get this part! There are countless people who want to kill him now."

After a pause, he added, "But it's time for the Secret Realm to open. Tom will definitely go there himself. Then it will be his burial place!"

After he finished speaking, he even sneered a few times, looking particularly frightening.

After saying goodbye to Elliot and the others, Tom quickly got on the plane and flew to Y City.

It was no secret that he went to Y City this time. He had already informed Joseph and Albert.

He had a feeling that this war might come soon.

What kind of disaster would it be for the livings?

He felt extremely sad at the thought of that.

However, he could not control the course of history.

Now, his power was still too insignificant compared to the whole world, just like a small splash in this flood.

Anyway, since he couldn't change it, he might do his best to protect the people around him.

This was his wish and his responsibility.

After flying for two hours, Tom finally arrived in Y City. Returned to the capital again, his mood was different from before.

After arriving at Y City, he could clearly feel that the temperature in Y City was indeed much lower than that in H City in the south. It was winter, and the temperature was already below zero.

Of course, for him, this low temperature was nothing. His body was like a heater, and he wouldn't feel cold wearing a single piece of clothing.

So when he appeared at the airport wearing a short-sleeved shirt, he still attracted the attention of some people. After all, he looked strange compared to everyone around him wearing a jacket or a coat.

When he came out of the airport, he was about to take a taxi to Joseph's house. Suddenly, he heard a scream and looked over immediately. He saw a little girl on the road. A black car was driving towards her at a fast speed. She was about to be hit by the car.

At such a fast speed, once hit, the little girl would definitely die!

However, just as Tom was about to take action, he suddenly stopped, because he felt a man with strong power coming from behind the little girl. Then the man rushed to the little girl at a very fast speed and hugged the little girl.

However, the man did not leave immediately but remained where they were, staring at the black car rushing over at the high speed calmly.

It looked like he was too scared to move.

This scene made others nervous again, thinking that they were about to get hit.

With a loud bang, the black car hit this man hard!

But then, what happened made everyone present dumbfounded and unbelievable.

It was because the man was hit but he still stood there, not moving like a steel pillar stuck to the ground. Instead, the black car was smashed.

What was going on?

The question marks popped up in everyone's mind, and they were all confused.

Moreover, they all saw clearly that this man was actually wearing ancient clothes with long hair. The most ridiculous thing was that there was a very broad sword on his back. He looked like a master in a martial arts movie, not like a modern man.

In fact, there were a lot of people doing cosplay, but combined with what this young man just did now, everyone suddenly wondered if he was really a master from ancient times!

Tom was also surprised. "A Half-step God Becoming Level? His strength is not bad. When did such a powerful young man come to the country?"

Yes, Tom immediately realized that this young man was at Half-step God Becoming Level, and he was very strong. The aura he just showed was strong even compared with him!

This was a strong person who can match with a God Becoming Level.
